§ 1. The state of California hereby consents to the reservations created by the act of Congress, approved September twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled "An act to set apart a certain tract of land in the state of California as a public park," and the act of Congress, approved October first, eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled "An act to set apart certain tracts of land in the state of California as forest reservations," and no further sales of school lands within the exterior boundaries of the tracts so reserved, as aforesaid, shall be made by the state.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

See tits. Big Tree Groves; Forestry—State Board.

FORESTRY—STATE BOARD.

To provide for the regulation of fires on, and the protection and management of, public and private forest lands within the state of California, creating a state board of forestry and certain officers subordinate to said board, prescribing the duties of such officers, creating a forestry fund, and appropriating the moneys in said fund, and defining and providing for the punishment of certain offenses for violations of the provisions of this act, and making an appropriation therefor.

§ 1. State board of forestry.—There shall be a state board of forestry, consisting of the governor, secretary of state, attorney-general and state forester, which shall supervise all matters of state forest policy and management and convene upon the call of the governor or of its secretary.

§ 2. State forester and his duties.—There shall be a state forester, who shall be a civil executive officer, and who shall be a technically trained forester, appointed by the governor to hold office at the pleasure of the appointing power; and whether any candidate for the position is a technically trained forester shall be determined by certificate from the secretary of the United States department of agriculture, or from the department of forestry of the state university after such department is established. He shall receive a salary of twenty-four hundred dollars per annum, and shall be authorized and empowered to appoint two assistant foresters, whose salaries shall not exceed twelve hundred dollars each per annum. He shall maintain headquarters at the state capitol in an office provided by the secretary of state, and shall be allowed necessary office and contingent expenses. He and his assistants shall be paid reasonable traveling and field expenses which may be incurred in the necessary performance of their official duties. He shall act as secretary of the state board of forestry. He shall, under the supervision of the state board of forestry, execute all matters pertaining to forestry within the jurisdiction of the state; have charge of all fire wardens in the state, and direct and aid them in their duties; direct the protection and improvement of state parks and forests; collect data relative to forest destruction and conditions; take such action as is authorized by law to prevent and extinguish forest, brush, and grass fires; enforce all laws pertaining to forest and brush-covered land, and prosecute for any violation of such laws; co-operate with landowners, as described in section four of this act; and publish from time to time such information of forestry as he may deem wise. He shall prepare annually a report to the governor on the progress and condition of state forest work, and recommend therein plans for improving the state system of forest protection, management and replacement.

§ 3. Supervision and care of state parks.—The California Redwood Park and the Mount Hamilton Tract, together with all moneys heretofore or hereafter appropriated for the purchase of land for or care of said parks, tracts and stations, shall be in charge of the state board of forestry, said board to take the place of and forthwith shall have all the powers and duties now possessed in accordance with law by persons or commissions with regard to the state parks, tracts of land, and forest stations mentioned in this act, and also any forest or brush land which may hereafter become state property, or be placed definitely in the care of the state; and it is hereby further enacted that, if the government of the United States or any individual or corporation shall, at any time, donate or intrust to the state of California, for state park or state forest reserve purposes, any tract or tracts of wholly or partially wooded land, such tract or tracts of land shall be administered at the expense of the state, as provided by law.

§ 4. Co-operative work.—The state forester shall, upon request and whenever he deems it essential to the best interests of the people and the state, co-operate with counties, towns, corporations and individuals in preparing plans for the protection, management and replacement of trees, wood lots and timber tracts, on consideration and under an agreement that the parties obtaining such assistance pay at least the field expenses of the men employed in preparing said plans.

§ 5. Publication of laws and notices.—The state forester shall prepare and print for public distribution, an abstract of all the forest laws of California, together with such rules and regulations in accord therewith as he may deem necessary, and shall annually print and distribute a list of all fire wardens with their addresses, all such matter to be published with the approval of the state board of forestry. He shall also furnish notices, printed in large letters on cloth, calling attention to the danger from forest fires and to forest fire and trespass laws and their penalties. Such notices shall be posted by the fire wardens in conspicuous places along every highway in brush and forest covered country, at frequent intervals along streams and lakes frequented by tourists, hunters or fishermen, at established camping sites, and in every post-office in the forested region.

§ 6. Fire districts.—The state forester shall divide the state into such number of fire districts as shall be deemed by him most necessary to the efficiency of his work; and, furthermore, any county, or combination of less than four counties, shall be made a separate fire district, upon request of the county board or board of supervisors, in which case such special fire district shall pay the cost of maintaining its district fire warden.

§ 7. Duties of assistant foresters.—The duties of the assistant foresters shall be to devote their entire time to state forest interests according to rules and directions to be determined by the state forester, with the approval of the state board of forestry. They shall take prompt measures to prevent and extinguish forest fires; keep a record of the cause, extent and damage of all forest fires in their respective districts, and perform such other duties as the state forester may direct.

§ 8. Voluntary fire wardens and their duties.—The state forester shall appoint, in such number and localities as he deems wise, public-spirited citizens to act as voluntary fire wardens, who may receive payment for their services from the counties or from private sources. They shall promptly report all fires and take immediate and active steps toward their extinguishment, report any violation of the forest laws, assist in apprehending and convicting offenders, and perform such other duties as the state forester may direct. The supervisors and rangers on the federal forest reserve within this state, whenever they formally accept the duties and responsibilities of fire wardens, may be appointed as voluntary fire wardens, and shall have all the powers given to fire wardens by this act.

§ 9. Powers and requirements of fire wardens.—The state forester and all fire wardens shall have the powers of peace officers to make arrests without warrant, for violations of any state or federal forest laws, and no fire warden shall be liable to civil action for trespass committed in the discharge of his duties. Any fire warden who has information which would show, with reasonable certainty that any person had violated any provision of such forest laws, shall immediately take action against the offender, either by using his own powers as a peace officer or by making complaint before the proper magistrate, or by information to the proper district attorney, and shall obtain all possible evidence pertaining thereto. Failure on the part of any paid fire warden to comply with the duties prescribed by this act shall be a misdemeanor, and punishable by a fine of not less than twenty dollars, nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or imprisonment for not less than ten days nor more than three months, or both such fine and imprisonment, and the state forester is hereby authorized to investigate and prosecute such violations.

§ 10. Assistance of citizens in fighting fires.—All fire wardens shall have authority to call upon able-bodied citizens between the ages of sixteen and fifty years, for assistance in putting out fires, and any such person who refuses to obey such summons, unless prevented by good and sufficient reasons, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and must be fined in a sum not less than fifteen dollars, nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail of the county in which such conviction shall be had, not less than ten days, nor more than thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment; provided that no citizen shall be called upon to fight fire a total of more than five days in any one year.

§ 11. Fire patrol.—In times and localities of particular fire danger the state forester may maintain a fire patrol through the fire wardens, at such places in brush or forest land as the public interest may require, the expense of such patrol to be paid by the county in which such patrol is maintained; and, furthermore, he may, upon written request by counties, corporations or individuals, maintain a fire patrol on their forest lands, provided, that the expense of said patrol be paid by the party or parties requesting same.

§ 12. District attorneys to prosecute vigorously.—Whenever an arrest shall have been made for violation of any provision of this act, or whenever any information of such violation shall have been lodged with him, the district attorney of the county in which the criminal act was committed must prosecute the offender or offenders with all diligence and energy. If any district attorney shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars in the discretion of the court. Action against the district attorney shall be brought by the attorney-general in the name of the people of the state on the relation of the state forester. The penalties of this section shall apply to any magistrate, with proper authority, who refuses or neglects to cause the arrest and prosecution of any person or persons when complaint, under oath, of violation of any terms of this act has been lodged with him.

§ 13. Destruction of warning notices.—Any person who shall destroy, deface, remove or disfigure any sign, poster or warning notice posted under the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable, upon conviction, by a fine of not less than fifteen dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than ten days nor more than three months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 14. Wilfully, maliciously and negligently setting forest fires.—Every person, who wilfully, maliciously or negligently sets on fire or causes or procures to be set on fire any woods, brush, prairies, grass, grain or stubble on any lands not his own, or allows the fire to escape from his own land, whereby any property of another is injured or destroyed, or accidentally sets any such fire or allows it to escape from his control without extinguishing it or using every effort to extinguish it, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or imprisonment for not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment. Setting such fires or allowing them to escape shall be prima facie proof of wilfulness, malice or neglect under this section, provided, that nothing herein contained shall apply to a person who, in good faith, sets a back-fire to check a fire already burning.

§ 15. Extinguishment of camp-fires.—Every person who, upon departing from a camp or camping-place, leaves fire burning or unextinguished, or who after building such fire allows it to spread, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, with costs of suit and collection, one half of such fine or such a portion thereof as shall not exceed fifty dollars, to be paid to the person securing the arrest and conviction of such offender, and if the defendant refuses or neglects to pay the fine and costs imposed, he shall be confined in the county jail of the county in which conviction shall be had, for a period not to exceed one day for every two dollars of the fine imposed, or may be subject to both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 16. Restriction of use of fire in dry season.—It shall be unlawful during what is locally known as the "dry season," this to be considered as the period between May fifteenth and the first soaking rains of autumn or winter, for any person or persons to burn brush, stumps, logs, fallen timber, fallows, grass or forest-covered land, or blast wood with dynamite, powder or other explosives, or set off fireworks of any kind in forest or brush-covered land, either their own or the property of another, without written permission of and under the direction or supervision of a fire warden in that district; these restrictions not to apply to the ordinary use of fire or blasts in logging redwood, nor in cases where back-fires are set in good faith to stop an existing fire. Violation of these provisions shall be a misdemeanor, punishable, upon conviction, by a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 17. Engines in forest land.—Logging locomotives, donkey or threshing engines, and other engines and boilers operated in, through or near forests, brush or grass land, which do not burn oil as fuel, shall be provided with appliances to prevent the escape of fire and sparks from the smokestacks thereof, and with devices to prevent the escape of fire from ash-pans and fire-boxes. Failure to comply with these requirements shall be a misdemeanor, punishable, upon conviction, by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and any person violating any provision of this section shall be liable to a penalty of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, for every such violation, or imprisonment for not less than thirty days nor more than three months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 18. Civil liability for forest fires.—In addition to the penalties provided in sections fourteen, fifteen, sixteen and seventeen of this act, the United States, state, county, or private owners, whose property is injured or destroyed by such fires, may recover, in a civil action, double the amount of damages suffered if the fires occurred through wilfulness, malice or negligence; but if such fires were caused or escaped accidentally or unavoidably, civil action shall lie only for the actual damage sustained as determined by the value of the property injured or destroyed, and the detriment to the land and vegetation thereof. The presumption of wilfulness, malice or neglect shall be overcome, provided that the precautions set forth in section seventeen are observed; or, provided, under section sixteen, fires are set during the "dry season" with written permission of and under the direction of the district fire warden. Persons or corporations causing fires by violations of sections fourteen, fifteen, sixteen and seventeen of this act shall be liable to the state or county in action for debt, to the full amount of all expenses incurred by the state or county in fighting such fires.

§ 19. Clearing along county roads and land after lumbering.—Counties, along the county roads, in forest or brush land, shall, when so directed by the state forester, and in a manner and to an extent prescribed by him, cut and remove all brush, grass and inflammable material from their rights of way. If such clearing is not done within a reasonable time after notice, said time to be fixed by the state forester, the state forester shall have it done and the county shall be liable to the state in an action for debt to the amount of the expense thus incurred, and in addition thereto for the expense of any fire patrol rendered necessary by such delay. It is provided, further, that all lumber companies, corporations, or individuals shall, when so instructed by the state board of forestry, and at a time and in a manner prescribed by said board, carefully burn their slashings, by which is meant the tops, limbs, and general debris left after lumbering.

§ 20. Disposals of moneys received as penalties.—All moneys received as penalties for violations of the provisions of this act, less the cost of collection, and not otherwise provided for, shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the forestry fund, which fund is hereby created, and the moneys therein are hereby appropriated for purposes of forest protection, management and replacement under direction of the state board of forestry.

§ 21: Moneys for forest purposes.—County boards of supervisors may appropriate money for purposes of forest protection, improvement and management.

§ 22. Payment of expenses under this act.—There is hereby appropriated for the fifty-seventh and fifty-eighth fiscal years, the sum of seventeen thousand six hundred dollars ($17,600.00) for carrying out the provisions of this act, and for the payment of all salaries and expenses herein provided for.

§ 23. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

As to FIRES, see tit. Fire, ante.

A STATE BOARD OF FORESTRY was created by Act of 1885 (Stats. p. 10). By Act of 1887 (Stats. p. 46) the members of the board and assistants were given powers of peace officers, and certain moneys were appropriated. By Act of 1893 (Stats. 229, ch. CLXXXVII) those acts are repealed and the property accumulated was turned over to the agricultural department of the University of California. See post, tit. University.

FRANCHISES—BY SUPERVISORS.

To limit the time [relative to elections] within which franchises or privileges for the construction, extension, or operation of street railroads may be granted by boards of supervisors of the several counties, and cities and counties, of this state.

§ 1. It shall be unlawful for the board of supervisors of any county or city and county, within the ninety days next preceeding the date of holding a general election, and within the seventy days next immediately following, including the day of holding such general election, to authorize or pass any ordinance, order, or resolution granting to any person or persons, or association of persons, or corporation whatsoever, any privilege or franchise for the construction, extension, or operation of any street railroad, or extension of time for the construction or operation of any street railroad, over or upon any or part of any street, road, highways, squares, or park within the county or city and county.

§ 2. Any franchise or privilege granted, or attempted to be granted, in violation of, or contrary to, the provisions of this act shall be absolutely void and of no effect.

§ 3. All acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Except as to county boards of supervisors, it may be questioned if the foregoing is not superseded by Stats. 1897, 135, ch. CVII; 1901, 265, ch. CIII, and 1903, 90, ch.

LXXXII, although the limit of time prescribed by this act is not necessarily in conflict with the later acts, which make no mention of a period of time.

FRANCHISES—COUNTY AND MUNICIPAL.

Providing for the sale of street railroad and other franchises in counties and municipalities, and providing conditions for the granting of such franchises by legislative or other governing bodies, and repealing conflicting acts.

(Stats. 1905, 777, ch. DLXXVIII.)

§ 1. Every franchise or privilege to erect or lay telegraph or telephone wires, to construct or operate street or interurban railroads upon any public street or highway, to lay gas pipes for the purpose of carrying gas for heat and power, to erect poles or wires for transmitting electric heat and power along or upon any public street or highway, or to exercise any other privilege whatever hereafter proposed to be granted by boards of supervisors, boards of trustees, or common councils, or other governing or legislative bodies of any county, city and county, city or town within this state, except steam railroads and except telegraph or telephone lines doing an interstate business, and renewals of franchises for piers, chutes or wharves, shall be granted upon the conditions in this act provided, and not otherwise.

§ 2. An applicant for any franchise or privilege above mentioned shall file with the governing or legislative body of the county or municipality an application, and thereupon said governing body shall, in its discretion, advertise the fact of said application, together with a statement that it is proposed to grant the same, in one or more newspapers of the county, city and county, city or town wherein the said franchise or privilege is to be exercised. Said advertisement must state that bids will be received for such franchise, and that it will be awarded to the highest bidder, and the same must be published in such newspaper once a day for ten successive days, if it be a daily newspaper, and if there be no daily newspaper published in such county, city and county, city or town, then it shall be published in a weekly newspaper once a week for four successive weeks, and in either case the full publication must be completed not less than twenty nor more than thirty days before any further action can be taken thereon.

§ 3. The publication must state the character of the franchise or privilege proposed to be granted, the term for which it is granted, and, if it be a street railroad, the route to be traversed; that sealed bids therefor will be received up to a certain hour and day named therein, and that the successful bidder and his assigns must, during the life of said franchise, pay to the county or municipality two per centum (2%) of the gross annual receipts of the person, partnership or corporation to whom the franchise is awarded, arising from its use, operation or possession. No percentage shall be paid for the first five (5) years succeeding the date of the franchise, but thereafter such percentage shall be payable annually; and in the event said payment is not made, said franchise shall be forfeited; provided further, that if the franchise be a renewal of a right already in existence, the payment of said percentage of gross receipts shall begin at once.

§ 4. In case the franchise granted shall be an extension of an existing system of street railroad, then the gross receipts shall be estimated to be one half of the proportion of the total gross receipts of said system which the mileage of such extension bears to the total mileage of the whole system, and said estimate shall be conclusive as to the amount of the gross receipts of said extension.

§ 5. Said advertisement shall also contain a statement that the said franchise will be struck off, sold and awarded to the person, firm or corporation who shall make the highest cash bid therefor; provided, only, that at the time of the opening of said bids any responsible person, firm or corporation present or represented may bid for said franchise or privilege a sum not less than ten per centum above the highest sealed bid therefor, and said bid so made may be raised not less than ten per centum by any other responsible bidder, and said bidding may so continue until finally said franchise shall be struck off, sold, and awarded by said governing body to the highest bidder therefor in gold coin of the United States. Each sealed bid shall be accompanied with cash or a certified check, payable to the treasurer of such county or municipality, for the full amount of said bid, and no sealed bid shall be considered unless said cash or check is inclosed therewith and the successful bidder shall deposit, at least ten per centum of the amount of his bid with the clerk of such county or municipality before the franchise shall be struck off to him. And if he shall fail to make such deposit immediately, then and in that case, his bid shall not be received, and shall be considered as void, and the said franchise shall then and there be again offered for sale to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, subject to the same conditions as to deposit, as above mentioned. Said procedure shall be had until said franchise is struck off, sold, and awarded to a bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of at least ten per centum of the amount of his bid therefor, as herein provided. Said successful bidder shall deposit with the clerk of such county or municipality, within twenty-four hours of the acceptance of his bid, the remaining ninety per centum of the amount thereof, and in case he or it shall fail to do so, then the said deposit theretofore made, shall be forfeited, and the said award of said franchise shall be void, and the said franchise shall then and there, by said governing body, be again offered for sale to the highest bidder therefor, in the same manner, and under the same restriction as hereinbefore provided, and in case said bidder shall fail to deposit with the clerk of such county or municipality, the remaining ninety per centum of his bid, within twenty-four hours after its acceptance, the award to him of said franchise shall be set aside, and the deposit theretofore made by him shall be forfeited, and no further proceedings for a sale of said franchise shall be had unless the same shall be readvertised and again offered for sale, in the manner hereinbefore provided.

§ 6. Work to erect or lay telegraph or telephone wires, to construct street railroads, to lay gas pipes for the purpose of carrying gas for heat and power, to erect poles or wires for transmitting electric heat or power, along or upon any public street or highway, or to exercise any privilege whatever, a franchise for which shall have been granted in accordance with the terms of this act, shall be commenced in good faith within not more than four months from the granting of any such franchise, and if not so commenced within said time said franchise so granted shall be declared forfeited, and shall be completed within not more than three years thereafter, and if not so completed within said time said franchise so granted shall be forfeited; provided, that for good cause shown the governing or legislative body may by resolution extend the time for completion thereof, not exceeding three months.

§ 7. The successful bidder for any franchise or privilege struck off, sold, and awarded under this act shall file a bond running to said county, city and county, or city or town, with, at least, two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such governing body, in a penal sum by it to be prescribed, and set forth in the advertisement for bids, conditioned that such bidder shall well and truly observe, fulfil and perform each and every term and condition of such franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of such bond, the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages, and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties upon said bond. Said bond shall be filed with such governing body within five days after such franchise is awarded, and upon the filing and approval of such bond, the said franchise shall, by said governing or legislative body, be granted by ordinance to the person, firm or corporation to whom it has been struck off, sold, or awarded, and in case that said bond shall not be so filed, the award of such franchise shall be set aside, and any money paid therefor shall be forfeited, and said franchise shall, in the discretion of said governing or legislative body, be readvertised, and again offered for sale in the same manner, and under the same restrictions, as hereinbefore provided.

§ 8. It shall be the duty of the attorney-general, upon the complaint of any county or municipality, or, in his discretion, upon the complaint of any taxpayer, to sue for the forfeiture of any franchise granted under the terms of this act, for the non-compliance with any condition thereof.

§ 9. No clause or condition of any kind shall be inserted in any franchise or grant offered or sold under the terms of this act, which shall directly or indirectly restrict free and open competition in bidding therefor, and no clause or provision shall be inserted in any franchise offered for sale, which shall in any wise favor one person, firm or corporation, as against another, in bidding for the purchase thereof.

§ 10. Any member of any common council or other governing or legislative body of any county, city and county, city or town of this state, who, by his vote, violates or attempts to violate the provisions of this act, or any of them, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be punished therefor, as provided by law, and may be deprived of his office by the decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, after trial and conviction.

§ 11. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing, or amending the following acts, to wit: "An act relating to the granting by the counties and municipalities of franchise for the construction of paths and roads for the use of bicycles and other horseless vehicles," approved March twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven; "An act to authorize cities and towns to grant franchises for the construction and maintenance of railroads beyond the limits of such cities or towns leading to public parks owned thereby," being chapter forty of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven of the state of California.

[§ 12.] This act shall take effect immediately.

It is assumed that § 11 of this statute repeals Stats. 1901, 265, ch. CIII, and amendatory Stats. 1903, 90, ch. LXXXII. Stats. 1901, 265, repealed Stats. 1893, 288, as amended by Stats. 1897, 176.

FRANCHISES—ROADS BEYOND CITY.

To authorize cities and towns to grant franchises for the construction and maintenance of railroads beyonds the limits of such cities or towns leading to public parks owned thereby.

§ 1. It shall be lawful for the council, trustees, or other governing body of any city or town owning public parks situated outside of said city or town, to grant franchises for the building and operation of railroads from any point in, or at the exterior boundary of such city or town, to, in, or through such park, in the same manner and to the same extent as it now has power to grant the same for street railroads within the limits of such city or town; provided, that in addition to all other conditions, it shall be made a condition of such franchise that the fare of passengers on such road or roads shall never exceed five cents for a single trip.

§ 2. All railroads, except as otherwise provided in this act, authorized by this act to be so chartered shall be governed by the provisions of part four, title four, of the Civil Code of California, concerning street railroads and corporations, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto, and of all acts amendatory thereof. Also by the provisions of "An act providing for the sale of railroad and other franchises in municipalities and relative to the granting of franchises," approved March twenty-third, eighteen hundred and ninety-three.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

FRESNO COUNTY—JUDGES.

To facilitate the disposition of business in the superior court of Fresno County by the appointment and election of a third judge of said court.

(Stats. 1893, 125, ch. CIX.)

§ 1. The number of judges of the superior court of the county of Fresno is hereby increased from two to three, subject to the right of the legislature to repeal this act, as hereinafter provided.

§ 2. Within ten days after the passage of this act, the governor shall appoint one additional judge of the superior court of the county of Fresno, state of California, who shall hold office until the first Monday after the first day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and ninety-five. At the next general election a judge of the superior court of said county of Fresno shall be elected in said county to succeed the judge so appointed, and the judge so elected shall hold such office for the term prescribed by the constitution and by law, subject to the right of the legislature of said state, hereby reserved, to abolish the office of said third judge whenever, in the judgment of said legislature, the public interest no longer requires it.

§ 3. The salary of said additional judge shall be the same in amount, and shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner, as the salary of the other judges of said court in said county, as now authorized by law.

§ 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

See next following statute.

FRESNO COUNTY—JUDGES.

To increase the number of judges of the superior court of the county of Fresno, state of California, and for the appointment of an additional judge.

(Stats. 1887, 57, ch. XLVIII.)

§ 1. The number of the judges of the superior court of the county of Fresno, state of California, is hereby increased from one to two.

§ 2. Within ten days after the passage of this act, the governor shall appoint one additional judge of the superior court of the county of Fresno, state of California, who shall hold office until the first Monday after the first day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and eighty-nine. At the next general election, one judge of the superior court of said county shall be elected in said county, who shall be the successor of the judge appointed hereunder, to hold office for the term prescribed by the constitution and by law.

§ 3. The salary of said additional judge shall be the same in amount, and paid at the same time and in the same manner, as the salary of the other judge of the superior court of said county now authorized by law.

§ 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

See next following statute and note.

FRESNO COUNTY—REDUCTION OF JUDGES.

To reduce the number of judges of the superior court of the county of Fresno from three to two.

See tit. Boundaries.

FRUIT—MARKS AND BRANDS.

An act to provide for the marking, branding, or labeling of boxes, barrels, or packages containing fruits, fresh or dried, and fixing a penalty for the violation thereof, and for the appointment of inspectors under its provisions.

(Stats. 1903, 338, ch. CCLI.)

§ 1. All fruit green or dried, contained in boxes, barrels, or packages, which shall hereafter be shipped or offered for shipment in this state by any person, firm, or corporation, shall have stamped, branded, stenciled, or labeled in a conspicuous place on the outside of every such box, barrel, or package, in clearly legible letters at least one quarter of an inch in height, a statement truly and correctly designating the county and immediate locality in which such fruit was grown.

§ 2. Any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions or requirements of section one of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than two hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars.

§ 3. The governor of the state of California, after the passage of this act, shall appoint such inspectors as may be necessary to accomplish the purpose of this act, to serve without compensation, who are hereby vested with full authority to enter any car or depot containing fruit for shipment; or any warehouse, packing-house, store-room, or other place or places where any fruit is kept, packed or prepared for shipment, to inspect the same, or any part thereof. Such inspectors are also vested with full authority to examine such books of any person, firm, or corporation engaged in packing or shipping fruit as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this act.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately on and after its passage.

GAS COMPANIES.

Concerning gas companies.

(Stats. 1869-70, 815, ch. DXLVII.)

§ 1. From and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for the corporate authorities of every city and town in this state, and for the supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco, to grant to any gas company the privilege of laying down pipes in the streets or alleys of such towns and cities, including San Francisco, as aforesaid, and supplying gas for the lighting of the streets and buildings thereon; such privilege to continue for a term not exceeding twenty-five years.

§ 2. Every such license or privilege shall be upon condition that the authorities shall have the right at any time to allow similar privileges to other companies; and upon the further condition, that the laying down of such pipes shall be subject to the reasonable direction of said authorities, and shall do as little injury as possible to the paving, planking or macadamizing of the streets and alleys aforesaid; and that whenever the paving, planking or macadamizing of such streets or alleys is displaced for the purpose of laying down pipes or removing the same, or making connections therewith or repairs thereto, such paving, planking or macadamizing shall be replaced in as good order as practicable by such company.

§ 3. The authorities of every such town or city, including San Francisco as aforesaid, may contract with any gas company for lighting the streets thereof; but no such contract shall be made at a fixed rate for a longer term than five years, nor at a variable or other rate for a longer term than ten years; nor shall any such contract be made at a higher rate than that now paid in the city of San Francisco.

§ 4. In addition to the foregoing provisions, the authorities of such towns and cities shall affix to every license or contract such conditions as will be for the benefit of the public, and may secure their enforcement by any orders or ordinances which they may deem necessary. They may, also, control the location and construction of the works so that they may be erected in suitable localities to give the least discomfort or annoyance to the public.

The foregoing statute is treated as in force.—See Dobbins vs. City of Los Angeles, 139 Cal. 179-183, 96 Am. St. Rep. 95, 72 Pac. Rep. 970.

GAS—CONSUMERS OF.

To regulate the use of illuminating gas.

(Stats. 1903, 289, ch. CCXXXVI.)

§ 1. Every hotelkeeper, lodging-house keeper, and innkeeper, or keeper of any place where rooms are let to lodgers in which, or any of which such places illuminating gas is used, who shall turn off, or cause to be turned off at the meter the flow of such illuminating gas, during the time of the use of any such room or rooms, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, however, that this act shall not apply to any of the persons herein enumerated, when such person or persons shall have connected every exit orifice upon the gas fixtures used in such place or places with a practical and safe automatic gas igniter.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately from and after its passage.

GIFTS, BEQUESTS, ETC.—TO MUNICIPALITIES.

To authorize the several counties, cities and counties, cities, and towns of this state, and the officers and boards of officers thereof, to receive property by gift, bequest, and devise, and to hold, manage, and dispose of such property, and the income and increase thereof.

(Stats. 1881, 2, ch. III.)

§ 1. The boards of common council, supervisors, trustees, houses of legislation, or other legislative bodies of the several counties, cities and counties, cities, and towns of this state, are hereby authorized to accept or reject, as they may deem advisable, any gift, bequest, or devise heretofore or that may be hereafter made to or in favor of the counties, cities and counties, cities, or towns represented by them respectively, or to or in favor of any of the officers or boards of officers thereof, in their official capacity, or to or in their favor in trust for any lawful public purpose.

§ 2. The several counties, cities and counties, cities, and towns of this state, and the several officers and boards of officers thereof, in their official capacity, are hereby authorized to receive property by gift, bequest, and devise, and to hold and dispose of the same, and the income and increase thereof, to and for such lawful uses and purposes as have been or may hereafter be prescribed in the terms of such gift, bequest, or devise. In the event of any such gift, bequest, or devise having been, or being hereafter made, unaccompanied by any provision prescribing or limiting the uses or purposes to which the property received thereunder, or the income or increase thereof shall be put, such uses and purposes may be prescribed and regulated by the common council, board of supervisors, board of trustees, houses of legislation, or other legislative body of the proper county, city and county, city, or town. Such legislative bodies may make such regulations concerning the mode and manner of carrying into effect the purposes as aforesaid, and devoting the property so received, and the income and increase thereof, to the uses aforesaid, in their respective counties, cities and counties, cities, and towns, as may be necessary.

GLENN COUNTY—CREATING.

To create the county of Glenn, to establish the boundaries thereof, and to provide for its organization.

(Stats. 1891, 98, ch. XCIV.)

§ 1. There may be formed out of the northern part of Colusa County, a new county, to be called Glenn, in the manner and subject to the conditions herein named.

§ 2. The boundaries of said county shall be as follows: Beginning at a point on the boundary line between the counties of Colusa and Lake, as now established by law, at the northwest corner of the southwest quarter of section thirty, township eighteen north, range eight west, Mount Diablo base and meridian; running thence east along the half-section line, and one and one half miles north of the line dividing townships seventeen and eighteen north, of Mount Diablo base and meridian, to Butte Creek, the boundary line between Colusa and Butte counties; thence northerly along said Butte Creek, with said county line, to a point where the north line of township nineteen north intersects said Butte Creek; thence westerly along the boundary line between the counties of Butte and Colusa as now established by law, to the center of the Sacramento River; thence northerly, and following the meanderings thereof, along the center of said Sacramento River, to a point where the north line of township twenty-two intersects the center of the Sacramento River, being the initial point of Tehama County, as established by law; thence west along the north line of township twenty-two north, to the southwest corner of Tehama County, as established in section three thousand nine hundred and fifteen of the Political Code; thence southerly on the summit of the Coast Range Mountains, on the established line between Mendocino and Lake and Colusa counties, to the place of beginning.

§ 3. The seat of justice of said county of Glenn shall be at the town of Willows, until otherwise provided by law.

§ 4. There shall be held an election for county officers of said county on the first Tuesday in May, A. D. eighteen hundred and ninety-one, at which shall be elected a judge of the superior court, county clerk, sheriff, tax collector, treasurer, recorder, auditor, district attorney, assessor, superintendent of schools, county surveyor, coroner, public administrator, and five supervisors. At said election there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said county of Glenn, as hereinafter described, the question whether they desire a separate county government; and, for the purpose of ascertaining the choice of said electors, the ballots used at said election shall have, written, or printed thereon, the words "For New County," "Against New County;" and all ballots from which the words "Against New County" are erased, shall be counted in favor of such separate county government; and all ballots from which the words "For New County" are erased, shall be counted against such separate county government. Said election shall be conducted in every respect, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, in accordance with the general law for the election of county and township officers.

§ 5. The governor shall, when this act takes effect, appoint five persons, residents and electors of the county of Glenn, who shall be and constitute a board of commissioners to perfect the organization of said county, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum. Said commissioners shall meet in the town of Willows, within twenty days after their appointment, and after being duly sworn to faithfully discharge their duties as prescribed in this act, shall organize by electing one of their number as president, and shall elect a clerk. The clerk shall keep a record of their proceedings. Three of the number of said board shall be necessary to transact business, and a majority of the votes of the members present at any meeting shall control in all matters coming before it.

§ 6. For the purpose of designating the several election precincts in the said county, the said board of commissioners shall meet at the town of Willows two weeks before the day of election, and at said meeting they shall designate the precincts of the county, the house or place within the precincts where the election must be held, and the offices to be filled; and appoint two inspectors, two judges of election, and two clerks for each of said precincts.

§ 7. The said board of commissioners, after designating the precincts of the county, and appointing the inspectors, judges, and clerks of the different precincts, shall give notice thereof by posting a written or printed notice in each of the said precincts, stating therein the boundaries of said precincts, and the names of the inspectors, judges, and clerks of election appointed for the same, and naming and numbering in numerical order, commencing with number one, the offices to be filled, and stating, also, that at said election there will be submitted to the qualified voters within the said county of Glenn the question of the final establishment of the said county.

§ 8. Sealed returns from the officers of election of the several precincts shall be made to the board of commissioners, at such office as they may select in the town of Willows, within six days after the said day of election. On the sixth day after the said election, the said board of commissioners shall meet in the town of Willows, in said county, and the returns of said election shall be opened and read in public, and a tabular statement shall thereupon be made, under their direction and in their presence, showing the vote given at each precinct of the county, for each candidate for the several offices, and the entire vote given in the county for each person, and also the vote for and against a separate county government; which said statement, so made out, shall be signed by the president and clerk of said board.

§ 9. As soon as the said statement is made, the said board, by an order entered upon its minutes, shall declare the result; and if a majority of those voting upon the question shall have voted in favor of a separate county government, the president of said board shall immediately make out and send, or deliver, to each person chosen, a certificate of election, signed by him as president of the board of commissioners and attested by the clerk of said board.

§ 10. Each person elected to fill an office of said county under the provisions of this act, shall qualify in the manner provided by law for such officers, and shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office within twenty days after the receipt of the certificate of his election. The person elected as judge of the superior court shall qualify before the president of said board of commissioners; and persons elected to offices of said county, other than the office of judge of the superior court, shall qualify before the judge of the superior court, or before the president of said board of commissioners, which said president of said board of commissioners, for said purpose, shall have power to administer to each of said persons his official oath.

§ 11. The president of said board of commissioners shall transmit a copy of the tabular statement, prepared as provided in section eight of this act, to the secretary of state within twenty days after said election. The election returns of said county, and the original tabular statement, shall be retained by the president of said board of commissioners until the person elected as clerk of said county has qualified and entered upon the discharge of the duties of his office, after which they, with all the records of said board of commissioners, shall be immediately deposited with and filed by the clerk of said county, and shall be retained by him as part of the records of his office.

§ 12. The judge of the superior court chosen under the provisions of this act shall hold his office until the first Monday in January, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and until his successor is elected and qualified. The other officers hereinabove enumerated shall hold their respective offices until the first Monday in January, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-three, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The successors of the officers elected under this act shall be chosen at the general election established by law, which takes place next preceding the expiration of their respective terms of office.

§ 13. As soon as the said county of Glenn shall have been divided into townships and road districts, in the manner provided by law, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors thereof to appoint for each township two justices of the peace and two constables, and for each road district a road overseer. Said justices, constables, and road overseer shall each, respectively, hold his office until the next general election, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

§ 14. The officers elected and appointed under the provisions of this act shall each perform the duties and receive the compensation now provided by general law for the office to which he has been elected or appointed, in counties of the class to which the said county of Glenn belongs, under the general classification of counties in this state; and until otherwise provided by law, said county shall be classified as a county of the thirty-seventh class.

§ 15. If, at said election, a majority of the votes cast, on the question of a separate county government, shall be "For New County," then the said territory hereinabove described shall be and become a separate county from and after the day upon which the returns of the said election shall be ascertained and declared by the said board of commissioners.

§ 16. The said county of Glenn shall form a part of assembly district number ten, and senatorial district number eight, until otherwise provided by law.

GOLDEN CITY HOMESTEAD ASSOCIATION.

To authorize the sale and conveyance to the Golden City Homestead Association of certain overflowed lands in the city and county of San Francisco.

(Stats. 1863-4, 463, ch. CCCCVII.)

§ 1. The commissioners of swamp and overflowed lands are authorized, whenever requested by the officers of the Golden City Homestead Association, to appraise the value of the lands belonging to the state in front of the lands of said association at the Potrero Nuevo, in the city and county of San Francisco, commencing at the boundary of the lands of said association as shown by the map and survey of the said Potrero Nuevo made by William J. Lewis, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and extending in an easterly direction to the easterly line of Massachusetts Street, as shown by said map; and said board of swamp-land commissioners shall certify the amount found to be the value of said land to the treasurer of the state, and also to the surveyor-general. And upon the approval of the survey of the county surveyor by the surveyor-general, and upon the payment to the treasurer of the state, to the credit of the wharf and dock fund, of the amount so found to be the value of said land, the register of the state land office shall certify said approval and payment to the governor, whereupon a patent shall issue for said land to said corporation.

§ 2. Within thirty days after the appraisalment by said commissioners, the surveyor of the city and county of San Francisco shall make out a plat and field-notes of said survey. He shall, within ten days thereafter, record the same in his office, and forward duplicate certified copies of the same to the surveyor-general, and it shall be the duty of the surveyor-general, upon examination and approval of said survey, to return one of the duplicate copies, with his approval indorsed thereon, to said county surveyor, to be by him delivered to the parties desiring the survey; provided, said approval and return of duplicate shall be within ten days after the receipt of said plat and field-notes.

§ 3. All expenses attending said appraisalment by the commissioners, together with all the costs incident to an accurate survey of the said lands by the surveyor of the city and county of San Francisco, shall be paid by said association.

§ 4. The said association or its assigns shall not have the power to make any use of said lands or any part thereof that shall interfere with the navigation of the bay of San Francisco; provided, that neither the said association, nor its employees, agents, successors, or assigns, shall have any right to levy or collect any tolls, dockage, or wharfage on said lands.

§ 1. The sum of five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated from any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of procuring metallic guide-posts, upon which are to be indicated the distance and direction from said posts, the location of wells, springs, or tanks of water fit for drinking purposes and other information of value, in the desert sections of California, particularly in the counties of Kern, Ventura, Los Angeles, Inyo, Riverside, San Bernardino and San Diego; providing, however, that each of said counties, (for its own county) shall bear the expense of the proper erection of said guide-posts at such points in the county as may be designated by the department of highways, and shall pay all expenses attendant upon the placing of said posts, as well as the expense incurred in placing the directions above mentioned upon said posts.

§ 2. The purchase and distribution of such posts is hereby placed under the management and control of the department of highways of the state of California, and it is made the duty of said department of highways to designate the points at which said posts shall be placed. Said posts shall be at least ten feet in length and shall be made of not less than two-inch nor more than three-inch iron pipe, to be set in metallic crosspieces of such size and to be sunk in the earth at such depth as will insure proper anchorage. Said posts shall have iron cross-arms on which shall be affixed metallic letters stating the information mentioned in section one of this act.

§ 3. Any person removing, defacing or in any manner injuring said guide-posts shall be deemed guilty of a felony.

§ 4. The state controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant in favor of the highway commissioner for the sum of five thousand dollars and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

HEALTH—PLUMBING.

To grant to boards of health or health officers, in cities, and cities and counties, the power to regulate the plumbing and drainage of buildings, and to provide for the registration of plumbers.

§ 1. It shall not be lawful for any person to carry on business, or labor as a master or journeyman plumber, in any incorporated city, or in any city and county, in this state until he shall have obtained from the board of health of said city or city and county a license authorizing him to carry on business, or labor as such mechanic. A license so to do shall be issued only after a satisfactory examination by the board of each applicant upon his qualifications to conduct such business or to so labor. All applications for license, and all licenses issued, shall state the name in full, age, nativity, and place of residence of the applicant or person so licensed. It shall be the duty of the secretary of each board of health to keep a record of all such licenses issued, together with an alphabetical index to the same. [Amendment, Stats. 1887, 58.]

§ 2. A list of all licensed plumbers shall be published in the yearly report of the health officer or board of health. [Amendment, Stats. 1887, 58.]

§ 3. The drainage and plumbing of all buildings, both public and private, hereafter erected in any city, or city and county, shall be executed in accordance with plans previously approved in writing by the board of health of said city, or city and county; and suitable drawings and description of the said drainage and plumbing shall, in each case, be submitted to the board of health, and placed on file in the health office. The said board of health is also authorized to receive and place on file drawings and descriptions of the drainage and plumbing of buildings erected prior to the passage of this act.

§ 4. The board of supervisors, or other city, or city and county, officials whose duty it is to make appropriations and tax levies for general purposes of such city, or city and county, shall make the necessary appropriations and tax levies, and shall insert the same in the yearly tax levy, to provide for carrying out the provisions of this act. Such appropriations and levy shall be made at the same time and in the same manner as appropriations and tax levies are made for other city, or city and county, purposes.

§ 5. In any city, or city and county, where there is under existing laws, a health officer, but no board of health, such health officer shall perform all the duties required by this act of the board of health until a board of health shall be created, and in any city, or city and county, where there is no health officer nor board of health, the board of supervisors or city council, or other municipal legislative board or body, shall create a board of health, who shall perform all the duties required by this act of the board of health or health officer.

§ 6. Any superior court, or judge thereof, shall have power to restrain by injunction the continuance of work to be done upon or about buildings or premises where the provisions of this act have not been complied with, and no undertaking shall be required as a condition to the granting or issuing of such injunction, or by reason thereof.

§ 7. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished accordingly.

HEALTH—PUBLIC.

To protect public health from infection caused by exhumation and removal of the remains of deceased persons.

§ 1. It shall be unlawful to disinter or exhume from a grave, vault, or other burial-place, the body or remains of any deceased person, unless the person or persons so doing shall first obtain, from the board of health, health officer, mayor, or other head of the municipal government of the city, town, or city and county where the same are deposited a permit for said purpose. Nor shall such body or remains disinterred, exhumed, or taken from any grave, vault, or other place of burial or deposit, be removed or transported in or through the streets or highways of any city, town, or city and county, unless the person or persons removing or transporting such body or remains shall first obtain, from the board of health or health officer (if such board or officer there be), and from the mayor or other head of the municipal government of the city or town, or city and county, a permit, in writing, so to remove or transport such body or remains in and through such streets and highways.

§ 2. Permits to disinter or exhume the bodies or remains of deceased persons, as in the last section, may be granted, provided the person applying therefor shall produce a certificate from the coroner, the physician who attended such deceased person, or other physician in good standing cognizant of the facts, which certificate shall state the cause of death or disease of which the person died, and also the age and sex of such deceased; and provided further, that the body or remains of the deceased shall be inclosed in a metallic case or coffin, sealed in such manner as to prevent, as far as practicable, any noxious or offensive odor or effluvia escaping therefrom, and that such case or coffin contains the body or remains of but one person, except where infant children of the same parent or parents, or parent and children, are contained in such case or coffin. And the permit shall contain the above conditions and the words: "Permit to remove and transport the body of ————, age ————, sex ————," and the name, age and sex shall be written therein. The officer of the municipal government of the city or town, or city and county, granting such permit, shall require to be paid for each permit the sum of ten dollars, to be kept as a separate fund by the treasurer, and which shall be used in defraying expenses of and in respect to such permits, and for the inspection of the metallic cases, coffins, and inclosing boxes herein required; and an account of such moneys shall be embraced in the accounts and statements of the treasurer having the custody thereof.

§ 3. Any person or persons who shall disinter, exhume, or remove, or cause to be disinterred, exhumed, or removed, from a grave, vault, or other receptacle, or burial-place, the body or remains of a deceased person, without a permit therefor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by fine not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Nor shall it be lawful to receive such body, bones, or remains on any vehicle, car, barge, boat, ship, steamship, steamboat, or vessel, for transportation in or from this state, unless the permit to transport the same is first received, and is retained in evidence by the owner, driver, agent, superintendent, or master of the vehicle, car, or vessel.

§ 4. Any person or persons who shall move or transport, or cause to be moved or transported, on or through the streets or highways of any city or town, or city and county, of this state, the body or remains of a deceased person, which shall have been disinterred or exhumed without a permit, as described in section two of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punishable as provided in section three of this act.

§ 5. Any person who shall give information to secure the conviction of any person or persons for the violation of the provisions of this act shall be entitled to receive the sum of twenty-five dollars, to be paid from the fund collected from fines imposed and accruing under this act.

§ 6. Nothing in this act contained shall be taken to apply to the removal of the remains of deceased persons from one place of interment to another cemetery or place of interment within this state; provided, that no permit shall be issued for the disinterment or removal of any body unless such body has been buried for one year or more without the written consent of the mayor, chairman of the board of supervisors or city council of any municipality of the state. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 139.]

§ 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from the thirtieth day after its passage and approval.

HEALTH—PUBLIC.

To prevent the introduction of contagious or infectious diseases into the state of California.

(Stats. 1883, 376, ch. XC.)

§ 1. Whenever there shall exist, in the opinion of the state board of health, imminent danger of the introduction of contagious or infectious diseases into the state of California, by means of railroad communication with other states, the said state board of health are authorized, and it is hereby made their duty, to make or cause to be made, by an accredited agent or inspector, an inspection of all railroad cars, coming into the state at such point, or between such points within the state limits as may be selected for the purpose.

§ 2. Such inspection shall be made, where practicable, during the ordinary detention of a train at a station, or while in transit between stations, and in all cases shall be so conducted as to occasion the least possible detention or interruption of travel or inconvenience to the railroad companies, so far as consistent with the purposes of this act.

§ 3. Should the discovery be made of the existence among the passengers of any case or cases of dangerous, contagious, or infectious disease, the said board of health, or their agent or inspector, under rules and conditions prescribed by them as being applicable to the nature of the disease, shall have power to cause the side-tracking or detention of any car or cars so infected, to isolate the sick or remove them to a suitable place of treatment, to establish a suitable refuge station, to cause the passengers and materials in such infected car to be subjected to disinfection and cleansing before proceeding farther into the state, and, in the case of smallpox, to offer free vaccination to all persons exposed in any car or at any station.

§ 4. The sum of five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended solely for the purposes of this act, and all expenditures herein authorized shall be specified in an itemized account to be presented to the state board of examiners, and paid as other demands on the treasury are paid; provided, that in no case shall the sum expended exceed that herein specially appropriated for the purpose.

HEALTH—PUBLIC.

To prevent the introduction, and provide for the investigation and suppression of contagious or infectious diseases, and appropriating money to be used for such purpose.

(Stats. 1903, 255, ch. CCXVIII.)

§ 1. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended by the state board of health, under the direction of the governor, for the prevention of the introduction of Asiatic cholera, bubonic plague, smallpox or other contagious or infectious disease into this state, and for their investigation and suppression in case of their origin or introduction. The claims for such expenditures must be audited by the board of examiners, except that when, in the opinion of the governor, an emergency arises which demands or necessitates the immediate use of money for the purposes herein provided, the controller must draw his warrant in the name of the governor, without such audit, on account of the sum hereby appropriated, upon the order of the governor, in such sums, from time to time, not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) at any one time, as he may direct. In cases where sums are so drawn upon the order of the governor, without audit by the board of examiners, vouchers must be thereafter filed with the controller, showing the manner and the purposes for which such sums have been expended.

§ 2. This act takes effect immediately.

HEALTH, PUBLIC—VACCINATION.

To encourage and provide for a general vaccination in the state of California.

(Stats. 1889, 32, ch. XXIV.)

directed to exclude from the benefits of the common schools therein any child or any person who has not been vaccinated, until such time when said child or person shall be successfully vaccinated; provided, that any practising and licensed physician may certify that the child or person has used due diligence and cannot be vaccinated so as to produce a successful vaccination, whereupon such child or person shall be excepted from the operation of this act.

§ 2. The trustees or local boards, annually, or at such special times to be stated by the state board of health, must give at least ten days' notice, by posting a notice in two or more public or conspicuous places within their jurisdiction, that provision has been made for the vaccination of any child of suitable age who may desire to attend the common schools, and whose parents or guardians are pecuniarily or otherwise unable to procure vaccination for such child.

§ 3. The said trustees or board must, within sixty days after the passage of this act, and every year thereafter, ascertain the number of children or persons in their respective school districts or subdivision of the city school government being of an age suitable to attend common schools, who have not been already vaccinated, and make a list of the names of all such children or persons. It also shall be [the] duty of said trustees or board to provide, for the vaccination of all such children or persons in their respective school districts, a good and reliable vaccine virus wherewith to vaccinate such children or persons who have not been vaccinated. And when so vaccinated, to give a certificate of vaccination, which certificate shall be evidence thereof for the purpose of complying with section one.

§ 4. The necessary expenses incurred by the provisions of this act shall be paid out of the common school moneys apportioned to the district, city, or town. And if there be not sufficient money, the trustees must notify the board of supervisors of the amount of money necessary, and the board must, at the time of levying the county tax, levy a tax upon the taxable property in the district sufficient to raise the amount needed. The rate of taxation is ascertained by deducting fifteen per centum for delinquencies from the assessment, and the rate must be based upon the remainder. The tax so levied must be computed and entered upon the assessment roll by the county auditor, and collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the district.

§ 5. The trustees of the several school districts of this state are hereby required to include in their annual report, and report to the secretary of the state board of health, the number in their several districts between the ages of five and seventeen years who are vaccinated, and the number unvaccinated.

HIGH SCHOOL BOARDS.

Relative to the meeting place of high school boards within municipal corporations.

(Stats. 1901, 296, ch. CXXXVI.)

§ 1. Where high schools are situated within the limits of a municipal corporation, the meetings of the high school board may be held at the high school building, or at the meeting place provided for the board of education of such municipal corporation, as shall be determined by resolution adopted by said high school board.

HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

The Statutes of 1891, 57, ch. LXIII, and 182, ch. CXXXVII, purported to authorize municipalities of more than 1,500 inhabitants to maintain a high school or union high schools. Provisions of the statute were held unconstitutional in McCabe vs. Carpenter, 102 Cal. 469, 36 Pac. Rep. 836; Board of Education vs. Board of Trustees, 129 Cal. 599, 601-603, 62 Pac. Rep. 173. HIGH SCHOOLS—FUND.

Creating a fund for the benefit and support of high schools and providing for its distribution, and repealing an act entitled "An act creating a fund for the benefit and support of high schools and providing for its distribution," approved March second, nineteen hundred and three.

§ 1. There is hereby levied annually for the fifty-fifth and fifty-sixth fiscal years, ending respectively June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and four, and June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and five, an ad valorem tax of one and one half cents upon every hundred dollars of the value of the taxable property of the state, which tax shall be collected by the several officers charged with the collection of state taxes, in the same manner and at the same time as other state taxes are collected, upon all and any class of property, which tax is for the support of regularly established high schools of the state. And it is further enacted that, beginning with the fifty-seventh fiscal year, to wit: July first, nineteen hundred and five, it shall be the duty of the state controller, annually, between the tenth day of August and the first day of September, at the time that he is required to estimate the amount necessary for other school taxes, to estimate the amount necessary to be levied for the support of high schools. This amount he shall estimate by determining the amount required at fifteen dollars per pupil in average daily attendance in all the duly established high schools of the state for the last preceding school year, as certified to him by the state superintendent of public instruction. This amount the state controller, between the dates above given, must certify to the state board of equalization.

§ 2. The state board of equalization at the time when it annually determines and fixes the rate of state taxes to be collected, must declare the levy and the rate of tax for the support of state high schools in conformity with the provisions of section one of this act.

§ 3. The money collected as provided in sections one and two hereof, after deducting the proportionate share of expenses of collecting the same to which other taxes are subject, must be paid into the state treasury, to be by the state treasurer converted into a separate fund, hereby created, to be called the "State High School Fund."

§ 4. The money paid into the state high school fund is hereby appropriated without reference to fiscal years for the use and support of regularly established state high schools and is exempt from the provisions of part three, title one, article eighteen, of an act entitled "An act to establish a Political Code," approved March twelfth, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, relating to the state board of examiners.

§ 5. The money in said state high school fund shall be apportioned to the high schools of the state by the state superintendent of public instruction in the following manner: He shall apportion one third of the annual amount among the county, district, city, union, or joint union high schools of the state, irrespective of the number of pupils enrolled or in average daily attendance therein, except as hereinafter provided; the remaining two thirds of the annual amount he shall apportion among such schools pro rata upon the basis of average daily attendance as shown by the official reports of the county or city and county school superintendents for the last preceding school year; provided, that such high schools have been organized under the law of the state, or have been recognized as existing under the high school laws of the state and have maintained the grade of instruction required by law of the high schools: and provided, that no school shall be eligible to a share of said state high school fund that has not during the last preceding school year employed at least two regularly certificated high school teachers for a period of not less than one hundred and eighty days with not less than twenty pupils in average daily attendance for such length of time, except in newly established high schools wherein the minimum average daily attendance for the first year of one hundred and eighty days may be but twelve pupils and but one teacher; and provided, that before receiving state aid, each school shall furnish satisfactory evidence to the superintendent of public instruction of the possession of a reasonably good equipment of building, laboratory, and library, and of having maintained, the preceding school year, proper high school instruction for a term of at least one hundred and eighty days; provided further, that the foregoing provisions relating to the average daily attendance and the number of teachers employed shall not operate to disqualify any legally established high school existing at the date of the passage of this act from receiving a share of said state high school fund until July first, nineteen hundred and four.

§ 6. The principal of every high school entitled to state aid in accord with the foregoing provisions shall annually at the close of the term and prior to receiving his last month's salary and as a prerequisite for such salary make out under oath and deliver to the county superintendent of the county or city and county wherein such high school is situated a full and complete report of said high school for the entire term or school year; such report to show the number of pupils enrolled, the average daily attendance, number of teachers regularly employed, the courses of instruction pursued, and such other information as may be required by the superintendent of public instruction and the county superintendent of schools, the said report to be made upon blanks furnished by said superintendent of public instruction as other school report blanks are furnished; provided, that in the case of joint union high school districts the principals thereof shall report as above required to county superintendents of each of the counties having territory within such joint union high school districts, and in such reports the statistics of attendance and other data for each county separately and collectively shall be given.

§ 7. The county superintendent of every county, or city and county, wherein is located a high school, or the building or buildings of a joint union high school, shall annually, at the time required for making reports of primary and grammar schools, make report under oath to the superintendent of public instruction, showing the number of pupils enrolled, average daily attendance, number of teachers regularly employed, and such other information regarding the high schools of his county, or city and county, as he may deem proper, or as may be required by the superintendent of public instruction; said report to be made upon blanks furnished by the superintendent of public instruction.

§ 8. It shall be the duty of the county or city and county superintendent of schools of every county, or city and county, wherein is located a high school, or the building or buildings of a joint union high school, on the order of the board of trustees of such high school, to draw his requisition upon the county auditor against the funds of such high school, but no requisition shall be drawn unless the money is in the fund to pay it, and no requisition shall be drawn upon the order of the board of high school trustees or board of education against the state high school fund, except for teachers' salaries, and the order shall state the monthly salary of the teacher, and name the month or months for which such salary is due. Upon the receipt of such requisition the auditor shall draw his warrant upon the county treasurer in favor of the parties for the amount stated in such requisition, and the county treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the same.

§ 9. High schools eligible to receive state aid as herein provided shall admit as students only such pupils as have completed the full course of instruction prescribed for the primary and grammar schools of the county, city or city and county wherein the high school is located, or an equivalent course, or such pupils as may show by thorough examination that their qualifications are equivalent to the requirements for graduation from said primary and grammar school course; provided, that pupils otherwise qualified to enter a high school and residing in territory wherein no high school exists shall have the right to attend any high school that receives state aid under the provisions of this act without the payment of tuition fee, if such schools have room or accommodations for them; further provided, that after July first, nineteen hundred and five, a non-resident pupil shall, in the discretion of the high school board of the high school district where he attends, be required to pay a tuition fee to such school equal to the difference between the cost per pupil for maintenance of such high school and the amount per pupil received during that school year by such high school from the state.

§ 10. The state controller must keep a separate account of the high school fund raised as provided in sections one and two of this act. He must on the first Monday in January and on the first Monday in July in every year report to the superintendent of public instruction a statement of all moneys belonging to the state high school fund. He must draw his warrant on the state treasurer in favor of any county or city and county treasurer whenever such treasurer presents, with his indorsement, an order drawn by the superintendent of public instruction against the state high school fund, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the same; provided, that in the case of counties having joint union high school districts the order of the superintendent of public instruction and the warrant of the state controller shall be in favor of the county treasurer of that county wherein the high school building or buildings are located or wherein the high school is being conducted.

§ 11. It is hereby made the duty of the treasurer of every county, or city and county, that receives state money under the provisions of this act to place the same to the credit of the funds of the respective high schools of his county, or city and county, in accord with the apportionment made by the superintendent of public instruction, and to pay out the same according to the provisions of section eight of this act.

§ 12. The act entitled "An act creating a fund for the benefit and support of high schools and providing for its distribution," approved March second, nineteen hundred and three, is hereby repealed.

§ 13. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July first, nineteen hundred and five.

It will be observed that the statute of 1903 is repealed by section 12 of this statute.

HORTICULTURE—COUNTY BOARDS.

To promote the horticultural interests of the state by providing county boards of horticulture, and repealing the act entitled "An act to protect and promote the horticultural interests of the state," approved March fourteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-one, and certain acts amendatory thereof, approved March nineteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-one.

§ 1. Whenever a petition is presented to the board of supervisors of any county, and signed by twenty-five or more persons, each of whom is a resident freeholder and possessor of an orchard, stating that certain or all orchards, or nurseries, or trees or plants of any variety are infested with any serious infectious diseases, or scale insects of any kind, injurious to fruit, fruit-trees, vines, or other plants or vegetables or that there is growing therein the Russian thistle or saltwort (Salsoli kali, variety tragus), or other noxious weeds, codling moth, or other insects that are destructive to trees, and praying that a commission be appointed by them, whose duty it shall be to supervise the destruction of said scale insects, diseases or Russian thistle or saltwort, or other noxious weeds as herein provided, the board of supervisors shall, within twenty days thereafter, appoint a board of horticultural commissioners, consisting of three members, who shall be qualified for the duties of horticultural commissioner. Upon the petition of twenty-five resident freeholders and possessors of an orchard, the board of supervisors may remove any of said commissioners for cause, after a hearing of the petition. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 297.]

§ 2. It shall be the duty of the county board of horticultural commissioners in each county, whenever it shall deem it necessary, to cause an inspection to be made of any premises, orchards, or nursery, or trees, plants, vegetables, vines, or fruits, or any fruit-packing house, storeroom, salesroom, or any other place or articles in their jurisdiction, and if found infested with infectious diseases, scale insects, or codling moth, or other pests injurious to fruit, plants, vegetables, trees, or vines, or with their eggs, or larvæ, or if there is found growing thereon the Russian thistle or saltwort, or other noxious weeds, they shall notify the owner or owners, or person or persons in charge, or in possession of the said places or orchards, or nurseries, or trees, or plants, vegetables, vines, or fruit, or articles as aforesaid that the same are infested with said diseases, insects, or other pests, or any of them, or their eggs or larvæ, or that the Russian thistle or saltwort or other noxious weeds is growing thereon, and they shall require such person or persons, to eradicate or destroy the said insects, or other pests, or their eggs or larvæ, or Russian thistle or saltwort, or other noxious weeds within a certain time to be specified. Said notices may be served upon the person or persons, or either of them, owning or having charge, or having possession of such infested place, or orchard, or nursery, or trees, plants, vegetables, vines, or fruit, or articles, as aforesaid, or premises where the Russian thistle or saltwort or other noxious weeds shall be growing, by any commissioner, or by any person deputed by the said commissioners for that purpose, or they may be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action. Any and all such places, or orchards, or nurseries, or trees, plants, shrubs, vegetables, vines, fruit, or articles thus infested, or premises where the Russian thistle or saltwort or other noxious weeds shall be growing, are hereby adjudged and declared to be a public nuisance; and whenever any such nuisance shall exist at any place within their jurisdiction, or on the property of any non-resident, or on any property the owner or owners of which cannot be found by the county board of horticultural commissioners, after diligent search, within the county, or on the property of any owner or owners upon which notice aforesaid has been served, and who shall refuse or neglect to abate the same within the time specified, it shall be the duty of the county board of horticultural commissioners to cause said nuisance to be at once abated, by eradicating or destroying said diseases, insects, or other pests, or their eggs, or larvæ, or Russian thistle or saltwort or other noxious weeds. The expense thereof shall be a county charge, and the board of supervisors shall allow and pay the same out of the general fund of the county. Any and all sum or sums so paid shall be and become a lien on the property and premises from which said nuisance has been removed or abated, in pursuance of this act, and may be recovered by an action against such property and premises. A notice of such lien shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the said property and premises are situated, within thirty days after the right to the said lien has accrued. An action to foreclose such lien shall be commenced within ninety days after the filing and recording of said notice of lien, which action shall be brought in the proper court by the district attorney of the county in the name and for the benefit of the county making such payment or payments, and when the property is sold enough of the proceeds shall be paid into the county treasury of such county to satisfy the lien and costs; and the overplus, if any there be, shall be paid to the owner of the property if he be known, and if not, into the court for his use when ascertained. The county board of horticultural commissioners is hereby vested with the power to cause any and all such nuisances to be at once abated in a summary manner. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 297.]

§ 3. Said county boards of horticultural commissioners shall have power to divide the county into districts, and to appoint a local inspector, to hold office at the pleasure of the commissioners, for each of said districts. The state board of horticulture may issue commissions as quarantine guardians to the members of said county board of horticultural commissioners, and to the local inspectors thereof. The said quarantine guardians, local inspectors, or members of said county boards of horticultural commissioners, shall have full authority to enter into any orchard, nursery, place or places where trees or plants are kept and offered for sale or otherwise, or any house, storeroom, salesroom, depot, or any other such place in their jurisdiction to inspect the same, or any part thereof.

§ 4. It shall be the duty of said county board of horticultural commissioners to keep a record of their official doings, and to make a report to the state board of horticulture, on or before the first day of October of each year, of the condition of the fruit interests in their several districts, what is being done to eradicate insect pests, also as to disinfecting, and as to quarantine against insect pests and diseases, and as to carrying out all laws relative to the greatest good of the fruit interest. Said board may publish said reports in bulletin form, or may incorporate so much of the same in their annual reports as may be of general interest.

§ 5. The salary of all inspectors working under the county board of horticultural commissioners shall be two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) per day. In the case of the commissioners themselves, their compensation shall be four dollars per day, when actually engaged in the performance of their duties, and itemized necessary traveling expenses incurred in the discharge of their regular duties as prescribed in this act.

§ 6. It shall be the duty of the county board of horticultural commissioners to keep a record of their official doings and make a monthly report to the board of supervisors; and the board of supervisors may withhold warrants for salaries of said members and inspectors thereof until such time as said report is made.

§ 7. An act entitled "An act to protect and promote the horticultural interests of the state," approved March fourteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-one, and certain acts amendatory thereof, approved March nineteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, are hereby repealed.

HORTICULTURE—PROTECTION.

For the protection of horticulture, and to prevent the introduction into this state of insects, or diseases or animals injurious to fruit or fruit-trees, vines, bushes, or vegetables, and to provide for a quarantine for the enforcement of this act.

(Stats. 1899, 91, ch. LXXVI; amended 1903, 32, ch. XXX.)

§ 1. Any person, persons, or corporation, who shall receive, bring, or cause to be brought into this state any nursery stock, trees, shrubs, plants, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, or fruit pits, or fruit, or vegetables, shall, within twenty-four hours after the arrival thereof, notify the state horticultural quarantine officer, or the quarantine guardian of the district or county in which such nursery stock, or fruit, or vegetables are received, of their arrival, and hold the same without unnecessarily moving the same or placing such articles where they may be harmful, for the immediate inspection of such state horticultural quarantine officer or guardian. If there is no quarantine guardian or state horticultural quarantine officer in the county where such nursery stock, or fruit, or vegetables are received, it shall then be the duty of such person, persons, or corporation to notify the state board of horticulture, who shall make immediate arrangements for their inspection. The state horticultural quarantine officer, the quarantine guardian, or such person or persons as shall be commissioned by the state board of horticulture to make such inspection, or to represent said board, are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into any warehouse, depot, or upon any dock, wharf, mole, or any other place where such nursery stock, or fruit, or vegetables, or other described articles are received, for the purpose of making the investigation or examination herein provided for.

§ 2. Each carload, case, box, package, crate, bale, or bundle of trees, shrubs, plants, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, or fruit pits, or fruit or vegetables imported or brought into this state, shall have plainly and legibly marked thereon in a conspicuous manner and place the name and address of the shipper, owner, or person forwarding or shipping the same, and also the name of the person, firm, or corporation to whom the same is forwarded or shipped, or his or its responsible agent, also the name of the country, state or territory where the contents were grown.

§ 3. When any shipment of trees, shrubs, plants, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, fruit pits, or fruit or vegetables, imported or brought into this state, is found infested with injurious insects, or their eggs, larvæ, or pupæ, or [there is] reasonable cause to presume that they may be so infested, or infected with tree, plant, or fruit disease or diseases, the entire shipment shall be disinfected at the expense of the owner, owners, or agent. After such disinfection, it shall be detained in quarantine the necessary time to determine the result of such disinfection. If the disinfection has been so performed as to destroy all insects, or their eggs, and so as to eradicate all disease and prevent contagion, and in a manner satisfactory to the state horticultural quarantine officer, the quarantine guardian of the district, or the person commissioned by said board, the trees, vines, vegetables, seeds, or other articles shall then be released. [Amendment, Stats. 1903, 32.]

is found infested with any species of injurious insects, or their eggs, larvæ, or pupæ, not existing in the orchards, vineyards, gardens, or farms of California, such infested shipments shall be immediately sent out of the state, or destroyed, at the option of the owner, owners, or agent, and at his or their expense.

§ 5. No person, persons, or corporation shall bring or cause to be brought into the state any peach, nectarine, or apricot trees or cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, or pits of such trees, or any trees budded or grafted upon peach stock or root that has been in a district where the disease known as "peach yellows" or the contagious disease known as contagious "peach rosette" are known to exist, and any such attempting to land or enter shall be refused entry and shall be destroyed or returned to the point of shipment, at the option of the owner, owners, or agent, and at his or other [their] expense.

§ 6. No person, persons, or corporations shall bring, or cause to be brought into this state any injurious animals known as English or Australian wild rabbit, flying fox, mongoose, or any animal or other animal or animals detrimental to horticulture and agricultural interests.

§ 7. Any person, persons, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

HORTICULTURE—STATE BOARD.

To create a state commission of horticulture, to provide for a state commissioner of horticulture, and prescribe his powers, duties and compensation, and to provide methods, means and penalties for the enforcement of such powers and duties, and appropriating money for the use and support and to pay the expenses thereof, and to repeal chapter sixty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-three, chapter seven of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-five, chapter eighty-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and chapter one hundred and ninety-four of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-one.

(Stats. 1903, 524, ch. CCCLXXIX; amended Stats. 1905, 496,

§ 1. The office of state commissioner of horticulture of California is hereby created. It shall be the duty of the governor, within forty days after the passage of this act, to appoint a citizen and resident of this state to hold said office of state commissioner of horticulture, who must at the date of his appointment be a skilled horticulturist and entomologist. The term of office shall be for four years, and until a successor is appointed and qualified. The governor may remove such commissioner from office at any time, upon filing with the secretary of state a certificate of removal signed by the governor. In case of a vacancy in said office by death, resignation, removal from office, or other cause, the governor shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The salary of said commissioner shall be two hundred and fifty dollars per month, and he shall be allowed in addition a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars yearly for traveling and incidental expenses necessary in the discharge of his duties herein provided for. Such commissioner may appoint a secretary, who shall be versed in horticulture and entomology, and who shall be an experienced compiler of reports.

bulletins and such publications as may issue from said commission from time to time, and who shall perform all such duties as may be required of him by such commissioner. Such secretary of the horticultural commissioner shall receive a salary of twenty-one hundred dollars per annum. In appointing such commissioner and his successor or successors, it shall be the duty of the governor to disregard political affiliations, and to be guided in his selection entirely by the professional and moral qualifications of the person so selected for the performance of the duties of said office. The office of said commissioner shall be kept open every day except holidays, and shall be in charge of the secretary during the absence of such commissioner. The main office of such commissioner shall be at the city of Sacramento. The secretary of state shall furnish and set aside in the capitol a room or rooms suitable for offices for said commissioner, and if the secretary of state shall make and file an affidavit with said commissioner stating that it is not possible for him, as such secretary of state, to provide and set aside an office for said commissioner in the capitol or in any state building under his control, because there is no such office room or rooms available, then, and after the making and delivery of such affidavit to such commissioner, the said commissioner may rent rooms convenient and suitable for his offices under this act, at a rental not to exceed five hundred dollars per year. Said commissioner may also keep and maintain an office in the city and county of San Francisco at a yearly rental not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, and may appoint a deputy commissioner who shall be an expert entomologist and horticulturist, to have charge of said office under said commissioner, and to perform any and all duties which said commissioner may require of him under this act, and shall fix the monthly compensation of such deputy at two hundred dollars per month. Such deputy shall hold his position during the pleasure of such commissioner, and may be removed from his office or position at any time by said commissioner filing with the secretary of state a certificate signed by said commissioner so removing such deputy. Said commissioner may also appoint, by and with the approval of the governor, such temporary deputies from time to time as may be required for quarantine purposes under this act, and such temporary deputies shall receive such compensation per diem as may be specified in the writing so approving such appointment. If there be not sufficient furniture and office appliances turned over to such commissioner by the state board of horticulture heretofore existing, to furnish and equip properly the office or offices for such commissioner at Sacramento and San Francisco aforesaid, the said commissioner may, by and with the approval of the governor, purchase for the use of his said office or offices such furniture and appliances as may be necessary therefor, and from time to time, at an expense not to exceed a sum to be mentioned in such approval, which expense, together with all other expenses authorized by this act, is hereby allowed for the purposes specified. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 496.]

§ 2. Upon taking office under this act such commissioner shall be entitled to receive and have turned over to him as such commissioner all the books, records, and property in the possession, charge, custody or control of the state board of horticulture heretofore existing, and all such property shall be delivered to such commissioner upon demand. Such commissioner shall be deemed for such purposes the successor of said board.

§ 3. Such commissioner shall collect books, pamphlets and periodicals and other documents containing information relating to horticulture, and shall preserve the same; collect statistics and other information showing the actual condition and progress of horticulture in this state and elsewhere; correspond with horticultural societies, colleges and schools, and with the county boards of horticulture existing or that may exist in this state, and with all other persons necessary to secure the best results to horticulture in this state. He shall require reports from county boards of horticulture in this state, and may print the same or any part thereof as he may select, either in the form of bulletins or in his annual report, or both, as he shall deem proper. He shall issue and cause to be printed and distributed to county boards of horticulture in this state, and to all other persons whom he may deem proper, bulletins or statements containing all the information best adapted to promote the interest and protect the business and development of horticulture in this state. Such commissioner shall be deemed to be the state horticultural quarantine officer mentioned in chapter seventy-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, for the purposes of that act, and shall be empowered to perform the duties which under that act are to be performed by the state horticultural quarantine officer; provided, that any inspection therein authorized, when made by such commissioner, must be with the approval of the governor, and as provided by this act.

§ 4. Said commissioner may, by and with the approval of the governor, establish, maintain and enforce such quarantine regulations as may be deemed necessary to protect the nurseries, trees, shrubs, plants, vines, cuttings, grafts, scions, buds, fruit pits, fruit, vegetables, or other articles of horticulture, against contagion or infection by injurious disease, insects or pests, by establishing such quarantine at the boundaries of this state or elsewhere within the state, and he may make and enforce, with the approval of the governor, any and all such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary to prevent any infected stock, tree, shrub, plant, vine, cutting, graft, scion, bud, fruit pit, fruit, vegetable, or other article of horticulture, from passing over any quarantine line established and proclaimed pursuant to this act, and all such articles shall, during the maintenance of such quarantine, be inspected by such commissioner or by a deputy appointed in writing by said commissioner with the approval of the governor, and he or the deputy so conducting such inspection shall not permit any such article to pass over such a quarantine line during such quarantine, except upon a certificate of inspection signed by such commissioner or in his name by such a deputy who has made such inspection, unless such article has been immediately prior to such passage inspected by an officer or agent of the United States entitled to inspect the same, and such officer or agent has granted permission for such passage. All approvals by the governor given or made pursuant to this act shall be in writing and signed by the governor in duplicate, and one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and the other in the office of said commissioner before such approval shall take effect.

§ 5. Upon information received by such commissioner of the existence of any infectious disease, insect or pest, dangerous to any such article, or to the interest of horticulture within this state, or that there is a probability of the introduction of any such infectious disease, insect or pest into this state or across the boundaries thereof, he shall proceed to thoroughly investigate the same, and may, by and with the approval of the governor, establish, maintain and enforce quarantine as hereinbefore provided, with such regulations as may be necessary to circumscribe and exterminate or eradicate such infectious diseases, insects or pests, and prevent the extension thereof, and is hereby authorized to enter upon any grounds or premises, and inspect any stock, tree, shrub, plant, vine, cutting, graft, scion, bud, fruit pit, fruit, vegetable, or other article of horticulture, or implement thereof, or box or package pertaining thereto, or connected therewith, or that has been used in packing, shipping or handling the same, and to open any such package, and generally to do, with the least injury possible under the conditions to property or business, all acts and things necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

§ 6. Upon the discovery of any such infectious disease, insects or pests, such commissioner shall immediately report the same to all county boards of horticulture, together with a statement as to the best known means or method for circumscribing, exterminating or eradicating the same, and shall state therein specifically what treatment or method should be applied in each case, as the matter may require, with a detailed statement or prescription as to the method of making or procuring, and of applying any preparation or treatment so recommended therefor, and the times and duration for such treatment, and if chemicals or articles be required other than those usually obtainable at any town, the place or places where they are most readily to be obtained; and upon the receipt of such statement by any county board of horticulture, or any member thereof, it shall be the duty of such county board of horticulture to distribute such statement in printed form to every person owning or having charge or possession of any orchard, nursery stock, tree, shrub, or article of horticulture within their county, where it is supposed by said county board there is any danger to the interests of horticulture, and such statement must be served with or be a part of the notice to be given to the owner or owners, or person or persons, in possession of any orchard, nursery, tree, shrub, or article of horticulture, referred to, provided for, and required to be served in and by section two of chapter one hundred and eighty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, or any amendments which have been or may be made thereto.

§ 7. Whenever it shall become necessary to establish quarantine under this act, if there be any authorities or officers of the United States having authority to act in such matter, or any part thereof, the said state commissioner of horticulture shall notify such authority or officers of the United States, and co-operate as far as possible with such authorities or officers of the United States wheresoever the jurisdiction of the United States extends and is being exercised, and shall obtain, whenever desirable and possible, the assent of the proper authority or officers of the United States to the establishment or change of quarantine lines, so as to most effectively and speedily accomplish the purposes of this act. The said commissioner shall at once notify the governor of all quarantine lines established under or pursuant to this act, and if the governor approve or shall have approved of the same or any portion thereof, the governor shall issue his proclamation proclaiming the boundaries of such quarantine, and the nature thereof, and the orders, rules or regulations prescribed for the maintenance and enforcement of the same, and shall publish such proclamation in such manner as he may deem expedient to give proper notice thereof.

§ 8. The said state commissioner shall be ex officio a member of all county boards of horticulture existing or that may be created or exist in this state pursuant to law, whenever he is present and acting with said county board within the county where such county board exists, but when he is not so present in such county, acting with such county board, then the said county board shall have all the power and authority conferred on it by law, and may exercise such power by the action of the members of such county board or a majority thereof. The reports which county boards of horticulture are required by law to make, or which they may desire to make, shall, after the passage of this act, be made to the state commissioner of horticulture.

§ 9. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of state printing to print and deliver to the state commissioner of horticulture, upon the written request of said commissioner, all such bulletins, orders, rules, regulations, statements, reports, and other printed matter, as the said commissioner may deem necessary to have and use for carrying out the purposes of this act, and it shall be the duty of the secretary of state to cause to be prepared and furnished to such state commissioner all stationery, paper, blank forms, envelopes, and writing material needful and convenient for use in the office of such commissioner.

§ 10. It shall be the duty of said state commissioner to report in the month of January in each even-numbered year to the governor, and in each odd-numbered year to the legislature of this state, such matters as he may deem expedient or as may be required either by the governor or legislature, and to include a statement of all the persons employed, and of moneys expended under this act, by itemized statement thereof.

§ 11. Any person wilfully refusing to comply with orders lawfully made under and pursuant to this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars.

§ 12. All moneys paid under this act shall be paid by the state treasurer from moneys appropriated for the support of the state commissioner of horticulture, and expenses other than the salary of the commissioner, the compensation of his clerk and deputy commissioner, as allowed and provided by this act, must be certified by the said commissioner and be approved by the state board of examiners before being audited or paid. Any moneys remaining of any appropriation heretofore made or that may be appropriated for the use or support of the state board of horticulture are hereby appropriated to the support of the state commission of horticulture, and are directed to be applied to the payment of claims and expenses under this act.

§ 13. The sum of four thousand dollars is hereby appropriated for the use and support and to pay the expenses of the state commission of horticulture for the fiscal years commencing July first, nineteen hundred and three, and July first, nineteen hundred and four, under this act.

§ 14. Chapter sixty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-three, chapter seven of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-five, chapter eighty-six of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, and chapter one hundred and ninety-four of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-one, are hereby repealed.

HOSPITALS—MATERNITY.

To provide for the licensing and inspecting of maternity hospitals, lying-in asylums and homes for children; defining the duties of persons conducting the same; and the duties and powers of the county boards of health or county health officers and other health officers in relation thereto, and providing a penalty for the violation of its provisions.

§ 1. Any person who, without first having obtained a license in writing so to do from the county board of health or county health officers, as hereinafter provided, manages, conducts, establishes or maintains within any county or city and county in this state any maternity hospital or lying-in asylum where females may be received, cared for or treated during pregnancy, or during or after delivery; or manages, conducts, establishes or maintains within any county or city and county in this state any institution, boarding-house, home or other place for the reception or care of children, or keeps, at any such place, any child under the age of twelve years, not his relative, apprentice, or ward, without legal commitment; or neglects, refuses or omits to comply with the provisions of this act, or who violates the provisions of such act, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 2. For such places within the limits of their respective territorial jurisdictions, the county board of health in all counties or city and county governments, having a county board of health, and in all other counties or city and county governments, the county health officer shall have power to issue licenses, and every such license must specify the name and residence of the person so undertaking the care of such females or children; and the location within the county or city and county of the place where the same are kept and the number of females or children thereby allowed to be received, boarded or kept therein, and shall be revocable for cause by the said county board of health or county health officer, as the case may be, in any case where the provisions of this act are violated, or in any case where, in the opinion of such county board of health or such county health officer, such hospital, asylum, institution, home, boarding-house or other place is being managed, conducted or maintained without proper regard for the health, comfort or morality of the inmates thereof, or without due regard of proper sanitation or hygiene.

§ 3. Every person so licensed must keep a register, wherein he shall enter the names and addresses of all such females, the names and ages of all such children, and of all children born on the premises, and the names and residences of their parents, so far as is known, and the time of the reception and discharge of such children and the reasons therefor, and also the name and age of every child who is given out, adopted, taken away, or indentured from such place, to or by any person, together with the name and residence of the person so adopting, taking away or indenturing such child; and within forty-eight hours after such child is so given out, taken away or indentured, shall cause a correct copy of the register relating to such child to be sent to the county board of health or county health officer, as the case may be.

§ 4. It shall be lawful for the officers and representatives of such county board of health, or for such county health officers and their representatives, and for all health officers, at all reasonable times, to enter and inspect the premises wherein such females and children are so boarded, received or kept, and to call for and inspect the license and the register and also to see and visit such children and females.

HUMBOLDT COUNTY—JUDGE.

To provide for the appointment and election of one additional judge for the county of Humboldt.

(Stats. 1895, 27, ch. XIX.)

§ 1. Within ten days after the passage of this act the governor shall appoint one additional judge of the superior court of the county of Humboldt, who shall hold office until the first Monday after the first day of January, anno Domini eighteen hundred and ninety-seven; and at the next general election, and at the general election every six years thereafter, one judge of said court in addition to the present number provided by law for said county shall be elected, to hold office for the term prescribed by the constitution and by law.

§ 2. The salary of said additional judge shall be the same in amount, and shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as that of the other judge of the superior court of said county now authorized by law.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately from and after its passage.

HUNTING—PRIVATE PROPERTY.

To prevent hunting and shooting on private inclosed grounds, and the destruction of growing timber on private grounds in certain counties in this state.

(Stats. 1871-2, 304, ch. CCXXVII; amended 1873-4, 792, ch. DLVIII.)

§ 1. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to enter upon any inclosed lands belonging to or occupied by another for the purpose of hunting with dogs, or to shoot, kill, take, or destroy any kind of game, or to enter upon private lands, whether inclosed or not, for the purpose of felling or destroying trees to extract honey or [for] other purposes, without first having obtained permission from the owner or agent of such owner or possessor.

§ 2. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished upon conviction by a fine of not less than ten (10) dollars nor more than two hundred (200) dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for a term of thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 3. This act shall apply only to the counties of Alameda, San Mateo, Marin, San Bernardino, San Diego, Colusa, Sacramento, Sonoma, Nevada, Humboldt, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, Contra Costa, San Luis Obispo, and Mendocino. [Amendment, Stats. 1873-4, 792.]

INDIGENT PERSONS.

To provide for the maintenance and support, in certain cases, of indigent, incompetent, and incapacitated persons (other than persons adjudged insane and confined within state hospitals), becoming a public charge upon the counties, or cities and counties, within the state of California, and for the payment thereof into a fund for the maintenance and support of such persons.

(Stats. 1901, 636, ch. CCX.)

§ 1. Every county and every city and county shall relieve and support all pauper, incompetent, poor, indigent persons and those incapacitated by age, disease, or accident, lawfully resident therein, when such persons are not supported and relieved by their relatives or friends, or by their own means, or by state hospitals or other state or private institutions.

§ 2. The term residence as used in this act shall be taken to mean and shall be considered to mean the actual residence of each of such persons, or the place where each such person was employed, or in case such person was in no employment, then it shall be considered and held to be the place where such person made his or her home, or his or her headquarters.

§ 3. Every person, firm or corporation, or the officers, agents, servants, or employees of any person, firm or corporation, bringing into or leaving within, or procuring the bringing into or the leaving within, or aiding in the bringing into or the leaving within, of any pauper or poor or indigent or incapacitated or incompetent person as hereinbefore mentioned, in any county or city and county in the state of California, wherein such person is not lawfully settled or not lawfully residing as herein defined, knowing him to be such pauper, poor, indigent, or incapacitated or incompetent person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 4. If any person shall become chargeable as a pauper, or poor, or indigent, or incapacitated, or incompetent person as herein designated, in any county, or city and county, who did not reside therein (as herein specified) at the commencement of three months immediately preceding his becoming so chargeable, but did at that time reside (as herein specified) in some other county, or city and county in this state, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of said first-mentioned county or city and county to send written notice by mail or otherwise to the county clerk of the county or city and county in which such person so resided, requesting the proper authorities of such county or city and county to remove such person forthwith, and to pay the expenses accruing or to accrue, in taking care of such person; and such county or city and county, wherein such person resided at the commencement of the three months immediately preceding such person's becoming chargeable as a poor, indigent, or incapacitated, or incompetent person as herein designated, shall pay to the county or city and county so taking care of such person all reasonable charges for the same, and such amount may be recovered by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction by such county or city and county.

§ 5. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of any county hospital or almshouse in any county or city and county in this state, or his subordinates, immediately upon receiving any person into such hospital or almshouse as a public charge, such person being poor, indigent, or incapacitated, or incompetent as herein defined, or any registrar of charities or of any charity supported by public funds or aided in part by public funds, aiding such person, to make diligent inquiry into the ability of such person or of his relatives as hereinafter mentioned to bear the actual charges and expenses of the maintenance and support of such person, and to forthwith notify the district attorney of such county or city and county, or the city and county attorney thereof, and the board of supervisors of such county or city and county, of the result of such inquiry.

§ 6. In case such person shall be or shall thereafter become the owner of property, real, personal, or mixed, it shall be the duty of the district attorney of the county, or city and county, or the city and county attorney thereof, in which such person shall become a public charge, in whole or in part, to cause the entire or partial support as hereinafter provided to be fixed, of such person to be made out of such property, and to that end shall procure by suit or otherwise the assignment and payment for such purpose of all annuities and pensions; and in case such person shall be incompetent or a minor, within the provisions of the codes relating to the guardianship of the persons and estates of incompetent persons and minors, it shall be the duty of the district attorney of such county, or city and county, or the city and county attorney thereof, to apply to the proper court for the appointment of a general guardian of the person and estate or either, of such person or minor. Such application and appointment shall be made in the manner as provided by the codes of this state for the application for the appointment of guardians of infants and incompetent persons, and all proceedings thereunder, except as herein expressly declared otherwise, shall be in accordance with such provisions of said codes, and the public support of such minor or such incompetent shall be deemed one of the grounds for which an application may be made on behalf of such person for the sale of his property, as in the Code of Civil Procedure provided. From the proceeds of the property of said person or from such other funds as such guardian may obtain, or from such funds as the district attorney of the county, or the city and county, or the city and county attorney thereof, may be able to collect, there shall be paid into the county treasury of the county, the sum per month fixed by the board of supervisors of such county or city and county, quarterly in advance, for the maintenance and support of any such person or pauper; and there shall also be paid out of the proceeds of such sale or such other funds, such clothing and other supplies as may have been furnished to such person or pauper.

If any pauper, indigent, poor, incompetent or incapacitated person has kindred of the degree of husband, wife, children (other than minors), father or mother, brother or sister, grandchildren, or grandparents living within this state, of sufficient pecuniary ability, such kindred in the order above named shall support such person by paying into the county treasury of such county, the sum per month fixed on by the board of supervisors, quarterly in advance, for the maintenance and support of such pauper, indigent poor, incompetent or incapacitated person, and shall in the order above named, also pay for the clothing and other supplies, if any, furnished to such person. And if it shall be that the relatives liable as aforesaid are not of sufficient ability wholly to maintain such poor person or pauper, but are able to contribute something, they shall be required to pay a sum in proportion to their ability.

§ 7. Upon the failure on the part of said kindred to perform such duty, an action shall be brought by the district attorney of the county or the city and county, or the city and county attorney thereof, in the name of the county or city and county, against said kindred in the order above named. And such action shall be prosecuted as are all other actions for the recovery of money in this state.

§ 8. If there be in the hands of any guardian of any such person or in the hands of any officer of said county upon the discharge or death of said person, any funds, the same shall be refunded after the payment of all the claims of the said county or city and county thereon and of the funeral expenses, in case of death of such person.

§ 9. All moneys derived in accordance with the provisions of this act shall be paid into such fund of the county or city and county as is used for the support and furtherance of the care of the persons hercin referred to.

The statute of 1883, 380, ch. XCVI, on this subject was repealed by Stats. 1895, 23. The following decisions are noted respecting the former statute: San Francisco vs. Dunn, 69 Cal. 73, 74, 10 Pac. Rep. 191; County Yolo vs. Dunn, 77 Cal. 133, 134, 19 Pac. Rep. 262;

INSANE ASYLUMS.

AN ASYLUM FOR INSANE was established at Stockton by Stats. 1853, 203. Another was established at Napa by Stats. 1871-2, 673; another at Agnews by Stats. 1885, 35; another at Mendocino by Stats. 1889, 25, and a fifth near San Bernardino, in Southern California, by Stats. 1889, 120.—The Newport etc. Co. vs. Drew, 125 Cal. 585, 592, 58 Pac. Rep. 187.

Much of the subject was carried into the Political Code, tit. V, ch. I, although the several acts establishing the several institutions and the necessary appropriations for furnishing and maintaining them occupy a conspicuous space in the legislation of the past thirty years.

In 1897 (Stats. pp. 311-333) a uniform system for the management of those institutions was provided. That statute was under review by the supreme court in the following cases: Secs. 13, 14, art. III, and ch. VI, tit. X, pt. II of Penal Code, §§ 1367-1373, involving inquiry into the sanity of a person charged with crime, in Gardner vs. Jones, 126 Cal. 614, 59 Pac. Rep. 126; In re Buchanan, 129 Cal. 330, 332, 61 Pac. Rep. 1120, 50 L. R. A. 378; Matter of Robinson, 138 Cal. 491, 71 Pac. Rep. 690; Matter of Everett, 138 Cal. 490, 71 Pac. Rep. 566.

Local trustees were held not abolished by the Statute of 1897, by which such boards are designated as "managers," and the right to bring actions for recovery of sums due the institutions, under § 13 of art. II of the Stats. 1897, and §§ 8, 9 of Stats. 1889, 329, is reviewed in Napa State Hospital vs. Flaherty, 134 Cal. 315, 66 Pac. Rep. 322; Napa State Hospital vs. Yuba County, 138 Cal. 378, 71 Pac. Rep. 450.

In Matter of Lambert, 134 Cal. 626, 86 Am. St. Rep. 296, 66 Pac. Rep. 851, 55 L. R. A. 856, it is held that the provisions of article III of the Statute of 1897, in so far as they purport to authorize the arrest and detention of a person on a charge of insanity without providing a hearing to such person, are unconstitutional.

In Sponogle vs. Curnow, 136 Cal. 580, 69 Pac. Rep. 255, it was held that the statute of 1897 was designed as a complete revision and substitute for all previous acts relating to the same subject, and that no term of office having been fixed for the office of medical superintendent, the board of managers had power, under section 16 of article XX of the constitution to remove a superintendent at its pleasure. Upon the language of this decision it will be assumed that the new act of 1903 (Stats. pp. 485-514), repealing the statute of 1897, is now the law governing the subject of insane. Following is its title: "To repeal chapter I of title V of part III of the Political Code, and to substitute therefor a new chapter I, to define the powers and duties of the state commission in lunacy, to provide for the government and management of state hospitals for the insane and other incompetent persons, and to provide for the care, custody, apprehension, commitment, and maintenance of insane and other incompetent persons and escapes." Stats. 1903, 485, ch. CCCLXIV: Watt vs. Smith (pay patients), 89 Cal. 602, 603, 26 Pac. Rep. 1071; Napa State Hospital vs. Flaherty, 134 Cal. 315, 316, 66 Pac. Rep. 322; Kellogg vs. Cochran, 87 Cal. 192-198, 26 Pac. Rep. 677, 12 L. R. A. 104; Ex parte Whitwell, 98 Cal. 73, 80, 35 Am. St. Rep. 152, 32 Pac. Rep. 870, 19 L. R. A. 727; People vs. Geiger, 116 Cal. 440, 441, 48 Pac. Rep. 389. See KERR'S CYC. POL. CODE §§ 2136-2199, as amended in 1903. Stats. p. 485. And compare § 2189, KERR'S CYC. POL. CODE, and § 1766, KERR'S CYC. CODE CIV. PROC., and Stats. 1900-1, 639, following this note.

INSANE—RESTORATION.

To provide for restoration to capacity of persons adjudged to be insane, who have no guardians and who are not confined at state hospitals for the insane.

§ 1. Whenever any person duly adjudged to be insane has been duly committed to a state hospital for the insane under the provisions of any law of this state, and for whom no guardian has been appointed, and who is absent from the hospital to which he was committed or transferred under the order of commitment, on parole or leave of absence granted by the medical superintendent thereof, or who has been discharged therefrom as improved by said superintendent as provided by subdivision two, section fourteen, article three, of the insanity law of California, approved March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, is desirous of being declared sane and restored to legal capacity, said insane person or a relative or friend on his behalf may make application in writing to said medical superintendent to be declared sane. On receiving such application, said medical superintendent may make such examination of such person and require such proof as he may reasonably deem necessary to determine whether or not such person is sane. For the purpose of making such examination said superintendent may also require said person to present himself at the hospital for examination. If on making such examination and receiving such proofs as he deems reasonably necessary said medical superintendent shall be satisfied that said person is sane and has recovered his reason, said medical superintendent shall issue to said person his certificate that such person is sane, and recovered and restored to reason. A copy thereof, duly certified, shall be immediately forwarded to the state commission in lunacy, who shall file the same in their office. A copy thereof shall also be filed at said hospital and a proper record made thereof.

§ 2. If said medical superintendent is unwilling or refuses, however, to issue a certificate of recovery upon application as in section one provided, he shall so certify in writing, giving his reasons therefor, and said insane person or a relative or friend in his behalf may make application, by petition duly verified, to a judge of the superior court of the county where such insane person resides to be declared sane. Notice of the hearing of said application shall be given in the manner directed by a judge of said court, to said medical superintendent, and to such relative or relatives of such insane person residing in the county as the judge may direct, who may have opportunity to appear and be heard on the hearing of said application. Such hearing shall be conducted as are civil cases, and on demand of the petitioner the question of the insanity of such person may be tried by a jury, as in civil cases. If on the hearing of said application the court is satisfied from the proofs produced or if a jury trial is had, and the jury shall render a verdict that such person is sane, the court shall by order adjudge such person to be sane. Said order shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk and certified copies thereof shall be sent by said clerk and filed with the state commission in lunacy and also with the superintendent of the hospital from which said insane person was paroled, granted leave of absence, or discharged as improved. If said matter is tried by a jury the cause against said insane person shall be represented by the district attorney of the county. From a decision of the court or verdict of the jury finding the said person insane an appeal may be taken as in civil cases. If three fourths of the jury fail to declare said person sane, or the court or the jury shall find such person to be insane, said proceeding shall be dismissed and no new application to declare such person sane shall be made for six months thereafter.

§ 3. Whenever any person who has been adjudged to be insane, who has not been committed to a state hospital for the insane, and who has no guardian, and who is desirous of being declared sane and restored to legal capacity, said insane person or a relative or friend on his behalf may, by petition duly verified, make application to a judge of the superior court where he resides to be declared sane; said judge shall fix a time for the hearing of said application, and he may, by order, direct that notice of said hearing be given in the manner and to such relative or relatives of said person residing in the county where such application is made, as the judge may direct, who shall have opportunity to appear and be heard at said hearing. Such hearing shall be conducted as are civil cases, and on demand by the petitioner may be tried before a jury as are civil cases. If on said hearing the decision of the court or the verdict of the jury is that such person is insane, an appeal may be taken to the supreme court as in civil cases. If the court shall decide or the jury shall render a verdict declaring said person to be sane, the court shall make an order declaring said person to be sane. If three fourths of the jury fail to unite in a verdict, or the court or jury shall decide that such person is insane, such proceeding shall be dismissed, and no new application to have such person declared sane shall be made for six months thereafter.

§ 4. Before any order is made or any proceedings are taken for a trial by jury, the person demanding the same shall make a deposit, or give a bond, to be approved by a judge of the superior court where proceedings are had, for the payment of all costs of such trial, unless, in the opinion of said judge, the insane person in whose behalf said trial is demanded is a poor or indigent person.

§ 5. The certificate of recovery by the medical superintendent, the order of the judge or the verdict of a jury and the order of the judge as in this act provided, shall have the same legal effect as a discharge as recovered made under the provisions of subdivision one of section fourteen, article three of the insanity law of eighteen hundred and ninety seven, and shall be prima facie evidence of the sanity of such person.

§ 6. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

INSOLVENCY.

For the relief of insolvent debtors, for the protection of creditors, and for the punishment of fraudulent debtors.

(Stats. 1895, 131, ch. CXLIII; amended 1897, 35, ch. XXXVIII.)

ARTICLE I.

GENERAL SUBJECT OF THE ACT.

§ 1. Every insolvent debtor may, upon compliance with the provisions of this act, be discharged from his debts and liabilities. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Insolvent Act of eighteen hundred and ninety-five.

ARTICLE II.

VOLUNTARY INSOLVENCY.

§ 2. An insolvent debtor, owing debts exceeding in amount the sum of three hundred dollars, may apply by petition to the superior court of the county, or city and county, in which he has resided for six months next preceding the filing of his petition, to be discharged from his debts and liabilities. In his petition he shall set forth his place of residence, his inability to pay all his debts in full, his willingness to surrender all his estate and effects for the benefit of his creditors, and his desire to obtain a discharge from his debts and liabilities, and shall annex thereto a schedule and inventory, and valuation, in compliance with the provisions of this act. The filing of such petition shall be an act of insolvency, and thereupon such petitioner shall be adjudged an insolvent debtor.

§ 3. Said schedule must contain a full and true statement of all his debts and liabilities, exhibiting to the best of his knowledge and belief to whom said debts or liabilities are due, the place of residence of his creditors, and the sum due each; the nature of the indebtedness or demand, whether founded on written security, obligation, contract, or otherwise; the true cause and consideration thereof, and the time and place when and where such indebtedness accrued, and a statement of any existing pledge, lien, mortgage, judgment, or other security for the payment of the same; also, an outline of the facts touching any liability, directly or indirectly, in the nature of any right of action against the insolvent by any one.

§ 4. Said inventory must contain an accurate description of all the estate, both real and personal, of the petitioner, including his homestead, if any, and all property exempt by law from execution, and where the same is situated, and all encumbrances thereon; also, an outline of the facts touching any right of action in favor of the insolvent against any one.

§ 5. The petition, schedule, and inventory must be verified by the affidavit of the petitioner annexed thereto, and shall be in form substantially as follows: I, ———, do solemnly swear that the schedule and inventory now delivered by me contain a full, perfect, and true discovery of all the estate, real, personal, and mixed, goods and effects, to me in any way belonging; all such debts as are to me owing, or to any person or persons in trust for me, and all securities and contracts, and contracts whereby any money may hereafter become payable, or any benefit or advantage accrue to me or to my use, or to any other person or persons in trust for me; that the schedule and inventory, respectively, contain a clear outline of the facts touching any known right of action against me by any one, and an outline of the facts touching all rights of action in my favor against any one; that I have no lands, money, stock, or estate, reversion, or expectancy, besides that set forth in my schedule and inventory; that I have in no instance created or acknowledged a debt for a greater sum than I honestly and truly owe; that I have not, directly or indirectly, sold, or otherwise disposed of, or concealed, any part of my property, effects, or contracts; that I have not in any way compounded with my creditors whereby to secure the same, or to receive or to expect any profit or advantage therefrom, or to defraud or deceive any creditor to whom I am indebted in any manner. So help me God.

§ 6. Upon receiving and filing such petition, schedule, and inventory, the court shall make an order declaring the petitioner insolvent, and directing the sheriff of the county, or city and county, to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution, and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account, and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee. Said order shall further forbid the payment of any debts and the delivery of any property belonging to such debtor, to him, or for his use, and the transfer of any property by him; and shall further appoint a time and place for a meeting of the creditors, to prove their debts and choose an assignee of the estate, and shall designate a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or city and county, in which the petition is filed, if there be one, and if there be none, in a newspaper published nearest to such county, or city and county, in which publication of such order shall be made. The time appointed for the election of an assignee shall not be less than eight nor more than ten days from the date of the order of adjudication. Upon the granting of said order, all proceedings against the said insolvent shall be stayed. When a receiver is appointed or an assignee chosen, as provided for in this act, the sheriff shall thereupon deliver to such receiver or assignee, as the case may be, all the property and assets of the insolvent which have come into his possession, and shall be allowed and paid as compensation for his services the same expenses and fees as would by law be collectable if the property had been levied upon and safely kept under attachment.

§ 7. A copy of said order shall immediately be published by the clerk of said court, in a newspaper designated therein, as often as said newspaper is printed before the meeting of creditors, and be served by the clerk forthwith by the United States mail, postage prepaid, or personally, on all creditors named in the schedule. There shall be deposited in addition to the usual cost of commencing such proceedings a sum of money sufficient to defray the cost of the publication ordered by the court, and ten cents for each copy, to be mailed to or served on the creditors, which latter sum is hereby constituted the legal fee of the clerk for the mailing or service required in this section.

§ 8. No claim shall be entitled to a vote for the election of an assignee, unless such claim shall be placed on file in the office of the clerk of the court in which the proceedings are pending, at least two days prior to the time appointed for the election of an assignee. All claims shall be established by a statement, showing the amount and nature of the claim, and security, if any; such statement to be verified by the claimant, his agent or attorney; provided, no claim barred by the statute of limitations shall be proved or allowed against the estate of an insolvent debtor for any purpose. Any person interested in the estate of the insolvent may file exceptions to the legality or good faith of any claim, by setting forth specifically in writing his interest in the estate, and the grounds of his objection to such claim; such specifications of exceptions to be verified by the affidavit of the party objecting, his agent or attorney, setting out among other things that such exceptions are not made for the purpose of delay, or otherwise than in good faith in the best interest of said estate. Such exceptions to be filed with the clerk of the court at least one day before the time appointed for the election of an assignee; and such exception shall be heard and disposed of by the court, on affidavit or other evidence, in a summary manner, before the election of an assignee. But the decision of the court upon the exceptions as to whether the claimant shall be entitled to vote for an assignee shall not be conclusive upon the right of the party to participate in the assets of the insolvent, the enforcement of such right being subject to the laws of the state touching the establishment of claims against the estates of insolvents in case of dispute. No creditor or claimant, who holds any mortgage, pledge, or lien of any kind whatever, as security for the payment of his claim, shall be permitted to vote any part of his secured claim in the election of assignee, unless he shall first have the value of such security fixed as provided in section forty-eight of this act, or surrender to the sheriff or receiver of the estate of the insolvent, if any receiver, all such property so mortgaged or pledged, or assign such lien to such receiver or sheriff; such surrender or assignment of security or lien to be for the benefit of all creditors of the estate of the insolvent. The value of such security, if fixed by the court, shall be so fixed at least one day before the day appointed for the election of an assignee; in which event the claimant may prove his demand, as provided in this section, for any unsecured balance subject to the same exceptions as all other claims. [Amendment, Stats. 1897, ch. 38.]

ARTICLE III.

INVOLUNTARY INSOLVENCY.

§ 9. An adjudication of insolvency may be made on the petition of five or more creditors, residents of this state, whose debts or demands accrued in this state, and amount in the aggregate to not less than five hundred dollars; provided, that said creditors, or either of them, have not become creditors by assignment within thirty days prior to the filing of said petition. Such petition must be filed in the superior court of the county, or city and county, in which the debtor resides or has his place of business, and must be verified by at least three of the petitioners, setting forth that such person is about to depart from this state, with intent to defraud his creditors, or being absent from the state with such intent, remains absent; or conceals himself to avoid the service of legal process; or conceals, or is removing, any of his property to avoid its being attached or taken on legal process; or being insolvent, has suffered his property to remain under attachment, or legal process, for three days: or has confessed or offered to allow judgment in favor of any creditors; or wilfully suffered judgment to be taken against him by default; or has suffered or procured his property to be taken on legal process, with intent to give a preference to one or more of his creditors; or has made any assignment, gift, sale, conveyance, or transfer of his estate, property, rights, or credits, with intent to delay, defraud, or hinder his creditors; or in contemplation of insolvency, has made any payment, gift, grant, sale, conveyance or transfer of his estate, property, rights, or credits; or has been arrested and held in custody by virtue of any civil process of court founded on any debt or demand; and such process remains in force, and not discharged by payment, or otherwise, for a period of three days; or being a merchant or tradesman, has stopped or suspended, and not resumed payment within a period of forty days after the maturity of any written acknowledgment of indebtedness, unless the party holding such acknowledgment has, in writing, waived the right to proceed under this subdivision; or being a bank or banker, agent, broker, factor, or commission merchant, has failed for forty days to pay any moneys deposited with or received by him in a fiduciary capacity, upon demand of payment, excepting savings and loan banks, or associations who loan the money of their stockholders and depositors on real estate, and provide in their by-laws for the repayment of such deposits. The petitioners may, from time to time, amend and correct the petition, so that the same shall conform to the facts by leave of the court before which the proceedings are pending, such amendment or amendments to relate back to and be received as embraced in the original petition; but nothing in this section shall be construed to invalidate any loan of actual value, or the security therefor, made in good faith upon a security taken in good faith on the occasion of the making of such loan. The said petition shall be accompanied by a bond with two sureties in the penal sum of at least five hundred dollars, conditioned that if the debtor should not be declared an insolvent, the petitioners will pay all costs and damages, including a reasonable attorney's fee, that the debtor may sustain by reason of the filing of said petition. The court may, upon motion, direct the filing of an additional bond with different sureties, when deemed necessary.

§ 10. Upon the filing of such creditors' petition, the court, or a judge thereof, shall issue an order requiring such debtor to show cause, at a time and place to be fixed by said court, or judge, why he should not be adjudged an insolvent debtor, and at the same time, or thereafter, upon good cause shown therefor, said court, or judge, may make an order forbidding the payment of any debts, and the delivery of any property belonging to such debtor to him or for his use, or the transfer of any property by him.

§ 11. A copy of said petition, with a copy of the order to show cause, shall be served on the debtor, in the same manner as is provided by law for the service of summons in civil actions, but such service shall be made at least five days before the time fixed for the hearing; provided, that if, for any reason, the service is not made, the order may be renewed, and the time and place of hearing changed by supplemental order of the court; provided, however, that where the debtor or debtors on whom service is to be made reside out of this state; or has departed from the state; or cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state; or conceals himself to avoid the service of the order to show cause, or any other process or orders in the matter; or is a foreign corporation, having no managing or business agent, cashier, or secretary within the state, upon whom service can be made, and such facts are shown to the court, or a judge thereof, by affidavit, such court or judge thereof shall make an order that the service of such order, or other process, be made by publication, in the same manner, and with the same effect, as service of summons by publication in ordinary civil actions.

§ 12. At the time fixed for the hearing of said order to show cause, or such other time as it may be adjourned to, the debtor may demur to the petition for the same causes as is provided for demurrer in other cases by the Code of Civil Procedure. If the demurrer be overruled, the debtor shall have five days thereafter in which to answer the petition. If the debtor answers the petition, such answer shall contain a specific denial of the material allegations of the petition controverted by him, and shall be verified in the same manner as pleadings in civil actions; and the issues raised thereon, may be tried with or without a jury, according to the practice provided by law for the trial of civil actions.

§ 13. If the respondent shall make default, or if, after a trial, the issues are found in favor of the petitioners, the court shall make an order adjudging that said respondent is, and was at the time of filing the petition, an insolvent debtor, and that the debtor was guilty of the acts and things charged in the petition, or such of those acts and charges as the court may find to be true; and shall require said debtor, within such time as the court may designate, not to exceed three days, to file in court the schedule and inventory provided for in sections three and four of this act, duly verified as required of a petitioning debtor; provided, that in the affidavit of the insolvent touching his property and its disposition he shall not be required to swear that he has not made any fraudulent preference, or committed any other act in conflict with the provisions of this act; but he may do so if he desires. Said order shall further direct the sheriff of the county, or city and county, where the insolvency petition is filed, or the receiver, if one has been theretofore appointed, to take possession of all the estate, real and personal, of the debtor, except such as may be by law exempt from execution and of all his deeds, vouchers, books of account, and papers, and to keep the same safely until the appointment of an assignee. Said order shall further forbid the payment of any debts, and the delivery of any property belonging to such debtor, to him, or for his use, and the transfer of any property by him; and shall further appoint a time and place for a meeting of the creditors, to prove their debts, and choose an assignee of the estate, and shall designate a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or city and county, in which the petition is filed, if there be one; and if there be none, in a newspaper published nearest to such county, or city and county, in which publication of said order shall be made. The time appointed for the election of an assignee shall not be less than eight nor more than ten days from the date of the order of adjudication. Upon granting of said order, all proceedings against the said insolvent shall be stayed. When a receiver is appointed subsequent to adjudication, or an assignee is chosen as provided for in this act, the sheriff shall thereupon deliver to such receiver or assignee, as the case may be, all the property and assets of the insolvent which have come into his possession, and shall be allowed and paid as compensation for his service the same expenses and fees as would by law be collectable if the property had been levied upon and safely kept under attachment.

§ 14. A copy of the order provided for in section thirteen of this act, shall immediately be published by the clerk of said court in the newspaper designated therein, as often as such newspaper is printed before the meeting of creditors, and upon the filing, at any time before the date set for such meeting, of the schedule required by said section thirteen, a copy of said order shall be served by the clerk forthwith by United States mail, postage prepaid, or personally, on all creditors named in said schedule. If said schedule is not filed prior to the day fixed for the election of an assignee, publication of said order as herein required shall be of itself sufficient notice to the creditors of the time and place appointed for the election of an assignee. No order of adjudication upon creditors' petition shall be entered unless there be first deposited, in addition to the usual cost of commencing said proceedings, a sum of money sufficient to defray the cost of the publication ordered by the court, and the further sum of five dollars, which is hereby constituted the legal fee of the clerk for the mailing or service of notice to creditors required in this section.

§ 15. If, upon such hearing or trial, the issues are found in favor of the respondent, the proceedings shall be dismissed, and the respondent shall recover costs from the petitioning creditors in the same manner as on the final judgment in civil actions.

• § 16. In all cases where the debtor resides out of this state, or has departed from the state; or cannot, after due diligence, be found within the state; or conceals himself to avoid service of the order to show cause, or any other preliminary process or orders in the matter; or is a foreign corporation, having no managing or business agent, cashier, or secretary within the state upon whom service of orders and process can be made, and it therefore becomes necessary to obtain service of process and order to show cause, as provided in section eleven of this act, then the petitioning creditors, upon submitting the affidavits requisite to procure an order of publication, and presenting a bond in double the amount of the aggregate sum of their claims against the debtor, shall be entitled to an order of court directing the sheriff of the county, or city and county, in which the matter is pending, to take into his custody a sufficient amount of property of the debtor to satisfy the demands of the petitioning creditors, and the costs of the proceedings. Upon receiving such order of the court to take into custody property of the debtor, it shall be the duty of the sheriff to take possession of the property and effects of the debtor, not exempt from execution, to an extent sufficient to cover the amount provided for, and to prepare within three days from the time of taking such possession, a complete inventory of all the property so taken, and to return it to the court as soon as completed. The time for taking the inventory and making return thereof, may be extended for good cause shown to the court, or a judge thereof. The sheriff shall also prepare a schedule of the names and residences of the creditors, and the amount due to each, from the books of the debtor, or from such other papers or data of the debtor available that may come to his possession, and shall file such schedule list of creditors and inventory with the clerk of the court.

§ 17. In all cases where property is taken into the custody of the sheriff, as provided in the preceding section, if the property taken into custody by the sheriff does not embrace all the property and effects of the debtor not exempt from execution, any other creditor or creditors of the debtor, upon giving bond in double the amount of their claims, singly or jointly, shall be entitled to similar orders, and to like action, by the sheriff, until all claims be provided for, if there be sufficient property or effects. All property taken into custody by the sheriff by virtue of the giving of any such bonds shall be held by him for the benefit of all creditors of the debtor whose claims shall be duly proved, and as provided in this act. The bonds provided for in this and the preceding section to procure the order for custody of the property and effects of the debtor, shall be conditioned that if, upon final hearing of the petition in insolvency, the court shall find in favor of the petitioners, such bonds and all of them shall be void; if the decision be in favor of the debtor, the proceedings shall be dismissed, and the debtor, his heirs, administrators, executors, or assigns, shall be entitled to recover such sum of money as shall be sufficient to cover the damages sustained by him, not to exceed the amount of the respective bonds, in any court having jurisdiction of the subject and the parties; provided, that if either the petitioners or the debtor shall appeal from the decision of the court, upon final hearing of the petition the appellant shall be required to give bond to the successful party in a sum double the amount of the value of the property in controversy, and for the costs of the proceedings. Any person interested in the estate may except to the sufficiency of the sureties on such bond, or bonds. When excepted to, the petitioner's sureties, upon notice to the person excepting of not less than two nor more than five days, must justify before a judge or county clerk in the same manner as upon bail on arrest; and upon failure to justify, or if others in their place fail to justify, at the time and place appointed, the clerk or judge shall issue an order vacating the order to take the property of the debtor into the custody of the sheriff.

§ 18. If in any case, proper affidavits and bonds are presented to the court, or a judge thereof, asking for and obtaining an order of publication, and an order for the custody of the property of the debtor, as provided in sections sixteen and seventeen of this act, and thereafter the petitioners shall make it appear satisfactory to the court, or a judge thereof, that the interest of the parties to the proceedings will be subserved by a sale thereof, the court may order such property to be sold, in the same manner as property is sold under execution, the proceeds to be deposited in the court, to abide the result of the proceedings.

ARTICLE IV.

ASSIGNEES.

§ 19. At a meeting of the creditors in open court, those being entitled to vote, as provided by section eight, shall proceed to the election of one assignee. In electing an assignee, the opinion of the majority in amount of claims shall prevail. The clerk of the court shall keep a minute of the deliberations of said creditors, and of the election and appointment of an assignee, and enter the same upon the records of the court. The assignee shall file, within five days, unless the time be extended by the court, with the clerk, a bond, in an amount to be fixed by the court, to the state of California, with two or more sufficient sureties, approved by the court, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties devolving upon him. The bond shall not be void upon the first recovery, but may be sued upon from time to time by any creditor aggrieved, in his own name, until the whole penalty be exhausted. The sureties on such bond may be required to justify upon the application of any party interested, in the same manner as bail upon arrest in civil cases.

§ 20. If, on the day appointed for the meeting, creditors do not attend, or refuse to elect an assignee; or if, after election, the assignee shall fail to qualify within the proper time, or if a vacancy occurs by death or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the court to appoint an assignee and fix the amount of his bond.

§ 21. As soon as an assignee is elected or appointed and qualified, the clerk of the court shall, by an instrument under his hand and seal of the court, assign and convey to the assignee all the estate, real and personal, of the debtor with all his deeds, books and papers relating thereto, and such assignment shall relate back to the commencement of the proceedings in insolvency, and shall relate back to the acts upon which the adjudication was founded, and by operation of law shall vest the title to all such property and estate, both real and personal, in the assignee, although the same is then attached on mesne process, as the property of the debtor, and shall dissolve any attachment made within one month next preceding the commencement of the insolvency proceedings. Such assignment shall operate to vest in the assignee all of the estate of the insolvent debtor not exempt by law from execution. Whenever such assignment shall dissolve an attachment as herein provided, it shall also vacate any judgment made or entered, and dissolve and set aside any execution levied in any action or proceeding against the debtor commenced subsequently to the action in which the attachment is dissolved.

§ 22. The assignee shall have the right to recover all the estate, debts, and effects of said insolvent. If, at the time of the commencement of proceedings in insolvency an action is pending in the name of the debtor, for the recovery of a debt or other thing which might or ought to pass to the assignee by the assignment, the assignee shall be allowed and admitted to prosecute the action, in like manner and with like effect as if it had been originally commenced by him. If there are any rights of action in favor of the insolvent for damages, on any account, for which an action is not pending, the assignee shall have the right to prosecute the same with the same effect as the insolvent might have done himself if no proceedings in insolvency had been instituted. If any action or proceeding at law, or in equity, in which the insolvent is defendant is pending at the time of the adjudication, the assignee may defend the same, in the same manner and with like effect as it might have been defended by the insolvent. In suit prosecuted or defended by the assignee, a certified copy of the assignment made to him shall be conclusive evidence of his authority to sue or defend.

§ 23. The assignee shall, within one month after the making of the assignment to him, cause the same to be recorded in every county, or city and county, within this state, where any lands owned by the debtor are situated, and the record of such assignment, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be conclusive evidence thereof in all courts. If the schedule and inventory required by this act have not been filed by the debtor the assignee shall within one month after his election, prepare and file such schedule and inventory from the best information he can obtain, and shall thereupon serve notice by United States mail, postage prepaid, or personally, on all creditors named in such schedule, whose claims have not been filed, to forthwith prove their demands.

§ 24. Any assignee may at any time, by writing filed in court, resign his appointment, having first settled his accounts, and delivered up all the estate to such successor as the court shall appoint; provided, that if, in the discretion of the court, the circumstances of the case require it, upon good cause being shown, the court may, at any time before such settlement of account and delivery of the estate shall have been completed, revoke the appointment of such assignee and appoint another in his stead. The liability of the outgoing assignee, or of the sureties on his bond, shall not be in any manner discharged, released, or affected by such appointment of another in his stead.

§ 25. The said assignee shall have power:

1. To sue in his own name and recover all the estate, debts, and things in action, belonging or due to such debtor, and no set-off or counterclaim shall be allowed in any such suit for any debt, unless it was owing to such creditor by such debtor at the time of the adjudication of insolvency.

2. To take into his possession all the estate of such debtor except property exempt by law from execution, whether attached or delivered to him, or afterward discovered, and all books, vouchers, evidence of indebtedness and securities belonging to the same.

3. In case of a non-resident absconding or concealed debtor, to demand and receive of every sheriff who shall have attached any of the property of such debtor, or who shall have in his possession any moneys arising from the sale of such property, all such property and moneys, on paying him his lawful costs and charges for attaching and keeping the same.

4. From time to time to sell at public auction all the estate, real and personal, vested in him as such assignee, which shall come to his possession and as ordered by the court.

5. On such sales to execute the necessary conveyances and bills of sale.

6. To redeem all valid mortgages and conditional contracts, and all valid pledges of personal property, and to satisfy any judgments which may be an encumbrance on any property sold by him, or to sell such property, subject to such mortgage, contracts, pledges, or judgments.

7. To settle all matters and accounts between such debtor and his debtors, subject to the approval of the court.

8. Under the order of the court appointing him, to compound with any person indebted to such debtor, and thereupon to discharge all demands against such person.

9. To have and recover from any person receiving a conveyance, gift, transfer, payment, or assignment, made contrary to any provision of this act, the property thereby transferred or assigned; or in case a redelivery of the property cannot be had, to recover the value thereof, with damages for the detention.

§ 26. The insolvent shall, either before or on the day appointed for the meeting of creditors, deliver to the court all the commercial or account books he may have kept, which books shall be deposited in the clerk's office of said court. Said insolvent shall also deliver to the court at the same time, all vouchers, notes, bonds, bills, securities, or other evidences of debt, in any manner relating to or having any bearing upon or connection with the property surrendered by said debtor, and all such papers or securities shall be deposited in the clerk's office of said court, and the clerk shall hand them over, together with the books of the insolvent, to the assignee who may be appointed.

§ 27. If any person, before the assignment is made, having notice of the commencement of the proceedings in insolvency, or having reason to believe that insolvency proceedings are about to be commenced, embezzles or disposes of any of the moneys, goods, chattels, or effects of the insolvent, he is chargeable therewith, and liable to an action by the assignee for double the value of the property so embezzled or disposed of, to be recovered for the benefit of the estate.

§ 28. The same penalties, forfeitures, and proceedings by citation, examination and commitment shall apply on behalf of an assignee against persons suspected of having concealed, embezzled, conveyed away, or disposed of any property of the debtor, or of having possession or knowledge of any deeds, conveyances, bonds, contracts, or other writings which relate to any interest of the debtor in any real or personal estate as provided in the case of estates of deceased persons in sections one thousand four hundred and fifty-nine, one thousand four hundred and sixty, and one thousand four hundred and sixty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure.

§ 29. The assignee shall as speedily as possible convert the estate, real and personal, into money. He shall keep a regular account of all moneys received by him as assignee, to which every creditor or other person interested therein may, at all reasonable times, have access. No private sale of any property of the estate of an insolvent debtor shall be valid unless made under the order of the court, upon a petition in writing, which shall set forth the facts showing the sale to be necessary. Upon filing the petition, notice of at least ten days shall be given by publication and mailing, in the same manner as is provided in section seven of this act. If it appears that a private sale is for the best interests of the estate, the court shall order it to be made.

§ 30. In all cases where there has been personal service of the order to show cause, or voluntary appearance after order of publication, when it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the estate of the debtor, or any part thereof, is of a perishable nature, or is liable to deteriorate in value, or is disproportionately expensive to keep, the court may order the same to be sold in such manner as may be deemed most expedient, under the direction of the sheriff, receiver, or assignee, as the case may be, who shall hold the funds received in place of the property sold until further order of the court.

§ 31. Outstanding debts, or other property due or belonging to the estate, which cannot be collected and received by the assignee without unreasonable or inconvenient delay or expense, may be sold and assigned in like manner as the remainder of the estate. If there are any rights of action for damages in favor of the insolvent prior to the commencement of the insolvency proceedings, the same may, with the approval of the court, be compromised.

§ 32. Assignees shall be allowed all necessary expenses in the care, management, and settlement of the estate, and shall be entitled to charge and receive for their services commissions upon all sums of money coming to their hands and accounted for by them, as follows: For the first thousand dollars, at the rate of seven per centum; for all above that sum and not exceeding ten thousand dollars, at the rate of five per centum; and for all above that sum, at the rate of four per centum; provided, however, that if the person acting as assignee was receiver of the property of the estate pending the election of an assignee, any compensation allowed him as such receiver shall be deducted from the compensation to which he otherwise would be entitled as such assignee.

§ 33. At the expiration of three months from the appointment of the assignee in any case, or as much earlier as the court may direct, a time and place shall be fixed by the court at which the assignee shall exhibit to the court and to the creditors, and file just and true accounts of all his receipts and payments, verified by his oath, and a statement of the property outstanding, specifying the cause of its outstanding, also what debts or claims are yet undetermined, and stating what sum remains in his possession, and shall accompany the same with an affidavit that notice by mail has been given to all creditors named in the schedule filed by the debtor or the assignee that said accounts will be heard at a time specified in such notice, which time shall not be less than ten nor more than fifteen days from the filing of such accounts. At the hearing the court shall audit the accounts, and any person interested may appear and file exceptions thereto and contest the same, and thereupon the court may order a dividend paid to those creditors whose claims have been proven and allowed. Thereafter, further accounts, statements, and dividends shall be made in like manner as often as occasion requires; provided, however, that it shall be the duty of the assignee to file his final account within one year from the date of the order of adjudication, unless the court, after notice to creditors, shall grant further time, upon a satisfactory showing that great loss and waste would result to the estate by reason of the conversion of the property into money within said time, or that it has been impossible to do so by reason of litigation.

§ 34. The court shall at any time, upon the motion of any two or more creditors, require the assignee to file his account in the manner and upon giving the notice specified in the preceding section, and if he has funds subject to distribution, he shall be required to distribute them without delay.

§ 35. All creditors whose debts are duly proved and allowed shall be entitled to share in the property and estate pro rata without priority or preference whatever, other than as provided in this act and in section one thousand two hundred and four of the Code of Civil Procedure; provided, that any debt proved by any person liable as bail, surety, guarantor, or otherwise, for the debtor, shall not be paid to the person so proving the same until satisfactory evidence shall be produced of the payment of such debt by such person so liable; and the share to which such debt would be entitled may be paid into court, or otherwise held, for the benefit of the party entitled thereto, as the court may direct.

§ 36. Whenever any dividend has been duly declared, the distribution of it shall not be stayed or affected by reason of debts being subsequently proved, but the creditors proving such debts shall be entitled to a dividend equal to those already received by the other creditors, before any further dividend is made to the latter; provided, the failure to prove such claim shall not have resulted from his own neglect.

§ 37. Should the assignee refuse or neglect to render his accounts as required by sections thirty-three and thirty-four of this act, or pay over a dividend when he shall have, in the opinion of the court, sufficient funds for that purpose, the court shall immediately discharge such assignee from his trust, and shall have power to appoint another in his place. The assignee so discharged shall forthwith deliver over to the assignee appointed by the court all the funds, property, books, vouchers, or securities belonging to the insolvent, without charging or retaining any commission or compensation for his personal services.

§ 38. Preparatory to the final account and dividend, the assignee shall submit his account to the court, and file the same, and shall at the time of filing accompany the same with an affidavit that a notice by mail has been given to all creditors who have proved their claims, that he will apply for a settlement of his account, and for a discharge from all liability as assignee, at a time specified in such notice, which time shall not be less than ten or more than twenty days from such filing. At the hearing the court shall audit the account, and any person interested may appear and file exceptions in writing and contest the same. The court thereupon shall settle the account, and order a dividend of any portion of the estate, remaining undistributed, and shall discharge the assignee, subject to compliance with the order of the court, from all liability as assignee to any creditor of the insolvent.

ARTICLE V.

PARTNERSHIPS AND CORPORATIONS.

§ 39. Two or more persons who are partners in business, or the surviving partner of any firm, may be adjudged insolvent, either on the petition of such partners, or any one of them, or on the petition of five or more creditors of the partnership, qualified as provided for in section nine of this act, in which case an order shall be issued in the manner provided by this act, upon which all the joint stock and property of the partnership, and also all the separate estate of each of the partners, shall be taken, excepting such parts thereof as may be exempt by law; and all the creditors of the company, and the separate creditors of each partner, shall be allowed to prove their respective debts; and the assignee shall be chosen by the creditors of the copartnership, and shall also keep separate accounts of the joint stock or property of the copartnership, and the separate estate of each member thereof, and after deducting out of the whole amount received by such assignee the whole amount of the expenses and disbursements, the net proceeds of the joint stock shall be appropriated to pay the creditors of the copartnership, and the net proceeds of the separate estate of each partner shall be appropriated to pay his separate creditors; and if there shall be any balance of the separate estate of any partner after the payment of his separate debts, such balance shall be added to the joint stock for the payment of the joint creditors; and if there shall be any balance of the joint stock after the payment of the joint debts, such balance shall be divided and appropriated to and among the separate estate of the several partners according to their respective right and interest therein, and as it would have been if the partnership had been dissolved without any insolvency; and the sum so appropriated to the separate estate of each partner shall be applied to the payment of his separate debts, and the certificate of discharge shall be granted or refused to each partner as the same would or ought to be if the proceedings had been by or against him alone under this act; and in all other respects the proceedings as to the partners shall be conducted in the like manner as if they had been commenced and prosecuted by or against one person alone. If such copartners reside in different counties, the court in which the petition is first filed shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over the case. If the petition be filed by less than all the partners of a copartnership, those partners who do not join in the petition shall be ordered to show cause why they, as individuals, and said copartnership, should not be adjudged to be insolvent, in the same manner as other debtors are required to show cause upon a creditor's petition, as in this act provided; and no order of adjudication shall be made in said proceedings until after the hearing of said order to show cause; provided, that in case of proceedings by or against surviving partners, as such, only the partnership interest of deceased partners shall be subject to the control of the court in the insolvency proceeding; but the surviving partner, assignee, or creditors may pursue the property of the deceased partners in the court having jurisdiction thereof in probate proceedings.

§ 40. The provisions of this act shall apply to corporations, and upon the petition of any officer of any corporation, duly authorized by the vote of the board of directors or trustees, at a meeting specially called for that purpose, or by the assent in writing of a majority of the directors or trustees as the case may be, or upon a creditor's petition made and presented in the manner provided in respect to debtors, the like proceedings shall be had and taken as are provided in the case of debtors. All the provisions of the act which apply to the debtor, or set forth his duties, examination, and liabilities, or prescribe penalties, or relate to fraudulent conveyances, payments and assignments, apply to each and every officer of any corporation in relation to the same matters concerning the corporation. Whenever any corporation is declared insolvent, all its property and assets shall be distributed to the creditors; but no discharge shall be granted to any corporation.

ARTICLE VI.

PROOF OF DEBTS.

§ 41. All debts due and payable from the debtor at the time of the adjudication of insolvency, and all debts then existing but not payable until a future time, a rebate of interest being made when no interest is payable by the terms of the contract, may be proved against the estate of the debtor.

§ 42. All demands against the debtor for or on account of any goods or chattels wrongfully taken, converted, or withheld by him, may be proved and allowed as debts to the amount of the value of the property so withheld, from the time of the conversion; provided, however, that if the assignee, or any creditor whose claim has been proven against the estate, shall request it in writing, the court shall require the matter of such claim for damages to be tried as an ordinary action at law, to determine the liability of the debtor for such damages.

§ 43. If the debtor shall be bound as indorser, surety, bail, or guarantor, upon any bill, bond, note, or other specialty or contract, or for any debt of any person, and his liability shall not have become absolute until the adjudication of insolvency, the creditor may prove the same after such liability shall have become fixed, and before the final dividend shall have been declared.

§ 44. In all cases of contingent debts and contingent liabilities, contracted by the debtor, and not herein otherwise provided for, the creditor may make claim therefor and have his claim allowed, with the right to share in the dividends, if the contingency shall happen before the order of the final dividend; or he may, at any time, apply to the court to have the present value of the debt or liability ascertained and liquidated, which shall be done in such manner as the court shall order, and shall be allowed to prove for the amount so ascertained.

§ 45. Any person liable as bail, surety, or guarantor, or otherwise, for the debtor, who shall have paid the debt, or any part thereof, in discharge of the whole, shall be entitled to prove such debt, or to stand in the place of the creditor, if he shall have proved the same, although such payments shall have been made after the proceedings in insolvency were commenced; and any person so liable for the debtor, and who has not paid the whole of said debt, but is still liable for the same, or any part thereof, may, if the creditor shall fail or omit to prove such debt, prove the same in the name of the creditor.

§ 46. Where the debtor is liable to pay rent, or other debt falling due at fixed and stated periods, the creditor may prove for a proportionate part thereof up to the time of the insolvency, as if the same became due from day to day, and not at such fixed and stated periods.

§ 47. In all cases of mutual debts and mutual credits between the parties, the account between them shall be stated, and one debt set off against the other, and the balance only shall be allowed and paid. But no set-off or counterclaim shall be allowed of a claim in its nature not provable against the estate; provided, that no set-off or counterclaim shall be allowed in favor of any debtor to the insolvent of a claim purchased by or transferred to him after the filing of the petition by or against him.

§ 48. When a creditor has a mortgage, or pledge of real or personal property of the debtor, or a lien thereon, for securing the payment of a debt owing to him from the debtor, he shall be admitted as a creditor only for the balance of the debt, after deducting the value of such property, to be ascertained by agreement between him and the receiver, if any, and if no receiver, then upon such sum as the court, or a judge thereof, may decide to be fair and reasonable, before the election of an assignee, or by a sale thereof, to be made in such manner as the court, or judge thereof, shall direct; or the creditor may release or convey his claim to the receiver, if any, or if no receiver then to the sheriff, before the election of an assignee, or to the assignee if an assignee has been elected, upon such property, and be admitted to prove his whole debt. If the value of the property exceeds the sum for which it is so held as security, the assignee may release to the creditor the debtor's right of redemption thereon on receiving such excess; or he may sell the property, subject to the claim of the creditor thereon, and in either case the assignee and creditor, respectively, shall execute all deeds and writings necessary or proper to consummate the transaction. If the property is not sold or released, and delivered up, or its value fixed, the creditor shall not be allowed to prove any part of his debt.

§ 49. No creditor, proving his debt or claim, shall be allowed to maintain any suit at law or in equity therefor, against the debtor, but shall be deemed to have waived all right of action and suit against him, and all proceedings already commenced, or unsatisfied, judgment already obtained thereon, shall be deemed to be discharged and surrendered thereby; and after the debtor's discharge, upon proper application and proof to the court having jurisdiction, all such proceedings shall be dismissed, and such unsatisfied judgments satisfied of record; provided, that no valid lien existing in good faith thereunder shall be thereby affected; and further provided, that a creditor proving his debt or claim shall not be held to have waived his right of action or suit against the debtor where a discharge has been refused or the proceedings have been determined without a discharge. And no creditor whose debt is provable under this act shall be allowed, after the commencement of proceedings in insolvency, to prosecute to final judgment any action therefor against the debtor until the question of the debtor's discharge shall have been determined, and any such suit or proceeding shall, upon the application of the debtor or of any creditor, or the assignee, be stayed to await the determination of the court in insolvency on the question of discharge; provided, that there be no unreasonable delay on the part of the debtor or the petitioning creditors, as the case may be, in prosecuting the case to its conclusion; and provided also, that if the amount due the creditor is in dispute, the suit, by leave of the court, in insolvency may proceed to judgment for the purpose of ascertaining the amount due, which amount may be proven in insolvency, but execution shall be stayed as aforesaid; provided further, that where a valid lien or attachment has been acquired or secured in any such action, and an undertaking been offered and accepted in lieu of such lien or attachment, the case may be prosecuted to final judgment for the purpose of fixing the liability of the sureties upon such undertaking, but execution against the insolvent upon such judgment shall be stayed. [Amendment, Stats. 1897, ch. 38.]

§ 50. Any person who shall have accepted any preference, having reasonable cause to believe that the same was made or given by the debtor contrary to any provision of this act, shall not prove the debt or claim on account of which the preference was made or given; nor shall he receive any dividend thereon until he shall first have surrendered to the assignee all property, money, benefit, or advantage received by him under such preference.

§ 51. The court may, upon the application of the assignee, or of any creditor of the debtor, or without any application, before or after adjudication in insolvency, examine upon oath the debtor in relation to his property and his estate and any person tendering or making proof of claims, and may subpoena witnesses to give evidence relating to such matters. All examinations of witnesses shall be had and depositions shall be taken in accordance with and in the same manner as is provided by the Code of Civil Procedure.

ARTICLE VII.

DISCHARGE.

§ 53. No discharge shall be granted, or if granted shall be valid, if the debtor shall have sworn falsely in his affidavit annexed to his petition, schedule, or inventory, or upon any examination in the course of the proceedings in insolvency, in relation to any material fact concerning his estate, or his debts, or to any other material fact; or if he has concealed any part of his estate or effects, or any books or writing relating thereto; or if he has been guilty of fraud or wilful neglect in the care, custody, or delivery to the assignee of the property belonging to him at the time of the presentation of his petition and inventory, excepting such property as he is permitted to retain under the provisions of this act, or if he has caused or permitted any loss or destruction thereof; or if, within one month before the commencement of such proceedings, he has procured his lands, goods, moneys, or chattels to be attached, or seized on execution; or if he has destroyed, mutilated, altered, or falsified any of his books, documents, papers, writings, or securities, or has made, or been privy to the making of, any false or fraudulent entry in any book of account or other document with intent to defraud his creditors; or if he has given any fraudulent preference, contrary to the provisions of this act, or made any fraudulent payment, gift, transfer, conveyance, or assignment of any part of his property, or has lost any part thereof in gaming, or has admitted a false or fictitious debt against his estate; or, if, having knowledge that any person has proven such false or fictitious debt, he has not disclosed the same to his assignee within one month after such knowledge; or if, being a merchant or tradesman, he has not, subsequently to the passage of this act, kept proper books of account; or if he, or any other person on his account, or in his behalf, has influenced the action of any creditor, at any stage of the proceedings, by any pecuniary consideration or obligation; or if he has, in contemplation of becoming insolvent, made any pledge, payment, transfer, assignment, or conveyance of any part of his property, directly or indirectly, absolutely or conditionally, for the purpose of preferring any creditor or person having a claim against him, or who is, or may be, under liability for him, or for the purpose of preventing the property from coming into the hands of the assignee, or of being distributed under this act in satisfaction of his debts; or if he has been convicted of any misdemeanor under this act, or has been guilty of fraud contrary to the true intent of this act; or, in case of voluntary insolvency, has received the benefits of this or any other act of insolvency or bankruptcy, within three years next preceding his application for discharge; or if insolvency proceedings in which he could have applied for a discharge are pending by or against him in the superior court of any other county, or city and county, in the state. And before any discharge is granted, the debtor shall take and subscribe an oath to the effect that he has not done, suffered, or been privy to any act, matter, or thing specified in this act, as grounds for withholding such discharge or as invalidating such discharge, if granted.

§ 54. Any creditor opposing the discharge of a debtor shall file specifications in writing, of the grounds of his opposition, and after the debtor has filed and served his answer thereto, which pleadings shall be verified, the court shall try the issue or issues raised, with or without a jury, according to the practice provided by law in civil actions.

§ 55. If it shall appear to the court that the debtor has in all things conformed to his duty under this act, and that he is entitled under the provisions thereof to receive a discharge, the court shall grant him a discharge from all his debts, except as hereinafter provided, and shall give him a certificate thereof, under the seal of the court, in substance as follows: In the superior court of the county of ———, state of California. Whereas, ——— has been duly adjudged an insolvent under the insolvent laws of this state, and appears to have conformed to all the requirements of law in that behalf, it is therefore ordered by the court that said ——— be forever discharged from all debts and claims, which by said insolvent laws are made provable against his estate, and which existed on the ——— day of ———, on which the petition of adjudication was filed by (or against) him, excepting such debts, if any, as are by said insolvent laws excepted from the operation of a discharge in insolvency. Given under my hand, and the seal of the court, this ——— day of ———, A. D. ———. Attest: ———, clerk. (Seal) ———, judge.

§ 56. No debt created by fraud or embezzlement of the debtor, or his defalcation as a public officer, or while acting in a fiduciary character, shall be discharged under this act, but the debt may be proved, and the dividend thereon shall be a payment on account of said debt; and no discharge granted under this act shall release, discharge, or affect any person liable for the same debt, for or with the debtor, either as partner, joint contractor, indorser, surety, or otherwise.

§ 57. A discharge, duly granted under this act, shall, with the exceptions aforesaid, release the debtor from all claims, debts, liabilities, and demands, set forth in his schedule, or which were or might have been proved against his estate in insolvency, and may be pleaded by a simple averment that on the day of its date such discharge was granted to him, setting forth the same in full, and the same shall be a complete bar to all suits brought on any such debts, claims, liabilities, or demands, and the certificate shall be prima facie evidence in favor of such fact and of the regularity of such discharge; provided, however, that any creditor of said debtor, whose debt was proved or provable against the estate in insolvency, who shall see fit to contest the validity of such discharge on the ground that it was fraudulently obtained, and who has discovered the facts constituting the fraud subsequent to the discharge, may, at any time within two years after the date thereof, apply to the court which granted it to set it aside and annul the same, or if the same shall have been pleaded, the effect thereof may be avoided collaterally upon any such grounds.

§ 58. The refusal of a discharge to the debtor shall not affect the administration and distribution of his estate under the provisions of this act.

ARTICLE VIII.

FRAUDULENT PREFERENCES AND TRANSFERS.

§ 59. If any debtor being insolvent, or in contemplation of insolvency, within one month before the filing of a petition by or against him, with a view to give a preference to any creditor, or person having a claim against him, or who is under any liability for him, procures any part of his property to be attached, sequestered, or seized on execution, or makes any payment, pledge, mortgage, assignment, transfer, sale, or conveyance of any part of his property, either directly or indirectly, absolutely or conditionally, to any one, the person receiving such payment, pledge, mortgage, assignment, transfer, sale, or conveyance, or to be benefited thereby, or by such attachment or seizure, having reasonable cause to believe that such debtor is insolvent, and that such attachment, seizure, payment, pledge, mortgage, conveyance, transfer, sale, or assignment is made with a view to prevent his property from coming to his assignee in insolvency, or to prevent the same from being distributed ratably among his creditors, or to defeat the object of, or in any way hinder, impede, or delay the operation of, or to evade any of the provisions of this act, such attachment, sequestration, seizure, payment, pledge, mortgage, transfer, sale, assignment, or conveyance, is void, and the assignee, or the receiver, may recover the property, or the value thereof, as assets of such insolvent debtor; and if such payment, pledge, mortgage, conveyance, sale, assignment, or transfer is not made in the usual and ordinary course of business of the debtor, or if such seizure or sequestration is made under a judgment which the debtor has confessed or offered to allow, that fact shall be prima facie evidence of fraud. All assignments, transfers, conveyances, mortgages, or encumbrances of real estate shall be deemed, under this section, to have been made at the time the instrument conveying or affecting such realty was filed for record in the county recorder's office of the county, or city and county, where the same is situated.

ARTICLE IX.

PENAL CLAUSES.

§ 60. From and after the taking effect of this act, if any debtor or insolvent shall, after the commencement of proceedings in insolvency, secrete or conceal any property belonging to his estate, or part with, conceal, or destroy, alter, mutilate, or falsify, or cause to be concealed, destroyed, altered, mutilated, or falsified, any book, deed, document, or writing relating thereto, or remove, or cause to be removed, the same or any part thereof, with intent to prevent it from coming into the possession of the assignee in insolvency, or to hinder, impede, or delay his assignee in recovering or receiving the same, or make any payment, gift, sale, assignment, transfer, or conveyance of any property belonging to his estate, with like intent, or shall spend any part thereof in gaming; or shall, with intent to defraud, wilfully and fraudulently conceal from his assignee, or fraudulently or designedly omit from his schedule any property or effects whatsoever; or if, in case of any person having, to his knowledge or belief, proved a false or fictitious debt against his estate, he shall fail to disclose the same to his assignee within one month after coming to the knowledge or belief thereof; or shall attempt to account for any of his property by fictitious losses or expenses; or shall, within three months before commencement of proceedings of insolvency, under the false pretense of carrying on business and dealing in the ordinary course of trade, obtain on credit from any person any goods or chattels, with intent to defraud; or shall, with intent to defraud his creditors, within three months next before the commencement of proceedings in insolvency, pawn, pledge, or dispose of, otherwise than by bona fide transactions in the ordinary way of his trade, any of his goods and chattels which have been obtained on credit and remain unpaid for, he shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than three months nor more than two years.

ARTICLE X.

MISCELLANEOUS.

§ 61. If any debtor shall die after the order of adjudication, the proceedings shall be continued and concluded in like manner and with like validity and effect as if he had lived.

§ 62. Pending proceedings by or against any person, copartnership, or corporation, no statute of limitations of this state shall run against a claim which in its nature is provable against the estate of the debtor.

§ 63. Any creditor, at any stage of the proceedings, may be represented by his attorney or duly authorized agent.

§ 64. It shall be the duty of the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings to exempt and set apart, for the use and benefit of said insolvent, such real and personal property as is by law exempt from execution; and also a homestead, in the manner provided in section one thousand four hundred and sixty-five of the Code of Civil Procedure. But no property or homestead shall be set apart, as aforesaid, until it is first proved that notice of the hearing of the application therefor has been duly given by the clerk, by causing to be posted in at least three public places in the county at least ten days prior to the time of such hearing, setting forth the name of said insolvent debtor, and the time and place appointed for the hearing of such application, which said notice shall briefly indicate the homestead sought to be exempted or the property sought to be set aside; and the decree must show that such proof was made to the satisfaction of the court, and shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.

§ 65. The filing of a petition by or against a debtor upon which, or upon an amendment of which, an order of adjudication in insolvency may be made, shall be deemed to be the commencement of proceedings in insolvency under this act.

§ 66. Words used in this act in the singular, include the plural, and in the plural, the singular, and the word "debtor" includes partnerships and corporations.

§ 67. Upon the filing of either a voluntary or involuntary petition in insolvency, a receiver may be appointed by the court in which the proceeding is pending, or by a judge thereof, at any time before the election of an assignee, when it appears by the verified petition of a creditor that the assets of the insolvent, or a considerable portion thereof, have been pledged, mortgaged, transferred, assigned, conveyed, or seized, on legal process, in contravention or violation of the provisions of section fifty-nine of this act, and that it is necessary to commence an action to recover the same. The appointment, oath, undertaking and powers of such receiver shall in all respects be regulated by the general laws of the state applicable to receivers. When an assignee is chosen, and has qualified, the receiver shall forthwith return to court an account of the assets and property which have come into his possession, and of his disbursements, and a report of all actions or proceedings commenced by him for the recovery of any property belonging to the estate, and the court shall thereupon summarily hear and settle the receiver's account, and shall allow him a just compensation for his services, including a reasonable attorney's fee, whereupon the receiver shall deliver all property, assets, or effects remaining in his hands, to the assignee, who shall be substituted for the receiver in all pending actions or proceedings.

§ 68. All sections of the Code of Civil Procedure of the state of California relating to contempts are hereby made applicable to all proceedings under this act.

§ 69. When an attachment has been made and is not dissolved before the commencement of proceedings in insolvency, or is dissolved by an undertaking given by the defendant, if the claim upon which the attachment suit was commenced is proved against the estate of the debtor, the plaintiff may prove the legal costs and disbursements of the suit, and of the keeping of the property, and the amount thereof shall be a preferred debt. In all contested matters in insolvency the court may, in its discretion, award costs to either party, to be paid by the other, or to either or both parties, to be paid out of the estate, as justice in equity may require; in awarding costs, the court may issue execution therefor. In all involuntary cases under this act, the court shall allow the petitioning creditors out of the estate of the debtor, if any adjudication of insolvency be made, as a preferred claim, all legal costs and disbursements incurred by them in that behalf.

§ 70. The court may, upon the application of the debtor, if it be a voluntary petition, or of the petitioning creditors, if a creditor's petition, dismiss the petition and discontinue the proceedings at any time before the appointment of an assignee upon giving ten days' notice to the creditors, in the same manner that notice of the time and place of an election of an assignee is given, if no creditor files written objections to such dismissal; provided, however, that by consent of all creditors the proceedings may be dismissed at any time. After the appointment of an assignee, no dismissal shall be made without the consent of all parties interested in or affected thereby.

§ 71. An appeal may be taken to the supreme court in the following cases:

1. From an order granting or refusing an adjudication of insolvency;
2. From an order made at the hearing of any account of an assignee, allowing or rejecting a creditor's claim, in whole or in part;
3. From an order granting or overruling a motion for a new trial;
4. From an order settling an account of an assignee;
5. From an order against or in favor of setting apart homestead or other property claimed as exempt from execution;
6. From an order granting or refusing a discharge to the debtor.

The notice, undertaking, and procedure on appeal shall conform to the general laws of this state regulating appeals in civil cases, except that when an assignee has given an official undertaking and appeals from a judgment or order in insolvency, his official undertaking stands in the place of an undertaking on appeal, and the sureties therein are liable on such undertaking; provided, however, that an appeal from an order granting or refusing an adjudication of insolvency shall not stay proceedings unless a written undertaking be entered into on the part of the appellant, with at least two sureties, in such an amount as the court, or a judge thereof, may direct, but not less than double the value of the property involved, to the effect that if the order appealed from be affirmed, or the appeal dismissed, appellant will pay all costs and damages which the adverse parties may sustain by reason of the appeal and the stay of proceedings.

§ 72. The insolvent act of eighteen hundred and eighty, and all amendments thereto, are hereby repealed; provided, however, that such repeal shall in no manner invalidate or affect any case in insolvency instituted and pending in any court on and prior to the day when this act shall take effect.

Federal Bankruptcy Act passed by Congress in pursuance of constitutional authority July 1, 1898, suspends the state Act of Insolvency while the federal act is in force. Mr. Justice Speer says, In re Macon Sash etc. Co., 112 Fed. STATE INSOLVENCY LAW.—History: The first legislation in this state on this subject was the statute of 1852, 69, amended 1858, 58; 1860, 283; 1863, 750; supplemented 1875-6, 581, and continued in force by § 19, Pol. Code.

The statute of 1880, 82, ch. LXXXVII, repealed all former inconsistent legislation, and was doubtless prompted by the repeal of the U. S. Bankruptcy Act in 1878.

The above statute has been carried into the Penal Code by Stats. 1905, 694, ch. DXXXIX.—See KERR'S CYC. PEN. CODE § 925.

An act authorizing the appointment of interpreters of Italian language in cities of more than 100,000 inhabitants (Stats. 1885, 108, ch. CXXIV, amended 1895, 37, ch. XXXII) is of doubtful utility. As to San Francisco (see Charter of 1899, § 1, subd. 20), the power of courts to appoint interpreters in proper cases is unquestioned.

INTOXICATING LIQUORS—COLLEGE CITY.

To prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within one mile of College City, Colusa County, state of California.

(Stats. 1875-6, 691, ch. CCCCLXXIII.)

§ 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to keep or expose for sale, or sell, or give, or permit others to take, for a consideration, directly or indirectly, any malt or spirituous, or other alcoholic liquors, upon or within one mile of the southeast corner of the plat of ground set apart for college purposes in College City, Colusa County, state of California, except for medicinal purposes.

§ 2. Any violation of section one of this act shall be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable by fine, or imprisonment in the jail of Colusa County, or both; the fine to be not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and the imprisonment not to be less than thirty nor more than ninety days for each offense.

As to sale of liquor near other state institutions, the statutes of 1873-4, 12; 1880, 80, and 1895, 161, have been carried into the Penal Code by Stats. 1905, 652.—See KERR'S CYC. PEN. CODE § 172.

This statute has been carried into the Penal Code by Stats. 1905, 639-645, ch. CDLXXIX.—See KERR'S CYC. PEN. CODE § 63b.

INTOXICATING LIQUORS—MENDOCINO HOSPITAL.

To prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within a certain distance of the Mendocino State Hospital for the Insane.

(Stats. 1905, 20, ch. XXVI.)

§ 1. It shall not be lawful for any person to keep any saloon or bar, or sell or offer for sale any spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, within one mile of the asylum building of the Mendocino State Hospital for the Insane near Ukiah, in the county of Mendocino, state of California; and any person violating the provisions of this statute shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for each offense shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding six months, or by fine not less than fifty dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars; and in case of the non-payment of such fine such person may be imprisoned in the county jail at the rate of one day for each two dollars of said fine remaining unpaid.

By Stats. 1905, 652, the Statutes of 1873-4, 12; 1880, 80, and 1895, 161, are believed to have been carried into the Penal Code.—See KERR'S CYC. PEN. CODE § 172. But that section seems to be confined to lands of the state on which a "prison or reformatory is situated" and to the University, Soldiers'

Home, and State Capitol. Upon the interpretation of the word "reformatory" will depend the question whether liquors may be sold at or near the insane asylums of the state. The Napa hospital was specifically mentioned in § 172 of the Penal Code prior to the late amendment to that section.

INTOXICATING LIQUOR—SALE.

To prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors to persons addicted to the inordinate use of intoxicating liquors.

(Stats. 1889, 352, ch. CCXLI.)

§ 1. Any person who, after receiving notice that a person named in said notice is addicted to the inordinate use of intoxicating liquors, should the person named in said notice be so addicted, shall thereafter, within a period of twelve months, furnish to said person so addicted to the inordinate use of intoxicating liquors any spirituous liquors, wines, or intoxicating or malt liquors, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Said notice shall be in writing, and may be given by any adult member of the family of said person so addicted to the inordinate use of intoxicating liquors, or by any adult relative of said person so addicted to the inordinate use of said intoxicating liquors.

§ 2. The provisions of this act shall not prohibit any regularly licensed physician from furnishing or prescribing said liquors in case of sickness.

But see KERR'S CYC. PEN. CODE § 397, amendment 1903; and see tits. Children; Indians.

INTOXICATING LIQUORS—SOLDIERS' HOME.

To prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors in the immediate vicinity of soldiers' homes.

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS.

To provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition or construction thereby of works for the irrigation of the lands embraced within such districts, and, also, to provide for the distribution of water for irrigation purposes.

(Stats. 1897, 254, ch. CLXXXIX; amended 1901, 815, ch. CCLXIX; amended 1905, 27, ch. XXXIII.)

ORGANIZATION.

§ 1. A majority in number of the holders of title, or evidence of title, to lands susceptible of irrigation from a common source and by the same system of works, such holders of title, or evidence of title, representing a majority in value of said lands, according to the equalized county assessment roll or rolls for the year last preceding, may propose the organization of an irrigation district, under the provisions of this act. Said equalized assessment roll or rolls shall be sufficient evidence of title for the purposes of this act.

§ 2. In order to propose the organization of an irrigation district, a petition shall be presented to the board of supervisors of the county in which the lands within the proposed district, or the greater portion thereof, are situated, signed by the required number of holders of title, or evidence of title, to lands within such proposed district, and representing the requisite majority in value of said lands, which petition shall set forth the boundaries of the proposed district, and shall state, generally, the source from which said lands are proposed to be irrigated, and the character of the works proposed to be acquired or constructed for irrigation purposes, and shall pray that the territory embraced within the boundaries of the proposed district may be organized as an irrigation district under the provisions of this act. The petition must be accompanied with a good and sufficient undertaking, to be approved by said board of supervisors, in double the amount of the probable cost of organizing such district, conditioned that the sureties shall pay all of said costs, in case said organization shall not be affected. Said petition shall be presented at a regular meeting of said board, and shall be published for at least two weeks before the time at which the same is to be presented, in some newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county where said petition is presented, together with a notice stating the time of the meeting at which the same will be presented; and if any portion of the lands within said proposed district lie within another county or counties, then said petition and notice shall be published, as above provided, in a newspaper published in each of said counties. When such petition is presented, said board of supervisors shall hear the same, and may adjourn such hearing from time to time, not exceeding four weeks in all. And on the final hearing said board shall make such changes in the proposed boundaries as may be deemed advisable, and shall define and establish such boundaries. But said board shall not modify said boundaries so as to exclude from such proposed district any territory which is susceptible of irrigation from a common source and by the same system of works applicable to the other lands in such proposed district; nor shall any lands which will not, in the judgment of said board, be benefited by irrigation, by means of said system of works, be included within such proposed district. Any person whose lands are susceptible of irrigation from the same source and system of works, may, upon his application, in the discretion of said board, have such lands included within said proposed district.

§ 3. Upon such hearing of said petition, the board of supervisors shall determine whether or not said petition complies with the requirements of sections one and two of this act, and for that purpose must hear all competent and relevant testimony offered in support or in opposition thereto. Such determination shall be entered upon the minutes of said board of supervisors.

§ 4. The right of appeal from said order to the superior court of the county where said petition is heard is hereby given to any person interested who is a party to the record; provided, that if more than one appeal be taken they shall be consolidated and tried together. Such appeal shall be taken within ten days after the entry of such order upon the minutes of the board of supervisors. The appeal shall be taken and heard in the same manner as appeals from justices' courts to the superior court, except as herein otherwise provided. Upon the appeal, the superior court may make and enter its judgment affirming, modifying, or reversing the order appealed from. Within ten days thereafter the superior court must cause its remittitur to issue to said board of supervisors, and if said order of the board of supervisors is modified or reversed, the judgment of the superior court and its remittitur shall direct the board of supervisors what order it shall enter. Such remittitur shall be filed by the clerk of the board of supervisors, and at the first regular meeting of the board thereafter, it shall cause to be entered in its minutes the order as directed by said superior court. The appeal herein provided for shall be heard and determined within thirty days from the time of filing the notice of appeal.

§ 5. If, on said final hearing, the boundaries of the proposed district are defined and established, said board shall make an order dividing said district into five divisions, as nearly equal in size as may be practicable, which shall be numbered first, second, third, fourth, and fifth, and one director shall be elected for each division by the electors thereof; provided, that if so requested in said petition, the board may order that there shall be only three divisions in said district, and that only three directors be elected, or that they be elected for the district at large.

ELECTION ON ORGANIZATION.

§ 6. Said board of supervisors shall then give notice of an election to be held in such proposed district, for the purpose of determining whether or not the same shall be organized under the provisions of this act. Such notice shall describe the boundaries so established, and shall designate a name for the proposed district, and said notice shall be published for at least three weeks previous to such election, in a newspaper published within the county in which the petition for the organization of the proposed district was presented; and if any portion of such proposed district is within another county or counties, then such notice shall be published for the same length of time in a newspaper published in each of said counties. Such notice shall require the electors to cast ballots, which shall contain the words "Irrigation District—Yes," or "Irrigation District—No," or words equivalent thereto, and also the names of persons to be voted for at said election. For the purposes of said election the board of supervisors must establish a convenient number of election precincts in said proposed district, and define the boundaries of the same. Such election shall be conducted as nearly as practicable in accordance with the general election laws of the state, but no particular form of ballot shall be required.

§ 7. At such election there shall be elected a board of directors, and an assessor, tax collector, and treasurer; provided, that where a consolidation of offices as hereinafter provided for is deemed advisable in the organization of a district, the petitioners may request in their petition for organization such consolidation, and the board of supervisors calling the election shall in its order therefor announce such consolidation, and then only one person shall be elected to fill the several offices so consolidated.

§ 8. No person shall be entitled to vote at any election held under the provisions of this act unless he possesses all the qualifications required of electors under the general election laws of the state.

§ 9. The board of supervisors shall meet on the second Monday succeeding such election, and shall proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat, and if upon such canvass it appears that at least two thirds of all the votes cast are "Irrigation District—Yes," said board shall, by an order entered on its minutes, declare the territory duly organized as an irrigation district, under the name theretofore designated, and shall declare the persons receiving respectively the highest number of votes at said election to be duly elected.

§ 10. Said board shall then cause a copy of such order, duly certified, to be immediately filed for record in the office of the county recorder of any county in which any portion of the lands embraced in such district are situated, and must also immediately forward a copy thereof to the clerk of the board of supervisors of each of said last-mentioned counties, and no board of supervisors of any county in which any portion of the lands embraced in such district are situated shall, after the date of the organization thereof, allow another district to be formed including any portion of said lands, without the consent of the board of directors of the district in which they are situated. From and after such filing, the organization of such district shall be complete.

§ 11. Such election, on organization, may be contested by any person owning property within the proposed district liable to assessment. The directors elected at such election shall be made parties defendant. Such contest shall be brought in the superior court of the county where the petition for organization is filed; provided, that if more than one contest be pending they shall be consolidated and tried together. The court having jurisdiction shall speedily try such contest, and determine, upon the hearing, whether the election was fairly conducted and in substantial compliance with the requirements of this act, and enter its judgment accordingly. Such contest must be brought within twenty days after the canvass of the vote and declaration of the result by the board of supervisors. The right of appeal is hereby given to either party to the record within thirty days from entry of judgment. The appeal must be heard and determined by the supreme court within sixty days from the time of filing the notice of appeal.

§ 12. The officers elected at the election hereinbefore provided for shall immediately enter upon their duties as such, upon qualifying in the manner for such officers herein provided. Said officers shall hold office respectively until their successors are elected and qualified.

DUTIES AND POWERS OF BOARDS OF DIRECTORS.

§ 13. The directors of any district created after the passage of this act, on the first Tuesday after their election, after they shall have qualified, shall meet and classify themselves by lot into two classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, and the term of office of the class having the greater number shall expire at the next general February election in this act provided for; and the term of office of the class having the lesser number shall terminate at the next general February election thereafter. After such classification, said directors shall organize as a board, shall elect a president from their number, and appoint a secretary, who shall each hold office during the pleasure of the board. The salary of the secretary and the amount of the bond to be given by him for the faithful performance of his duties shall be fixed by the board of directors.

§ 14. The board of directors shall hold a regular monthly meeting, in their office, on the first Tuesday in every month, and such special meetings as may be required for the proper transaction of business; provided, that all special meetings must be ordered by a majority of the board. The order must be entered of record, and five days' notice thereof must, by the secretary, be given to each member not joining in the order. The order must specify the business to be transacted, and none other than that specified must be transacted at such special meeting. All meetings of the board must be public, and three members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; provided, however, that when the board consists of three members only, then in such case two shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but on all questions requiring a vote there shall be a concurrence of at least the number constituting a quorum. All records of the board shall be open to public inspection during business hours. The board of directors shall, on the first Tuesday in January of each and every year render, and immediately thereafter cause to be published, a verified statement of the financial condition of the district, showing particularly the receipts and disbursements of the last preceding year, together with the source of such receipts and purpose of such disbursements. Said publication shall be made at least once a week for two weeks, in some paper published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is situated.

§ 15. The board shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to manage and conduct the business and affairs of the district; make and execute all necessary contracts; employ and appoint such agents, officers, and employees as may be required, and prescribe their duties. The board and its agents and employees shall have the right to enter upon any land to make surveys, and may locate the necessary irrigation works and the line for any canal or canals, and the necessary branches for the same, on any lands which may be deemed best for such location. Said board shall also have the right to acquire, either by purchase or condemnation, or other legal means, all lands, and waters, and water rights, and other property necessary for the construction, use, supply, maintenance, repair, and improvements of said canal or canals, and works, including canals and works constructed and being constructed by private owners, lands for reservoirs for the storage of needful waters, and all necessary appurtenances. But no purchase of any waters, or water rights, or canals, or reservoirs, or reservoir sites, or irrigation works, or other real property of any nature or kind, for any price in excess of ten thousand dollars shall be final or binding on the district, nor shall the purchase price thereof be paid until a petition of a majority of the holders of title, or evidence of title, to lands within the district, such holders of title, or evidence of title, representing a majority in value of said land, according to the last equalized assessment roll of the district, shall have been filed with the board and an order of the board made thereon confirming such purchase. Said board may also construct the necessary dams, reservoirs, and works for the collection of water for said district, and do any and every lawful act necessary to be done, that sufficient water may be furnished to each landowner in said district for irrigation purposes. The said board is hereby authorized and empowered to take conveyances or other assurances for all property acquired by it under the provisions of this act, in the name of such irrigation district, to and for the uses and purposes herein expressed, and to institute and maintain any and all actions and proceedings, suits at law or in equity, necessary or proper in order to fully carry out the provisions of this act, or to enforce, maintain, protect, or preserve any and all rights, privileges, and immunities created by this act, or acquired in pursuance thereof. And in all courts, actions, suits, or proceedings, the said board may sue, appear, and defend in person or by attorneys, and in the name of such irrigation district. It shall be the duty of said board to establish equitable by-laws, rules, and regulations for the distribution and use of water among the owners of said lands, which must be printed in convenient form for distribution in the district. Said board shall have power generally to perform all such acts as shall be necessary to fully carry out the purposes of this act.

§ 15½. The board of directors, when they deem it advisable for the best interests of the district, and the convenience of the electors thereof, may at any time, but not less than sixty days before an election to be held in the district, change the boundaries of the divisions and election precincts of the district; provided, such changes shall be made to keep each division as nearly equal in area and population as may be practicable. Such change of boundaries of the divisions must be shown on the minutes of the board. The board of directors of any irrigation district now or that may hereafter be organized in this state, shall also have the power, and such board is hereby vested with authority to lease the system of canals and works in the district, whenever such leasing may be for the benefit of the district; provided, that when the directors of any irrigation district contemplate the leasing of the canals or works of such district, they shall give notice of such contemplation by publishing the same in some newspaper published in the county in which such irrigation district lies, at least three weeks prior to the making of any lease, and such lease shall be made to the highest bidder. But such board shall have the right to reject any and all bids. Such lease shall in no way interfere with any rights that may have been established by law at the time such lease is made; and further provided, that the board of directors shall require a good and sufficient bond to secure the faithful performance of the lease by the lessees. [New section, Stats. 1901, 815.]

§ 16. In case of condemnation proceedings the board shall proceed, in the name of the district, under the provisions of title seven, part three, of the Code of Civil Procedure.

WATER REGULATIONS.

§ 17. The use of all water required for the irrigation of the lands of any district formed under the provisions of this act, or the act of which this is supplementary or amendatory, together with the rights of way for canals and ditches, sites for reservoirs, and all other property required in fully carrying out the provisions of this act, is hereby declared to be a public use, subject to the regulation and control of the state, in the manner prescribed by law.

§ 18. It is hereby expressly provided that all waters distributed for irrigation purposes shall be apportioned ratably to each landowner upon the basis of the ratio which the last assessment of such owner for district purposes within said district bears to the whole sum assessed upon the district; provided, that any landowner may assign the right to the whole or any portion of the waters so apportioned to him.

GENERAL ELECTIONS.

§ 19. An election shall be held in each irrigation district on the first Wednesday in February, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, and on the first

Wednesday in February in each second year thereafter, at which an assessor, a collector, and a treasurer, and directors for the district shall be elected. The person receiving the highest number of votes for any office to be filled at such election shall be elected thereto. The assessor, collector, and treasurer shall each hold office from the first Tuesday in March next after, for two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. Within ten days after receiving their certificates of election, hereinafter provided for, said officers shall take and subscribe the official oath, and file the same in the office of the board of directors, and execute the bond hereinafter provided for. The assessor shall execute an official bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, and the collector an official bond in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, and the district treasurer an official bond in the sum of fifty thousand dollars; each of said bonds to be approved by the board of directors; provided, that the board of directors may, if it shall be deemed advisable, fix the bonds of the treasurer and collector, respectively, to suit the conditions of the district, the maximum amount of the treasurer's bond not to exceed fifty thousand dollars, and the minimum amount thereof not to be less than ten thousand dollars; and the maximum amount of the collector's bond not to exceed twenty thousand dollars, and the minimum amount thereof not to be less than five thousand dollars. Each member of said board of directors shall execute an official bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, which said bonds shall be approved by the judge of the superior court of said county where such organization was effected, and shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder thereof, and filed with the secretary of said board. All official bonds herein provided for shall be in the form prescribed by law for the official bonds of county officers.

§ 20. On the first Tuesday in March next following their election, the directors who shall have been elected at the general February election, shall meet and organize as a board, elect a president and appoint a secretary, who shall each hold office during the pleasure of the board. And the directors of districts now organized, who shall have been elected at the general February election of eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, shall, on the first Tuesday in March next thereafter, when they meet to organize, first classify themselves by lot into two classes as nearly equal in number as possible. And the term of office of the class having the greater number shall be two years; and the term of office of the lesser number shall be four years. The full term of office of directors is hereby fixed at four years.

§ 21. Fifteen days before any election held under this act, subsequent to the organization of any district, the secretary of the board of directors shall cause notices to be posted in three public places in each election precinct, of the time and place of holding the election, and shall also post a general notice of the same in the office of said board, which shall be established and kept at some fixed place, to be determined by said board, specifying the polling-places of each precinct. Prior to the time for posting the notices, the board must appoint for each precinct, from the electors thereof, one inspector and two judges, who shall constitute a board of election for such precinct. If the board fail to appoint a board of election, or the members appointed do not attend at the opening of the polls on the morning of election, the electors of the precinct present at that hour may appoint the board, or supply the place of an absent member thereof. The board of directors must, in its order appointing the board of election, designate the house or place within the precinct where the election must be held.

§ 22. The inspector is chairman of the election board, and may administer all oaths required in the progress of an election; and appoint judges and clerks, if, during the progress of the election, any judge or clerk cease to act. Any member of the board of election, or any clerk thereof, may administer and certify oaths required to be administered during the progress of an election. The board of election for each precinct must, before opening the polls, appoint two persons to act as clerks of the election. Before opening the polls, each member of the board and each clerk must take and subscribe an oath to faithfully perform the duties imposed upon them by law. Any elector of the precinct may administer and certify such oath. The polls must be opened one hour after sunrise on the morning of the election, and be kept open until sunset, when the same must be closed. The provisions of the general election laws concerning the form of ballots to be used shall not apply to elections held under this act.

§ 23. Voting may commence as soon as the polls are opened, and may be continued during all the time the polls remain opened, and shall be conducted, as nearly as practicable, in accordance with the provisions of the general election laws of this state. As soon as all the votes are counted, a certificate shall be drawn up on each of the papers containing the poll list and tallies, or attached thereto, stating the number of votes each one voted for has received, and designating the office to fill which he was voted for, which number shall be written in figures and in words at full length. Each certificate shall be signed by the clerk, judge, and the inspector. One of said certificates, with the poll list and the tally paper to which it is attached, shall be retained by the inspector, and preserved by him at least six months. The ballots shall be strung upon a cord or thread by the inspector, during the counting thereof, in the order in which they are entered upon the tally list by the clerks; and said ballots, together with the other of said certificates, with the poll list and tally paper to which it is attached, shall be sealed by the inspector in the presence of the judges and clerks, and indorsed "Election returns of (naming the precinct) precinct," and be directed to the secretary of the board of directors, and shall be immediately delivered by the inspector, or by some other safe and responsible carrier designated by said inspector, to said secretary, and the ballots shall be kept unopened for at least six months; and if any person be of the opinion that the vote of any precinct has not been correctly counted, he may appear on the day appointed for the board of directors to open and canvass the returns, and demand a recount of the vote of the precinct that is so claimed to have been incorrectly counted.

§ 24. No list, tally paper, or certificate returned from any election, shall be set aside or rejected for want of form, if it can be satisfactorily understood. The board of directors must meet at its usual place of meeting on the first Monday after each election to canvass the returns. If, at the time of meeting, the returns from each precinct in the district in which the polls were opened have been received, the board of directors must then and there proceed to canvass the returns; but if all the returns have not been received, the canvass must be postponed from day to day until all the returns have been received, or until six postponements have been had. The canvass must be made in public and by opening the returns and estimating the vote of the district for each person voted for, and declaring the result thereof.

§ 25. The secretary of the board of directors must, as soon as the result is declared, enter in the records of such board a statement of such result, which statement must show: (a) The whole number of votes cast in the district, and in each division of the district; (b) the names of the persons voted for; (c) the office to fill which each person was voted for; (d) the number of votes given in each precinct to each of such persons; (e) the number of votes given in each division for the office of director, and the number of votes given in the district for the offices of assessor, collector, and treasurer. The board of directors must declare elected the persons having the highest number of votes given for each office. The secretary must immediately make out and deliver to such person a certificate of election, signed by him, and authenticated with the seal of the board.

In case of a vacancy in the office of assessor, collector, or treasurer, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the board of directors; provided, that if said board of directors shall neglect or refuse to make such appointment within a period of forty days, then the board of supervisors of the county wherein the office of said board of directors is situated shall make such appointment. In case of a vacancy in the office of director, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the board of supervisors of the county where the office of such board of directors is situated, from the division in which the vacancy occurred. An officer appointed as above provided shall hold his office until the next regular election for said district, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

§ 26. A director shall be a resident and freeholder of the irrigation district, but not necessarily of the division for which he is elected.

§ 27. The board of directors may, in its discretion, consolidate any two or more of the offices of assessor, collector, and treasurer. The order of consolidation must be made at least thirty days prior to general election of the district, and shall take effect at the next succeeding election; provided, that the board of directors may, at least thirty days before a general election of the district, where the offices have been consolidated, segregate the same, each office to be filled at such election.

§ 28. In any district the board of directors thereof may, upon the presentation of a petition therefor, by a majority of the holders of title, or evidence of title, of said district, evidenced as above provided, order that on and after the next ensuing general election for the district, there shall be either three or five directors, as said board may order, and they shall be elected by the district at large, or by divisions, as so petitioned and ordered; and after such order such directors shall be so elected.

TITLE TO PROPERTY.

§ 29. The legal title to all property acquired under the provisions of this act shall immediately and by operation of law vest in such irrigation district, and shall be held by such district in trust for and is hereby dedicated and set apart to the uses and purposes set forth in this act. And said board is hereby authorized and empowered to hold, use, acquire, manage, occupy, and possess said property as herein provided.

ISSUANCE OF BONDS.

§ 30. For the purpose of constructing necessary irrigating canals and works, and acquiring the necessary property and rights therefor, and otherwise carrying out the provisions of this act, the board of directors of any such district, must, as soon after such district has been organized as may be practicable, and also whenever thereafter the construction fund has been exhausted by expenditures herein authorized therefrom and it is necessary to raise additional money for said purposes, estimate and determine the amount of money necessary to be raised. And thereafter said board when petitioned by a majority of the holders of title, or evidence of title, to lands within the district, such holders of title, or evidence of title, representing a majority in value of said lands, according to the equalized assessment roll of the district, if such has theretofore been made, and if such has not been made, then according to the equalized county assessment roll covering the lands of such district, shall immediately call a special election, at which shall be submitted to the electors of such district, possessing the qualifications prescribed by this act, the question whether or not the bonds of said district in the amount as set forth in said petition shall be issued. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks. Such notices must specify the time of holding the election, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued; and said election must be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of this act governing the election of officers; provided, that no informalities in conducting such an election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election the ballots shall contain the words "Bonds—Yes," or "Bonds—No," or words equivalent thereto. If a majority of the votes cast are "Bonds—Yes," the board of directors shall cause bonds in said amount to be issued; if a majority of the votes cast at any bond election are "Bonds—No," the result of such election shall be so declared and entered of record. Whenever thereafter a petition of the character hereinbefore provided for in this section is presented to the board it shall so declare of record in its minutes, and shall thereupon submit such questions to said electors in the same manner and with like effect as at such previous election.

§ 31. All bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be payable in gold coin of the United States, in ten series, as follows, to wit: At the expiration of twenty-one years, five per centum of the whole number of said bonds; at the expiration of twenty-two years, six per centum; at the expiration of twenty-three years, seven per centum; at the expiration of twenty-four years, eight per centum; at the expiration of twenty-five years, nine per centum; at the expiration of twenty-six years, ten per centum; at the expiration of twenty-seven years, eleven per centum; at the expiration of twenty-eight years, thirteen per centum; at the expiration of twenty-nine years, fifteen per centum; and at the expiration of thirty years, sixteen per centum; that the several enumerated percentages being of the entire amount of the bond issue, but each bond must be made payable at a given time for its entire amount and not for a percentage. Said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, on the first day of January and July of each year. The principal and interest shall be payable at the place designated therein. Said bonds shall be each of the denomination of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars; shall be negotiable in form, signed by the president and secretary, and the seal of the board of directors shall be affixed thereto. Each issue shall be numbered consecutively as issued, and the bonds of each issue shall be numbered consecutively, and bear date at the time of their issue. Coupons for the interest shall be attached to each bond, signed by the secretary. Said bonds shall express on their face that they were issued by authority of this act, stating its title and date of approval, and shall also so state the number of the issue of which such bonds are a part. The secretary shall keep a record of the bonds sold, their number, the date of sale, the price received, and the name of the purchaser.

§ 32. The board may sell said bonds from time to time in such quantities as may be necessary and most advantageous, to raise money for the construction of said canals and works, the acquisition of said property and rights, and otherwise to fully carry out the objects and purposes of this act. Before making any sale the board shall, at a meeting, by resolution, declare its intention to sell a specified amount of the bonds, and the day and hour and place of such sale, and shall cause such resolution to be entered in the minutes, and notice of the sale to be given, by publication thereof at least three weeks, in some newspaper published in the county where the office of the board of directors is located, and in any other newspaper, at its discretion. The notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received by the board at their office, for the purchase of bonds, till the day and hour named in the resolution. At the time appointed the board shall open the proposals, and award the purchase of the bonds to the highest responsible bidder; provided, however, that they may reject all bids. Said board shall in no event sell any of the said bonds for less than the par value thereof.

§ 33. Said bonds, and the interest thereon, shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual assessment upon the real property of the district; and all the real property in the district shall be and remain liable to be assessed for such payments, as hereinafter provided.

ASSESSMENT FOR COMPLETION OF WORKS.

§ 34. In case the money raised by the sale of bonds issued be insufficient or in case the bonds be unavailable for the completion of the plan of canal and works adopted, and additional bonds be not voted, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to provide for the completion of said plan by levy of assessments therefor; provided, however, that such levy of assessments shall not be made except first an estimate of the amount required for such purposes has been made by said board, and the question as to the making of said levy submitted to a vote of the electors of the district. Before such question is submitted the order of submission shall be entered in the minutes of the board, stating the amount to be levied and the purpose therefor, and if submitted at a special election said order shall, in addition, fix the day of election. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks. Such notices must specify the time for holding the election, and the amount of assessment proposed to be levied. Said election must be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of this act governing the election of officers; provided, that no informalities in conducting such an election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election the ballots shall contain the words "Assessment—Yes," or "Assessment—No," or words equivalent thereto. If a majority of the votes cast are "Assessment—Yes," the board of directors shall cause an assessment in the amount named in the order of submission to be levied; if a majority of the votes cast are "Assessment—No," the result of such election shall be so declared and entered of record.

DUTIES OF THE ASSESSOR.

§ 35. The assessor must, between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in June, in each year, assess all real property in the district, to the persons who own, claim, have the possession, or control thereof, at its full cash value. He must prepare an assessment book, with appropriate headings, in which must be listed all such property within the district, in which must be specified, in separate columns, under the appropriate head: (a) The name of the person to whom the property is assessed (if the name is not known to the assessor the property shall be assessed to "unknown owners"); (b) land by township, range, section, or fractional section, and when such land is not a congressional division or subdivision, by metes and bounds, or other description sufficient to identify it, giving an estimate of the number of acres, locality, and the improvements thereon; (c) city and town lots, naming the city or town, and the number and block, according to the system of numbering in such city or town, and the improvements thereon; (d) the cash value of real estate, other than city or town lots; (e) the cash value of improvements on such real estate; (f) the cash value of city and town lots; (g) the cash value of improvements on city and town lots; (h) the cash value of improvements on real estate assessed to persons other than the owners of the real estate; (i) the total value of all property assessed; (j) the total value of all property after equalization by the board of directors; (k) such other things as the board of directors may require. Any property which may have escaped the payment of any assessment for any year, shall, in addition to the assessment for the then current year, be assessed for such year with the same effect and with the same penalties as are provided for such current year.

§ 36. The board of directors must allow the assessor as many deputies, to be appointed by him, as will, in the judgment of the board, enable him to complete the assessment within the time herein prescribed. The board must fix the compensation of such deputies, which shall be paid out of the treasury of the district. The compensation must not exceed five dollars per day for each deputy, for the time actually engaged, nor must any allowance be made but for work done between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in August in each year.

§ 37. On or before the first Monday in August in each year, the assessor must complete his assessment book, and deliver it to the secretary of the board, who must immediately give notice thereof, and of the time the board of directors, acting as a board of equalization, will meet to equalize assessments, by publication in a newspaper published in each of the counties comprising the district. The time fixed for the meeting shall not be less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the first publication of the notice; and in the mean time the assessment book must remain in the office of the secretary for the inspection of all persons interested.

EQUALIZATION OF ASSESSMENT.

§ 38. Upon the day specified in the notice required by the preceding section for the meeting, the board of directors, which is hereby constituted a board of equalization for that purpose, shall meet and continue in session from time to time, as long as may be necessary, not to exceed ten days, exclusive of Sundays, to hear and determine such objections to the valuation and assessment as may come before them; and the board may change the valuation as may be just. The secretary of the board shall be present during its sessions, and note all changes made in the valuation of property, and in the names of the persons whose property is assessed; and within ten days after the close of the session he shall have the total values, as finally equalized by the board, extended into columns and added.

LEVY OF AND COLLECTION OF TAXES.

§ 39. The board of directors shall then levy an assessment sufficient to raise the annual interest on the outstanding bonds, and in any year in which any bonds shall fall due must increase said assessment to an amount sufficient to raise a sum sufficient to pay the principal of the outstanding bonds as they mature. The secretary of the board must compute and enter in a separate column of the assessment book the respective sums, in dollars and cents, to be paid as an assessment on the property therein enumerated. When collected, the assessment shall be paid into the district treasury and be apportioned to the several proper funds.

In case of the neglect or refusal of the board of directors to cause such assessments and levies to be made as in this act provided, then the assessment of property made by the county assessor and the state board of equalization shall be adopted, and shall be the basis of assessment for the district, and the board of supervisors of the county in which the office of the board of directors is situated shall cause an assessment roll for said district to be prepared, and shall make the levy required by this act, in the same manner and with like effect as if the same had been made by said board of directors, and all expenses incident thereto shall be borne by such district. In case of the neglect or refusal of the collector or treasurer of the district to perform the duties imposed by law, then the tax collector and treasurer of the county in which the office of the board of directors is situated must, respectively, perform such duties, and shall be accountable therefor upon their official bonds as in other cases.

§ 40. The assessment upon real property is a lien against the property assessed from and after the first Monday in March for any year, and the lien for the bonds of any issue shall be a preferred lien to that for any subsequent issue, and such lien is not removed until the assessments are paid, or the property sold for the payment thereof.

§ 41. On or before the first day of November, the secretary must deliver the assessment book to the collector of the district, who shall within twenty days publish a notice, in a newspaper published in each county in which any portion of the district may lie, that said assessments are due and payable, and will become delinquent at six o'clock p. m. on the last Monday of December next thereafter, and that unless paid prior thereto, five per centum will be added to the amount thereof, and also the time and place at which payment of assessments may be made, which notice shall be published for the period of two weeks. The collector must attend at the time and place specified in the notice, to receive assessments, which must be paid in gold and silver coin; he must mark the date of payment of any assessment in the assessment book, opposite the name of the person paying, and give a receipt to such person, specifying the amount of the assessment and the amount paid, with a description of the property assessed. On the last Monday in December, at six o'clock p. m., of each year, all unpaid assessments are delinquent, and thereafter the collector must collect thereon, for the use of the district, an addition of five per centum.

PUBLICATION OF DELINQUENT NOTICE.

§ 42. On or before the first day of February, the collector must publish the delinquent list, which must contain the names of the persons and a description of the property delinquent, and the amount of the assessments and costs due opposite each name and description. He must append to and publish with the delinquent list a notice, that unless the assessments delinquent, together with costs and percentage, are paid, the real property upon which such assessments are a lien will be sold at public auction. The publication must be made once a week for three successive weeks, in a newspaper published in the county in which the property delinquent is situated; provided, that if any property assessed to the same person or corporation shall lie in more than one county, then such publication may be made in any county in which any portion of such property may lie. The publication must designate the time and place of sale. The time of sale must not be less than twenty-one nor more than twenty-eight days from the first publication, and the place must be at some point designated by the collector, within the district; provided, however, that if there should occur any error in the publication of the sale of the delinquent property, which might invalidate a sale made thereunder, and such error is discovered prior to sale thereunder, the collector shall at once republish the sale of the property affected by such error, making such republication conform to the provisions of this law, and the time of sale designated in such republication must not be less than twenty-one nor more than twenty-eight days from the first republication; and the place of sale must be at some point designated by the collector within the district, and stated in such republication.

SALE FOR DELINQUENT TAXES.

§ 43. The collector must collect, in addition to the assessments due on the delinquent list and five per centum added, fifty cents on each lot, piece, or tract of land separately assessed. On the day fixed for the sale, or some subsequent day to which he may have postponed it, of which he must give notice, the collector, between the hours of ten a. m. and three o'clock p. m., must commence the sale of the property advertised, commencing at the head of the list and continuing alphabetically, or in the numerical order of the lots or blocks, until completed. He may postpone the day of commencing the sales, or the sale, from day to day, but the sale must be completed within three weeks from the day first fixed; provided, that if any sale or sales shall be stayed by legal proceedings, the time of the continuance of such proceedings is not part of the time limited for making such sale or sales; and provided further, that in any district where the validity of any assessment shall be in litigation at the time this act shall take effect, the sale of any property, whether it be involved in such litigation or not, may be postponed for a time not to exceed four months.

§ 44. The owner or person in possession of any real estate offered for sale for assessments due thereon may designate, in writing, to the collector, prior to the sale, what portion of the property he wishes sold, if less than the whole; but if the owner or possessor does not, then the collector may designate it and the person who will take the least quantity of the land, or in case an undivided interest is assessed, then the smallest portion of the interest, and pay the assessments and costs due, including two dollars for the duplicate certificate of sale, is the purchaser. If the purchaser does not pay the assessments and costs before ten o'clock a. m. the following day, the property on the next sale day must be resold for the assessments and costs. But in case there is no purchaser in good faith for the same on the first day that the property is offered for sale, then, when the property is offered thereafter for sale, and there is no purchaser in good faith for the same, the whole amount of the property assessed shall be struck off to the irrigation district within which such lands are situated as the purchaser, and the duplicate certificate delivered to the treasurer of the district, and filed by him in his office. No charge shall be made for the duplicate certificate where the district is the purchaser, and, in such case, the collector shall make an entry, "Sold to the district," and he shall be credited with the amount thereof in his settlement. An irrigation district as a purchaser at such sale, shall be entitled to the same rights as a private purchaser, and the title so acquired by the district, subject to the right of redemption herein provided, may be conveyed by deed, executed and acknowledged by the president and secretary of said board; provided, that authority to so convey must be conferred by resolution of the board entered on its minutes, fixing the price at which such sale may be made, and such conveyance shall not be made for a less sum than the reasonable market value of such property.

§ 45. After receiving the amount of assessments and costs, the collector must make out in duplicate a certificate, dated on the day of sale, stating (when known) the name of the person assessed, a description of the land sold, the amount paid therefor, that it was sold for assessments, giving the amount and year of the assessment, and specifying the time when the purchaser will be entitled to a deed. The certificate must be signed by the collector, and one copy delivered to the purchaser, and the other filed in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the land is situated.

§ 46. The collector, before delivering any certificate, must in a book enter a description of the land sold, corresponding with the description in the certificate, the date of the sale, purchasers' names, and amount paid, regularly number the description on the margin of the book, and put a corresponding number on each certificate. Such book must be open to public inspection, without fee, during office hours, when not in actual use. On filing the certificate with such county recorder the lien of the assessments vests with the purchaser, and is only divested by the payment to him, or to the collector for his use, of the purchase money, and two per centum per month from the day of sale until redemption.

REDEMPTION OF PROPERTY SOLD FOR DELINQUENT TAXES.

§ 47. A redemption of the property sold may be made by the owner, or any party in interest, within twelve months from the date of purchase; provided, that all land heretofore sold at delinquent tax sale under any of the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes," approved March seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, or the acts supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof, where deeds have not been made and delivered, or when such deed has been made to the district, and the district has not disposed of the same, may be redeemed any time within six months from January twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven. Redemption must be made in gold or silver coin, as provided for the collection of state and county taxes, and when made to the collector he must credit the amount paid to the person named in the certificate, and pay it, on demand, to the person or his assignees. In each report the collector makes to the board of directors, he must name the person entitled to redemption money, and the amount due each. On receiving the certificate of sale, the county recorder must file it and make an entry in a book similar to that required of the collector. On the presentation of the receipt of the person named in the certificate, or of the collector for his use, of the total amount of the redemption money, the recorder must mark the word "Redeemed," the date, and by whom redeemed, on the certificate and on the margin of the book where the entry of the certificate is made. If the property is not redeemed within the time herein provided, the collector, or his successor in office, must make to the purchaser, or his assignee, a deed of the property, reciting in the deed substantially the matters contained in the certificate, and that no person redeemed the property during the time allowed by law for its redemption. The collector shall receive from the purchaser, for the use of the district, two dollars for making such deed.

§ 48. The matter recited in the certificate of sale must be recited in the deed, and such deed, duly acknowledged or proved is prima facie evidence that: (a) The property was assessed as required by law; (b) the property was equalized as required by law; (c) that the assessments were levied in accordance with law; (d) the assessments were not paid; (e) at a proper time and place the property was sold as prescribed by law, and by the proper officer; (f) the property was not redeemed; (g) the person who executed the deed was the proper officer. Such deed duly acknowledged or proved is (except as against actual fraud) conclusive evidence of the regularity of all the proceedings from the assessment by the assessor, inclusive, up to the execution of the deed. The deed conveys to the grantee the absolute title to the lands described therein free of all encumbrances, except when the land is owned by the United States, or this state, in which case it is prima facie evidence of the right of possession.

§ 49. The assessment book or delinquent list, or a copy thereof, certified by the collector, showing unpaid assessments against any person, or property, is prima facie evidence of the assessment, the property assessed, the delinquency, the amount of assessments due and unpaid, and that all the forms of the law in relation to the assessment and levy of such assessments have been complied with.

§ 50. When land is sold for assessments correctly imposed, as the property of a particular person, no misnomer of the owner, or supposed owner, or other mistake relating to the ownership thereof, affects the sale, or renders it void, or voidable.

§ 51. On the first Monday in each month, the collector must settle with the secretary of the board for all moneys collected for assessments, and pay the same over to the treasurer; and within six days thereafter he must deliver to and file in the office of the secretary a statement under oath, showing: (a) An account of all his transactions and receipts since his last settlement; (b) that all money collected by him as collector has been paid. The collector shall also file in the office of the secretary, on said first Monday in each month, the receipt of the treasurer for the money so paid.

REDEMPTION OF BONDS, AND PAYMENT OF INTEREST.

§ 52. Upon the presentation of the coupons due, to the treasurer, he shall pay the same from the bond fund. Whenever said fund shall amount to the sum of ten thousand dollars in excess of an amount sufficient to meet the interest coupons due, the board of directors may direct the treasurer to pay such an amount of said bonds not due as the money in said fund will redeem, at the lowest value at which they may be offered for liquidation, after advertising in the manner hereinbefore provided for the sale of bonds, for sealed proposals for the redemption of said bonds. Said proposals shall be opened by the board in open meeting, at a time to be named in the notice, and the lowest bid for said bonds must be accepted; provided, that no bond shall be redeemed at a rate above par. In case the bids are equal, the lowest numbered bond shall have the preference. In case none of the holders of said bonds shall desire to have the same redeemed, as herein provided for, said money shall be invested by the treasurer, under the direction of the board, in United States bonds, or the bonds of the state, which shall be kept in said "Bond Fund," and may be used to redeem said district bonds whenever the holders thereof may desire.

CONSTRUCTION OF WORKS.

§ 53. After adopting a plan for such canal or canals, storage reservoirs, and works, as in this act provided for, the board of directors shall give notice, by publication thereof not less than twenty days in one newspaper published in each of the counties composing the district (provided, a newspaper is published therein), and in such other newspapers as they may deem advisable, calling for bids for the construction of such work, or of any portion thereof; if less than the whole work is advertised, then the portion so advertised must be particularly described in such notice. Said notice shall set forth that plans and specifications can be seen at the office of the board, and that the board will receive sealed proposals therefor, and that the contract will be let to the lowest responsible bidder, stating the time and place for opening said proposals, which, at the time and place appointed, shall be opened in public; and as soon as convenient thereafter the board shall let said work, either in portions or as a whole, to the lowest responsible bidder; or they may reject any or all bids and readvertise for proposals, or may proceed to construct the work under their own superintendence. Contracts for the purchase of material shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. Any person or persons to whom a contract may be awarded shall enter into a bond, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the board, payable to said district for its use, for twenty-five per centum of the amount of the contract price, conditioned for the faithful performance of said contract. The work shall be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the engineer, and be approved by the board.

§ 54. No claim shall be paid by the treasurer until allowed by the board, and only upon a warrant signed by the president, and countersigned by the secretary; provided, that the board may draw, from time to time, from the construction fund, and deposit in the county treasury of the county where the office of the board is situated any sum in excess of the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars. The county treasurer of said county is hereby authorized and required to receive and receipt for the same and place the same to the credit of said district, and he shall be responsible upon his official bond for the safe-keeping and disbursement of the same, as in this act provided. He shall pay out the same, or any portion thereof, to the treasurer of the district only, and only upon the order of the board, signed by the president, and attested by the secretary. The said county treasurer shall report, in writing, on the second Monday in each month, the amount of money in the county treasury, the amount of receipts for the month preceeding, and the amount or amounts paid out; said report shall be verified and filed with the secretary of the board. The district treasurer shall also report to the board, in writing, on the first Monday in each month, the amount of money in the district treasury, the amount of receipts for the month preceeding, and the amount and items of expenditures, and said report shall be verified and filed with the secretary of the board.

§ 55. The cost and expense of purchasing and acquiring property and constructing the works and improvements herein provided for, shall be wholly paid out of the construction fund. For the purpose of defraying the expenses of the organization of the district, and of the care, operation, management, repair, and improvement of such portions of said canal and works as are completed and in use, including salaries of officers and employees, the board may in lieu (either in part or in whole) of levying assessments as herein provided for, fix rates of tolls and charges, and collect the same from all persons using said canal for irrigation and other purposes.

§ 56. The board of directors shall have power to construct the said works across any stream of water, watercourse, street, avenue, highway, railway, canal, ditch, or flume which the route of said canal or canals may intersect or cross, in such manner as to afford security for life and property; but said board shall restore the same, when so crossed or intersected, to its former state as near as may be, or in a sufficient manner not to have impaired unnecessarily its usefulness; and every company whose railroad shall be intersected or crossed by said works shall unite with said board in forming said intersections and crossings, and grant the privileges aforesaid; and if such railroad company and said board, or the owners and controllers of the said property, thing, or franchise so to be crossed, cannot agree upon the amount to be paid therefor, or the points or the manner of said crossings or intersections, the same shall be ascertained and determined in all respects as is herein provided in respect to the taking of land. The right of way is hereby given, dedicated, and set apart, to locate, construct, and maintain said works over and through any of the lands which are now or may be the property of this state; and also there is given, dedicated, and set apart, for the uses and purposes aforesaid, all waters and water rights belonging to this state within the district.

GOVERNING DIRECTORS.

§ 57. The directors, when sitting as a board, or acting under the orders of the board, shall each receive not to exceed three dollars per day, and actual and necessary expenses paid while engaged in official business under the order of the board. The board shall fix the compensation to be paid to all officers named in this act, to be paid out of the treasury of the district; provided, that said board shall, upon the petition of at least fifty, or a majority of the freeholders within such district, therefor, submit to the electors at any general election a schedule of salaries and fees to be paid hereunder. Such petition must be presented to the board not less than twenty days nor more than forty days prior to a general election, and the result of such election shall be determined and declared in all respects as other elections are determined and declared under this act.

§ 58. No director or any other officer named in this act shall in any manner be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract awarded or to be awarded by the board, or in the profits to be derived therefrom; and for any violation of this provision, such officer shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and such conviction shall work a forfeiture of his office, and he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS.

§ 59. The board of directors may, at any time, when in their judgment it may be deemed advisable, call a special election and submit to the qualified electors of the district the question, whether or not a special assessment shall be levied for the purpose of raising money to be applied to any of the purposes provided in this act. Such election must be called upon the notice prescribed, and the same shall be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects in conformity with the provisions of section thirty of this act. The notice must specify the amount of money proposed to be raised and the purpose for which it is intended to be used. At such elections the ballots shall contain the words "Assessment—Yes," or "Assessment—No." If two thirds or more of the votes cast are "Assessment—Yes," the board shall, at the time of the annual levy hereunder, levy an assessment sufficient to raise the amount voted.

§ 60. The rate of assessments levied under the provisions of this act shall be ascertained by deducting fifteen per centum for anticipated delinquencies from the aggregate assessed value of the property in the district as it appears on the assessment roll for the current year, and then dividing the sum voted by the remainder of such aggregate assessed value. The assessments so levied shall be computed and entered on the assessment roll by the secretary of the board, and collected at the same time and in the same manner as other assessments provided for herein; and when collected shall be paid into the district treasury for the purposes specified in the notice of such special election.

INCURRING INDEBTEDNESS.

§ 61. The board of directors, or other officers of the district, shall have no power to incur any debt or liability whatever, either by issuing bonds or otherwise, in excess of the express provisions of this act; and any debt or liability incurred in excess of such express provisions shall be and remain absolutely void, except that for the purposes of organization, or for any of the purposes of this act, the board of directors may, before the collection of the first assessment, incur an indebtedness not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of two thousand dollars, and may cause warrants of the district to issue therefor, bearing interest at seven per centum per annum.

GOVERNING THE USE OF WATER.

§ 62. In case the volume of water in any stream or river shall not be sufficient to supply the continual wants of the entire country through which it passes, and susceptible of irrigation therefrom, then it shall be the duty of the water commissioners, constituted as hereinafter provided, to apportion, in a just and equitable proportion, a certain amount of said water upon certain or alternate weekly days to different localities, as they may, in their judgment, think best for the interest of all parties concerned, and with due regard to the legal and equitable rights of all. Said water commissioners shall consist of the chairman of the board of directors of each of the districts affected.

§ 63. It shall be the duty of the board of directors to keep the water flowing through the ditches under their control to the full capacity of such ditches in times of high water.

§ 64. Navigation shall never in anywise be impaired by the operation of this act, nor shall any vested interest in or to any mining water rights or ditches, or in or to any water or water rights, or reservoirs or dams now used by the owners or possessors thereof in connection with any mining industry, or by persons purchasing or renting the use thereof, or in or to any other property now used, directly or indirectly, in carrying on or promoting the mining industry, ever be affected by or taken under its provisions, save and except that rights of way may be acquired over the same.

§ 65. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize any person or persons to divert the waters of any river, creek, stream, canal, or ditch from its channel, to the detriment of any person or persons having any interest in such river, creek, stream, canal, or ditch, or the waters therein, unless previous compensation be ascertained and paid therefor, under the laws of this state authorizing the taking of private property for public uses.

EXEMPTION FROM TAXATION—CREATION OF FUNDS.

§ 66. The rights of way, ditches, flumes, pipe-lines, dams, water rights, reservoirs, and other property of like character, belonging to any irrigation district shall not be taxed for state and county or municipal purposes.

§ 67. The following funds are hereby created and established, to which the moneys properly belonging shall be apportioned, to wit: Bond fund, construction fund, general fund.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

§ 68. The board of directors may, at any time after the issue of any bonds or the levy of any assessment herein provided for, bring an action in the superior court of the county wherein is located the office of such board, to determine the validity of any such bonds or such levy of assessments; such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of summons for at least once a week for three weeks in some paper of general circulation published in the county where the action is pending, such paper to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceedings. Jurisdiction shall be complete within ten days after the full publication of such summons in the manner herein provided. Any one interested may at any time before the expiration of said ten days appear and by proper proceedings contest the validity of such bonds or assessments. Such action shall be speedily tried and judgment rendered declaring such matter so contested either valid or invalid. Either party may have the right to appeal to the supreme court at any time within thirty days after the rendition of such judgment, which appeal must be heard and determined within three months from the time of taking such appeal.

§ 69. If no such proceedings shall have been brought by the board of directors, then, at any time within thirty days after the levy of an assessment or issue of any bonds under the provisions of this act, any district assessment payer may bring an action in the superior court of the county where the office of the board of directors is located, to determine the validity of any such assessment or such bonds. The board of directors shall be made parties defendant, and service of summons shall be made on the members of the board personally. Said board shall have the right to appear and contest such action. Such action shall be speedily tried, with the right of appeal to either party, within the time and manner herein provided for the bringing of actions by the board to determine such matters. Such appeal shall be heard and determined in the manner and within the time therein provided.

§ 70. If more than one action shall be pending at the same time concerning similar contests in this act provided for, they shall be consolidated and tried together.

§ 71. The court hearing any of the contests herein provided for, in inquiring into the regularity, legality, or correctness of such proceedings, must disregard any error, irregularity, or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties to said action or proceeding. The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are applicable to all actions or proceedings herein provided for. The motion for a new trial of any such action or proceeding must be heard and determined within ten days from the filing of the notice of intention. The costs on any hearing, or contest herein provided for, may be allowed and apportioned between the parties, or taxed to the losing party, in the discretion of the court.

§ 72. No contest of anything or matter herein provided shall be made other than within the time and manner herein specified.

§ 73. For any wilful violation of any express duty herein provided for, on the part of any officer herein named, he shall be liable upon his official bond, and be subject to removal from office, by proceedings brought in the superior court of the county wherein the office of the board of directors of the district is located, by any assessment payer of the district.

EXCLUSION OF LANDS.

§ 74. The boundaries of any irrigation district now organized or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act, may be changed, and tracts of land which were included within the boundaries of such district at or after its organization under the provisions of said act, may be excluded therefrom, in the manner herein prescribed; but neither such change of the boundaries of the districts nor such exclusion of lands from the district shall impair or affect its organization, or its right in or to property, or any of its rights or privileges of whatever kind or nature; nor shall it affect, impair, or discharge any contract, obligation, lien, or charge for or upon which said district was and may become liable or chargeable, had such change of its boundaries not been made, or had not such land been excluded from the district.

§ 75. The owner or owners in fee of one or more tracts of land which constitute a portion of an irrigation district may jointly or severally file with the board of directors of the district a petition, praying that such tract or tracts, and any other tracts contiguous thereto, may be excluded and taken from said district. The petition shall state the grounds and reasons upon which it is claimed that such lands should be excluded and shall describe the boundaries thereof, and also the lands of such petitioner or petitioners which are included within such boundaries; but the description of such lands need not be more particular or certain than is required when the lands are entered in the assessment book by the county assessor. Such petition must be acknowledged in the same manner and form as is required in the case of a conveyance of land, and the acknowledgment shall have the same force and effect as evidence as the acknowledgment of such a conveyance.

§ 76. The secretary of the board of directors shall cause a notice of the filing of such petition to be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper published in the county where the office of the board of directors is situated, and if any portion of such territory to be excluded lie within another county or counties, then said notice shall be so published in a newspaper published within each of said counties; or if no newspaper be published therein, then by posting such notice for the same time in at least three public places in said district, and in case of the posting of said notices, one of said notices must be so posted on the lands proposed to be excluded. The notice shall state the filing of such petition, the names of the petitioners, a description of the lands mentioned in said petition, and the prayer of said petition; and it shall notify all persons interested in, or who may be affected by such change of the boundaries of the district, to appear at the office of said board at a time named in said notice, and show cause, in writing, if any they have, why the change of the boundaries of said district, as proposed in said petition, should not be made. The time to be specified in the notice at which they shall be required to show cause shall be the regular meeting of the board next after the expiration of the time for the publication of the notice.

§ 77. The board of directors, at the time and place mentioned in the notice, or at the time or times to which the hearing of said petition may be adjourned, shall proceed to hear the petition, and all evidence or proofs that may or shall be introduced by or on behalf of the petitioner or petitioners, and all objections to such petition that may or shall be presented in writing by any person showing cause as aforesaid, and all evidence and proofs that may be introduced in support of such objections. Such evidence shall be taken down in shorthand, and a record made thereof and filed with the board. The failure of any person interested in said district, other than the holders of bonds thereof outstanding at the time of the filing of said petition with said board, to show cause, in writing, why the tract or tracts of land mentioned in said petition should not be excluded from said district, shall be deemed and taken as an assent by him to the exclusion of such tract or tracts of land, or any part thereof, from said district; and the filing of such petition with said board, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as an assent by each and all of such petitioners to the exclusion from such district of the lands mentioned in the petition, or any part thereof. The expenses of giving said notice and of the aforesaid proceeding shall be paid by the person or persons filing such petition.

§ 78. If, upon the hearing of any such petition, no evidence or proofs in support thereof be introduced, or if the evidence fail to sustain said petition, or if the board deem it not for the best interests of the district that the lands, or some portion thereof, mentioned in the petition, should be excluded from the district, the board shall order that said petition be denied as to such lands; but if the said board deem it for the best interest of the district that the lands mentioned in the petition, or some portion thereof, be excluded from the district, and if no person interested in the district show cause, in writing, why the said lands, or some portion thereof, should not be excluded from the district, or if, having shown cause, withdraws the same, or upon the hearing fails to establish such objections as he may have made, then it shall be the duty of the board to, and it shall forthwith, make an order that the lands mentioned and described in the petition, or some defined portion thereof, be excluded from said district; provided, that it shall be the duty of said board to so order, upon petition therefor as aforesaid, that all lands so petitioned to be excluded from said district shall be excluded therefrom which cannot be irrigated from, or which are not susceptible to, or would not, by reason of being permanently devoted to uses other than agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, or grazing, be directly benefited by the actual irrigation of the same from a common source, or by the same system of works with the other lands of said district, or from the source selected, chosen, or provided, or the system adopted for the irrigation of the lands of said district, or which are already irrigated, or entitled to be irrigated, from another source or by another system of irrigation works. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 27.]

§ 79. If there be outstanding bonds of the district at the time of the filing of said petition, the holders of such outstanding bonds may give their assent, in writing, to the effect that they severally consent that the lands mentioned in the petition, or such portion thereof as may be excluded from said district by order of said board, or the decree of the superior court as hereinafter provided, may be excluded from the district; and if said lands, or any portion thereof, be thereafter excluded from the district, the lands so excluded shall be released from the lien of such outstanding bonds. The assent must be acknowledged by the several holders of such bonds in the same manner and form as is required in case of a conveyance of land, and the acknowledgment shall have the same force and effect as evidence as the acknowledgment of such conveyance. The assent shall be filed with the board, and must be recorded in the minutes of the board; and said minutes, or a copy thereof, certified by the secretary of said board, shall be admissible in evidence, with the same effect as the said assent, and such certified copy thereof may be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county wherein said lands are situated.

§ 80. In the event the said board of directors shall exclude any lands from said district upon petition therefor, it shall be the duty of the board of directors to make an entry in the minutes of the board describing the boundaries of the district, should the exclusion of said lands from said district change the boundaries of said district, and for that purpose the board may cause a survey to be made of such portions of the district as the board may deem necessary; and a certified copy of the entry in the minutes of the board excluding any land, certified by the president and secretary of the board, shall be filed for record in the recorder's office of each county within which are situated any of the lands of the district; but said district, notwithstanding such exclusion, shall be and remain an irrigation district as fully, to every intent and purpose, as it would be had no change been made in the boundaries of the district, or had the lands excluded therefrom never constituted a portion of the district.

§ 81. If the lands excluded from any district under this act shall embrace the greater portion of any division or divisions of such district, then the office of director for such division or divisions shall become and be vacant at the expiration of ten days from the final order of the board excluding said lands; and such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by appointment by the board of supervisors of the county where the office of such board is situated, from the district at large. A director appointed as above provided, shall hold his office until the next regular election for said district, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

§ 82. At least thirty days before the next general election of such district, the board of directors thereof shall make an order dividing said district into three or five divisions, as the case may require, as nearly equal in size as may be practicable, which shall be numbered first, second, third, and so on, and one director shall be elected by each division. For the purposes of elections in such district, the said board of directors must establish a convenient number of election precincts, and define the boundaries thereof, which said precincts may be changed from time to time, as the board of directors may deem necessary.

§ 83. A guardian and executor, or an administrator of an estate, who is appointed as such under the laws of this state, and who, as such guardian, executor, or administrator, is entitled to the possession of the lands belonging to the estate which he represents, may, on behalf of his ward, or the estate which he represents, upon being thereto properly authorized by the proper court, sign and acknowledge the petition in this act mentioned, and may show cause, as in this act provided, why the boundaries of the district should not be changed.

§ 84. Nothing in this act provided shall, in any manner, operate to release any of the lands so excluded from the district from any obligation to pay, or any lien thereon, of any valid outstanding bonds or other indebtedness of said district at the time of the filing of said petition for the exclusion of said lands, but upon the contrary, said lands shall be held subject to said lien, and answerable and chargeable for and with the payment and discharge of all of said outstanding obligations at the time of the filing of the petition for the exclusion of said land, as fully as though said petition for such exclusion were never filed and said order or decree of exclusion never made; and for the purpose of discharging such outstanding indebtedness, said lands so excluded shall be deemed and considered as part of said irrigation district the same as though said petition for its exclusion had never been filed or said order or decree of exclusion never made, and all provisions which may have been resorted to to compel the payment by said lands of its quota or portion of said outstanding obligation, had said exclusion never been accomplished, may, notwithstanding said exclusion, be resorted to to compel and enforce the payment on the part of said lands of its quota and portion of said outstanding obligations of said irrigation district for which it is liable, as herein provided. But said land so excluded shall not be held answerable or chargeable for any obligation of any nature or kind whatever, incurred after the filing with the board of directors of said district of the petition for the exclusion of said lands from the said district; provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any outstanding bonds the holders of which have assented to the exclusion of such lands from said district, as hereinbefore provided.

INCLUSION OF LANDS.

§ 85. The boundaries of any irrigation district now organized or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act may be changed in the manner herein prescribed; but such change of the boundaries of the district shall not impair or affect its organization, or its rights in or to property, or any of its rights or privileges of whatsoever kind or nature; nor shall it affect, impair, or discharge any contract, obligation, lien, or charge for or upon which it was or might become liable or chargeable, had such change of its boundaries not been made.

§ 86. The holder or holders, of title, or evidence of title, representing one half or more of any body of lands adjacent to the boundary of an irrigation district, which are contiguous, and which, taken together, constitute one tract of land, may file with the board of directors of said district a petition, in writing, praying that the boundaries of said district may be so changed as to include therein said lands. The petition shall describe the boundaries of said parcel or tract of land, and shall also describe the boundaries of the several parcels owned by the petitioners, if the petitioners be the owners, respectively, of distinct parcels, but such descriptions need not be more particular than they are required to be when such lands are entered by the county assessor in the assessment book. Such petition must contain the assent of the petitioners to the inclusion within said district of the parcels or tracts of land described in the petition, and of which said petition alleges they are, respectively, the owners; and it must be acknowledged in the same manner that conveyances of land are required to be acknowledged.

§ 87. The secretary of the board of directors shall cause a notice of the filing of such petition to be given and published in the same manner and for the same time that notices of special elections for the issue of bonds are required by this act to be published. The notice shall state the filing of such petition and the names of the petitioners, a description of the lands mentioned in said petition, and the prayer of said petition; and it shall notify all persons interested in, or that may be affected by such change of the boundaries of the district, to appear at the office of said board, at a time named in said notice, and show cause in writing, if any they have, why the change in the boundaries of said district, as proposed in said petition, should not be made. The time to be specified in the notice at which they shall be required to show cause shall be the regular meeting of the board next after the expiration of the time for the publication of the notice. The petitioners shall advance to the secretary sufficient money to pay the estimated costs of all proceedings under this act.

§ 88. The board of directors, at the time and place mentioned in the said notice, or at such other time or times to which the hearing of said petition may be adjourned, shall proceed to hear the petition, and all the objections thereto, presented in writing by any person showing cause as aforesaid why said proposed change of the boundaries of the district should not be made. The failure by any person interested in said district, or in the matter of the proposed change of its boundaries, to show cause, in writing, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as an assent on his part to a change of the boundaries of the district as prayed for in said petition, or to such a change thereof as will include a part of said lands. And the filing of such petition with said board, as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken as an assent on the part of each and all of such petitioners to such a change of said boundaries that they may include the whole or any portion of the lands described in said petition.

§ 89. The board of directors to whom such petition is presented, may require, as a condition precedent to the granting of the same, that the petitioners shall severally pay to such district such respective sums, as nearly as the same can be estimated (the several amounts to be determined by the board), as said petitioners or their grantors would have been required to pay to such district as assessments, had such lands been included in such district at the time the same was originally formed.

§ 90. The board of directors, if they deem it not for the best interests of the district that a change of its boundaries be so made as to include therein the lands mentioned in the petition, shall order that the petition be rejected. But if they deem it for the best interests of the district that the boundaries of said district be changed, and if no person interested in said district or the proposed change of its boundaries shows cause, in writing, why the proposed change should not be made, or if, having shown cause, withdraws the same, the board may order that the boundaries of the district be so changed as to include therein the lands mentioned in said petition or some part thereof. The order shall describe the boundaries as changed, and shall also describe the entire boundaries of the district as they will be after the change thereof as aforesaid is made; and for that purpose the board may cause a survey to be made of such portions of such boundary as is deemed necessary.

§ 91. If any person interested in said district, or the proposed change of its boundaries, shall show cause as aforesaid why such boundaries should not be changed, and shall not withdraw the same, and if the board of directors deem it for the best interests of the district that the boundaries thereof be so changed as to include therein the lands mentioned in the petition, or some part thereof, the board shall adopt a resolution to that effect. The resolution shall describe the exterior boundaries of the lands which the board are of the opinion should be included within the boundaries of the district when changed.

§ 92. Upon the adoption of the resolution mentioned in the last preceding section, the board shall order that an election be held within said district, to determine whether the boundaries of the district shall be changed as mentioned in said resolution; and shall fix the time at which such election shall be held, and cause notice thereof to be given and published. Such notice shall be given and published, and such election shall be held and conducted, the returns thereof shall be made and canvassed, and the result of the election ascertained and declared, and all things pertaining thereto conducted in the manner prescribed by said act in case of a special election to determine whether bonds of an irrigation district shall be issued. The ballots cast at said election shall contain the words "For change of boundary," or "Against change of boundary," or words equivalent thereto. The notice of election shall describe the proposed change of the boundaries in such manner and terms that it can readily be traced.

§ 93. If at such election a majority of all the votes cast at said election shall be against such change of the boundaries of the district, the board shall order that said petition be denied, and shall proceed no further in that matter. But if a majority of such votes be in favor of such change of the boundaries of the district, the board shall thereupon order that the boundaries be changed in accordance with said resolution adopted by the board. The said order shall describe the entire boundaries of said district, and for that purpose the board may cause a survey of such portions thereof to be made as the board may deem necessary.

§ 94. Upon a change of the boundaries of a district being made, a copy of the order of the board of directors ordering such change, certified by the president and secretary of the board, shall be filed for record in the recorder's office of each county within which are situated any of the lands of the district, and thereupon the district shall be and remain an irrigation district, as fully, and to every intent and purpose, as if the lands which are included in the district by the change of the boundaries, as aforesaid, had been included therein at the original organization of the district.

§ 95. Upon the filing of the copies of the order, as in the last preceding section mentioned, the secretary shall record in the minutes of the board the petition aforesaid; and the said minutes, or a certified copy thereof, shall be admissible in evidence, with the same effect as the petition.

§ 96. A guardian, an executor, or an administrator of an estate, who is appointed as such under the laws of this state, and who, as such guardian, executor, or administrator, is entitled to the possession of the lands belonging to the estate which he represents, may, on behalf of his ward, or the estate which he represents, upon being thereunto authorized by the proper court, sign and acknowledge the petition in this act mentioned, and may show cause as in this act mentioned why the boundaries of the district should not be changed.

§ 97. In case of the inclusion of any land within any district by proceedings under this act, the board of directors must, at least thirty days prior to the next succeeding general election, make an order redividing such district into three or five divisions, as the case may require, as nearly equal in size as may be practicable, which shall be numbered first, second, third, and so on, and one director shall thereafter be elected by each division. For the purposes of elections, the board of directors must establish a convenient number of election precincts in said districts, and define the boundaries thereof, which said precincts may be changed from time to time, as the board may deem necessary.

REDUCTION OF BONDED INDEBTEDNESS.

§ 98. Whenever the board of directors of an irrigation district heretofore organized, or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act, shall determine that the authorized bonded indebtedness of such irrigation district is greater than such district is liable to need to complete its system as planned, and there be no outstanding bonds, the board of directors may call a special election for the purpose of voting upon a proposition to reduce such bonded indebtedness to such sum as the board may determine to be sufficient for such purpose.

§ 99. Notice of the said election shall be given in the same manner as provided in section thirty of said act, in relation to calling special elections for issuance of bonds. The notice of election must state the amount of the authorized bonded indebtedness of such district, and the amount to which it is proposed to reduce the same; also, the date on which said election will be held, and the polling-places, as established by said board of directors. The ballots cast at said election shall contain the words, "For reducing bonds—Yes," or, "For reducing bonds—No." When the vote is canvassed by the board of directors and entered of record, if a majority of the votes cast shall be "For reducing bonds—Yes," then in that event the board of directors shall only be empowered to issue or sell such amount of bonds as was stipulated in the said notice of such special election; but if a majority of said votes are not "For reducing bonds—Yes," then the authority to issue bonds shall remain the same as before said special election was held.

§ 99½. In case there be outstanding bonds of any district desiring to take advantage of the provisions of this act concerning reduction of bonded indebtedness, the assent of such bondholders may be obtained to such reduction of the bonded indebtedness in the same manner as provided in section seventy-nine of this act. If such assent is obtained in the manner therein provided, then, and in that event, such district shall be empowered to take advantage of all the provisions of this act, but not otherwise. No reduction of the bonded indebtedness, as in this act provided, shall in any manner affect any order of court that may have been made, adjudicating and confirming the validity of said bonds.

LEASE OF WATER.

§ 100. Whenever any irrigation district, heretofore organized, or hereafter organized under the provisions of this act, in the development of its works as by law provided, may have opportunity, without increased expenditure, to utilize the water by it owned or controlled, for mechanical purposes not inconsistent with the provisions of said act, the board of directors may lease the same, as in this act hereinafter provided.

§ 101. Whenever the board of directors may desire to lease the use of water, as hereinbefore stated, they shall pass a resolution of intention to so lease the same. Immediately thereafter the secretary shall cause notice of such intention to be given by publication in one newspaper published in each county in which lands of the district are situated, for at least twenty days (provided, a newspaper is published therein, otherwise in any newspaper the board of directors may select), and, if the board thinks proper in such other newspapers as may be deemed advisable, calling for bids for the leasing of said water for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned. Said notice shall state that the board will receive sealed proposals therefor, that the lease will be let to the highest responsible bidder, stating the time and place of opening said proposals.

§ 102. At the time and place appointed the board shall proceed to open the proposals in public. As soon thereafter as may be convenient the board shall let said lease in portions, or as a whole, to the highest responsible bidder, or they may reject any or all bids, and readvertise for proposals for the same.

§ 103. The rental accruing upon said lease may vary from year to year, as shall be specified in said lease, and shall be payable semiannually, on the thirtieth day of December and thirtieth day of June of each years. All moneys collected, as in this act provided, shall be paid into the treasury, and be apportioned to such funds as may be deemed advisable.

§ 104. The board shall have power, as in this act provided, to execute a lease for any period not exceeding twenty-five years. If at any time the rental shall not be paid on the days hereinbefore mentioned, the amount of such rental then due shall be doubled, and if not paid within ninety days thereafter, the said lease shall be forfeited to said district, together with any and all works constructed, owned, used, or controlled by said lessee.

§ 105. Upon the letting of any lease, as in this act provided, the board may require the lessee to execute a bond for the faithful performance of the covenants of said lease or give such other evidence of good faith as in their judgment may be necessary.

DESTRUCTION OF UNSOLD BONDS.

§ 106. Whenever there remains in the hands of the board of directors of any irrigation district heretofore organized or organized under the provisions of this act, after the completion of its ditch system, and the payment of all demands against such district, any bonds voted to be issued by said district, but not sold, and not necessary to be sold for the raising of funds for the use of such district, said board of directors may call a special election for the purpose of voting upon a proposition to destroy said unsold bonds, or so many of them as may be deemed best, or may submit such proposition at a general election.

§ 107. Such election shall be held in the same manner as other elections held under the provisions of this act. A notice of such election shall be given in the same manner as provided in section thirty of this act in relation to calling special elections for the issuance of bonds. The notice of election must state the amount of the bonded indebtedness of such district authorized by the vote of the district, the amount of the bonds remaining unsold, and the amount proposed to be destroyed, and the date on which such election is proposed to be held, and the polling-places as fixed by the board of directors. The ballots to be cast at such election shall contain the words "For destroying bonds—Yes," and "For destroying bonds—No," and the voter must erase the word "No" in case he favors the destruction of bonds, otherwise the word "Yes."

§ 108. When the vote is canvassed by the board of directors and entered of record, if a two-thirds majority of the votes cast should be found to be in favor of the destruction of said bonds, then the president of the board, in the presence of a majority of the members of the board, must destroy the bonds so voted to be destroyed; and the total amount of bonds so destroyed and canceled shall be deducted from the sum authorized to be issued by the electors of said district, and no part thereof shall thereafter be reprinted or reissued.

SAVING CLAUSES.

§ 109. Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to affect the validity of any district heretofore organized under the laws of this state, or its rights in or to property, or any of its rights or privileges of whatsoever kind or nature; but said districts are hereby made subject to the provisions of this act so far as applicable; nor shall it affect, impair, or discharge any contract, obligation, lien, or charge for, or upon which it was or might become liable or chargeable had not this act been passed; nor shall it affect the validity of any bonds which have been issued but not sold; nor shall it affect any action which may now be pending.

§ 110. Nothing in this act shall be construed as repealing or in anywise modifying the provisions of any other act relating to the subject of irrigation or water commissioners, except such as may be contained in the act, an act entitled an act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes, approved March seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and the subsequent acts supplementary thereto, and amendatory thereof, all of which acts so far as they may be inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

§ 111. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval.

CONSTITUTIONALITY "WRIGHT ACT."—There are many decisions respecting the constitutionality of the irrigation statute of 1887, commonly referred to as the "Wright Act," and construing provisions of that statute and its amendments, which it is eminently proper to consult in connection with the provisions of the later statute; and they are here given.

The statute of 1887 was amended as follows: Stats. 1889, 15, 18, 21, 212; 1891, 142, 244; 1893, 175, 276, 516, 520; 1895, 127.

See also the statute of 1891, 53, relative to redemption of land from sale for assessments, and Hughson vs. Crane, 115 Cal. 404, 409, 47 Pac. Rep. 120.

Upon the constitutionality of these statutes, and that such districts are quasi public corporations, see Irrigation Dist. vs. Williams, 76 Cal. 360-367, 18 Pac. Rep. 379; Irrigation Dist. vs. De Lappe, 79 Cal. 351, 356, 21 Pac. Rep. 825. And as to the statute of 1887 and its amendments, see:

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—CONTRACTS.

Declaring upon what terms contracts between persons, companies, associations, or corporations furnishing water for irrigation to the consumers of such water shall be valid, and to provide that such contracts shall be deemed based upon sufficient consideration.

(Stats. 1901, 331, ch. CLVI.)

§ 1. It is and shall be lawful for any person, company, association, or corporation, furnishing for sale, rental, or distribution any appropriated waters for purpose of irrigation, to enter into contracts with individual consumers of such water or with bodies of such consumers, relating to the sale, rental, or distribution of such water, or any thereof, which contracts, subject to the restrictions hereinafter declared, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, any law or rule to the contrary notwithstanding.

§ 2. No such contract shall provide for the sale, rental, or distribution of any such water at any rate exceeding the established rates fixed and regulated therefor by the board of supervisors of the proper counties, or fixed and established by such person, company, association, or corporation, as pro-vided by law.

§ 3. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to authorize or make valid any contract not made for a valuable consideration; but an agreement on the part of such person, company, association, or corporation to sell, rent, or distribute any water to a consumer, without payment in advance therefor, or upon any other terms to which such consumer is not otherwise lawfully entitled, shall be deemed and taken to be a valuable and sufficient consideration for such contract.

§ 4. Nothing in this act contained shall affect any contract made prior to the time that the board of supervisors fix and establish the rates and regulations for and under which water shall be sold and supplied.

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—DISSOLUTION.

To provide for the dissolution of irrigation districts, the ascertainment and discharge of their indebtedness, and the distribution of their property.

(Stats. 1903, 3, ch. V.)

§ 1. Any irrigation district organized under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes," approved March seven, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and all acts supplementary thereto, or amendatory thereof, including an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition or construction thereby of works for the irrigation of lands embraced within such districts, and, also, to provide for the distribution of water for irrigation purposes," approved March thirty-one, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, may be dissolved in the manner hereinafter provided.

§ 2. A majority in number of the holders of title, or evidence of title, to real property in any irrigation district, and a majority in value of said property according to the equalized assessment roll of said district for the year last preceding upon which any assessment has been made, may propose the dissolution of said district by a petition signed by such majority, which petition shall set forth the amount of the outstanding bonds, coupons, and other indebtedness, if such there be, together with a general description of the same, and the holders, so far as known, showing the amount of each description of indebtedness and the ownership, so far as known, of the same. Also the estimated cost of the dissolution of said district. Said petition shall also state the assets of said district, including irrigation system, if any, dams, reservoirs, canals, franchises, water rights, a detailed statement of all the lands sold to the district for assessments, and the amount of the assessments on each parcel of land sold, also all assessments unpaid, and the amount upon each lot or tract of land, and all other assets of the district; and in case any proposition has been made by the holders of said indebtedness to settle the same, said proposition, together with any plan proposed to carry the same into execution, shall be included in said petition.

to the electors of such district the question whether or not said district shall be dissolved, its indebtedness liquidated, and its assets distributed in accordance with the plan so proposed, or in case no plan has been proposed, then in accordance with a plan which shall be proposed by said board of directors in the notice of the election, but no such election shall be called until the assent of all the known holders of valid indebtedness against the district shall be obtained or provision shall be made in said plan for the payment of such non-assenting holders. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county where the office of the board of directors is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks before such election. Such notices must specify the time of holding the election, the fact that it is proposed to dissolve the district, and a brief summary of the plan proposed for liquidating its indebtedness and disposing of its assets. Said election shall be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions governing the election of officers in irrigation districts. At such election the ballot shall contain the words "Dissolution of the district—Yes," or "Dissolution of the district—No," or words equivalent thereto.

§ 4. In case upon such canvass it is found and declared by said board of directors that two thirds of the votes cast at such election shall be cast in favor of "Dissolution of the district—Yes," then the said board of directors shall file a petition in the superior court of the county wherein is located the office of such board to determine the validity of the proceedings had and of the proposed plan for the dissolution of said district. Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of all parties interested may be had by publication of a notice of the pendency of the proceeding for at least once a week for three weeks in some paper of general circulation published in the county where the action is pending; provided, that if the property of the district is situate in more than one county then the publication shall be made in one paper in each county wherein the same is situate, such paper or papers to be designated by the court having jurisdiction of the proceeding; jurisdiction shall be complete in thirty days after the completion of such notice in the manner herein provided. Any one interested may at any time before the expiration of said thirty days appear and contest the validity of the proceedings already had and of the plan proposed for the dissolution of said district, or any portion thereof, including the validity of any portion of the indebtedness set out in said petition, and the court may determine the validity of any sales for assessments, and may determine the amount of any assessment or assessments due upon the various parcels and lots of real estate within said district, and may determine the amount of any assessment or assessments theretofore paid upon the various parcels and lots of real estate therein, and may in said proceeding adjust and determine the rights and liabilities of all parties. Such action shall be speedily tried and judgment rendered. Either party shall have the right to appeal at any time within thirty days after the entering of such judgment, and the appeal must be heard and determined within three months after the taking of such appeal.

§ 5. Said petition to the superior court shall set forth the facts required to be set forth in the petition to the board of directors and all proceedings therein, and at the hearing the court shall hear and determine the regularity, legality, and correctness of all proceedings, and in doing so shall disregard any error, irregularity, or omission which does not affect the substantial rights of the parties. The rules of pleading and practice in the Code of Civil Procedure not inconsistent with the provisions of this act are made applicable to the proceeding herein provided. The costs of any contest may be allowed and proportioned between the parties or taxed to the losing party in the discretion of the court, and no contest of any matter or thing herein provided for shall be made other than in the time and manner herein specified.

§ 6. If no such proceeding shall have been filed by the board of directors within thirty days after the canvass of said vote, then any district assessment payer may bring an action in the superior court of the county wherein the office of the board of directors is located. The board of directors shall be made parties defendant and notice shall be served on the members of the board personally, if they can be found in the state, if not, then service by publication as provided in section four, shall be sufficient. Proceedings shall be had in the same manner and with the same effect as if brought by the board of directors.

§ 7. A corporation may be organized under general laws for the purpose of acquiring the assets of said district, including the irrigation system, if any, dams, reservoirs, canals, franchises and water rights, which corporation shall have all the powers, rights and franchises or corporate bodies organized under general laws, and in addition shall have such further powers as may be necessary to possess and carry on said irrigation system and exercise such franchises and water rights.

§ 8. The court in its decree shall have power to make the orders necessary to carry out said proposition for the discharge of the indebtedness and distribution of the property of said district, including the right to apportion any indebtedness found due, and to declare said portions liens upon the various parcels and lots of land within the district, and may decree a sale of its assets in such manner as may effectuate said proposition and as the said court may judge best, either in one lot or in such parcels as may be provided, and may provide for conveyance of said irrigation system, including dams, reservoirs, canals, franchises, and water rights, and also of any other assets of the district, including lands sold thereto and the assessments due it.

§ 9. The amounts of any assessment or assessments found due upon the various parcels and lots of real estate within said district, and the amounts for which sales have been made, which sales have been determined to be valid by said court, together with legal interest from the date of said sales and from the time when said assessments become delinquent, shall be liens respectively on the lots and parcels affected thereby, and the purchaser or purchasers at said sale may foreclose the same by action in the superior court, and shall in said action join all lots, assessments, and sales which may have been purchased by him and which remain unredeemed. A redemption may be made at any time by payment of the amount due to the clerk of the court for the use of the district if before sale, and for the use of the purchaser if after sale, and the clerk shall thereupon enter a minute of said payment, which payment shall be in the discharge of said lien. Redemption from the lien created for any portion of the indebtedness can be had in this manner.

§ 10. Whenever all the property of such irrigation district shall have been disposed of, and all the indebtedness and obligations thereof, if any there be, shall have been discharged, the balance of the money of said district shall be distributed to the assessment payers in said district upon the last assessment roll in the proportion in which each has contributed to the total amount of said assessment, and the court shall enter a final decree declaring said district to be dissolved.

IRRIGATION DISTRICTS—FUNDING BONDS.

To provide for the issue and sale or exchange of funding bonds of irrigation districts organized under and in pursuance of an act of the legislature of the state of California entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes," approved March seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, to provide for the payment of such bonds, and for proceedings to test the validity of the same.

§ 1. Whenever an irrigation district organized under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation districts, and to provide for the acquisition of water and other property, and for the distribution of water thereby for irrigation purposes," approved March seventh, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, or said act and the acts supplementary thereto, or amendatory thereof, has outstanding bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness, the payment thereof may be provided for by the issuance of new bonds, in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

§ 2. A majority in number of the holders of title, or evidences of title to real property in any irrigation district, subject to assessment, such holders of title, or evidences of title, representing a majority in value of the real property of such district according to the equalized assessment roll or rolls of such district for the year last preceding, may propose the funding of such bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness. Said equalized assessment roll or rolls shall be sufficient evidence of title for the purposes of this act.

§ 3. In order to propose the funding of such bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness, a petition shall be presented to the board of directors of such irrigation district, signed by a majority in number of holders of title, or evidences of title to real property in such district, and representing a majority in value of the real property of said district, subject to assessment for district purposes, which petition shall set forth the amount of bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness proposed to be funded, together with a general description of same, also the total amount of the bonds sought to be issued (provided, that said amount shall in no case be greater than the total amount of bonds, coupons, and other evidences of indebtedness then outstanding and sought to have funded), together with a full and complete statement of the purposes for which such bonds are to be used. On presentation of such petition, the same shall be entered in full on the minutes of the board.

§ 4. Immediately after the recording of said petition the board of directors shall call a special election, at which shall be submitted to the electors of such district the question whether or not the bonds of such district, in the amount set forth in said petition, shall be issued. Notice of such election must be given by the secretary of said district by posting notices in three public places in each election precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county where the office of the board of directors of such district is required to be kept, once a week for at least three successive weeks before such election. Such notice must specify the time of holding the election, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued, the amount of bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness proposed to be refunded, together with a general description of the same. Said election shall be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions governing the election of officers; as provided by the law governing irrigation districts at the time of the holding of the election herein provided for; provided, that no informalities in conducting such an election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such an election the ballot shall contain the words "Bonds—Yes," or "Bonds—No," or words equivalent thereto. If two thirds of the votes cast at such election are "Bonds—Yes," the board of directors shall direct and cause bonds in said amount to be issued. If more than one third of the votes cast at such election are "Bonds—No," the result of such election shall be so declared. The result in either case shall be duly entered of record. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 514.]

§ 11. If said bonds are directed to be issued as herein provided for, the board of directors shall cause the same to be issued. Said bonds shall be made payable in gold coin of the United States, and in twenty series, as follows, to wit: On the first day of January after the expiration of twenty years, five per centum of the whole amount of said bonds, and on the first day of January of each year thereafter, an equal amount of such bonds until all shall have been finally paid; that is, five per centum of the whole issue of bonds—not five per centum of each bond—each being wholly payable when due. Said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semiannually on the first day of January and July of each year. They shall be negotiable in form, and shall be of denominations of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars. Said bonds shall in all respects conform to the form of bonds prescribed by the laws governing irrigation districts at the time of their issue, except as herein otherwise provided.

§ 12. It shall be unlawful to sell or exchange any of the bonds issued as herein provided, for less than their par value.

§ 13. When bonds issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be deposited with the treasurer of the district, and his receipt shall be taken therefor, and he shall be charged with the same on his official bond, and shall have no power to deliver the same in exchange for any bonds or indebtedness proposed to be funded until the bonds or evidence of indebtedness proposed to be funded shall have been surrendered to him, and he shall have been ordered by the board of directors of the district, by an order duly entered on their records, to make such delivery. When such bonds have been exchanged for other bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness, the treasurer shall at once cancel such other bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness by writing across the face thereof "Canceled," and the date of cancelation, and report the same with his monthly report to the board of directors of the district, designating the bond, coupon, or other evidence of indebtedness, so that it can be identified, the date of cancelation, and the person from whom it was received, together with the amount paid therefor, or the terms of exchange, in case there is an exchange.

§ 14. When said bonds are issued for the purpose of sale to the highest bidder, the board may sell said bonds from time to time, in such quantities as may be necessary and most advantageous, to raise money to pay bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness of the district which were outstanding at the time of the filing of said petition, and generally described therein. Before making any sale, the board shall at a meeting, by resolution, declare its intention to sell a specified amount of bonds, which resolution shall be entered in the minutes, and notice of the sale shall be given by publication thereof for at least three weeks in a newspaper published in the county in which the office of the board of directors is kept. The notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received by the board at its office for the purchase of bonds till the day and hour named in the resolution. At the time appointed the board shall open the proposals and award the purchase of bonds to the highest responsible bidder, or may reject all bids; but said bonds shall in no event be sold for less than their par value, including accrued interest. All moneys realized from the sale of bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the hands of the district treasurer, and by him kept in a separate fund, known as the funding fund, and shall be applied exclusively to the payment of bonds, coupons, or other evidences of indebtedness of the district outstanding at the time of filing the said petition, and described therein.

§ 15. At the time fixed for the levying of assessments for other purposes authorized by the district irrigation law then in force, there shall be levied an assessment sufficient in amount to pay the principal and interest then due and unpaid on any bonds issued by authority of this act, and also the amount to become due on any such bonds during the year following such levy. The assessment so levied shall be computed and entered in the assessment roll in the same manner, and shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as other assessments authorized by the district irrigation law then in force, and when collected, shall be paid into the district treasury, for the purposes therein authorized; and all the provisions of said district irrigation law relating to the collection of assessments and the sale and redemption of property therefor shall be applicable to the assessments levied under this act.

§ 16. The bonds issued as herein provided for may be exchanged, at not less than their par value, for any of the indebtedness set out and described in the notice of the election authorizing the issuance of said refunding bond[s]. A contract for such exchange may be made by the board of directors upon such terms as said board may deem advisable; provided that they must receive not less than par value for the bonds so exchanged. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 515.]

§ 17. Whenever there remains in the hands of the treasurer of any district any funding bonds voted to be issued by said district, but not used, and not necessary to be used for the funding purposes set out and described in the petition for the issuance of said bonds, then said board of directors, shall at a regular meeting, within three months after the completion of the funding, cause the same to be destroyed and a record to be made thereof, and the total amount of bonds so destroyed and canceled shall be deducted from the sum authorized to be issued by the electors of said district, and no part thereof shall be thereafter reprinted or reissued.

§ 18. Any bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be a lien upon the real property of the district, and said bonds and the interest thereon shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual assessment upon the real property of the district, and all the real property in said district shall be and remain liable to be assessed for such payments as hereinbefore provided. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 515.]

IRRIGATION—LOS NIETOS.

To provide for and regulate irrigation in the township of Los Nietos, in the county of Los Angeles.

(Stats. 1877-8, 374, ch. CCC.)

§ 1. The township of Los Nietos shall constitute one irrigation district, and for the purposes of this act shall be known as Los Nietos Irrigation District.

§ 2. There shall be in said Los Nietos Irrigation District a board of water commissioners consisting of three members, one overseer of water, all of whom shall be elected or appointed, and shall qualify as hereinafter provided.

§ 3. It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of the County of Los Angeles, upon the filing of a petition signed by thirty or more of the irrigators of said Los Nietos Township, to appoint three persons, resident irrigators of said district, who shall act and constitute a board of irrigation commissioners, and also, upon petition as is required for the appointment of commissioners, appoint an overseer of water, who shall be a resident of said district. The board of supervisors shall cause to be issued to each person appointed a certificate of his appointment. All officers so appointed shall, within ten days after receiving certificates of appointment, take the usual oath of office, to be indorsed on said certificate of appointment and filed in the office of the clerk of the county court of the said county. Said commissioners and overseer so appointed shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified, which election shall be at the general election every two years thereafter. The commissioners appointed in compliance with the provisions of the last section shall meet within fifteen days after their appointment and qualification and elect one of their number as president, and one treasurer, and one clerk, after which time they shall be known as the board of water commissioners of Los Nietos Township, Los Angeles County. Said commissioners, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, shall each make and execute to the people of the state a good and sufficient bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties.

§ 4. The overseer of water and the treasurer shall each, before taking charge of their several offices, make and execute to the Los Nietos Irrigation District a good and sufficient bond, in the sum of two thousand dollars, with two or more sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties as such officers, said bond to be approved by the county judge of the county, and filed with the clerk of the county court of said county, all of which shall be done within ten days after the organization of said board.

§ 5. It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of the said county of Los Angeles, whenever they issue their proclamation for the election for county and township officers for said county, to insert in their said proclamation an order for the election of three commissioners and one overseer of water, for said water district, and said election of said commissioners and overseer of water shall be voted for at the same time and places and in all respects as township officers.

§ 6. As soon as the commissioners are appointed or elected and qualified as in this act provided, they shall proceed to take possession of and control of all the watercourses, ditches, dams, aqueducts, flumes, reservoirs, and irrigating structures and works in said district (except such as are owned by private parties, or by companies or corporations legally organized under the laws of this state), and shall determine the amount of water which shall be given and used as an irrigating head, and cause the same to be measured and issued to the irrigators; to use all means necessary to cause the water of said district to be utilized to the best interest of the irrigators. The board of commissioners shall have power to receive conveyances for rights of way for ditches or dams, reservoirs, and canals, and shall have power to maintain an action for the condemnation of an easement or right of way for any ditch, etc., over any lands in the district in the same manner as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for the condemnation of rights of way for public roads when, in their judgment, the necessity of the district, for the benefit of irrigation, requires it.

§ 7. Cause to be made out in alphabetical form, and entered of record, a list of all the irrigators in the district, the amount of land each desire[s] to irrigate, and the number of acres heretofore irrigated; make and declare such rules and regulations as may be just in regard to the time of irrigation, and the number of times required for the proper assurance of a crop, and for the purposes of determining the necessity of any second, third, or fourth irrigation of any one crop may visit and examine the said crop; hear and determine as a board of arbitrators all differences arising between irrigators and the overseer of water, or between irrigators, when submitted to them; order the distribution of the water to those entitled by the overseer, beginning nearest the head or main source of the ditch, and thence to the next, and so on throughout the district; provided, that the supply of water is sufficient to water the entire district within thirty days; and in case the supply is insufficient, then the board must determine the amount of water and the time to be used, so as to insure a crop to the greater number, and not allow the water to be wasted by wetting long ditches or the watering of stock. When the water is turned in at the head of the main ditch, persons on the side ditches must receive the same by some representative of the side ditch selected by the irrigators of the said side ditch, from the overseer, and notice in writing of the time each irrigator on said side ditch is entitled to use the same; and when the water is so turned in to a side ditch, any person using the water from said side ditch who neglects or refuses to use the water shall be precluded from the use of the water until the next regular time when the water is so again turned on. No person shall be entitled or allowed to sell his run of water off of his side ditch, or to exchange runs of water off of the side ditch to which it belongs, and all persons using water from the main ditch must use the same on his turn, and in case he or they neglect or refuse to use the same at the time designated, he or they shall lose his or their run of water for that time, and shall in no case be allowed to exchange or sell his or their run of water to be taken out below the next side ditch below him or them, nor above the first side ditch above him or them.

§ 8. It shall be the duty of the overseer of water to take charge of and manage all the waters, dams, ditches, reservoirs, and aqueducts, and works of the company, and carry out generally the orders of the board of commissioners; and may appoint one or more deputies, subject to the approval of the board of irrigators; shall cause all the waters under the control of the commissioners to be properly distributed into the side ditches and to those using the water from the main ditch, but shall not turn water into any side ditch until it is fully repaired and clear of filth, and with sufficient capacity to carry the water without waste; to see that all the ditches and works of the district are kept in good repair and clear of filth. He shall prepare and keep a book, in which he shall keep a correct account between the district and the irrigators, in debit and credit form. He shall collect all moneys arising from the sale of water or any other source; he shall pay over the same to the treasurer of the district once every month and take his receipt for the same, and file the same with the clerk of the district. He shall be a conservator of the peace so far as any breach of the same may occur under his jurisdiction. In the discharge of his duties under the provisions of this act, he shall have power, either with or without process, to arrest any person or persons for unlawful interference with any of the waters or works of the district, and take him or them before any magistrate of the township, to be dealt with according to law.

§ 9. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of said district to receive and receipt for and safely keep any and all moneys paid to him belonging to the district; keep an account of the same in a book to be kept for that purpose; pay the same out on the presentation of warrants signed by the board of commissioners, or a majority of them, and attested by the clerk of the board; note on the face of each warrant paid and date of payment; file and keep the same as vouchers; make an appropriate entry of the same; present an account current, accompanied by vouchers, to the board quarterly.

§ 10. Regular sessions of the board of irrigation shall be held on the first Monday in each month at Downey City, and may adjourn from day to day, as in their judgment the necessity requires, and may call special meetings at any time by the order of the president. All moneys paid into the treasury shall be paid into a general fund and used for the payment of any debts or claims against the district. All claims against the district shall be audited and allowed by the board of commissioners, and shall be recorded and numbered consecutively by the clerk of the board, and the nature of the claim.

§ 11. Each and every person entitled to water of the district and who desires to use the same for irrigating or manufacturer's [manufacturing] purposes, shall be required, after notice from the overseer, of not less than three days' verbal notice, or by written notice left at his or her place of residence, perform or cause to be performed one day's work for each five acres of land desiring [he desires] to irrigate, or if less than five acres, then in the same proportion as one is to five; or if the water is desired for manufacturing purposes, one day's work shall be required for every ten days' use of water; provided, that any person not desiring to work may commute by paying to the overseer one dollar and fifty cents at the time the work is demanded or required to be performed; and provided further, that no person shall be entitled to the use of any water for either irrigation or manufacturing purposes unless he or they either work or cause the work to be done at the time and place required by the overseer, or that he or they have commuted in money; provided, that no person shall be required to do any work, or pay any money for work done or to be done, below where he gets his or their water from the ditch.

§ 12. Eight hours shall be the time for a day's work under the provisions of this act, and any person idling away his time when doing work under this act shall be charged at the rate of twenty-five cents per hour by the overseer, and the same to be deducted from his time. And any person furnishing substitutes to work on the ditch must furnish able-bodied men, or they shall be rejected by the overseer.

§ 13. Any person or persons obstructing the waters of any ditch, flume, or aqueduct, by dam or otherwise, causing the same to overflow or waste, or who shall put, or cause to be put, any filth in any ditch, flume, aqueduct, or reservoir, or by cutting the same or taking the water therefrom without authority or the consent of the overseer, his deputies, or the board of commissioners, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and, upon conviction by any tribunal of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by fine of not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety days, or by both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court; and the judgment of the court shall be that in case the fine is not paid immediately, the defendant shall be committed to the county jail until the fine is liquidated at the rate of one dollar per day.

§ 14. This act shall not be so construed as to deprive any man of a vested right of property.

§ 15. In case any person shall be damaged by the breaking of any ditch, dam, aqueduct, or reservoir under the management and control of said board of commissioners, said district shall be liable for said damages; provided, that the district shall not be liable for any damage caused by the breaking of any of the works of the district caused by the stock act, or negligence of the party damaged.

§ 16. The board of commissioners shall have power to levy a tax on the lands irrigated in said district, not to exceed ten cents per acre in any one year, whenever in their judgment it becomes necessary for the interest of the district.

§ 17. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of any of the officers under the provisions of this act, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the members of the board remaining in office; provided, that a vacancy of two members of the board at the same time the vacancies shall be filled by the board of supervisors, upon petition, as is required in the first instant [instance].

§ 18. Each member of the board of commissioners shall receive for his services as such officer a reasonable compensation for his services, not to exceed three dollars per day for each day actually employed in the discharge of the duties of his office.

§ 19. The overseer of water shall receive for his services not to exceed three dollars per day for his services, for each day actually employed in the discharge of his duties. Each deputy shall receive a reasonable compensation for his services.

§ 20. The clerk of the board shall receive one dollar per day extra of his pay as commissioner for such clerical service.

§ 21. The treasurer shall receive four per centum on all moneys of the district committed to his care and keeping.

§ 22. All necessary books, stationery, etc., for the officers of the district, necessary for the use of the offices and officers of the district, shall be a charge upon and paid by the district.

§ 23. The irrigators of any other township or district within the county of Los Angeles desiring to avail themselves of the provisions of this act, may, by petition to the board of supervisors, signed by a majority of the irrigators of the said township or district, be, by an order of the said board of supervisors, spread upon the minutes of said board, declare the said township or district to be an irrigating district, and shall appoint three persons to act as commissioners, and one overseer, as is required in section three of this act. And said board of commissioners and overseer shall qualify and in all respects be governed and controlled as in this act provided, and any and all water districts formed under this section shall be governed and controlled in all respects, receive all the benefits, and be amenable to all the penalties of this act.

§ 24. All acts and parts of acts heretofore passed on the subject of irrigation, so far as they relate to Los Nietos Township, is [are] hereby repealed.

Cate vs. Sanford, 54 Cal. 24.

IRRIGATION—WATER COMPANIES.

To regulate and control the sale, rental, and distribution of appropriated water in this state, other than in any city, city and county, or town therein, and to secure the rights of way for the conveyance of such water to the places of use.

§ 1. The use of all water now appropriated, or that may hereafter be appropriated, for irrigation, sale, rental, or distribution, is a public use, and the right to collect rates or compensation for use of such water is a franchise, and except when so furnished to any city, city and county, or town, or the inhabitants thereof, shall be regulated and controlled in the counties of this state by the several boards of supervisors thereof, in the manner prescribed in this act.

§ 2. The several boards of supervisors of this state, on petition and notice as provided in section three of this act, are hereby authorized and required to fix and regulate the maximum rates at which any person, company, association, or corporation, having or to have appropriated water for sale, rental, or distribution in each of such counties, may and shall sell, rent, or distribute the same.

§ 3. Whenever a petition of not less than twenty-five inhabitants, who are taxpayers of any county of this state, shall, in writing, petition the board of supervisors thereof, to be filed with the clerk of said board, to regulate and control the rates and compensation to be collected by any person, company, association, or corporation, for the sale, rental, or distribution of any appropriated water, to any of the inhabitants of such county, and shall in such petition specify the persons, companies, associations, or corporations, or any one or more of them, whose water rates are therein petitioned to be regulated or controlled, the clerk of such board shall immediately cause such petition, together with a notice of the time and place of hearing thereof, to be published in one or more newspapers published in such county; and if no newspaper be published therein, then shall cause copies of such petition and notice to be posted in not less than three public places in such counties, and such publication and notice shall be for not less than four weeks next before the hearing of said petition by said board; such notice to be attached to said petition shall specify a day of the next regular term of the session of the said board not less than thirty days after the first publication or posting thereof, for the hearing of said petition, which shall impart notice to all such persons, companies, associations, and corporations mentioned in such petition, and all persons interested in the matters of such petition and notice. Such board may also cause citations to issue to any person or persons within such county to attend and give evidence at the hearing of such petition, and may compel such attendance by attachment.

§ 4. At the hearing of said petition the board of supervisors shall estimate, as near as may be, the value of the canals, ditches, flumes, water chutes, and all other property actually used and useful to the appropriation and furnishing of such water, belonging to and possessed by each person, association, company, or corporation, whose franchise shall be so regulated and controlled; and shall in like manner estimate as to each of such persons, companies, associations, and corporations, their annual reasonable expenses, including the cost of repairs, management, and operating such works; and, for the purpose of such ascertainment, may require the attendance of persons to give evidence, and the production of papers, books, and accounts, and may compel the attendance of such persons and the production of papers, books, and accounts, by attachments, if within their respective counties.

§ 5. In the regulation and control of such water rates for each of such persons, companies, associations, and corporations, such board of supervisors may establish different rates at which water may and shall be sold, rented, or distributed, as the case may be; and may also establish different rates and compensation for such water so to be furnished for the several different uses, such as mining, irrigating, mechanical, manufacturing, and domestic, for which such water shall be supplied to such inhabitants, but such rates as to each class shall be equal and uniform. Said board of supervisors, in fixing such rates, shall, as near as may be, so adjust them that the net annual receipts and profits thereof to the said persons, companies, associations, and corporations so furnishing such water to such inhabitants shall be not less than six nor more than eighteen per centum upon the said value of the canals, ditches, flumes, chutes, and all other property actually used and useful to the appropriation and furnishing of such water of [to] each of such persons, companies, associations, and corporations; but in estimating such net receipts and profits, the cost of any extensions, enlargements, or other permanent improvements of such water rights or waterworks shall not be included as part of the said expenses of management, repairs, and operating of such works, but when accomplished, may and shall be included in the present cost and cash value of such work. In fixing said rates, within the limits aforesaid, at which water shall be so furnished as to each of such persons, companies, associations, and corporations, each of said board of supervisors may likewise take into estimation any and all other facts, circumstances, and conditions pertinent thereto, to the end and purpose that said rates shall be equal, reasonable and just, both to such persons, companies, associations, and corporations, and to said inhabitants; and each such board of supervisors shall designate what proportion of the rates so fixed shall be for the said annual reasonable expenses of each of such persons, companies, associations or corporations, and what proportion of the rates so fixed shall be for the said net annual receipts and profits to such persons, companies, associations or corporations. The said rates, when so fixed by such board, shall be binding and conclusive for not less than one year next after their establishment, and until established anew or abrogated by such board of supervisors, as hereinafter provided. And until such rates shall be so established or after they shall have been abrogated by such board of supervisors, as in this act provided, the actual rates established and collected by each of the persons, companies, associations, and corporations now furnishing, or that shall hereafter furnish, appropriated waters for sale, rental, or distribution to the inhabitants of any of the counties of this state, shall be deemed and accepted as the legally established rates thereof. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 80.]

§ 6. At any time after the establishment of such water rates by any board of supervisors of this state, the same may be established anew, or abrogated in whole or in part by such board, to take effect not less than one year next after such first establishment, but subject to said limitation of one year, to take effect immediately in the following manner: Upon the written petition of inhabitants as hereinbefore provided, or upon the written petition of any of the persons, companies, associations or corporations, the rates and compensations of whose appropriated waters have already been fixed and regulated, and are still subject to such regulation by any board of supervisors of this state, as in this act provided; and upon the like publication or posting of such petition and notice, and for the like period of time as hereinbefore provided, such board of supervisors shall proceed anew, in the manner hereinbefore provided, to fix and establish the water rates for such person, company, association, or corporation, or any number of them, in the same manner as if such rates had not been previously established, and may, upon the petition of such inhabitants, but not otherwise, abrogate any and all existing rates theretofore established by such board. All water rates, when fixed and established as herein provided shall be in force and effect until established anew or abrogated, as provided in this act.

§ 7. Each board of supervisors of this state, when fixing and establishing, or fixing and establishing anew, or abolishing any previously established water rates, as hereinbefore provided, shall cause a record to be made thereof in the records of such board, and cause the same to be published or posted in the manner and for the time required for the publication or posting of said petitions and notices.

§ 8. Any and all persons, companies, associations, or corporations, furnishing for sale, rental, or distribution, any appropriated waters to the inhabitants of any county or counties of this state (other than to the inhabitants of any city, city and county, or town, therein), shall so sell, rent, or distribute such waters at rates not exceeding the established rates fixed and regulated therefor by the boards of supervisors of such counties, or as fixed and established by such person, company, association, or corporation, as provided in this act.

§ 9. If any person, company, association, or corporation, whose water rates for any county of this state have been fixed and regulated by a board of supervisors, as in this act provided, and while such rates are in force, shall collect, for any appropriated water, furnished to any inhabitant of such county water rates in excess of such established rates, shall be liable, in an action by any such inhabitant so aggrieved, to a recovery of the whole rate so collected, together with actual damages sustained by such inhabitant, with costs of suit.

§ 10. Every person, company, association, and corporation, having in any county in the state (other than in any city, city and county, or town therein) appropriated waters for sale, rental, or distribution, to the inhabitants of such county, upon demand therefor, and tender in money of such established water rates, shall be obliged to sell, rent, or distribute such water to such inhabitants at the established rates regulated and fixed therefor, as in this act provided, whether so fixed by the board of supervisors or otherwise, to the extent of the actual supply of such appropriated waters of such person, company, association, or corporation, for such purposes. If any person, company, association, or corporation, having water for such use, shall refuse compliance with such demand, or shall neglect, for the period of five days after such demand, to comply therewith to the extent of his or its reasonable ability so to do, shall be liable in damages to the extent of the actual injury sustained by the person or party making such demand and tender, to be recovered, with costs.

§ 11. Whenever any person, company, association, or corporation shall have acquired the right to appropriate water, or shall have acquired the right to appropriate such water in this state, such person, company, association, or corporation, may proceed to condemn the lands and premises necessary to such right of way, under the provisions of title seven of part three of the Code of Civil Procedure of this state, and amendments made and to be made thereto, and all the provisions of said code, so far as the same can be made applicable, relating to the condemnation and taking of property for public uses, shall be applicable to the provisions of this act.

§ 11½. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prohibit or invalidate any contract already made, or which shall hereafter be made, by or with any of the persons, companies, associations, or corporations described in section two of this act, relating to the sale, rental, or distribution of water, or to the sale or rental of easements and servitudes of the right to the flow and use of water; nor to prohibit or interfere with the vesting of rights under any such contract. [New section, Stats. 1897, 49.]

It is believed that the foregoing act fully supersedes Stats. 1880, 16, ch. XXI.—McFadden vs. Los Angeles County, 74 Cal. 571, 573, 16 Pac. Rep. 397; Crow vs. San Joaquin etc. Irr. Co., 130 Cal. 309, 313, 62 Pac. Rep. 562, JUDGES OF THE PLAINS.

Concerning judges of the plains (jueces del campo), and defining their duties. (Stats. 1851, 515, ch. CXXXI; amended 1857, 158, ch. CXXXIV; 1863, 497, ch. CCCXXXVIII.)

§ 1. The board of supervisors of each county in this state may, at their first regular meeting in each year; appoint such number of judges of the plains for their respective counties, as they may deem necessary. Said judges of the plains shall hold their office for the term of one year, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. [Amendment, Stats. 1863, 497.]

§ 2. Judges of the plains are hereby required, and it is made their duty, to attend all rodeos, or gathering of cattle, whether for the purpose of marking and branding, or for the purpose of separating cattle, when called upon by any ranchero, farmer, or owner of stock, that may be made in their respective counties. [Amendment, Stats. 1863, 497.]

§ 3. Whenever any dispute arises respecting the ownership, mark, or brand of any horse, mule, jack, jenny, or horned cattle, it shall be the duty of the judges of the plains to decide on such dispute.

§ 4. Any party interested in the dispute of the ownership, mark, or brand of any animals as enumerated above, may appeal from the decision of the judges of the plains to a justice of the peace of the township where such dispute may arise; provided, such appeal be made within twenty-four hours after the judgment has been notified to him.

§ 5. All persons traveling with cattle, sheep, hogs, horses, or mules, shall, in case said animals be not of their own mark and brand, be obliged to procure from the person or persons from whom they obtain such cattle, or from the justice of the peace residing nearest to the farm or place where they obtain the same, a certificate of the number and kind of such cattle, and the mark and brand which distinguished the same; and they shall allow such animals to be subject to the inspection of owners of lands through which they may pass, and upon arriving at any city, town, or village, shall present themselves to a judge of the plains, and state the number and kind of such animals; and it shall be the duty of the judge of the plains to examine the band or drove, and accompany them out of the precinct of such city, town, or village.

§ 6. That if the number and kind of animals do not agree with the report of the owner or person in charge, and with the certificates in his possession, the judge of the plains shall detain the band or drove, and take the owner or person in charge before the nearest magistrate for examination.

§ 7. The judge of the plains shall arrest and take before any magistrate any person who may be accused to him or whom he has reasonable ground to suspect of killing, hiding, or otherwise taking away cattle, horses, or other animals belonging to others, and shall execute any warrant delivered to him by any magistrate for larceny or other offense concerning said described property; he shall execute any warrant delivered to him by any justice of the peace, for the purposes herein named, and otherwise shall have and exercise the same powers as any sheriff, constable, or police officer, in the cases provided for by the act entitled "An act to punish vagrants, vagabonds and dangerous and suspicious persons," approved April thirtieth, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, and the act amendatory thereof, approved February nineteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, for making an arrest, or the service of process, or other services in criminal cases, he shall receive the same fees or compensation as the sheriff. [Amendment, Stats. 1857, 158.]

§ 8. That should complaint be brought against any judge of the plains for dereliction of duty, the same being sustained, [he] shall be considered as guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to prosecution for the same.

§ 9. The judge of the plains shall receive such compensation for his services as may be fixed upon by the board of supervisors at the time of his appointment, not to exceed the sum of five dollars for each day actually employed, and which shall be paid by the party in default, or by the party requiring his services. [Amendment, Stats. 1863, 497.]

§ 10. The board of supervisors may make such other local regulations with respect to the duties of the judges of the plains, that they may deem necessary. [Amendment, Stats. 1863, 497.]

§ 11. This act shall take effect from and after the first day of July; and all laws now in force in this state, having relation to judges of the plains, are hereby repealed.

JUTE GOODS.

Fixing the price and conditions of sale at which jute goods shall be sold by the state.

(Stats. 1893, 54, ch. XLII.)

§ 1. It shall be the duty of the state board of prison directors, from time to time, to fix the price, and to give public notice of the same, at which jute goods shall be sold by the state, but at no time shall the price fixed be more than one cent per bag in excess of the net cost of producing the same, exclusive of prison labor; and it is made the duty of state prison authorities to confine the sale of jute goods to consumers direct, but no order shall be filled for any one individual or firm, during any one year, for more than five thousand grain bags, except on request of the warden, and the unanimous approval of the state board of prison directors.

§ 2. Demands for jute goods by consumers shall be promptly filled in the order in which they are made; but when the supply is short, demands shall be registered at the prison in the order of their arrival, and filled from the output of the jute mill in the order of registration; provided, that on and after the fifteenth day of June of each year, by and with the consent of a majority of the board of prison directors, the warden may fill orders for larger quantities to actual consumers, as they may, in their judgment, deem expedient; provided, that orders of farmers shall take precedence over all others; provided further, that ten per centum of the purchase price shall accompany each order, and the remaining portion must be paid upon delivery of the goods.

§ 3. All orders for jute goods must be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth that the amount of goods contained in the order are for individual and personal use of the applicant, said affidavit to be subscribed and sworn to before some notary public, or by a justice of the peace, residing in the township in which the applicant resides; provided, that any applicant, as heretofore provided for, who falsely and fraudulently procures jute goods under the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

KERN COUNTY.

To provide one additional judge of the superior court of the county of Kern.
(Stats. 1903, 30, ch. XXVIII.)

§ 1. The number of judges of the superior court of the county of Kern is hereby increased from one (1) to two (2).

§ 2. Within ten (10) days after the passage of this act the governor shall appoint one (1) additional judge of the superior court of the county of Kern, who shall hold office until the first Monday after the first day of January, anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and five (1905); and at the next general election to be held in November, anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and four (1904), one (1) judge of said court in addition to the present number provided by law for said county shall be elected to hold office for the term prescribed by the constitution and by law.

§ 3. The salary of said one (1) additional judge shall be the same in amount, and shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as that of the other judge of the superior court of said county now authorized by law.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately from and after its passage.

KINGS COUNTY—CREATING.

To create the county of Kings, to define the boundaries thereof, fix the county seat thereof, and to provide for its organization and election of officers, and to classify said county.

(Stats. 1893, 176, ch. CL.)

§ 1. There may be formed out of the western part of Tulare County a new county, to be called the county of Kings, in the manner and subject to the conditions herein named.

§ 2. The boundaries of the said county of Kings shall be as follows: Beginning at the point where the fourth standard line south of Mount Diablo base line intersects or crosses the boundary line as now established by law between Tulare and Fresno counties; thence east to the northeast corner of section one, in township seventeen south, of range twenty-two east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence south six miles; thence east three miles; thence south nine miles to the southeast corner of section sixteen, in township nineteen south, range twenty-three east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence west three miles to the southeast corner of section thirteen, township nineteen south, range twenty-two east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence south nine miles to the southeast corner of township twenty south, range twenty-two east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence west to the northeast corner of township twenty-one south, range twenty-two east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence south twenty-four miles to the boundary line between Kern and Tulare counties as now established by law; thence west along the said boundary line between Kern and Tulare counties, to the corner common to the counties of Tulare, Monterey, San Luis Obispo, and Kern, as now established by law; thence in a northwesterly direction along the boundary line between the counties of Monterey and Tulare, as now established by law, to the corner common to the counties of Tulare, Monterey and Fresno; thence in a northeastern direction along the boundary line between Fresno and Tulare counties, as now established by law, to the place of beginning.

§ 3. The seat of justice of said county of Kings shall be at the city of Hanford until otherwise provided by law.

said county, and the house or place in each precinct where the election herein-after provided for must be held. Said commissioners, and the clerk elected by them, are hereby authorized and required to discharge the same duties as are now required by law of boards of supervisors and county clerks in the counties of this state, so far as the same apply to holding elections, canvassing returns, and issuing certificates of election. They shall keep a full record of their proceedings, transmitting to the secretary of state a certified copy thereof, filing the originals with the original election returns in the county clerk's office, as soon as he shall have been qualified, and thereupon the powers and duties of said commissioners shall cease and terminate.

§ 5. Within six months from the time of the first meeting of the commissioners hereinbefore provided for, said commissioners shall order an election to be held in said county of Kings. There shall be chosen at said election a judge of the superior court, a district attorney, a county clerk, a sheriff, a tax collector, a treasurer, a recorder and auditor, an assessor, a superintendent of schools, a county surveyor, a coroner, a public administrator, and one supervisor for each supervisor district; provided, that all duly elected and qualified supervisors of Tulare County, who, at the taking effect of this act, are residents of the county of Kings, shall hold their offices for the time provided by law, upon having duly qualified as supervisors of the county of Kings, for the respective districts in which they reside, as said districts are organized by action of the board of commissioners provided for in this act. At said election there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said county of Kings, as hereinafter described, the question whether they desire a separate county government; and for the purpose of ascertaining the choice of said electors, the ballots used at said election shall have printed thereon the words "For the new county of Kings—Yes," "For the new county of Kings—No;" and all ballots on which a cross is marked with a stamp after the words "For the new county of Kings—Yes," shall be counted in favor of such separate county government; and all ballots on which a cross is marked with a stamp after the words "For the new county of Kings—No," shall be counted against such separate county government. Said election shall be conducted in every respect, except as otherwise herein provided, in accordance with the general election law for the election of county and township officers.

§ 6. All qualified electors of this state, who have been residents and electors of the territory comprising the county of Kings for ninety days preceding the election provided for in section five of this act, shall be qualified to vote at said election. The register of Tulare County used at the general election held in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, in the territory comprising the county of Kings, shall be prima facie evidence of the qualification of electors. The county clerk of Tulare County is hereby directed to furnish the commissioners of Kings County a certificate, under seal, showing the additional names of voters on the great register of Tulare County registered as residing in the territory of the county of Kings since the last great register of Tulare County was printed; and the certificate of the county clerk of Tulare County, under seal, showing the registration of any qualified voter who resides in the territory forming the county of Kings, up to the date of election, shall entitle the holder thereof, if otherwise qualified by law, to vote at said election.

§ 7. It shall be the duty of secretary of state to furnish to the clerk of said board of commissioners the quantity of ballot paper ordered by said clerk, for use at the election provided for in this act, upon payment of the cost of such paper.

§ 8. If at said election two thirds of the votes cast on the question of separate county government shall be in favor of such separate county government, then the said territory hereinabove described shall be and become a separate county from and after the day upon which the returns of said election shall be ascertained and declared by said board of commissioners. But if at such election less than two thirds of the qualified electors voting for and against the creation of the proposed county vote for the creation of said county, then this act shall cease to be of any force or effect.

§ 9. Sealed returns from the officers of election of the several precincts shall be made to the board of commissioners, at such office as they shall select in the city of Hanford, within six days after the day of election.

§ 10. Each person elected to fill an office of said county, under the provisions of this act, shall qualify in the manner provided by law for such officers, and shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office within twenty days after the receipt of the certificate of his election. The person elected as judge of the superior court shall qualify before the president of said board of commissioners; and persons elected to offices of said county other than the office of judge of the superior court shall qualify before the judge of the superior court, or before the president of said board of commissioners, which said president of said board of commissioners, for said purpose, shall have power to administer to each of said persons his official oath.

§ 11. The officers elected or appointed under the provisions of this act shall each perform the duties and receive the compensation now provided by general law for the office to which he has been appointed or elected, in counties of the class to which the county of Kings belongs, under the general classification of counties in this state; and until otherwise provided by law, said county shall be classified as a county of the forty-third class.

§ 12. All justices of the peace, and all constables, duly elected and qualified residents of the county of Kings at the taking effect of this act, shall hold their offices for the terms provided by law, upon having duly qualified as justices and constables of the county of Kings for the respective townships in which they reside. All school trustees, acting as such at the time of the taking effect of this act, residents of the county of Kings, shall hold their offices for the time provided by law, upon having duly qualified as such for the respective school districts in which they severally reside, as such districts are now organized.

§ 14. The judge of the superior court chosen under the provisions of this act shall hold his office until the first Monday after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and until his successor is elected and qualified. The assessor and supervisors elected under the provisions of this act shall hold their offices until the first Monday after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, or until their successors are elected and qualified. The other officers hereinbefore enumerated shall hold their offices until the first Monday after the first day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, or until their successors are elected and qualified. The successors of the officers elected under this act shall be chosen at the general election established by law which takes place next preceding the expiration of their respective terms of office.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the tax collector of the county of Tulare, upon the demand of the tax collector of the county of Kings, to furnish, assign, and transfer to the tax collector of the county of Kings a complete list of all unpaid taxes assessed and levied during the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, on property within the boundaries of the county of Kings. The tax collector of the county of Tulare shall file a duplicate list of such unpaid taxes assessed within the boundaries of the county of Kings, with the county auditor of Tulare County. The tax collector of the county of Kings shall give to the tax collector of the county of Tulare a receipt for said list of unpaid taxes, and shall file a duplicate list with the auditor of the county of Kings, and thereupon all such unpaid taxes shall become payable to the tax collector of the county of Kings, and he is hereby authorized to collect and receipt for the same.

§ 16. The superintendent of schools of the county of Tulare shall furnish the superintendent of schools of the county of Kings with a certified copy of the last school census list of the different school districts in the territory set apart to form the county of Kings, and draw his warrant on the treasurer of Tulare County in favor of superintendent of schools of the county of Kings, for all money that is or may be due, by apportionment or otherwise, to the different school districts of the county of Kings. The auditor of the county of Tulare shall in like manner draw his warrant in favor of the auditor of the county of Kings for all money that is or may be due, by apportionment or otherwise, to the different road district funds in the territory set apart to form the county of Kings, and said funds shall be properly credited to the respective districts in said Kings County.

§ 17. The board of supervisors of Kings County are hereby authorized to provide suitable books, and contract with some competent person to transcribe from the records of Tulare County such parts thereof as relate to property situated in Kings County, and said records, when so transcribed and certified, shall have the same force and effect as such original records. The compensation for said services shall be fixed and allowed by the board of supervisors of Kings County, not to exceed for transcribing fifteen cents per folio. The recorder of Tulare County shall examine said transcript and certify to the correctness of each deed, mortgage, and other instruments, and affix his seal to the same; for which service he shall receive a sum not to exceed twenty-five cents for each instrument so examined, certified, and sealed.

§ 18. The county of Kings shall be attached to and form a part of the sixty-fourth assembly district and of the thirty-second senatorial district as now established until otherwise provided by law.

[§ 19.] This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval.

LABOR—STATISTICS.

To establish and support a bureau of labor statistics.

(Stats. 1883, 27, ch. XXI; amended 1889, 6, ch. X, and 1901, 12, ch. XXIII.)

§ 1. As soon as possible after the passage of this act, and every four years thereafter, the governor of the state shall appoint a suitable person to act as commissioner of a bureau of labor statistics. The headquarters of said bureau shall be located in the city and county of San Francisco; said commissioner to serve for four (4) years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

§ 2. The commissioner of the bureau, before entering upon the duties of his office, must execute an official bond in the sum of five thousand (5000) dollars and take oath of office, all as prescribed by the Political Code for state officers in general.

§ 3. The duties of the commissioner shall be to collect, assort, systematize, and present, in biennial reports to the legislature, statistical details, relating to all departments of labor in the state, such as the hours and wages of labor, cost of living, amount of labor required, estimated number of persons depending on daily labor for their support, the probable chances of all being employed, the operation of labor-saving machinery in its relation to hand labor, etc. Said statistics may be classified as follows:

First—In agriculture.

Second—In mechanical and manufacturing industries.

Third—In mining.

Fourth—In transportation on land and water.

Fifth—In clerical and all other skilled and unskilled labor not above enumerated.

Sixth—The amount of cash capital invested in lands, buildings, machinery, material, and means of production and distribution generally.

Seventh—The number, age, sex, and condition of persons employed; the nature of their employment; the extent to which the apprenticeship system prevails in the various skilled industries; the number of hours of labor per day; the average length of time employed per annum, and the net wages received in each of the industries and employments enumerated.

Eighth—The number and condition of the unemployed, their age, sex, and nationality, together with the causes of their idleness.

Ninth—The sanitary condition of lands, workshops, dwellings, the number and size of rooms occupied by the poor, etc.; the cost of rent, fuel, food, clothing, and water in each locality of the state; also the extent to which labor-saving processes are employed to the displacement of hand labor.

Tenth—The number and condition of the Chinese in the state; their social and sanitary habits; number of married, and of single; the number employed, and the nature of their employment; the average wages per day at each employment; and the gross amount yearly; the amounts expended by them in rent, food, and clothing, and in what proportion such amounts are expended for foreign and home productions, respectively; to what extent their employment comes in competition with the white industrial classes of the state.

Eleventh—The number, condition, and nature of the employment of the inmates of the state prison[s], county jails, and reformatory institutions, and to what extent their employment comes in competition with the labor of mechanics, artisans, and laborers outside of these institutions.

Twelfth—All such other information in relation to labor as the commissioner may deem essential to further the object sought to be obtained by this statute, together with such strictures on the condition of labor and the probable future of the same as he may deem good and salutary to insert in his biennial reports.

§ 4. It shall be the duty of all officers of state departments, and the assessors of the various counties of the state, to furnish, upon the written request of the commissioner, all the information in their power necessary to assist in carrying out the objects of this act; and all printing required by the bureau in the discharge of its duty shall be performed by the state printing department, and at least three thousand (3000) copies of the printed report shall be furnished the commissioner for free distribution to the public.

§ 5. Any person who wilfully impedes or prevents the commissioner or his deputy in the full and free performance of his or their duty, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction of the same shall be fined not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) dollars, or imprisonment not less than seven (7) nor more than thirty (30) days in the county jail, or both.

§ 6. The office of the bureau shall be open for business from nine (9) o'clock a. m. until five (5) o'clock p. m. every day except non-judicial days, and the officers thereof shall give to all persons requesting it all needed information which they may possess.

§ 7. The commissioner shall have power to send for persons and papers whenever in his opinion it is necessary, and he may examine witnesses under oath, being hereby qualified to administer the same in the performance of his duty, and the testimony so taken must be filed and preserved in the office of said commissioner; he shall have free access to all places and works of labor, and any principal, owner, operator, manager, or lessee of any mine, factory, workshop, warehouse, manufacturing or mercantile establishment, or any agent or employee of such principal, owner, operator, manager, or lessee who shall refuse to said commissioner, or his duly authorized representative, admission therein, or who shall, when requested by him, wilfully neglect or refuse to furnish to him any statistics or information pertaining to his lawful duties, which may be in the possession or under the control of said principal, owner, operator, lessee, manager, or agent thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 6.]

§ 8. No use shall be made in the reports of the bureau of the names of individuals, firms, or corporations supplying the information called for by this act, such information being deemed confidential, and not for the purpose of disclosing any person's affairs; and any agent or employee of said bureau violating this provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed six months. [New section added, Stats. 1889, 6.]

§ 9. The commissioner shall appoint a deputy, who shall have the same powers as the said commissioner, and such agents or assistants, not exceeding three, as he may from time to time require, at such a rate of wages as he may prescribe, but said rate must not exceed four dollars per day and actual traveling expenses for each person while employed; he shall procure rooms necessary for offices, at a rent not to exceed fifty dollars per month. [Section 8 of said law changed to section 9 and amended, Stats. 1889, 6.]

§ 10. The salary of the commissioner shall be three thousand dollars per annum, and the salary of the deputy commissioner shall be eighteen hundred dollars per annum, to be audited by the controller and paid by the state treasurer, in the same manner as other state officers; there shall also be allowed a sum not to exceed forty-five hundred dollars per annum for the salary of agents or assistants, for traveling expenses, and for other contingent expenses of the bureau. [Section 9 of said law changed to section 10 and amended, Stats. 1889, 6. Section 10 was repealed, Stats. 1899, 6.]

§ 12. Whenever complaint is made to the commissioner that the scaffolding or the slings, hangers, blocks, pulleys, stays, braces, ladders, irons, or ropes of any swinging or stationary scaffolding used in the construction, alteration, repairing, painting, cleaning or painting of building are unsafe or liable to prove dangerous to the life or limb of any person, such commissioner shall immediately cause an inspection to be made of such scaffolding or the slings, hangers, blocks, pulleys, stays, braces, ladders, iron, or other parts connected therewith. If after examination such scaffolding or any of such parts is found to be dangerous to life or limb, the commissioner shall prohibit the use thereof, and require the same to be altered and reconstructed so as to avoid such danger. The commissioner, deputy commissioner, or agent or assistant making the examination shall attach a certificate to the scaffolding or the slings, hangers, irons, ropes or other parts thereof, examined by him, stating that he has made such examination and that he found it safe or unsafe as the case may be. If he declares it unsafe, he shall at once in writing notify the person responsible for its erection of the fact and warn him against the use thereof. Such notice may be served personally upon the person responsible for its erection or by conspicuously affixing it to the scaffolding or the part thereof declared to be unsafe. After such notice has been so served or affixed the person responsible therefor shall immediately remove such scaffolding or part thereof and alter or strengthen it in such manner as to render it safe, in the discretion of the officer who has examined it or of his superiors. The commissioner, his deputy and any duly authorized representative whose duty it is to examine or test any scaffolding or part thereof as required by this section, shall have free access, at all reasonable hours, to any building or premises containing them or where they may be in use. All swinging and stationary scaffolding shall be so constructed as to bear four times the maximum weight required to be dependent therefrom and placed thereon, when in use, and not more than four men shall be allowed on any swinging scaffolding at one time. [New section added, Stats. 1901, 12.]

LABOR STATISTICS—REPORTS.

Directing the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics to collect certain statistics, and present them in biennial reports, and making it the duty of certain officers to furnish such statistics in compliance with the provisions of this act.

(Stats. 1905, 109, ch. CXIII.)

§ 1. The commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics is hereby directed, in addition to his other duties, to collect and present in his biennial report to the legislature, statistics relating to marriage, divorce, and crime.

§ 2. It is hereby declared to be the duty of all officers of each respective county, city, or city and county, in addition to their other duties, whose duty it is to keep a record of marriage, divorce, or crime, and they must furnish to the commissioner of the bureau of labor statistics, upon his request, whatever data it may be necessary for said commissioner to acquire in complying with the provisions of section one of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately upon its passage and approval.

LAKE TAHOE WAGON ROAD.

To create the office of Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner, providing the term of office and compensation of such commissioner, defining his duties, and making an appropriation for the salary and expenditures provided for, and authorized by this act.

(Stats. 1897, 388, ch. CCXLV; amended 1899, 236, ch. CCLIII.)

§ 1. The office of Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner is hereby created. Such commissioner shall be appointed by the governor of this state, and his term of office shall be four years from and after the date of his appointment, and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

§ 2. Said commissioner shall take the same oath of office as is provided by law for other state officers, and, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall give bond to the state, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the governor, in the sum of five thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of his duties as such officer.

§ 3. Said commissioner shall receive from the state a salary of fifty dollars per month, payable monthly, which salary shall be paid out of the state treasury upon warrants drawn by the controller in the same manner as the salaries of other state officers are paid. He shall also receive his necessary traveling expenses while engaged in the performance of his official duties, such traveling expenses to be allowed by the state board of examiners.

§ 4. Said commissioner shall have the care, control, management, and supervision of that certain wagon road belonging to the state of California, known as the "Lake Tahoe wagon road," situated in the county of El Dorado, in said state, and commencing at the junction of said road with the Placerville and Newtown road, a short distance easterly from the village of Smith's Flat, in said county, and running thence to a point on the east boundary line of this state at or near Lake Tahoe. It shall be his duty to keep said road, and the bridges and culverts thereon, in good repair and condition, and he shall keep said road free from obstructions and open for travel at all times, except when prevented by snow or severity of climate. He shall repair or rebuild said road, bridges, and culverts whenever and wherever necessary, and shall construct new bridges and culverts when necessary or proper, and may alter or change said road when necessary or proper to improve the same, and may and shall do all things necessary or proper to care for, manage, maintain, improve, and protect said road, together with its bridges and culverts, and to otherwise perform his duties as such commissioner; and in so doing he is authorized to employ all necessary assistance and procure all necessary materials, implements and appliances; provided, that before any of the moneys herein appropriated are expended on said Lake Tahoe state wagon road, it shall be the duty of the highway commissioner (provided for in an act entitled "An act to create a department of highways for the state of California, to define its duties and powers, to provide for the appointment of officers and employees thereof, and to provide for the compensation of said officers and employees, and for the additional expenses of said department, and to make an appropriation therefor for the remainder of the forty-eighth fiscal year," approved April first, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven) to make or cause to be made all necessary surveys, plans, and specifications for contemplated contract work in connection with said Lake Tahoe wagon road, and upon their completion the Lake Tahoe wagon road commissioner shall be empowered to advertise for bids for said work as covered by said surveys, plans, and specifications, and to let the contract or contracts for the same to the lowest responsible bidder; provided, that before any payments are made for said work it shall have been first inspected by the highway commissioner (of the department of highways) and by him certified to the state board of examiners, as fulfilling all the conditions of the contract and plans and specifications covering said work; and all claims for said work shall be further audited and approved by the state board of examiners, and such having been done, the controller shall draw his warrants, from time to time, as may be necessary, in favor of the person, or persons, to whom said money is due, and the treasurer shall pay the same; provided, furthermore, that the expenditure of all money for the making of plans, specifications, or surveys, and the employment of all engineers or draftsmen therefor, and the purchase of all apparatus or supplies therefor, shall be within the jurisdiction of the highway commissioner (of the department of highways), and he shall have the power to employ all such engineers and draftsmen, and to purchase all engineering apparatus and supplies necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this act; but all claims for such service or material furnished shall be before payment audited and approved by the state board of examiners, and such having been done the controller shall draw his warrants for the same, and the treasurer shall pay said warrants. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 236. Amendatory act of 1899, 236, also contained the two following appropriations in § 2: "There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars to carry out the provisions of said act for the remainder of the fiftieth fiscal year and for the fifty-first and fifty-second fiscal years. Of said sum of twenty-five thousand dollars the sum of five thousand dollars is made available immediately for paying the salary, traveling, and other expenses incurred by said Lake Tahoe state wagon road commissioner, and to pay for making of surveys, plans, and specifications by the state highway commissioner as herein provided, and for other expenses incident thereto. The sum of twenty thousand dollars is hereby set apart and made available from and after January first, A. D. nineteen hundred, for repairing and improving said road and structures thereon and the building of any necessary new road structures thereon." § 3 repealed conflicting acts; § 4 fixed time when original act went into effect.]

§ 5. All expenditures authorized by the provisions of this act, except the salary of said commissioner, shall be subject to the approval of the state board of examiners. The state controller shall draw his warrants for all expenditures so approved by said board, and the state treasurer shall pay the same.

§ 6. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars, for the purpose of paying the salary of said commissioner, and the other expenses and expenditures authorized or directed by the provisions of this act for the remainder of the forty-eighth fiscal year and for the forty-ninth and fiftieth fiscal years.

§ 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

As to the acquisition of the Lake Tahoe wagon road by the state, see Stats. 1895, 119, ch. CXXVIII.

LAKES—LOWERING LEVELS OF.

Authorizing the United States government to lower the water levels of any or all of the following lakes: Lower or Little Klamath Lake, Tule or Rhett Lake, Goose Lake, and Clear Lake, situated in Siskiyou and Modoc counties, and to use any part or all of the beds of said lakes for the storage of water in connection with the irrigation and reclamation operations conducted by the reclamation service of the United States; also ceding to the United States all right, title, interest or claim of the state of California to any lands uncovered by the lowering of the water levels of any or all of said lakes not already disposed of by the state.

(Stats. 1905, 4, ch. VI.)

§ 1. That for the purpose of aiding in the operations of irrigation and reclamation conducted by the reclamation service of the United States, established by the act of Congress approved June seventeenth, nineteen hundred and two (32 Stats. 388), known as the Reclamation Act, the United States is hereby authorized to lower the water levels of any or all of the following lakes: Lower or Little Klamath Lake, Tule or Rhett Lake, Goose Lake, and Clear Lake, situated in Siskiyou and Modoc counties, as shown by the map of the United States Geological Survey, and to use any part or all of the beds of said lakes for the storage of water in connection with such operations.

§ 2. And there is hereby ceded to the United States all the right, title, interest, or claim of this state to any lands uncovered by the lowering of the water levels, of any or all of said lakes, not already disposed of by this state; and the lands hereby ceded may be disposed of by the United States free of any claim on the part of this state, in any manner that may be deemed advisable by the authorized agencies of the United States, in pursuance of the provisions of said reclamation act; provided, that this act shall not be in effect as to the lakes herein named which lie partly in the state of Oregon, until a similar cession has been made by that state.

LAND CLAIMS—SPANISH.

To provide for the preservation of the Spanish archives, title papers of land claims, and records relating thereto, in the custody of the United States surveyor-general for California.

(Stats. 1865-6, 312, ch. CCLXXXI.)

§ 1. It is hereby made the duty of the secretary of state of California, by and with the consent of the surveyor-general of the United States for California, to cause all the original Spanish title papers relating to land claims in this state, derived from the Spanish or Mexican governments, and now on file in the archives in the custody of the said surveyor-general, to be perpetuated and authenticated in the manner hereinafter provided.

§ 2. All original grants and documents in the Spanish language, relating to the title of lands in this state, with accurate translations thereof, shall be carefully engrossed in suitable books, to be provided for that purpose.

§ 3. There shall be carefully prepared a duplicate copy of said records and translations for each county in the state of all titles to land claims within the limits of said county, which copy shall be placed in the custody of the county recorder thereof, and be and become a part of the public records of such county.

§ 4. The execution of the work called for in section two of this act shall be under the supervision of Rufus C. Hopkins, keeper of archives in the office of said surveyor-general.

§ 5. These records shall in each case be authenticated by the said surveyor-general, under his seal of office, and the said translations by the said keeper of archives, under his oath, and thereafter be made receivable as prima facie evidence in all the courts in this state, with like force and effect as the originals, and without proving the execution of such originals.

§ 6. The sum of eight thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated for the purpose of paying the expenses of engrossing and translating the said Spanish records and translations provided for in this act, and the controller of state is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants for portions of said sum from time to time, as they shall become due, upon the certificate of said keeper of archives, approved by the secretary of state, and the treasurer of state is hereby authorized and directed to pay the same out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated; provided, that the cost of engrossing shall not exceed, per folio, the charges authorized to be made by the recorder of the county of San Francisco for a like class of work, and the cost of translation shall not exceed that now allowed for translating the state laws into Spanish.

See tits. Landmarks; Mineral Lands, post.

LANDS OF STATE—CEDING TO UNITED STATES.

Granting certain lands to the United States.

(Stats. 1862, 552, ch. CCCCXXXII.)

§ 1. All lands belonging to this state, and situated within any Indian reservation belonging to the United States, in this state, are hereby granted to the United States, for the use of said reservation; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect in any manner the rights of parties who have taken up or purchased any such lands belonging to the state, whether patents have issued therefor or not.

See next two following statutes.

LANDS OF STATE—CEDING TO UNITED STATES.

Ceding to the United States of America jurisdiction over lands in this state ceded to the United States.

(Stats. 1891, 262, ch. CLXXXI.)

§ 1. The state of California hereby cedes to the United States of America exclusive jurisdiction over such piece or parcel of land as may have been or may be hereafter ceded or conveyed to the United States, during the time the United States shall be or remain the owner thereof, for all purposes except the administration of the criminal laws of this state and the service of civil process therein.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

LANDS OF STATE—CEDING TO UNITED STATES.

Ceding to the United States of America jurisdiction over all lands within this state which have been or may hereafter be acquired by the United States for military purposes.

(Stats. 1897, 51, ch. LVI.)

§ 1. The state of California hereby cedes to the United States of America exclusive jurisdiction over all lands within this state now held, occupied, or reserved by the government of the United States for military purposes or defense, or which may hereafter be ceded or conveyed to said United States for such purposes; provided, that a sufficient description by metes and bounds, and a map or plat of such lands be filed in the proper office of record in the county in which the same are situated; and provided further, that this state reserves the right to serve and execute on said lands all civil process, not incompatible with this cession, and such criminal process as may lawfully issue under the authority of this state against any person or persons charged with crimes committed without said lands.

LANDS OF STATE—CERTIFICATES.

Respecting the payment in full by holders of certificates of purchase for lands sold by the state of California prior to March twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, and for which the said state has at any time heretofore issued certificates of purchase to subsequent purchasers.

§ 1. Whenever application has been made to purchase land from this state, and payment only in part has been made to the treasurer of the proper county for the same, and a certificate of purchase has been issued to the applicant prior to the twenty-seventh day of March, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, and whenever such applicant, his assignee or assignees, shall have failed for five years to pay to the state the arrears of principal or of interest due to the state for said land, and the state shall at any time heretofore have issued a certificate of purchase for the same land, or any part thereof, to a subsequent purchaser, then, unless the holder or holders of such prior certificate shall pay the entire residue of the interest remaining unpaid for such purchase within six months from and after the passage of this act, such holder or holders shall be deemed to have lost all right to the land described in said certificate, or to complete the purchase of such land, and all moneys heretofore paid to the state of California on such purchase shall be deemed and taken to be forfeited to the state. Nothing herein contained, however, shall be deemed or taken to give to or confer upon the holder or holders of such prior certificates, or any of them, as against the state of California, or any subsequent purchasers therefrom, or against the holders of subsequent certificates of purchase, any other or greater right to the lands herein referred to than is now held by the holder or holders of such prior certificates, or to confer upon such holder or holders any new right, or to affect or impair the rights of such subsequent purchasers or their assigns.

§ 2. The mere fact of previous part payment shall not of itself confer on such prior purchaser or his assigns any right to complete the purchase, if he or they be not otherwise entitled so to do, as against the state, and a subsequent purchaser or his assigns; provided, that this act shall not apply to any action now pending commenced within five years.

§ 3. This act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

As to the Act of 1872, 587, ch. CCCCXVIII, amended 1877-8, 914, ch. DLXXII, and other acts validating certificates, see Klauber vs. Higgins, 117 Cal. 451-465, 49 Pac. Rep. 466.

LANDS OF STATE—COMMISSIONERS.

To abolish the state board of tide-land commissioners, and to repeal sections three hundred and sixty-five and six hundred and ninety-eight of the Political Code.

(Stats. 1875-6, amendments, ch. XLIX, Code Amdts. (Pol. Code pt.), 15.)

§ 1. The state board of tide-land commissioners is hereby abolished.

§ 2. All books, maps, papers, and documents belonging to the archives of said board, and all other property of the state under its custody or control, must be deposited with and kept and preserved by the surveyor-general of the state.

§ 3. Sections three hundred and sixty-five and six hundred and ninety-eight of the Political Code are hereby repealed.

§ 4. An act entitled "An act supplementary to and amendatory of an act supplementary to and amendatory of an act entitled an act to survey and dispose of certain salt-marsh and tide lands belonging to the state of California, approved March thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, also an act approved April first, eighteen hundred and seventy," approved March thirtieth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, is hereby repealed.

Board of Tide-Land Commissioners.—For the purpose of surveying certain salt-marsh and tide lands of the state a board of tide-land commissioners was created by Stats. 1867-8, 716, ch. DXLIII, amended 1869-70, 541, ch. CCCLXXXVIII; and 1873-4, 858, ch. DCXI.

This is understood to be the legislation repealed by the foregoing statute.

Section 3488 of the Political Code, as originally adopted, contained the following concluding clause: "The lands mentioned and described in an act to survey and dispose of certain salt-marsh and tide lands belonging to the state of California, approved March thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, and in the act supplementary and amendatory thereto, approved April first, eighteen hundred and seventy, must be disposed of as in such acts provided, which are hereby continued in force."

That section has been amended in 1889, 1891, and 1901; and the foregoing clause has been continued in the section.

Also see note tit. Swamp-Land District Funds, post.

By Stats. 1875-6, 798, ch. DXXVII, a state commission to examine into the sale and disposal of state lands was provided, to exist for one year. A full report to the legislature was required. The commission was appointed.—Ball vs. Kenfield, 55 Cal. 320.

LANDS OF STATE—EXAMINATION.

To provide for an examination into the sale and disposal of state lands.

(Stats. 1875-6, 798, ch. DXXVII.)

The full purposes of the act have been accomplished; the existence of the commission was limited to one year.

LANDS—FORFEIT TO STATE.

Forfeiting to the state of California all payments for state lands where a fraudulent title was sought to be obtained thereto.

(Stats. 1905, 338, ch. CCCXXXII.)

§ 1. Whenever it shall appear by final decree of any court of competent jurisdiction that title to any lands subject to sale by the state of California was obtained, or sought to be obtained, by fraudulent means, or in any manner contrary to the laws of this state relating to the acquisition of its public domain, all payments made in the interest of said fraudulent title shall revert to the state of California without suit, and it shall thereupon become the duty of the state surveyor-general and ex officio register of the state land office to cancel all evidence of title to any land embraced in such fraudulent or invalid location, and to restore said land to public entry.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

LANDS—GOVERNMENT CORNERS.

To further perpetuate the markings of the government survey.

(Stats. 1905, 102, ch. CVIII.)

§ 1. When in the performance of his official duties any county surveyor shall find a government corner which has been marked by any government surveyor by placing charcoal in the ground, or by a wooden stake, earth mound, or other perishable monument, it shall be his duty to re-mark said corner by placing therein a monument of heavily galvanized iron pipe or galvanized iron stake not less than two inches in diameter and not less than two feet long, or other monument not less in size and equally imperishable.

§ 2. All such monuments located in public highways shall be placed with the top not less than twelve inches below the surface of the ground, but when not located in public highways they shall be placed with the top six inches above the surface of the ground. If the top of the monument is placed above the ground, it shall be not less than four feet long, if of metal.

§ 3. The surveyor shall note witness objects that are within a reasonable distance of any corner, and state distance and course from said corner, and record the same in a properly indexed record book kept in the county surveyor's office, which shall be a public record.

§ 4. All boards of supervisors are required to furnish all necessary pipes or stakes for monuments for their respective counties without cost, on demand.

LANDS OF STATE—LEGALIZING APPLICATIONS.

To legalize applications heretofore made for the purchase of lands belonging to this state, and to confirm the title of the purchasers under such application.

(Stats. 1871-2, 622, ch. CCCCXXV.)

§ 1. All applications heretofore made for the purchase of lands belonging to this state under the provisions of any act authorizing the sale of state lands, shall be good and valid, although the land described in such application and affidavit may be styled salt-marsh and tide land, when in fact it is swamp and overflowed land; or may be styled swamp and overflowed land, when in fact it is salt-marsh and tide land; or may be styled swamp and overflowed and salt-marsh and tide land, when in fact it may be either. And the application first made shall have the preference by whatever style it may describe the land; provided, the same shall be in all other respects substantially conformable to law.

§ 2. In all cases where patents have been or may hereafter be issued upon any such application or affidavits as described in section one of this act for any such land, the same shall be deemed and held to convey the legal title to the land in such patent or patents described to the purchaser therein mentioned, by whatever style such land may be designated in such patent; and the state of California does hereby grant to the purchasers named in such patents, or their assigns or grantees, in case the title has been transferred, all its right, title, and interest in and to the lands in such patents described.

§ 3. The provisions of this act shall not be construed to recognize, confirm, or validate any title to any lands lying within five miles of the city and county of San Francisco or of the city of Oakland, or within one and a half miles of the state prison at San Quentin.

Johnson vs. Squires, 55 Cal. 103, 104; Klauber vs. Higgins, 117 Cal. 451, 463, 49 Pac. Rep. 466.

LANDS—STATE.

For the relief of purchasers of state lands.

(Stats. 1871-2, 587, ch. CCCCXVIII; amended 1877-8, 914, ch. DLXXII.)

§ 1. When application has been made to purchase lands from this state, and payment made to the treasurer of any county of this state, in whole or in part, and a certificate of purchase, or a patent, has been issued to the applicant, the title of the state to said lands is hereby vested in said applicant, or his assigns, upon his making full payment therefor; provided, that no other application has been made for the purchase of the same lands prior to the issuance of said certificate of purchase; provided further, that this act shall not apply to school lands, except to the amount of three hundred and twenty acres to any one purchaser, nor shall it be construed to remedy any defect in any application, or the issuing of any certificate other than that of payment in the wrong county, nor otherwise to conflict with or limit the provision of the act hereby amended. [Amendment, 1877-8, 914.]

§ 2. When part payment only has been made for lands sold by this state and certificates of purchase issued for the same, and said lands have been subsequently sold under execution and a sheriff's deed issued therefor, the register of the state land office is hereby directed to issue to the grantee named in said deed or to his assigns a patent for said lands, upon his producing and surrendering said sheriff's deed and assignment, if any there be, and making full payment to the state for said lands.

§ 3. Whenever the state has issued a certificate of purchase for any land sold as swamp and overflowed, and the United States has sold and issued a patent for the same land, and the title of the United States is held and owned by the purchaser from the state or his assigns, or where the land so purchased from the state shall prove not to have been its property, the amount paid to the state for such land shall be refunded to such purchaser or his assigns, and the board of supervisors of the county in which the land is situated shall draw a warrant on the treasurer of the county for such amount, and the said treasurer shall pay the same out of moneys in the swamp-land fund of the county credited to such purchaser.

§ 4. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any lands within the county of San Diego, or within five miles of the city and county of San Francisco, or within five miles of the city of Oakland, or within one and a half miles of the state prison at San Quentin.

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

LANDS—POSSESSORY ACTIONS.

Prescribing the mode of maintaining and defending possessory actions on public lands in this state.

(Stats. 1852, 158; Stats. Compiled Laws 1850-53, 896, ch. CLXXXII; amended 1859, 94, ch. XCIX, and 1861, 143, ch. CXLV.)

§ 1. Any person now occupying and settled upon, or who may hereafter occupy or settle upon any of the public lands in this state, for the purpose of cultivating or grazing the same, may commence and maintain any action for interference with, or injuries done to his or her possession of said land, against any person or persons so interfering with, or injuring such land or possession; provided, that if the lands so occupied and possessed, contain mines of any of the precious metals, the possession or claim of the person or persons occupying the same for the purposes aforesaid, shall not preclude the working of such mines by any person or persons desiring so to do as fully and unreservedly as they might or could do had no possession or claim been made for grazing or agricultural purposes.

§ 2. Every such claim, to entitle the holder to maintain any action as aforesaid, shall not contain more than one hundred and sixty acres, and the same shall be marked by metes and bounds, so that the boundaries may be readily traced, and the extent of such claim easily known, and no person shall be entitled to maintain any such action for possession of or injury to any claim, unless he or she occupy the same, and shall have complied with the provisions of the third and fourth sections of this act.

§ 3. Any person being a citizen of the United States, claiming any of the public lands in this state, shall file in the office of the recorder of the county in which such lands are situated, his affidavit, setting forth,

First—That his or her lines do not embrace more than one hundred and sixty acres of land.

Second—That he or she holds no other claim under this act, and to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, that the said lands are not claimed under any existing title.

Upon the filing of this affidavit, the recorder shall proceed to record said claim, in a book to be kept in his office for that purpose. [Amendment, Stats. 1859, 94.]

§ 4. Within ninety days after the date of said record, the party recording is hereby required to improve the land thus recorded to the value of two hundred dollars, by putting such improvements thereon as shall partake of the realty, unless such improvements shall have been made prior to the application to record, according to section third, and unless the lands are in litigation under some pretended Mexican, or Spanish, grant, in which last-mentioned case, if the party can so describe the land claimed by him as to give the quarter section, or fractional section, township, and range, in accordance with the government lines, then he shall have ninety days after the rejection of said grant to make the required improvements. [Amendment, Stats. 1861, 143.]

§ 5. At any time after the provisions of the second, third, and fourth sections of this act shall have been complied with, the party so complying shall be permitted to absent himself or herself from such claim without being required to occupy the same for a period of not more than twelve months: provided, the person so wishing to absent himself or herself, shall first pay to the treasurer of the county in which said claim shall be situated, the sum of fifteen dollars, upon which payment the treasurer shall issue a receipt for the same: at any time within twelve months after the date thereof, such receipt shall be received as prima facie evidence of possession, in any court having jurisdiction in such cases, for the recovery of the possessory right to, or injury done to such claim. Any person absenting himself from said claim for a longer period than sixty days, without first paying the sum as provided in this section, shall forever forfeit his claim to the lands. One half of the amount paid to any county treasurer under the provisions of this section, shall be paid by said treasurer into the general fund of said county, and the balance in the state treasury, whenever making his regular settlements with the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall set apart and retain all moneys received from such source, as a special fund, which may hereafter be appropriated by law, for the maintenance and protection of the insane.

§ 6. On the trial of any such causes, the possession or possessory right of the plaintiff shall be considered as extending to the boundaries embraced by the claim of such plaintiff, so as to enable him or her, according to section third, to have and maintain any action as aforesaid, without being compelled to prove an actual inclosure.

§ 7. All the right and benefits given to settlers on public lands by this act, shall extend to and be enjoyed by all persons who shall acquire any rights of possession, or title, by the provision of any act which has been, or may hereafter be passed, to secure a pre-emption right to the overflowed and swamp or school lands of this state.

§ 8. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any lands on which red-wood timber grows, south of thirty-eight degrees and thirty minutes. "An act describing the mode of maintaining and defending possessory actions on land belonging to the United States," passed April eleventh, one thousand eight hundred and fifty, is hereby repealed.

Not repealed by code.—That the foregoing statute was not repealed by the codes, see Gray vs. Dixon, 74 Cal. 508, 16 Pac. Rep. 305; Taylor vs. Abbott, 103 Cal. 421, 37 Pac. Rep. 403.

LANDS—PUBLIC.

For the protection of pre-emption and homestead claimants.

(Stats. 1873-4, 543, ch. CCCLXXXI.)

§ 1. Every qualified pre-emption claimant under the pre-emption laws of the United States, residing on public lands of the United States within this state, who shall have filed his declaratory statement in accordance with said pre-emption laws, shall, from the time of such filing, be deemed to have title to and to be in possession of all the land described in such declaratory statement, as against trespassers and all persons having no superior right or title to the same, as long as he shall continue to reside thereon, and to comply in good faith with said pre-emption laws.

§ 2. Every qualified homestead claimant under the homestead laws of the United States, residing on public land of the United States within this state, who shall have made his original homestead entry in accordance with said laws, shall, from the date of such entry, be deemed to have title to and to be in possession of all the land described in such entry, as against trespassers and all persons having no superior right or title to the same, as long as he shall continue to reside thereon, and to comply in good faith with said homestead laws.

§ 3. Nothing in this act shall be construed to either restrict or enlarge the right of bona fide miners to mine for precious metals on the public domain, or to change any general or special laws of this state concerning the grazing of animals on lands not fenced.

§ 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

LANDS, PUBLIC—SETTLERS.

For the better protection of settlers on public lands in this state, and to secure the rights of parties in certain cases.

§ 1. Any party heretofore ousted, or who may be hereafter ousted, from the possession of any land, in an action at law, by any party claiming title thereto under any foreign grant, which grant shall be finally rejected, or shall be finally located, so as not to include such land, shall, and may, have his action in the proper court, against the party in whose favor the writ of restitution issued, and against the party in possession, to recover back the possession of any such land, with the rents, and profits thereof, from the time he was so ousted, till he shall be restored to the possession of the same, together with all costs and damages he may have sustained by reason of said action of ejectment, as provided in section two of this act.

§ 2. In any such action, if it shall appear that the plaintiff had been ousted by writ of restitution from such land in a former suit, wherein he had been defendant, that the party who sued out such writ claimed his title through a foreign grant, and that such grant had been finally rejected, or located so as not to include such land, such facts shall entitle the plaintiff to judgment in his favor, and a writ of restitution against the party in possession, with a several judgment, for all costs and damages sustained by such action of ejectment, against the party by whom he was originally ousted, and for all rents, and profits, against each of the defendants, for the time each had been in possession of such premises, after the service of the writ of restitution, and such party plaintiff shall not be stopped in his suit by reason of the former judgment against him.

A former act (Stats. 1856, 54, ch. XLVII) was held unconstitutional in several decisions.—See Anderson vs. Fisk, 36 Cal. 632, 633, and cases there cited.

The act here inserted, however, is limited to a specific subject, and does not fall within the objections made to the act of 1856. And see other acts herein for protection of settlers.—Stats. 1873-4, 327; 1873-4, 543; 1887, 147, and next following statute.

LANDS, PUBLIC—SETTLERS.

For the better protection of settlers on the public lands of the United States, within the state of California, and for the protection and encouragement of persons desirous of settling thereon.

(Stats. 1887, 147, ch. CXXVIII.)

The above-entitled statute has been carried into the Penal Code by Stats. 1905, 675.—See KERR'S CYC. PEN. CODE § 420.

Forceful Entry and Detainer.—Statutes upon this subject were superseded by the Code of Civil Procedure.—Hemstreet vs. Wassum, 49 Cal. 9.

LANDS OF STATE—SWAMP.

For the protection of settlers on public lands claimed by the state.

(Stats. 1873-4, 327, ch. CCXXII.)

§ 1. From and after the passage of this act, no claim shall be made by the state to any land as swamp or overflowed, nor shall the same be segregated by authority of the state, for which pre-emption or homestead patents have been issued by the United States, or upon which there are settlers, occupying the land in good faith, who have filed their pre-emption or homestead declaratory statement; nor shall the register of the state land office receive any application for swamp or overflowed land, unless the application be accompanied by a certificate from the register of the United States land office for the district in which the land is situated, that there is no pre-emption or homestead filing upon the land sought to be purchased.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

LANDS OF STATE—SWAMP.

To provide for the proper distribution, in the several county treasuries, of funds arising from the sale of swamp-lands.

§ 1. Whenever hereafter a swamp-land district shall be organized, and in all cases where districts have heretofore been organized, the board of supervisors of each county in which any portion of the lands of such district are located, shall, upon the application of any party interested, direct the auditor and treasurer to set apart from the swamp-land fund, in the county treasury, all the money which has been or shall hereafter be received in payment of principal and interest on such lands, as a fund to the credit of such district, except such money as may have previously been expended from the swamp-land fund for the benefit of land within the district.

§ 2. The money in the district fund, created by section one of this act, shall be paid out only for the purpose of reclaiming said land, or to the owners of such land after reclamation, as now provided by law; and in all cases where moneys paid in upon such lands have been diverted to the use and benefit of other lands, they shall be replaced out of the first receipt from the land so benefited. In all cases where any expense has been paid from the county swamp-land fund for attorney's fees in the examination of the character of any land, in any reclamation district, or when any expense has been paid from the county swamp-land fund pertaining to the land in said district, the county treasurer shall deduct said amount from the amount otherwise found due to the land for which said expense was paid, and only return to the owner of the land so much of the money paid into the treasury on said land as shall remain after deducting the said amount paid for expense pertaining to said land.

§ 3. This act shall not apply to districts upon which controller's warrants are outstanding, until after all of such warrants are paid.

LANDS—SWAMP AND OVERFLOWED.

To determine that lands in this state are swamp and overflowed when returned as such by the United States surveyor-general:

(Stats. 1891, 221, ch. CLVII.)

§ 1. Lands within this state which have been or may hereafter be returned by the United States surveyor-general as swamp and overflowed lands, and shown as such on approved township plats, shall, as soon as patents have been or may be issued therefor by this state, be held to be of the character so returned; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the rights of any homestead or pre-emption settler claiming under the laws of the United States, nor shall it affect any suit now pending in any court as between the parties thereto; provided, that nothing contained in this act shall be construed to prejudice the rights of any settler now or hereafter located upon said lands to perfect title to the same, if permitted under existing laws.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

As to swamp-land and reclamation districts, see post tit. Levee Districts and note.

LANDS—SWAMP-LAND DISTRICT FUNDS.

Providing for the payment of all moneys in the state treasury to the credit of swamp-land district funds, to the treasuries of the counties wherein the said swamp-land districts are situated, and to provide for the control of the same by the auditor and treasurer of said counties; and prescribing the duties of the controller and treasurer in relation thereto.

(Stats. 1891, 243, ch. CLXIX.)

§ 1. Within three months after the passage of this act, the controller shall draw his warrant on the treasurer for the amount to the credit of each swamp-land district fund, as shown by his books, in favor of the county treasurer of the county wherein said swamp-land district is situated, and the state treasurer shall pay the same. And any moneys which may hereafter be due or payable from any of said swamp-land districts to the state treasury shall be paid into the treasury of the proper county, to the credit of the proper swamp-land district fund.

§ 2. Immediately after drawing his warrant in favor of the respective county treasurers, the controller shall notify the proper county auditor of the same, stating the amount of the order, and the auditor shall charge the same to the treasurer, and the money shall be subject, under those officers, to demands such as are now by law made upon the controller, and shall be paid by the county treasurer in like manner as the same are now paid by the state treasurer.

§ 3. In all cases wherein a swamp-land district comprises territory made up of portions of two or more counties, the controller may draw his warrant in favor of any one of said county treasurers, and the auditor of that county shall apportion said money to the several counties containing any of the lands of said swamp-land district, proportionate to the acreage of each county in said district, and shall notify the auditor and treasurer of the several counties interested, draw his warrant for the amount due each county, and the treasurer shall pay the same. And the auditor and treasurer of the proper counties shall credit said moneys and dispose of them, [the same] as are now provided for moneys paid from the state treasury.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

Swamp-lands.—There are numerous statutes in relation to swamp-lands and salt-marsh and tide lands of a local, though important, character. They are too numerous to permit of being embodied in this work.

The general subject is now embraced in the Political Code. See KERR'S CYC. POL. CODE, "Public Lands."

LANDS OF STATE—SCHOOL WARRANTS.

Providing for the presentation and cancelation of unlocated school-land warrants of the state of California, issued under the act of the state of California, approved May third, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, providing for the disposal of the five hundred thousand acres of land donated to the state of California by the government of the United States, and authorizing the controller of this state to draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the sum of two dollars per acre, in favor of any bona fide owner and holder of any such land warrant, for every acre represented by any such land warrant.

§ 1. It is hereby enacted that each and every bona fide owner and holder of any unlocated school-land warrant or warrants of the state of California, issued under and by virtue of the act of the legislature of the state of California, approved May third, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, providing for the disposal of the five hundred thousand acres of land donated to the state of California by the government of the United States, shall be and is entitled to a warrant upon the state treasurer of this state for the sum of two dollars per acre for every acre of land provided for by any such school-land warrant; and the controller of the state, upon the presentation to him of any such warrant, is hereby authorized to draw his warrant on the state treasurer, payable out of the fund into which the purchase price of such school-land warrant was deposited, in favor of any such owner and holder of any such school-land warrant, for such sum as is herein provided for; provided, that before the receipt of said controller's warrant any such person presenting any such school-land warrant shall surrender to said controller his warrant for cancelation, and shall, at the same time file with the controller his or her written release of all claims and demands against the state of California, from any matter or thing growing out of or in any manner connected with any such land warrant so redeemed.

§ 2. The provisions of section six hundred and seventy-two of the Political Code of this state are hereby declared and made non-applicable to the provisions of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

A similar statute and for the same purpose was enacted 1889, 434, ch. CCLXXXI.

LANDS OF STATE—UNCOVERED LAKES, ETC.

Regulating the sale of the lands uncovered by the recession or drainage of the waters of inland lakes, and unsegregated swamp and overflowed lands, and validating sales and surveys heretofore made.

§ 1. Any person desiring to purchase any of the lands uncovered by the recession or drainage of the waters of inland lakes, and inuring to the state by virtue of her sovereignty, or the swamp and overflowed lands not segregated by the United States, shall make an application therefor to the surveyor-general of the state, which application shall be accompanied by applicant's affidavit that he is a citizen of the United States, or has declared his intention to become such, a resident of this state, of lawful age, that he desires to purchase such lands (describing the same by legal subdivisions, or by metes and bounds if the legal subdivisions are unknown) under the provisions of this act; that he desires to purchase the same for his own use and benefit, and for the use and benefit of no other person or persons whomsoever, and that he has made no contract or agreement to sell the same, and that he does not own any state lands which, together with that now sought to be purchased, exceeds six hundred and forty acres.

§ 2. Upon the filing of said application, when the land has not been sectionized, the surveyor-general shall authorize the county surveyor of the county where the whole or the greater portion of the land lies to survey the same, who shall make an actual survey thereof, at the expense of the applicant, establishing four corners to each quarter section, and connecting the same with a United States survey; and he must, within thirty days, file with the surveyor-general a copy, under oath, of his field-notes and plat, and a statement, under oath, showing whether or not the land is occupied by any actual settler.

§ 3. If the surveyor thus authorized shall fail to make his return to the surveyor-general within the time specified in the preceding section, the surveyor-general may designate another person to make the said survey.

§ 4. No application to purchase land under this act shall be approved by the surveyor-general until the expiration of ninety days from the filing thereof in his office, and meanwhile the land shall be subject to the adverse claim of any actual settler who has resided thereon when the said application was filed.

§ 5. The lands designated in this act shall be sold and patented at the price of two dollars and fifty cents per acre and on the same terms and manner of payment as at present provided for swamp and overflowed lands. All moneys received for said lands shall be paid into the swamp-land fund of the county in which the lands are situated, and shall be treated and disposed of in the same manner as moneys arising from the sale of segregated swamp and overflow lands, and all moneys heretofore received for the sale of such lands, and remaining in the treasury, shall be subject to the same provisions of law. If any of the lands described in this act are suitable for cultivation without reclamation, such lands shall be sold only to actual settlers in tracts not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres. [Amendment, Stats. 1899, 182.]

§ 6. Any of the lands designated in this act which by reason of periodical overflow, need and are susceptible of reclamation may be reclaimed by the formation of districts in the same manner and subject to all of the provisions of law regulating the reclamation of swamp and overflowed lands; provided, that the board of supervisors of the county in which the lands, or the greater part thereof, are situated must first determine, upon proper petition presented therefor, by the holders of the title, or evidence of title, representing one half or more of any body of such land, that such reclamation is necessary and feasible.

§ 8. All uncanceled certificates of purchase and patents heretofore issued and payments heretofore made for any lands as swamp and overflowed lands which lands belong to any of the classes described in section one of this act, whether or not such lands were segregated or sectionized, shall, for all purposes, be valid and shall have the same force and effect as if such lands had been at all times subject to sale as swamp and overflowed lands; provided, however, that any and all contests now existing between settlers and holders of certificates of purchase shall not be affected by the provisions of this act.

§ 9. All plats of any of the lands described in section one of this act which have been heretofore made under authority of the United States surveyor-general, and which plats designate the same as swamp and overflowed lands, shall be deemed valid and effectual as surveys of such lands from and after the date thereof.

LANDS OF STATE.

To provide for the management and sale of the lands belonging to the state.

(Stats. 1867-8, 507, ch. CCCCXV; amended, 1869-70, 14, ch. XV; 1869-70, 814, ch. DXLVI; 1869-70, 875, ch. DLXXIII; 1871-2, 383, ch. CCLXXIX; 1871-2, 668, ch. CCCCLXIX; 1871-2, 685, ch. CCCCLVII; 1871-2, 858, ch. DLXXIX. And see supplementary statute, 1869-70, 878, ch. DLXXV, following this statute; and post tits. Mining; Mineral Lands.)

PART I.—GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

§ 1. For the purpose of managing and selling any lands, the title of which is now or may hereafter be vested in the state by reason of any grant from the United States, or to which the state is or may be entitled by virtue of her sovereignty, an office shall be established at the seat of government, to be designated and known as the state land office of the state of California, the chief officer of which shall be known and designated by the title of register of the state land office, and his duties shall be such as may be prescribed by law.

§ 2. The surveyor-general of the state shall be ex officio register until otherwise provided by law; and the said surveyor-general and register shall have the power to appoint a deputy, who may, when necessary, perform all the duties pertaining to the two offices; but said deputy shall receive no compensation as such [deputy]; provided, that the surveyor-general shall have power to appoint any number of deputies necessary to perform all the field-work required by law, and shall have the right to exact bonds of such deputies.

§ 3. It shall be the duty of the said register to keep separate, distinct and complete account and records in relation to each class of lands to which the state is or may be entitled; which accounts and records shall show the number of the survey or location, the date of the approval, the name of the locator, the description of the lands, by township, range, section, and subdivision of section; the price per acre at which the same are sold, the amount paid, the date of said payment, the number and date of the certificate of purchase, and the date of the patent when the same shall have been issued. He shall also keep the proper plats of the above-named lands, upon which all approved locations and surveys shall be designated by their numbers; and when certificates of purchase or patents shall have been issued, the same shall also be noted on the plats. But so long as the surveyor-general performs the duties of register, but one set of maps shall be required.

§ 4. Whenever the register shall receive from the county treasurer of the proper county a statement showing that any applicant for any state lands has made the first payment of principal and interest, as hereinafter provided, he shall issue to the person or persons entitled thereto a certificate of purchase, which shall show the class of land purchased, the number of acres, the price per acre, the date of payment, the date from which interest shall be computed, the amount paid, and the amount remaining unpaid; which certificate, and all certificates of purchase issued by authority of the board of regents of the University of the State of California, shall be received in any court of justice in this state as prima facie evidence of title. [Amendment, Stats. 1871-2, 685.]

§ 5. Whenever final payment shall have been made for any tract of land sold by authority of the state, the selection of which shall have been duly accepted and approved by the proper United States authorities, or when the tract so finally paid for or reclaimed as hereinafter provided, shall be swamp and overflowed, salt-marsh or tide lands, it shall be the duty of the register of the state land office, upon the surrender of the certificate of purchase by the person or persons entitled to the same, to prepare a patent for said land, and send the same to the governor, together with a certificate under his official seal, certifying that the laws in relation thereto have been fully complied with, that payment in full has been made to the state, and that the party named in the said prepared patent is entitled to the same; the patent shall then be signed by the governor, attested by the secretary of state, sealed with the great seal of the state and countersigned by the register of the state land office; provided, that no patent shall issue until after the expiration of one year from the date of approval of the survey or location by the surveyor-general, and the lands shall have been relinquished to the state by authority of the general land office at Washington; provided, further, that such relinquishment shall not be required for locations of the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections in place, or for swamp and overflowed lands, shown to be such by the official surveys made by authority of the United States surveyor-general. The register of the state land office shall record all patents in books to be kept in his office for that purpose, and shall then forward or deliver the same to the owners of the land or their agents. [Amendment, Stats. 1869-70, 814.]

§ 6. The register of the state land office shall, on or before the first day of May of each year, prepare and forward to the district attorney of each county a statement embracing all the lands in the county upon which payments have not been made according to law. Said statement shall show the name of the purchaser, the number and date of the survey or location and of the certificate of purchase, the amount paid, the amount unpaid and the amount then due; provided, that no lands within any reclamation district shall be embraced in said statement after the receipt by the register of the certificate of the board of supervisors, as provided in section forty of this act, that works of reclamation have been commenced.

§ 7. The register of the state land office shall have a seal of office, which he shall affix to all certificates issued by him; and any copy or extract of any document, paper or record belonging to his office, duly authenticated by him under his hand and seal, shall be received in evidence in all the courts of justice in this state, in place of, and have the same force and effect, as the originals if produced.

§ 8. The register of the state land office shall receive a salary of two thousand dollars per annum, payable the same as other state officers are paid, and he shall be entitled to demand and receive the following fees: For each certificate of purchase, duplicate or patent, three dollars; for certifying a contested case to district court, ten dollars; for copies of papers in his office, fifteen cents per folio and fifty cents for the certificate with the seal attached, and such other fees as may be allowed by law. All fees received by the register shall be disposed of as provided in section fifty-five of this act. [Amendment, Stats. 1869-70, 875.]

§ 9. The said register shall have the right to employ two clerks at an aggregate salary of three hundred dollars per month, to be paid in like manner as other clerks in state departments.

§ 10. It shall be the duty of the surveyor-general to examine all surveys made under the provisions of this act, and, if found correct, approve and return the same without delay to the county surveyor making the same.

§ 11. The said surveyor-general shall be and is hereby constituted the agent of the state for the location in the several United States land offices of the unsold portion of the five hundred thousand acres of land granted to the state for school purposes, the unsold portion of the seventy-two sections granted to the state for a seminary of learning, the unsold portion of the ten sections granted to the state for the erection of public buildings, the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections granted for the use of public schools, and lands in lieu thereof, together with the grant of one hundred and fifty thousand acres for the benefit of an agricultural college, in such manner as shall be hereinafter provided.

§ 12. It shall be the duty of the surveyor-general, whenever application shall be made to him as hereinafter provided, for any portion of the lands described in the preceding section, to communicate immediately with the proper United States land office, and ask that the lands described in the application shall be accepted in part satisfaction of the grant under which it is sought to be located; and when the acceptance of the register of the United States land office shall have been obtained, he shall give to the party applying, a certificate, which shall authorize the county treasurer of the county in which the lands are situated, to receive payment thereon; provided, that in cases where the townships have not been subdivided, but township and other lines have been established so as to clearly show that a tract of land is included in any thirty-sixth section, and the parties applying for the same make affidavit that there is no legal claim to the same other than his or their own, and that the same is not occupied by any bona fide settler, the surveyor-general may approve such locations, without the acceptance of the register of the United States land office, and the register of the state land office may issue certificate of purchase for the same; provided, the state shall in no manner be held responsible for damages, should the title prove defective, and that no patent shall be issued by the state until the location shall have been approved by the United States. [Amendment, Stats. 1869-70, 875.]

§ 13. The surveyor-general shall, as soon as practicable after the survey of any township by the United States surveyor-general, procure of the proper United States land office a statement of the condition of the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections—whether the same or any portion thereof is covered by pre-emption, private grant or other encumbrance, so that it cannot be located by the state, or whether they are free from any claim other than that of the state.

§ 14. The several registers and receivers of the United States land offices shall present their accounts for services rendered the state in the matter of locations to the surveyor-general, who, if he shall find the same correct according to fees allowed registers and receivers by act of Congress or by the department of the interior, shall certify the same to the state board of examiners, who shall audit and allow said accounts the same as other state indebtedness payable out of the general fund of the state. [Amendment, 1869-70, 14.]

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the state surveyor-general to represent the state in all cases of conflict of title between the state and the United States; and when he shall desire to take testimony under the provisions of the act of Congress to quiet titles in California, passed July, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, he shall request the said United States surveyor-general to set a time and place for hearing the same, and shall request that he shall name a place for said hearing, convenient of access to the witnesses in the case. If the United States surveyor-general shall name any place other than his office, it shall be lawful for him to charge the state with all his necessary traveling expenses in going from his office to the place [where] said testimony shall be taken and back to his office; and all accounts for such expenses shall be approved by the state surveyor-general and paid like other state indebtedness; provided, that no more than one thousand dollars shall be allowed for any one year. In any case of conflict between the United States and the state or any purchaser under the state, when the surveyor-general of the state shall deem it necessary, he shall request the attorney-general to attend the trial on the part of the state; and it shall be the duty of the attorney-general to so attend if not prevented by other official duties; and the actual traveling expenses of the said state surveyor-general and the attorney-general shall be audited by the board of examiners, and paid out of the general fund; provided, the whole amount so paid shall not exceed five hundred dollars during any one year.

§ 16. The surveyor-general and the register are each hereby authorized and required to issue all necessary instructions and to prepare and order printed all the blank forms necessary for the proper and complete operation of this act.

§ 17. In all cases where a contest shall arise concerning the approval of a survey or location before the surveyor-general, or concerning a certificate of purchase or other evidence of title before the register, the officer before whom the contest is made may, when the question involved shall be as to the survey, or one purely of fact, or whether the land applied for is a part of the swamp or on overflowed lands of the state, or whether the same is included in any established and confirmed grant, the lines of which have been run by due authority of law, proceed to hear and determine the same; but when, in the judgment of the officer before whom the contest shall arise, a question of law is involved, or when either party shall demand a trial in the courts of the state, he shall make an order referring said contest to the district court of the county in which the land involved in the contest is situated, and shall enter said order in the proper record book of his office; provided, that the party protesting against the approval of a survey or location, or the issuance of a certificate of purchase or other evidence of title, shall in all cases make a sufficient ex parte showing to warrant, in the judgment of the surveyor-general or register, further proceedings in the matter, and shall prosecute his contest to judgment within six months from the date of the protest, unless for cause satisfactory to the surveyor-general, the register or the court. Either party may bring an action in the district court of the county in which the land in question is situated, to determine such conflict, and the proffer of a certified copy of the entry, made by either the surveyor-general or the register, shall give said district court full and complete jurisdiction to hear and determine said conflict; and upon the filing with the surveyor-general or register, as the case may be, of a copy of the final judgment of said court, that officer shall give his approval of the survey or location, or issue the certificate of purchase or other evidence of title, in accordance with said final judgment.

§ 18. It shall be the duty of the county surveyor, immediately upon receiving an application for any survey required by this act, to indorse the date of the receipt thereon, and note the same in a book to be furnished by the surveyor-general and kept in his office for that purpose, in the regular order in which it is received, giving the name and address of the applicant, and the description of the land by township, range, section and subdivision of section, which book shall always be open for public inspection. He shall, within thirty days after receiving such application, if the lands are subject to sale, complete the survey, plat and field-notes, which shall be recorded by him in a book kept in his office for that purpose; and duplicate copies thereof, together with a copy of the application, shall be forwarded to the surveyor-general for approval. The said county surveyor shall, immediately upon the receipt of an approved survey, record said approval; he shall mark all approved surveys upon the maps of his office, and all his said books and maps shall at all times be open to public inspection.

§ 19. All surveys made under the provisions of this act shall be according to the instructions of the surveyor-general, and shall be made according to the rectangular system adopted by the United States in the survey of the public lands, and shall conform, as near as practicable, to the lines of the public surveys; provided, that in salt-marsh or tide-land surveys the surveyor-general may order a departure from said system.

§ 20. Whenever any county surveyor shall neglect or refuse to make any survey of state lands as provided in this act, or in case of a vacancy in the office of county surveyor, the surveyor-general may, when requested by an applicant for the purchase of lands, appoint some competent person to make said survey, and when approved, shall be as valid as if made by the county surveyor.

§ 21. The surveyor-general shall have power to employ two clerks at an aggregate salary not to exceed three hundred dollars per month to be paid as other clerks in state departments.

§ 22. The surveyor-general, the register and county surveyor, shall each have power to administer the oaths or affirmations required in matters pertaining to their respective offices.

§ 23. Whenever any survey or location of any state lands shall have been made or approved by the surveyor-general, the purchaser shall, within fifty days from the date of said approval or location, present his copy of the same to the county treasurer, who shall thereupon receive the amount, whether in full or in part, so provided by law, and the fee for the certificate of purchase, indorsing his receipt therefor upon the back of the said certificate of location or survey, which shall then be returned to the purchaser; and in case said payment is not made within said fifty days, the land described in said survey or location shall revert to the state without suit, and said survey or location shall be and become null and void. All subsequent payments, whether of the balance of the principal or of the interest thereon, shall be paid to the county treasurer in like manner, who shall indorse the same upon the back of the certificate of purchase. The treasurer shall also direct the purchaser to take said certificate of location, or purchase, or survey so indorsed, to the auditor, who shall charge the amount named therein to the account of the treasurer, and make his check upon the indorsed receipt so charged. [Amendment, Stats. 1869-70, 875.]

§ 24. Upon the first day of every month (except the same shall fall on Sunday or other holiday, then on the day following) the county treasurer shall make a report to the register of the state land office of all moneys received for land during the preceding month, which shall show the number of the location or survey, the name of the purchaser and the amount paid since the date of his last report, whether as principal or interest, which amounts shall be entered in the columns belonging to the particular class of land upon which each payment has been made. The payment of the fee for the certificate of purchase shall also be entered in the proper column, and the treasurer shall then send the report to the auditor, who shall compare the items with the account of the treasurer; and if the same shall be found to agree with his entries he shall countersign the report as correct and return it to the treasurer. These reports shall be forwarded to the register on or before the fifth day after they have been made up, and upon receipt thereof the register shall enter the payment so reported to the credit of the purchasers by whom they have been made, in the books of his office. He shall further, as soon as possible thereafter, notify the county treasurer of the receipt of his report, and of any error that may have been found therein—in that case returning the report for correction.

§ 25. At the end of the quarter it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to make a report to the controller of state, showing the amount which has been received during the quarter, either as principal or interest, upon each class of land; which report shall be referred to the register of the state land office for examination and comparison with the books of his office. When the register shall have certified to the correctness of the report it shall be returned to the controller, who shall thereupon make his settlement with the county treasurer; and the said county treasurer shall then pay over to the treasurer of state all moneys, controller's warrants, or other indebtedness of the state that he may have received in payment for said lands; provided, that the county treasurer shall retain in his own hands all moneys arising from the sale of swamp and overflowed lands, and shall place the same to the credit of a fund to be known as the "Swamp-Land Fund" of the county; and the same shall be subject to the order of the board of supervisors, except as may be hereinafter provided.

§ 26. The treasurer shall compute interest on all lands from the date of the approval of the survey, or the date of the certificate of location, to the first of January following such date; or if for lands already purchased, then up to the first of January following the day upon which the interest falls due; after which time all payments of principal or interest shall fall due on the first day of January.

§ 27. The county treasurer shall be entitled to receive and retain one per centum of all moneys paid in to him for lands, or for taxes on land under the provisions of this act; and the auditor shall be entitled to one per centum, of all amounts certified to by him as provided in section twenty-four of this act, which he shall receive from the treasurer, and his receipt therefor shall be a sufficient voucher for the controller of state in his settlement with said treasurer; provided, that when the auditor or treasurer shall receive a salary as auditor or treasurer, the said percentage shall be paid into the county treasury the same as other revenue for county general purposes.

PART II.—SWAMP AND OVERFLOWED, SALT-MARSH AND TIDE LANDS.

§ 28. The swamp and overflowed, salt-marsh and tide lands belonging to the state shall be sold at the rate of one dollar per acre in gold coin, payable, twenty per centum of the principal within fifty days from the date of the approval of the survey by the surveyor-general; the remainder of the principal shall be due and payable one year after the passage of any act of the legislature requiring such payment, or before, if desired by the purchasers; provided, that legal interest thereon be paid annually, in advance, from the date of such approval; provided, the bonds or warrants of districts having an outstanding indebtedness shall be received in payment for lands in such district at par.

§ 29. Whenever any resident of this state desires to purchase any portion of the swamp and overflowed lands granted to the state by act of Congress of September twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and fifty, or any portion of the tide lands belonging to the state above low tide, he shall make affidavit, before any person competent to administer oaths, that he is a citizen of the United States, or has filed his intention of becoming a citizen; is a resident of the state, and of lawful age; that he desires to purchase said lands (describing them) under the laws of the state providing for the sale of the swamp and overflowed and tide lands of the state, and that he does not know of any legal or equitable claim to said land other than his own; and also, if the applicant be a female, that she is entitled to purchase and hold real estate in her own name under the laws of this state, which application and affidavit, shall be filed in the office of the surveyor of the county in which such lands, or the greater portion thereof, are situate. The county surveyor shall, except when surveys have already been made, then make a survey of said lands, as provided in section eighteen of this act; provided, that applicants for salt-marsh or tide lands which shall be less than twenty chains in width, applying within ninety days after this act goes into effect, shall, in addition to the above, set forth in said affidavit that he or she is the owner or occupant of the uplands lying immediately back of and adjoining said lands sought to be purchased; provided, that the owner or occupant of any such upland shall not be a preferred purchaser for more than one fourth of a mile front on any bay or navigable stream; and any such application by such owner or occupant made within said ninety days shall be only for one fourth of a mile frontage as aforesaid.

§ 30. Whenever the holders of certificates of purchase, patents or other evidence of title representing one half or more of any body of swamp and overflowed, salt-marsh or tide lands, susceptible of one mode of reclamation, desire to reclaim the same, they shall present to the board of supervisors of the county in which the said lands or the greater portion thereof are situated, at a regular meeting of said board, a petition setting forth that they desire to adopt measures to reclaim the same, the description of the lands they propose to reclaim, by township, range, section, and subdivision of section; the quantity sold and the quantity remaining unsold, the number of acres in the whole district and the number of acres in each tract sold, with the name (if known) of the owner thereof. The petition shall be sworn to by at least one of said petitioners, and shall be published for four weeks next preceding the hearing thereof, in some newspaper published in the county in which the lands, or the greater portion thereof, are situated; or, if there be no newspaper published in the county, then it shall be published in some newspaper having a general circulation in said county, and the usual affidavit of publication shall be filed with said petition; provided, that where a district shall be in more than one county, the trustees shall after the petition shall have been granted, forward a copy thereof to the clerk of the board of supervisors of each of the counties in which any portion of said lands may lie, and the said board of supervisors to which the same shall be forwarded shall allow no other district to be formed within said first district, unless by consent of the trustees thereof.

§ 31. If the board of supervisors shall find, upon the hearing of said petition, that the statements therein set forth are correct, and that no land is improperly included or excepted from the said district, they shall note their approval on the petition, which approval shall be signed by the president of the board and attested by the clerk. The petition shall then be recorded by the county recorder in a book to be kept for the purpose of recording papers relating to the reclamations, and a certified copy thereof forwarded to the register of the state land office. The register shall thereupon forward to the county treasurer a statement showing the names of all owners of land in the district who have paid in full for their lands, and the amount deducted therefrom on account of moneys drawn from the state or county general swamp-land fund.

§ 32. After the hearing and approval of the said petition by the board of supervisors, or previously, if they shall so elect, the said petitioners shall ordain and establish such by-laws as they shall deem necessary to effect the work of reclamation and keep the same in repair, and shall elect or appoint three of their number by the votes or signatures of the holders of certificates of purchase or patents representing at least one half the land sought to be reclaimed, to act as a board of trustees to manage the same. The by-laws thus adopted shall be signed by the holders of certificates of purchase or patents representing at least one half of the land so to be reclaimed or benefited, and shall be recorded by the county recorder in the same book and immediately following the petition. The board of trustees thus formed shall have power to elect one of their number to act as president thereof, and to employ engineers and others to survey, plat, locate and estimate the cost of the work necessary for reclamation, and the land needed for right of way, including drains, canals, sluices, water-gates, embankments and material for construction; and to construct, maintain and keep in repair all works necessary for the object in view. After any district now formed shall organize under the provisions of this act, the supervisors of the county shall turn over to the trustees all the books and papers in their possession relating solely to that district; provided, that until such organization, said districts now formed shall proceed under the laws now in force.

§ 33. The board of trustees shall report to the board of supervisors of the county, or, if the district shall be in more than one county, then to the board of supervisors in each county in which the district may be situated, the plans of the work and estimates of the cost, together with estimates of the incidental expenses of superintendence, repairs, etc.; and said board of supervisors to whom the report shall be made shall appoint three commissioners, who shall jointly view and assess upon each and every acre to be reclaimed or benefited thereby a tax proportionate to the whole expense and to the benefits which will result from such works, which said tax shall be collected and paid into the county treasury or treasuries (as the case may be) in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall be placed by the treasurer to the credit of the district, and shall be paid out for the work of reclamation upon the order of the trustees when approved by the board of supervisors of the county; provided, that if a district shall be in more than one county the tax upon all lands shall be paid into the treasury of the county in which the particular tract may be situated.

§ 34. In case the original assessment be insufficient to provide for the complete reclamation of the lands of the district, or in case further assessments be required from time to time to provide for the protection, maintenance, and repair of the works of reclamation, the trustees shall present to the board of supervisors of the county by whom the formation of the said district was approved, a statement of the work done or to be done, and its estimated cost; and said board shall make an order directing the commissioners who made the original assessment, or other commissioners to be named in such order, to assess the amount of such estimated costs upon the lands of the said district; and the said assessment shall be levied, paid, and if delinquent collected in the same manner as provided in sections thirty-three and thirty-five of this act. [Amendment, Stats. 1871-2. 668.]

§ 35. The commissioners appointed by the board of supervisors, as herein-before provided, shall make a list of the amount due from each owner of land in the district and of the amount assessed against the unsold land, and shall file the same with the county treasurer; or, if the district shall be in more than one county, then lists shall be filed with the treasurer of each county for the lands in that county. The treasurer shall thereupon credit each purchaser who has paid in full for his land with eighty cents per acre, less the amount deducted by the register of the state land office, as provided in section thirty-one of this act. The lists thus prepared shall remain in the office of the treasurer for thirty days, or longer if ordered by the board of trustees, and during the time it shall so remain in the office of the treasurer any person assessed can pay the amount so assessed against him to said treasurer without cost; but if at the end of said thirty days, or of said longer time fixed by the trustees, if all of said tax has not been paid the treasurer shall return said list to the district attorney, who shall proceed at once against all delinquents in the same manner as is provided by law for the collection of state and county taxes, and all costs shall be collected of said delinquents.

§ 36. The work necessary for reclamation may be executed by contract or by days work, or by both modes, as may be adjudged by the board of trustees most conducive to economy, security and perfection in the work to be done; but the said board shall keep accurate accounts of all expenditures, which, with any and all contracts that may be made by them, shall be open to the inspection of any person interested in the district, or their agents and attorneys, and to the board of supervisors.

§ 37. The purchaser of any tract of land which may be unsold in any reclamation district at the date of the recording of the by-laws, as hereinbefore provided, shall take the same, subject to all the provisions of said by-laws, and the assessments levied in pursuance thereof, and shall have all the rights and privileges enjoyed by the original signers of said by-laws; provided, that he or she shall pay into the county treasury twenty per centum of the principal, one year's interest on the remaining eighty per centum, and any assessment due upon the land so purchased, for the cost and expense of reclamation, with interest thereon until paid, from the date such assessment became due. But if such land shall remain unsold for four years after the filing of said by-laws, it shall be exempt from any assessment levied under the same during that time.

§ 38. The trustees of any reclamation district in which the by-laws shall have been recorded, as provided in section thirty-one, shall have power to acquire right of way for canals, drains, embankments and other work necessary to the reclamation, and shall have power to take materials for the construction, maintenance and repair thereof from lands outside of as well as within the limits of the district; and if the said trustees shall fail to procure the consent of the owner or owners of the lands or material needed, the said board of trustees, or the president acting in their behalf, shall file in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county in which the lands or material requisite are situated, a petition, in which shall be stated the number of the district to be reclaimed, a description of the land[s] or material required for its reclamation, the names of the owners of the lands or material required, and that the said trustees have endeavored to obtain the consent of the owners thereof for the use or possession of the same, but have failed to obtain such consent; whereupon the said court, or the judge thereof, shall set a time for the hearing of the same. The mode of proceeding shall then be the same as that prescribed in sections twenty-five to thirty-eight, inclusive, of an act to provide for the incorporation of railroad companies and the management of the affairs thereof, and other matters relating thereto, passed May twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, as amended April twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, for condemning lands for railroad purposes; and wherever the railroad company is referred to in said sections it shall be construed to refer to the said swamp-land district; and upon the filing of said petition the said trustees may enter upon and take possession of, and make use of the property so applied for; provided, they serve upon the owners thereof a copy of said petition; and provided, further, that they shall be held responsible for all damages that may at any time be awarded for such possession and use.

§ 39. Whenever any district of swamp and overflowed, salt-marsh or tide lands, susceptible of one mode of reclamation, shall be entirely owned by parties who desire to reclaim the same and who desire to manage the reclamation without the intervention of trustees or the establishment of by-laws, said owner or owners shall file the petition as provided in section thirty of this act; and in addition thereto shall state that he, she or they intend to undertake the said reclamation on his or her or their own responsibility. If the said petition shall be granted, the said owner or owners of said lands shall have all the rights, immunities and privileges granted by this act; and in all proceedings the name or names of the said owner or owners shall be used instead of the names of the trustees.

§ 40. Whenever the supervisors of any county in which any reclamation district shall have been formed or organized under the provisions of this act shall certify to the register of the state land office that works of reclamation have been commenced and are in progress upon a plan and in conformity with the requirements hereinbefore provided, the payment of interest by purchasers in said districts shall be suspended; but if the said works are not completed and accepted as hereinafter provided, within four years from the date of the filing of said petition required by section thirty, then interest for the whole time shall be charged and collected by the said register, the same as if there had been no such suspension.

§ 41. After the work of reclamation, as contemplated in this act, shall have been completed, the trustees, or the owners of the land, if there have been no trustees for the district, shall file in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the original petition was filed, a sworn statement that said work has been completed; and the recorder shall forward a certified copy thereof to the register of the state land office. When said statements shall have been filed, the supervisors shall order the treasurer to pay over to the trustees any moneys he may have credited to purchasers on full payments, as provided in section thirty-five of this act.

§ 42. Whenever the trustees, or owners of the land if there be no trustees, shall certify under oath to the board of supervisors by whom the district was formed that the works of reclamation have been completed, or that two dollars per acre in gold coin has been expended on the work of reclamation, if such facts be established to the satisfaction of said board, they shall transmit to the register of the state land office a certificate stating such facts, and he shall thereupon credit each purchaser of lands within the district with payment in full for such lands, and the said purchaser or his assigns shall be entitled to a patent therefor. And the register shall forward to the treasurer of the county or counties in which the district is situated a statement showing the amount of money, including interest, paid into the treasury by each purchaser of land in said district prior to or after the formation of the same, after deducting therefrom the proper proportion chargeable to each purchaser of the amount previously drawn from the swamp-land, state, or county general fund, and the amount to be credited to the purchasers and paid over to the trustees as hereinbefore provided, and shall order the balance paid over to said purchasers or their assigns, and the said statement of the register, signed by each purchaser or his assigns, shall be the voucher for the county treasurer; provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to districts having an outstanding indebtedness represented by controller's warrants drawn upon the state treasury, until all such warrants are fully paid. [Amendment, Stats. 1871-2, 383.]

§ 43. Swamp and overflowed, salt-marsh or tide land districts now formed may proceed at once to organize under the provisions of this act, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the board of supervisors of any county in which the greater portion of any swamp-land district shall be, immediately after this act goes into operation, to call a meeting of the landowners of such district by publishing a notice for four weeks in some newspaper published in the county, or if there shall be no paper published in the county, then by posting at least three notices in the district, for the election of trustees and the establishment of by-laws; and the holders of certificates of purchase or patents, or their agents, representing one half the land sold, shall form a quorum for the transaction of business at such meeting; and the trustees elected at said meeting shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to carry out and complete all unfinished business commenced by the board of supervisors, and do all other things authorized by the by-laws of the district or by this act; provided, that in any district now in debt the trustees shall have power to do nothing to impair or destroy any debt or obligation of the district without the consent of creditors. The trustees of any such district, however, shall have the power to make any arrangements with the said creditors for the surrender of any indebtedness at less than par, and to levy any tax on the district for that purpose, provided the same shall be authorized by the by-laws of the district.

§ 44. If any district now in debt shall levy a tax upon the lands of the district, as provided in the preceding section, and shall redeem bonds or warrants of the district with the proceeds thereof, the trustees of said district shall have power to select any unsold lands in the district and pay for the same with said bonds or warrants at par, and the register of the state land office shall issue to the said trustees a certificate of purchase (and when all the conditions of this act shall have been complied with, a patent) for the same; and the said trustees shall have power to deed the said lands in fee to any person upon the payment by the said person, into the fund of the district, of the price agreed upon.

§ 45. If the holders of certificates of purchase or patents for lands within any district formed under previous laws, and in which the lands have not been thoroughly reclaimed, desire to have their lands set off from said district, they shall, in addition to the petition required in section thirty of this act, show to the board of supervisors that their lands are capable of an independent reclamation. If the district from which they seek to be set off shall not be in debt, then said lands may at once be set off, but if the district shall have an outstanding indebtedness, then the board shall, either in their own proper persons or by commissioners appointed for that purpose, determine what proportion of the debt the tract so

sought to be set off shall be entitled to pay, and upon the payment by the said petitioners of the amount so awarded the said lands described in said petition shall be constituted a district and shall be subject to all the conditions and restrictions of this act. And the amount so paid by the petitioners shall be a charge against the district so formed, and shall be collected and paid the same as funds for reclamation. Any reclamation district may, with the concurrence in writing of a majority in acreage of the holders of certificates of purchase, patents, or other evidence of title to and within the said district, consolidate with one or more contiguous districts; the term of such consolidation, and the names of the trustees of the consolidated district, shall be stated in a written agreement, and the number be designated therein by which the consolidated district shall be known, which shall be one of the original numbers, and shall be signed by the trustees of each district, or a majority of them, and be filed in the office of the recorder of the county or either of the counties in which the districts are situated, and the trustees of the said district, or a majority of them, shall thereupon certify to the register of the state land office the fact of such consolidation, the original numbers of the districts consolidated, and the number adopted for the consolidated district. [Amendment, Stats. 1871-2, 858.]

§ 46. All districts organized under the provisions of this act shall have a state number, and the register of the state land office, upon the receipt of a copy of a petition, as hereinbefore provided, shall number the same, and shall send their number to the county recorder of the county from which the copy came; and the said recorder shall immediately number the petition upon record in like manner, and the said district shall thereafter be known and designated by said number; provided, that districts now organized shall be known by the number they now have. No member of any board of supervisors, or any clerk of said board, shall receive any compensation other than their regular salary for services performed under this act; provided, that the board of supervisors of Sacramento County may, if they shall deem the same advisable, employ a clerk to attend to matters pertaining to swamp-lands, and shall pay such clerk by orders on the swamp-land fund of the district for which work is performed not to exceed five dollars for each day actually engaged.

§ 47. On or before the first day of June, of the present year, the register of the state land office shall prepare a statement of the amount of moneys paid into the general swamp-land fund of the state by purchasers of swamp and overflowed, salt-marsh or tide lands in each county of the state; and after deducting therefrom the amount expended out of the general swamp-land fund exclusive of district reclamation, show the amount remaining in the said general fund to the credit of each county, and shall file the same in the office of the controller of state. The controller shall thereupon draw his warrant on said general swamp-land fund in favor of the county treasurer of each of said counties for the amount with which his said county may be credited. Any county treasurer may draw said money from the state treasury upon said warrant, and transfer it immediately to the county treasury, or he may use said warrant in his settlement with the state treasurer. In case any of said warrants shall be used in a settlement by a county treasurer, the state treasurer shall transfer the amount of the warrant from the swamp-land fund to the general fund. Immediately after notification by the board of supervisors that all contractors are fully paid for work contracted prior to the passage of this act, the controller of state shall certify to the board of supervisors of each county in which a swamp-land district may be situated, the amount of the assets unexpended standing on the books of the controller, and belonging to such district, specifying particularly the nature of such assets, whether of coin or otherwise, and upon receiving said certificate, the auditor and treasurer of the county, under the direction of the board of supervisors, shall place said assets on their books to the credit of the proper swamp-land district fund. The controller shall also forward to the proper board of supervisors all books relating to swamp-land districts received by him from the board of swamp-land commissioners.

§ 48. The balance of the principal on all lands in districts having an outstanding indebtedness, which have been sold for five years, shall be due and payable one year after this act goes into effect, and on all lands in such districts which have been sold less than five years, the said balance shall be due and payable on the first of January following the expiration of five years from the date of said sale; provided further, that no action of the landholders shall have the effect to stay the payment upon any lands provided for by this section.

§ 49. If any person shall at any time or in any manner lower or alter any levee to facilitate crossing, or shall cut, destroy or in any manner whatever injure or destroy any levee, or tide-gate, or embankment or other work constructed for the purpose of reclamation, or in any manner whatever diminish the height, width or strength of any levee or embankment of a district, or cross levee within a district, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than ten days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and in every case of conviction the sum of fifteen dollars shall be charged as costs, and be paid to the district attorney for his own use; and all fines collected under this act shall be paid into the levee fund of the district.

§ 50. Any person owning or occupying lands upon the banks of any river, creek or other stream where the lands lying back of said stream are lower than the bank thereof, shall be held responsible for all damages which may be sustained by the owners or occupants of said lower lands by reason of any cut or embrasure made in the bank of said stream by the said owner or occupant of said bank. Said damages may be proven and recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction according to the civil practice of said court; provided, that in case said cuts were made for the purpose of irrigation, and head-gates and culverts have been made which competent persons have considered sufficient to restrain the water, and where great diligence has been made to prevent damage, the said facts may be plead[ed] and proven in mitigation of damages, and shall be taken into consideration by the court or the jury in determining the same.

PART III.—SCHOOL LANDS.

§ 51. The unsold portion of the five hundred thousand acres granted to the state for school purposes, the unsold portion of the seventy-two sections granted to the state for a seminary of learning, the unsold portion of the ten sections granted to the state for the erection of public buildings, the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections granted for school purposes, and lands selected in lieu thereof, shall be sold at the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, in gold coin, payable twenty per centum of the principal within fifty days from the date of the certificate of location issued to the purchaser by the surveyor-general; the balance, bearing interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum, in advance, shall be due and payable within one year after the passage of any act of the legislature requiring such payment, or before, if desired by the purchaser.

§ 52. Whenever any resident of the state desires to purchase any portion, not less than the smallest legal subdivision of a sixteenth or thirty-sixth section of any township in the state, which has been surveyed by authority of the United States, he or she shall make an affidavit, before any officer authorized to administer oaths, that he or she is a citizen of the United States (or, if a foreigner, that he has filed his intention of becoming a citizen) a resident of the state, of lawful age; that he or she desires to purchase said lands (giving a description thereof by legal subdivision) under the provisions of this act; that he or she has not entered any portion of any sixteenth or thirty-sixth section which, together with that now sought to be purchased, shall exceed three hundred and twenty acres; that there is no occupation of said lands adverse to any that he or she may have; or, if there shall be adverse occupation, then he or she shall state that the township has been sectionized and subject to pre-emption three months or over; and that said adverse occupant (giving his or her name) has been in such occupation for more than sixty days; and if the applicant be a female, she shall state that she is entitled to purchase and hold real estate in her own name under the laws of the state; which application shall be forwarded to the surveyor-general of the state.

§ 53. Every occupant of a sixteenth or thirty-sixth section shall be protected in his or her occupancy for six months after the passage of this act; and after the expiration of that time, any person settling upon a sixteenth or thirty-sixth section shall have sixty days after such settlement in which to file the application required in the preceding section. All applications filed in the surveyor-general's office prior to the expiration of said six months, shall be retained until the end of that time before approval; and after the expiration of said six months, all applications shall be retained in said office for sixty days before approval. If two or more shall claim the same land, the contest shall be determined as provided in section seventeen of this act, but no person shall have a right to purchase by reason of any settlement or improvement, unless application shall have been made within the time above prescribed. Whenever any resident of the state desires to purchase any of the other lands mentioned in section fifty-one of this act, except the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections, he or she shall make an affidavit before any officer authorized to administer oaths, that he or she is a citizen of the United States (or, if a foreigner, then that he has filed his intention of becoming a citizen), a resident of the [state, of lawful age; that he or she desires to purchase said lands (giving a description by legal subdivisions) under the provisions of this act, and that there is no valid claim to said land other than that of the applicant; that he or she has not entered any land in part satisfaction of the grant in lieu of sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections which together with that now sought to be purchased shall exceed three hundred and twenty acres; and that if the applicant be a female, then that she is entitled to purchase and hold real estate in her own name under the laws of the state; which application] shall be forwarded to the surveyor-general. [Amendment, Stats. 1869-70, 875.]

[The words in italics in brackets in engrossed bill, but not appearing in the approved bill.]

§ 54. Warrants issued in pursuance of an act to provide for the disposal of the five hundred thousand acres of land, granted to this state by act of Congress, that the people of the state of California may avail themselves of the benefits of the eighth section of the act of Congress approved April fourth, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter sixteen, entitled an act to appropriate the proceeds of the sales of the public lands and to grant pre-emption rights, the following provisions are hereby enacted, approved May third, eighteen hundred and fifty-two, shall be taken in payment of any part of the said grant in the above title described; provided, that the said warrants shall be paid directly to the register of the state land office, and shall be by him canceled, before a certificate of purchase shall issue for the said lands.

§ 55. Each application for lands under the provisions of this act shall be accompanied by a fee of five dollars. The surveyor-general, in addition thereto, shall demand and receive the same fees allowed the register of the state land office for like service. The surveyor-general shall use said fees so collected by him, so far as necessary in defraying the expenses of procuring maps, records, documents and extra assistance needed either by the surveyor-general or the register of the state land office, and shall pay the residue thereof into the state treasury, and shall give a correct statement of said expenditures in his biennial report to the governor. [Amendment, Stats. 1869-70, 875.]

§ 56. It shall be the duty of the board of examiners created by an act approved April twenty-first, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, entitled an act to create a board of examiners, to define their powers and duties, and to impose certain duties upon the controller and treasurer, whenever it shall appear to said board that the treasurer of state has received into the treasury the sum of ten thousand dollars or upwards, paid in as purchase money for any portion of the five hundred thousand acres granted to the state for school purposes, for the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections, or lands in lieu thereof, and as often thereafter as the like sum shall have been paid in as aforesaid, to purchase bonds of the civil funded debt of the state issued since the first day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, or that may be hereafter issued, to the amount of said money paid in as aforesaid will purchase at the lowest price at which they may be purchased, after advertising for two weeks in one daily newspaper published in the city of San Francisco, and one in the city of Sacramento, for sealed proposals for the sale of said bonds. The said board shall open said proposals at the time and place specified in said publication, in the presence of the treasurer and controller of state, and accept only of such proposals as offer bonds at the greatest discount to the amount of funds in the treasury, paid in as purchase money for school lands, will purchase. Said board shall audit the amount due said bidder or bidders for his or their bonds, which amount shall be certified to the controller of state by said board; the controller shall then draw his warrant on the treasurer for the amount audited by said board, and said board of examiners shall deliver said warrants to the persons in whose favor they are drawn; and the bonds so purchased shall be delivered to the state treasurer, who shall keep said bonds as a special deposit in his custody, marked "School Fund," to the credit of said school fund; provided, however, that no bonds shall be purchased at more than par value. All interest paid into the treasury under the provisions of this act shall be subject to the order of the state board of education. It is further provided, that if at any time the board of examiners shall have at their disposal the sum of ten thousand dollars or upwards, to be invested as contemplated in this act, for the benefit of the state school fund, and they shall deem it for the best interests of said fund, the said board are hereby authorized and empowered to become bidders for the purchase of California state bonds, should the treasurer of state have advertised at such times for the sale and disposal of bonds under any law already passed or that may hereafter be passed by the legislature of this state; the bids of the said board to be made according to law, and to be received by the treasurer of state in the same manner and under the same restriction as if received from individuals; and if upon the opening of said bids it is found that the board of examiners are entitled to receive the amount of their bid, or any portion thereof, the treasurer of state shall deliver to the said board the amount of bonds to which they are entitled under the provisions of his advertisement, and the controller of state shall draw his warrant in favor of the treasurer for the amount of the bid of said board accepted by said treasurer of state, and the bonds so awarded and delivered to the board of examiners shall be at once placed to the credit of the state school fund, to be held by the state treasurer as a special deposit for said school fund.

§ 57. All moneys, securities or other property arising from the sale of the seventy-two sections granted to the state for a seminary of learning, and from the sale of the ten sections granted to the state for the erection of public buildings, whether as principal or interest, shall be paid out of the state treasury or delivered over, on the order of the board of directors of the Agricultural, Mining and Mechanical Arts College, or to such other corporation or board as shall be appointed to succeed or represent them.

§ 58. All persons who have purchased any portion of either of the grants mentioned in the preceding section, on a credit, are hereby required to pay the principal and any interest that may be due within one year after the passage of this act. All amounts remaining unpaid at the end of that time shall be included in the delinquent list provided in section six of this act, and the district attorney shall proceed against such delinquents as provided in sections sixty-five, sixty-six, sixty-seven and sixty-eight of this act; and if such lands revert to the state, they shall be under the control of the board of regents of the University, who shall dispose of the same in such manner and at such prices as they may deem best. [Amendment, Stats. 1869-70, 875.]

§ 59. Any person making application for a duplicate school-land warrant, in lieu of one alleged to have been lost or destroyed, shall make satisfactory proof, by affidavit of himself or others, to the register of the state land office, that the party applying therefor is the bona fide owner of such warrant, that the same has not been located, and of the facts establishing the loss or destruction of the same, and shall file with the register of the state land office a good and sufficient bond, in form joint and several, with two or more sureties, to be approved by said register, payable to the state of California in double the value of said school land warrant, conditioned that the said warrant alleged to have been lost or destroyed shall not be presented for location; and in any case where, for want of a proper acknowledgment of an assignment of the original, or partial destruction or defacement thereof, or for any other cause, it cannot be made available, the applicant shall make affidavit that he is the owner of the warrant, together with affidavit of any other person or persons, to the satisfaction of the register, showing the fact of the assignment and that such warrant has not been located, and shall file the original warrant for cancelation with the register of the state land office. The said register shall certify that the applicant is entitled to a duplicate school-land warrant in lieu of the one proven to have been lost or destroyed, or presented for cancelation, and upon presentation of such certificate to the governor he shall prepare and deliver to the said applicant a duplicate warrant bearing the same number as the original warrant, having the word "Duplicate" written across the face thereof, which said warrant when so issued shall be of the same validity and have the same force and effect as the original. The register of the state land office shall in no case give the certificate above required until he shall be satisfied that the original has not been located, or, if located, that the lands so located have not been and will not be charged to this state by the federal government as a portion of the five hundred thousand acres of land granted to this state for internal improvements.

§ 60. The board of directors of the Agricultural, Mining and Mechanical Arts College, or such corporations as may be appointed by law to succeed them, shall have power to order the selection of the grant of one hundred and fifty thousand acres of land granted to the state for the use of an agricultural college, and dispose of the same at such price and in such manner as they shall deem best for the interests of the college, and it shall be the duty of the land agent of the University, as the agent of the state, to select the lands in the United States land offices, according to the instructions of said board or corporation, and it shall be the duty of the said land agent to issue certificates of purchase and patent to purchasers who comply with the conditions ordained by the said board or corporation, in the manner prescribed in sections four and five of this act; and the said board or corporation shall invest any and all moneys accruing from the sale of said lands as they shall deem best, subject only to the conditions of the act of Congress granting said lands. [Amendment, Stats. 1869-70, 875.]

PART IV.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§ 61. If any person, being the legal holder of a certificate of purchase for any state lands, shall claim that said certificate has been lost or destroyed, the register of the state land office shall proceed to take such ex parte testimony as he shall deem expedient concerning the loss of the same; provided, that said party so applying shall, before the hearing of said matter, publish a notice in some newspaper published in the county where the said land is situated; or if there be no newspaper published in the county, then in some newspaper of general circulation in the county, for at least four consecutive weeks, describing the certificate and the lands for which the same was issued, by legal subdivisions, and giving the name of the person to whom it was issued, and the person then claiming to own it. If the said register shall be satisfied of the loss or destruction of said certificate, he shall issue to the legal owner thereof a duplicate certificate, which shall have the word "Duplicate" plainly written across the face thereof with red ink. Said duplicate, when issued, shall have all the force and effect of an original. If there shall be a contest as to the issuance of a duplicate certificate, the register shall hear and determine said contest, or transfer the same to the proper court, as provided in section seventeen of this act.

§ 62. In all cases where patents for lands have been or may hereafter be issued, in pursuance of any law of this state or of the United States, to a person who has died or shall hereafter die before the date of such patent, the title to the land designated therein shall inure to and become vested in the heirs, devisees or assignees of such deceased patentee as if the patent had issued to the deceased person during life.

§ 63. In the event of any of the lands sold by the state proving to be within the boundaries of a grant, or otherwise not the property of the state, the holder or assignee of the certificate of purchase or patent shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate from the register of the state land office that such amount has been paid. This certificate shall specify the kind or class of land upon which the said amount was paid, and the controller of state, upon the presentation and surrender to him of said certificate, shall draw his warrant upon the treasurer of state, or upon the county treasurer of the county wherein the land is situated, if the same is swamp-land, in favor of the owner and holder of said certificate, for the amount therein specified, payable out of the proper fund, and the treasurer of state shall pay said warrant drawn in pursuance of the provisions of this section. [Amendment, Stats. 1869-70, 875.]

§ 64. Whenever a purchaser of any state land upon a credit desires to abandon the location or entry made by him, he shall do so by acknowledgment and reconveyance of his title to the state, and shall surrender the certificate of purchase, or, if the same has been lost, send to the register an affidavit of the fact.

§ 65. Upon receipt of the delinquent list aforesaid from the register of the state land office, as provided in section six, the district attorney shall add thereto a notice that if the said amount due shall not be paid in fifty days after the date thereof, he will commence suit to foreclose the interest of said purchasers in the said lands, and shall publish said list, with said notice appended, for four consecutive weeks immediately following the date of the notice; or if there shall be no newspaper published in said county, then he shall post copies of the same in at least five public places in the county. After the expiration of the fifty days, the district attorney shall, in the name of the people of the state of California, commence an action in the district court against all purchasers or holders of certificates of purchase who have not either paid said amount so due, together with the cost of publication, or surrender the title to the state, as provided in the preceding section, to obtain a decree of foreclosure of the interest of the purchaser or holder of the certificate of purchase in the land, and to annul said certificate of purchase. If the name of the holder of the certificate be not known, he may be sued under a fictitious name, and service of the summons may be had by publication in some newspaper published in the county for four weeks; or if no newspaper be published in the county, then by posting one copy of the summons for four weeks at the courthouse door of the county, and two copies in public places in the township where the land is situated.

§ 66. When a decree shall have been obtained, and within twenty days after the entering up of said decree, the district attorney shall cause a certified copy of said decree to be filed in the office of the register of the state land office, and another certified copy in the recorder's office of the county in which the land is situate. The holder of the certificate of purchase may, at any time before the expiration of the twenty days provided for filing a certified copy of the decree in the office of the register of the state land office and recorder of the county, pay to the sheriff, for the state, the amount due the state and the costs of suit that have accrued up to the time of payment; whereupon the district attorney shall dismiss the suit, and the purchaser or holder of the certificate of purchase shall be restored to his rights in the land, the same as if no neglect or forfeiture had been made. The district attorney shall be entitled to receive ten dollars for each suit brought.

§ 67. After the decree of the court foreclosing the interest of the purchaser or the holder of the certificate has been entered, and the certified copies filed in the offices of the recorder of the county and the state land register, the land shall be subject to entry and sale, and a certificate of purchase may be issued, in the same manner as if the land had never been entered and sold. Upon the obtaining of a decree foreclosing the interest of the purchaser or of his assigns in the land, and annulling the certificate of purchase, the expenses and cost shall be taxed by the court against the defendant, and execution shall issue thereon; but if there be not sufficient property belonging to defendant found to satisfy the same, and the execution returned not satisfied, then the same shall be paid from the twenty per centum of the principal of the purchase money, or from the interest paid by the purchaser at the time of the original location and entry of the land; provided, that the total cost shall not be taxed at a sum in any case to exceed thirty-two dollars; provided further, that the cost of the publication required in section sixty-five shall not be a part of the thirty-two dollars; but the same shall, if it cannot be collected of the purchaser, if the lands described be swamp and overflowed, salt-marsh or tide lands, be paid out of the swamp-land fund, on the order of the board of supervisors; or if any class of school lands, then out of the general fund of the state.

§ 68. Any person having a good and sufficient conveyance to the whole or any portion of the lands described in any certificate of purchase, to annul which suit shall have been commenced as above provided, but to whom the certificate has never been surrendered, shall have a right to defend said action; and if he or she shall show, to the satisfaction of the court, that he or she is entitled to any portion of the lands described, and if the holder of said certificate does not come forward and pay the amount due, then the court shall order the certificate annulled, and a new one to issue to the defendant by the payment, in open court, by the defendant, of the amount due the state upon the whole tract; and the said defendant shall thereupon be entitled to two certified copies of said decree, one of which he shall file [in] the county recorder's office, and the other with the register of the state land office.

§ 69. Certificates of purchase and all rights acquired thereby shall be subject to sale and transfer, by deed or assignment, executed and acknowledged before any officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds, or before said register; but all such sales or transfers shall, when recorded by the county recorder, be reported by him to the register, to be entered in the books of his office; and the said recorder shall be entitled to receive from the purchaser or transferee, for so reporting the same, a fee of fifty cents in addition to that already allowed for recording.

§ 70. All the swamp and overflowed, salt-marsh and tide lands within one mile of the state prison at San Quentin, within five miles of the city and county of San Francisco, within five miles of the corporate limits of the city of Oakland, and within two miles of any town or village, are hereby excluded from the provisions of this act; provided, that this act shall not be construed to authorize the sale of any land below low tide. [Amendment, Stats. 1869-70, 875.]

[The amendatory act of 1869-70 also contained the following section: "§ 9. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect from and after its passage."]

§ 71. An act entitled an act to provide for the disposal of the five hundred thousand acres of land granted to this state by act of Congress, that the people of the state of California may avail themselves of the benefits of the eighth section of the act of Congress approved April fourth, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter sixteen, entitled an act to appropriate the proceeds of the sales of the public lands and to grant pre-emption rights, the following provisions are hereby enacted, approved May third, eighteen hundred and fifty-two; an act entitled an act to provide for the selection of lands donated by the United States, for the support of common schools, and for the erection of public buildings, approved May seventh, eighteen hundred and fifty-five; an act entitled an act to provide for the location and sale of the unsold portion of the five hundred thousand acres of land donated to this state for school purposes, and the seventy-two sections donated to this state for the use of a seminary of learning, approved April twenty-third, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight; an act entitled an act authorizing the location and protection of school lands, approved April thirtieth, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven; an act entitled an act to provide for the sale of the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections of land donated to this state for school purposes by act of Congress passed March third, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight; an act entitled an act to provide for the issuance of patents to lands located with state school land warrants, and for lands purchased under the act of April twenty-third, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, approved April sixteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine; an act entitled an act to provide for the location of school land warrants upon unsurveyed lands, and for the issuance of title for the same, approved April eighteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine; an act entitled an act to provide for the sale of the swamp and overflowed lands belonging to this state, approved April twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and fifty-five; an act entitled an act to provide for the authentication of certain evidence in relation to swamp and overflowed lands heretofore sold by this state, approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight; an act entitled an act to provide for the sale and reclamation of the swamp and overflowed lands of this state, approved April twenty-first, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight; an act entitled an act for the relief of the purchasers of lands from the state of California, approved April eighth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine; an act entitled an act making certificates of purchase or of location evidence of title, approved April thirteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-nine; an act entitled an act to give effect to patents for lands issued in the name of deceased persons, approved February thirteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty; an act entitled an act to extend the time for the payment of the principal of the purchase money on lands sold by the state on a credit, approved February fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one; an act entitled an act to provide for the annulling of certificates of purchase of lands sold on a credit and declared forfeited for non-payment of interest or principal, and for the relief of purchasers of swamp and overflowed lands, approved April ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one; an act entitled an act in relation to the entry of lands in certain cases, and to provide for the issuance of patents therefor, approved April twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one; an act entitled an act to provide for the reclamation and segregation of swamp and overflowed, and salt-marsh and tide lands donated to the state of California by act of Congress, approved May thirteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one; an act entitled an act to provide for the sale of the marsh and tide lands of this state, approved May fourteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one; an act entitled an act to provide for the reclamation of the salt-marsh and tide lands, approved April twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-three; an act entitled an act to suspend the laws allowing the sale of unsurveyed lands, and relating to the issuance of patents, approved April first, eighteen hundred and sixty-four; an act entitled an act in relation to swamp-land district funds, approved April fourth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four; an act entitled an act creating a state land office for the state of California, approved April tenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight; an act entitled an act to authorize the register of the state land office to issue duplicate certificates of purchase to school, or swamp and overflowed, and salt-marsh and tide lands, when the originals have been lost or destroyed, approved April fifteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two; an act entitled an act fixing the salary of the register of the state land office, approved April twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty; an act entitled an act in relation to the register of the state land office, approved April third, eighteen hundred and sixty-two; an act entitled an act to provide for the sale of certain lands belonging to the state, approved April twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-three; an act entitled an act to provide for the issuance of patents to § 72. Immediately after the passage of this act the state printer shall print two thousand copies of the same in pamphlet form and deliver them to the register of the state land office for distribution to state and county officers.

As to part II of the foregoing statute of 1868, relating to swamp-lands, see next following supplementary statute, and see Reclamation Districts. And see decisions upon the entire subject following the supplementary statute.

An act supplementary to an act to provide for the management and sale of the lands belonging to the state, approved March twenty-eight (28), eighteen hundred and sixty-eight (1868).

§ 1. All settlers upon the swamp and overflowed lands belonging to the state, whose settlement is evidenced by actual inclosure, or by ditches, plough furrows or monuments, showing clearly the metes and bounds of their possessory claim, and the same are occupied for purposes of tillage or grazing, are hereby recognized as possessing an equitable claim to the land so inclosed or occupied by them, within the true intent and meaning of the act to which this is supplementary, and are declared preferred purchasers for such lands to the extent of such inclosure or occupancy, within the limits of time herein-after set forth; and the county surveyor shall return surveys of such settlers in accordance with the lines of their possessory claims, connecting the same with the United States surveys.

§ 2. The surveyor-general of the state shall not approve nor shall the register of the state land office issue title for any swamp and overflowed land, until six months after the same shall have been segregated by authority of the United States, or of the state, by legislative enactment; and for ninety days after the filing of plats showing said line of segregation in the United States land office for the district in which the land is situate, the settlers possessing equitable claims under section one of this act shall be deemed preferred purchasers and shall file their applications for survey of their possessory claims with the county surveyor of the county in which the land is situate within the said ninety days.

§ 3. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any lands within the limits of the county of San Francisco, or within five miles of the exterior boundaries of said county.

§ 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

LANDS OF STATE—SIXTEENTH AND THIRTY-SIXTH SECTIONS.

To protect bona fide settlers upon public lands.

§ 1. Bona fide settlers upon any sixteenth or thirty-sixth section, which at the time of such settlement was embraced within any survey made under claim or color of any Spanish or Mexican grant, but which has since been or hereafter may be restored to the public domain by the proper officers of the government of the United States, shall be preferred purchasers for the lands so settled upon by them to the lines of their actual possession, and in accordance with the general system of government surveys, and not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres; and all applications made by such settlers to purchase said lands from the state within one year from the date of such restoration, are hereby declared to entitle said settlers to become preferred purchasers for the lands so held as aforesaid, in the same manner and to the same extent as if made within the sixty days, as now provided for by law; and said sixty days preferment is hereby extended to, and declared to be, one year from the date of said restoration; and all such applications made within one year from the date of said restoration shall be held and deemed as valid and binding as if made within sixty days from the date of said settlement.

See next following statute; also see statute, post, for Relief of Purchasers, p. 658. Lands—State, 1871-2, 587, amended 1877-8, 914, and note thereunder.

LANDS OF STATE—SIXTEENTH AND THIRTY-SIXTH SECTIONS.

To provide for the applications for purchase of sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections, and to regulate the application for purchase of such sections, and requiring a deposit to accompany all applications for the purchase of the same.

§ 1. Every application to purchase any portion of the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections shall be accompanied by a deposit of twenty dollars, in addition to the fee for filing now required by law, for which the surveyor-general shall give the applicant a receipt, which receipt shall be accepted by the county treasurer in part payment of the purchase price of said land. If the applicant shall abandon or forfeit his said application, or shall fail to make proper proof as to the character of the said land, or as to his residence thereon, within the time allowed by law, or if his application shall be rejected by reason of any false statement in the affidavit herein contained, the twenty dollars thus paid shall go to the state school fund. If it is found that the surveyor-general erred in receiving the application, or that the state cannot make a good title to the land, then the applicant or his assigns may surrender to the surveyor-general the said receipt, and receive in exchange therefor a certificate showing the amount so paid, and the reason why the application could not be approved or perfected, and the controller, upon the surrender to him of the said surveyor-general's certificate, shall issue to the applicant, or his assigns, a warrant for the said amount.

§ 2. Any number of filings on any section of land is hereby permitted and allowed under the provisions of this act. Should the first filing be abandoned by the applicant, the next filing on such section, in order, shall have the same right as if it had been the first filing.

§ 3. The moneys received by the surveyor-general under the provisions of this act, except the moneys forfeited under section one, shall be paid to the state treasurer at the close of each month, and must be placed in a fund to be called "School Land Deposit Fund," to the credit of the county in which the lands applied for are situated. When any moneys are placed in the "School Deposit Fund" to the credit of a county, the controller, at the next settlement with the controller by the treasurer of such county, must draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for the amount in the fund to the credit of the county; provided, that the direction herein to the controller is exempted from the operations of section six hundred and seventy-two of the Political Code.

LANDS OF STATE—RELIEF OF PURCHASERS.

To enable purchasers of state lands to redeem the same, where their titles have been, or may hereafter be foreclosed for non-payment of interest.

(Stats. 1881, 66, ch. LV:)

§ 1. In all cases where the title of purchasers of land from the state has been foreclosed, or attempted to be foreclosed, or that may hereafter be foreclosed, for non-payment of interest, said purchasers, their executors, administrators, or successors in interest shall have, twelve months after said foreclosures are or have been completed, within which to redeem such land, by paying to the county treasurer, for the benefit of the fund, or parties entitled thereto, all delinquent interest, and interest that would have accrued in case there had been no foreclosure; also, all costs of foreclosure to be paid to the fund, or the parties who paid said costs. When said payments are made, and indorsed on the certificate of purchase, specifying the amount paid as interest and for costs, and duly reported to the register of the land office, the annulments shall be canceled by said officer, and the rights of the purchaser shall thereby be fully restored.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

LANDS OF STATE—BEACH AND WATER LOTS.

To provide for the disposition of certain property of the state of California.

(Stats. 1851, 307, ch. 41.)

BEACH AND WATER LOTS OF SAN FRANCISCO.—By the above-mentioned statute the state granted to San Francisco for a period of ninety-nine years the beach and water lots within certain limits, to be thereafter defined by a red line on a map to be procured by San Francisco and to be deposited in the offices of secretary of state and state surveyor-general. The red line is to denote the permanent line of the water-front. This statute expressly reserved to the state its right to regulate the construction of wharves and other improvements.

By statute of same year (p. 311, ch. 44), San Francisco was empowered to construct wharves at the ends of streets to a distance not exceeding two hundred yards beyond the line of beach and water lots, and the right of the state to beach and water lots, with certain reservations; but this statute was repealed by Stats. 1853, 36.

By Stats. 1853, 219 (Compiled Laws, 1850-3, 767), provision was made for the sale of the reversionary interest of the state within the limits defined by the statute of 1851, above. The latter statute was supplemented by Stats. 1855, 226, and 1858, 139.

By Stats. 1858, 323, the governor was authorized to sell certain of the beach and water lots remaining and situate between Sacramento and Clay streets, confirming streets that had been laid out crossing the tract; and by Stats. 1877-8, 417, the deeds of the commissioners appointed under the statutes of 1851 and 1853 to certain lots believed to be outside of the water-front line, as defined by those statutes, were confirmed and made valid.

The subject is now past history, but the following decisions are given for the benefit of those desiring to investigate:

LANDS OF STATE—RELINQUISHING.

Relinquishing to the United States of America the title of this state to certain lands.

(Stats. 1897, 74, ch. LXXXI.)

§ 1. All the right and title of the state of California in and to the parcels of land extending from high-water mark out to three hundred yards beyond low-water mark, lying adjacent and contiguous to such lands of the United States in this state as lie upon tidal waters and are held, occupied, or reserved for military purposes or defense, lying adjacent and contiguous to any island, the title to which is in the United States, or which island is reserved by the United States for any military or naval purposes or for defense, are hereby granted, released, and ceded to the United States of America; the boundaries of each parcel of land hereby granted, released, and ceded to the United States to be a line along high-water mark, a line three hundred yards out beyond low-water mark, and lines at right angles to high-water mark at the points where the boundaries of the adjacent lands of the United States touch high-water mark; provided, that the title to each parcel of land hereby granted, released, and ceded to the United States shall be, and remain in the United States only so long as the United States shall continue to hold and own the adjacent lands now belonging to the United States; and provided further, that this state reserves the right to serve and execute on said lands all civil process, not incompatible with this cession, and such criminal process as may lawfully issue under the authority of this state against any person or persons charged with crimes committed without said lands.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

LANDS OF STATE—ROCKLIN.

To authorize the governor and surveyor-general to sell and convey the state's interest in certain lands.

(Stats. 1891, 251, ch. CLXXIII.)

§ 1. The governor and surveyor-general are hereby authorized and directed to convey, release, quitclaim, and confirm all right, title, and interest of the state of California of, in, and to all that portion of the southeast quarter of section nineteen, township eleven north, range seven (7) east, Mount Diablo meridian, which is not embraced within the exterior boundaries of the lands set apart and heretofore conveyed by the state of California to the Masons and Odd Fellows of Rocklin, Placer County, California, for cemetery purposes, to the respective claimants and occupants thereof, as shown by the official map and field-notes of survey of said lands, made by W. S. Graham, county surveyor of Placer County, California, now on file in the office of the recorder of Placer County, upon making and filing with the surveyor-general proof, by affidavit, setting forth that the applicant was, at the date of said survey, in possession of the portion of said land claimed by him, her, or them, or an actual settler thereon, and upon the payment into the state treasury of the sum of five dollars per acre, or fraction thereof, as shown by said survey and field-notes; provided, that the present occupants and claimants shall be preferred purchasers of the respective lots and parcels of said lands claimed and occupied by them for the space of one year from the passage of this act; and provided further, that all rights of way for all roads, railroads, tracks, and spurs now existing upon or over said lands shall be excepted from the title hereby authorized to be conveyed.

LAND SURVEYORS—LICENSED.

To define the duties of and to license land surveyors.

(Stats. 1891, 478, ch. CCLV.)

§ 1. Every person desiring to become a licensed land surveyor in this state must present to the state surveyor-general of this state a certificate that he is a person of good moral character; also, a certificate signed by three licensed surveyors, or a certificate signed by the board of examining surveyors (provided for in section five of this act), which certificate shall set forth that the person named therein is, in the opinion of the person[s] signing the same, a fit and competent person to receive a license as a land surveyor, together with his oath that he will support the constitution of this state and of the United States, and that he will faithfully discharge the duties of a licensed land surveyor, as defined in this act.

§ 2. Upon receipt of such certificate and oath by the state surveyor-general, it shall be his duty forthwith to issue to such applicant a license, without charge, which license shall set forth the fact that the applicant is a competent surveyor, or that he has had at least two years' experience in the field as a surveyor or assistant surveyor.

§ 3. Such license shall contain the full name of the applicant; the technical institution from which he is a graduate (if he be a graduate), or if he be not a graduate, the fact must be stated in the license; his birthplace, age, and to whom issued; the name of the person upon whose certificate the license is issued, and the date of its issuance.

§ 4. All papers received by the state surveyor-general on application for licenses shall be kept on file in his office, and a proper index and record thereof shall be kept by him, and a list of all licensed land surveyors shall be kept by him, and he shall monthly transmit to the county recorder of each county in this state a full and correct list of all persons so licensed; and it is hereby made the duty of such recorders to keep such lists in their offices in such a way as they may be easily accessible to all persons.

§ 5. Within twenty days after the passage of this act, the governor shall appoint three surveyors in good standing, members of the Technical Society of the Pacific Coast, and two other surveyors in good standing, not members of such society, as a board of examining surveyors, who shall conduct such examinations and make such inquiries as to them may seem necessary to ascertain the qualifications of applicants for surveyors' licenses.

§ 6. A majority of the board of examining surveyors shall meet on the first Friday of each month during their term of office, in the rooms of the Technical Society of the Pacific Coast, in San Francisco, and at such other times and places as they may select. The members of the board shall hold office for the term of one year from the date of appointment, and shall serve without compensation.

§ 7. Every licensed surveyor shall have a seal of office, the impression of which must contain the name of the surveyor, his principal place of business, and the words "Licensed surveyor;" and all maps and papers signed by him, and to which said seal has been attached, shall be prima facie evidence in all the courts of this state.

§ 8. Surveyors' licenses, issued in accordance with this act, shall remain in force until revoked for cause, as hereinafter provided.

§ 9. Every licensed surveyor is authorized to administer and certify oaths, when it becomes necessary to take testimony to identify or establish old or lost corners; or, if a corner or monument be found in a perishable condition, and it appears desirable that evidence concerning such corner or monument be perpetuated; or whenever the importance of the survey makes it desirable, to administer an oath for the faithful performance of duty to his assistants. A record of such oaths shall be preserved as a part of the field-notes of the survey.

§ 10. Every licensed surveyor is hereby authorized to make surveys relating to the sale or subdivision of lands, the retracing or establishing of property or boundary lines, public roads, streets, alleys, or trails; and it shall be the duty of each surveyor, whenever making any such surveys, except those relating to the retracing or subdivision of cemetery or town lots, whether the survey be made for private persons, corporations, cities, or counties, to set permanent and reliable monuments, and such monuments must be permanently marked with the initials of the surveyor setting them.

§ 11. Within sixty days after a survey relating to the sale or subdivision of lands, the retracing or establishing of property and boundary lines, public roads, or trails, original cemetery or town sites, and their subdivisions, has been made by a licensed surveyor, he shall file with the recorder of the county in which such survey or any portion thereof lies, a record of survey. Such record shall be made in a good draftsman-like manner, on one or more sheets of firm paper of the uniform size of twenty-one by thirty inches. This record of survey shall be either an original plat or a copy thereof, and must contain all the data necessary to enable any competent practical surveyor to retrace the survey. The record of survey must show: All permanent monuments set, describing their size, kind, and location with reference to the corners which they are intended to perpetuate, all bearing or witness trees marked in the field; complete outlines of the several tracts or parcels of land surveyed within courses, and lengths of boundary lines; the angles, as measured by Vernier readings, which the lines of blocks or lots, if the record relate to an original town-site survey, make with each other and with the center lines of adjacent streets, alleys, roads, or lanes; the variations of the magnetic needle with which old lines have been retraced; the scale of the map; the date of survey; a proper connection with one or more points of an original or larger tract of land, and the name of the same; the name of the grant or grants, or of the townships and ranges within which the survey is located; the signature and seal of the surveyor; provided, that nothing in this section shall require a record to be made of surveys of a preliminary nature where no monuments or corners are established; provided, further, that if the survey can be as well described in writing, or by a small diagram, or by both, the surveyor shall file with said recorder a record of such a survey, either in writing or by diagram, or by both writing and diagram. Such record shall be on one or more sheets of writing paper, drawing paper, or cloth, of a uniform size of eight by twelve and one half inches, and shall contain all the data as required on the larger record as described above; provided further, that if the survey relate to the retracing of lines of lots or tracts of land of which a map or plat is already on file in said recorder's office, and no changes are made in dimensions or angles, by the resurvey, from those given on said map or plat, the surveyor shall not be required to file a record of such a survey. [Amendment, Stats. 1903, 267.]

§ 12. The record of surveys thus filed with the county recorder of any county must be by him pasted into a stub-book, provided for that purpose, and he must keep a proper index of such records, by name of owner, by name of surveyor, by name of grant, city, or town, and by United States subdivisions; and he shall make no charge for filing and indexing such records of surveys.

§ 13. Upon the failure of any licensed surveyor to comply with the requirements of this act and the furnishing of satisfactory proofs of such fact, the state surveyor-general must revoke his license, and no other license shall be issued to him within one year from such revocation. A violation of section eleven of this act shall be a misdemeanor, and any person convicted of such violation shall be punished by a fine not to exceed more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days.

§ 14. In case said board shall refuse to meet and examine applicants for licenses as in this act provided, and issue to such applicants the certificate or certificates mentioned in this act, if such person be a fit and competent person to receive the same, they may be compelled to do so by mandamus; and if upon the hearing of such mandamus it appears that they have wilfully and wrongfully refused to examine any applicant, or to issue him a certificate when he is entitled to the same, such board so refusing or failing shall be, jointly and severally, liable for all cost of said mandamus proceeding, including attorney's fee of five hundred dollars, and shall be so jointly and severally liable to any person aggrieved by such refusal, in the sum of five hundred dollars, as fixed, settled, and liquidated damages, which may be recovered in any court in this state, and the judgment (if it be for plaintiff) in mandamus shall be prima facie evidence of such injury and damage in any action which may be brought to recover damages under the provisions of this act.

§ 15. All that part of the Code of Civil Procedure of this state relating to mandamus is hereby made applicable to the provisions of this act; and all proceedings in mandamus under this act shall be in accordance therewith.

§ 16. This act shall take effect on the first day of July, eighteen hundred and ninety-one.

LARCENY—REAL PROPERTY.

To more fully define the crime of larceny.

§ 1. Every person who shall convert any manner of real estate, of the value of fifty dollars and upwards, into personal property, by severing the same from the realty of another, with felonious intent to and shall so steal, take, and carry away the same, shall be deemed guilty of grand larceny, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for any term not less than one year nor more than fourteen years.

§ 2. Every person who shall convert any manner of real estate, of the value of under fifty dollars, into personal property, by severing the same from the realty of another, with felonious intent to and shall so steal, take, and carry away the same, shall be deemed guilty of petit larceny, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

The foregoing statute was approved March 16, 1872. See KERR'S CYC. PEN. CODE § 495, which was enacted February 14, 1872, but went into effect January 1, 1873. See next following statute.—People vs. Opie, 123 Cal. 294, 295, 55 Pac. Rep. 989.

LARCENY—FROM MINES.

Supplementary to an act entitled "An act concerning crimes and punishments," passed April sixteenth, eighteen hundred and fifty.

(Stats. 1871-2, 435, ch. CCCXXII.)

§ 1. Every person who shall feloniously steal, take, and carry away, or attempt to take, steal, and carry from any mining claim, tunnel, sluice, undercurrent, riffle-box, or sulphurate machine, any gold dust, amalgam, or quicksilver, the property of another, shall be deemed guilty of grand larceny, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for any term of not less than one year nor more than fourteen years.

LAW LIBRARIES.

To establish law libraries.

§ 1. On the commencement in, or removal to, the superior court of any county in this state of any civil action, proceeding, or appeal, on filing the first papers therein, the party instituting such proceeding, or filing the said first papers, shall pay to the clerk of said court the sum of one dollar as costs, for a fund which shall be designated as the "Law Library Fund," to be expended in the purchase of law books and periodicals, and in the establishment and maintenance of a law library at the county seat of said county, which law library shall be governed and controlled, and said fund be expended by the board of trustees hereinafter provided.

§ 2. All moneys collected as hereinbefore provided shall be paid by said clerk into the hands of the treasurer of his county, who shall keep the same separate and apart in the "Law Library Fund," and shall be drawn therefrom as hereinafter provided, but only to be used and applied to the purposes herein authorized.

§ 3. Any law library established under the provisions of this act shall be governed and managed by the "Board of Law Library Trustees" hereinafter provided.

§ 4. There shall be in every county of this state a board of law library trustees, consisting of five members, to be constituted as follows: In every county where there are only three superior judges, the said judges shall be ex officio such library trustees, the president of the board of supervisors shall be ex officio such a trustee; and the board of supervisors shall appoint a member of the bar of the county to act as such trustee; such appointment shall be made at the first meeting of the board of supervisors after this act is approved, and the appointee shall serve until the first meeting of the board of supervisors in the succeeding January; and the said board shall, at any such meeting in each succeeding January, appoint such a trustee to serve for the term of one year. In every county where there are more than three superior judges, the judges of such county shall elect three of their number to serve as such trustees, and otherwise said board shall be as above provided. In all counties where there are less than three superior judges, the board shall be constituted as above provided, save that the board of supervisors shall appoint sufficient members of the bar to make up the requisite number of trustees.

§ 5. The office of trustee shall be honorary, without salary or other compensation.

§ 6. Such board of trustees, by a majority vote of all their members, to be recorded in the minutes, with the ayes and noes at length, shall have power:

First.—To make and enforce all rules, regulations and by-laws necessary for the administration, government and protection of such library, and all property belonging thereto, or that may be loaned, devised, bequeathed or donated to the same.

Second.—To remove any trustee who may neglect to attend the meetings of the board of trustees, or who may absent himself from such meetings, and fill all vacancies that may from any cause occur in the board.

Third.—To define the powers and prescribe the duties of any and all officers, determine the number, and elect all necessary subordinate officers and assistants, and at their pleasure remove any officer or assistant.

Fourth.—To purchase books, journals, publications, and other personal property.

Fifth.—To order the drawing and payment, upon properly authenticated vouchers, duly certified by the president and secretary, of money from out of the law library fund, for any liability or expenditure herein authorized, and generally to do all that may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

Sixth.—To fix the salaries of the librarian, secretary and other subordinate officers and assistants.

Seventh.—To contract with any existing law library association to make use of its library for the purposes of a public law library, under proper rules and regulations to be prescribed by the board of trustees, either by lease or such other contract as may best carry the purposes of this act into effect.

§ 7. The orders and demands of the trustees of any such public law library, when duly made and authenticated as above provided, shall be verified and audited by the auditing officer, and paid by the treasurer of such county out of the library fund properly belonging thereto, of which full entry and record shall be kept as in other cases.

§ 8. The said board of trustees, on or before the first Monday in December of each year, shall make an annual report to the board of supervisors of their county, giving the condition of their trust, with full statements of all their property and money received, whence derived, how used and expended, the number of books, periodicals, and other publications on hand; the number added by purchase, gift, or otherwise during the year; the number lost or missing, and such other information as might be of interest. A financial report, showing all receipts and disbursements of money, shall also at the same time be made by the secretary of the board of trustees, duly verified by his oath.

§ 9. The board of supervisors of any such county shall provide a library room for the use of such library, whenever such room may be demanded by such board of trustees.

§ 10. The said board of trustees shall meet the first Tuesday of each month, and at such other times as they may appoint, at a place to be appointed for that purpose; and a majority of all their number shall constitute a quorum for business. They shall appoint one of their number as president of their board. They shall elect a secretary, who shall keep a full statement and account of all property, money, receipts and expenditures, and a record and full minutes, in writing, of all their proceedings. They may appoint a librarian. The secretary may certify to such proceedings, or any part or portion thereof, under his hand, verified by an official seal, adopted and provided by the trustees for that purpose.

§ 11. Said library shall be free to the judiciary and county officials of said county, without payment of dues, and free to all inhabitants of said county, upon payment of such dues as may be ordained by said board of trustees, and under such rules and regulations as may be by them provided.

§ 12. The secretary of state is hereby authorized and directed to transmit to the county clerk of each county of the state, for the use of said library, a copy of each and every publication which may hereafter be made by this state, and especially a copy of each report of the decisions of the supreme court, and of the statutes of this state; and also a copy of all such reports and statutes heretofore published.

§ 13. The librarian of the supreme court library is hereby authorized and directed to distribute among the law libraries herein provided for such duplicates of books as may be in state library, and not needed for its own purpose.

§ 14. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed; provided, however, that wherever a law library, and a board of trustees to govern the same, is already provided by law in any county, or city and county, in this state, this act shall not affect such library or board of trustees, or be considered a repeal of any legislation under which such library is established and now governed; and provided further, that it shall be discretionary with the board of supervisors of any county to provide by ordinance for the application of the provisions of this act to such county. And the moneys herein provided to be collected shall not be collected in addition to moneys already by law provided to be collected for law libraries in any county, or city and county, in this state.

§ 14½. Whenever the board of supervisors in any county in this state which shall have adopted the provisions of this act and have established a law library, desire to discontinue such law library, they shall by ordinance so declare their intentions so to do, and shall provide in such ordinance that the books already in the library shall be transferred to and kept in the chambers of the judges of the superior court of such county; and all moneys on hand in the library fund of such county shall be by the same ordinance transferred to the school fund of such county, and the office of the board of trustees of such law library shall be abolished. After such an ordinance shall take effect the county clerk of such county shall not collect the fees provided for in section one of said act. [New section added, Stats. 1895, 46.]

The San Francisco Law Library is provided for by Stats. 1869-70, 235, as amended 1880, 194; and see tit. Libraries, post.

LEGISLATURE OF CALIFORNIA.

To divide the state into legislative districts and to provide for the election of senators and assemblymen.

(Stats. 1901, 535, ch. CLXIV.)

§ 1. The state is hereby divided into forty senatorial districts, respectively numbered and constituted as follows:

1. The counties of Del Norte, Humboldt, Trinity and Tehama shall constitute the first senatorial district.

2. The counties of Modoc, Lassen, Siskiyou and Shasta shall constitute the second senatorial district.

3. The counties of Plumas, Sierra, Nevada and Placer shall constitute the third senatorial district.

4. The counties of Mendocino, Glenn, Colusa and Lake shall constitute the fourth senatorial district.

5. The counties of Napa and Solano shall constitute the fifth senatorial district.

6. The counties of Butte, Yuba, Sutter and Yolo shall constitute the sixth senatorial district.

7. The county of Sacramento shall constitute the seventh senatorial district.

8. The county of Sonoma shall constitute the eighth senatorial district.

9. The counties of Marin and Contra Costa shall constitute the ninth senatorial district.

10. The counties of El Dorado, Amador, Calaveras, Alpine and Mono shall constitute the tenth senatorial district.

11. The county of San Joaquin shall constitute the eleventh senatorial district.

12. The counties of Tuolumne, Mariposa, Madera, Stanislaus and Merced shall constitute the twelfth senatorial district.

13. All that portion of the county of Alameda comprising the townships of Washington, Murray and Eden shall constitute the thirteenth senatorial district.

14. All that portion of the county of Alameda comprising the township of Alameda, all that portion of Brooklyn Township lying outside of the city of Oakland, and all that portion of Brooklyn Township lying within the city of Oakland lying south of East Fourteenth Street shall constitute the fourteenth senatorial district.

15. All that portion of Alameda county comprising all that portion of Brooklyn Township not contained in the fourteenth senatorial district as set forth in this act, and all that further portion of the county of Alameda bounded as follows: Commencing at a point on the western boundary of Brooklyn Township at a point where said boundary line is intersected by Thirteenth Street, thence along the center of the following named streets: Thirteenth to

LEVEE DISTRICTS.

To provide for the formation of levee districts in the various counties of this state, and to provide for the erection of levees, dikes and other works for the purpose of protecting the lands within such districts from overflow and to levy assessments to erect and construct and maintain such levees, dikes and other works and to pay the necessary costs and expenses of maintaining said districts.

§ 1. Whenever the board of supervisors of any county in this state shall receive a petition signed by a majority of the landowners within any portion of said county, accompanied by a deposit sufficient to cover the cost of publication of all notices required by the first two sections of this act, which said portion of said county shall be specifically described and set out by metes and bounds in said petition, asking that said portion of said county be set apart and erected into a levee district for the purpose of protecting the lands embraced in said portion of said county from overflow from any river, stream or streams, or watercourse, the board of supervisors shall pass a resolution signifying its intention to erect and set apart said portion of said county into a levee district, for the purpose of protecting the lands therein from overflow and describing the exterior boundaries of the district of lands embraced therein and to be assessed to pay the damages, costs and expenses thereof. Such resolution shall also contain a notice to be published, which said notice shall be headed "Notice of intention of the board of supervisors to form a levee district." and shall state the fact of the passage of such resolution, with the date thereof, the boundaries of the district, and the statement that it is proposed to assess all properties embraced within such proposed levee district for the purpose of paying the damages, costs and expenses of erecting and repairing dikes, levees and other improvements to protect the said lands from overflow, and the necessary expenses of maintaining the said district and refer to the resolution for further particulars. Such notice to be given by the board of supervisors and signed by its clerk.

§ 2. Such notice shall be published for a period of thirty days in a newspaper published and circulated in said county and designated by said board of supervisors.

§ 3. Any person interested, objecting to the formation of such levee district or to the extent of the district of lands to be affected or benefited by erection or repair of such dikes, levees or other improvements to protect the same from overflow, and to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof, may make written objections to the same within ten days after the expiration of the time of the publication of said notice, which objection shall be delivered to the clerk of said board of supervisors, who shall indorse thereon the date of its reception, by him, and at the next regular meeting of said board of supervisors, or at an adjourned meeting, or a special meeting called for that purpose, after the expiration of said ten days lay such objections before said board of supervisors, said board shall then fix a time for hearing of said objections not less than fifteen days thereafter, and direct its clerk to notify each person objecting of such day fixed for hearing, by depositing a notice thereof in the post-office at the county seat of such county, postage prepaid, addressed to such person objecting, which said notice shall be deposited in the post-office not less than ten days before the day set for hearing.

§ 4. At the time specified or to which the hearing may be adjourned, the board of supervisors shall hear the objections urged and pass upon the same. Such board may, in its discretion, sustain, in whole or in part, any or all of the objections made and filed, and may change or alter the boundaries of such district to conform to the needs of the district, and may in its discretion declare such levee district formed as a subdivision of such county, and shall designate such district by name as the "——— Levee District of ——— County."

§ 5. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the board of supervisors that it is the desire of a majority of the owners of land in such proposed district that the same should be erected into a levee district, and that it is just and proper, they may declare said territory a levee district for the above purposes, and record the same in a book to be kept for that purpose, giving the metes and bounds, and thereafter the board of supervisors shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to purchase or receive by donation, in the name of the district, any real or personal property necessary to properly carry out the purposes of the formation of such district under the same rules as govern the purchase of property in the name of the county; and to do all things necessary for the formation of such district and the erection and repair of dikes, levees and other improvements to protect the lands within such district from overflow.

§ 6. The board of supervisors of such county shall also have power to condemn land for the purposes of erecting dikes, levees, and other improvements for the purpose of protecting the lands embraced in such district from overflow, and for that purpose all of the provisions of part three, title seven, of the Code of Civil Procedure are hereby made applicable to the exercise of the right of eminent domain for such purposes or for any purpose necessary to the needs of such district when formed. If such district is created all expenses incurred in the formation of the same shall be a charge against such district and shall be paid as other claims against such district.

§ 7. Having acquired jurisdiction as provided in the foregoing sections of this act, the board of supervisors shall immediately appoint three commissioners one of whom shall be an engineer, which said commissioners before entering upon the discharge of their duties shall take an oath to faithfully discharge the same, and said commissioners shall proceed to cause a survey of the contemplated improvements in the way of the erection or repair of levees, dikes, and other works for the benefit of the said district, and shall assess all damages which may be done to any land, owner or persons, by reason of the taking of land, property, or otherwise for the erection, or repair of such levees, dikes, or other works, and shall ascertain the names of all persons who waive, or claim, damages for the same. And in the event that said commissioners shall find it necessary to use any levee, or work of protection, which has heretofore been constructed by private enterprise, the said commissioners shall cause the said levee, or other work of protection, to be measured, or appraised and a value placed thereon, and shall ascertain the name of the owner, or owners, of the said levee, or work of protection, and shall assess the same as damages to the owner, or owners. And the said commissioners shall estimate the total cost for all purposes of erecting, constructing or repairing said levees, dikes or other works, and maintaining the same for one year, including all damages awarded and shall thereupon make a report of the foregoing matters to the board of supervisors. The board of supervisors at the next regular meeting after filing of the report of said commissioners, or at the time when the report was filed (if then in session), must fix a day for hearing the same; and must give notice of the time and place of such hearing by publication at least once each week for at least two successive weeks, before such hearing, in a newspaper published and circulated in the county, to be designated by the board. Said notice shall intelligently describe the proposed route or line upon which said levees, dikes, and other works are to be erected, and the names of the owner of lands, or other property, through which the same runs, if known, and if not known, that fact must be stated. The board must, on the day fixed for the hearing, or to which it may be postponed or continued, hear the evidence offered by parties interested for or against the proposed works, and the damages assessed for the same by said commissioners, and must ascertain, and by order declare the amount of damage awarded each owner where such damages are claimed, and declare the report of said commissioners to be adopted or rejected in whole, or in part. Said report so adopted showing the estimated damages, costs and expenses for the erection or repair, of such dikes, levees, and other works, and the maintaining of the same for one year, shall be the basis for the assessment of the lands within the boundaries of said district for such year, and thereupon such commissioners shall be discharged. And the said board of supervisors shall from year to year thereafter, as may be necessary, appoint three commissioners as hereinbefore provided, whose duties shall be the same as hereinbefore set out, and who shall report to the board of supervisors the necessary costs and expenses for the erection or repair, of dikes, levees, and other works, and the cost of maintaining the same for that year, to the board of supervisors, and said report shall be acted upon and adopted by said board in the same manner as hereinbefore set out, and the adoption of such report shall in each instance form the basis of the estimate of the board of supervisors of the amount of money required to be raised by assessment of said lands within such district for such year.

§ 8. The commissioners mentioned in this act, other than the engineer, shall receive for their services the sum of five dollars per day while actually employed, and such engineer shall receive such compensation as may be agreed upon between said engineer and the board of supervisors, and the compensation of such commissioners, and all expenses incurred by them shall be considered as an expense of the work of improvements of said district, and shall be chargeable and payable as are other expenses of such district are paid.

§ 9. The county assessor of such county shall on or before the first day of September of each year after the formation of such district, and at such other times as the board of supervisors shall require, furnish said board of supervisors with a detailed statement showing the names of all owners of land within the boundaries of said district, and the assessed valuation of said land and improvements thereon, as shown on the last preceding assessment made by such assessor on the lands within such district. The word land shall be held to include all railroad beds within the district.

§ 10. At the time when by law it is the duty of the board of supervisors of such county to fix the annual tax rate for such county, the said board of supervisors, taking as a basis the last previous report of the commissioners as hereinbefore specified, and adopted by them, for the amount of moneys necessary to be raised in said district for the purposes thereof for that year, and the valuation of the lands and improvements thereon within such district as furnished them by the county assessor, must levy a tax upon all taxable property in such levee district sufficient to raise the amount set forth in the report as made by said commissioners and adopted by said board of supervisors. The rate of taxation shall be ascertained by deducting fifteen per centum for anticipated delinquencies from the aggregate value of the lands and improvements thereon in said district, as shown by the statement prepared and furnished to the said board of supervisors by the assessor as hereinbefore provided, and then dividing the sum necessary to be raised in said levee district by the remainder of such aggregate assessed value as shown in said statement as furnished by said assessor. The taxes so levied shall be computed and entered on the assessment roll by the county auditor, and collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes; and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the said levee district in which said taxes was levied. And all taxes so levied as hereinbefore provided shall be a lien upon the lands and properties in said district in the manner and with the same effect, and collected in the same way as are state and county taxes.

§ 11. All moneys collected from such district for such taxes, and all moneys received from any source for the benefit of such district shall be by the county treasurer placed in a fund to be called the "——— Levee District Fund;" and all payments of any of the expense of the work of improvements or other expenses of such district shall be made upon warrants drawn by the county auditor upon said fund, and paid by said treasurer, and all claims as well for the land and improvements taken or damages, as for the charges and expenses, shall be paid as are other claims against the county and upon order of the board of supervisors, and the claims shall be itemized in the same manner as are other claims against the county.

§ 12. The board of supervisors of such county shall have the same supervision and the same control, and exercise the same authority, over the affairs and property of such district as are given to the said board of supervisors by law over the property and affairs of the county. No levees, dikes, or other works must be constructed or repaired except on the order of the board of supervisors, and when such repair or construction will exceed the sum of five hundred dollars the same must be repaired or constructed under a contract let after reasonable notice given by the said board of supervisors, by publishing said notice at least once a week for two weeks in a newspaper published and circulated in said county, and designated by said board. All bids shall be sealed; and shall be opened at the time specified in the notice, and the contract awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. The board may, however, reject any and all bids. The contract and bond for its performance must be entered into and approved by the board of supervisors, except, however, in cases of great emergency, by the unanimous consent of the whole board they may proceed at once to replace or repair any and all levees, dikes, or other works of whatever nature, without notice. Prior to the publication of the notice of the letting of any contract for the erection or repair of dikes, levees or other works the board of supervisors must cause to be prepared by a competent engineer, plans, specifications, and working details of such work, which said plans and specifications shall be adopted by the board of supervisors and filed in the office of the clerk of said board, and shall be subject to inspection by any person for at least two weeks prior to the date of the letting of such contract. The board of supervisors must appoint an engineer to superintend the construction, repair or other work to be done under such plans and specifications and no claims shall be allowed for any work done under any contract let under such plans and specifications without a certificate being first filed in the office of the clerk of the board of supervisors signed by said engineer certifying that such work has been completed and constructed according to such plans and specifications, and the terms of the contract; such engineer shall be paid such compensation as may be agreed upon by said board of supervisors and such compensation shall be paid in the same manner as other claims against said district.

§ 13. The board of supervisors shall have power to appoint a superintendent for said district whenever said board of supervisors shall deem such superintendent necessary, to supervise, care for and make necessary repairs of all levees, dikes, and other works of said district under the supervision and direction of said board. The compensation of such superintendent shall not exceed the sum of fifty dollars per month and he shall hold his position subject to the will of said board. Provided, that whenever the said board of supervisors shall deem it necessary the said board shall have power to employ a competent engineer and an attorney or attorneys at such compensation as may be agreed upon, to perform any and all necessary engineering, and legal work for said district. The compensation of such engineer, attorney or attorneys and such superintendent shall be paid the same as other claims against the said district.

§ 14. Whenever said board of supervisors shall consider that the construction or repair of dikes, levees, or other works of said district along or upon any of the county roads of such county, will be for the mutual benefit of such district and such county, then, in that event, the said board of supervisors shall have power, and may contribute to the expense and cost of such work, such sums of money as they may deem proper on behalf of the county, and such moneys shall be paid out of either the general road fund or the special fund of any road district or in which said work is done, and as a majority of said board of supervisors may determine.

§ 15. If at any time in the opinion of the board of supervisors the expenditure of money is absolutely necessary to the welfare of such levee district, and there is no money in the fund of such district to make such necessary expenditures, or the money in such funds is insufficient to make such necessary expenditure[s], then the board of supervisors may advance such money out of the general fund of the county for such purpose, and as soon as there is sufficient money in the fund of such levee district to pay the amount so advanced, the board of supervisors shall direct the county treasurer to transfer to the general fund of the county from the fund of said levee district a sum sufficient to repay the amount so advanced.

§ 16. This act is not intended to supersede or repeal any other act for the construction or maintenance of ditches, levees, dikes, or works of protection, or for drainage or for reclamation purposes, but is intended as an independent and alternative means of constructing and erecting such ditches, levees, dikes, or other works of protection where most applicable or desirable to the parties interested.

LEEVE DISTRICTS—INDEBTEDNESS.

To provide for the funding and refunding of the indebtedness of levee and protection districts.

§ 1. The board of directors or trustees of any levee or protection district having an outstanding indebtedness of not less than twenty thousand dollars, evidenced by bonds or warrants of such districts, by a vote of two thirds of all the members thereof, are empowered, if they deem it for the best interest of such district to fund and refund the same, or any part thereof, and issue bonds of such district therefor, in sums of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars each, having not more than twenty years to run, and bearing a rate of interest not exceeding seven per centum per annum, payable semiannually, which bonds shall be substantially in the following form:

No. ——. (Name of district), in the county of —, state of California, for value received, promises to pay —, or order, at the office of the treasurer of said district, in —, California, on or before the first day of —, 19—, the sum of — dollars, in gold coin of the United States, with interest at the rate of — per centum per annum, payable at the office of said treasurer semiannually, on the first day of — and — in each year, on presentation and surrender of the interest coupons hereto attached. This bond is issued by the board of — of said district in conformity with a resolution of said board, dated the — day of —, eighteen hundred and —, and under authority conferred upon said board by the provisions of an act of the legislature of California, entitled “An act to provide for the funding and refunding of the indebtedness of levee and protection districts,” approved (insert date of approval of the act).

In testimony whereof, the said district, by its board of —, has caused this bond to be signed by the chairman of said board, and attested by the auditor of — county, with his seal of office attached, this — day of —, 19—.

Chairman of said Board.

Attest: —, Auditor of — county.

And the interest coupons shall be in the following form:

The treasurer of (name of district) will pay to the holder hereof, on the — day of —, 1—, at his office in —, — dollars, gold coin, for interest on bond of said district numbered —.

§ 2. Bonds issued under this act shall be numbered consecutively, signed by the chairman of the board of directors, or trustees, as the case may be, and delivered to the auditor of the county in which the levee or protection district is situated, who shall countersign the same and affix thereto his official seal, and shall by him be delivered to the treasurer of the district, who shall deliver to such auditor his receipt therefor, and said treasurer shall stand charged on his official bond with all bonds delivered to him and the proceeds thereof, and he shall sell the same or exchange them under the direction of the board of directors or trustees of such levee or protection district, on the best available terms, for any legal indebtedness of such district, but in neither case for a less sum than the face value of the bonds and all interest accrued thereon at the date of such sale or exchange; and if any portion of such bonds are sold for money, the proceeds thereof shall be applied exclusively to the payment of liabilities existing against the district at the date last above named. When they are exchanged for bonds or warrants or other legal evidences of district indebtedness, the treasurer shall at once cancel such evidences of indebtedness by indorsing thereon the amount for which they were received, the word "Canceled" and the date of cancellation. He shall keep a record of all bonds sold or exchanged by him, by number, date of sale, amount, date of maturity, the name and post-office address of purchasers, and, if exchanged, what evidence of indebtedness was received therefor, which record shall be open at all times for public inspection. No such bonds shall be sold or exchanged for any indebtedness of the district except by the approval of the board of directors or trustees thereof.

§ 3. The board of directors or trustees shall cause to be assessed and levied each year upon the assessable property of the district, in addition to the levy authorized for other purposes, a sufficient sum to pay the interest on outstanding bonds, issued in conformity with the provisions of this act, accruing before the next annual levy, and such proportion of the principal, that at the end of five years the sum raised from such levies shall equal at least twenty per centum of the amount of bonds issued, at the end of nine years at least forty per centum of the amount, and at and before the date of maturity of the bonds shall be equal to the whole amount of the principal, and the money arising from such levies shall be known as the bond fund, and shall be used for the payment of bonds and interest coupons, and for no other purpose whatever; and the treasurer shall open and keep in his books a separate and special account thereof, which at all times shall show the exact condition of said bond fund.

§ 4. Whenever there shall be in the bond fund of such district a surplus of five hundred dollars or more, over and above the interest maturing before the next levy, the treasurer shall give notice for two weeks in one or more newspapers of general circulation, printed and published in the county in which such district is situated, stating the amount of such surplus, and that on the day and hour named in such notice, sealed proposals will be received at his office for the surrender of bonds of the district, and shall at the time and place named open the proposals and accept the lowest bid; provided, that no bid shall be accepted for an amount exceeding the par value of such bonds with accrued interest; if bids are not offered at par, or less, sufficient to exhaust the amount on hand applicable to redemption, the treasurer shall publish for the same time and in the same manner a notice that he will redeem a bond or bonds of said district, giving the number or numbers thereof, and that if not presented for redemption within thirty days after the date of the first publication of such notice, the interest thereon will cease, and the amount due thereon will be set aside for the payment of such bond or bonds whenever presented. If any such bond be not so presented, interest thereon shall cease, and the amount due thereon shall be set aside as specified in said notice. All redemption of bonds other than those voluntarily surrendered shall be made in the exact order of their issuance, beginning with the lowest or first number.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

LEWIS AND CLARK EXPOSITION—APPROPRIATION.

Appropriating money to pay the expenses of maintaining an exhibit of the products of the state of California, at the Lewis and Clark exposition to be held in the city of Portland, Oregon, in nineteen hundred and five, and to provide for a commissioner thereof.

(Stats. 1903, 207, ch. CLXXXVII.)

§ 1. The governor of the state of California is hereby appointed a commissioner, to be known as the Lewis and Clark exposition commissioner, and he shall have exclusive charge and control thereof, with power to appoint all necessary persons for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, and the expenditure of all moneys herein appropriated by the state of California for the construction of buildings and maintaining an exhibit of the products of the state of California, at the Lewis and Clark exposition to be held in the city of Portland, state of Oregon, in the year nineteen hundred and five.

§ 2. The governor of the state of California shall receive no compensation for his services, but he shall have the power to employ suitable persons, and upon such terms as he shall deem just and equitable, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act.

§ 3. The sum of twenty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to meet the expenses of erecting buildings, and collecting and maintaining an exhibit of the products of the state of California at the Lewis and Clark exposition to be held in the city of Portland, state of Oregon, in the year nineteen hundred and five, and the controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant on the general fund from time to time for such portion of twenty thousand dollars, and in favor of such persons, as the governor of the state of California, such commissioner hereinabove referred to, shall direct, and the state treasurer is directed and empowered to pay the same.

§ 4. It shall be the duty of all public institutions in the state of California to assist the said commissioner in every possible way by loaning him such material in their possession as will add to the attractive features of the state exhibit.

§ 5. This act is exempt from the provisions of section six hundred and seventy-two of the Political Code of the state of California.

§ 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July first, nineteen hundred and four.

LEWIS AND CLARK EXPOSITION—APPROPRIATION.

Making an additional appropriation to pay the expenses of maintaining an exhibit of the products of the state of California, at the Lewis and Clark exposition to be held in the city of Portland, Oregon, in nineteen hundred and five.

(Stats. 1905, 3, ch. V.)

§ 1. In addition to the appropriation heretofore made in an act of the legislature entitled "An act appropriating money to pay the expenses of maintaining an exhibit of the products of the state of California, at the Lewis and Clark exposition to be held in the city of Portland, Oregon, nineteen hundred and five, and to provide for a commissioner thereof," approved March eighteenth, nineteen hundred and three, there is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) to meet the expenses of erecting buildings, and collecting and maintaining an exhibit of the products of the state of California at the Lewis and Clark exposition to be held in the city of Portland, Oregon, in the year nineteen hundred and five, and the controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant on the general fund from time to time for such portion of said seventy thousand dollars and in favor of such persons, as the governor of the state of California, the commissioner named in said above-mentioned act, shall direct, and the state treasurer is directed and empowered to pay the same.

§ 2. This act is exempt from the provisions of section six hundred and seventy-two of the Political Code of the state of California.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on and after its passage.

LEXINGTON.

See tits. El Monte; Municipal Corporations.

LIBEL AND SLANDER.

Concerning actions for libel and slander:

(Stats. 1871-2, 533, ch. CCCLXXVII.)

§ 1. In an action for libel or slander the clerk shall, before issuing the summons therein, require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff in the sum of five hundred (500) dollars, with at least two competent and sufficient sureties, specifying their occupations and residences, to the effect that if the action be dismissed or the defendant recover judgment, that they will pay such costs and charges as may be awarded against the plaintiff by judgment, or in the progress of the action, or on appeal, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking. An action brought without filing the undertaking required shall be dismissed.

§ 2. Each of the sureties on the undertaking mentioned in the first section shall annex to the same an affidavit that he is a resident and householder or freeholder within the county, and is worth double the amount specified in the undertaking over and above all his just debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution.

§ 3. Within ten days after the service of the summons the defendants, or either of them, may give to the plaintiff or his attorney notice that they or he except to the sureties and require their justification before a judge of the court at a specified time and place, the time to be not less than five nor more than ten days thereafter, except by consent of parties. The qualifications of the sureties shall be as required in their affidavits. [Amendment, Stats. 1880, 81.]

§ 4. For the purpose of justification, each of the sureties shall attend before the judge at the time and place mentioned in the notice, and may be examined on oath touching his sufficiency in such manner as the judge in his discretion shall think proper. The examination shall be reduced to writing if either party desires it.

§ 5. If the judge finds the undertaking sufficient, he shall annex the examination to the undertaking, and indorse his approval thereon. If the sureties fail to appear, or the judge finds the sureties or either of them insufficient, he shall order a new undertaking to be given. The judge may also at any time order a new or additional undertaking upon proof that the sureties have become insufficient. In case a new or additional undertaking is ordered, all proceedings in the case shall be stayed until such undertaking is executed and filed, with the approval of the judge.

§ 6. If the undertaking as required be not filed in five days after the order therefor, the judge or court shall order the action to be dismissed.

§ 7. In case plaintiff recovers judgment, he shall be allowed as costs one hundred (100) dollars, to cover counsel fees, in addition to the other costs. In case the action is dismissed, or the defendant recover judgment, he shall be allowed one hundred (100) dollars, to cover counsel fees, in addition to the other costs, and judgment therefor shall be entered accordingly.

LIBRARIES—ESTABLISHMENT OF.

To provide for the establishment and maintenance of public libraries within municipalities.

(Stats. 1901, 557, ch. CLXX; amended 1905, 296, ch. CCXCII.)

§ 1. The common council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of any incorporated city or town in the state of California, may, and upon being requested to do so by one fourth of the electors of such municipal corporation in the manner hereinafter provided, must, by ordinance, establish in and for said municipality a public library; provided, there be none already established therein.

§ 2. The request referred to in the preceding section may be by a single petition, or by several petitions; provided, that such several petitions be substantially in the same form, and that such single petition has, or such several petitions in the aggregate have, the signatures of the requisite number of electors.

§ 3. Such public library shall be managed by a board designated as the board of library trustees, consisting of five members, to be appointed by the mayor, president of the board of trustees or other executive head of the municipality, by and with the consent of the legislative body of said municipality. Such trustees shall severally hold office for three years, serving without compensation; provided, that the members of the first board appointed shall so classify themselves by lot that one of their number shall go out of office at the end of the current fiscal year, two at the end of one year thereafter, and the other two at the end of two years thereafter. Men and women shall be equally eligible to such appointment, and vacancies shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term in the same manner.

§ 4. Boards of library trustees shall meet at least once a month at such times and places as they may fix by resolution. Special meetings may be called at any time by three trustees, by written notice served upon each member at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Such boards shall appoint one of their number president, who shall serve for one year and until his successor is appointed, and in his absence shall select a president pro tempore. Such boards shall cause a proper record of their proceedings to be kept and at the first meeting of the board of trustees of any library formed under the provisions of this act, it must immediately upon organization cause to be made out and filed with the state librarian at Sacramento, a certificate showing that such library has been established, with the date thereof, the names of the trustees and of the officers of the board chosen for the first year. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 296.]

§ 5. Boards of library trustees shall have power:

First—To make and enforce all rules, regulations and by-laws necessary for the administration, government and protection of the libraries under their management, and all property belonging thereto.

Second—To administer any trust declared or created for such libraries, and receive by gift, devise, or bequest and hold in trust or otherwise, property situated in this state or elsewhere, and where not otherwise provided, dispose of the same for the benefit of such libraries.

Third—To prescribe the duties and powers of the librarian, secretary and other officers and employees of any such libraries; to determine the number of and appoint all such officers and employees, and fix their compensation, which said officers and employees shall hold their offices or positions at the pleasure of said boards.

Fourth—To purchase necessary books, journals, publications and other personal property.

Fifth—To purchase such real property, and erect or rent and equip, such building or buildings, room or rooms, as may be necessary, when in their judgment a suitable building, or portion thereof, has not been provided by the legislative body of the municipality for such libraries.

Sixth—To require the secretary of state and other state officials to furnish such libraries with copies of any and all reports, laws and other publications of the state not otherwise disposed of by law.

Seventh—To borrow books from, lend books to and exchange the same with other libraries, and to allow non-residents to borrow books upon such conditions as they may prescribe.

Eighth—To do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this act.

§ 6. Boards of library trustees shall, on or before the last day of July in each year, make a report to the legislative body of their municipality, giving the condition of the library on the thirtieth day of June preceding, together with a statement of their proceedings for the year then ended, and must immediately upon the publication of such report, forward a copy thereof for filing to the state library at Sacramento. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 296.]

§ 7. The legislative body of any municipality in which a public library has been established in accordance with this act, shall in making the annual tax levy and as part thereof, if the maintenance of the library has not been otherwise provided for, levy a tax for the purpose of maintaining such library and purchasing property necessary therefor, which tax shall be in addition to other taxes, the levy of which is permitted in the municipality; provided, that after two years from the passage of this act as to existing libraries and after two years from the establishment of new libraries thereunder, where a maintenance corresponding thereto has not been otherwise provided, in municipalities of the first, second and third classes, such tax levy shall not exceed one mill on the dollar of assessed valuation, and in municipalities of the fourth, fifth, and sixth classes such levy shall not exceed two mills on the dollar of assessed valuation.

§ 8. The revenue derived from said tax, together with all money acquired by gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise, for the purposes of the library, shall be apportioned to a fund to be designated the library fund, and be applied to the purposes herein authorized. If such payment into the treasury should be inconsistent with the conditions or terms of any such gift, devise, [or] bequest, the board shall provide for the safety and preservation of the same, and the application thereof to the use of the library, in accordance with the terms and conditions of such gift, devise or bequest. Payments from said fund shall be made in the manner provided for the payment of other demands against the municipality; provided, that demands upon said fund shall be presented to the board of library trustees for allowance rather than to the legislative or other body of the municipality.

§ 9. Every library established under this act shall be forever free to the inhabitants and non-resident taxpayers of the municipality, subject always to such rules, regulations and by-laws as may be made by boards of library trustees; and provided, that for violations of the same a person may be fined or excluded from the privileges of the library.

§ 10. Boards of library trustees and the legislative bodies of neighboring municipalities or boards of supervisors of the counties in which public libraries are situated, may contract for lending the books of such libraries to residents of such counties or neighboring municipalities, upon a reasonable compensation to be paid by such counties or neighboring municipalities.

§ 11. The title to all property acquired for the purposes of such libraries, when not inconsistent with the terms of its acquisition, or otherwise designated, shall vest in the municipalities in which such libraries are, or are to be, situated, and in the name of the municipal corporations may be sued for and defended by action at law or otherwise.

§ 12. An act entitled "An act to establish free public libraries and reading rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, is hereby repealed; provided, that, as to existing libraries this act is to be deemed a continuation thereof, and such libraries shall be governed hereby accordingly; provided, however, that this act shall have no application to any library established or governed by the provisions of a city charter, and the provisions of any city charter shall in no manner be affected by this act.

§ 13. Any ordinance establishing a library adopted under the provisions of section one of this act may be repealed by the body which adopted the same upon being requested to do so by one fourth of the electors of such municipal corporation, in the manner provided in section two of this act, and upon the repeal of such ordinance such library shall be disestablished in such municipal corporation.

LICENSE TAX—BICYCLES, ETC.

To authorize counties, cities and counties, and incorporated towns, and chartered or incorporated cities, to license bicycles, tricycles, and similar vehicles, and collect a fee therefor, for the purpose of devoting such fee to the construction of paths along country roads for the use of pedestrians, and the wheeling thereon of such vehicles.

[Became a law under constitutional provision without governor's approval, March 16, 1901; Stats. 1901, 324.]

§ 1. Counties, cities and counties, chartered or incorporated cities and towns in the state of California, are hereby, through the governing bodies thereof, authorized and permitted to license the use of bicycles, tricycles, automobile carriages and carts, and similar wheeled vehicles propelled by the power of the rider, or by motor under control of the rider, owned, rented, and used within the several jurisdictions above named; provided, that such license shall be granted and issued only on payment of a fee not to exceed one dollar a year for each of such vehicles; and further provided, that the money so collected shall be appropriated and used only for the purpose of constructing and maintaining paths and walkways for the use of pedestrians, and the wheeling of the above-named vehicles; and provided also, that the sum of the taxes paid to the state, county, town, or municipality, upon any vehicle the use of which is hereby authorized to be licensed, shall be deducted from the amount of the license fee hereby authorized, and credited upon the license; it being the intention that any license fee hereby authorized shall be collected in such less sum as is represented by the subtraction of the personal property tax from the sum of the license fee fixed by such ordinance.

§ 2. When an ordinance establishing such license and fixing such license fee is passed, the fee shall be collected and the license issued in the manner and by the officer or officers provided for the issuance and collection of other licenses, and the governing body of such jurisdictions named in section one of this act may devise such label, tag, or certificate as is deemed necessary to be witness of the possession of such license, and the payment of such fee; provided, that no license shall be required for any vehicle so named in this act as is in the possession of a merchant, manufacturer, or dealer, for the purposes of sale or barter, and not for use by the owner or his or her agent, or by persons to whom such vehicles are rented for use, by the hour, the day, the week, or other period of time.

§ 3. It shall be lawful for such governing bodies to provide in such ordinance or ordinances for the enforcement of penalties for the violation thereof, or for failure or refusal to take such license, or pay such license fee; provided, that no penalty shall exceed the sum of the said license fee, with the costs of collection and prosecution under the ordinance added thereto; nor shall any judgment of imprisonment exceed a period of twenty-four hours for violation of said ordinance.

§ 4. It shall be lawful to provide in any such ordinance authorized by this act, for the application of the money collected to the construction and maintenance of such paths, by said towns or cities, or consolidated cities and counties, without the limits of such town and municipal jurisdictions, but within the county, by and with the consent of the board of supervisors of such county.

§ 5. No municipal or town authority in this act referred to shall have authority by ordinance or otherwise to license any such vehicle for use as is in this act referred to, except the same is owned by a resident of such municipal or town jurisdiction, or is used by a resident of such jurisdiction; nor shall any county, by ordinance or otherwise, lay such license upon the use of any such vehicle named in this act, or require a license fee therefor, except the same is owned or used by a resident of the county without the boundaries of town or municipal jurisdictions in the county; provided, that if any town or municipal authority authorized under this act does not provide for such ordinance of license and fee as is permitted by this act, then, and in that case, the governing body of the county may by ordinance provide for the license herein provided for and permitted, and the collection of the fee authorized by this act, so as to make the same applicable to the residents of such town or municipality. But in no case shall any license or fee be required of travelers in counties other than that of their residence, nor from tourists, or visitors, or temporary residents of any city, town, city and county, or county.

§ 6. All costs and charges for licenses herein provided for, for tags, or visible evidences of issuance and possession of license, for receipts for payment of the license fee, and other necessary and inseparable expense related to such licenses, shall be paid from the sum of such collections of fees; provided, that no additional salary or fee shall be paid to any officer of any county, or town, or city, or city and county, for services in issuing or delivering licenses provided for by this act, or for collecting the fees therefor, authorized and provided for in this act.

§ 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

LICENSE TAX—FERRY, BRIDGE.

To enforce the collection of license taxes.

(Stats. 1871-2, 539, ch. CCCLXXXIV.)

§ 1. Whenever any person who is required by law to pay a ferry or bridge license tax neglects to pay the same for the period of thirty days after the same is due or payable, the collector of such taxes must notify the district attorney thereof, who must at once institute proceedings against such person.

§ 2. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

LICENSE TAX—ITINERANT VENDORS.

Imposing a license tax upon itinerant vendors of drugs, nostrums, ointments, or appliances sold for the cure of disease, injuries, or deformities.

(Stats. 1903, 284, ch. CCXXXIII.)

§ 1. No person, as principal or agent, shall conduct as an itinerant vendor the business of selling drugs, nostrums, ointments, or any appliances for the treatment of disease, deformities, or injuries, within this state, without previously obtaining a license therefor as herein provided.

§ 2. An annual license fee of two hundred dollars is hereby levied upon all such itinerant vendors doing business in this state. Said tax shall be paid to the state board of pharmacy, for the use and benefit of the state of California, and shall constitute a special fund for the payment of the expense of said board of pharmacy, and for the enforcement of this act, and of the provisions of the act or acts creating such board of pharmacy. Upon the receipt of said sum from any persons desiring to conduct such business within this state, the secretary of said board of pharmacy shall issue a license to such person to carry on such business within this state until the first day of July, next ensuing; provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the collection of any tax that may be imposed by any county or municipal authorities; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall prevent manufacturing pharmaceutical firms from placing their products on the market through their agents and managers subject to the provisions of section three of this act.

§ 3. Itinerant vendors under the meaning of this act shall include all persons who carry on the business above described by passing from house to house, or by haranguing the people on the public streets or in public places, or use the various customary devices for attracting crowds and therewith recommending their wares, and offering them for sale.

§ 4. Said board of pharmacy shall on the first day of July of each year make a verified and itemized statement in writing to the controller of this state, of all receipts and disbursements of money coming into their hands by reason of this act.

§ 5. Any person violating any of the provisions of this act, who shall without such license, sell or offer for sale any of the above described drugs, nostrums, ointments, or appliances, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and for such breach of this act upon conviction therefor, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than fifty days or more than one hundred and twenty days, or both such fine and imprisonment. All fines recovered under this act shall be paid by the magistrate receiving the same, to the state board of pharmacy, and by said board placed in the special fund created by section two of this act.

§ 6. In all actions or prosecutions under this act it need not be alleged in the complaint nor proved by the prosecution that the defendant has not a license as required in this act, but the fact that he has such license may be pleaded as a matter of defense.

§ 7. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with this act [are] hereby repealed, in and so far as they conflict.

§ 8. This act shall take effect and be in force sixty days after its passage.

See § 25, subd. 25, County Government Act, exempting ex-Union soldiers and marines.

LICENSE TAX—SHEEP.

Restricting the powers of boards of supervisors in the matter of imposing licenses upon the business of raising, herding, grazing, and pasturing sheep.

(Stats. 1903, 41, ch. XL.)

§ 1. No license or licenses greater than five cents per head shall be imposed by the board of supervisors of any county on the business of raising, herding or pasturing sheep, and any and all licenses imposed by the board of supervisors of any county on the business of raising, herding or pasturing sheep, in excess of five cents per head, shall be and are hereby declared invalid; provided, the provisions of this act shall not apply to any license tax the validity of which is involved in any suit now pending, or to any such license tax due when this act takes effect.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

LIENS—AGISTORS—LABORERS, LOGGERS.

It was held in Johnson vs. Perry, 53 Cal. 351-353, that the statute of 1869-70, 723, ch. CCCCXVI, relating to liens for pasture or feed of animals, was not repealed by § 3051, Civil Code. Such contention is doubtless settled by later amendments of the code section (Stats. 1901, 270).

Various Liens.—Liens of agistors, Stats. 1891, 90, ch. LXXXVI; liens for labor with threshing machines, Stats. 1885, 109, ch. CXXV; liens of loggers and laborers in logging-camps (Stats. 1877-8, 747, ch. CCCCLXXXIV, amended in 1880, 38, and 1887, 53) are evidently designed to be codified in and superseded by Stats. 1905, ch. CDLXI, adding five new sections to the Civil Code, to wit, §§ 3061-3065, inclusive, and those statutes are therefore omitted here.

LODGING-HOUSES—CUBIC AIR.

Concerning lodging-houses and sleeping apartments within the limits of incorporated cities.

(Stats. 1875-6, 759, ch. CCCCXCVI.)

§ 1. Every person who owns, leases, lets, or hires, to any person, or persons, any room or apartment in any building, house, or other structure within the limits of any incorporated city, or city and county, within the state of California, for the purpose of a lodging or sleeping apartment, which room or apartment contains less than five hundred cubic feet of space, in the clear, for each person so occupying such room or apartment, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty (50) dollars or more than five hundred (500) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail, or by both such fine or [and] imprisonment.

§ 2. Any person or persons found sleeping or lodging, or who hires or uses for the purpose of sleeping in or lodging in any room or apartment which contains less than five hundred (500) cubic feet of space, in the clear, for each person so occupying such room or apartment, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than ten (10) or more than fifty (50) dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 3. It shall be the duty of the chief of police (or such other person to whom the police powers of a city are delegated) to detail a competent and qualified officer or officers of the regular force to examine into any violation of any of the provisions of this act, and to arrest any person guilty of any such violation.

§ 4. The provisions of this act shall not be construed to apply to hospitals, jails, prisons, insane asylums, or other public institutions.

§ 5. All acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

§ 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Sections 1 and 2 of the statute have been carried into the Penal Code by Stats. 1905, 77.—See KERR'S CYC. PEN. CODE § 401a.

LOGGING-CAMPS—LUNCH HOUR.

To provide for a lunch hour for laborers in sawmills, shake-mills, shingle-mills, and logging-camps.

(Stats. 1901, 75, ch. LX.)

§ 1. Every person, corporation, copartnership, or company operating a sawmill, shake-mill, shingle-mill, or logging-camp, in the state of California, shall allow to his or its employees, workmen, and laborers a period of not less than one hour at noon for the midday meal.

§ 2. Any person, corporation, copartnership, or company, his or its agents, servants, or managers, violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars nor less than one hundred dollars for each violation of the provisions of this act.

§ 3. This act shall take effect and be in force on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and one.

For scale for measurement of logs, see next succeeding statute.

LOGS—SCALE FOR MEASURING.

To establish a scale for the measurement of logs.

(Stats. 1877-8, 604, ch. CCCCXV; amended 1880, 119, ch. CVIII.)

§ 1. There shall be but one standard for the measurement of logs throughout this state.

§ 2. The following table, known as Spaulding's Table for the Measurement of Logs, is hereby made the standard and table for the measurement of logs throughout this state, to wit:

MAD RIVER.

To improve the stream known as Mad River, and its north fork in Humboldt County, and to facilitate the driving of logs therein.

(Stats. 1877-8, 788, ch. DX.)

§ 1. H. G. Vance, Nelson Young, and R. Gross, their associates, assigns, and successors in interest, are hereby authorized to construct and maintain such side booms, wing dams, rolling dams, driving dams, shear boom, and other structures, in Mad River and its north fork, as may be necessary to facilitate the running and driving of logs therein, and to blast rock, remove sunken logs, driftwood, trees, and other debris, and to improve the bed of said stream and its said north fork, so far as the same may be necessary for the purposes above mentioned, for the term of twenty years.

§ 2. Said persons, their successors and assigns, shall use all reasonable exertions, drive all logs and other timber coming into said stream or its said fork into the booms of the Mad River Boom and Land Company with promptness and dispatch; and as compensation therefor, and for the expense incurred in the improvement of said stream and its said fork, they are hereby authorized to charge and collect, upon all logs and other lumber so driven by them from abreast of and above their said works, such tolls as shall be fixed and regulated by the board of supervisors of Humboldt County, and such tolls shall be a lien upon all such logs and other lumber, after they have been secured in the booms of said Mad River Boom and Land Company.

§ 3. All persons are hereby prohibited from placing or causing to be placed in said stream or its said north fork, any log that will not float, or other obstruction to navigation. Any person violating the provisions of this section may be notified, in writing, to remove such obstruction by any person damaged thereby; and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, for the space of five days, it shall be lawful for such person or persons so damaged by such obstruction to remove the same, and the reasonable expense thereof, together with all damages caused by such obstruction, shall be a charge against the person or persons so neglecting, and the same may be collected as other debts are collected in this state.

§ 4. All persons are hereby prohibited from placing or causing to be placed in said stream or its said fork, any log more than seven feet in diameter, and in case of a violation of the provisions of this section, such log may be split by the parties herein first above named, and the reasonable expense thereof may be added to the tolls due on such log, and shall become a part of such tolls.

§ 5. No person shall construct or cause to be constructed any landing to be used by him, or so use the same as to obstruct said stream or its said fork, or the navigation thereof; and in case of a violation of the provisions of this section, the parties herein first named are authorized to remove such obstruction (if the same is not promptly done by the person or persons causing the same), and the reasonable expense thereof, together with all damages caused by such obstruction to the parties herein first named, may be collected by law from the owner or owners of such landing.

§ 6. The parties herein first named shall commence work upon the improvements herein authorized within three months from the date of the passage of this act, and shall prosecute the same with reasonable diligence until completed.

MADERA COUNTY.

To create the county of Madera, to define the boundaries thereof, to determine the county seat, and to provide for its organization and election of officers, and to classify said county.

(Stats. 1893, 168, ch. CXLIII.)

§ 1. There may be formed out of the northern part of Fresno county a new county, to be called the county of Madera, in the manner and subject to the conditions herein named.

§ 2. The boundaries of the county of Madera shall be as follows: Beginning at a point where the third standard line south of Mount Diablo base line crosses the San Joaquin River; thence up the middle of said river, following the meanderings thereof southeasterly and northeasterly [northwesterly], to the point where said river crosses the south boundary line of township six south, of range twenty-four east, Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence running northeast to the boundary line of Mono County; thence following the line now established between Mono County and the county of Fresno, westerly, to the corner common to the counties of Tuolumne, Mariposa, and Fresno; thence following the line now established between the counties of Mariposa and Fresno, to the southeast corner of the county of Merced; thence westerly, following the line now established between the county of Merced and the county of Fresno, to a point where said line is intersected by the San Joaquin River; thence following up the middle of said river to the point of beginning.

§ 3. The county seat of the county of Madera shall be chosen as herein-after provided.

§ 4. The governor shall, when this act takes effect, appoint five persons, residents and electors of the county of Madera, who shall be and constitute a board of commissioners to perfect the organization of said county, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum. Said commissioners shall meet in the town of Madera within twenty days after their appointment, and after being duly sworn to faithfully discharge their duties, as prescribed in this act, shall organize by electing one of their number president, and shall elect a clerk, who shall also be duly sworn to faithfully discharge his duties as clerk of said board of commissioners. Three of the members of said board shall be necessary to transact any business, and a majority of the votes of the members present at any meeting shall control in all matters coming before it. It shall be the duty of said board of commissioners, after they shall have duly organized, at their first meeting, to divide the county of Madera into five supervisor districts, as nearly equal in population as may be practicable, and shall designate the boundaries and number of each, and shall establish and designate the several election precincts in said county, and the house or place in each precinct where the election hereinafter provided for must be held. Said commissioners, and the clerk elected by them, are hereby authorized and required to discharge the same duties as are now required by law of boards of supervisors and county clerks in the counties of this state, so far as the same apply to holding elections, canvassing returns, and issuing certificates of election. They shall keep a full record of their proceedings, transmitting to the secretary of state a certified copy thereof, filing the originals with the original election returns in the county clerk's office as soon as he shall have been qualified, and thereupon the powers and duties of said commissioners shall cease and terminate.

§ 5. Within six months from the time of the first meeting of the commissioners hereinbefore provided for, said commissioners shall order an election, to be held in said county of Madera. There shall be chosen at said election a judge of the superior court, a district attorney, a county clerk, a sheriff, a tax collector, a treasurer, a recorder, an auditor, an assessor, a superintendent of schools, a county surveyor, a coroner, a public administrator, and one supervisor for each supervisor district. At said election there shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said county of Madera, as hereinafter described, the question whether they desire a separate county government; and for the purpose of ascertaining the choice of said electors, the ballots used at said election shall have printed thereon the words "For the new county of Madera—Yes," "For the new county of Madera—No;" and all ballots on which a cross is marked with a stamp after the words "For the new county of Madera—Yes," shall be counted in favor of such county separate government; and all ballots on which a cross is marked with a stamp after the words "For the new county of Madera—No," shall be counted against such separate county government. At said election shall also be submitted to the qualified electors the location of a county seat of said county, and upon a petition of not less than five per centum of the qualified electors of said county of Madera, asking that any town or locality be voted on for county seat, it shall be the duty of the board of commissioners to place upon the ballots used at the election herein provided for, after the words "For county seat," the name of the town or locality petitioned for, and a cross mark with a stamp after the name of any town or locality shall be counted as a vote in favor of such town or locality, and the place receiving the highest number of votes therefor shall be declared by the commissioners the county seat of said county. Said election shall be conducted in every respect, except as otherwise herein provided, in accordance with the general election law for the election of county and township officers.

§ 6. All qualified electors of this state, who have been residents and electors of the territory comprising the county of Madera for ninety days preceding the election provided for in section five of this act, shall be qualified to vote at said election. The register of Fresno County, used at the general election held in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, in the territory comprising the county of Madera, shall be prima facie evidence of the qualification of electors. The county clerk of Fresno county is hereby directed to furnish the commissioners of Madera a certificate, under seal, showing the additional names of voters on the great register of Fresno County, registered as residing in the territory of the county of Madera since the last great register of Fresno County was printed; and the certificate of the county clerk of Fresno County, under seal, showing the registration of any qualified voter who resides in the territory forming the county of Madera, up to the date of election, shall entitle the holder thereof, if otherwise qualified by law, to vote at said election.

§ 7. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to furnish to the clerk of said board of commissioners the quantity of ballot paper ordered by said clerk, for use at the election provided for in this act, upon payment by said clerk of the cost of such paper.

§ 8. If at said election a majority of two thirds of the votes cast on the question of separate county government shall be in favor of such separate county government, then the said territory hereinabove described shall be and become a separate county from and after the day upon which the returns of said election shall be ascertained and declared by said board of commissioners. But if at such election less than a majority of two thirds of the qualified electors, voting for and against the creation of the proposed county, vote for the creation of said county, then this act shall cease to be of any force or effect.

§ 9. Sealed returns from the officers of election of the several precincts shall be made to the board of commissioners, at such office as they shall select in the town of Madera, within six days after the day of election.

§ 10. Each person elected to fill an office of said county under the provisions of this act shall qualify in the manner provided by law for such officers, and shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office within twenty days after the receipt of the certificate of his election. The person elected as judge of the superior court shall qualify before the president of said board of commissioners; and persons elected to offices of said county, other than the office of judge of the superior court, shall qualify before the judge of the superior court, or before the president of said board of commissioners, which said president of said board of commissioners, for said purpose, shall have power to administer to each of said persons his official oath.

§ 11. The officers elected or appointed under the provisions of this act shall each perform the duties and receive the compensation now provided by general law for the office to which he has been appointed or elected, in counties of the class to which the county of Madera belongs, under the general classification of counties in this state; and until otherwise provided by law, said county shall be classified as a county of the forty-second class.

§ 12. All duly elected and qualified supervisors of Fresno county, who, at the taking effect of this act, are residents of the county of Madera, shall hold their offices for the time provided by law, upon having duly qualified as supervisors of the county of Madera, for the respective districts in which they reside, as said districts are organized by action of the board of commissioners provided for in this act. All justices of the peace and all constables, duly elected and qualified, residents of the county of Madera at the taking effect of this act, shall hold their offices for the terms provided by law, upon having duly qualified as justices and constables of the county of Madera, for the respective townships in which they reside. All school trustees, acting as such at the time of the taking effect of this act, residents of the county of Madera, shall hold their offices for the time provided by law, upon having duly qualified as such for the respective school districts in which they severally reside, as such districts are now organized.

§ 13. The notaries public of Fresno County, residents of the county of Madera at the dates of their appointments, shall hold their offices until the expiration of their terms.

§ 14. The judge of the superior court chosen under the provisions of this act shall hold his office until the first Monday in January, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and until his successor is elected and qualified. The assessor and supervisors elected under the provisions of this act shall hold their offices until the first Monday in January, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, or until their successors are elected and qualified. The other officers, hereinbefore enumerated, shall hold their offices until the first Monday in January, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, or until their successors are elected and qualified. The successors of the officers elected under this act shall be chosen at the general election established by law, which takes place next preceding the expiration of their respective terms of office.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the tax collector of the county of Fresno, upon the demand of the tax collector of the county of Madera, to furnish, assign, and transfer to the tax collector of the county of Madera, a complete list of all unpaid taxes assessed and levied, during the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, on property within the boundaries of the county of Madera. The tax collector of the county of Fresno shall file a duplicate list of such unpaid taxes assessed within the boundaries of the county of Madera with the county auditor of Fresno County. The tax collector of the county of Madera shall give to the tax collector of the county of Fresno a receipt for said list of unpaid taxes, and shall file a duplicate list with the auditor of the county of Madera, and thereupon all such unpaid taxes shall become payable to the tax collector of the county of Madera, and he is hereby authorized to collect and receipt for the same.

§ 16. The superintendent of schools of the county of Fresno shall furnish the superintendent of schools of the county of Madera with a certified copy of the last school census list of the different school districts in the territory set apart to form the county of Madera, and draw his warrants on the treasurer of Fresno County in favor of the superintendent of schools of the county of Madera for all money that is or may be due, by apportionment or otherwise, to the different school districts of the county of Madera; and the auditor of the county of Fresno shall, in like manner, draw his warrant in favor of the auditor of the county of Madera for all money that is or may be due, by apportionment or otherwise, to the different road district funds in the territory set apart to form the county of Madera; and said funds shall be properly credited to the respective districts in said county.

§ 17. The county of Madera shall be comprised in the sixty-second and sixty-third assembly districts, and in the sixteenth senatorial district, as now established, until otherwise provided by law.

§ 18. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval.

MARSHALL MONUMENT.

To provide for the appointment of a guardian for the Marshall monument and grounds, prescribing his duties and appropriating money therefor.

(Stats. 1891, 424, ch. CCXIX.)

§ 1. The care and protection of the Marshall monument and grounds from vandalism and injury is hereby vested in the governor of California, who shall, within thirty days after the passage of this act, appoint a suitable person who shall act as the guardian of the said monument and grounds, under such rules and regulations as the governor shall prescribe.

§ 2. The duties of the guardian shall be to take charge of the said monument and grounds, and to preserve and protect the same from injury and vandalism; to keep in proper repair the road leading to said monument, over the grounds belonging to the state, and to improve said grounds under such rules and regulations as the governor may prescribe. The said guardian shall reside upon said Marshall monument grounds, or within one mile of the same; he shall hold office at the pleasure of the appointing power, and may be removed by the governor at any time for cause, after due trial.

§ 3. The guardian shall receive for his services fifty dollars per month, payable from the state treasury, in the same manner as other state officers are paid.

MEDICINE—PRACTICE OF.

For the regulation of the practice of medicine and surgery in the state of California, and for the appointment of a board of medical examiners in the matter of said regulation.

(Stats. 1901, 56, ch. LI.)

§ 1. Appointment of board, quorum. There shall be a board consisting of nine members, which shall be known as the board of medical examiners of the state of California. The members of said board shall be elected as follows: Five members thereof shall be elected by the Medical Society of the State of California, two members thereof by the California State Homœopathic Medical Society, and two members thereof by the Eclectic Medical Society of the State of California. Said members shall be elected annually by said societies, respectively, according to such rules as each society may adopt for the election of the members to be elected by it, and the members so elected shall serve for one year, and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. Each of said societies respectively may also elect alternates who shall fill such vacancies as may occur in its representation on the board. It shall require the affirmative vote of six members of said board to carry any motion or resolution, to adopt any rule, to pass any measure, or to authorize the issuance of any certificate to practise medicine and surgery as in this act provided.

§ 2. Oath. Each member of said board shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take the constitutional oath of office, and shall, in addition, make oath that he is a graduate in medicine, and a legally qualified practitioner of medicine in this state.

§ 3. Organization, meetings. Said board shall organize by electing from its number a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, who shall hold their respective positions during the pleasure of the board. Said board shall hold its regular meetings in the city of San Francisco, on the first Tuesdays of April, August, and December of each year, for the consideration of applications for certificates, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it, with power of adjournment from time to time until its business is concluded; provided, however, that examinations of applicants for certificates may, in the discretion of the board, be conducted in any part of the state designated by said board of examiners, under the supervision of any one member of said board, upon written questions previously prepared by said board; and when the examination is concluded the question submitted, together with the answers and any other evidence or affidavits used or produced at said examination, shall be signed by said examiner and immediately returned to the board of examiners, who shall act upon said application for a certificate in the same manner as if the person had appeared personally before said board. Notice of each regular meeting of the board shall be given by publication twice a week, for each of the two weeks next preceding each meeting, in two daily papers published in the city of San Francisco, in one daily paper published in the city of Sacramento, and in one daily paper published in the city of Los Angeles. Special meetings of the board may be held at the call of the president, at such time and place as he shall direct, and the same notice thereof shall be given as in the case of regular meetings. Said board shall procure a seal, and shall receive through its secretary applications for the certificates provided to be issued under this act.

§ 4. Rules. Said board may from time to time adopt such rules as may be necessary to enable it to carry into effect the provisions of this act. Any member of said board may administer oaths in all matters pertaining to the duties of said board, and the board shall have the authority to take evidence as to any matter cognizable by it.

§ 5. Requirements, examination, fee. Every person before practising medicine or surgery, or any of the departments of medicine or surgery in this state, must have the certificate herein provided for. In order to procure such certificate he must produce satisfactory testimonials of good moral character, and a diploma issued by some legally chartered medical school, the requirements of which medical school shall have been at the time of granting such diploma, in no particular less than those prescribed by the Association of American Medical Colleges for that year; or he must produce satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma, or a license from some legally constituted institution which grants medical and surgical licenses only upon actual examination, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such license; and he must accompany said diploma or license with an affidavit stating that he is the lawful possessor of the same, that he is the person therein named, and that the diploma or license was procured in the regular course, either of instruction or examination, without fraud or misrepresentation of any kind. Such affidavit may be taken before any person authorized to administer oaths, and the same shall be attested under the hand and official seal of such officer, if he have a seal. In addition to such affidavit, said board may hear such further evidence as, in its discretion, it may deem proper as to any of the matters embraced in said affidavit. If it should appear from such evidence that said affidavit is untrue in any particular, or if it should appear that the applicant is not of good moral character, the application must be rejected.

In addition to the requirements above set forth, each applicant for a certificate must be personally examined by said board as to his qualifications to practise medicine and surgery. The examination shall be conducted in the English language, and shall be, in whole or in part, in writing, and shall be on the following subjects, to wit: Anatomy, physiology, bacteriology, pathology, chemistry and toxicology, surgery, obstetrics, materia medica and therapeutics, and theory and practice of medicine. When the applicant applies for examination in materia medica and therapeutics, and theory and practice of medicine, he shall designate in what school of medicine he desires to practise, and only the member or members of the board who belong to the school so designated shall participate in this part of the examination. Examinations shall be practical in character, and designed to discover the applicant's fitness to practise medicine and surgery.

Examinations in each subject shall consist of not less than ten questions, answers to which shall be marked upon a scale of one to ten. If an applicant fail in his first examination he may, after not less than six months, be re-examined. If he fail in a second examination he shall not thereafter be entitled to another examination in less than one year after date of second examination, and shall be required to pay for such examinations the full fee. The examination papers shall form a part of the records of said board, and shall be kept on file by the secretary. In said examination the applicant shall be known and designated by number only, and the name attached to the number shall be kept secret by the secretary until after the board has finally voted upon the application. The secretary of the board of medical examiners shall in no instance participate, as an examiner, in any examinations held by the board; nor shall he be entitled to vote upon the question of granting any certificate to practise medicine and surgery.

Said board may, in its discretion, accept and register, upon payment of the registration fee, and without examination of the applicant, any certificate which shall have been issued to him by the medical examining board of the District of Columbia, or of any state or territory of the United States; provided, however, that the legal requirements of such medical examining board shall have been at the time of issuing such certificate, in no degree or particular less than those of California at the time when such certificate shall be presented for registration to the board created by this act; and, provided further, that the provisions in this paragraph contained shall be held to apply only to such of said medical examining boards as accept and register the certificates granted by this board without examination by them of the ones holding such certificates. Each applicant, on making application, shall pay to the secretary of the board a fee of twenty (20) dollars, which shall be paid to the treasurer of said board by said secretary.

§ 6. Certificate. When any applicant has shown himself to be possessed of the qualifications herein required, and has successfully passed the said examination, a certificate must be issued to him by said board, authorizing him to practise medicine and surgery in this state. Said certificate shall be signed by the president and secretary of said board, and sealed with the seal of the board.

§ 7. Record of proceedings. Said board shall keep an official record of all its proceedings, a part of which record shall consist of a register of all applicants for certificates under this act, with the result of each application. Said record shall be evidence of all the proceedings of said board which are set out therein.

§ 8. Registration. Every person holding a certificate authorizing him to practise medicine or surgery, or both, in this state, must have it recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the holder of said certificate is practising his profession, and the fact of such recording shall be indorsed on the certificate by the county clerk recording the same. Every such person, on each change of residence, must have his certificate recorded in the county to which he shall have changed his residence. The absence of such record shall be prima facie evidence of the want of possession of such certificate. And any person holding a certificate who shall practise medicine or surgery, or attempt to practise medicine or surgery, without first having filed his certificate with the county clerk, as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 9. The county clerk shall keep in a book, provided for the purpose, a complete list of the certificates recorded by him, with the date of the record; and said book shall be open to public inspection during his office hours.

§ 10. Refusal to grant certificate; revocation of certificate; unprofessional conduct. Said board must refuse a certificate to any applicant guilty of unprofessional conduct; but before such refusal the applicant must be cited by citation, signed by the secretary of the board, and sealed with its seal. No such citation shall be issued except upon a sworn complaint filed with the secretary of the board, charging the applicant with having been guilty of unprofessional conduct, and setting forth the particular acts constituting such unprofessional conduct. On the filing of such complaint the secretary must forthwith issue a citation, and make the same returnable at the next regular session of said board, occurring at least thirty days next after filing the complaint. Such citation shall notify the applicant of the time and place, when and where the matter of said unprofessional conduct shall be heard, the particular unprofessional conduct with which the applicant is charged, and that the applicant shall file his written answer, under oath, within twenty days next after the service on him of said citation, or default will be taken against him, and his application for a certificate refused. The attendance of witnesses at such hearing shall be compelled by subpœnas issued by the secretary of the board, under its seal; and said secretary shall in no case refuse to issue any such subpœna, upon a fee of twenty cents being paid him for each subpœna. Said citation and said subpœnas shall be served in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force as to the service of citations and subpœnas generally, and all the provisions of the statutes of this state then in force relating to subpœnas are hereby made applicable to the subpœnas provided for herein. If any person refuse to obey a subpœna served upon him in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force providing for the manner of serving subpœnas, the fact of such refusal shall be certified by the secretary of said board, under the seal thereof, to the superior court of the county in which the service was had, and said court shall thereupon proceed to hear said matter in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force as to contempts for disobedience of process of the court; and should said court find that the subpœna had been legally served, and that the party so served had wilfully disobeyed the same, it shall proceed to impose such penalty as provided in cases of contempt of court. In all cases of alleged unprofessional conduct arising under this act, depositions of witnesses may be taken, the same as in civil cases, and all the provisions of the statutes of this state then in force as to the taking of depositions are hereby made applicable to the taking of depositions under this act. If the applicant shall fail to file with the secretary of said board his answer, under oath, to the charges made against him, within twenty days after service on him of said citation, or within such further time as the board may give him, and the charges on their face be deemed sufficient by the board, default shall be entered against him, and his application refused. If the charges on their face be deemed sufficient by the board, and issue be joined thereon by answer, the board shall proceed to determine the matter, and to that end shall hear such evidence as may be adduced before it; and if it appear to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant is guilty as charged, no certificate shall be issued to him. No certificate shall be refused on the ground of unprofessional conduct unless the applicant has been guilty of such conduct subsequently to the passage of this act, and unless he has been guilty of such conduct within two years next preceding his application. Whenever any holder of the certificate herein provided for is guilty of unprofessional conduct, as the same is defined in this act, and the said unprofessional conduct has been brought to the attention of the board granting said certificate, in the manner hereinafter pointed out, it shall be their duty to, and they must, revoke the same at once, and the holder of said certificate shall not thereafter be permitted to practise medicine or surgery, or any of the departments of medicine or surgery, in this state. But no such revocation shall be made unless said holder is cited to appear, and the same proceedings are had as is hereinbefore provided in this section in case of refusal to issue certificates. The accused party, at the time he presents his answer for filing, shall deposit with the secretary his certificate, and unless he do so, the secretary must not file his answer, and default shall be thereupon entered against him, and his certificate revoked if the charges on their face be deemed sufficient by the board. When the certificate is revoked, the secretary of the board, if said certificate has been deposited with him, shall write across the face thereof, in red ink, the fact of such revocation, and shall file said certificate, so revoked, among the archives of his office, and shall also certify the fact of such revocation, under the seal of the board, to the county clerk of the counties in which the certificate of the person whose certificate has been revoked is recorded; and said clerk must thereupon write upon the margin or across the face of his register of the certificate of such person, the following:

“This certificate was revoked on the —— day of ——,” giving the day, month and year of such revocation, in accordance with said certification to him by said secretary. The record of such revocation so made by said county clerk shall be prima facie evidence of the fact thereof, and of the regularity of all the proceedings of said board in the matter of said revocation. If said board shall decide against revocation, the certificate shall be returned to the holder thereof. No certificate shall be revoked for unprofessional conduct unless the accused has been guilty thereof subsequently to the passage of this act, and unless he has been guilty thereof within two years next preceding the time of filing the complaint charging him with such unprofessional conduct. From the time of the revocation of a certificate the holder thereof shall be disqualified from practising medicine or surgery in this state.

The words "unprofessional conduct," as used in this act, are hereby declared to mean:

First—The procuring or aiding or abetting in procuring a criminal abortion.

Second—The obtaining of any fee on the assurance that a manifestly incurable disease can be permanently cured.

Third—The wilfully betraying a professional secret.

Fourth—All advertising of medical business in which grossly improbable statements are made.

Fifth—All advertising of any medicines, or of any means, whereby the monthly periods of women can be regulated, or the menses re-established if suppressed.

Sixth—Conviction of any offense involving moral turpitude.

Seventh—Habitual intemperance.

§ 11. Expenditures of the board. Said board shall have the power to employ legal counsel and clerical assistance, and to fix the salaries of the same, and to incur such other expenses as may be deemed necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act. It shall also fix the salary of the secretary, not to exceed the sum of twenty-four hundred dollars per annum, and the sum to be paid to other members of said board, not to exceed ten dollars per diem each, for each and every day of actual service in the discharge of official duties; and said board may, in its discretion, add to said sums necessary traveling expenses. All money in excess of the actual expenses of the board shall be paid annually into the treasuries of the respective state medical societies, and shall be pro-rated according to the number of representatives of each school among the applicants examined.

§ 12. Illegal practice. Any person practising medicine or surgery in this state, without having, at the time of so practising, a valid, unrevoked certificate, as provided in this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term of not less than sixty days, nor more than one hundred and eighty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. In each such conviction one half of the fine shall be paid, when collected, to the prosecuting witness, or witnesses, and the other half shall be paid into the school fund of the county, or city and county, in which such conviction is had.

§ 13. Unauthorized registration. Every person filing for record, or attempting to file for record, the certificate issued to another, falsely claiming himself to be the person named in such certificate, or falsely claiming himself to be the person entitled to the same, shall be guilty of felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to such penalties as are provided by the laws of this state for the crime of forgery.

§ 14. False representation. Any person assuming to act as a member of a state board of medical examiners, or who shall sign, or subscribe, or issue or cause to be issued, or seal or cause to be sealed, a certificate authorizing any person to practise medicine or surgery in this state, except the person so acting and doing shall have been elected a member of said board of medical examiners as in this act provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than sixty nor more than one hundred and eighty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 15. Previous registration. Any person who holds a certificate from one of the boards of examiners heretofore existing under the provisions of "An act to regulate the practice of medicine in the state of California," approved April third, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, or an act supplemental and amendatory to said act, which became a law April first, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, shall be entitled to practise medicine and surgery in this state, the same as if it had been issued under this act; but all such certificates may be revoked for unprofessional conduct, in the same manner and upon the same grounds as if they had been issued under this act.

§ 16. Definition. The following persons shall be deemed as practising medicine or surgery within the meaning of this act:

1. Those who profess to be, or hold themselves out as being, engaged as doctors, physicians or surgeons in the treatment of disease, injury, or deformity of human beings.

2. Those who for pecuniary or valuable consideration, shall prescribe medicine, magnetism, or electricity, in the treatment of disease, injury, or deformity of human beings.

3. Those who, for pecuniary or valuable consideration, shall employ surgical or medical means or appliances for the treatment of disease, injury, or deformity of human beings, except dealers in surgical, dental and optical appliances.

4. Those who, for pecuniary or valuable consideration, prescribe or use any drug or medicine, appliance, or medical or surgical treatment, or perform any operation for the relief or cure of any bodily injury or disease.

The doing of any of the acts in this section mentioned shall be taken to be prima facie evidence of an intent on the part of the person doing any of said acts to represent himself as engaged in the practice of medicine or surgery or both; but nothing in this act shall be so construed as to inhibit service in the case of emergency, or the domestic administration of family remedies; nor shall this act apply to any commissioned medical officer in the United States army, navy, or marine hospital service, in the discharge of his professional duties, nor to any legally qualified dentist when engaged exclusively in the practice of dentistry, nor to any physician or surgeon from another state or territory, when in actual consultation with a legal practitioner of this state, if such physician or surgeon is, at the time of such consultation, a legal practitioner of medicine or surgery in the state or territory in which he resides; nor to any physician or surgeon residing on the border of a neighboring state and duly authorized under the laws thereof to practise medicine or surgery therein, whose practice extends within the limits of this state; provided, that such practitioner shall not open an office or appoint a place to meet patients or receive calls within the limits of this state.

§ 17. Repeal. An act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of medicine in the state of California," approved April third, eighteen hundred and seventy-six; and an act entitled "An act supplemental to and amendatory of an act entitled 'An act to regulate the practice of medicine in the state of California,' [approved] April third, eighteen hundred and seventy-six," which became a law April first, eighteen hundred and seventy-eight, and all acts, and parts of acts, in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

§ 18. This act shall take effect from and after the first day of August, nineteen hundred and one.

The foregoing, as will be observed, supersedes the previous legislation upon the same subject. Following are supreme court decisions relating to the Acts of 1875-6, 792, ch. MILITARY ACADEMIES OR COLLEGES.

To furnish arms for the use of military academies in the state.

(Stats. 1871-2, 121, ch. CXVIII.)

§ 1. That when a military academy has been established within the state, having not less than eighty boys, uniformed, drilled, and instructed in strict accordance with the tactics of the regular United States army service, and all its course of education and economy conducted upon strict military principles, the military instructor of such academy, when regularly elected by the board of trustees or other lawful authority of the academy, be commissioned in the National Guard of California, with the rank of major.

§ 2. That upon giving bond, with good security, to be approved by the county judge of the county where the academy is situated, conditioned for the safe-keeping against fire, loss, and against all damages, in twice the value, that arms and accoutrements, the property of the state, be issued for the use of such military academy.

§ 3. The adjutant-general of the state is hereby authorized to issue such arms and accoutrements as may be needed by the said military academies, without a monthly allowance, in the same manner as arms and accoutrements are issued to regular organized companies of the National Guard of California, upon requisition made for this purpose, approved by the commander-in-chief.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

The practical value of the foregoing act should be considered in connection with KERR'S CYC. POL. CODE § 1942.

MINERAL CABINET.

To provide for the establishment of a cabinet department in the state library.

(Stats. 1871-2, 824, ch. DLXIII.)

§ 1. It shall be the duty of the state librarian to receive, arrange, and properly display, and take charge of, in the state library, the minerals, precious metals, mineralogical, geological, and fossiliferous specimens, and precious stones hereinafter mentioned and referred to, or which may hereafter become the property of the state by purchase or by presentation.

§ 2. The governor shall appoint three suitable and disinterested persons, who shall act without compensation, and shall examine and appraise the cabinet of minerals, precious metals and stones, and various specimens composing the cabinet belonging to J. M. Frey, of the city of Sacramento, and upon their making report to the governor to the effect that the said cabinet is fully worth the sum of thirteen thousand dollars, the state shall become the purchaser and owner of the said cabinet; provided, that if said report shall not recommend the said purchase, it shall not be made.

§ 3. The sum of thirteen thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any unappropriated money in the general fund to purchase the said cabinet.

§ 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

See next following statute.

MINERAL CABINET.

To provide for the removal of the mineral cabinet from the state library.

§ 1. Within thirty days after the passage of this act the governor shall appoint a board of trustees, consisting of three persons, which shall be known as the trustees of the mineral cabinet.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of said board of trustees, within thirty days after their appointment, to select a place in the Crocker Art Gallery building, where the said cabinet shall be located, and to remove the same there. The location shall be made with a view to the safety of said cabinet from destruction, and to keeping the same open for inspection by the public; but no expense to the state shall be incurred either for room rent or care of the same.

§ 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

See last preceding statute.

MINERAL LANDS.

To repeal an act entitled "An act regulating the sale of mineral lands belonging to the state," approved March twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and the acts amendatory thereof, and to provide for the sale of mineral lands under United States laws.

(Stats. 1897, 438, ch. CCLXX.)

§ 1. The following entitled acts of the legislature are hereby repealed, to wit:

First—An act entitled "An act regulating the sale of mineral lands belonging to the state," approved March twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four.

Second—An act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act regulating the sale of mineral lands belonging to the state,' approved March twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four," approved February third, eighteen hundred and seventy-six.

Third—An act entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act regulating the sale of mineral lands belonging to the state,' approved March twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four," approved April sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty.

§ 2. When it shall be shown by affidavits or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the surveyor-general, that any portion of a sixteenth or thirty-sixth section belonging to the state is valuable for its mineral deposits, the surveyor-general shall not approve any application to purchase the same, nor shall the register of the state land office issue a certificate of purchase therefor, until the question of the character of the land has been referred, for determination, to a court of competent jurisdiction, in the manner provided by section thirty-four hundred and fourteen of the Political Code, and adjudged not to be valuable as mining land.

§ 3. The sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections belonging to the state, in which there may be found valuable mineral deposits, are hereby declared to be free and open to exploration, occupation, and purchase of the United States, under the laws, rules, and regulations passed and prescribed by the United States for the sale of mineral lands.

§ 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

§ 2. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

§ 3. This act shall be in effect and force sixty days from and after its passage.

MINING—BELL SIGNALS.

To establish a uniform system of mining bell signals, to be used in all mines operated in the state of California, and for the protection of miners.

(Stats. 1893, 82, ch. LXXIV.)

§ 1. Every person, company, corporation, or individual operating any mine within the state of California—gold, silver, copper, lead, coal, or any other metal or substance where it is necessary to use signals by means of bell or otherwise for shafts, inclines, drifts, cross-cuts, tunnels, and underground workings—shall, after the passage of this bill, adopt, use, and put in force the following system or code of mine bell signals, as follows:

1 bell, to hoist. (See rule 2.)

1 bell, to stop, if in motion.

2 bells to lower. (See rule 2.)

3 bells, man to be hoisted; run slow. (See rule 2.)

4 bells, start pump, if not running, or stop pump if running.

1—3 bells, start or stop air compressor.

5 bells, send down tools. (See rule 4.)

6 bells, send down timbers. (See rule 4.)

7 bells, accident; move bucket or cage by verbal orders only.

1—4 bells, foreman wanted.

2—1—1 bells, done hoisting until called.

2—1—2 bells, done hoisting for the day.

2—2—2 bells, change buckets from ore to water, or vice versa.

3—2—1 bells, ready to shoot in the shaft. (See rule 3.)

Engineer's signal, that he is ready to hoist, is to raise the bucket or cage two feet and lower it again. (See rule 3.)

Levels shall be designated and inserted in notice hereinafter mentioned. (See rule 5.)

§ 2. For the purpose of enforcing and properly understanding the above code of signals, the following rules are hereby established:

Rule 1. In giving signals make strokes on bell at regular intervals. The bar (—) must take the same time as for one stroke of the bell, and no more. If timber, tools, the foreman, bucket, or cage, are wanted to stop at any level in the mine, signal by number of strokes on the bell the number of the level first before giving the signal for timber, tools, etc. Time between signals to be double bars (— —). Examples:

6 — — 5, would mean stop at sixth level with tools.

4 — — 1—1—1— — 1, would mean stop at fourth level, man on, hoist.

2 — — 1—4, would mean stop at second level with foreman.

Rule 2. No person must get off or on the bucket or cage while the same is in motion. When men are to be hoisted, give the signal for men. Men must then get on bucket or cage, then give the signal to hoist. Bell cord must be in reach of man on the bucket or cage at stations.

Rule 3. After signal "Ready to shoot in shaft," engineer must give his signal when he is ready to hoist. Miners must then give the signal of "Men to be hoisted," then "spit fuse," get into the bucket, and give the signal to hoist.

Rule 4. All timbers, tools, et cetera, "longer than the depth of the bucket," to be hoisted or lowered, must be securely lashed at the upper end of the cable. Miners must know they will ride up or down the shaft without catching on rocks or timbers, and be thrown out.

Rule 5. The foreman will see that one printed sheet of these signals and rules for each level and one for the engine-room are attached to a board not less than twelve inches wide by thirty-six inches long, and securely fasten the board up where signals can be easily read at the places above stated.

Rule 6. The above signals and rules must be obeyed. Any violation will be sufficient grounds for discharging the party or parties so doing. No person, company, corporation, or individuals operating any mine within the state of California shall be responsible for accidents that may happen to men disobeying the above rules and signals. Said notice and rules shall be signed by the person or superintendent having charge of the mine, who shall designate the name of the corporation or the owner of the mine.

§ 3. Any person or company failing to carry out any of the provisions of this act shall be responsible for all damages arising to or incurred by any person working in said mine during the time of such failure.

(Stats. 1871-2, 413, ch. CCCV.)

§ 1. It shall not be lawful for any corporation, association, owner, or owners of any quartz-mining claims within the state of California, where such corporation, association, owner, or owners employ twelve men daily, to sink down into such mine or mines any perpendicular shaft or incline beyond a depth from the surface of three hundred feet without providing a second mode of egress from such mine, by shaft or tunnel, to connect with the main shaft at a depth of not less than one hundred feet from the surface.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of each corporation, association, owner, or owners of any quartz mine or mines in this state, where it becomes necessary to work such mines beyond the depth of three hundred feet, and where the number of men employed therein daily shall be twelve or more, to proceed to sink another shaft or construct a tunnel so as to connect with the main working shaft of such mine as a mode of escape from underground accident, or otherwise. And all corporations, associations, owner, or owners of mines, as aforesaid, working at a greater depth than three hundred feet, not having any other mode of egress than from the main shaft, shall proceed as herein provided.

§ 3. When any corporation, association, owner, or owners of any quartz mine in this state shall fail to provide for the proper egress as herein contemplated, and where any accident shall occur, or any miner working therein shall be hurt or injured, and from such injury might have escaped if the second mode of egress had existed, such corporation, association, owner or owners of the mine where the injuries shall have occurred shall be liable to the person injured in all damages that may accrue by reason thereof; and an action at law in a court of competent jurisdiction may be maintained against the owner or owners of such mine, which owners shall be jointly or severally liable for such damages. And where death shall ensue from injuries received from any negligence on the part of the owners thereof, by reason of their failure to comply with any of the provisions of this act, the heirs or relatives surviving the deceased may commence an action for the recovery of such damages as provided by an act entitled an act requiring compensation for causing death by wrongful act, neglect, or default, approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.

§ 4. This act shall take effect and be in force six months from and after its passage.

MINING—RIGHTS OF WAY, ETC.

Relating to the working, rights of way, easement, and drainage of mines in the state of California.

(Stats. 1891, 219, ch. CLV.)

§ 1. Whenever any mine owner, company, or corporation shall have performed the labor and made the improvements required by law for the location and ownership of mining claims or lodes, such owner, company, or corporation shall file or cause to be filed, within thirty days after the time limited for performing such labor or making such improvements, with the county recorder of deeds of the county in which the mine or claim is situated, [an affidavit] particularly describing the labor performed and improvements made, and the value thereof, which affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. Upon the failure of any claimant or mine owner to comply with the conditions of this act in the performance of labor, or making of improvements upon any claim, mine, or mining ground, the claim or mine upon which such failure occurred shall be opened to relocation in the same manner as if no location of the same had ever been made. But if, previous to relocation, the original locators, their heirs, assigns, or legal representatives, resume work upon such claim, and continue the same with reasonable diligence until the required amount of labor has been performed or improvements made, and the required statement of accounts and affidavits filed with the county recorder, then the claim shall not be subject to relocation because of previous failure to file accounts. Upon the failure of any one of the several co-owners to contribute his portion of the expenditures required hereby, the co-owners who have performed the labor or made the improvement may, at the expiration of the year, give such delinquent co-owner personal notice, in writing, or by publication in the newspaper published nearest the claim for at least once a week for ninety days; and if, at the expiration of ninety days after such notice in writing or publication, such delinquent shall fail or refuse to contribute his portion of the expenditures required by this section, his interest in the claim shall become the property of his co-owners who made the required expenditures. A copy of such notice, together with an affidavit showing personal service or publication, as the case may be, of such notice, when filed or recorded with the recorder of deeds of the county in which such mining claim is situated, shall be evidence of the acquisition of title of such co-owners. Where a person or company has or may run a tunnel or cuts for the purpose and in good faith for the purpose of developing a lode, lodes, or claims owned by said person or company or corporation, the money so expended in running said tunnel shall be taken and considered as expended on said lodes or claims; provided further, that said lode, claim, or claims shall be distinctly marked on the surface as provided by law.

§ 2. All mining locations and mining claims shall be subject to a reservation of the right of way through or over any mining claims, ditches, roads, canals, cuts, tunnels, and other easements for the purpose of working other mines; provided, that any damage occasioned thereby shall be assessed and paid for in the manner provided by law for land taken for public use under the right of eminent domain.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

MINING—STOCKHOLDERS.

To repeal an act entitled "An act for the further protection of stockholders in mining companies," approved April twenty-third, eighteen hundred and eighty, and the act amendatory thereof, approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, relating to the protection of stockholders in mining companies.

(Stats. 1905, 74, ch. LXXVII.)

§ 1. An act entitled "An act for the further protection of stockholders in mining companies," approved April twenty-third, eighteen hundred and eighty, and an act entitled "An act to amend section one of an act entitled 'An act for the further protection of stockholders in mining companies,' approved April twenty-third, eighteen hundred and eighty," approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, are hereby repealed.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

There might appear some obscurity in the above repeal from omission to mention Stats. 1873-4, of which Stats. 1880, 134, and Stats. 1897, 38, are amendatory; but examination will disclose that the statute of 1880, 134, so amended the original statute, by each section, as to entirely supersede it. Treating the entire subject as being now embodied in §§ 588-590 of the Civil Code by the statute of 1905, 584, the decisions are noted as follows:

MINING CLAIMS—ABANDONED.

To provide for the covering or fencing of abandoned mining shafts, pits or excavations, the penalty, and also the penalty for removing or destroying the covering or fencing from same.

(Stats. 1903, 283, ch. CCXXXII.)

§ 1. All abandoned mining shafts, pits or other abandoned excavations dangerous to passers-by or live-stock shall be securely covered or fenced, and kept so, by the owners of the land or persons in charge of the same, on which such shafts, pits or other excavations are located. Any person or persons failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 2. All abandoned mining shafts, pits or other excavations situated on unoccupied public lands may be securely covered or fenced by order of the board of supervisors of the county wherein the same is [are] situated, and it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors to keep the same securely fenced or covered whenever it appears to them, by proof submitted, that the same is [are] dangerous or unsafe to man or beast. The cost of said covering or fencing to be a county charge.

§ 3. Any person or persons maliciously removing or destroying any covering or fencing placed around or over any shaft, pit or other excavation, as hereinbefore provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 4. This act shall take effect six months from the day of passage.

MISSING PERSONS.

Authorizing the appointment of trustees for the estates of missing persons, and defining the duties of such trustees.

§ 1. That whenever any resident of this state has been or may hereafter be missing, or his whereabouts unknown, for the period of ninety days, and any such person owns, is seized, or entitled to the seizin or the possession of any real or personal property in this state, and it is represented to the superior court, or a judge thereof, of any county in which such person owns any property, upon verified petition of the wife or of any relative or friend of such person, that his whereabouts has been unknown for such period of time and is still unknown, and that his estate requires the attention, supervision, and care of ownership, it shall be the duty of such court to appoint some suitable person or persons to take charge and possession of such estate as trustee, and to manage and control the same under the direction of said court.

§ 2. That in appointing such trustee the court shall preferably appoint the wife of such missing person (if any such there be), or her nominee, and in the absence of a wife, some person who would be entitled to participate in the distribution of such missing person's estate were he dead. And the court shall have power to direct such trustee to pay to the person or persons constituting the family of such missing person such sum or sums of money, for family expenses and support, from the income of such estate, as it may from time to time determine.

§ 3. That the bond of the trustee so appointed shall be in double the amount of the estimated annual income of such estate; provided, that where such missing person has a wife living and no children, and the estate of such missing person is shown to be solvent, and the wife applies to be appointed trustee, the court shall require no bond of her.

§ 4. It shall be the duty of such trustee or trustees to take possession of all the real and personal estate in this state of such missing person, and to collect and receive the rents, income and profits thereof; to collect all indebtedness owing to such missing person, and pay the costs and expenses thereof out of the trust fund, and to pay such indebtedness of such missing person as he may be authorized to do by the court making the appointment of the trustee; and he shall from time to time, as he may be directed, account to and with said court for all of his or their acts and doings as trustee, and the court making such appointment may at any time, upon the application of any party interested, and upon good cause shown therefor, remove any trustee which it may so appoint, and appoint some other person or persons trustee or trustees in his or their place or stead.

§ 5. Upon presentation of the verified petition mentioned in section one, the court or judge shall order the same to be filed with the clerk of the court, and shall appoint a time for the hearing of said petition, not less than ten days from the date of said order; and the clerk shall publish notice in some newspaper published in said county, stating that such petition will be heard at the time so appointed, in the court-room of said court. Said notice shall be published for five days, and such other notice of said application shall be given in such manner and to such persons as the court or judge may direct. All orders, judgments, and decrees made in proceedings under this statute may be entered and recorded as and with the like effect as other orders, judgments, and decrees in superior courts. From and after the presentation of said petition, and until decision rendered thereon, the wife of such missing person shall have all the powers of a trustee duly appointed and qualified under this act, and shall act as such trustee, subject to the direction of the court.

§ 6. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

MOCKING-BIRDS.

To prevent the capture and destruction of mocking birds in this state.

(Stats. 1871-2, 102, ch. CIX.)

§ 1. Any person or persons who shall wilfully and knowingly shoot, wound, trap, snare, or in any other manner catch or capture any mocking-bird in the state of California, or shall knowingly take, injure, or destroy the nest of any mocking-bird, or shall take, injure, or destroy any mocking-bird's eggs, in the nest or otherwise, in said state, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of the township in which the offense shall have been committed, shall be fined in a sum not less than five dollars nor exceeding ten dollars, and cost of the action for each offense, or may be imprisoned not less than five days nor more than ten days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, as the judgment of the court may direct.

§ 2. All fines collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the county treasury for the benefit of the common school fund.

MODESTO IRRIGATION DISTRICT.

Is believed to be now reorganized under Wright Act. 88, Cal. 334.

MODOC COUNTY.

To create the county of Modoc, to establish the boundaries thereof, and to provide for its organization.

(Stats. 1873-4, 124, ch. CVII; supplemented 1873-4, 517, ch. CCCLV.)

§ 1. There shall be formed out of the eastern part of Siskiyou County, a new county, to be called Modoc.

§ 2. The boundaries of Modoc County shall be as follows: Commencing at the northeast corner of the state of California; thence west, along the northern boundary line of said state, to the range line between ranges numbers four (4) and five (5) east, of Mount Diablo base and meridian; thence due south, on said range line, to the southern boundary line of Siskiyou County; thence east along said southern boundary line, to the state line; and thence north to the place of beginning.

§ 3. The seat of justice shall be at the town of Dorrisbridge, until otherwise provided by law.

§ 4. The governor of this state shall, when this act takes effect, appoint some suitable person, resident of Modoc County, to act as county judge, who shall reside at the county seat, and whose term of office shall continue until the first day of January, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-six, and until his successor is elected and qualified. The county judge shall receive a salary of one thousand dollars per annum, to be paid quarterly, and shall hold the courts required by law to be held by county judges. There shall be three regular terms of the county court held in each year, said terms to commence on the first Monday in February, June, and October; provided, however, the county judge shall call and hold special terms of the probate court whenever public necessity may require. Said county judge shall discharge all the duties required by law of county judges in this state.

§ 5. An election shall be held in said Modoc County within sixty days from the time of the first meeting of the commissioners in this act provided for. At said election there shall be chosen by the qualified voters of said county one district attorney; one county clerk, who shall be ex officio auditor, recorder, and clerk of the board of supervisors, board of equalization, and board of canvassers; one county superintendent of public schools, one sheriff, who shall be ex officio county tax collector, one county assessor, one county treasurer, one county surveyor, one county coroner, who shall be ex officio public administrator. Said county officers shall hold their respective offices until the first Monday of March, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-six, and until their successors are elected and qualified. At said election there shall be chosen one supervisor for each supervisor district in said county, who shall hold their offices as follows: District number one, until the first Monday of November,

A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-four; district number two, until the first Monday of November, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-five; and district number three, until the first Monday of November, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-six. At said election there shall be chosen two constables and two justices of the peace for each township; provided, however, that all constables and justices and road overseers elected at the general and judicial elections held in the year A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-three, residents of Modoc County, shall hold their offices for the time provided by law, upon having duly qualified as township officers of Modoc County for the respective townships in which they reside, as said townships are organized by the action of the board of commissioners, provided for by this act. At said election the qualified electors of said county shall vote for a place for county seat, and a majority of all the votes cast shall be necessary to locate the same; and until the county seat is located, by a vote of the qualified electors, the board of supervisors of said Modoc County are hereby prohibited from incurring any indebtedness for the erection of county buildings in said county. For the purposes of this election the county clerk of Siskiyou County shall furnish each election precinct established by the board of commissioners of Modoc county with two (2) copies of the great register of Siskiyou County, printed for the general election held in said county in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-three; and, if necessary, said county clerk is hereby authorized to take said copies from the election returns now on file in his office.

§ 6. The governor shall, when this act takes effect, appoint five persons, residents of Modoc County, who shall be and constitute a board of commissioners, to perfect the organization of said county, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum. Said commissioners shall meet at the county seat, within twenty days after their appointment, and, after being duly sworn to faithfully discharge their duties, as prescribed by this act, shall organize, by electing from their number a president and clerk. They shall then divide said county into townships, define their boundaries, and designate the name of each. They shall also divide said county by townships into three supervisor districts, and number the same. They shall also establish election precincts, and appoint one inspector and two judges of election for each precinct in said county. They shall give thirty days' notice, by proclamation in some newspaper published in Modoc County, or if there be no newspaper published in Modoc County, then said publication to be made in some newspaper published in the county of Siskiyou, of the officers to be elected, the precincts established, with their names and boundaries, the officers of election of each precinct, and the number and boundaries of each supervisor district. Said commissioners shall, on the second Monday after said election, meet at the county seat as a board of canvassers, and proceed to canvass the election returns. Said commissioners, their president, and clerk, are hereby authorized and required to discharge the same duties as are now required by law of boards of supervisors and county clerks in the counties in this state, so far as the same apply to holding elections, canvassing election returns, and issuing certificates of election. They shall keep a full record of all their proceedings, and file the same, with the original election returns, in the county clerk's office, as soon as he shall have been qualified, and thereupon the power and duties of said commissioners shall cease.

§ 7. It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of Modoc County, whose election is provided for by this act, to meet at the county seat on the first Monday of the month subsequent to their election, take the oath of office, and file the official bond required by the Political Code. The member of district number one shall be president of the board. They shall then allow such per diem and mileage to the commissioners and officers of election as they may think proper and just, and a warrant shall be drawn by the auditor on the county general fund in favor of each person to whom an allowance shall have been made, for the amount of such allowance. Said board shall appoint two citizens, and freeholders of Modoc County, to act as joint commissioners with an equal number to be appointed by the board of supervisors of Siskiyou County, to ascertain and declare the amount of the indebtedness of Modoc County to Siskiyou County. Immediately on their appointment, such commissioners shall notify the board of supervisors of Siskiyou County of that fact. Upon the receipt of such information said board shall proceed, without unnecessary delay, to appoint a like number of commissioners, citizens and freeholders of Siskiyou County, who shall, at the time and place to be agreed upon, meet with the commissioners of Modoc County. The commissioners of the respective counties, after having severally taken an oath to discharge honestly and to the best of their ability their duties as commissioners, shall organize as a joint commission, by the selection of one of their number as president, and one as secretary. As soon as organized the joint commission shall proceed, in the following manner, to determine the amount of the indebtedness of Modoc County to Siskiyou County, to wit: they shall ascertain the indebtedness of Siskiyou County at the time this act takes effect; they shall then ascertain the total value of the assets belonging to said county; they shall then ascertain the assessed value, under the assessments of eighteen hundred and seventy-three, of the property in the territory hereby set apart to form Modoc County; then, after deducting the assets from the indebtedness, so as to ascertain the actual indebtedness, the proportion due from Modoc County to Siskiyou County shall be ascertained as follows: as the total assessed value of property in the territory taken from Siskiyou County to form Modoc County is to the total assessed value of Siskiyou County before the formation of Modoc County, so shall be the proportion of the actual indebtedness of Modoc County to Siskiyou County, and said commissioners shall certify to their respective boards of supervisors such amount. The board of supervisors of Modoc County shall then issue the bonds of said county, payable in ten years from the organization of said county, and bearing interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum, payable annually, principal and interest of said bonds to be paid in United States gold coin to said Siskiyou County, for such sum as the commissioners certify to be due, said bonds to be of the denomination of five hundred dollars. Said board of supervisors shall procure and provide a suitable place or places, to be used as a court-house and jail until the location of the county seat is determined and a suitable building erected. They shall, when they levy state and county taxes, levy a tax of twenty cents upon each one hundred dollars of taxable property in said county, which shall be collected as other state and county taxes are collected, and shall be set apart as an interest and sinking fund to liquidate the debt due from Modoc County to the county of Siskiyou. Said interest and sinking fund shall be appropriated, first, to pay the interest due on the bonds, according to the tenor thereof, given by Modoc County to Siskiyou County; and, second, whenever there shall be a sufficient sum remaining after paying interest as aforesaid, to pay off one of said bonds, the treasurer of Modoc County shall present the same to the treasurer of Siskiyou County, at Yreka, who, upon receipt thereof, shall surrender one of said bonds, which shall be canceled by the treasurer of Modoc County, and filed in the clerk's office. Said board of supervisors shall exercise such other powers and duties as are conferred by the general laws on boards of supervisors in the counties of this state.

§ 8. All civil actions, or proceedings in the nature of actions, whether original or upon appeal, civil or criminal, which shall be pending in the district court, county court, or probate court, in the county of Siskiyou, at the time of the organization of Modoc County, in which the defendants are residents of Modoc County, shall be removed for trial and final determination to the proper courts of Modoc County, on motion of any party interested; provided, that actions commenced for the collection of taxes and licenses, shall not be removed from the courts of Siskiyou County; provided, further, that in all criminal cases, where the offenses were committed in the limits of Modoc County, upon the application of the district attorney of Modoc County, said cases shall be removed to Modoc County.

§ 9. All residents or property holders of Modoc County, upon application to the county recorder of Siskiyou County, and upon the payment of the fees required by law, shall be entitled to receive a transcript of the record, duly attested, of any property situated in the county of Modoc and recorded in his office; and upon presentation of said transcript to the county recorder of Modoc County, and upon the payment of the fees required by law, said recorder shall record the same, and said record shall have the full force and effect of the original record; provided, however, that the board of supervisors of Modoc County shall, within two years, procure a suitable set of books, and make such arrangements as they may agree upon with the county recorder of Siskiyou County, for the transcribing therein all necessary records, properly certified; said records to have the same effect and force as the original records.

§ 10. Modoc County shall be attached to and form a part of the twenty-eighth senatorial district, and, for judicial purposes, shall be attached to and form a part of the ninth judicial district. The terms of the district court shall be held in and for the county of Modoc on the second Monday of July and the third Monday of October of each year.

§ 11. The county officers of Modoc County shall, except as otherwise provided by this act, be elected at the same time as the county officers in other counties of this state, and shall hold their offices for the term fixed by law. They shall give bonds, for the faithful discharge of their duties, in such manner and sums as required by the Political Code. The supervisors of Modoc County shall provide for the election of their successors, whose term of office shall be three years.

§ 12. All officers provided for by this act, shall perform duties as required by the general laws of the state, unless otherwise provided by this act.

§ 13. The supervisors of Modoc County shall receive for their services four dollars per day, and twenty-five cents per mile for coming to the county seat; provided, that but one mileage shall be charged for each term of the board; and, provided, that for the year eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and any year thereafter, the per diem and mileage of any one supervisor shall not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars.

§ 14. The officers of Modoc County shall receive the following salaries and fees: The treasurer shall receive per annum the sum of six hundred dollars; the assessor, for assessing said county, shall receive per annum the sum of six hundred dollars; the district attorney, the sum of five hundred dollars, and the fees allowed the district attorney of Siskiyou County; the superintendent of public schools, the sum of three hundred dollars; the sheriff and county clerk shall receive the same fees the sheriff and county clerk of Siskiyou County receive; provided, that when said fees are a charge against said Modoc County, a deduction of twenty-five per centum shall be made therefrom; and, provided further, that the county clerk, as clerk of the board of supervisors, board of equalization, and board of canvassers, shall receive the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum, payable quarterly. The other officers of Modoc County shall receive no salaries, but the same fees allowed similar officers in Siskiyou County.

§ 15. Modoc County shall be entitled to five notaries public, as provided for by law.

§ 16. The superintendent of public schools of Siskiyou County shall furnish the superintendent of public schools of Modoc County a certified copy of the last census lists of the different school districts in the territory set apart to form Modoc County, and shall draw his warrants on the treasurer of Siskiyou County, in favor of the superintendent of schools of Modoc County, for all money that is or may be due by apportionment or otherwise to the different school districts of Modoc County.

§ 17. No indebtedness shall be incurred by Modoc County which will in the aggregate exceed the sum of twenty thousand dollars.

§ 18. All acts and parts of acts, so far as they conflict with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

§ 19. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

See next following statute.

MODOC COUNTY.

Supplemental to an act entitled an act to create the county of Modoc, to establish the boundaries thereof, and to provide for its organization, approved February seventeenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-four.

(Stats. 1873-4, 517, ch. CCCLV.)

§ 1. The auditor of Siskiyou County must draw his warrants on the treasurer of the same county, and in favor of the hospital fund of Modoc County, for the sums in the hospital funds of Surprise Valley, Big Valley, and Hot Spring Valley townships of Modoc County, respectively, and transmit the same to the auditor of Modoc County, who, on receipt thereof, must place their amounts to the credit of the hospital fund of the county, and deliver the warrants to the treasurer of the county. The treasurer must present the warrants to the treasurer of Siskiyou County for payment, and place the amount received in the hospital fund of the county.

§ 2. The board of commissioners appointed in accordance with the provisions of section six of the act to which this is supplemental, are hereby authorized and empowered to discharge the same duties as are now required by law of boards of supervisors and county clerks in the registering of votes.

§ 3. The board of supervisors of Modoc County may, when they levy state and county taxes, levy a tax not to exceed eight (8) cents upon each one hundred dollars of taxable property in said county, which shall be collected as other state and county taxes are collected, and shall be set apart as a building fund, and used only in the erection of the necessary county buildings. After the first day of November, A. D. eighteen hundred and seventy-four, the member of the board of supervisors having the shortest term to serve shall be president of the board, unless such member shall have been elected to fill a vacancy.

§ 4. The provisions of an act entitled an act concerning hogs found running at large in the counties of Colusa, Tehama, Butte, Sonoma, and Napa, approved March twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, are hereby extended and made applicable to such portions of the county of Modoc as have been surveyed under authority of the United States, and shall be in force in said county from the first day of May to the first day of October of each and every year.

§ 5. This act shall be in force and effect from and after its passage.

Section 4 of the foregoing act related to animals running at large, and was repealed as to Adin Township by Stats. 1877-8, 111, ch. XCIX. See tits. Animals; Fences.

MONTEREY—CITY.

Granting to the city of Monterey the title to the water front of said city in the Bay of Monterey.

(Stats. 1867-8, 202, ch. CCX; amended 1903, 290, ch. CCXXXVII.)

§ 1. The state of California does hereby cede, grant and relinquish forever, unto the municipal corporation called the city of Monterey, all the right, title, interest and estate whatsoever of the said state of California, of, in and to, all the real estate, lands and property situate within the corporate limits of said corporation, and bounded and described as follows, to wit: Commencing at a point where the line of the corporation limits of said city strikes the Bay of Monterey on the north, and running along the entire water front thereof in a southerly and westerly direction to the point where the southern or western boundary of said city strikes the said bay, comprising the entire water front of said city, out to a depth of twenty feet at low tide water; provided, that the rights of all persons, if any existing, under any title derived from said state of California, in and to any part of said property and premises hereby ceded and granted, be and the same are hereby reserved from the operation of this act.

§ 2. The entire water front hereby granted shall be held by trustees of the city of Monterey and their lawful successors forever, for the use and benefit of said city, and shall not be subject to execution upon any judgment against said city, but may be, from time to time let or leased for a term not exceeding fifty years, as the trustees thereof or their successors may deem to be most advantageous to said city; provided, that not more than three hundred feet frontage of said water front shall be leased to one lessee; and provided, further, that at and upon any wharf erected or built upon property so leased any and all vessels shall have a right to dock, land and discharge passengers or merchandise upon payment to such lessee or lessees of reasonable dockage and wharfage. The dockage and wharfage to be regulated and prescribed in such lease, and as may, thereafter, from time to time be determined by ordinance of said city of Monterey or by statute of the state of California. (Amendment, Stats. 1903, 290.)

See tits. Colton Hall; Monterey County; Municipal Corporations.

MONTEREY—COUNTY.

To legalize and make valid copies of certain records of the county of Monterey.
(Stats. 1877-8, 736, ch. CCCCLXXIV.)

§ 1. The duplicate or copy of book G of deeds of the records of the county of Monterey, made, compared, and certified to as correct, by Jacob R. Lees, county recorder of said county, under the order of the board of supervisors of said county, which duplicate or copy is now deposited in the county recorder's office of the said county, shall, on and after the passage of this act, be deemed, considered, and received in evidence, with the same force and effect as if the same was the original book G of the records of said county, and all the instruments therein copied and recorded, and all copies thereof duly certified or proved, shall have the same force and effect as other copies of the records of the office of said county recorder.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

MONTEREY—COUNTY.

To provide for purchase of site, and erection of court-house and jail.
(Stats. 1877-8, 28, ch. XXIV; amended 1877-8, 1034, ch. DCLXVII.)

The bonds issued under the foregoing matured in 1903, and the publication of the statute is omitted.

MONTEREY—CUSTOM-HOUSE.

To provide for the appointment of a board of Monterey custom-house trustees and for the acquisition of the control of the Monterey custom-house property, and providing for an appropriation for the preservation, protection, and improvement of said property.

(Stats. 1901, 516, ch. CLXI.)

§ 1. The governor shall appoint five trustees, to be known as the board of Monterey custom-house trustees, at least three of whom shall be residents of Monterey County, and he shall designate at the time of such appointment their respective terms of office, in accordance with the following classification, viz.: three of whom shall serve for two years, and two of said trustees shall serve for four years, from the time of their appointment. Their successors shall be appointed by the governor, and shall hold their offices for the term of four years and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The said trustees shall qualify by taking the usual oath of office.

§ 2. The said board of Monterey custom-house trustees are hereby authorized to receive and accept from the grand parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West, a corporation, without cost to the state, the possession and control and the lease from the United States of America, of the site and grounds, known as the Monterey custom-house, situated in the town of Monterey, county of Monterey, state of California. Said lease to be assigned by the said corporation to the state of California with the consent of the United States of America.

§ 3. The said board of Monterey custom-house trustees shall provide for the preservation, protection, and improvement of the said Monterey custom-house, in such way and manner as in their judgment may seem best and proper. Said board of trustees shall, immediately upon their appointment, organize by the election of a president, a secretary, and a treasurer from their number, and which officers shall serve without compensation; and the said president and secretary are hereby authorized, when empowered by said board, to do and perform all things pertaining to the duties of said board.

§ 4. The sum of forty-two hundred ($4200) dollars (three thousand ($3000) dollars of which shall be available for the purposes hereinabove set forth immediately after the passage of this act; six hundred ($600) dollars of which shall be expended in the fifty-third fiscal year and the remaining six hundred ($600) dollars in the fifty-fourth fiscal year) is hereby appropriated out of the general fund of the state treasury for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of section three of this act. The controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrant in favor of said board for the money herein made payable, and the treasurer is directed to pay the same.

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and two.

MOTOR VEHICLES—REGISTRATION, ETC.

To regulate the operation of motor vehicles on public highways, and making an appropriation for the purpose of carrying out the objects of this act.

(Stats. 1905, 816, ch. DCXII.)

§ 1. Subdivision 1. The words and phrases used in this act shall, for the purposes of this act, unless the same be contrary to or inconsistent with the context, be construed as follows: (1) "Motor vehicle" shall include all vehicles propelled by any power other than muscular power, provided that nothing herein contained shall, except the provisions of subdivisions three, four and five of section three and subdivision one of section four of this act, apply to motor cycles, motor bicycles, traction engines or road rollers; (2) "public highways" shall include any highway, county road, state road, public street, avenue, alley, park, parkway, driveway or public place in any county, or incorporated city and county, city or town; (3) "closely built up" shall mean (a) the territory of any county or incorporated city and county, city or town contiguous to a public highway which is at that point built up with structures devoted to business, (b) the territory of any county or incorporated city and county, city or town contiguous to a public highway not devoted to business, where for not less than one quarter of a mile the dwelling-houses on such highway average less than one hundred feet apart, provided that the local authorities having charge of such highway shall have placed conspicuously thereon at both ends of such closely built up section signs of sufficient size to be easily readable by a person using the highway, bearing the words "Slow down to — miles," inserting in the blank space the number of miles to which the speed is to be reduced, and also an arrow pointing in the direction where the speed is to be reduced; (4) "local authorities" shall include all boards of supervisors, trustees or councils, committees and other public officials of counties, or incorporated cities and counties, cities or towns; (5) "chauffeur" shall mean any person operating a motor vehicle as mechanic, employee or for hire.

§ 2. Subdivision 1. Every person hereafter acquiring a motor vehicle shall, for every vehicle owned by him, file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of his name and address, with a brief description of the vehicle to be registered including the name of the maker, factory number, style of vehicle and motor power on a blank to be prepared and furnished by such secretary of state for that purpose; the filing fee shall be two dollars.

Subd. 2. The secretary of state shall thereupon file such statement in his office, register such motor vehicle in a book or index to be kept for that purpose, and assign it a distinctive number.

Subd. 3. The secretary of state shall forthwith on such registration, and without other fee, issue and deliver to the owner of such motor vehicle a seal of aluminum or other suitable metal, which shall be circular in form approximately two inches in diameter, and have stamped thereon the words "Registered motor vehicle, No. —, State of California," with the registration number inserted therein; which seal shall thereafter at all times be conspicuously displayed on the motor vehicle, to which such number has been assigned.

Subd. 4. If the vehicle has been previously registered, the certificate issued thereon shall be returned to the secretary of state and in lieu thereof such secretary shall issue to said owner a registration seal containing the number of such previous registration upon payment of a fee of one dollar. Upon the sale of a motor vehicle, the vendor, except a manufacturer or dealer, shall within ten days return to the secretary of state the registration seal affixed to such vehicle.

Subd. 5. Every motor vehicle shall also at all times have the number assigned to it displayed on the back of such vehicle in such manner as to be plainly visible, the numbers to be in arabic numerals, black on white background, each not less than three inches in height, and each stroke to be of a width not less than half an inch, and also as a part of such number the abbreviated name of the state in black on white ground, such letters to be not less than one inch in height.

Subd. 6. A manufacturer of or dealer in motor vehicles shall register one vehicle of each style or type manufactured or dealt in by him, and be entitled to as many duplicate registration seals for each type or style so manufactured or dealt in as he may desire on payment of an additional fee of fifty cents for each duplicate seal. If a registration seal and the corresponding number shall thereafter be affixed to and displayed on every vehicle of such type or style as in this section provided, while such vehicle is being operated on the public highways, it shall be deemed a sufficient compliance with subdivisions one, three, five and eight of this section, until such vehicle shall be sold or let for hire. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to apply to a motor vehicle employed by a manufacturer or dealer for private use or for hire.

Subd. 7. No motor vehicle shall be used or operated upon the public highways after thirty days after this act takes effect which shall display thereon a registration seal or number belonging to any other vehicle, or a fictitious registration seal or number.

Subd. 8. No motor vehicle shall be used or operated on the public highways after thirty days after this act takes effect, unless the owner shall have complied in all respects with this section, except that any person purchasing a motor vehicle from a manufacturer, dealer or other person after this act goes into effect shall be allowed to operate such motor vehicle upon the public highways for a period of five days after the purchase and delivery thereof, provided that during such period such motor vehicle shall bear the registration number and seal of the previous owner under which it was operated or might have been operated by him.

Subd. 9. The provisions of this section shall not apply to motor vehicles owned by non-residents of this state and only temporarily within this state, provided the owners thereof have complied with any law requiring the registration of owners of motor vehicles in force in the state, territory or federal district of their residence, and the registration number showing the initial of such state, territory or federal district shall be displayed on such vehicle substantially as in this section provided.

§ 3. Subdivision 1. No person shall operate a motor vehicle on a public highway at a rate of speed greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic and use of the highway, or so as to endanger the life or limb of any person, or the safety of any property; or in any event on any public highway where the territory contiguous thereto is closely built up, at a greater rate than one mile in six minutes, or elsewhere in any incorporated city and county, city or town at a greater rate than one mile in four minutes, or elsewhere outside of any incorporated city and county, city or town, at a greater rate than one mile in three minutes; subject, however, to the other provisions of this act.

Subd. 2. Upon approaching a bridge, dam, sharp curve, or steep descent, and also in traversing such bridge, dam, curve or descent, a person operating a motor vehicle shall have it under control and operate it at a rate of speed not exceeding one mile in fifteen minutes, and upon approaching a crossing of intersecting highways at a speed not greater than is reasonable and proper, having regard to the traffic then on such highway and the safety of the public.

Subd. 3. Upon approaching a person walking in the roadway of a public highway, or a horse or horses, or other draft animals, being ridden, led or driven thereon, a person operating a motor vehicle shall give reasonable warning of its approach, and use every reasonable precaution to insure the safety of such person or animal, and, in the case of horses or other draft animals, to prevent frightening the same.

Subd. 4. A person operating a motor vehicle shall, at request or on signal by putting up the hand, from a person riding, leading or driving a restive horse or horses, or other draft animals, bring such motor vehicle immediately to a stop, and, if traveling in the opposite direction, remain stationary so long as may be reasonable to allow such horse or animal to pass, and, if traveling in the same direction, use reasonable caution in thereafter passing such horse or animal; provided that, in case such horse or animal appears badly frightened or the person operating such motor vehicle is requested to do so, such person shall cause the motor of such vehicle to cease running so long as shall be reasonably necessary to prevent accident and insure safety to others.

Subd. 5. In case of accident to a person or property on the public highways, due to the operation thereon of a motor vehicle, the person operating such vehicle shall stop, and, upon request of a person injured, or any person present, give such person his name and address, and, if not the owner, the name and address of such owner.

Subd. 6. Local authorities may, notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, set aside for a given time a specified public highway for speed tests or races, to be conducted under proper restrictions for the safety of the public.

§ 4. Subdivision 1. Whenever a person operating a motor vehicle shall meet on a public highway any other person riding or driving a horse or horses or other draft animals, or any other vehicles, the person so operating such motor vehicle shall reasonably turn the same to the right of the center of such highway so as to pass without interference. Any such person so operating a motor vehicle, shall, on overtaking any such horse, draft animal or other vehicle, pass on the left side thereof, and the rider or driver of such horse, draft animal or other vehicle shall, as soon as practicable, turn to the right so as to allow free passage on the left. Any such person so operating a motor vehicle shall, at the intersection of public highways, keep to the right of the intersection of the centers of such highways when turning to the right and pass to the right of such intersection when turning to the left. Nothing in this subdivision shall, however, be construed as limiting the meaning or effect of the provisions of section three of this act.

Subd. 2. Every motor vehicle, while in use on a public highway shall be provided with good and efficient brakes, and also with suitable bell, horn or other signal, and be so constructed as to exhibit, during the period from one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise, two lamps showing white lights visible within a reasonable distance in the direction towards which such vehicle is proceeding, showing the registered number of the vehicle in separate arabic numerals, not less than one inch in height and each stroke to be not less than one quarter of an inch in width, and also a red light visible in the reverse direction.

Subd. 3. Subject to the provisions of this act, local authorities shall have no power to pass, enforce or maintain any ordinance, rule or regulation requiring of any owner or operator of a motor vehicle any license or permit to use the public highways, or excluding or prohibiting any motor vehicle whose owner has complied with section two of this act from the free use of such highways, except such driveway, speedway or road as has been or may be expressly set apart by law for the exclusive use of horses and light carriages, or except as herein provided, in any way affecting the registration or numbering of motor vehicles or prescribing a slower rate of speed than herein specified at which such vehicles may be operated, or the use of the public highways, contrary or inconsistent with the provisions of this act; and all such ordinances, rules or regulations now in force are hereby declared to be of no validity of [or] effect; provided, however, that the local authorities of incorporated cities and counties, cities and towns may limit by ordinance, rule or regulation hereafter adopted the speed of motor vehicles on the public highways, on condition that such ordinance, rule or regulation shall also fix the same speed limitation for all other vehicles, such speed limitation not to be in any case less than one mile in six minutes and on further condition that such incorporated city and county, city or town shall also have placed conspicuously on each main public highway where the boundary of such municipality crosses the same and on every main highway where the rate of speed changes, signs of sufficient size to be easily readable by a person using the highway, bearing the words "Slow down to — miles" (the rate being inserted) and also an arrow pointing in the direction where the speed is to be reduced or changed, and also on further condition that such ordinance, rule or regulation shall fix the penalties for violation thereof similar to and no greater than those fixed by such local authorities for violation of speed limitation by any other vehicles than motor vehicles, which penalties shall during the existence of the ordinance, rule or regulation supersede those specified in section six of this act, and provided further that nothing in this act contained shall be construed as limiting the power of local authorities to make, enforce and maintain further ordinances, rules or regulations affecting motor vehicles which are offered to the public for hire.

Subd. 4. Local authorities may, notwithstanding the provisions of this act, make, enforce and maintain such reasonable ordinances, rules or regulations concerning the speed at which motor vehicles may be operated in any public park or parkways, but in that event, must be signs at each entrance of such park and along such parkway, conspicuously [to] indicate the rate of speed permitted or required, and may exclude motor vehicles from any cemetery or grounds used for burial of the dead.

Subd. 5. Nothing in this act shall be construed to curtail or abridge the right of any person to prosecute a civil suit for damages by reason of injuries to person or property resulting from the negligent use of the highways by a motor vehicle or its owner or his employee or agent.

§ 5. Subdivision 1. Every person hereafter desiring to operate a motor vehicle as a chauffeur shall file in the office of the secretary of state, on a blank to be supplied by such secretary, a statement which shall include his name and address and the trade name and motive power of the motor vehicle or vehicles he is able to operate, and shall pay a registration fee of two dollars.

Subd. 2. The secretary of state shall thereupon file such statement in his office, register such chauffeur in a book or index to be kept for that purpose, and assign him a number.

Subd. 3. The secretary of state shall forthwith, upon such registration and without other fee, insure and deliver to such chauffeur a badge of aluminum or other suitable metal which shall be oval in form, and the greater diameter of which shall not be more than two inches, and such badge shall have stamped thereon the words: "Registered Chauffeur, No. —, State of California," with the registration number inserted therein; which badge shall thereafter be worn by such chauffeur pinned upon his clothing in a conspicuous place at all times while he is operating a motor vehicle upon the public highways.

Subd. 4. No chauffeur, having registered as herein provided, shall voluntarily permit any other person to wear his badge, nor shall any person while operating a motor vehicle wear any badge belonging to another person, or a fictitious badge.

Subd. 5. No person shall operate a motor vehicle as a chauffeur upon the public highways after thirty days after this act takes effect, unless such person shall have complied in all respects with the requirements of this section.

§ 6. Subdivision 1. The violation of any of the provisions of this act by any owner, chauffeur or operator of any motor vehicle, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable, upon conviction thereof, by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars for the first offense, and punishable by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, or both for a second offense, and punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars and imprisonment not exceeding thirty days for a third or subsequent offense.

Subd. 2. In case the owner of a motor vehicle shall be taken into custody because of a violation of any provision of this act, he shall be forthwith taken before the nearest justice of the peace, or police judge or court, and be entitled to an immediate hearing; and if such hearing cannot then be had, be released from custody on giving his personal undertaking to appear and answer for such violation, at such time and place as shall then be ordered, secured by the deposit of a sum equal to the maximum fine for the offense with which he is charged, or in lieu thereof, by leaving the motor vehicle owned by such person, with such justice of the peace, police judge or clerk of such police court, or, in case such justice of the peace or police judge is not accessible, be forthwith released from custody on giving his name and address to the officer making such arrest, and depositing with such officer a sum equal to the maximum fine for the offense for which such arrest is made, or in lieu thereof, by leaving the motor vehicle owned by such person with such officer; provided, that in such case the officer making such arrest shall give a receipt in writing for such sum or vehicle and by indorsement on such receipt notify such person to appear before the nearest justice of the peace or police judge or court, on the following day, naming him or it and specifying the place and hour. In case security shall be deposited, as in this subdivision provided, it shall be returned to the person depositing forthwith on such person being admitted to bail, on the surrender of any receipt or other voucher given at the time of such deposit. If such person shall fail to appear before the magistrate or court at the time ordered or specified, the amount deposited by him may be declared forfeited and disposed of as money deposited for bail in other cases, or the motor which may be so left by him may be sold at public auction by order of the justice of the peace, or police judge or court, and from the amount realized upon such sale, a sum equal to the maximum fine for the offense charged shall be disposed of in like manner, and the surplus, if any, after deducting all expenses incurred in keeping or sale of such motor vehicle be returned to such owner on demand, but no such forfeiture and disposition of such security shall in anywise impair the jurisdiction of such justice of the peace, police judge or court to appear and determine any such charge made against such owner, or to inflict, upon conviction thereof, any punishment prescribed by this act.

§ 7. The amount of fees received by the secretary of state, as in this act provided, shall be paid into the state treasury, to be paid into the general fund of the state.

§ 8. There is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), for the purpose of carrying out the objects of this act, to be used by the secretary of state in the employment of the necessary clerk or clerks; the purchase of the necessary stationery, books, and postage; for the necessary incidental expenses; for the purchase of the necessary seals and badges; for printing, ruling, binding, and all other work performed and materials used by the state printing office, to be used during the balance of the fifty-sixth, and during the fifty-seventh and fifty-eighth fiscal years. The state controller is hereby directed to draw his warrant for any claim against said sum, the same having been approved by the state board of examiners, and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

§ 9. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith or contrary hereto are, so far as they are inconsistent or contrary, hereby repealed.

§ 10. This action [act] shall take effect immediately.

See tit. Bicycles, Tricycles, etc.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—CLASSIFICATION.

To provide for the classification of municipal corporations.

(Stats. 1883, 24, ch. XVII; amended 1897, 218, ch. CLXII; 1897, 421, ch. CCLXII; 1899, 141, ch. CII; 1901, 94, ch. LXXX.)

[For particular towns and cities, see note at end of this statute.]

§ 1. All municipal corporations within the state are hereby classified as follows: Those having a population of more than two hundred thousand shall constitute the first class; those having a population of more than one hundred thousand and not exceeding two hundred thousand shall constitute the first and one-half class; those having a population of more than thirty thousand and not exceeding one hundred thousand shall constitute the second class; those having a population of more than fifteen thousand and not exceeding thirty thousand shall constitute the third class; those having a population of more than ten thousand and not exceeding fifteen thousand shall constitute the fourth class; those having a population of more than three thousand and not exceeding ten thousand shall constitute the fifth class; those having a population of not exceeding three thousand shall constitute the sixth class. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 94.]

§ 2. The census taken under the direction of the Congress of the United States in the year eighteen hundred and eighty, and every ten years thereafter, shall be the basis upon which the respective populations of said municipal corporations shall be determined, unless a direct enumeration of the inhabitants thereof be made, as in this act provided, in which case such direct enumeration shall constitute such basis.

§ 3. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation, may at any time cause an enumeration of the inhabitants thereof to be made, and in such manner and under such regulations as such body may, by ordinance, direct. If upon such enumeration it shall appear that such municipal corporation contains a sufficient number of inhabitants to entitle it to reorganize under a higher or lower class, the common council, trustees, or other legislative body, shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than one fifth of the qualified electors thereof, submit to the electors of such city or town, at the next general election to be held therein, the question whether such city or town shall reorganize under the laws relating to municipal corporations of the class to which such city or town may belong. And thereupon such proceedings shall be had and election held, as provided in the general law for the reorganization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations. If a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be in favor of such reorganization, thereafter such officers shall be elected as are, or may be, and at the time prescribed by law for municipal corporations of the class having the population under which such reorganization is had, and from and after the qualification of such officers, such corporation shall belong to such class. Whenever the result of such enumeration shall have been declared by the council, board of trustees, or other governing body, and entered in the minutes of such body, thereupon the number of such inhabitants so ascertained shall be deemed the number of the inhabitants of such city for all the purposes of this act, and for the purposes of legislation affecting municipalities. The clerk of the council, board of trustees, or other governing body of such city shall cause a certified copy of such minute order to be filed with the board of supervisors of the county wherein such city is situated. [Amendment, Stats. 1899, 141.]

CHAPTER I.

ORGANIZATION OF MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS.

§ 1. Any portion of a county containing not less than five hundred inhabitants, and not incorporated as a municipal corporation, may become incorporated, under the provisions of this act, and when so incorporated, shall have the powers conferred, or that may be hereafter conferred, by law, upon municipal corporations of the class to which the same may belong.

§ 2. A petition shall first be presented to the board of supervisors of such county, signed by at least fifty of the qualified electors of the county, residents within the limits of such proposed corporation, and the affidavit of three qualified electors residing within the proposed limits, filed with the petition, shall be prima facie evidence of the requisite number of signers. The petition shall set forth and particularly describe the proposed boundaries of such corporation, and state the number of inhabitants therein, as nearly as may be, and shall pray that the same may be incorporated under the provisions of this act. Such petition shall be presented at a regular meeting of such board, and shall be published for at least two weeks before the time at which the same is to be presented, in some newspaper printed and published in such county, together with a notice stating the time of the meeting at which the same will be presented. When such petition is presented, the board of supervisors shall hear the same, and may adjourn such hearing from time to time, not exceeding two months in all, and on the final hearing, shall make such changes in the proposed boundaries as they may find to be proper and shall establish and define such boundaries, and shall ascertain and determine how many inhabitants reside within such boundaries; provided, that any changes made by said board of supervisors shall not include any territory outside of the boundaries described in such petition. The boundaries so established by the board of supervisors shall be the boundaries of such municipal corporation until by action, authorized by law for the annexation of additional territory to, or the taking of territory from, said municipal corporation, such boundaries shall be changed; provided, whenever it shall appear to the board of supervisors that the boundaries of any municipal corporation have been incorrectly described, the board shall direct the county surveyor to ascertain and report a description of the boundaries. The board of supervisors shall, at their first regular meeting after the filing of the report of the county surveyor, cause notice to be published in some newspaper published in the county, that the report will be acted upon at the next regular meeting of the board, and at said meeting the board shall ratify the report of the county surveyor, with such modifications as they shall deem necessary, and the boundaries so established shall be the legal boundaries of said municipal corporation. They shall then give notice of an election to be held in such proposed corporation for the purpose of determining whether the same shall become incorporated. Such notice shall particularly describe the boundaries so established, and shall state the name of such proposed corporation, and the number of inhabitants so ascertained to reside therein, and the same shall be published for at least two weeks prior to such election, in a newspaper printed and published within such boundaries, or posted for the same period in at least four public places therein. Such notice shall require the voters to cast ballots, which shall contain the words "For incorporation," or "Against incorporation," or words equivalent thereto, and also the names of persons voted for to fill the various elective municipal offices prescribed by law for municipal corporations of the class to which such proposed corporation will belong. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 371.]

§ 3. Such elections shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state, and no person shall be entitled to vote thereat unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county, enrolled upon the great register thereof, and shall have resided within the limits of such proposed corporation for at least sixty days next preceding such election. The board of supervisors shall meet on the Monday next succeeding such election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat; and if, upon such canvass, it appears that the majority of the votes cast are for the incorporation, the board shall, by an order entered upon their minutes, declare such territory duly incorporated as a municipal incorporation of the class to which the same shall belong, under the name and style of the city (or town, as the case may be) of — (naming it), and shall declare the person[s] receiving, respectively, the highest number of votes for such several offices to be duly elected to such offices. Said board shall cause a copy of such order, duly certified, to be filed in the office of secretary of state, and from and after the date of such filing, such incorporation shall be deemed complete, and such officers shall be entitled to enter immediately upon the duties of their respective offices, upon qualifying in accordance with law, and shall hold such offices respectively only until the next general municipal election to be held in such city or town, and until their successors are elected and qualified; and it shall not be necessary in any action, civil or criminal, to plead and prove the organization or existence of such corporation, and the courts shall take judicial cognizance thereof without proof. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 372.]

§ 4. The common council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of any city and county, city, or town, organized or incorporated prior to the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty, at twelve o'clock, meridian, shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than one fifth of the qualified electors of such city and county, city or town, as shown by the vote cast at the last municipal election held therein, submit to the electors of such city and county, city, or town, at the next general election to be held therein, the question whether such city and county, city, or town shall become organized under the general laws of the state relating to municipal corporations of the class to which such city and county, city, or town may belong. Notice that such question will be so submitted shall be given by publication in a newspaper printed and published in such city and county, city, or town; or if there be no newspaper printed and published therein, by printing and posting the same in at least four public places therein, including the place or places where such election is to be held. Such notice shall be so published or posted for at least four weeks prior to such election, and shall also be made a part of the general election notice. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be so submitted, and shall designate the class to which such corporation belongs, and shall invite the electors thereof to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the words "For reorganization," or "Against reorganization," or words equivalent thereto. The votes so cast shall be canvassed at the time and in the manner in which the other votes cast at such election are canvassed. If, upon such canvass, a majority of all the electors voting at such election shall be found to have voted for such reorganization, the said council, board, or other legislative body shall, by an order entered upon their minutes, cause their clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, to make and transmit to the secretary of state a certified abstract of such vote; which abstract shall show the whole number of electors voting at such election, the number of votes cast for reorganization, and the number of votes cast against reorganization. Said council, board, or other legislative body shall immediately thereafter call a special election for the election of the officers required by law to be elected in corporations of the class to which such city and county, city, or town shall belong, which election shall be held within six weeks thereafter. Such election shall be held in all respects in the manner prescribed, or that may hereafter be prescribed, by law for municipal elections in corporations of such class, and shall be canvassed by the council, board, or other legislative body calling the same, who shall immediately declare the result thereof, and cause the same to be entered upon their journal. From and after the date of such entry, such corporation shall be deemed to be organized under such general laws, under the name and style of the city and county (or city or town as the case may be) of — (naming it), with the powers conferred, or that may hereafter be conferred, by law upon municipal corporations of the class to which the same may belong; and the officers elected at such election shall be entitled immediately to enter upon the duties of their respective offices, upon qualifying in accordance with law, and shall hold such offices, respectively, only until the next general municipal election to be held in such city and county, city, or town, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

§ 5. Any city and county, city or town organized under the provisions of section four of this act shall, for all purposes, be deemed and taken to be in law the identical corporation theretofore incorporated and existing; and such reorganization shall in no wise affect or impair the title to any property owned or held by such corporation, or in trust therefor, or any debts, demands, liabilities, or obligations existing in favor of or against such corporation, or any proceeding then pending; nor shall the same operate to repeal or affect in any manner any ordinance theretofore passed or adopted and remaining unrepealed, or, to discharge any person from any liability, civil or criminal, then existing, for any violation of any such ordinance; but such ordinances, so far as the same are not in conflict with such general laws, shall be and remain in force until repealed or amended by competent authority; provided, that proceedings theretofore commenced shall, after such reorganization, be conducted in accordance with the provisions of such general laws.

§ 6. As soon as the officers elected under the provisions of either section three or section four of this act shall have qualified in accordance with law, all persons, if any, then in possession of the offices of such corporation, shall immediately quit and surrender up the possession of such offices and shall deliver to the officers so elected all moneys, books, papers, or other things in their official custody, and all property of such corporation in their hands, notwithstanding that the terms of office for which they were respectively elected or appointed may not then have expired; and all officers, boards, and persons holding any property in trust for any public use, the administration of which use is vested by such general laws in such corporation, or in any of its officers, shall, upon demand from such corporation or such officers, convey such property to such corporation or such officers, by good and sufficient deeds of conveyance, in trust for such public use.

§ 7. The boundaries of any municipal corporation may be altered, and new territory included therein, after proceedings had as required in this section. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of such corporation shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than one fifth of the qualified electors thereof, as shown by the vote cast at the last municipal election held therein, submit to the electors of such corporation, and to the electors residing in the territory proposed by such petition to be annexed to such corporation, the question whether such territory shall be annexed to such corporation and become a part thereof. Such question shall be submitted at a special election, to be held for that purpose, and such legislative body shall give notice thereof by publication in a newspaper printed and published in such corporation, and also in a newspaper printed and published outside of such corporation, and in the county in which such territory so proposed to be annexed is situated, in both cases for a period of four weeks prior to such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be so submitted, and shall designate specifically the boundaries of the territory so proposed to be annexed; and the electors shall be invited thereby to vote upon such proposition, by placing upon their ballots the words "For annexation," or "Against annexation," or words equivalent thereto. Such legislative body shall also designate the place or places at which the polls will be opened in such territory so proposed to be annexed, which place or places shall be that or those usually used for that purpose within such territory, if any such there be. Such legislative body shall also appoint and designate in such notice the names of the officers of election. Such legislative body shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat.

The votes cast in such territory so proposed to be annexed shall be canvassed separately, and if it shall appear upon such canvass that a majority of all the votes cast in such territory and a majority of all the votes cast in such corporation shall be for annexation, such legislative body shall, by an order entered upon their minutes, cause their clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, to make and transmit to the secretary of state a certified abstract of such vote; which abstract shall show the whole number of electors voting in such territory, the whole number of electors voting in such corporation, the number of votes cast in each for annexation, and the number of votes cast in each against annexation. From and after the date of the filing of such abstract, such annexation shall be deemed complete, and thereafter such territory shall be and remain a part of such corporation; provided, that no property within such territory so annexed shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness of such corporation, contracted prior to or existing at the date of such annexation. If the territory so proposed to be annexed consists, in whole or in part, of any municipal corporation, or part thereof, such territory shall not be annexed under the provisions of this section.

§ 8. Two or more contiguous municipal corporations may become consolidated into one corporation after proceedings had as required in this section. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of either of such corporations shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than one fifth of the qualified electors of each of such corporations, as shown by the votes cast at the last municipal election held in each of such corporations, submit to the electors of each of such corporations the question whether such corporations shall become consolidated into one corporation. Such legislative body shall designate a day upon which a special election shall be held in each of such corporations to determine whether such consolidation shall be effected, and shall give written notice thereof to the council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of each of the other of such corporations, which notice shall designate the name of the proposed new corporation. It shall thereupon be the duty of such legislative body of each of the corporations so proposed to be consolidated to give notice of such election, by publication in a newspaper printed and published in such corporation, for a period of four weeks prior to such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be so submitted, the name of the corporations so proposed to be consolidated, the name of the proposed new corporation, and the class to which such proposed new corporation will belong; and shall invite the electors to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the words "For consolidation," or "Against consolidation," or words equivalent thereto. The legislative bodies of each of such corporations shall meet in joint convention at the usual place of meeting of the legislative body of that one of such corporations having the greatest population, as shown by the last federal census, on the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat. The votes cast in each of such corporations shall be canvassed separately; and if it shall appear upon such canvass that a majority of the votes cast in each of such corporations shall be for consolidation, such joint convention, by an order entered upon their minutes, shall cause the clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk of the legislative body at whose place of meeting such joint convention is held, to make a certified abstract of such vote; which abstract shall show the whole number of electors voting at such election in each of such corporations, the number of votes cast in each for consolidation, and the number of votes cast in each against consolidation. Such abstract shall be recorded upon the minutes of the legislative body of each of such corporations; and immediately upon the record thereof, it shall be the duty of the clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, of each of such legislative bodies to transmit to the secretary of state a certified copy of such abstract. Immediately after such filing, the legislative body of that one of such corporations having the greatest population, as shown by the last federal census, shall call a special election, to be held in such new corporation for the election of the officers required by law to be elected in corporations of the class to which such new corporation shall belong, which election shall be held within six months thereafter. Such election shall be called and conducted in all respects in the manner prescribed, or that may hereafter be prescribed, by law for municipal elections in corporations of such class, and shall be canvassed by the legislative body so calling the same, who shall immediately declare the result thereof, and cause the same to be entered upon their journal. From and after the date of such entry, such corporations shall be deemed to be consolidated into one corporation, under the name and style of the city and county (or city or town as the case may be) of — (naming it), with the powers conferred, or that may hereafter be conferred, by law upon municipal corporations of the class to which the same shall so belong; and the officers elected at such election shall be entitled immediately to enter upon the duties of their respective offices, upon qualifying in accordance with law, and shall hold such offices, respectively, only until the next general municipal election to be held in such city and county, city, or towns, and until their successors are elected and qualified. All the provisions of sections five and six of this act shall apply to such corporation and to the officers thereof; provided, that no property within either of the former corporations so consolidated shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness of either of the other of such former corporations contracted prior to or existing at the date of such consolidation.

§ 9. The city clerk of each municipal corporation and the city recorder of each municipal corporation where there is no city clerk shall have the powers and shall perform the duties of a registrar within such municipality which are prescribed and required by the provisions of an act entitled, "An act for the registration of deaths, the issuance and registration of burial and disinterment permits, and the establishment of registration districts in counties, cities and counties, cities, and incorporated towns, under the superintendence of the state bureau of vital statistics and prescribing the powers and duties of registrars, coroners, physicians, undertakers, sextons and other persons in relation to such registration and fixing penalties for the violation of this act." [New section added, Stats. 1905, 408.]

CHAPTER II.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS OF THE FIRST CLASS.

ARTICLE I.—GENERAL POWERS.

§ 19. Every municipal corporation of the first class shall be entitled the city and county of —, or the city of — (naming it), as the case may be, and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever; shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the city authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit.

ARTICLE II.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO OFFICERS.

§ 20. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of such city, or city and county, at the general state election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of the month of November in each even-numbered year, the following officers, viz.: A mayor, sheriff, auditor, tax collector, treasurer, county clerk, recorder, district attorney, city or city and county attorney, coroner, surveyor, superintendent of streets, twelve school directors, six justices of the peace, public administrator, and two police judges, who shall hold office for two years. The terms of such officers shall commence on the first Monday after the first day of January next following their election. Also, twelve aldermen, in the manner, and who shall hold office, as provided in section forty-one of this chapter, and twelve assistant aldermen, who shall hold office as provided in section forty-three of this chapter.

§ 21. The mayor, sheriff, county clerk, county recorder, treasurer, district attorney, auditor, tax collector, assessor, city or city and county attorney, superintendent of streets, and surveyor shall keep public offices, which shall be kept open for the transaction of business every day in the year except Sundays, Christmas, New Year's, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving, the twenty-second of February, and on any days during which a general election shall be held, between the hours of nine o'clock a. m. and five o'clock p. m.

§ 22. Whenever vacancies occur in any of the elective offices of such city, or city and county, and provision is not otherwise made in this or some other act for filling the same, the mayor shall appoint, subject to the confirmation of the board of aldermen, a person to discharge the duties of such office until the next election, when the vacancy shall be filled by election for the unexpired term. All persons so appointed shall, before entering upon their duties, take the oath of office, and give bonds as required by law.

§ 23. No fees or compensation to be paid out of the treasury, other than those expressly allowed in this chapter, shall be allowed or received by any officer of such city, or city and county, or of any district, or other subdivision thereof; nor shall any allowance or provision be made for them, or any of them, at the public expense beyond the fixed compensation herein provided under the name of office rent, fuel, lights, stationery, contingencies, extra services, or otherwise, except the compensation or percentage allowed to the tax collector and to the assessor in the collection of poll-taxes, and except that the necessary and proper books, stationery, and official blanks may, at the discretion of the municipal council, be purchased and supplied for all the courts of such city, or city and county, its officers, municipal council, and other boards, and officers, the expense whereof, when the amount in each particular case shall have been previously authorized and fixed by the municipal council, may be paid out of the general fund, upon demand upon the treasury duly audited, as in this chapter provided.

§ 24. All officers of such city, or city and county, must, before they can enter upon their official duties, give a bond as required by law. The bonds and sureties of such officers must be approved by the president of the board of aldermen, auditor, and a judge of the superior court, in and for such city and county, or in and for the county in which such city may be situated. When the amount of such official bond is not fixed by law, it shall be fixed by the municipal council. No banker residing or doing business in such city, or city and county, nor any such banker's partner, clerk, employee, agent, attorney, father, or brother, shall be received as surety for the treasurer, mayor, sheriff, auditor, or any officer having the collection, custody, or disbursement of money. No person can be admitted as surety on any such bond unless he be worth, in fixed property, including mortgages, situated in such city, or city and county, the amount of his undertaking over and above all sums for which he is already liable, or in any manner bound, whether as principal, indorser, or security, or whether such prior obligation or liability be conditional or absolute, liquidated, or unliquidated, certain or contingent, due or to become due. All persons offered as sureties on official bonds must be examined on oath touching their qualifications. The official bond of the auditor shall be filed and kept in the office of the clerk of such city, or city and county. All other official bonds shall be filed and kept in the office of the auditor; provided that the bonds and sureties of the mayor must be approved by the chairman of the house of assistant aldermen, auditor, and a judge of the superior court in and for such city and county, or in and for the county in which such city may be situated; and that the bonds and sureties of the auditor must be approved by the president of the board of aldermen, the chairman of the house of assistant aldermen, and a judge of the superior court in and for such city and county, or in and for the county in which such city may be situated.

§ 25. The compensation or salary of any officer provided for in this chapter shall not be increased or reduced after his election or during his term of office.

§ 26. The salaries of the officers, clerks, deputies, or employees of such city and county, except as otherwise in this chapter provided, shall be as follows, and payable in monthly instalments at the end of each and every month, viz.:

1. The salary of the mayor shall be four thousand dollars per annum; he may appoint a clerk, to be known as the mayor's clerk, whose salary shall be one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum.

He may also appoint such additional deputies as may be allowed by the municipal council, at salaries not to exceed five dollars per day each, for such time as they may be employed.

7. The salary of the recorder shall be three thousand dollars per annum; he may appoint one chief deputy, whose salary shall be two thousand four hundred dollars per annum, and two deputies, each of whom shall receive a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; also, two porters, who shall perform the duties of watchmen, each of whom shall receive a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum.

8. The salary of the county clerk shall be four thousand dollars per annum; he may appoint deputies as follows: One chief deputy, whose salary shall be two thousand four hundred dollars per annum; twelve court-room clerks, twelve registry clerks, each of whom shall receive a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; twelve assistant registry clerks, each of whom shall receive a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum; and twelve copyists, each of whom shall receive a salary of one thousand six hundred dollars per annum; and such county clerk, when the exigencies of his office shall require, may, in his discretion, employ such additional copyists as shall be necessary, at a compensation not to exceed three dollars per day for the days of actual service; provided, said number shall not exceed at any one time three copyists for each judge of the superior court, to be paid from the treasury in the same manner as the salaries herein provided for are to be paid.

9. The salary of the district attorney shall be five thousand dollars per annum; he may appoint two assistants, who shall be attorneys of the supreme court of this state, each of whom shall receive a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum, and two clerks, who shall be attorneys of the supreme court of the state, each of whom shall receive a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum.

10. The salary of the city, or city and county, attorney shall be four thousand dollars per annum; he may appoint two assistants, who shall be attorneys of the supreme court of this state, each of whom shall receive a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum; and one copyist, who shall receive a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum.

11. The salary of the coroner shall be three thousand dollars per annum; he may appoint two deputies, one to act as first deputy, whose salary shall be one thousand six hundred dollars per annum, the other to act as second deputy and whose salary shall be one thousand five hundred dollars per annum; and one messenger, to take charge of the dead wagon, and perform such other duties as are required by the coroner or his deputies. The salary of the messenger shall be nine hundred dollars per annum.

12. The salary of superintendent of streets shall be four thousand dollars per annum; he may appoint twenty deputies; three of said deputies shall receive a salary of two hundred dollars per month each, and seven of said deputies shall receive a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars per month each, and ten of said deputies shall receive a salary of one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month each.

13. The salary of the city, or city and county, surveyor, shall be four thousand dollars per annum; he may appoint as many deputies, not to exceed four, as the municipal council shall from time to time determine are necessary, who shall receive such compensation as such municipal council shall provide, not to exceed the sum of five dollars per day when actually employed.

14. The salary of the superintendent of schools shall be three thousand dollars per annum.

15. The salary of each of the police judges shall be four thousand dollars per annum.

16. The salary of the prosecuting attorney of the police court shall be twenty-four hundred dollars per annum; and his two assistants shall each receive a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum.

17. The salary of the presiding justice of the justices' court shall be three thousand dollars per annum; and each of the other justices of the peace shall receive a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum.

18. The salary of the clerk of the justices' court shall be two thousand four hundred dollars per annum; his two deputies shall receive a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum.

19. The salary of the collector of licenses shall be three thousand dollars per annum. He may appoint one chief deputy, who shall receive one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum, and twelve deputies, who shall receive a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum each.

§ 27. Any officer or commissioner of such city, or city and county, or any officer or member of any house, board, or department of the government thereof, who shall be directly or indirectly interested in, or a beneficiary or participant of, the profits of any contract made with or for such city, or city and county, or any board or department thereof, or who shall participate in the profits made by any person or persons upon services, labor, purchases, sales, subsistence, supplies, materials, or any article or thing furnished to or done for such city, or city and county, or any institution, public work, or branch, or department of the government thereof, or sold by the same, which contract, profit, purchase, sale, or supply is made, or could have been made, influenced, or brought about, through or by means of the official action or conduct of such officer, commissioner, or member of such board, except the official salary or compensation of such officer, commissioner, or member of such board or department provided expressly by law, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, on conviction by any court of competent jurisdiction, punished accordingly. Any commissioner, officer, clerk, or other person having custody of or access to any bids or proposals, whether sealed or otherwise, for supplying or furnishing any goods, provisions, subsistence, labor, material, printing, or other thing of any nature, or constructing, cleaning, repairing any work or thing, or doing or furnishing anything whatsoever to such city and county, or any department, board, commissioner, or officer thereof, who shall open or examine into any one or more of such bids, proposals, or change, interline, alter, or otherwise tamper with the same, or shall purposely find out the contents thereof, or who shall aid, abet, assist, or permit another so to do, before or in advance of the time prescribed by law for the opening thereof, or any lawful postponement of such time, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, on conviction by any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished accordingly.

§ 28. All questions of differences between the officers of such city, or city and county, as to their relative duties, may be referred by either of them to the city, or city and county, attorney, who shall examine and determine such questions, and his decision shall be final as between such officers.

§ 29. The following officers, and the heads of the following departments of such city, or city and county, shall report to the municipal council on or before the first day of August of each year the condition of their respective departments during the fiscal year ending June thirtieth previous thereto, embracing all their operations and expenditures: Auditor, assessor, tax collector, county clerk, superintendent of streets, fire department, hospital, almshouse, park commissioners, treasurer, sheriff, county recorder, city or city and county surveyor, license collector, public schools, fire-alarm and police telegraph, poundkeeper, board of health, city or city and county attorney, industrial school, police, coroner, health officer, justices' court, city-hall commissioners, home for the care of the inebriate, board of election directors, commissioner of elections, house of correction, city cemetery, free public library, and the building committee of the municipal council. Immediately after the first Monday in February, the mayor and municipal council shall make up and publish an extract from these several reports and other sources, of the operations, expenditures, and condition of all departments of government of such city, or city and county.

ARTICLE III.—LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 40. The legislative power of such city, or city and county, shall be vested in a body to be styled the "Municipal Council," which shall be composed of two boards or houses of legislation, one to be called the "Board of Aldermen," and the other the "House of Assistant Aldermen."

§ 41. The board of aldermen shall consist of twelve persons, to be elected by general ticket, from the city, or city and county, at large, the members of which shall hold office for the term of four years, to commence on the first Monday after the first day of January next following their election, except that of the aldermen, who are elected at the first election under this chapter; the six receiving the smallest number of votes shall hold their office for two years only; so that thereafter only six shall be elected every two years. In case of a tie vote at such first election, the question of which aldermen shall hold the full and which the short term shall be determined between the candidates so tied by lot. The aldermen shall receive each a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars a year, payable in monthly instalments, out of the general fund.

§ 42. The board of aldermen shall appoint a secretary, with a salary not to exceed two hundred dollars a month, who shall keep the records of said board. He shall hold office during the pleasure of the board. He shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations in all cases, and to certify and authenticate copies of all records, papers, and documents in his official custody, and shall perform any other services required by the board.

§ 43. The house of assistant aldermen shall consist of twelve persons, to be elected every two years, one each by the qualified electors of the respective wards, into twelve of which such city, or city and county, shall be divided for such purpose. The assistant aldermen shall hold office for the term of two years, to commence on the first Monday after the first day of January next following their election, and shall receive each a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars a year, payable monthly out of the general fund.

§ 44. The house of assistant aldermen may appoint a clerk, who shall keep their records, and hold office during their pleasure. He shall have a salary not to exceed two hundred dollars a month; shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, and to certify and authenticate all records, documents, and papers in his official custody. He shall perform any other services required of him by the house.

§ 45. Any vacancy occurring in either board shall be filled by the mayor; and the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office till the next election by the people, and until his successor is qualified.

§ 46. Every member of the board of aldermen shall be a qualified voter, at least twenty-five years of age, and shall have been a citizen of the United States and of this state, and a resident of such city, or city and county, for three years next before his election or appointment.

§ 47. Every member of the house of assistant aldermen shall be a qualified voter, at least twenty-five years of age, shall have been a citizen of the United States and of this state, and a resident of such city, or city and county, at least two years, and of the ward from which he is elected or appointed at least one year next before his election or appointment.

§ 48. Every member of either branch of the municipal council shall, at all times during his incumbency of said office, possess the following qualifications: He shall not be, directly or indirectly, interested in any contract with such city, or city and county, or any department or institution thereof. He shall not have been convicted of malfeasance in office, bribery, or other corrupt practices or crimes. Any member who fails to possess, or who shall at any time during his term of office cease to possess, any of the qualifications mentioned in this act as a qualification shall thereby forfeit his seat in the board or house to which he belongs, and the vacancy shall be filled as in other cases. If any member of either branch absent himself from the state, or neglect to attend the meeting of the board or house to which he belongs, for a period of thirty days, his office shall be declared vacant by said board, and a successor must be appointed, to hold till the next election by the people, as provided in other cases.

§ 49. Each board or house shall elect its own officers, except as to the presiding officer of the board of aldermen. The mayor shall preside at all the sessions of the board of aldermen, without the right to vote. In his absence, during any session, the board shall appoint one of its members as president pro tempore, who shall, however, have the same right to vote as other members. Each house shall be the judge of the election returns and qualifications of its own members, and may determine the rules of its own proceedings, except as herein provided. Each house shall keep a record of its acts, and allow the same to be published, and the yeas and nays on any question shall, at the request of any member, be entered on the journal of the house; may arrest and punish by fine, not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment as provided by ordinance, not exceeding thirty days, or both, any person not a member who shall be guilty of disrespect to the board or house by disorderly or contemptuous behavior in its presence during its session; may punish its members for disorderly conduct, and, with the concurrence of two thirds of all the members elect, may expel a member.

§ 50. The house of assistant aldermen shall elect one of their own number presiding officer of said house, who shall be designated as the "chairman" thereof. A majority of the members of either house shall constitute a quorum to do business; and no regulation, resolution, ordinance, or order of either house can pass without the concurrence of a majority of all the members elected or appointed to such house; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as the house or board may provide.

§ 51. All sessions, acts, and resolutions of each house shall be public. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than seven days at any one time, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses may be sitting.

§ 52. No member of the municipal council shall, during the time for which he is elected, be eligible or appointed to any other office under the city, or city and county, except such offices as may be filled by election by the people, nor shall any member, while such, be an employee of such city, or city and county, or any board or department thereof, or of either branch of the municipal council, in any capacity whatever; and no compensation shall be audited or paid for services as such officer or employee; and no act, ordinance, or resolutions shall ever be passed whereby any member of either house shall become the disbursing officer of such city, or city and county, or any board or department thereof, or pay out any of its money upon any pretense whatever.

§ 53. No member of the municipal council, or of the board of education, or any officer of such city, or city and county, or of any ward thereof, shall have any power to contract any debt or liability whatsoever against such city, or city and county, nor shall the people, or taxpayers, or any property therein, ever be liable to be assessed for or on account of any debt or liability hereafter contracted, or attempted to be contracted, in contravention of this chapter.

§ 54. The municipal council shall appoint a joint committee of five, three from the board of aldermen, and two from the house of assistant aldermen, to be denominated the "Finance Committee," which committee may at any time, and shall whenever required by the municipal council, or either branch thereof, investigate the transactions and accounts of any and all officers appertaining to the government of such city, or city and county, having the collection, custody, or disbursement of public money, or having the power to approve, allow, or audit demands on the treasurer, and report thereon to the municipal council.

Said committee shall have full power to send for all persons and papers, and enter into, examine, inquire, and investigate all offices and places, to administer oaths and affirmations, to examine witnesses, and compel their attendance by subpoena and attachment for contempt, and the production of records, books, and papers, and may imprison in the city or county jail any person refusing to appear or testify, as well as any officer or person failing or refusing obedience to the orders to show records, papers, or books, or to testify when required so to do. The sheriff or any policeman of such city, or city and county, shall enforce all orders of said committee, and attend upon it in like manner as upon courts of record. The mayor may be present and participate in such investigations.

§ 55. The municipal council shall meet on the first Monday after the first day of January, and on the first Mondays of April, July, and October of each year, and at such other times as required by law, and may be specially convoked by the mayor as herein provided.

§ 56. No ordinance shall be passed except by bill, and no bill shall be so amended in its passage as to change its original object. No bill shall contain more than one subject, which shall be expressed by its title. On the final passage of all bills the vote shall be by "yeas" and "nays" upon each bill, separately, and the names of the members voting for and against the same shall be entered on the journal. Bills may originate in either house, and no bill shall be passed by either house except by a majority vote of all the members elected or appointed to either house.

§ 57. No amendments to bills by either house shall be concurred in by the other except by a vote of a majority of all the members elected or appointed thereto, taken by yeas and nays, and the names of those voting for and against recorded upon the journal thereof; and reports of committees of conference shall be adopted by either house only by the vote of a majority of all the members elected thereto, taken by "yeas" and "nays," and the names of those voting recorded upon the journals.

§ 58. No ordinance shall be revived, re-enacted, or amended, by mere reference to its title, but such ordinance or section shall [be] set forth at length, as if it revived, re-enacted, or amended.

§ 59. When a bill is put upon its final passage in either house, and failing to pass, a motion is made to reconsider the vote by which it was defeated, the vote upon such motion to reconsider shall be taken up, and the subject finally disposed of at the next meeting of the council, unless such house, by a two-thirds vote, decides to act upon such reconsideration at the same meeting.

§ 60. No bill shall become an ordinance until the same shall have been signed by the presiding officer of each of the two houses in open session, in authentication of its adoption by such house. In signing such bill for authentication, the presiding officer shall call the attention of the house to the bill, and that he is about to sign it, and if any member request, the bill shall be read at length for information as to its correctness as enrolled. If any member object that the bill is not the same in substance and form as when considered and passed by the house, such objection shall be passed upon, and if sustained, the presiding officer shall withhold his signature, and the bill shall then be corrected, and finally disposed of, and signed, before the house proceeds to any other business.

§ 61. No general appropriation act or authorization shall ever be passed, but all appropriations shall be for the specific amount of the claim to be paid, and no more; and each ordinance or resolution authorizing the payment of money shall contain one claim only, which shall be expressed in the title. Every ordinance or resolution of the municipal council providing for any specific improvement, the granting of any privilege, or involving the lease or appropriation of public property, or the expenditures of public moneys, except for sums less than five hundred dollars, or levying tax or assessment, and every ordinance or resolution imposing a new duty or penalty, shall, after its introduction in either house, be published, with the "yeas" and nays," in a newspaper doing the city and county printing, at least five successive days before final action upon the same by the house in which it was introduced; and in case such ordinance or resolution shall be amended before final passage in said house, then the bill as amended, shall be so published, in the same manner, before final action by such house thereon; and every such ordinance, after the same shall have passed both houses, shall, before it takes effect, be presented to the mayor for his approval. If he approves, he shall sign it; if not, he shall return it within ten days to the house in which the same originated, with his objections in writing. Said house shall then enter the objections on the journal, and publish them in the newspaper doing the city printing. At the next stated meeting thereafter, said house shall proceed to reconsider such bill. If, after such reconsideration, it again passes both houses by the votes of nine of the members elected or appointed to each house voting therefor, it shall become a law, notwithstanding the mayor's objections. Should any such ordinance or resolution not be returned by the mayor within ten days after he receives it, it shall become valid, the same as if it had received his signature. Where a claim against the treasury amounts to more than five hundred dollars, it shall not be lawful to divide or break up the same into several sums of less than that amount so as to evade the provisions of this section concerning claims; and any effort or attempt to accomplish such unlawful division, or breaking up a claim, shall be deemed, as to every member of the municipal council or other officer consenting thereto, or aiding the same, a misdemeanor in office, and be cause for his removal. All ordinances authorizing the payment of any money out of the treasury, or any claim thereon, shall be referred to the appropriate standing committee of the house where the bill is introduced, who shall present the same to the auditor, in order that he may certify that there is sufficient money in the proper fund out of which such claim can lawfully be paid, and that such appropriation can be made without violating the provisions of this chapter; and until the auditor certifies in writing, signed by his name, that there is sufficient money in the proper fund, and that the authorization can be made without violating the provisions of this chapter, no further proceedings shall be had with such bill. It shall be the duty of the auditor with reasonable promptness to ascertain the facts, and to give the certificate when the facts warrant him in doing so, and not otherwise.

§ 62. The powers of the municipal council, and all other boards, commissioners, and officers, are those specially named in this chapter, and they are prohibited from exercising any other.

§ 63. The enacting clause of ordinances shall be in the following terms: "The municipal council of the city and county of — (or city of —, as the case may be), hereby ordains as follows."

§ 64. The municipal council shall further have power by regulation or ordinance :

1. To provide for the security, custody, and administration of all property of such city, or city and county, and to purchase land required for municipal purposes without any power to sell or encumber the same, or lease any part thereof for more than three years ; except, however, that such personal property belonging to the fire, street, or other departments, as they deem unsuited to the uses and purposes for which the same was designed, or so much worn and dilapidated as not to be worth repairing, may be sold or exchanged.

2. To provide for cases omitted in this chapter, and in conformity with the principles adopted in it, for opening, altering, extending, constructing, repairing, or otherwise improving public streets and highways at the expense of the property benefited thereby, without any recourse in any event upon such city, or city and county, or the public treasury, for any portion of the expense of such work, or any delinquency of the property holders or owners.

3. To provide for lighting the streets. But no contract for lighting streets or public buildings shall ever be made for more than one year in duration ; nor shall any contract to pay more for gas or other illuminating material than is legally charged to ordinary consumers, or than the usual market rates, be valid.

4. To provide water for all municipal purposes, and to pay for the same where lawful and necessary. In case water is supplied to such city, or city and county, for municipal purposes, any person, corporation, or association holding a valid franchise under the laws of this state to collect water rates for the use of water, then such city, or city and county, when it is lawful and necessary, shall pay the lawful rates, and no more, as established each year for water supplied for other than municipal purposes ; and it shall not be lawful to make any special contract with such person, corporation, or association for water so as to vary from the rates fixed by law.

5. To regulate market-houses and market-places.

6. To provide for inclosing, improving, and regulating all public grounds of such city, or city and county.

7. To prohibit the erection of wooden buildings or structures within any fixed limits where the streets have been established and graded, or ordered to be graded, or to restrict and limit the height of such buildings or structures ; to regulate the sale, storage, and use of gunpowder, and to restrict the limits within which may be manufactured or kept giant powder, dynamite, nitroglycerin, or other explosive or combustible materials and substances, and the maintenance of acid works ; and make all useful regulations in relation to the manufacture, storage, and transportation of all such substances, and the maintenance of acid works, slaughter-houses, brick burning, tanneries, and all other manufactures and works of every description that may jeopardize the public safety, and to exclude them from the city, or city and county, when necessary, or to restrict them, or any of them, to a district. To make all necessary regulations for protection against fire, as well as such rules and regulations concerning the erection and use of buildings as may be necessary for the safety of the inhabitants.

8. To permit the laying down of railroad tracks and the running of cars thereon along any street, or portion of street, for the sole purpose of excavating and filling in a street, or a portion of a street, or adjoining lots, and for such limited time as may be necessary for the purpose aforesaid, and no longer.

9. To determine the fines, forfeitures, and penalties that shall be incurred for the breach of regulations established by the said municipal council, and also for a violation of the provisions of this chapter, where no penalty is affixed thereto or provided by law; but no penalty to be imposed shall exceed the amount of one thousand dollars, or six months' imprisonment, or both. And every violation of any lawful order or regulation, or ordinances of the municipal council, is hereby declared a misdemeanor or public offense, and all prosecutions for the same shall be in the name of the people of the state of California.

10. To regulate and provide for the employment of prisoners sentenced to labor on the public works of such city, or city and county, and to maintain and regulate city, or city and county, jails and prisons, with manufacturing or other laboring establishments, or appliances connected therewith.

11. To provide a suitable office and jury room, and dead-house or morgue, with the furniture necessary to enable the coroner to efficiently discharge the duties of his office, and to make the necessary appropriation therefor; and to audit and pay for the necessary expenses of maintaining the morgue and offices attached, such sum as may be necessary, not to exceed seventy-five dollars per month, out of the general fund.

12. To maintain and regulate a home of [for] the inebriate, in its discretion.

13. To provide and maintain a city prison.

14. To maintain and improve the city cemeteries, and to pay out of the general fund a keeper thereof, to be appointed by the board of health, at a salary not to exceed one hundred dollars a month.

15. To license and regulate hackney carriages and other public passenger vehicles, and to fix the rates to be charged for the transportation of persons, baggage, goods, merchandise, and property, or either, thereon; and to license and regulate all vehicles used for the conveyance of merchandise, earth, and ballast, or either; and also to license and regulate persons and parties employed in conveying baggage, property, and merchandise, or either, to or from any of the wharves, slips, bulkheads, or railroad stations within the limits of such city, or city and county; to fix and establish the amount of every license paid into the city, or city and county, treasury for city, or city and county, purposes; to provide for the summary removal and disposition of any or all vehicles found in the streets, highways, and public squares during certain hours of the day or night, to be designated by the council; and, in addition to all other remedies, to provide by regulation for the sale or other disposition of such vehicles; to protect the public from injury by runaways, by punishing persons who negligently leave horses or carriages in the street; to prescribe the width of the tires of all drays, trucks, and carts, in accordance with the weight to be carried thereby, for the preservation of the streets and highways.

16. To regulate, license, and control the business of keeping intelligence offices, prescribe the method of conducting said business, and to enforce, by fines and penalties, the payment of the license, and any violation of the regulation touching said business. To license and regulate pawnbrokers, and to enact regulations to protect the public in dealing with them.

17. To fix the fees and charges to be collected by the surveyor of such city, or city and county, for certificates of surveys for buildings or other purposes, and to provide for a sufficient corps of deputy surveyors to perform such work, to be paid from such fees only; also, to regulate the fees to be charged by the superintendent of streets, the county recorder, and any and all other municipal officers where their fees are not otherwise fixed by law, and compel the payment of all such fees and charges into the city and county treasury into the proper fund, in accordance with the provisions of this act.

18. To license and regulate, for the purposes of city, or city and county, revenue, all such callings, trades, and employments as the public good may require to be licensed and regulated, and as are not prohibited by law; to provide for and enforce, with penalties or otherwise, the collection and due payment into the city, or city and county, treasury of all moneys so due or raised, and to make all needful rules and regulations to govern the official conduct and duties of the collector of licenses.

19. To provide and pay for the construction and repair of hydrants, fire plugs, cisterns, and pumps in the streets.

20. To allow and order paid out of the general fund a sum not to exceed three thousand dollars in any year, for the celebration in such city, or city and county, of the anniversary of our national independence.

21. To allow and order paid out of the general fund for the election expenses of such city, or city and county, not to exceed forty dollars for each election precinct for each election in said city, or city and county.

22. To provide ways and means for the prosecution of the claims of such city, or city and county, to any land or other property or right claimed by such municipality.

23. To provide for the appointment by the mayor of a weigher of coal, without salary, and to regulate and define his duties, and establish rates of charges to be collected from persons requiring his services, and for his compensation from such rates and charges alone, and with no claim upon such city, or city and county.

24. To authorize and direct the summary abatement of nuisances; to make all regulations which may be necessary or expedient for the preservation of the public health and the prevention of contagious diseases; to provide fines and penalties against individuals who may be guilty of maintaining any nuisances, and enforcing the same until such nuisance be removed or abated; to provide by regulation for the prevention and summary removal of all nuisances and obstructions in the streets, alleys, highways, and public grounds of such city, or city and county, and to prevent or regulate the running at large of dogs, and to authorize the destruction of the same when at large contrary to ordinance.

25. To prohibit, suppress, regulate, or exclude from certain limits all houses of ill-fame, prostitution, and gaming; to prohibit, suppress, regulate, or exclude from certain limits all occupations, houses, places, pastimes, amusements, exhibitions, and practices which are against good morals, contrary to public order and decency, or dangerous to the public safety.

26. To require, by ordinance, all contractors for street work, or other persons lawfully undertaking to improve, grade, or alter streets or public highways, to erect fences or barriers, to keep lights at night, and to take other necessary precautions to protect the public from damage, loss, or accident by reason of such grading, alteration, or improvement, and to fix and prescribe penalties for the violation of the provisions of such ordinance.

27. To provide for the safe-keeping and disposition of lost, stolen, or unclaimed property of every kind, which may at any time be in the possession or under the control of the police of such city, or city and county.

28. To regulate, and when necessary to suppress, all public demonstrations and processions which interfere with public traffic.

29. To appoint a fire marshal. Such appointment shall be made on the nomination of the board of fire underwriters of such city, or city and county, if such board shall exist therein. If more than one such board shall exist therein, then upon the nomination of the board which shall have been longest organized. His salary shall be fixed and paid by such board of fire underwriters. Such fire marshal shall, before entering upon the office, take and subscribe the oath of office, and execute a bond to the state of California in the sum of five thousand dollars, with two or more sureties, to be approved by a judge of the superior court, for the faithful discharge of his duties. Any person aggrieved by any misconduct of such marshal, or his deputy, may bring an action in his own name upon such official bond, which bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk. It shall be the duty of such fire marshal to attend all fires which may occur in such city, or city and county, with a badge of office conspicuously displayed. He shall take charge of and protect all property which may be imperiled at any such fire, and safely keep the same under his possession and control until satisfactory proof of ownership be made thereto; and shall, as far as practicable, prevent such property from being injured at such fire, and direct, when in his opinion it shall be necessary, the removal of goods, merchandise, and other property to a place of safety. He shall be authorized and empowered to exercise the functions of a peace-officer of such city, or city and county. Any person who shall wilfully hinder or obstruct said officer in the lawful discharge of his duties shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize such fire marshal to interfere in any manner with the proper discharge of the lawful duties and authority of any chief engineer of any fire department of such city and county. It shall be the duty of such fire marshal to institute investigations into the cause of such fires as occur in such city, or city and county; and for this purpose he shall have power to issue subpoenas and administer oaths, and compel the attendance of witnesses before him by attachment or otherwise. All subpoenas issued by him shall be in such form as he may prescribe, and shall be directed to and served by any police officer, or by any peace-officer of such city, or city and county. And witness who refuses to attend or testify in obedience to such subpoena shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and be punishable by him as in cases of contempt in justices' courts in civil cases. He shall make a written report of the testimony to the district attorney, and institute criminal prosecutions in all cases in which there appears to him to be a reasonable and probable cause for believing that a fire has been caused by design. It shall be the duty of such fire marshal to aid in the enforcement of the fire ordinances of such city, or city and county, and for this purpose he is duly authorized to visit and examine all buildings in process of erection or undergoing repairs, and to institute prosecutions for all violations of the ordinances of such city, or city and county, which relate to the erection, alteration, or repairs of buildings, and for the prevention of fires. He shall exercise such additional powers as may be conferred upon him by the ordinances of such city, or city and county, to enable him fully to carry out the object and purpose of his appointment, and for the prevention of fires. He shall have power to appoint a deputy, who may exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of such marshal. The salary of such deputy shall be paid in the same manner as the fire marshal. Any person who saves from fire, or from a building endangered by fire, any property, and who wilfully neglects for two days to give notice to such fire marshal, or to the owner of such property, of his possession thereof, shall be deemed guilty of grand or petit larceny, as the case may be, according to the value of said property; and any person who shall be guilty of false swearing in any investigation under this subdivision shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished therefor as in other cases of perjury. Such fire marshal may be removed at any time by the same power or powers that appointed him. And in case of the removal, resignation, or death of such fire marshal, his successor shall be appointed in the same manner as hereinbefore provided. Such fire marshal is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint one or more persons, during the time of fire, for the purpose of saving and protecting property at such fire, and until it shall be delivered to the owner or claimant thereof, and such person or persons so appointed shall have, during such period, the authority and power of a policeman of such city, or city and county, and shall be known as the fire marshal's police; and each of such persons shall wear, while in the discharge of his duty, conspicuously displayed on his person, such badge or device as such fire marshal shall designate. No person shall be entitled to any property in the hands of such fire marshal, saved from fire, until satisfactory proof of ownership be made, and until the actual expenses incurred by such officer for the preservation and keeping of the same shall be paid to him by the owner or claimant of said property; and in case of dispute as to the amount of such expenses, said dispute to be determined by the justices' court of such city, or city and county. Such fire marshal is hereby duly authorized and empowered to hold and sell, or cause to be sold, at public auction, all property in his possession, saved from a fire or fires, for which no owner can be found, after advertising the same in two daily newspapers published in such city, or city and county, for the period of thirty days; provided, however, that if, upon application of such fire marshal to the police judge, it shall appear that such property is perishable, such judge may order such fire marshal to make sale thereof upon such notice as in the opinion of such judge may be reasonable. The proceeds of all such sales, together with an account thereof, after deducting all expenses, shall be by him deposited with the treasurer of such city, or city and county, to be held by such treasurer, subject to the claim of the owner of such property. Such fire marshal shall, from time to time, file with the clerk of such city, or city and county, under oath, a statement and description of all property in his possession, or under his control and sold by him, together with the amount of money by him deposited with the treasurer of such city, or city and county.

30. To maintain a fire-alarm and police telegraph in such city, or city and county.

31. To require the owners of lots to prevent sand from drifting, being blown, or otherwise moved therefrom, into or deposited upon any paved, planked, or macadamized street, alley, place, park, thoroughfare, or other public property, and to enforce all such regulations by sufficient fines and penalties.

32. To maintain, regulate, govern, manage, and carry on a house of correction, and to utilize therein and thereby the labor of all prisoners committed to the jail or house of correction of such city, or city and county, by the police courts and the superior courts; to prescribe rules of commitment and detention of prisoners, hours of labor, and all necessary rules, regulations, and restrictions for the proper operation of said institution. All prisoners sentenced to a term in the county jail, or house of correction, shall be deemed to have been sentenced to labor during such term. The judges of police courts and of the superior courts, in such city, or city and county, may sentence criminals to the house of correction when, in the judgment of such judge, the criminal is too young to be sentenced to the state prison, or when it is deemed better for the well-being of the prisoner. No person shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the house of correction for a shorter or longer term than that for which he might be sentenced in the jail of such city, or city and county, or in the state prison; and in no case whatever for a shorter term than three months nor for a longer term than three years. No person who might be sentenced to imprisonment in the state prison shall be sentenced to imprisonment in the house of correction if he is more than twenty-five years of age, if he has been once before convicted of a felony, or twice before convicted of petit larceny, nor unless, in the opinion of the court, imprisonment in the house of correction will be more for his interest than imprisonment in the state prison, and equally for the interest of the public. The fact of a previous conviction may be found by the court upon evidence introduced at the time of sentence. The board of aldermen of the city, or city and county, shall appoint a competent superintendent of the house of correction of such city and county, who shall also be treasurer of said house of correction, and who shall give good and sufficient bonds, in a sum, and with sureties, to be approved by said board of aldermen, for the faithful discharge of his duties, and to whom shall be paid a salary, to be fixed by them, not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars per month, payable monthly. Said superintendent shall only be removed, for just and sufficient legal cause, after a fair and impartial investigation of his case by said board of aldermen. He shall, immediately after his appointment, and when authorized by said board of aldermen, appoint, subject to the approval thereof, such subordinates as may be deemed necessary by the board of aldermen; and the pay of such subordinates shall be fixed by said board of aldermen, not exceeding one hundred dollars per month to each party so appointed. The superintendent shall manage the general interests of the institution; see that its affairs are conducted in accordance with the requirements of this chapter and of such by-laws as the board of aldermen may from time to time adopt for the orderly and economical management of its concerns; to see that strict discipline is maintained therein; to provide employment for the inmates; adjust and certify all claims against the institution. And all by-laws made by said board of aldermen for the management of said institution, and not contrary to the laws of this state, shall be binding, in all respects, upon said superintendent, officers, and inmates; and said superintendent shall each year prepare and submit, under oath, to the board of aldermen a report of the concerns of said institution. The superintendent shall reside at the house of correction, have charge of its inmates and property, and be its treasurer; keep accounts of all his receipts and expenditures, and of all such property and account in such manner as the said municipal council may require, and hold all books and papers open to their inspection.

33. To maintain and regulate an industrial school for the detention, management, reformation, education, and maintenance of such children, under the age of eighteen years, as shall be committed or surrendered thereto by the courts of such city, or city and county, as vagrants, living an idle or dissolute life, or who shall be convicted by the police or superior court of any crime or misdemeanor, or who, being tried for any crime or misdemeanor in such court, shall be found to be under fourteen years of age, and to have done an act which, if done by a person of full age, would be a crime or misdemeanor; and said council is empowered to regulate the commitment, detention, and discharge of such children, and to designate and prescribe the causes, terms, and conditions thereof; and the said police court and superior court shall have power to adjudge that such persons so convicted shall be so imprisoned; and persons so convicted shall remain at said industrial school until he or she shall attain majority, unless a shorter time shall be fixed by said court in the commitment. Such children shall be kept at such employments and be instructed in such branches of useful knowledge as may be suitable to their age and capacity. The municipal council may provide for binding out such children as apprentices during their minority, to learn proper trades and employments. There shall be a superintendent of said industrial school, to be appointed by the board of aldermen. He shall be deemed a public officer, whose salary shall not exceed two hundred and fifty dollars per month, and such other employees as may be necessary, with salary not to exceed one hundred dollars per month each. Such police and superior court, or either of them, upon the application of the board of aldermen, and upon its certificate that it is expedient to do so, shall have power to discharge any child committed to said industrial school, and who is not bound out as an apprentice, or adopted, and may in like manner discharge such child upon the application, in writing, of the parents or guardian of such child, who shall not have been bound out or adopted, and after ten days' notice, in writing, to the board of aldermen, if, upon the hearing of the application, such police court or superior court shall consider that such discharge is expedient.

34. To establish and maintain an almshouse, a city and county hospital, a smallpox hospital, and such other institutions of the same character as are or may be necessary, and to perpetuate such institutions as may have been heretofore established in such cities, or cities and counties, heretofore incorporated.

35. To order paid out of the general fund any final judgment against such city, or city and county.

36. To maintain, regulate, and govern a public pound, fix the limits within which animals shall not run at large, and appoint pound-keepers, who shall be paid for out of the fines imposed and collected of the owners of impounded animals, and from no other source.

37. To allow and order paid out of the street department fund such sums as may be deemed necessary for improvement of streets bordering on the water front, and improvement of sewers and streets in front of public property.

38. To allow and order paid out of the general fund such sums as may be necessary for burying the indigent dead.

39. To allow and order paid out of the general fund such sums, not to exceed five thousand dollars in any one fiscal year, as may be deemed necessary for the employment of special counsel.

40. To enact such general and special police regulations for such city, or city and county, as shall secure the health, comfort, and security of the inhabitants, the safety and security of property and life, and to enforce the same therein.

41. To make needful rules and regulations for the administration, care, and maintenance and conduct of all departments and offices of such city, or city and county, when not otherwise in this chapter provided for, so as to secure more perfect safety of the public funds, and greater efficiency in all departments of the service, and to enforce the observation of such rules and regulations, and to authorize the appointment of such additional clerks, assistant deputies, and employees as in their judgment may be necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of such offices and departments.

42. To appropriate the moneys derived from the revenue of such city, or city and county, to a general fund, and such funds as have been heretofore or shall be hereafter established by law, or the said council, and as shall be necessary for the proper and economical administration of such city, or city and county.

43. To establish, maintain, and regulate free public libraries and reading-rooms, and to perpetuate such free libraries and reading-rooms as may have been heretofore established in such cities, or cities and counties, heretofore incorporated.

44. To provide, fit up, and furnish, and provide with fuel, lights, stationery, and all necessary attendance, conveniences, and care, rooms convenient and accessible to the courts, sufficient for the use and accommodation of a law library and those who have occasion to use it, and approved by the officers having the government of said library, and to perpetuate and in the same manner provide for any law library now existing in such city, or city and county, the use of which has been secured by law to the courts, the bar, and the city, or city and county, government. The municipal council shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to appropriate, allow, and order paid out of the proper fund such sums as may be necessary therefor.

45. To establish and maintain a free medical dispensary, and to perpetuate any such heretofore existing in such city, or city and county.

46. To appoint a committee of five, three from the board of aldermen and two from the house of assistant aldermen, to be denominated the "building committee," to superintend the construction of buildings hereafter to be constructed for such city, or city and county, or now in progress of construction therefor, and to appoint a secretary for such committee, and to fix his compensation, and, if necessary, also to appoint a superintendent and architect therefor, fix their respective compensation, and require of such superintendent and architect to execute bonds, with two sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duty [duties], in such sums as may be deemed necessary.

47. To divide the city, or city and county, by ordinance, into twelve wards, to fix the boundaries thereof, and to change the same from time to time; provided, that no change in the boundaries of any ward shall be made within sixty days next before the date of said general election, nor within twenty months after the same shall have been established or altered.

48. To provide for the levy, collection, and appropriation of revenue heretofore by law provided to be collected for the erection and completion of any public building in and for such city, or city and county, in the manner as heretofore provided by any law of this state for the levy, collection, and appropriation of the same.

§ 65. The municipal council shall constitute a board of equalization for such city, or city and county, and as such shall have the powers conferred by the general laws regulating the assessment and collection of taxes, when not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

§ 66. All the streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, as laid down on the official map of such city, or city and county, and all other streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts now dedicated or open to public use, are hereby declared to be open public streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts for the purpose of this chapter; and the municipal council is invested with jurisdiction to order any of the work mentioned in section sixty-seven of this act to be done on any of said streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, when the grade and width of said streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts have been officially established; and for the purposes of this chapter the grade of all intermediate or intersecting streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts in any one block shall conform to the grades as established of the crossings of the main streets.

§ 67. The municipal council is hereby authorized and empowered to order the whole or any portion of the said streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts graded or regraded to the official grade, planked or replanked, paved or repaved, macadamized or remacadamized, piled or repiled, capped or recapped, and to order sidewalks, sewers, cesspools, manholes, culverts, curbing, and crosswalks to be constructed, and to order any streets and sewers cleaned, and to order any other work to be done which shall be necessary to make and complete the whole or any portion of said streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, and they may order any of the said work to be improved; and when any street, or portion of a street has been or shall hereafter be constructed to the satisfaction of the municipal council and the superintendent of streets, and shall have a brick sewer, or cement or ironstone pipe constructed therein, under such regulations as said municipal council shall adopt, the same shall be accepted by it, and thereafter shall be kept open and improved by such city, or city and county, the expense thereof, together with all work done in front of city, or city and county, property, to be paid out of the street department fund, or other proper fund; provided, that the municipal council shall not accept of any portion of the street less than the entire width of the roadway (including the curbing and one block in length, or one entire crossing); and provided further, that it may, partially or conditionally, accept any street, or portion of a street, without a sewer or pipe therein as above stated, if a sewer or pipe therein shall be deemed by them unnecessary; but the lots of land previously assessable for the cost of construction of a sewer or pipe shall still remain and be assessable for such cost, and for the cost of repair and restoration of the street damaged in the said construction, when thereafter a sewer or pipe shall be deemed necessary, the same as if no partial or conditional acceptance had ever been had. The said superintendent of streets shall keep in his office a register of all accepted streets, the same to be indexed so that reference may be easily had thereto.

§ 68. The municipal council may order work authorized by this chapter, the cost and expense of which is made chargeable, or may be assessed upon private property by special assessment, to be done, after notice of its intention so to do in the form of a resolution describing the work, and signed by the clerks of both branches of the municipal council, has been published for the period of five days in the paper doing the printing for such city, or city and county, and also in two daily newspapers, one of which newspapers shall be published as a morning edition and one as an evening edition, printed and published in such city, or city and county, for five days, Sundays and non-judicial days excepted; provided, that no such notice shall be given or order made for the grading of any street, unless the majority of the frontage of the lots and land fronting on the work proposed to be done, and described in said resolution, or which is to be made liable for such grading, except public property, shall have been represented by the owners thereof, or by their agents, in a petition to the said municipal council, stating that they are the owners and in possession or agents of the lots named in the petition, and also requesting that such improvements or street work shall be done. All owners of lands, or lots, or portions of lots, who may feel aggrieved, or have objection to the ordering of the work described in said notice, or who may have objection to any of the subsequent proceedings of the municipal council in relation to the work mentioned in such notices of intention, or may have any objections to any of the acts of the superintendent of streets, and the city, or city and county, surveyor of such city, or city and county, in the discharge of any of the obligations or duties imposed upon him or them by virtue of their offices, shall file with the clerk of either branch of the municipal council a petition or remonstrance, wherein they shall set forth in what respect they feel aggrieved, or the acts or proceedings to which they object, which petition or remonstrance shall be passed upon by the municipal council, and its decisions thereon shall be final and conclusive; but the municipal council shall not order the work described in said notices to be done unless all objections and protests that may have been presented and filed as aforesaid shall have been by them disposed of. Should the owners or agents of more than one half in frontage of the lots and lands fronting on the work proposed to be done, and designated in said notice or resolution, or liable to be assessed for work, file with the clerk of either branch of the municipal council written objections against any grading described in said notice, at any time before the expiration of the publication of said notice of intention, and the publication thereof, as hereinbefore provided, then and thereupon the municipal council shall be barred from proceeding further for the period of six months, and shall not renew the notice of intention for doing any street work so protested against within six months, unless the owners or agents of a majority of the frontage of the lots and land fronting on said street work, or liable to be assessed therefor as aforesaid, shall petition anew for the work to be done. At the expiration of any notice of intention, the municipal council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order any work to be done which is authorized by this chapter; and it is further provided, that where any public street shall have been graded, or graded and macadamized, or graded and paved, for the distance of one or two blocks upon each side thereof of any one or two blocks or crossing of a street which is not improved, it shall be the duty of the municipal council, upon the recommendation of the superintendent of streets, to order the notice provided in this section to be given without the petition provided first aforesaid; and if the owners of three fourths of the frontage of the land and lots fronting on such portions of said streets to be graded or improved shall, within the time prescribed in said notice, file written objections to the improvement of the said street, such objection shall be a bar for six months for the doing of said work or making said improvement, except when the work or improvement proposed to be done is the construction of sewers, manholes, culverts, crosswalks, and sidewalks, the municipal council shall duly consider said objections before ordering said work; and if it shall decide and declare by an entry in the minutes of both branches thereof that the objections so made are not good, thereupon it shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order any such street work to be done that is described in said notice; provided further, that when one half or more of the grading, planking, macadamizing, paving, sidewalking, or sewerage of any one street, lying between two main street crossings, has been already performed, the municipal council may order the remainder of such grading, planking, macadamizing, paving, sidewalking, or sewerage to be done, notwithstanding the objections of any or all of the property owners.

§ 69. The owners of more than one half in frontage of lots and lands fronting on any street, lane, alley, place, or court, mentioned in section sixty-six of this act, or their duly authorized agents, may petition the said municipal council to order any of the work mentioned in section sixty-seven of this act to be done; and the said board may order the work mentioned in said petition to be done, after notice of their intention so to do has been published as provided in section sixty-eight of this act. No order or permission shall be given to grade, or pile and cap, any street, lane, alley, place, or court, in the first instance, or any portion thereof, without extending or completing the same throughout the whole width of said street, lane, alley, place, or court. When any such work has heretofore been done, or when any such work shall hereafter be done, in violation of this section, neither the lots or portions of lots in front of which such work has been or may be done hereafter, nor the owners thereof, shall be exempt from assessments made for the payment of the work afterwards done to complete said street, lane, alley, place or court to its full width, as provided in this chapter.

§ 70. At the expiration of publication of such notice, the clerk of either branch of the municipal council shall cause to be transmitted to the city, or city and county, surveyor, and to the superintendent of streets of such city, or city and county, a copy of the resolution, order, or ordinance authorizing the said street work. The said surveyor shall thereupon, within fifteen days from the completion of the publication mentioned in the last section, transmit to said municipal council a map of the district to be benefited by said street improvement; which map shall show the relative location of each lot to the work proposed to be done, and be signed by said surveyor. The superintendent of streets shall also thereupon, within fifteen days from the completion of said publication, transmit to the municipal council an estimate of the cost and expense of said improvement, which said estimate shall contain the items composing the gross sum estimated, and shall be signed by said superintendent.

§ 71. The municipal council shall, at the first meeting after the receipt of such map and estimate, or as soon as may be practicable, either adopt, modify, or reject the same, and after its final action upon said map and estimate, the same shall be transmitted to said superintendent of streets, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for such purpose; and the said superintendent shall forthwith prepare plans and specifications for such street work, and the clerk of either branch of the municipal council shall cause to be conspicuously posted in the office of said superintendent, and also published for five days (non-judicial days excepted) in the newspapers hereinbefore mentioned, a notice inviting sealed proposals to contract for the work contemplated to be performed; such work not to be performed, nor any contract for the same made or entered into, until after the moneys sufficient for the payment of the costs and expenses thereof shall have been levied, collected, and paid into the treasury of such city, or city and county, as hereinafter provided; which notice shall substantially contain the plans and specifications above mentioned; and all notices, resolutions, and orders required to be posted or published under the provisions of this chapter shall be posted or published, or both posted and published, as the law may require, by said clerk, as a matter of course, and without any special direction or authority from said municipal council. The said superintendent shall furnish specifications for the performance of any and all street work ordered by the municipal council and authorized by this chapter, and the time within which said work must be completed after entering into the contract for doing the same. All proposals shall be delivered to the clerk of either branch of the municipal council, and the house of which he is the clerk shall, in open session, open, examine, and publicly declare the same; and all proposals shall be for a price payable in gold coin of the United States; provided, said municipal council may reject any and all proposals should they deem it for the public good, and also may reject the proposals of any party who may be proved delinquent or unfaithful with any former contract with such city, or city and county; and if all proposals shall be rejected, the municipal council shall direct the clerk of either house thereof to again post said notice, and publish the same as in the first instance. All proposals shall be accompanied with a bond to such city, or city and county, to be approved by the clerk of either house of said municipal council, in the sum of one thousand dollars, and in such additional amount as may be fixed by said superintendent of streets, with two good and sufficient sureties, who must be freeholders of such city, or city and county, said sureties to justify in double the amount, conditioned that the party making such proposal shall, or will, within ten days after notice from said superintendent that the moneys for the cost and expenses for such work have been paid into the treasury, enter into a contract with such city, or city and county, in pursuance of such proposal, and to commence such work within five days after the execution of such contract, and complete the same within the time mentioned in the said plans and specifications, or either of them, or within any extended time; it is further provided, that all persons proposing, owners included, who shall fail to enter into any contract as herein provided, or to complete the contracts entered into, are hereby prohibited from proposing a second time for the same work; and in case of owners, they are hereby prohibited from electing to take the same work a second time, and from entering into any contract concerning the same. At any time within five days after such money has been paid into the treasury, the owners of a majority of the frontage of lots and lands liable to be assessed for said work, or their agents, and who shall make oath that they are such owners, or the agents of such owners, may elect to do the said work, and to enter into a written contract to do the whole work at the price for which the same is awarded, upon giving the bond as hereinafter provided; and they shall commence said work within five days after the execution of such contract, and shall prosecute it diligently and continuously, and complete it within the time limited in the contract, or within any extended time; but should the said contractor, or the property owners, fail to prosecute the same diligently or continuously, in the judgment of said superintendent, or complete it within the time prescribed in the contract, or within the extended time, then it shall be the duty of said superintendent to report the same to the municipal council, who shall immediately order the clerk of either branch of the municipal council to advertise for proposals as in the first instance, and relet the contract in the manner hereinbefore provided; and it is further provided, that all contractors for street work shall, at the time of entering into said contract, execute a bond payable to such city, [or] city or [and] county, with two or more sureties, in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars, and in such additional amount as may be fixed by said superintendent, conditioned for the faithful performance of said contract; and said sureties shall justify in double the amount of the penalty fixed in said bond; such sureties to justify before said superintendent or his deputy, and the qualifications and responsibility of such sureties shall be the same as prescribed for sureties on the official bonds of the officers of such city, or city and county; and it is further provided, that in case of the non-fulfilment by the obligor in either of the bonds mentioned in this section, of the conditions thereof, it shall be the duty of the city, or city and county, attorney to sue for and collect the sum in said bond mentioned, in any court of competent jurisdiction, and pay the same into the city and county treasury, to the credit of the proper fund.

§ 72. After the proposal shall have been received and considered by the municipal council, the superintendent of streets shall make an assessment in proportion to the benefit upon all the land in the district shown upon said map. Said assessment shall show the work proposed to be done, the estimated cost thereof, the rate per front foot assessed against each lot within the assessment district, the amount of each assessment, the name of the owner of each lot, or portion of lot, if known to the superintendent, and if such owner be unknown, the word "Unknown" shall be written opposite the number of the lot (but an assessment made to a person not the owner shall not render such assessment illegal), and the amount assessed thereon, the number of each lot, or portion of lot, assessed, and shall have attached thereto a diagram showing the assessment district, and the relative location of each lot assessed to the work proposed to be done, each lot being numbered in said assessment and diagram; and when completed, shall be signed by said superintendent, and transmitted to the board of aldermen.

§ 73. At the first meeting of the board of aldermen, after the receipt by it of the assessment made by said superintendent, as soon thereafter as may be practicable, it shall cause notice of the time and place of the hearing of all objections to said assessment to be published for at least five days (Sundays and non-judicial days excepted), prior to the time of such hearing, in two daily newspapers, one published as a morning edition and one as an evening edition, in such city, or city and county. All objections shall be heard in open session of said board of aldermen. At said hearing said board of aldermen may alter, modify, or confirm said assessment, as it shall deem proper; and said superintendent shall thereupon record said assessment and diagram in a book to be kept by him for that purpose. When so recorded, the several amounts assessed shall be deemed a tax levied upon the lands described in said assessment and diagram, upon which they are respectively assessed, and shall be a lien upon such parcels of land. Said superintendent shall give to each assessment a number by which the fund collected for said work shall be known, and shall immediately after the record of said assessment, as hereinbefore provided, deliver the said assessment and diagram to the tax collector of such city and county, who shall thereupon cause to be published for ten successive days (Sundays and non-judicial days excepted), in two newspapers of general circulation, one of which shall be published as a morning edition and one as an evening edition, published in such city, or city and county, a notice containing a description of the proposed improvement, and of the portion of street or streets upon which the same is proposed to be done, that the same is in his hands for collection; that if said assessment is not paid within fifteen days from the date of the last publication of such notice, that the same will be delinquent; that the property assessed, and upon which the assessment remains unpaid, will be sold by said tax collector for said assessment, a brief description of the property assessed, the amount assessed thereon, and the time and place of sale, which shall be not less than five nor more than ten days after such delinquency.

§ 74. On the day fixed for the sale, said tax collector, between the hours of ten a. m. and three p. m., must commence the sale of the property advertised, upon which the assessment remains unpaid, and sell the same at public vendue, in the office of said tax collector, to the person who will take the least quantity of the respective parcels of land assessed, and pay the assessment thereon, together with two dollars to said tax collector for the duplicate certificate of sale. If the purchaser does not forthwith pay the amounts of the assessment and costs by him bid, the tax collector shall immediately proceed to sell such parcel or parcels again, in the same manner, for the amount of said assessment and costs.

§ 75. After receiving the amount of the assessment and costs, said tax collector must make out in duplicate a certificate, dated on the day of sale, showing the name of the person assessed, when known, a brief description of the property sold, the street improvement for which the assessment was levied, the number of the assessment, that it was sold for an assessment, the amount thereof, that the same is subject to redemption at any time within one year after sale, and specifying the date when the purchaser will be entitled to a deed; and upon payment to said tax collector of the fee for recording the same, said tax collector shall deliver one of such duplicates to the purchaser, and the same day file the other in the office of the recorder of the county, or city and county, who shall record the same.

§ 76. Upon filing the said duplicate in the office of said recorder, the lien aforesaid is vested in the purchaser, and is only divested by payment to him, or to the treasurer of such city, or city and county, for his use, of the purchase money and costs, and two per centum per month and fraction of a month up to date of redemption thereon. A redemption of the property sold may be made by the owner, or any party in interest, within twelve months from the date of purchase.

§ 77. If property is not redeemed within twelve months from the date of such sale, the tax collector must make to the purchaser, or his assignee, a deed, reciting substantially the matters contained in the certificate, and that no person redeemed the property during the time allowed by law for its redemption. The matters recited in the certificate of sale must be recited in the deed, and such deed, duly acknowledged, shall be prima facie evidence that:

1. The property was assessed as required by law;
2. That the assessment was not paid;
3. That the property was sold at the proper time and place, and by the proper officer;
4. That the person who executed the deed was the proper officer therefor;
5. That the title to the property therein described is vested in the purchaser, his heirs, or assigns, free from all encumbrances, except taxes for purposes of revenue.

§ 78. Said tax collector shall daily pay into the treasury of such city, or city and county, to the credit of the proper street-improvement fund, all moneys collected by him on account of such fund, and shall, upon the receipt of any assessment, mark the same paid upon the assessment roll, and shall receipt to the person paying the same therefor, which receipt shall show the number of the street-improvement fund, the work done, the number of the lot upon which the assessment is paid, and the amount thereof.

§ 79. When the full amount of such assessment has been collected by said tax collector, the said collector shall certify to the superintendent of streets that the same has been collected and paid into the treasury of such city, or city and county. Upon the receipt of such certificate from the tax collector, the said superintendent shall forthwith notify the person whose proposal shall have been accepted by the municipal council, as aforesaid, of the payment of such money into the treasury, and that such city, or city and county, is ready to enter into a contract with such person for such work, in pursuance of said proposal; and said superintendent shall hold himself in readiness to execute said contract on behalf of such city, or city and county. The board of aldermen may extend the time of performance of the contract, as fixed by the contract of specifications, upon the recommendation of said superintendent; but the time of the performance shall in no event be in any manner extended beyond sixty days after the time fixed in such specifications or contract for the completion of said work.

§ 80. Whenever any contract shall have been completed to the satisfaction and acceptance of the superintendent of streets, he shall deliver to the contractor a certificate to that effect, and shall also notify said board of aldermen that said work and improvement, and the contract therefor, have been completed to his satisfaction and acceptance, and that he has given to said contractor his certificate to that effect. Thereupon said board of aldermen shall direct the clerk of said board to give notice by publication for five days, in a newspaper published and circulated in such city, or city and county, that said work and improvement, and the contract therefor, have been completed to the satisfaction and acceptance of the superintendent of streets of such city, or city and county.

§ 81. Any person owning property which has been assessed to pay the cost and expenses of such work and improvement, feeling aggrieved at the manner in which such work and improvement shall have been done, or feeling aggrieved at any act or determination of said superintendent of streets in relation to said work and improvement subsequent to the date of the execution of the contract therefor, shall, within five days from the first publication of said notice, appeal to said board of aldermen by briefly stating their objections in writing, and by filing the same with the clerk of said board. At the meeting of the board next ensuing after the expiration of said five days allowed above for filing said objections, the said board, if no objections have been filed, shall, by resolution, ratify and confirm all said acts of said superintendent of streets, and shall accept such work and improvement. But if any such objections last aforesaid shall have been filed within said five days, then said board shall fix the time for hearing such objections, and shall direct the clerk of said board to notify all persons desirous of being heard upon said objections of the time and place when and where said board will hear all parties desiring to be heard upon the same. Said notice shall be in writing, and shall be given by posting the same in three of the most conspicuous public places in such city, or city and county, and published five days in two daily newspapers (one morning and one evening edition), at least five days before the time set for said hearing. At the time and place fixed for said hearing of said objections, said board shall proceed to hear all parties present and desiring to be heard upon the matters specified in such objections. And whenever said board shall have determined, by personal inspection or otherwise, that said work and improvement objected to have been completed in all respects according to the contract therefor, they shall, by resolution, accept said work and improvement, and ratify and confirm all said acts of said superintendent of streets in relation thereto.

§ 82. If, upon such hearing, said board of aldermen shall determine, by personal inspection or otherwise, that said work and improvement have not been performed according to the contract therefor, then they shall notify the said superintendent of streets to that effect, specifying in said notice to him the particulars in which said contract has not been performed. And said superintendent of streets shall thereupon at once cause said contractor to complete said work and improvement under the contract therefor in those particulars specified by said board in said notice to said superintendent of streets. Whenever said board shall ascertain that said work and improvement have been completed in all respects according to the terms of the contract therefor, they shall, by resolution, accept such work and improvement. All acts and determinations of said board of aldermen upon appeals, under the provisions of this and the next preceding section, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons entitled to an appeal thereunder.

§ 83. Whenever any work or improvement shall have been so completed upon any street, lane, alley, court, or place in such city, or city and county, for the payment of costs and expenses of which an assessment shall have been levied and collected under the provisions of this act, the said board of aldermen shall, by resolution, direct the treasurer to pay out of the appropriate fund, at the expiration of fifteen days from the passage of such resolution, to the contractor who shall have so completed said work and improvement, the amount to which he is entitled under the terms of his contract; provided, however, that such payment by the treasurer shall be made subject to the following provisions, to wit: that any person or persons who have performed labor upon or furnished materials for the construction of said work or improvement, may file within said fifteen days, with the treasurer, any written claim or claims he or they may have on account of such labor performed or materials furnished; and at the expiration of said fifteen days, said treasurer shall pay to said contractor the amount specified in said last-named resolution, less the aggregate amount of all such claims, if any, theretofore filed in accordance with the provisions of this section. Should any money be retained by said treasurer on account of such claim or claims, he shall pay over the amount of each claim only upon the order therefor of said contractor, indorsed by the claimant entitled thereto, or upon the order therefor of any court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 84. And when all moneys required to be paid by the said treasurer, under the last preceding section, shall have been by him paid, as required in said section, if there is any money remaining in the fund out of which said payments shall have been made as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of said treasurer immediately to report the amount of said remaining moneys to said board of aldermen. Thereupon it shall be the duty of said board to empower and direct said treasurer to distribute and repay such remaining moneys, and in the proportion of the amounts of the original assessments, to the persons by or for whom said original assessments were paid, or to their legal representatives. And it shall be the duty of said treasurer, in each instance of such repayment, to require, receive, and file away a receipt of said proportionate amount from said persons or their legal representatives. And in no case shall a contractor who has failed to fulfil the terms and conditions of his contract be entitled to receive any portion of the contract price therefor, and he shall be deemed to have forfeited all right to recover or receive any compensation whatever under said contract.

§ 85. No contract to do any work upon any accepted streets, other than cleaning streets and sewers, shall be let, but such work shall be done under the direction of the superintendent of streets, by laborers employed by such city, or city and county, through said superintendent, at such wages as may be from time to time fixed by the municipal council. All contracts for materials necessary to be used for work on accepted streets must be given by the municipal council to the lowest bidder offering adequate security, after due public notice, for not less than five days, in at least two newspapers published in such city, or city and county.

§ 86. In case of urgent necessity, the superintendent of streets may, and it shall be his duty to, repair any of the unaccepted public streets, sewers, or crossings cornering thereon; and the expense of the same shall be paid out of the street department fund, in the same manner as provided for the improvement of accepted streets; and all such repairs shall be made in uniformity with the work to be repaired, but such repairs between two main streets shall not exceed in cost the sum of two hundred dollars, and the repairs of any crossing shall not exceed in cost the sum of one hundred dollars; provided, the sums so expended shall not exceed the sum of two thousand dollars in any one month. Such work, and the material therefor, shall be performed and provided in the same manner as provided in the foregoing section concerning labor and material for accepted streets.

§ 87. No recourse shall be had against such city, or city and county, for damage to person or property suffered or sustained by or by reason of the defective condition of any street or public highway of such city, or city and county, whether originally existing or occasioned by construction, excavation, or embankment, or want of repair of said street or public highway; and whether such damage be occasioned by accident on said street or public highway, or by falling from or upon the same; but if any person while carefully using any street or public highway of such city and county, graded, or in course of being graded, or carefully using any other street or public highway leading into or crossing the same, be injured, killed, lost, or destroyed; or any horses, animals, or other property be lost, injured, or destroyed, through any defect in said street or public highway, graded, or in course of being graded, as aforesaid, or by reason of any excavation or embankment in or of the same, or by falling from or upon such embankment or excavation, then the person or persons upon whom the law may impose the duty either to repair such defect or to guard the public from the excavation, embankment, or grading aforesaid, and also the officer or officers through whose official neglect such defect remained unrepaired, or said excavation or embankment remained unguarded as aforesaid, shall be jointly and severally liable to the person or persons injured for the damages sustained.

§ 88. The superintendent of streets may require, at his option, by notice in writing, to be delivered to them personally or left on the premises, the owners, tenants, or occupants of lots or portions of lots liable to be assessed for work done under the provisions of this chapter, to improve forthwith any of the work mentioned in section sixty-seven of this act in front of the property of which he is the owner, tenant, or occupant, to the center of the street or otherwise, as the case may require, or to remove all filth, sand, earth, or dirt from the street in front of the premises; and, by a like notice, to be served personally upon the president or any officer of a railroad corporation or company, or to be left at the office of said corporation or company, to require such corporation or company to improve forthwith any work mentioned in this chapter, which said corporation or company are required by law to do and perform; said notice to specify what improvement is required or work is to be done. After the expiration of five days, if such notice shall not have been complied with, such proceedings shall be taken by the proper authorities to cause the moneys necessary for the doing of such work to be paid into the treasury as is hereinbefore provided in reference to work and improvements upon unaccepted streets, and to be paid for in the same manner.

§ 89. Notices in writing, which are required to be given by the superintendent of streets, under the provisions of this chapter, may be served by any police officer, or by any male citizen over the age of twenty-one years; and the fact of such service shall be verified by the oath of the person making it, taken before the superintendent (who is hereby authorized to administer oaths), or any other person authorized to administer oaths. The superintendent of streets shall keep a record of the fact of giving such notices and proof of service, and shall keep the original proof thereof.

§ 90. 1. On or before the fourth Monday of July, annually, the municipal council of such city, or city and county, shall levy the amount of taxes for city, or city and county, purposes, required by law to be levied upon all property not exempt from taxation; said amount to be such as the said council may deem sufficient to provide for the payment of all demands upon the treasury authorized by law to be paid out of the same; provided, that such taxation exclusive of any and all special taxes, now or which hereafter may be authorized by law, shall not in the aggregate exceed the rate of one dollar upon each one hundred dollars valuation of the property assessed; provided further, that the said municipal council shall, in making the said levy of taxes, apportion and divide the taxes so levied, and to be collected and applied to the several specific funds known as the corporation debt fund, general fund, school fund, street light fund, street department fund, or other fund provided for by law or by the said council, according to the estimate of said council of the necessities of the said funds, except that the rate for the school fund shall not exceed thirty-five dollars for each pupil who shall have attended and been taught the preceding year; and provided further, that the said municipal council shall authorize the disbursement of said money for the purposes hereafter mentioned; and at the close of each fiscal year the said council shall direct the treasurer to transfer all surplus moneys of all funds, excepting the school fund, after liquidating or providing for all outstanding demands upon said funds, to the general fund; but no money shall be transferred from either of the said funds to another, nor used in paying any demands upon such other fund, until all the indebtedness arising in any fiscal year, and payable out of said funds so raised for said fiscal year, shall have been paid and discharged.

2. The corporation debt fund shall be applied to and used for the payment of the interest, and to extinguish or provide for the extinguishment of the lawfully contracted funded debts of such city, or city and county, in accordance with laws in force at the time of the organization of such city, or city and county, under this act.

3. The general fund shall be applied and used for the payment of all sums authorized by law to be paid out of the general fund and not otherwise provided for in this chapter.

4. The school fund shall be applied and used for the payment of all sums authorized by law to be paid out of the school fund.

5. The street light fund shall be applied and used in the payment for lighting the streets of such city and county, and for the repair of lamps and posts, in pursuance of any existing or future legal contract of such city and county.

6. The street department fund shall be applied and used for repairing and improving all streets, lanes, and the crossings thereof, which shall have been or hereafter may be accepted, so as to become a charge upon such city and county; for cleaning streets, lanes, crossings and sewers; and for the expense of improvements of streets in front of school lots; for all street work in front of or assessable upon property belonging to such city and county; for all street work on the water front of such city and county, not by law assessable upon private property; for all work authorized by the said council, upon the recommendation of the superintendent of streets, as immediately essential for the safety of life, limb, or property, or necessary for public health, or which cannot be by law assessed upon private property, and for such other objects relating to streets and highways as shall be directed by law or said council to be paid therefrom. All moneys received from licenses on vehicles, from the income from street railroads, from fines and penalties for violation of any law or ordinance regulating vehicles on the public streets, shall be paid into the street department fund.

§ 91. No payment can be made from the treasury or out of the public funds of such city, or city and county, unless the same be specifically authorized by law, nor unless the demand which is paid be duly audited, as in this chapter provided, and that must appear upon the face of it. No demand upon the treasury shall be allowed by the auditor in favor of any person, officer, company, or corporation, in any manner indebted thereto without first deducting the amount of such indebtedness, nor to any person or officer having the collection, custody, or disbursement of public funds, unless his account has been duly presented, passed, approved, and allowed, as required by law; nor in favor of any officer who shall have neglected to make his official returns or his reports, in writing, in the manner and at the time required by law, or by the regulations established by the municipal council; nor to any officer who shall have neglected or refused to comply with any of the provisions of this or any other act of the legislature regulating the duties of such officer, on being required in writing to comply therewith by the president of the board of aldermen, or any member of the finance committee of the municipal council; nor in favor of any officer for the time he shall have absented himself without lawful cause, from the duties of his office, during the office hours prescribed in this chapter; and the auditor may examine any officer receiving a salary from the treasury, on oath, touching such absence.

§ 92. The term "audited," as used in this chapter with reference to demands upon the treasury, is to be understood [as] their having been presented to and passed upon by every officer and board of officers, and finally allowed as required by law; and this must appear upon the face of the paper representing the demand, or else it is not audited.

§ 93. Every demand upon the treasury, except the salary of the auditor, and including the salary of the treasurer, must, before it can be paid, be presented to the auditor for such city, or city and county, to be allowed, who shall satisfy himself whether the money is legally due and remains unpaid, and whether the payment thereof from the treasury of such city and county is authorized by law and out of what fund. If he allow it, he shall indorse upon it the word "Allowed," with the name of the fund out of which it is payable, with the date of such allowance, and sign his name thereto; but the allowance or approval of the auditor, or the municipal council, or either branch thereof, or any board, committee, or officer, of any demand which, upon the face of it, appears not to have been expressly made by law payable out of the treasury or fund to be charged therewith, shall afford no warrant to the treasurer or other disbursing officer for paying the same. No demand can be approved, allowed, audited, or paid, unless it specify each several item, date, and value composing it, and refer to the law, by title, date, and section, authorizing the same.

§ 94. The demand of the auditor for his monthly salary shall be audited and allowed by the president of the board of aldermen. All other monthly demands on account of salaries, allowances, or compensations fixed by law or this act, and made payable out of the treasury of such city, or city and county, may be allowed by the auditor without any approval. All demands payable out of the school fund must, before they can be allowed by the auditor, or paid, be previously approved by the board of education, or by the president thereof, and superintendent of schools, acting under express authorization of said board. Demands for teachers' wages, or other expenses appertaining to any school, cannot be approved, allowed or audited to any amount exceeding the share of school money which such school will be entitled to have apportioned to it during the current fiscal year. All other lawful demands payable out of the treasury, or any public funds of such city, or city and county, and not hereinbefore in this section specified, must, before they can be allowed by the auditor in any manner, or recognized, or paid, be first approved by the municipal council, except, if the demand be under two hundred dollars, by the mayor and two members of the board of aldermen, appointed by the said board for that purpose, with power to act under and subject to its instructions and regulations during recess of the said board. The auditor must number and keep a record of all demands on the treasury allowed by him, showing the number, date, amount, and name of the original and present holder, on what account allowed, out of what fund payable, and, if previously approved, by what officer, officers, or board it has been so approved; and it shall be deemed a misdemeanor in office for the auditor to deliver any demand with his allowance thereon until this requisite shall have been complied with.

§ 95. The mayor, mayor's clerk, auditor, auditor's clerk, chief of police, police commissioners, president of the board of education, each member of the municipal council, and every other officer required by law or ordinance to allow, audit, or certify demands upon the treasury, or to perform any other official act or function, shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, and take and hear testimony concerning any matter or thing concerning any demand upon the treasury, or otherwise relating to their official duties. Every officer who shall approve, allow, or pay any demand on the treasury not authorized by law, or by a valid ordinance of the municipal council, passed in accordance with the same, or in case it is the act of a board, who shall, as a member thereof, vote for the same, shall be liable to the city, or city and county, individually, and on his official bond, for the amount of the demand so illegally approved, allowed, or paid. Every citizen shall have the right to inspect the books of the auditor, treasurer, secretary of the board of aldermen, and clerk of the house of assistant aldermen, at any time during business hours. Copies or extracts from said books, duly certified, shall be given by the officer having the same in custody, to any citizen demanding the same and paying fifteen cents per folio of one hundred words for such copies or extracts.

§ 96. Every lawful demand upon the treasury, duly audited as in this chapter required, shall in all cases be paid on presentation, and canceled, and the proper entry thereof be made, if there be sufficient money in the treasury belonging to the fund out of which it is payable; but if there be not sufficient money belonging to said fund to pay such demand, then it shall be registered in a book to be kept by the treasurer for that purpose, showing its number, when presented, date, amount, name of the original holder, and on what account allowed, and out of what fund payable, and being so registered, shall be returned to the party presenting it, with an indorsement of the word "Registered," dated and signed by the treasurer.

§ 97. Whenever any audited demand has been presented to the treasurer and not paid, and it be made known to the president of the board of aldermen, he shall proceed immediately to investigate the cause for such non-payment, and if it be ascertained that the demand has been illegally and fraudulently approved or allowed, he shall cause the officer guilty of such illegal and fraudulent approval or allowance to be suspended and proceeded against for misconduct in office. If he ascertains that the demand has been duly audited, and that the treasurer has funds applicable to the payment thereof, which, without reasonable grounds for doubt as to the legality of such payment, he refuses to apply thereto, he shall proceed against him as a defaulter. If it be ascertained that the demand was not paid for want of funds, then he shall cause the tax collector, or other officer or person who ought to have collected or to have paid the money into the treasury, if they have been grossly negligent therein, to be proceeded against according to law and without delay.

§ 98. The treasurer, for all money received into the treasury, and all other officers of such city, or city and county, receiving money from the treasury for disbursement, shall give receipt for all moneys by them received, which receipt shall be presented to and countersigned by the auditor. The auditor, before countersigning any such receipt, shall number it and make an entry in a book of record to be kept in his office for that purpose, of the number, date, and amount, by whom and in whose favor given, and on what account. No such receipt shall be valid as evidence in favor of the person or officer receiving it till presented to the auditor and countersigned as aforesaid; and any person or officer using or offering to use such receipt as evidence in favor of such person or officer, of the payment specified in it, without being first countersigned as above required, shall forfeit to such city, or city and county, double the amount of money specified in such receipt.

§ 99. If any person feel aggrieved by the decision of the auditor, or other proper officer or officers of such city, or city and county, except the board of education, in the rejection of or refusal to approve or allow any demand upon the treasury presented by such person, he may appeal and have the same passed upon by the municipal council, whose decision thereon shall be final; and if the said council shall approve and allow the demand, it shall afterwards be presented to the auditor, and entered in the proper book, in like manner as other demands allowed by him, and an indorsement must be made of its having been so entered before it can be paid; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to bar the party presenting the claim from prosecuting the same in any court of competent jurisdiction; provided, that from the decision of the president of the board of education and superintendent of schools, refusing or not agreeing to allow any demand payable out of the school fund, the appeal shall be taken to the board of education, whose decision shall be final; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to bar the party presenting the claim from prosecuting the same in any court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 100. In all cases of such appeals to the municipal council, or the board of education, if, in the opinion of said council or of said board deemed expedient, the opinion of the city, or city and county, attorney shall be required, and obtained in writing, read, and filed; and upon such appeal, and in all other cases upon the approval or allowance of any demand upon the treasury or school fund, the vote shall be taken by "yeas" and "nays," and entered upon the records.

§ 101. The president of the board of aldermen, in conjunction with the auditor and the chairman of the house of delegates of such city, or city and county, shall, every month, examine the books of the treasurer and other officers of such city, or city and county, having the collection and custody of the public funds, and shall be permitted, and it shall be their duty, to see and count over all the moneys remaining in the hands of such treasurer, or other officer, after having previously ascertained the amount which should be remaining in his hands. The finance committee shall also, twice a year, viz., on the first Monday in July and January, make the same examination of books, count said money, and report the result to the municipal council. If they ascertain clearly that such treasurer, or other officer, is a defaulter, they shall forthwith take possession of all funds, books, and papers belonging to such office, and the president of the board of aldermen shall appoint a person to fill the same until the said defaulting officer can be proceeded against according to law, which shall be done without delay, and until the said officer shall be restored to duty or office, or until his successor shall be appointed, or elected and qualified. The person so appointed shall give bonds and take the oath of office in the same manner as was required of the officer whose place he is appointed to fill. If the treasurer, or other officer so discharged as defaulter, be acquitted thereof, he shall resume his duties.

§ 102. Neither the municipal council, the board of education, nor any other board, commission, committee, officer, or person, shall have power to authorize, allow, contract for, pay, or render payable, and they are prohibited from authorizing, allowing, contracting, paying, or rendering payable, in present or future, in any one month, any demand or demands, liability or liabilities, against the treasury of such city, city and county, or the funds thereof, which shall, in the aggregate, exceed one twelfth part of the amount allowed by laws existing at the time of such contract, authorization, allowance, payment or liability, to be expended within the fiscal year of which said month is a part; provided, however, that if, at the beginning of any month, any money remains unexpended in any of the funds set apart for maintaining the municipal government of such city, or city and county, and which might lawfully have been expended the preceding month, such unexpended sum or sums may be carried forward and expended by order of the municipal council, for the same purpose allowed by law in any succeeding month of the fiscal year. All contracts, authorizations, allowances, payments, and liabilities to pay, made or attempted to be made, in violation of this section, shall be absolutely void, and shall never be the foundation or basis of a claim against the treasury of such city, or city and county; and all officers of such city, or city and county, are hereby charged with notice of the condition of the treasury of such city, or city and county, and the extent of the claims against the same.

§ 103. It is the duty of the superintendent of streets to keep an exact account of all street and sewer work upon accepted streets, and it shall be the duty of the building committee to keep an account of all work done on all public buildings and every other expenditure chargeable against the treasury in any of the departments under charge of said building committee and officers; and it is the duty of the superintendent of schools, the president of the board of education, the president of the board of fire commissioners, the president of the board of election directors, the president of the board of police commissioners, and every other officer and board having the power to contract any demand, or to aid in the contraction of any demand, against said treasury, to keep an exact and full account of all purchases, expenditures, and liabilities made or contracted in their respective departments; and for the purpose of making such accounts, said officers shall have power to demand and receive from every other city, or city and county, officer, detailed statements in writing, when necessary to keep said accounts, and it is hereby made the duty of any and all officers to furnish said statements when demanded; such accounts shall be constantly posted up to date, so that it can be known exactly at any time what part or proportion of the monthly sum allowed by this chapter and existing laws has been contracted for, paid, or rendered liable to pay in the present and future. Such accounts shall show every contract for street and sewer work, public buildings, purchases of material, or supplies, or other expenditure, in whatever department it is made, from its incipency through the various stages of progress to completion, with the amount to be paid for the same so far as the same is capable of exact estimation, and when not, then a sworn estimate by the proper officer of the probable cost. Whenever, at any time, the contracts performed or unperformed, claims due or to become due, exceed said one twelfth part of the amount that can be lawfully expended out of any fund in the current fiscal year, the president of the board, head of department, or other officer or board having the supervision of such expenditure, shall give notice thereof in writing, as to his or their department, to the auditor and the treasurer, and to the municipal council a notice in writing, served upon the clerks of each branch thereof, and shall post the same in his or their office, from which time no further contracts shall be made or expenditures authorized or allowed, until such time has elapsed as will allow of further proceedings consistent with the provisions of the law.

§ 104. Any failure or neglect on the part of any of said officers or boards, or members of boards, to comply with any of the provisions of the preceding sections, shall render such officer, and each member of such board consenting thereto, liable personally and upon his official bond to any contractor or other person suffering damage by said failure or neglect; but such contractor or person damaged shall have no remedy against such city, or city and county, and the said officers or members of boards authorizing or aiding to authorize, auditing, or allowing any claim or demand upon or against said treasury, or any fund thereof, in contravention thereof, shall be liable in person and on his official bond to the contractor or person damaged, to the extent of his loss. The treasurer paying any claim authorized, allowed, or audited in contravention of the provisions thereof shall be liable on his official bond to refund the same to such city, or city and county, and it shall be the duty of the city, or city and county, attorney to sue for the same, if necessary.

§ 105. In case of any great public calamity or danger, such as earthquakes, conflagrations, pestilence, invasion, insurrection, or other great and unforeseen emergency, the provisions of the three preceding sections may be temporarily suspended, as to any lawful contract, authorization, or expenditure necessary to avert, mitigate, or relieve such evil; provided, that such expenditure, contract, or authorization shall be passed by the unanimous vote of all members elected or appointed to each house of the municipal council, and entered in the journals of each house, and the character and fact of such emergency must be recited in the ordinance authorizing such action; and such ordinance must be approved by the mayor, auditor, and treasurer of such city, or city and county.

§ 106. All city, or city and county, official printing and advertising, for all departments thereof, excepting that of the sheriff's office, shall be let by the municipal council, during the month of January of each year, to the lowest responsible bidder, printing, publishing, and proposing to advertise in a newspaper of general circulation in such city, or city and county, and that has been in existence at the time of the letting of said contract at least three years; and provided, that any such newspaper may bid for the whole or any part of the advertising. The bids shall be opened by the board of aldermen, and all bidders may be present thereat. No bid shall be considered in which there shall be any erasure or interlineation. All such contracts, when awarded, shall be entered into and bonds taken by the clerk of the board of aldermen, in such sum and containing such conditions as the board of aldermen shall provide.

§ 107. All contracts relating to city, or city and county, affairs shall be in writing, signed and executed in the name of the city, or city and county, by the officer authorized to make the same; and in cases not otherwise directed by law, such contracts shall be made and entered into by the mayor. All contracts shall be countersigned by the auditor, and registered, by number and dates, in his office, in a book to be kept by him for that purpose. In all cases of letting contracts to bidders, when for any reason a contract fails of completion, new bids shall be invited, opened, and awarded, as provided in this chapter in the first instance, until a sufficient contract is executed. In all cases when the board of aldermen have reason to think the prices too high, or that bidders have combined together to prevent genuine bidding, or for any reason that the public interests will be subserved, it may in its discretion, reject any and all bids, and cause the same to be readvertised. The provisions of this act, as to bids and contracts, shall be enforced by the municipal council by appropriate ordinances as to all bids, proposals, and contracts with such city, or city and county, or any department thereof.

ARTICLE IV.—EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 118. The mayor shall be the chief executive officer: shall be a qualified voter, at least twenty-five years of age, and shall have been a citizen of the United States and of this state, and a resident in such city, or city and county, for three years. It shall be his duty vigilantly to observe the official conduct of all public officers of such city, or city and county, and to take note of the fidelity and exactitude, or the want thereof, with which they execute their duties and obligations, especially in the collection, custody, administration, and disbursement of the public funds and property, for which purpose the books, records, and official papers of all boards, officers, and magistrates of such city, or city and county, shall at all times be open to his inspection. He shall take especial care to see that the books and records of all such officers are kept in legal and proper form; and any official defalcation, or wilful neglect of duty, or official misconduct, which he may have discovered, or which shall have been reported to him, shall at the earliest opportunity be laid before the municipal council, and before the grand jury, in order that the public interests shall be protected and the officer in default be proceeded against according to law. He shall, from time to time, give the municipal council information relative to the state of such city, or city and county, and shall recommend to their consideration such measures as he may deem expedient in the interests of the city. He shall take care that the laws of the state and the ordinances of the municipal council are enforced.

§ 119. Whenever and so long as the mayor, from any cause, is unable to perform his official duties, the board of aldermen shall designate one of their number as mayor pro tempore, who shall perform the same.

§ 120. The mayor may, by due notice, call special sessions of the municipal council, and shall specially state to them, when assembled, the objects for which they have been specially convened, and their actions shall be confined to such objects.

§ 121. The auditor shall be the head of the finance department of such city, or city and county, and as such required to be constantly acquainted with exact condition of the treasury, and every lawful demand upon it. He shall keep a public office, and give his personal attendance there daily during the office hours fixed in this chapter, and shall not follow or engage in any other occupation or calling while he holds said office. If he absents himself from his office during such office hours, except on indispensable official business or urgent necessity, he shall lose his salary for the day; and it shall be a part of his official duty to keep account of the times and occasions when he shall be so absent from duty. He shall be the general accountant of such city, or city and county, and as such it shall be his duty to receive and preserve in his office all accounts, books, vouchers, documents, and papers relating to the accounts or contracts of such city, or city and county; its debts, revenues, and other fiscal affairs, and to adopt a proper mode and manner of double-entry bookkeeping, and keep the accounts of such city, or city and county, general and special, in a systematic and orderly manner. He shall state and render all accounts filed or kept in his office between the city and other persons or body corporate, except when otherwise provided by law or ordinance. He shall have power to administer oaths, and shall require settlements of accounts to be verified by affidavit whenever he thinks proper. He shall be responsible for all acts of his employees.

§ 122. The treasurer of such city, or city and county, shall receive and safely keep in a secure fireproof vault, to be prepared for that purpose, all moneys belonging to or which shall be paid into the treasury, and shall not loan, use, or deposit the same, or any part thereof, to or with any banker or other person, nor pay out any part of said moneys except on demand authorized by this chapter, and after they have been duly audited. He shall keep the key of said vault, and not suffer the same to be opened except in his presence. At the closing up of the same each day he shall take an account and enter in the proper book the exact amount of money on hand, and at the end of every month he shall make and publish a statement of all receipts into and payments from the treasury, and on what account. If he violates any of the provisions of this section he shall be considered a defaulter, and shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and be liable to removal, and shall be proceeded against accordingly. If he loan or deposit said moneys, or any part thereof, contrary to the provisions of this section, or apply the same to his own use, or the use of any other person, in any manner whatsoever, or suffer the same to go out of his personal custody, except in payment of audited demands upon the treasury, he shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, on conviction thereof, shall suffer imprisonment in the state prison for a period not less than three months nor more than ten years.

§ 123. The treasurer shall keep the money belonging to each fund separate and distinct, and shall in no case pay demands chargeable against one fund out of moneys belonging to another, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, without an express ordinance of the municipal council, which can only be made during or after the end of the third quarter of the fiscal year, by a vote of two thirds of each house. The said treasurer shall give his personal attendance at his public office during the office hours fixed by this chapter, and if he be absent himself therefrom, except on account of sickness or urgent necessity during such office hours, he shall lose his salary for the entire day on which he was absent.

§ 124. The county clerk of such city and county shall take charge of and safely keep, or dispose of according to law, all books, papers, and records which are or may be filed or deposited in his office, and of all the courts of which he is clerk; and he shall not allow any paper, files, or records to leave his custody, except when required by the judges of the courts, to be used by them or any of them.

§ 125. No judge or officer of any court shall make any order for the delivery by the county clerk of such city and county, of any paper, files, or records in his custody, except bills of exceptions and statements on motion for a new trial; nor shall the courts, or judges thereof, have any power to make orders for the delivery of any certificate of incorporation, bonds, or other papers filed with the said county clerk. Whenever any of said papers are required for evidence in any of the courts within such city and county, the county clerk, or his deputies, shall produce the same under subpoena or order of the court, or furnish certified copies of the same on application, on payment to said clerk for said copy at the rate of ten cents per folio for each hundred words, which shall be paid into the city and county treasury by him.

§ 126. Neither the county clerk nor any of his deputies shall be required to attend as witnesses, in their official capacities, outside of such city and county, except in criminal cases, unless his expenses be paid at the rate of ten cents per mile to and from the place where he may be required, and three dollars a day for each day's attendance. A sufficient number of deputies shall be assigned by him as court-room clerks to the various courts of which he is the official clerk, while such courts are in session, and to do duty in the office when such courts are not in session. He shall transfer such deputies to duty in court, or at his office, as the exigency of the service may require, so as to efficiently perform the work in the most economical manner possible.

§ 127. On the commencement in or removal to the superior court of such city and county of any civil action or proceeding, he shall collect from the plaintiff, or party instituting such proceeding or filing the first papers therein, the sum of one dollar, and pay over the same at the end of each month to the treasurer of the law library provided for in this chapter; and the payment of the sum of one dollar shall be a condition precedent to the commencement of such action or proceeding, for which sum so required to be collected he and his sureties shall be responsible on his official bond.

§ 128. The tax collector, upon the final settlement to be made by him as such tax collector, according to the requirements of the law, shall be charged with, and shall pay into the hands of the treasurer, the full amount of all taxes paid to him under protest or otherwise, or by him collected and not previously paid over, without any deduction of commissions, fees, or otherwise; he shall also be charged with and be deemed debtor to the treasury for the full amount of all taxes due upon the delinquent list delivered to him for collection, unless it be made to appear that it was out of his power to collect the same by levy and sale of any property liable to be seized and sold therefor. If the impossibility to collect any portion of such delinquent taxes have resulted from such negligence or defects in such assessment caused by the wilful misconduct of the assessor, then the assessor whose duty it was to make the assessment shall be liable and be deemed debtor to the treasury for the amount remaining uncollected for that cause.

§ 129. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of such city, or city and county, at the general state election, an assessor, who shall take office on the first Monday after the first day of January next following his election, and hold for the term of four years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. It shall be his duty to assess all taxable property within such city, or city and county.

§ 130. The sheriff shall attend in person, or by deputy, all the courts in and for such city and county, except the police courts. He shall obey the lawful orders and directions of such courts, and in all other respects conform to the laws regulating sheriffs in this state.

§ 131. The recorder of such city and county shall have the custody of all books, records, maps, and papers deposited in his office. He, or his chief deputy, when any papers are presented for registration, or to be copied, shall write on the margin of each paper so presented the number of folios paid for, and shall, in his monthly return to the treasurer, certify under oath the number of folios copied or registered by each deputy or copyist appointed by him; and such certificate of the recorder or his chief deputy shall be conclusive evidence to authorize the auditor to audit such certified accounts of such deputies or copyists monthly. He shall appoint as many copyists as he shall deem necessary to the proper discharge of the duties of his office, who shall be paid at the rate of twelve cents per folio of one hundred words for all matters registered or copied by them respectively.

§ 132. The district attorney is the public prosecutor, and shall be an attorney of the supreme court, and shall attend the superior court of this state, in and for such city and county, and such other courts as may be hereafter established in and for the same, and conduct therein, on behalf of the people, all prosecutions for public offenses. He shall perform such other duties as are prescribed by law.

§ 133. The city, or city and county, attorney shall be an attorney of the supreme court, and shall prosecute and defend all suits and actions at law and in equity, and conduct all legal proceedings, in the courts and elsewhere, necessary to preserve and protect such city's, or city and county's, rights, whether such suits or proceedings be conducted in the name of such city, or city and county, or in the name of others. He shall give legal advice to the city government, and all the officers, boards, and departments thereof, when required so to do, and perform such other duties as such attorney as the municipal council shall from time to time prescribe. He shall keep in his office well-bound books of registry, in which shall be entered and kept a register of all actions, suits, and proceedings in which such city, or city and county, is interested. Each outgoing city, or city and county, attorney shall deliver such books and all other records, law reports, quarterly reports from municipal boards and officers, documents, statutes, papers, furniture, and property, in his possession, to his successor in office, who shall give him duplicate receipts therefor, one to be filed in the office of the auditor, and one to be retained by the outgoing city, or city and county, attorney.

§ 134. The public administrator of such city, or city and county, shall be subject to the orders of the superior court in and for such city, or city and county, and shall perform all the duties prescribed by law.

§ 135. The coroner of such city, or city and county, in addition to the duties imposed by law upon every coroner, shall keep a record of all inquests held by him, with a copy of all testimony and the inquisition of the jurors in full; and in case of loss of the original records, the same shall be admissible in evidence with like effect as the original would have been. He may appoint such deputies, and a messenger or messengers, as are allowed in this act, or as may be hereafter allowed by the municipal council of such city, or city and county. He shall receive no fees for any services rendered by him.

§ 136. The superintendent of streets shall keep a public office, in some convenient place, to be designated by the municipal council. His office shall be kept open as in this chapter provided. He shall not, during his continuance in office, follow any other profession or calling, but shall be required to devote himself exclusively to the duties of his said office. He shall have under his special charge the construction, reconstruction, repairing, and cleansing of all public sewers, manholes, sinks, drains, cesspools, and of the public streets, highways, alleys, places, and squares, excepting the parks. It shall be his duty to see that the laws, orders, and regulations relative to the public streets and highways, alleys, places, and squares are carried into execution, and that the penalties therefor are rigidly enforced, as may be prescribed by the municipal council. He shall keep himself informed of the condition of all public streets, highways, alleys, places, and squares; and should he fail to see that the laws, ordinances, and regulations relating to the public streets, highways, alleys, places, and squares are carried into execution, after notice from any citizen of a violation thereof, such superintendent and his sureties shall be liable upon his official bond to any person injured in person or property by such official neglect.

§ 137. The city, or city and county, surveyor shall be engineer in chief of such city, or city and county, and of the sewerage system; shall make all necessary plans, surveys, maps, and drawings, and other necessary things, and keep the same in his office; and all such maps, plans, machinery, and drawings shall be the property of such city, or city and county, and remain in the office, and be transferred by the outgoing to the incoming officer. He shall do all necessary surveying and engineering for the streets, alleys, highways, and squares, at the request of the municipal council, or of any committee appointed by either branch of the same, and all or any other surveying and engineer[ing] work that such city, or city and county, may require, and of the public parks, at the request of the park commissioners.

§ 138. Within twenty days after their first meeting, the municipal council of such city, or city and county, shall appoint a suitable person as collector of licenses of such city, or city and county, who shall hold office for two years from and after his appointment, and until his successor shall be appointed and qualified. In case of a vacancy occurring by death or otherwise in the office of the collector of licenses of such city, or city and county, holding his office under the provisions of this chapter, the same shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by appointment of the board of aldermen; and in case of the inability of said collector of licenses to act, his place shall, in the same manner, be temporarily filled until such disability is removed. The collector of licenses and his deputies are hereby authorized, empowered, and required to collect all the municipal licenses now required to be collected, or which shall hereafter be required to be collected by them, or either of them; and it shall be the duty of said collector of licenses, and his deputies, or assistant collectors, to attend to the collection of licenses, and examine all places of business and persons liable to pay licenses, and to see that licenses are taken out and paid for. They shall each have and exercise, in the performance of their official duties, the same powers as police officers in serving process or summons, and in making arrests; also shall each have and exercise the power to administer such oaths and affirmations as shall be necessary in the discharge and exercise of their official duties; and they, and each of them, are hereby empowered to enter any place of business for which a license by law is provided and required, free of charge, at their pleasure, and to demand the exhibition of any license for the current time from any person, or firm, or corporation engaged or employed in the transaction of any business for which a license is by law rendered necessary; and if such person, or firm or corporation, or either of them, shall be unable, or refuse, or neglect, or fail, to then and there exhibit such license, he, she, or they, as the case may be, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished accordingly.

§ 139. The collector of licenses shall daily pay to the treasurer of such city, or city and county, all moneys so collected for licenses sold, or by him received as fees; and shall, under oath, at least once in each calendar month, and oftener when required so to do by the auditor, make to the auditor a report of all such licenses sold and on hand, and of all amounts so paid to the city, or city and county, treasurer; shall at such time exhibit to the auditor all unsold licenses in his hands, and the treasurer's receipts for all moneys paid into the treasury; and all licenses so signed by the license collector, or deputy license collector, or either of them, shall be as valid as if signed by the city, or city and county, treasurer. All fees so paid to him shall be placed to the credit of the proper fund by the treasurer.

§ 140. The department of police of such city, or city and county, shall consist of:

1. A board of police commissioners of such city, or city and county, consisting of five members, each of whom shall be a qualified voter, at least thirty years of age, and shall have been a citizen of the United States and of this state, and a resident of such city, or city and county, for five years next preceding his appointment, four of whom shall be appointed by the governor and chief justice of the supreme court of the state of California, within thirty days after the organization of such city, or city and county, under this act, and who shall hold office for the term of four years from and after the first Monday next succeeding the date of their appointment, and until their successors are appointed and qualified; and in the month next preceding the expiration of the said term, and every four years thereafter, the said governor and chief justice of the supreme court shall appoint their successors, who shall hold office for the term of four years from and after the first Monday next succeeding the date of their appointment; but in making such appointments, the said governor and chief justice shall elect two qualified persons from each of the two dominant national political parties. Vacancies that may occur in the office of any of the members so appointed shall be filled by appointment by said governor and chief justice, of some suitable person of the same political party as that to which the last incumbent belonged, and for the remainder of the vacant term only. The four members appointed, as hereinbefore provided, shall meet in such city, or city and county, on the first Monday next succeeding the date of their appointment, and shall forthwith organize by electing one of their number president, and shall appoint the other member of said board, who shall be the chief of police of such city, or city and county. Every member of said board shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of California; that I will faithfully discharge the duties of police commissioner according to the best of my ability; and that in the discharge of my duties I will make no appointment to, or removal from the police force for political or partisan reasons; and that I will, to the best of my ability, discharge the duties of said office impartially and uninfluenced by political considerations, or any consideration other than that of the public good." Every member of said board who shall absent himself from such city, or city and county, for the continuous period of sixty days, shall, by force thereof, cease to be a police commissioner, and his office shall become vacant. No member of said board shall be eligible to any other office during his incumbency of the office of police commissioner. No member of said board shall, during his term of office, be a member of any convention, the purpose of which is to nominate candidates for office, nor act as a judge, inspector, clerk, or officer of any election, or primary election, or take part in any election except to deposit his vote; nor shall any member of said board, directly or indirectly, influence, or attempt to influence or control, the political action of any member of the police force of such city, or city and county, or any employee of said department; nor shall any member of said board collect, or suffer to be collected, from any member or employee of said department, any assessment or contribution for political purposes. A violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor, and shall be cause for the immediate removal from office of the person guilty of such violation. The said board shall hold sessions at least once a month in the office of chief of police, or in such other convenient place as the municipal council of such city, or city and county, shall designate, or, in case of emergency, at such place as it shall select, and the clerk of the chief of police, hereinafter provided for, shall act as clerk of said board. Every member of said board, and the clerk of said board, shall have power to administer oaths in all matters pertinent to the business of their respective offices, and in all investigations pending before said board, or any member thereof. The said board shall keep a record of its proceedings. The said board shall have power:

1. To appoint, suspend, or remove any person from the police force of such city, or city and county; provided, however, that the chief of police shall only be removable in the manner provided by law for the removal of other municipal officers.

2. To prescribe all needful rules and regulations for the control, government, and discipline of said police force, and from time to time to alter or repeal the same, and prescribe penalties for the violation of any of them.

3. To hear and summarily determine all complaints of misconduct, inefficiency, or other charge against any member of said police force, and to take such action thereon as shall be conducive to the maintenance of the discipline and efficiency of the same.

4. To grant permits to all persons desiring to engage in the retail liquor business in such city, or city and county, and to revoke any such permit whenever it shall be made to appear to said board that the retail liquor business of the person to whom such permit was given is conducted in a disorderly or improper manner, or whenever it shall be made to appear that the person to whom such permit was granted has, after the grant of such permit, been convicted in the police or other court of such city, or city and county, of disorderly or improper conduct, or of the commission of any criminal offense upon the premises whereon such retail liquor business is conducted; provided, however, that whenever said board refuses to grant such permit, or proposes to revoke such permit, the person who is refused such permit or whose permit is proposed to be revoked, shall be entitled to be heard before said board in person or through counsel, and to have free of charge all reasonable facilities for the full, fair, and impartial hearing on the merits of his application or opposition. In such permit shall be distinctly stated and described the name of the person to whom the same is given, and the premises on which such retail business is proposed to be carried on.

5. Upon the petition of any person, firm, or corporation, to appoint a special officer to do special service to be paid for by such person, firm, or corporation, specifying the boundary or locality at or within which he is to act as such special officer, which boundary or locality shall be described in his warrant of appointment; provided, that no special officer shall be appointed to act in any part of such city, or city and county, commonly known as the Chinese quarter; and provided further, that all special officers shall report daily to the chief of police, and be subject to his orders in case of emergency; and in no event shall such officers be paid by such city, or city and county.

6. To prescribe the badge of office and uniform to be worn by all members of the police force, and the badge of office to be worn by all special officers.

7. To allow and order paid out of the police contingent fund, for contingent expenses, any and all orders signed by the chief of police; provided, that the aggregate of such orders shall not exceed the sum of seven thousand two hundred dollars a year, which sum shall be set apart annually in the treasury of said city and county for this purpose.

8. To appoint substitutes, not to exceed four per centum of the police force, to serve under such regulations, and subject to such restrictions, as it may prescribe, and without pay from such city, or city and county.

9. To issue subpoenas, tested in the name of its president, and to enforce obedience thereto, and punish disobedience thereof, in the same manner and to the like extent as the justices' court of such city, or city and county; and to exercise the same powers as the said justices' court in preserving decorum in all open sessions of said board, and to punish any contempt committed thereat.

10. To designate the prisons to be used for the reception of all persons arrested, convicted, or sentenced for public offenses in cases not provided for by law or by ordinance; to establish stations and station-houses, or substations and substation-houses, at its discretion, for the accommodation thereat of members of the police force, and as places of temporary detention for persons arrested.

11. In its discretion, on conviction of a member of the force of any legal offense, or neglect of duty, or violation of the rules of the board, or neglect of or disobedience of orders, or incapacity, or absence without leave, or any conduct injurious to the public peace or welfare, or other breach of discipline, or immoral conduct, or any conduct unbecoming an officer, to punish the offending party by reprimand, forfeiting and withholding pay for a special time, suspension, or dismissal from the force; all such fines shall be immediately paid into the treasury to the credit of the police life and health insurance fund.

12. To issue to every member of the police force a proper warrant of appointment, signed by the president and countersigned by the clerk of the board, which warrant shall contain the date of his appointment and his rank.

13. To make requisition on the municipal council of such city, or city and county, for all supplies or necessities that may be required in the administration of the department; provided, that the aggregate amount of the same, exclusive of salaries, shall not, in any one fiscal year, exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

14. To annually, on or before the first day of August, report to the municipal council an estimate of the amount of money that will be required to pay all salaries of the department, and of the amount of money that will be required for the administration and support of the department in such year, specifying in detail the purposes and items for which the same will be required, with the estimated cost thereof, respectively.

15. To provide for the custody, care, restitution, sale, time, place, and manner of sale of all property that may come into the possession of the property clerk hereinafter provided for.

16. To control, care for, and manage the police life and health insurance fund hereinafter mentioned, which fund shall consist of the moneys retained from the monthly salaries of the members of the police force, fines collected from members of said force, and of such other moneys as may be contributed thereto by law, or ordinance, or by gift, devise, or bequest, and of all moneys to the credit of said fund at the time said board shall take office, and to invest the moneys of said fund in such of the following securities as shall seem most safe and profitable, viz., the bonds of such city, or city and county, the bonds of the state of California, and the bonds of the United States of America. The moneys and securities shall be held by the treasurer of such city, or city and county, who shall have no power to deposit, pledge, or in any other way part with the same, except on the order of said board.

17. To order paid, upon the death of any member of the police force, out of the police life and health insurance fund, to the heirs of such member, the sum of one thousand dollars.

18. To order paid, out of the police life and health insurance fund, to any police officer who shall resign by reason of bad health or bodily infirmity, the amount of the principal sum which such officer shall have contributed thereto.

19. To order paid, out of the police life and health insurance fund, to any officer dismissed for mere incompetency, not coupled with any offense against the laws of this state, an amount not exceeding one half of the principal which such officer may have contributed thereto; provided, that any officer dismissed for gross neglect or violation of duty, or upon conviction of any misdemeanor or felony, shall forfeit all claim upon said fund.

20. In case said police life and health insurance fund shall not be sufficient to pay the demands on it, to cause such demands to be registered, and to be paid in their order out of the fund as received.

21. When the police life and health insurance fund shall exceed the sum of fifty thousand dollars, to allow and order paid out of the same, to any officer who shall have been permanently disabled while in the discharge of his duty as such officer, such sum as in their judgment they shall deem proper, not to exceed one thousand dollars; but in no case shall said fund be reduced thereby below the sum of fifty thousand dollars. The president of said board shall receive a salary of three thousand dollars per annum. The other members of said board shall each receive a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly, at the end of each and every month.

2. A chief of police, appointed as hereinbefore provided, who shall have power to select and designate one police officer to serve as clerk to the chief of police; one police officer to serve as property clerk, who, before entering upon his duties, shall give bond, with good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, to such city, or city and county, to be approved as in cases of other official bonds, which bond shall be filed with the auditor of such city, or city and county; twelve detective officers, and thirty sergeants of police. He shall have the sole and exclusive control, direction, and superintendence of the city prisons of such city, or city and county, and may detail to duty therein such number of officers as the exigencies shall require. In the suppression of any riot, public tumult, disturbances of the public peace, or organized resistance against the laws, or public authorities, in the lawful exercise of their functions, he shall have all the powers that are now are or may be conferred upon sheriffs by the laws of this state; and his lawful orders shall be promptly executed by all police officers, and every citizen shall also lend him aid, when required, for the arrest of offenders and the maintenance of public order. In case of great public emergency or danger, he may appoint an additional number of policemen of approved character for honesty and sobriety, who shall have the same powers as other police officers, but who shall act without pay. In case of imminent danger of riot, or actual riot, or organized resistance to the laws, he shall have power, and it shall be his duty, if in his opinion the organized police force be insufficient in number or unequal in strength to preserve the peace and maintain public order, to make his requisition on the governor, or in case of urgency on the nearest military commander in the National Guard of California, for such military force as may be necessary for the occasion; and such military force shall be placed under his command until the restoration of order and tranquillity, or until the governor declares such city, or city and county, in a state of insurrection, as provided by law. He shall keep a public office, which shall be open, and at which he, or in case of his necessary absence, a captain of police or sergeant of police by him designated for that purpose, who shall have, during such absence, the same powers as are conferred by law upon the chief of police, shall be in attendance at all hours of the day and night. In case of his absence from his office, it shall be made known to the captain or sergeant of police in attendance where he can be found, if needed. He shall designate one or more police officers to attend constantly upon the police court to carry on the business, and to execute the orders and process of said court. He shall command, supervise, and direct the police force; and shall observe, and cause to be observed and enforced, the laws and ordinances within such city, or city and county. He shall see that all lawful orders and process of the police court are promptly executed; and shall exercise such other powers connected with his office as may be prescribed by law, or by the rules and regulations adopted by the board of police commissioners. He shall acquaint himself with all the statutes and laws in force in this state defining public offenses and nuisances and regulating the criminal proceedings; and shall procure and keep in his office the statutes of this state and of the United States, and all elementary works on those subjects. He shall give information and advice touching said laws gratuitously to all police officers asking for it. He shall have power from time to time to dispose of such sum or sums for incidental expenses as in his judgment shall be for the best interest of such city, or city and county; provided, that the aggregate of all such sums shall not, in any one fiscal year, exceed the sum of seven thousand two hundred dollars; but all sums so disbursed or paid shall be subject to the approval of the said board. He may, for good cause, grant leave of absence for not more than thirty days to any member of the police force; but officers absent from the city within or without the state on official business shall not be deemed to be absentees. As chief of police, he shall hold office for the term of four years from his appointment, and shall receive a salary of four thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly, at the end of each and every month.

3. Six captains of police, who shall be appointed by the board of police commissioners from the members of the police force, who shall be assigned to such duty, and who shall be subject to such rules and regulations, as the chief of police shall prescribe. They shall receive a salary of two hundred dollars per month each, payable monthly, at the end of each and every month.

4. As many police officers, not exceeding five hundred, as the board of police commissioners may determine to be necessary, to be appointed by said board; but it shall be the duty of said board, on its first organization, to appoint as members of the police force the members of the police force, if any, then in service, unless such members be incompetent or incapable to serve. Every person applying for appointment to said police force, unless he be a member of the police force then existing in such city, or city and county, shall produce and file with the said board a certificate, signed by not less than twelve freeholders and qualified voters of the smallest political subdivision of such city, or city and county, stating that they have been personally and well acquainted with the applicant for one year or more next preceding the application, and that the applicant is of good repute for honesty and sobriety, and they believe him to be, in all respects, competent and fit for the office. All such certificates shall be preserved in the office of said board, and shall not be returned to the applicant. Every appointee to said police force must be a citizen of the United States and of this state, able to read and write the English language, and a resident of such city, or city and county, at least five years previous to his appointment, except such member of said police force as may be in service at the time of the organization of said board; every appointee shall not be less than twenty-five nor more than forty years of age, and not less than five feet and seven inches in height, and shall, after his nomination, and before his appointment, pass a thorough examination by the surgeon of police, or by any physician appointed by said board, and be found on such examination to be sound in health, and to possess the physical qualifications required for recruits for the United States army. The police officers, in subjection to the rules and regulations of the said board, to the orders of the respective captains, and under the general direction of the chief of police, shall be prompt and vigilant in the detection of crime, the arrest of public offenders, the suppression of all riots, frays, duels, and disturbances of the public peace, the execution of process from the police court in causing the abatement of public nuisances, and the enforcement of the laws and regulations of the police. They shall, as soon as practicable, upon an arrest, under penalty of dismissal from the force, or of a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or of both, at the discretion of the board, convey in person the offender before the nearest sitting magistrate. If the arrest is made during the hours that the magistrate does not regularly hold court, or if the magistrate is not holding court, such offender may be detained in a station-house until the next public sitting of the magistrate, and no longer, unless discharged on bail, according to law. No member of the police force shall be eligible to any other office while a member of such force, nor shall he take any part whatever in any convention held for the purposes of a political party; nor shall he be a member of any political club; nor shall he be allowed to interfere with politics on the day of election, or at any time while employed on said force, except to cast his vote. No member of said police force while on duty shall enter into any liquor saloon, bar-room, or place where liquors are retailed, except when necessary in the discharge of his duties, on penalty of reprimand, fine, suspension, or removal from office. No member of the police force shall devote his time to any other profession or calling, become bail for any person charged with any offense whatever, solicit counsel or attorneys for prisoners, receive any present or reward for official services rendered, or to be rendered, unless with the knowledge and approbation of a majority of said board; such approbation to be given in writing and certified by the clerk of said board. Police officers who shall be selected to act as sergeants of police, and police officers who shall be selected to act as detective police officers, shall each receive a salary of one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, payable monthly, at the end of each and every month. The police officer who shall be selected to act as clerk to the chief of police, and the police officer who shall be selected to act as property clerk, shall each receive a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars per month, payable monthly, at the end of each and every month. All other police officers shall each receive a salary of one hundred and two dollars per month, payable monthly, at the end of each and every month; provided, that the treasurer of such city, or city and county, is hereby authorized to deduct and retain from the salary of each member of said police force two dollars from every month's salary, to be paid into the fund of the police life and health insurance fund herein mentioned.

5. A surgeon of police, whose duty it shall be to attend to all cases of accident or sickness at the several police stations, to attend all officers who may be taken sick or injured in the discharge of their duty, to examine all applicants for appointment on the police force, and to perform such other duties as the board of police commissioners may from time to time prescribe. He shall be appointed by the said board, and shall hold office during its pleasure, but he shall not be removed without just cause. He shall receive a salary of two hundred dollars per month, payable monthly, at the end of each and every month.

§ 141. There shall be a board of fire commissioners of such city, or city and county, consisting of five persons, possessing the same qualifications of eligibility as are herein prescribed for the members of the board of aldermen, who shall be appointed by the mayor, with the advice of the board of aldermen, and shall hold office for the term of four years from and after the time of their appointment, and no more than three of whom shall belong to the same national political party; provided, that the fire commissioners now acting as such in such city, or city and county, shall continue to hold their respective offices until the expiration of the term for which they may have been respectively elected or appointed.

§ 142. The said board of fire commissioners shall supervise and control said fire department, its officers, members, and employees, subject to the laws governing the same, and shall see that the officers, members, and employees thereof faithfully discharge their duties, and that the laws, orders, and regulations relating thereto are carried into operation and effect. They shall not, nor shall either of them, or the chief engineer, or assistant chief engineer, or assistant engineers, of said fire department, be interested in any contracts pertaining in any manner to said fire department, or the sale, furnishing of apparatus, or supplies for the same; and all contracts in violation of this section are declared void, and any of said persons violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be punished accordingly. The municipal council of such city, or city and county, shall have power to contract and provide for all cisterns, hydrants, apparatus, horses, supplies, engine, hose and hook-and-ladder houses, and all alterations and repairs required; and said board of fire commissioners shall supervise all contracts awarded, and work done for the said fire department, and shall see that all contracts awarded and work done are faithfully performed. The said board of fire commissioners shall have power to prescribe the duties of the officers, members, and employees of said fire department, and to adopt rules and regulations for the management and discipline thereof; and a majority of them shall certify to the correctness of all claims and demands before the same shall be paid. And the municipal council is authorized and required to provide and furnish for the use of the board of fire commissioners a suitable room or rooms in some of the buildings of such city, or city and county, to serve as an office for their meetings and the transaction of business relating to said fire department, in which their clerk, janitor, and messenger shall be in attendance daily during office hours. The chief engineer, assistant chief engineer, and assistant engineer[s] of said department shall also make it their headquarters daily during office hours, when not otherwise engaged in official duties. And the said municipal council shall furnish the chief engineer, and also the assistant chief engineer and assistant engineers hereinafter mentioned, with a horse and buggy, and shall provide for keeping the same.

§ 143. The officers of the fire department of such city, or city and county, shall be:

1. Five fire commissioners, to be appointed as aforesaid;
2. One chief engineer;
3. One assistant chief engineer;
4. Four assistant engineers;
5. One superintendent of steam fire-engines.

§ 144. The members and employees of said fire department shall be:

1. One assistant superintendent of steam fire-engines;
2. One clerk and storekeeper for the corporation yard;
3. One corporation yard drayman;
4. One night watchman of corporation yard;
5. Two hydrantmen;
6. One veterinary surgeon;
7. One foreman of each company;
8. One engineer for each steam fire-engine;
9. One substitute engineer and machinist;
10. One driver for each company;
11. One fireman for each steam engine company;
12. One carpenter;
13. One tillerman for each hook-and-ladder company;
14. One steward for each hose company;
15. One janitor and messenger;
16. One clerk.

§ 145. All paid members of said fire department, except the veterinary surgeon, foreman, assistant foreman, company clerks, hosemen, hook-and-ladder men, and stewards of volunteer companies shall give their undivided attention to their respective duties, but the foreman, assistant foreman, company clerks, hosemen, and hook-and-ladder men, and stewards of volunteer companies, shall perform such duties as may be prescribed from time to time by said board of fire commissioners and ordered to be executed by the chief engineer.

§ 146. The chief engineer, the assistant chief engineer, the superintendent of steam fire-engines, the assistant engineers, the clerk, and all members and employees of the fire department, shall be appointed by the fire commissioners, and retain their positions during good behavior; and it shall be the duty of such fire commissioners, on their first organization under this act, to appoint as members thereof the officers and members of any fire department which shall be in service in any such city, or city and county, at the time of its organization under this act. No officer, member, or employee of said fire department shall be removed for political reasons.

§ 147. The fire department of such city, or city or county, shall consist of such engine, hook-and-ladder and hose companies as shall be recommended by the board of fire commissioners, and determined by the municipal council necessary to afford protection against fire; provided, that as an auxiliary thereto patent fire-extinguishers may also be purchased and employed, if, in the judgment of said board, deemed advisable; provided, that no hand engine shall be purchased for the use of said department, but such as shall be in possession of such city, or city and county, prior to its organization under this act, may be used in such localities and under such regulations as the board of fire commissioners may prescribe. The companies of said department shall be organized as follows: Each steam fire-engine company shall consist of one (1) foreman, one (1) engineer, one (1) driver, one (1) fireman, and eight (8) hosemen; one (1) of whom shall act as assistant foreman, and one (1) as clerk. Each hook-and-ladder company shall consist of one (1) foreman, one (1) driver, one (1) tillerman, and twelve (12) hook-and-ladder men; one (1) of whom shall act as assistant foreman, and one (1) as clerk. Each hose company shall consist of one (1) foreman, one (1) driver, and one (1) steward, and six (6) hosemen; one (1) of whom shall act as assistant foreman, and one (1) as clerk.

§ 148. The chief engineer shall be the executive officer of said fire department, and it shall be his duty (and that of the assistant chief engineer and assistant engineers) to see that the laws, orders, rules, and regulations concerning the same are carried into effect, and also to attend to such duties as fire wardens as may be required, and to see that all laws, orders, and regulations established in such city, or city and county, to secure protection against fire, are enforced. It shall also be the duty of the chief engineer to enforce the rules and regulations made from time to time to secure discipline in said fire department, and he shall have power to suspend any subordinate officer, member, or employee for a violation of the same, and shall forthwith report in writing, with his reasons therefor, to the board of fire commissioners for their action. He shall diligently observe the condition of the apparatus and workings of said department, and shall report in writing, at least once in each week, to said board of fire commissioners, upon the same, and make such recommendations and suggestions respecting it, and for securing its greater efficiency, as he may deem proper; and in the absence or inability of the chief engineer to act, the assistant chief engineer shall assume the duties of said office of chief engineer.

§ 149. The person elected as clerk by said board of fire commissioners shall, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, execute a bond, with two or more sureties, in the penal sum of twelve thousand ($12,000) dollars, for the faithful discharge of his duties, which bond shall be approved by said board of fire commissioners, and the mayor of such city, or city and county, and when so approved shall be filed in the office of the auditor. The amount of said bond may be increased from time to time, when directed by the board of fire commissioners, should it deem it necessary for the public good; said clerk shall attend daily, during office hours, at the office of the board of fire commissioners (which shall be the office of the chief engineer, assistant chief engineer, and assistant engineers): shall perform the duties of clerk to said board and chief engineer, and shall perform such other duties from time to time as said board may prescribe. The clerk and storekeeper for the corporation yard shall, before entering upon his duties, furnish a bond in the sum of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars, to be approved in the same manner as the bond provided for in this section, to be given by the clerk of said board of fire commissioners, and filed with the auditor.

§ 150. The mayor of such city, or city and county, upon the recommendation of the board of fire commissioners, with the approval of the municipal council, is authorized to sell at private or public sale from time to time any or all of the engines, hose-carriages, engine-houses, lots on which such houses stand, or parts of lots (or to exchange any of said lots, when in their judgment demanded by the public good), or other property which shall not be required for the use of the department, and to execute, acknowledge, and deliver good and sufficient deeds or bills of sale for the same, paying the proceeds of such sale into the county treasury, to the credit of the proper fund.

§ 151. The municipal council of such city, or city and county, is hereby authorized and required to appropriate, allow, and order paid annually out of the general fund of such city, or city and county, the salaries hereinafter specified and allowed, and salaries at similar rates to the several officers and men of any additional companies created as aforesaid, and the municipal council is required to appropriate, allow, and order paid, out of the general fund, a sum not to exceed eighty thousand ($80,000) dollars annually for running expenses, horse feed, repairs to apparatus, and for the construction and erection of cisterns and hydrants, and for the erection and repair of buildings, and other expenses of the fire department. To appropriate a sum not to exceed thirty thousand ($30,000) dollars for the purchase of horses and apparatus for the fire department.

§ 152. Whenever a member of the paid fire department of such city, or city and county, shall become disabled by reason of injuries received at any fire, so as to be unable to perform his duties, the municipal council, upon the recommendation of the board of fire commissioners, is hereby authorized and empowered to allow said disabled man a sum not exceeding fifty ($50) dollars per month for not to exceed three (3) months, payable out of the general fund of such city, or city and county, in the same manner and form as other payments are made out of said fund.

§ 153. The municipal council shall provide, by ordinance, for the payment into a "Fireman's Charitable Fund" of such city, or city and county, of all moneys received for licenses for the storage, manufacture, or sale of gunpowder, blasting powder, guncotton, fireworks, nitroglycerin, dynamite, or any explosive oils or compounds, or as a municipal tax upon the same; also all fines collected in the police court, for violations of fire ordinances. Said fund shall be under the direction and control of and subject to such regulations as may be prescribed by the board of fire commissioners.

§ 154. The chief engineer shall have power to appoint one member of each company to act as assistant foreman; also, one member to act as clerk; said clerk to receive five ($5) dollars per month extra pay.

§ 155. The fire commissioners shall organize said board immediately upon their appointment, and on the first Monday after the first day of January of each and every year thereafter, by selecting one of their number as president, and they shall meet at least once in each month publicly at their office to transact the business of said fire department; and, in addition to the stated meetings, they shall meet twice in each month for the purpose of investigating charges against officers, members, and employees of said department for violating any of the rules and regulations thereof; and shall hold such intermediate sessions as they shall deem necessary to the proper administration of the fire department. No person shall be eligible to any position in said department who is not a citizen of the United States, or a resident of such city, or city and county, at least two years, nor under twenty-one (21) years of age at the time of his appointment.

§ 156. In all investigations for violation of the rules and regulations of the fire department, the president of the board of fire commissioners shall have power to issue subpoenas, and administer oaths, and compel the attendance of witnesses before him by attachment or otherwise. All subpoenas issued by him shall be in such form as he may prescribe, and shall be served by any police officer or by any peace-officer of such city, or city and county. Any person who refuses to attend or testify in obedience to such subpoenas shall be deemed guilty of contempt, and be punished by him as in cases of contempt in justices' court in civil cases.

§ 157. No officer, member, or employee of the fire department shall be dismissed unless for cause, nor until after a trial. The accused shall be furnished with a written copy of the charges against him at least five (5) days previous to the day of trial, and he shall have an opportunity to examine witnesses in his behalf, and all witnesses shall be examined under oath, and all trials shall be public.

§ 158. The municipal council of such city and county is hereby authorized and empowered to establish and maintain at the corporation yard a workshop for making repairs and improvements upon the apparatus of the fire department, and such workshop and such repairs and improvements to be under the supervision of the board of fire commissioners, and the municipal council shall allow and order paid, out of the proper fund, all the expenses of such workshops, repairs, and improvements.

§ 159. No member of said board of fire commissioners shall, during his term of office, be a member of any party convention the purpose of which is to nominate candidates for political office, nor shall the officers, members, or employees of said fire department take any part whatever in any partizan convention, held for the purposes of a political party; nor shall any member of the said board of fire commissioners, directly or indirectly, attempt to control or influence the action of any member of said fire department, or any employee thereof, in any primary or general election. No member of the fire department shall levy, collect, or pay any amount of money as an assessment or contribution for political purposes. Any violation of the foregoing provisions of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor.

§ 160. The salaries of the officers of the fire department shall be paid in monthly instalments, and as follows:

1. The salary of the fire commissioners shall be one thousand two hundred dollars per annum;
2. The salary of the chief engineer shall be four thousand dollars per annum;

3. The salary of the assistant chief engineer shall be two thousand four hundred dollars per annum;

4. The salaries of the assistant engineers shall each be one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum;

5. The salary of the superintendent of steam fire-engines shall be two thousand four hundred dollars per annum.

§ 161. The salaries of the members and employees of the fire department shall be paid in monthly instalments, and as follows:

1. The salary of assistant superintendent of steam fire-engines shall be one thousand six hundred and eighty dollars per annum;

2. The salary of the clerk and storekeeper for the corporation yard shall be one thousand five hundred dollars per annum;

3. The salary of the corporation yard drayman shall be one thousand and eighty dollars per annum;

4. The salary of the night watchman for the corporation yard shall be nine hundred dollars per annum;

5. The salary of the two hydrantmen shall be one thousand and eighty dollars per annum each;

6. The salary of the veterinary surgeon shall be one thousand two hundred dollars per annum;

7. The salary of the foreman of each company shall be five hundred and forty dollars per annum;

8. The salary of the engineer for each steam fire-engine company shall be one thousand six hundred and eighty dollars per annum;

9. The salary of the substitute engineer and machinist shall be one thousand six hundred and eighty dollars per annum;

10. The salary of the driver for each company shall be one thousand and eighty dollars per annum;

11. The salary of the fireman for each steam fire company shall be one thousand and eighty dollars per annum;

12. The salary of the carpenter for said department shall be one thousand two hundred dollars per annum;

13. The salary of the tillerman for each hook-and-ladder company shall be one thousand and eighty dollars per annum;

14. The salary of the steward for each hose company shall be nine hundred and sixty dollars per annum;

15. The salary of each hoseman and each hook-and-ladder man shall be four hundred and eighty dollars per annum;

16. The salary of the janitor and messenger shall be one thousand two hundred dollars per annum;

17. The salary of the clerk of the board of fire commissioners shall be one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum.

§ 162. There shall be maintained and provided for by the municipal council in such city, or city and county, a fire-alarm and police telegraph for municipal use, and the superintendent thereof shall be appointed by the board of fire commissioners, to serve during its pleasure, except that he shall not be removed for political causes, reasons, or purposes. Said superintendent is authorized to appoint the following officers and employees: One chief operator, three operators, one repairer, two assistant repairers, and one batteryman. It shall be the duty of such board, on their first organization under this act, to appoint as officers and employees thereof the officers and employees of any fire-alarm and police telegraph which shall be in service in such city, or city and county, at the time of its organization under this act.

§ 163. The salaries of the officers of said fire-alarm and police telegraph shall be paid in monthly instalments, and as follows:

1. The salary of the superintendent shall be two thousand four hundred dollars per annum;

2. The salary of the chief operator shall be one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum;

3. The salary of each of the three operators herein provided for shall be one thousand five hundred dollars per annum;

4. The salary of the repairer shall be one thousand two hundred dollars per annum;

5. The salary of each of the two assistant repairers herein provided for shall be one thousand and eighty dollars per annum;

6. The salary of the batteryman shall be nine hundred dollars per annum.

§ 164. The municipal council shall appropriate such sum as may be necessary, not exceeding fifteen thousand dollars per annum, for the maintenance, repair, and extension of said telegraph, and to defray the cost of instruments and machinery therefor, and for such horses and vehicles as may be necessary for the use of said superintendent.

§ 165. There shall be a board of health for such city, or city and county, which board shall consist of the mayor of the city and county, and five physicians in good standing, residing in such city, or city and county, who shall be appointed by the governor, and who shall hold office for the term of four years, and until their successors are appointed and qualified; and in case any vacancy shall at any time occur in said board by removal, or resignation, or otherwise, the same shall be filled by appointment by the governor.

§ 166. The mayor of such city, or city and county, shall be ex officio president of the board of health, and in his absence, at any meeting, the board may elect a chairman, who shall, for the time, be clothed with all the power of the president. Said board shall hold a regular meeting at least once in each month, and at other times, when called thereto by the president, or by a majority of the board.

§ 167. Said board of health is hereby invested with general jurisdiction over all matters appertaining to the sanitary condition of such city, or city and county, and over all quarantine regulations and the enforcement thereof, and hospitals and almshouses, and all municipal institutions created and maintained for charitable purposes and not herein enumerated, within the corporate limits of such city, or city and county, and adopt such orders and regulations as may be necessary to the complete exercise of the powers hereinbefore enumerated, and may appoint or discharge such attendants and employees as may seem best to promote the public welfare.

§ 168. The members of said board of health shall receive no salary.

§ 169. Said board of health shall have power to appoint the following officers and employees, who shall receive the salaries hereinafter provided, payable in monthly instalments at the end of each month, viz.:

1. One health officer, who shall be the executive officer of said board, at a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum;

2. One quarantine officer, at a salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum;

3. One secretary, at a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum;

4. Six health inspectors and one market inspector, at a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum each; one messenger at nine hundred dollars per annum;

5. One superintendent of the city, or city and county, hospital, who shall be a physician and graduate of some medical college in good standing, at a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum;

6. One resident hospital physician, at a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum;

7. One hospital steward, at a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum;

8. One hospital matron, at a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum.

9. One hospital apothecary, at a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum;

10. One hospital engineer, at a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum;

11. Two physicians and two surgeons, to be selected from the faculty of the medical department of the University of California, and two physicians and two surgeons, to be selected from the faculty of the Pacific Medical College, at such salary as the board of health may designate, not to exceed one thousand two hundred dollars each per annum, as visiting physicians and surgeons to the city, or city and county, hospital;

12. One almshouse superintendent, at a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum;

13. One resident almshouse physician, at a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum;

14. One almshouse matron, at a salary of seven hundred and twenty dollars per annum;

15. One city physician, at a salary not to exceed one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum;

16. One assistant city physician for the industrial school and house of correction, at a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum;

17. One first cook, at a salary of sixty dollars per month;

18. One second cook, at a salary of thirty-five dollars per month;

19. One third cook, at a salary of thirty dollars per month;

20. One baker, at a salary of seventy-five dollars per month;

21. One clerk, at a salary of forty dollars per month;

22. One interpreter, at a salary of forty dollars per month;

23. One ambulance driver, at a salary of forty dollars per month;

24. Sixteen nurses, at a salary of thirty-five dollars each [per month].

§ 170. The appointing power of all and every of the aforesaid officers and employees is vested solely in said board of health, and said board shall have power to prescribe the duties of every and all of said officers and employees, and to remove the same at pleasure; and said board of health is hereby empowered to employ such additional employees as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this act, at such compensations as said board of health may fix.

§ 171. The salaries of the officers and employees of said board of health, and all other expenses legally incurred by said board under the provisions of this chapter, shall be payable out of the general fund of the treasury of such city, or city and county; and the auditor of such city, or city and county, is hereby directed to audit all such demands, and the treasurer of such city, or city and county, is hereby directed to pay the same out of said general fund. The said board of health shall, annually, upon the third Monday of April of each year, transmit, in writing, to the municipal council of such city, or city and county, an estimate of the amount of money necessary to defray all of the expenditures of said board of health for the next fiscal year; and the board of health shall not expend, in any one fiscal year, an amount exceeding the amount of such estimate so transmitted by said board of health for such fiscal year, allowed upon such estimate by the municipal council, except in case of an epidemic of any contagious disease, when such board of health is hereby authorized to increase such expense as may be deemed necessary for the public safety; and all such expenses shall be payable out of the general fund of such city, or city and county, at the same time and in the same manner provided for other expenses of said board. Nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize said board of health to contract for or purchase supplies for any of the charitable institutions placed under its control by this chapter. All contracts for any of the work authorized by this chapter to be caused to be performed by said board of health shall be awarded by said board to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice, for not less than five days, in two daily newspapers published in such city, or city and county, under such regulations and requirements as said board of health may adopt.

§ 172. It shall not be lawful for any superintendent, or other principal officer in charge of any almshouse in such city, or city and county, to have or receive any perquisites, or to derive any income or revenue therefrom, either directly or indirectly, other than the salary allowed to him by the board of health; nor shall it be allowable for any subordinate officer or employee to have or receive any perquisites, either directly or indirectly; and it shall be the duty of the board of health to remove any such superintendent, or other principal officer, or any subordinate officer or employee who violates any provision of this section. All fees authorized by any of the provisions of this chapter, to be collected by any officer or employee of the board of health, shall be immediately paid by such officer or employee to the secretary of said board of health, who shall, upon the first Monday of each month, pay the same into the treasury of such city, or city and county, to be credited to the proper fund.

§ 173. Shipmasters bringing vessels into the harbor of any such city, or city and county, and all masters, owners, or consignees having vessels in such harbor, which have on board any cases of Asiatic cholera, smallpox, yellow, typhus, [or] ship fever, or any other contagious disease, must report the same, in writing, to the quarantine officer before landing any passengers, casting anchor, or coming to any wharf, or as soon thereafter as they, or either of them, become aware of the existence of either of these diseases on board of their vessel.

§ 174. No captain or other officer in command of any vessel sailing under a register, arriving at the port of any such city, or city and county, nor any owner, consignee, agent, or other person having charge of such vessel, must, under a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, land, or permit to be landed, any freight, passengers, or other persons from such vessels, until he has reported to the quarantine officer, presented his bill of health, and received a permit from that officer to land freight, passengers, and other persons.

§ 175. Every pilot who conducts into the port of any such city, or city and county, any vessel subject to quarantine, or examination by the quarantine officer, must:

1. Bring the vessel no nearer such city, or city and county, than is allowed by law;

2. Prevent any person from leaving such vessel, and any communication being made with the vessel under his charge, until the quarantine officer has boarded her and given the necessary orders and directions;

3. Be vigilant in preventing any violation of the quarantine laws, and report, without delay, all such violations that come to his knowledge to the quarantine officer;

4. Present the master of the vessel with a printed copy of the quarantine laws, unless he has one;

5. If the vessel is subject to quarantine, by reason of infection, place at the masthead a small yellow flag.

§ 176. Every master of a vessel subject to quarantine, or visitation by the quarantine officer, arriving in the port of any such city, or city and county, who refuses or neglects either:

1. To proceed with and anchor his vessel at the place assigned for quarantine, when legally directed so to do; or,

2. To submit his vessel, cargo, and passengers to the quarantine officers, their inspection, examination, and direction, and furnish all necessary information to enable that officer to determine to what quarantine or other regulations they might respectively be subject; or,

3. To report all cases of disease and of death occurring on his vessel, and to comply with all the sanitary regulations of such port or harbor;

Is liable in the sum of five hundred dollars for every such neglect or refusal.

§ 177. All vessels arriving off the port of any such city, or city and county, from ports which have been legally declared infected ports, and all vessels arriving from ports where there is prevailing, at the time of their departure, any contagious, infectious, or pestilential diseases, or vessels with decaying cargoes, or which have usually foul or offensive holds, are subject to quarantine, and must be by the master, owner, pilot, or consignee reported to the quarantine officer without delay. No such vessel must pass within the bounds prohibited them by the board of health, until the quarantine officer has boarded her and given the order required by law.

§ 178. The quarantine officer must board every vessel subject to quarantine or visitation by him, immediately on her arrival, make such examinations and inspection of vessels, books, papers, or cargo, or of persons on board, under oath, as he may judge expedient, and determine whether the vessel should be ordered to quarantine, and if so, the period of quarantine.

§ 179. No captain, or other officer, in command of any passenger-carrying vessel of more than one hundred and fifty tons burden, nor of any vessel of more than one hundred and fifty tons burden having passengers on board, nor any consignee, owner, agent, or other person having charge of such vessel or vessels, must, under a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, land, or permit to be landed, any passenger from the vessel until he has presented his bill of health to the quarantine officer and received a permit from that officer to land such passengers, except in such cases as the quarantine officer deems it safe to give the permit before seeing the bill of health.

§ 180. The following fees shall be collected by the quarantine officer for giving a permit to land freight or passengers, or both: From any sailing vessel of less than five hundred tons burden, from any port out of this state, two dollars and fifty cents; five hundred and under one thousand tons burden, five dollars; each additional one thousand tons burden, or fraction thereof, an additional two dollars and fifty cents; for steam vessels, propelled in whole or in part by steam, of one thousand tons burden or less, five dollars, and two dollars and fifty cents additional for each additional one thousand tons burden or fraction thereof. But vessels not propelled in whole or in part by steam, sailing to and from any port or ports of the Pacific states of the United States or territories, and whaling vessels entering the harbor of any such city and county, are excepted from the provisions of this section.

§ 181. The board of health may enforce compulsory vaccination on passengers or [on] variola-infected ships, or coming from ports infected with the same.

§ 182. The board of health shall establish quarantine grounds at such points and places as in its judgment may best conduce to public safety; may provide suitable hospitals whenever the same are required for the public safety, and furnish and supply the same with nurses and attaches, and remove thereto all persons afflicted with cholera, smallpox, yellow, typhus [or] ship fever, or other contagious diseases; provided, said quarantine grounds and hospitals shall not be established within one mile of the mainland on the north side of the bay of San Francisco.

§ 183. The board of health must cause to be kept a record of all births, deaths, and interments occurring in such city, or city and county, coming under the provisions of this chapter. Such records, when filed, must be deposited in the office of the city, or city and county, recorder, and produced when required for public inspection.

§ 184. Physicians and midwives must, on or before the fourth day of each month, make a return to the health officer of all births, deaths, and the number of still-born children occurring in their practice during the preceding month. In the absence of such attendants, the parents must make such report within thirty days after the birth of the child. Such returns must be made in accordance with rules adopted by, and upon blanks furnished by, the board of health.

§ 185. No person shall deposit in any cemetery, or inter in any such city, or city and county, any human body, without first having obtained and filed with the health officer a certificate, signed by a physician or midwife, or coroner, setting forth as near as possible the name, age, color, sex, place of birth, occupation, date, locality, and the cause of death of deceased, and obtain from such health officer a permit. The physicians, when death occurs in their practice, must give the certificate herein mentioned. It shall be the duty of the said board of health to see that the dead body of a human being is not allowed to remain in any public receiving vault for a longer period than five days. At the expiration of that time it shall cause the body to be buried, or to be placed in a vault or niche, constituted of brick, stone, or iron, and hermetically sealed. It shall also be the duty of said boards to require all persons having in charge the digging of graves and the burial of the dead, to see that the body of no human being who has reached ten years of age shall be interred in a grave less than six feet deep, or if under the age of ten years, the grave to be not less than five feet deep. The board of health shall have entire charge of all cemeteries belonging to such city, or city and county, and may employ a superintendent thereof, at a salary not to exceed seventy-five dollars per month, the same to be paid out of the general fund as the salaries of the other employees are paid.

§ 186. Superintendents of all cemeteries in any such city, or city and county, must return to the health officer, on each Monday, the names of all persons interred or deposited within their respective cemeteries during the preceding week, and no superintendent of a cemetery, or any other person, can remove, or cause to be removed, or cause to be disinterred, any human body or remains that have been deposited in a cemetery, without a permit therefor from the health officer, or by order of the coroner.

§ 187. It shall be unlawful to disinter or exhume from a grave, vault, or other burial-place within the limits of such city, or city and county, the body or remains of any deceased person, unless a permit for so doing shall have first been obtained from the health officer of such city, or city and county. Nor shall any body or remains disinterred, exhumed, or taken from any grave, vault, or other place of burial or deposit, be transported in or through the streets or highways of any such city, or city and county, unless the person or persons removing or transporting such body or remains shall first obtain from the health officer a permit, in writing, therefor, as aforesaid. But when an applicant for a permit to disinter a body shall desire to remove said body beyond the limits of such city, or city and county, and shall so state on making application, the permit, if the same be issued, shall include the right to disinter and remove, and said permit shall accompany the remains.

§ 188. Permits to disinter or exhume the bodies or remains of deceased persons and to transport the same, or to exhume, or to transport, as in the last [preceding] section provided, may be granted, in the discretion of the health officer, and under such restrictions and conditions only as he, in his judgment, may affix, so as in the best possible manner to protect the public health. The health officer shall prepare a book of blank permits in proper form, and consecutively numbered, containing stubs, on which, as well as in the permit, shall be entered a record of the transaction, giving the name, age, sex, nativity, date of death, destination of remains sought to be removed, and upon granting each permit shall be required to be paid to him the sum of ten dollars therefor, for the use and benefit of the general fund of such city, or city and county.

§ 189. Any person or persons who shall disinter, exhume, or remove, or cause to be disinterred, exhumed, or removed, from a grave, vault, or other receptacle or burial-place, the remains of a deceased person, without a permit therefor, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by fine not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 190. Any person or persons who shall transport, or cause to be transported, on or through the streets or highways of any such city, or city and county, the body or remains of a deceased person which has been disinterred or exhumed without a permit therefor, in accordance with this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished as provided in the preceding section.

§ 191. Nothing in this chapter contained shall be taken to apply to the removal of the remains of the deceased person from one place of interment to another place of interment, or cemetery, within this state.

§ 192. No person, master, captain, or conductor in charge of any boat, vessel, or railroad car, or public or private conveyance, shall receive for transportation, or shall transport, the body of any person who has died within the limits of such city, or city and county, without said body is accompanied by a permit for such transportation from the health officer, which permit shall accompany the body to its destination; and no person, master, captain, or conductor, as aforesaid, shall bring into or transport through any such city, or city and county, the dead body or remains of any person unless it be accompanied with a certificate from some proper authority of the place from whence it came, stating the name, age, sex, and cause of death, which certificate shall be filed at the health office; provided, that in no case shall the body of any person who died of contagious disease be brought to such city, or city and county, within one year after the day of death.

§ 193. Whenever a nuisance shall exist on the property of any non-resident, or any property the owner or owners of which cannot be found by either health inspector, after diligent search, or on the property of any owner or owners upon whom due notice may have been served, and who shall for three days refuse or neglect to abate the same, or any property belonging to such city, or city and county, it shall be the duty of the board of health to cause the said nuisance to be at once removed or abated, and to draw upon the general fund in such sums as may be required for such removal or abatement, not to exceed two hundred dollars; provided, that whenever a larger expenditure is found necessary to be made in the removal or suppression of any nuisance, the municipal council of such city, or city and county, shall, upon the written application of the board of health, by ordinance, appropriate, allow, and order paid, out of the general fund, such sum or sums as may be necessary for that purpose; provided further, that in all cases where such expenditure will exceed five hundred dollars, no appropriation shall be made for that purpose unless the city, or city and county, attorney shall first give his opinion in writing that such expenditure would be a legal charge against the property affected thereby. And the auditor shall audit and the treasurer shall pay all appropriations of money made in pursuance of this section, in the same manner as is now provided by law for auditing and paying demands upon the treasury.

§ 194. The health officer and the quarantine officer must each keep a book open to public inspection, in which must be entered daily all fees collected by them, and they must pay all fees collected to such city, or city and county, treasurer, daily, to the credit of the general fund.

§ 195. The health officer must execute an official bond, with two sureties, to be approved by the board of health, in the sum of ten thousand dollars; and the quarantine officer must execute a like official bond, with two sureties, in the sum of ten thousand dollars; which bonds shall be filed with the auditor of such city, or city and county.

§ 196. Any member of the board of health, the health officer, and the quarantine officer, and the secretary of the board of health, is [are] hereby authorized to administer oaths on business connected with the health department.

§ 197. Whenever any cause of action arises under any of the provisions of this chapter relating to the health department, suit may be maintained thereon in the name of the health or quarantine officer, as the case may be, in any superior court or justices' court of this state.

§ 198. Every physician in any such city, or city and county, shall report to the health officer, in writing, every patient he shall have laboring under Asiatic cholera, variola, diphtheria, scarlatina, or other contagious diseases, immediately thereafter, and report to the same officer every case of death from such disease.

§ 199. Every householder in any such city, or city and county, shall forthwith report, in writing, to the health officer the name of every person boarding, or an inmate of his or her house, whom he or she shall have reason to believe sick of cholera, or smallpox, and any death occurring at his or her house from such disease.

§ 200. There shall be a board of park commissioners of such city, or city and county, consisting of three persons, to be appointed by the governor of this state, who shall hold their office for four years, and who shall receive no compensation for their services. In case of a vacancy, the same shall be filled by the remaining members of the board for the residue of the term then vacant; and all vacancies occasioned by expiration of terms of office, or neglect, or incapacity, shall be filled by the governor aforesaid. Each of said commissioners shall be a freeholder and resident of such city, or city and county. Said board shall have full and exclusive control and management of all the parks of such city, or city and county, which at the time of the organization of such city, or city and county, under this act, were treated and improved as public parks, with the avenues and great highways connected therewith. Two of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum to do business, but no money shall be expended or contract entered into authorizing the expenditure of money without the approval of the mayor and a majority of said board of park commissioners.

§ 201. Said board shall have power to govern, manage, and direct said parks and avenues leading thereto as have heretofore been operated or managed in connection therewith; to lay out, regulate, and improve such parks and avenues; to pass ordinances for the regulation and government of the same; to appoint one general superintendent, who shall perform the duties of overseer and managing gardener, who shall receive a salary of two thousand four hundred dollars per annum. The city, or city and county, surveyor shall be ex officio engineer of the works, and shall perform such engineering work as the commissioners may require of him. Prisoners over the age of twenty-one years, sentenced to hard labor in any of the jails, prisons, houses of correction, workhouses, or other penal establishments of such city, or city and county, may be put to work upon the parks. The commissioners may employ such other laborers as shall be necessary, within the amount allowed by law to be expended on said parks, at wages not to exceed the current wages paid in such city, or city and county, for labor. They shall in no year incur any debt or deficit, nor expend any money beyond the amount realized by the tax herein provided for. All persons violating any of the ordinances of the commissioners regulating the parks shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and punished accordingly.

§ 202. The municipal council shall have the power to levy and collect, in the mode prescribed by law for the levy and collection of taxes, each year, upon all property in such city, or city and county, the sum of one and one half cents upon each one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property therein, for the purpose of preserving and improving the parks and avenues under control and management of said commissioners. Said money shall be paid into the treasury, and paid out for said purpose; all claims to be first allowed by said commissioners and audited by the auditor. The jurisdiction of the park commissioners shall not extend to unimproved parks, nor squares and places not hitherto treated as parks, unless extended thereto by an ordinance of the municipal council. The commissioners may lease, for terms not to exceed three years, any portion of said grounds not immediately required for improvement, the proceeds to go to the improvement of the parks and avenues.

§ 203. The park commissioners shall make semiannual reports to the mayor and municipal council of all their proceedings, and a detailed statement of all the receipts and expenditures.

§ 204. The mayor shall see that all contracts and agreements with the city are faithfully kept and performed, and to this end he shall cause legal proceedings to be instituted and prosecuted against all persons or corporations failing to fulfil their agreements. And it is the duty of any and every city, or city and county, officer, when it shall come to his knowledge that any contract with such city, or city and county, relating to the business of any office whatever, has been or is about to be violated by the other contracting party, forthwith to report the fact to the mayor. A failure to do so shall be a sufficient cause for the removal of any officer of any department. The mayor shall give a certificate, on demand, to any officer giving such information that he has done so, which certificate shall be evidence in exoneration from a charge of neglect of such duty. The city, or city and county, attorney shall prosecute all suits so ordered by the mayor.

ARTICLE V.—JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

§ 213. There shall be in and for such city, or city and county, one justices' court, composed of six justices of the peace, which shall have the powers and jurisdiction prescribed and conferred by law upon justices of the peace and justices' courts, in such city, or city and county. All actions, suits, and proceedings whereof justices of the peace and justices' courts in such city, or city and county, have jurisdiction, shall be commenced, entitled and prosecuted in said court. Such court shall be always open, non-judicial days excepted, and causes therein may be tried before the presiding justice, before any one of the justices before whom the original process may be made returnable, or to whom the cause may be assigned or transferred for trial.

§ 214. The board of aldermen shall appoint one of the justices of the peace to be presiding justice, who, as such, shall hold office until his successor shall in the same manner be appointed; and any one of the other justices may attend, preside and act as presiding justice during the temporary absence or disability of the justice so appointed. The board of aldermen, within ten days after its organization as such board, shall appoint a justices' clerk, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the appointing power. The clerk shall take the constitutional oath of office, and give bond, with at least two sufficient sureties, to be approved in the same manner as the official bond of other officers of such city, or city and county, in the sum of not less than fifteen thousand dollars, payable to the city, or city and county, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and well and truly to account for and pay into the treasury of such city, or city and county, as required by law, all moneys by him collected or received, and by law designated for that use. A new or additional bond may be required by the municipal council whenever it deems it necessary; and on failure to furnish such new or additional bond within five days after it shall be required, the office shall become vacant. The justices' clerk shall have authority to administer oaths, and take and certify affidavits in any action, suit or proceeding in all courts in such city, or city and county, and to appoint two deputy clerks, for whose acts he shall be responsible on his official bond; the said deputy clerks to hold office during the pleasure of said clerk. Said deputy clerks shall have the same power as the said clerk, except that of appointment.

§ 215. The municipal council of such city, or city and county, shall provide, in some convenient locality in the city, or city and county, a suitable office, or suite of offices, for said presiding justice, justices' clerk, deputy clerk and deputy sheriff, and offices suitable for holding sessions of said court, and separate from one another, for each of said justices of the peace, together with attendants, furniture, fuel, lights and stationery, sufficient for the transaction of business; and if they are not provided, the court may direct the sheriff to provide the same, and the expenses incurred, certified by the justices to be correct, shall be a charge against the city, or city and county, treasury and paid out of the general fund thereof. The said justices, justices' clerk and deputy clerk, shall be in attendance at their respective offices for the dispatch of official business daily, from the hour of nine o'clock a. m. until five o'clock p. m.

§ 216. All legal process of every kind in actions, suits or proceedings in said justices' court, for the issue of service of which any fee is or may be allowed by law, shall be issued by the said justices' clerk, upon the order of the presiding justice, or upon the order of one of the justices of the peace, acting as presiding justice, as in this chapter provided; and the fees for issuance and service of all such process, and all other fees which are allowed by law for any official services of justices, justices' clerk, or sheriff, shall be exacted and paid in advance into the hands of said clerk, and be by him daily, weekly or monthly, as the municipal council may require, and before his salary shall be allowed, accounted for in detail, under oath, and paid into the treasury of such city, or city and county, as part of the special fee fund thereof; provided, that such payment in advance shall not be exacted from parties who may prove, to the satisfaction of the presiding justice, that they have good cause of action, and that they are not of sufficient pecuniary ability to pay the legal fees; and no judgment shall be rendered in any action before said justices' court, or any of said justices, until the fees allowed therefor, and all fees for previous services therein, which are destined to be paid into the treasury, shall have been paid, except in cases of poor persons, as hereinbefore provided.

§ 217. The sheriff of such city and county shall be ex officio an officer of said court, and it shall be his duty to serve or execute, or cause to be served and executed, each and every process, writ, or order that may be issued by said justices' court; provided, that a summons issued from said court may be served and returned as provided in section eight hundred and forty-nine of the Code of Civil Procedure; and that subpoenas may be issued by the justices' clerk, and served as provided in sections nineteen hundred and eighty-seven and nineteen hundred and eighty-eight of the Code of Civil Procedure. The said sheriff may appoint, in addition to the other deputies allowed by law, three deputies, whose duty it shall be to assist said sheriff in serving and executing the process, writs, and orders of the said justices' court. Said deputies shall receive a salary of not to exceed one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month each, payable monthly, out of the city and county treasury, and out of the special fee fund, after being first allowed and audited as other demands are by law required to be audited and allowed. One of said deputies shall remain in attendance during the sessions of said court, and at such other times as the said court or the presiding justice thereof may order and direct, for the purpose of attending to such duties as may be imposed on said sheriff or said deputies, as herein provided or required by law. The said sheriff shall be liable on his official bond for the faithful performance of all duties required of him or any of his said deputies.

§ 218. All actions, suits, and proceedings in such city, or city and county, whereof justices of the peace or justices' courts have jurisdiction, except those cases of concurrent jurisdiction that may be commenced in some other court, shall be entitled: "In the justices' court of the city of — (or the city and county of —)," (inserting the name of the city, or city and county), and commenced and prosecuted in said justices' court, which shall be always open. The original process shall be returnable, and the parties summoned required to appear, before the presiding justice, or before one of the other justices of the peace, to be designated by the presiding justice at his office; but all complaints, answers, and other pleadings and papers required to be filed, shall be filed and a record of all such actions, suits, and proceedings made and kept in the clerk's office aforesaid; and the presiding justice, and each of the other justices, shall have power, jurisdiction, and authority to hear, try, and determine any action, suit or proceeding so commenced, and which shall have been made returnable before him, or may be assigned or transferred to him, or any motion, application, or issue therein (subject to the constitutional right of trial by jury), and to make any necessary and proper orders therein.

§ 219. In case of sickness, or disability, or absence of a justice of the peace (on the return of a summons, or at the time appointed for trial) to whom a cause has been assigned, the presiding justice shall reassign the cause to some other justice, who shall proceed with the trial and disposition of said cause in the same manner as if originally assigned to him; and if, at any time before the trial of a cause or matter returnable or pending before any of said justices either party shall object to having the cause or matter tried before said justice on the ground that such justice is a material witness for either party, or on the ground of the interest, prejudice, or bias of such justice, and such objection be made to appear in the manner prescribed by section eight hundred and thirty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure, the said justice shall suspend proceedings, and the presiding justice, on motion and production before him of the affidavit and proofs, shall order the transfer of the cause or matter for trial before some other justice, to be designated by him. The presiding justice may, in like manner, assign or transfer any contested motion, application, or issue in law, arising in any cause, returnable or pending before him or any other justice, to some other justice, and the said justice to whom any cause, matter, motion, application, or issue shall be so as aforesaid assigned or transferred, shall have power, jurisdiction, and authority to hear, try, and determine the same accordingly.

§ 220. Cases which, by the provisions of law, are required to be certified to the superior court, by reason of involving the question of title or possession of real property, or the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine, shall be so certified by the presiding justice and justices' clerk; and for that purpose, if such question shall arise on the trial while the case is pending before one of the other justices, such justice shall certify the same to the presiding justice. All abstracts and transcripts of judgments and proceedings in said court, or in any of the dockets or registers of or deposited in said court, shall be given and certified from any of such dockets or registers and signed by the presiding justice and clerk, and shall have the same force and effect as abstracts and transcripts of justices of the peace in other cases. Appeals from judgments rendered in said court shall be taken and perfected in the manner prescribed by law, and the notice of appeal and all papers required to be filed to perfect it shall be filed with the justices' clerk. Statements on appeal shall be settled by the justice who tried the cause. Sureties on appeal, or on any bond or undertaking given in any cause or proceeding in said court, when required to justify, may justify before any one of the justices.

§ 221. The jurisdiction of the justices' court of such city, or city and county, extends to the limits of the city, or city and county, and its process may be served in any part thereof.

§ 222. The presiding justice, whenever in his judgment the prompt dispatch of business shall demand it, may require the aid of one of the justices of the peace in the discharge either of his own duties or those of the justices' clerk (the collection of fees, accounting for, and paying the same into the treasury excepted), and each of the justices, when so required, shall, for the purpose, have the same power and authority as the presiding justice or clerk in whose aid he shall act; and any one of the justices, when required as aforesaid, may act as a justices' clerk pro tempore during the temporary absence or disability of such clerk, with the same powers, duties, and responsibilities.

§ 223. In a suitable book, strongly bound, the justices' clerk shall keep a permanent record of all actions, proceedings, and judgments commenced, had, or rendered in said justices' court, which book shall be a public record, and be known as the "Justices' Docket," in which docket the clerk shall make the same entries as are provided for in section nine hundred and eleven of the Code of Civil Procedure, and which said docket and entries therein shall have the same force and effect as is provided by law in reference to dockets of justices of the peace. To enable the clerk to make up such docket, each of the justices shall keep minutes of his proceedings in every cause returnable before, or assigned or transferred to, him for trial or hearing; and upon judgment, or other disposition of a cause, such justice shall immediately certify and return the said minutes, together with all pleadings and papers in said cause, to the clerk's office, who shall immediately thereupon file the same, and make the proper entries under the title of the action in the docket aforesaid.

§ 224. The justices' court and the justices of the peace of every such city and county shall be governed in their proceedings by the provisions of law regulating proceedings before justices of the peace, so far as such provisions are not altered or modified in this chapter, and the same are or can be made applicable in the several cases arising before them. The justices' court of such city, or city and county, shall have power to make rules, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws, for the government of such justices' court and the officers thereof; but such rules shall not be in force until thirty days after their publication; and no rule shall be made imposing any tax or charge on any legal proceeding, or giving any allowance to any justice or officer for services.

§ 225. All actions and proceedings pending and undetermined before the justices' court of such city, or city and county, if any, at the time of its organization under this act, shall be proceeded in, heard, and determined before the court herein provided for, and execution shall be issued thereon, and other proceedings had therein, whether before or after judgment, whether on appeal or otherwise; and the court provided for under this act shall be deemed to be a continuation of the same court before existing, and not a new court.

§ 226. It shall not be lawful for any justice of the peace, the justices' clerk, or the sheriff, or any of his deputies, of such city, or city and county, to appear or advocate, or in any manner act as attorney, counsel, or agent for any party or person in any cause, or in relation to any demand, account, or claim, pending, or to be sued or prosecuted before said justices, or any of them, or which may be within their jurisdiction. A violation of the provisions of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor in office.

§ 227. No person other than an attorney at law, duly admitted and licensed to practice in courts of record, shall be permitted to appear as attorney or agent for any party in any cause or proceeding before said justices, or any of them, unless he produce a sufficient power of attorney to that effect, duly executed and acknowledged before one of said justices, or before some other officer authorized by law to take acknowledgment of deeds; which power of attorney, or a true copy thereof, duly certified by one of the justices aforesaid (who, on inspection of the original, shall attest to its genuineness), shall be filed among the papers in such cause or proceeding.

§ 228. If, at the time of the organization of any such city, or city and county, under this act, there shall not be the complement of justices of the peace provided for in this chapter, the municipal council of such city, or city and county, shall appoint a suitable person or persons to fill such complement and the person or persons so appointed shall hold office from his or their appointment, and until his or their successor or successors is or are elected or appointed and qualified.

§ 229. The judicial power of such city, or city and county, shall be vested in a "police court," to be held therein by the police judges. The police court shall not be a court of record. Said court shall have a seal. The judges of said court may hold as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are judges thereof. There shall be two departments of said court, denominated, respectively, department one and department two. The court may sit in departments, and shall be always open for the transaction of business. There shall be, as far as practicable, an equal distribution of cases between the said departments, which cases shall be alternately set down for trial to each department in the order in which the warrants are issued or proceedings brought before the court. Said judges shall, as soon as may be after the commencement of the terms of their office, classify themselves by lot for assignment to said departments, and shall be thereby assigned accordingly.

§ 230. All the power and jurisdiction of said court shall be enjoyed and may be exercised in bank, or in either department thereof. All the powers of said judges may be exercised by either of them.

§ 231. The police court of such city, or city and county, shall have jurisdiction:

1. Of an action or proceeding for the violation of any ordinance of such city, or city and county;

2. Of proceedings respecting vagrants and disorderly persons.

§ 232. The police court shall have jurisdiction of the following public offenses committed in such city, or city and county:

1. Petit larceny; receiving stolen property, when the amount involved does not exceed fifty dollars;

2. Assault and battery, not charged to have been committed upon a public officer in the discharge of his duties or with intent to kill;

3. Breaches of the peace, riots, affrays, committing wilful injury to property, and of all misdemeanors punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment;

4. Said court or judges shall have jurisdiction of proceedings for security to keep the peace: and also, throughout such city and county, the same powers and jurisdiction, in other criminal actions, cases, prosecutions, and proceedings as are now or hereafter may be conferred by law upon police or justices' courts.

§ 233. The judges of said court shall have power to hear cases for examinations, and may commit and hold the offender to bail for trial in the superior court, and may try, condemn, or acquit, and carry their judgment into execution, as the case may require according to law, and shall have power to issue warrants of arrest, subpœnas, and all other process necessary to the full and proper exercise of their power and jurisdiction.

§ 234. Said court or judges shall also have power to commit to the home for the care of the inebriate, when any such institute may be established, any person who may be convicted before them of habitual intemperance, for a term not exceeding six months, or until sooner released by order of the police judges, or by the board of managers of such institution by a two-thirds vote of all the members of said board.

§ 235. The said court or judges shall have the power to commit all offenders duly convicted, under eighteen years of age, to the industrial school of said city and county, in all cases where such commitment shall by said court or judge be deemed to be more suitable than the punishment otherwise provided by law, not to exceed six months. If, upon any trial, it shall appear that the person on trial is under fourteen years of age, and has done an act which if done by a person of full age would warrant a conviction of the crime of misdemeanor charged, then and in that case said court or judges shall have power to commit such child to the industrial school. In either case said court or judges may sentence such person to be confined in the correctional department of said industrial school for any term not exceeding six months. Upon application of the mayor, or any member of the supervisors, or of any three citizens, charging that any child under eighteen years of age lives an idle, or dissolute life, and that his parents are dead, or, if living, do, from drunkenness or other vices or causes, neglect to provide any suitable employment, or exercise salutary control over such child, the said court or judges shall have power to examine the matter, and upon being satisfied of the truth of such charges, may sentence such child to the industrial school; provided, that no person shall be so sentenced for a longer period than until he arrive at the age of eighteen years.

§ 236. In cases where, for any offense, the said court or judges are authorized to impose a fine, or imprisonment in the county jail, or both, it or they may instead sentence the offender to be employed at labor on the public works, or in the house of correction or workhouse as the supervisors may prescribe, for a period of time equal to the term of imprisonment which might legally be imposed, and may, in case a fine is imposed, embrace as a part of the sentence that in default of payment thereof the offender shall be obliged to labor on said works, at said house of correction or workhouse, or elsewhere, at the rate of one dollar a day, till the fine imposed is satisfied; provided, that no person under the age of twenty-one years, or who is to be sentenced, on conviction for drunkenness or breach of the peace, shall be sentenced to labor upon the public works away from the house of correction or workhouse.

§ 237. The said court and judges may punish contempts in the same manner and to the same extent as superior courts, and the laws concerning contempts applicable to superior courts shall be applicable to said police court and judges.

§ 238. The county clerk shall keep a record of the proceedings of the police court, issue all process ordered by said court, and shall render to the auditor, monthly, and before any amount can be paid to him on account of his salary, an exact and detailed account, upon oath, of all fines imposed, and all bail forfeited, and moneys collected, as clerk of said court, since his last account rendered. He shall prepare bonds, justify and accept bail, when the amount has been fixed by the police judges, in cases not exceeding one thousand dollars, and he shall fix, justify, and accept bail after arrest, in the absence of the police judges, in all cases not amounting to a felony, in the same manner and with the like effect as if the same had been fixed by the police judges or police court. The county clerk shall appoint three deputy clerks, who shall act as deputy clerks of said police court. The clerk and the deputy clerks in this section mentioned shall have authority to administer oaths and affirmations, and take and certify affidavits in any proceeding in said police court, in and for said city and county, and to issue subpoenas.

§ 239. The police judges and the deputy clerks shall attend at the court-rooms of said court for the dispatch of business daily, from the hour of nine o'clock a. m. until five o'clock p. m., and during such other reasonable hours as may be necessary for the discharge of their respective duties, except on legal holidays.

§ 240. The county clerk, as clerk of the police court, shall pay to the treasurer of said city and county, immediately, all fines collected and bail forfeited, accompanied by a verified written statement showing from whom each fine was collected, when collected, in what case, specifying the offense, and in what amount, and in what case and by whom such bail was forfeited. He shall immediately upon the forfeiting of any bail bond in the police court, transmit to the district attorney a copy of such bail bond, duly certified by him under the seal of that court to be a true copy, stating in such certificate the fact of such forfeiture, and the date thereof.

§ 241. Any justice of the peace of the said city and county who may be designated, in writing, by the mayor for the purpose, shall have power to preside in and hold the police court of said city and county, or any department thereof, in the event of the temporary absence of the police judges, or either of them, or of their inability to act from any cause; and during such temporary absence or disability the justice so designated shall act as police judge, and shall have and exercise all the powers, jurisdiction, and authority which are or may be by law conferred upon said court or judges.

§ 242. It shall be the duty of the assistant district attorneys, acting in the police court, or either and each of them, whenever they shall have been credibly informed that any person criminally injured by another is likely to die, to take the dying statement of such person, and to immediately reduce the same to writing. It is also hereby made the duty of attending physicians, and others knowing of such cases, to report the same immediately to such assistant district attorneys.

§ 243. No person shall be permitted to act as attorney or counsel before the police court or the police judges, unless he shall be an attorney and counselor admitted to practice in the supreme court of this state.

§ 244. The chief of police shall designate two or more policemen, who shall attend constantly upon the police court, act as bailiffs therein, and execute the orders and process of said court and the judges thereof.

§ 245. The police judge's court and the police judge's court number two of said city and county, and the offices of the judges thereof, shall be abolished at twelve o'clock noon, of the first Monday after the first day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-five, and at that time all records, registers, dockets, books, papers, actions, warrants, judgments, and proceedings lodged, deposited, or pending before the said last-mentioned courts, or the judges thereof, shall be by force hereof transferred to said police court, which police court and the police judges herein provided for shall have the same power and jurisdiction over them as if they had been in the first instance lodged, deposited, or commenced in said police court, or before the judges last aforesaid; but nothing herein contained shall affect any judgment rendered or proceeding had before that time in said police judge's court or said police judge's court number two, or before the judges thereof, or either of them.

§ 246. There shall be appointed by the judges of the superior court of such city and county five competent persons deputies to act as interpreters and translators of the following languages: French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Chinese, and Slavonian. The said deputies shall each receive a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum, which shall be paid in the same manner as the salaries of other officers are paid. It shall be the duty of each of said deputies to attend in all the courts in and for such city and county, when required by any of the judges thereof, without further compensation than the salaries above provided.

ARTICLE VI.—EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

§ 247. There shall be a board of education for such city, or city and county, which shall be composed of twelve school directors, elected as provided in this chapter, who shall hold office for two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. They shall have the same qualifications as to eligibility requisite for members of the board of aldermen. Said board shall organize immediately after the election and qualification of its members, by electing a president from among the directors elected, and annually thereafter, and shall hold meetings monthly, and at such times as the board shall determine. A majority of all the members elected shall constitute a quorum to transact business, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time. The board may determine the rules of its proceedings. Its sessions shall be public, and its record shall be open to public inspection.

§ 248. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of such city and county, at the general state election, a superintendent of schools, who shall take office on the first Monday after the first day of January next following his election, and hold office for the term of four years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. He shall perform such duties as are prescribed by law.

§ 249. The board of education shall have power:

1. To establish school districts, and to fix and alter the boundaries thereof.
2. To maintain public schools as organized at the time of the organization of such city, or city and county, under this act, and to consolidate and discontinue the same as the public good may require.
3. To establish high, normal, and experimental schools for the education of teachers.

4. To employ and pay and to dismiss teachers, janitors, school census marshals, and such mechanics and laborers, and such other persons as may be necessary to carry into effect the powers and duties of the board, and unless otherwise provided by law, to fix, alter, and allow paid their salaries and compensations, and to withhold, for good and sufficient cause, the whole or any part of the salary or wages of any person or persons employed as aforesaid.

5. Also to make and establish and enforce all necessary and proper rules and regulations for the government and efficiency of the schools, teachers, and pupils, and for the carrying into effect of the school system; and to establish and regulate, and grade the schools, the course of studies and mode of instruction therein; to investigate all charges of misconduct on the part of teachers and other employees of the board; to administer oaths and take testimony; to summon and enforce the attendance of and examine witnesses for such purpose before the board, or a member or committee thereof. Any person summoned and refusing to attend and testify shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and any person testifying falsely shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction punished accordingly.

6. To provide for the school department of such city, or city and county, fuel, lights, blanks, blank-books, books, printing, and stationery, and such other articles, materials, or supplies as may be necessary and appropriate for use in the schools, or in the office of the superintendent.

7. To build, alter, repair, rent, and provide school-houses, and furnish them with proper school furniture, apparatus, and appliances, and to insure any and all school property, and to use and control such buildings as may be necessary for the uses of the board and its committees.

8. To receive, purchase, lease, and hold in fee in trust for such city, or city and county, any and all real estate and personal property that may have been or which hereafter may be acquired for the use and benefit of the schools of such city, or city and county.

9. To grade, fence, and improve school lots, and in front thereof.

10. To sue for any and all lots, lands, and property belonging to or claimed by the school department of such city, or city and county, and to prosecute and defend all actions at law or in equity necessary to recover the full enjoyment and possession of said lots, lands, and property, and to require the services of the city, or city and county, attorney in all such suits and proceedings.

11. To establish regulations for the just and equal disbursement of all moneys belonging to the school department, or to the public school fund, and to make rules and regulations to secure economy and accountability in the expenditure of school money.

12. To discharge all legal encumbrances existing upon any school property; to dispose of and sell such personal property used in the schools as shall no longer be required, and all moneys realized by such sales shall be paid into the city treasury to the credit of the public school fund.

13. To lease, for the benefit of the public school fund, for a term not exceeding five years, any unoccupied property of the school department not required for school purposes; to prohibit any child under six years of age from attending the schools; and generally to do and perform such other acts as may be necessary and proper to carry into force and effect the powers conferred on said board.

§ 250. The president of the board of education, the superintendent, and the secretary shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations concerning any demands upon the treasury payable out of the public school fund, or other matters relating to their official duties or the school department.

§ 251. It shall be the duty of each director to make quarterly reports to the board of the condition of the schools in their respective districts.

§ 252. It shall be the duty of the board of education to furnish all necessary supplies for the public schools. All supplies, books, stationery, fuel, printing, goods, material, building, repairs, merchandise, and every other article and thing supplied to or done for the public schools, or any of them, when the expenditure to be incurred is likely to exceed two hundred dollars, shall be done by contract, let to the lowest responsible bidder, after advertisement by the superintendent of schools; and the contract shall be entered into by the superintendent with the party to whom the contract is awarded; and the superintendent shall take care that such contract is carried out in strict accordance with the terms thereof.

§ 253. All bids or proposals made under the preceding section shall be delivered to the superintendent of schools, and said board shall, in open session, open, examine, and publicly declare the same, and award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder; provided, said board may reject any and all bids, should they deem it for the public good, and also the bid of any party who may be proved delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with such city and county, or said board, and cause a republication of the notice for proposals as above specified. Any person may bid for any one article.

§ 254. Any school director, officer, or other person officially connected with the school department, or drawing a salary from the board of education, who shall, while in office, or so connected, or drawing salary, be interested, either directly or indirectly, in, or who shall gain any benefit or advantage from any contract payments under which are to be made in whole or in part of the moneys derived from the school fund, or raised by taxation or otherwise for the support of the public schools, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and on conviction, punished accordingly; and this provision shall not be construed to relieve such persons from any other penalty, but shall be deemed cumulative to and with other penalties and disabilities as to such acts and offenses.

§ 255. The board shall make and transmit, between the fifteenth day of January and the first day of February of each year, to the state superintendent of public instruction, and to the mayor and municipal council of such city, or city and county, a report, in writing, stating the whole number of public schools within the jurisdiction, the length of time they have been kept open, the number of pupils taught in each school, the whole amount of money drawn from the treasury by the department during the year, distinguishing the amounts drawn from the general fund of the state from all other, and from what sources, and the manner and purpose in which such money has been expended, with particulars, and such other information as may be required from them by the state superintendent, the municipal council, or the mayor.

§ 256. The board shall provide evening schools, to be held in the public school-houses, for the benefit of those unable to attend the day schools. They shall make and enforce regulations requiring the teachers to keep records of the names, ages, and residences of all pupils, and the names and residences of their parents, and the aggregate attendance of each pupil during the year, and to verify and report the same on the thirty-first day of December to the board; and such other rules and regulations for the purpose of ascertaining the attendance and efficiency of the department and progress of education.

§ 257. The superintendent of schools shall be ex officio member of the board of education, without the right to vote.

§ 258. Said superintendent shall appoint a clerk, subject to the approval of the board of education, who shall act as secretary of said board. His salary shall be two hundred dollars a month. Said clerk may be removed at the pleasure of the superintendent, and shall perform such duties as shall be required of him by the board or the superintendent.

§ 259. The superintendent shall report to the board annually, on or before the first day of August, and at such other time as the board may require, all matters pertaining to the expenditures, income, condition, and progress of the public schools of such city, or city and county, during the preceding fiscal year, with such recommendations as he may deem proper. He shall observe and cause to be observed, such general rules for the regulation, government, and instruction of the schools, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, as may be established by the board. He shall attend the sessions of the board, and inform himself, at each session, of the condition of schools, school-houses, school funds, and other matters connected therewith, and to recommend such measures as he may deem necessary for the advancement of education in such city, or city and county. He shall acquaint himself with all the laws, rules, and regulations governing the public schools in such city, or city and county, and the judicial decisions thereon, and give advice on subjects connected with the public schools gratuitously to officers, teachers, pupils, and their parents and guardians.

§ 260. The superintendent of schools shall visit and examine the schools, and see that they are efficiently conducted, and that the laws and regulations of the board are enforced in all things, and that no religious or sectarian books or teachings are allowed in the schools, and to report monthly to the board. He shall also report to the state superintendent at such times as such officer shall require.

§ 261. Any vacancy in the office of school director shall be filled for the remainder of the term by a person to be appointed by the board of aldermen.

§ 262. In case of a vacancy in the office of superintendent, the board of aldermen may appoint a person to fill the vacancy until the next regular election, when the office shall be filled by the people.

§ 263. The school fund of such city, or city and county, shall consist of all moneys received from the state school fund; of all moneys arising from taxes which shall be levied annually by the municipal council of such city, or city and county, for school purposes; of all moneys arising from sale, rent, or exchange of any school property, and of such other moneys as may, from any source whatever, be paid into said school fund. Said fund shall be kept in the city, or city and county, treasury, separate and distinct from all other moneys, and shall only be used for school purposes under the provisions of this chapter. No fees or commissions shall be allowed or paid for assessing, collecting, keeping, or disbursing any school moneys; and if at the end of any fiscal year any surplus remains in the school fund, such surplus money shall be carried forward to the school fund of the next fiscal year, and shall not be, for any purpose whatever, diverted or drawn from said fund, except under the provisions of this chapter.

§ 264. The said school fund shall be used and applied by said board of education for the following purposes, to wit:

1. For the payment of the salaries or wages of teachers, janitors, school census marshals, and other persons who may be employed by said board;
2. For the erection, alteration, repair, rent, and furnishing of school-houses;
3. For the expenses of high, normal, and experimental schools;
4. For the purchase money or rent of any real or personal property purchased or hired by the board;
5. For the insurance of all school property;
- [6 is omitted—misnumbered.]
7. For the discharge of all legal encumbrances now or hereafter existing on any school property;
8. For lighting school-rooms, and the office and rooms of the superintendent and the board of education;
9. For supplying the schools with fuel, water, apparatus, blanks, blank-books, and necessary school appliances, together with books for indigent children;
10. For supplying books, printing, and stationery, for the use of the superintendent and board of education, and for the incidental expenses of the board and department;
11. In grading, fencing, and improving school lots.

§ 265. All claims payable out of the school fund (excepting coupons for interest on school bonds), shall be filed with the secretary of the board, and after they shall have been approved by a majority of all the members elect of the board, upon a call of "yeas" and "nays" (which shall be recorded), they shall be signed by the president of the board and the superintendent of the public schools, and be sent to the city and county auditor. Every demand shall have indorsed upon it a certificate of its approval by the board, showing the date thereof, and the law authorizing it, by title, date, and section. All demands for teachers' salaries shall be payable monthly.

§ 266. Demands on the school fund may be audited and approved in the usual manner, although there shall not, at the time, be money in the treasury for the payment of the same; provided, that no demand on said fund shall be paid out of or become a charge against the school fund of any subsequent fiscal year; and further provided, that the entire expenditures of the said school department, for all purposes, shall not, in any fiscal year, exceed the revenues thereof for the same year.

§ 267. The city, or city and county, auditor shall state, by indorsement upon any claim or demand audited on the school fund, the particular money or fund out of which the same is payable, and that it is payable from no other source.

§ 268. Audited bills for the current fiscal year for wages or salaries of the teachers in the public schools shall be receivable for school taxes due upon real estate. All demands shall be audited and paid in the usual manner.

§ 269. All lawful demands authorized by this chapter for school purposes shall be audited and approved in the usual manner, and the auditor and treasurer of such city, or city and county, are respectively authorized to audit and pay the same, when so ordered paid and approved by the said board; provided, that the said board shall not have the power to contract any debt or liability, in any form whatsoever, against such city, or city and county, in contravention of this chapter; and provided further, that the allowance or approval by the board of demands not authorized by this chapter shall be no warrant or authority to the auditor or treasurer to audit or pay the same.

§ 270. It shall be the duty of the board of education of such city, or city and county, on or before the second Monday of September of each year, to report to the municipal council an estimate of the amount of money which will be required during the year for the purpose of meeting the current annual expenses of public instruction in such city, or city and county, specifying the amount required for supplies furnished pupils, for purchasing and procuring sites, for leasing rooms or erecting buildings, and for furnishing, fitting up, altering, enlarging, and repairing buildings; for the support of schools organized since the last annual apportionment; for salary of teachers, janitors, clerks, and other employees, and other expenditures authorized by law; but the aggregate amount so reported shall not exceed the sum of thirty-five dollars for each pupil who shall have actually attended and been taught in the preceding year in the schools entitled to participate in the apportionments. The number of pupils who shall be considered as having attended the schools during any one year shall be ascertained by adding together the number of days' attendance of all the pupils in the common schools during the year, and dividing the same by the number of school days in the year. Said municipal council is authorized and empowered to levy and cause to be collected, at the time and in the manner of levying state and other city, or city and county, taxes, the amount of tax, not to exceed thirty-five dollars per pupil, determined and reported by the board of education. The amount so levied and collected shall not include the amount received annually from poll-taxes.

§ 271. No school shall receive any portion of the school moneys in which the religious doctrines or tenets of any particular Christian or other religious sect are taught, inculcated, or practised, or in which any book or books containing compositions favorable or prejudicial to the particular doctrines or tenets of any particular Christian or other religious sect is used; nor shall any such books or teachings be permitted in the common schools.

§ 272. No member of the board of education shall ever become the disbursing agent of such board, or handle or pay out any of its moneys under or upon any pretense whatever. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor, and shall subject the offender, besides the punishment, to removal from office. Any member or officer of the board of education who shall, while in office, accept any donation or gratuity in money, or of any valuable thing, either directly or indirectly, from any teacher, or candidate, or applicant for a position as teacher, upon any pretense whatever, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor in office and shall be ousted by the board, or by any court of competent jurisdiction, from his seat, on proof thereof. Any member or officer of the board of education who shall accept any money, or valuable thing, or the promise thereof, with an agreement or understanding, express or implied, that any person shall, in consideration thereof, get the vote or influence of such member or officer for a situation as a teacher or employee of any kind in the school department, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction, shall be punished accordingly.

ARTICLE VII.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§ 286. All the existing provisions of law defining the duties of county officers, excepting those relating to supervisors and boards of supervisors, so far as the same are not inconsistent with, repealed, or altered by the provisions of this chapter, shall be considered as applicable to officers of any consolidated cities and counties, acting or elected under this chapter. Provisions shall be made from the revenues of any city, or city and county, heretofore existing and reorganized under this act, for the payment of the legal indebtedness of the municipal incorporation to which such reorganized city, or city and county, shall succeed, or of which it is a reorganization, as well as for that of such city, or city and county, after its organization, and all funding acts and other laws providing for the payments of principal and interest on any funded debt of such former corporation shall remain in force. The taxes which may be levied and collected in such city, or city and county, shall be uniform throughout the same.

§ 287. The provisions of this chapter concerning the following-named officers, to wit: Sheriff, county clerk, recorder, coroner, and public administrator, shall apply only to consolidated cities and counties. The provisions of this chapter relating to the district attorney shall, except in consolidated cities and counties, be deemed to apply to the city attorney; and no sheriff, county clerk, recorder, district attorney, coroner, or public administrator shall be elected in any municipal corporation under the provisions of this chapter, except in consolidated cities and counties.

§ 288. The municipal council of any such consolidated city and county shall perform such duties in and about the levy and equalization of state and county taxes, and all other matters and things as are or may be prescribed by law for boards of supervisors of counties in like cases, and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter.

CHAPTER III.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS OF THE SECOND CLASS.

(A charter for cities having a population of more than thirty thousand and not exceeding one hundred thousand.)

ARTICLE I.—GENERAL POWERS.

§ 300. Every municipal corporation of the second class shall be entitled the city of — (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue, be sued, in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever, shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the city authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property, and control, and dispose of the same for the common benefit; provided, that it shall purchase without the city no property except such as shall be deemed necessary for establishing hospitals, prisons, cemeteries, and industrial schools.

ARTICLE II.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO OFFICERS.

§ 301. The municipal election shall be held on the second Monday of March of each even-numbered year, and such election shall be subject to all the provisions of the law regulating elections for state officers, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. At such election there shall be elected for the government of the city the following officers: Seven councilmen, who shall constitute a board to be known as the city council; a mayor; a treasurer, who shall be ex officio clerk of the city council; a city attorney; a school superintendent, and a street superintendent, who shall respectively hold office for the term of two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. One councilman shall be elected from each ward, by vote of the city at large, and shall hold office for the term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

§ 302. The clerk and treasurer, superintendent of public schools, street superintendent, and all other officers when required by the city council by ordinance, shall each, before entering upon his official duties, and within ten days after receipt of his certificate of election or appointment, execute a bond, in such sum as the council may direct, payable to the city; which bond shall be subject to the law concerning the official bonds of officers, and to approval by the mayor. And the council may at any time require an additional amount, or new sureties, upon any bond which it may deem insufficient. If such additional security be not given, the council, upon notification thereof by the mayor, may, by vote of two thirds of the members, declare the office vacant.

§ 303. All fees, percentages, and all other moneys received or collected by any officer of the city, shall be paid by such officer, at the end of each month, into the city treasury, for the use of the city; and no payment shall be made to any officer for salary until he shall have taken, and filed with the clerk, an affidavit that he has paid into the city treasury, all fees, percentages, and all other moneys by him theretofore received or collected.

§ 304. No member of the city council, or of the board of education, nor any officer of the city, shall be surety upon the official bond of any corporate officer, nor shall he be, directly or indirectly, interested with or be surety for any person who may be interested in any franchise, contract, appropriation, work, or business, or in the sale of anything the price of or consideration for which is paid or payable by the city, or by assessments levied under an ordinance of the council; nor shall any contract be awarded or franchise granted to any person who may be surety on the official bond of any officer of the city.

§ 305. If any officer of such city, or member of the city council, or board of education, shall remove from the city, or absent himself therefrom for more than thirty days, or shall fail to qualify by taking the oath of office as prescribed by law, or to file his official bond, whenever such bond is required, within ten days from the time his election is duly ascertained and declared, his office shall be hereby absolutely vacated, and the city council shall thereupon fill the vacancy upon nomination by the mayor.

§ 306. Every officer provided for in this chapter shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and file with the treasurer the constitutional oath of office; provided, that the oath of office of the treasurer shall be filed with the mayor.

§ 307. The salaries of the officers of such city shall be as follows: Mayor, one thousand dollars per annum; clerk and treasurer, two thousand dollars per annum; assistant to the clerk and treasurer, one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; clerk of the police court, one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; clerk to the police court, nine hundred dollars per annum; city attorney, two thousand dollars per annum; street superintendent, one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; captain of police, one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum; police detective, one thousand five hundred dollars per annum; school superintendent, two thousand dollars per annum; assistant school superintendent, one thousand two hundred dollars per annum; policemen, nine hundred dollars per annum each. The mayor may appoint a clerk, who shall receive a salary of nine hundred dollars per annum. The salaries of all officers shall be paid in monthly instalments, at the end of each and every month of service.

ARTICLE III.—LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 319. The city council shall meet on the first Monday after their election, and at such other times as they may by ordinance appoint. A majority of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. They shall determine the rules of their proceedings, and judge of the qualification and election of all officers; and shall provide, by ordinance, the method of calling special meetings of the council. Their sittings shall be public. A journal of their proceedings shall be kept by the clerk, under their direction; and the ayes and noes shall be taken and entered on the journal at the request of any member. They shall prescribe, by ordinance, the duties of all officers whose duties are not defined in this act. They shall have the power to raise, by tax, not exceeding one per centum for all purposes (except for the redemption of bonds) on the assessed value of the real and personal property within the limits of such city, moneys for the establishment and support of free common schools, and to provide suitable grounds and buildings therefor, and defraying the ordinary expenses of the city, as well as for paving, planking, or otherwise improving the streets of the city. They shall also have power to pass all proper and necessary ordinances for the regulation and sale of city property, and to give deeds therefor. They shall have power to open, alter, establish, grade, or otherwise improve and regulate, streets, alleys, and lanes, and the sidewalks upon the same; to construct and keep in repair bridges, so as not to interfere with navigation, fences, public places, wharves, docks, ferries, piers, slips, sewers, and wells, and to make assessments therefor; to regulate and collect tolls, wharfage, dockage, and cranage, upon all water craft, and all goods landed; to make regulations for securing the health, cleanliness, ornament, peace, and good order of the city; for preventing and extinguishing fires, and appointing and regulating firemen, policemen, and such other officers as may be necessary to appoint; for the care and regulation of prisons and markets; for licensing, taxing, and regulating all such vehicles, business, and employments as the public good may require, and as may not be prohibited by law; to levy a tax license upon all dogs, or otherwise prevent the same from running at large in the streets and public grounds of the city; to regulate and suppress all occupations, houses, places, amusements, and exhibitions which are against good morals, or contrary to the public order and decency; for the regulation and location of slaughter-houses, markets, stables, and gas-works, and houses for the storage of gunpowder and other combustible materials, and limit the quantity of combustible or explosive materials to be stored in any one place; for prohibiting or suppressing the erection of slaughter-houses, or the slaughtering of animals within the limits of the city, and for prohibiting or suppressing the erection or carrying on of any soap or glue factory, tan-yard, powder-magazine, or other nuisance within the limits of the city; and to declare what shall constitute a nuisance; and to make and enforce within its limits all such local, police, sanitary, and other regulations as are not in conflict with general laws; and provide suitable buildings for the management, good government, and general welfare of the city. They shall also have power to pass such ordinance or ordinances as may be necessary to prevent animals from running at large within the limits of the city; to establish a pound, and appoint a poundkeeper, and prescribe his duties, and to provide for the public sale, by the poundkeeper, of such animals as may be impounded, in the same way and upon like notice that personal property is sold by execution under the laws of this state; provided, that the owner or owners of such property so impounded may reclaim the same at any time before sale, upon payment of costs and charges of taking up and impounding; and, within thirty days after the sale, upon proof of ownership of the property sold, duly made before the mayor, and upon payment of the costs and expenses of impounding and selling, and upon the payment of the sum of one dollar to the mayor, as a fee for the investigation of the question of ownership, and for his certificate to that effect, such owner or owners may receive the purchase money arising from such sale or sales. Penalties for the violation of any and all ordinances shall be by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, and in case the fine be not paid, then the person or persons may be imprisoned at the rate of one day for every two dollars of the fine imposed, or in lieu of the imprisonment, or any part of it, the person or persons so fined shall labor, under the direction of the city authorities, either upon the streets, public grounds, or buildings, or in such other places as may be deemed advisable for the benefit or revenue of said city. The city council, upon the nomination of the mayor, shall have power to appoint suitable persons to fill vacancies in any elective office, except that of mayor, until the next regular municipal election, when, if the term be unexpired, an election shall be held to fill such vacancy for the unexpired term of said officers. The members of the city council shall receive no salary for their services. They shall have power to provide for all city elections, to designate the place or places of holding the same, giving at least ten days' notice thereof; to appoint inspectors and judges of election, examine the returns, and declare the result, and to determine contested elections. The president pro tempore of the board shall discharge the duties of mayor whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of mayor, or when the mayor shall be absent from the city for a period exceeding five days, or be unable, from sickness, to attend to the duties of his office. In the absence of the clerk, the city council shall appoint one of their members to act as clerk pro tempore; they shall also have power to set aside any amount of money belonging to the city which may at any time be in the hands of the treasurer, after deducting the current expenses of the city, and the interest due upon the funded debts of the city, as a sinking fund whereby the bonds issued by the city may be redeemed, or they may, at any time before said bonds shall become due, with any surplus money which may belong to the city, after paying said expenses and interest, redeem or purchase for the city, and in its name, in the manner most advantageous to the city, any outstanding bonds, which bonds or claims, when so purchased, shall be immediately canceled; provided, this right shall not affect the rights of the holders of said bonds, or in any way prevent them from holding the same until said bonds become due and payable; they shall also have the power to determine the width of sidewalks, and the material and manner of their construction, as well as the grade of the same; they shall also have the power to establish fire districts, and within said districts to prevent the erection of wooden buildings, or any buildings composed of combustible materials, and also prevent the further repairing of wooden buildings within the fire limits established.

§ 320. Said council shall also have power:

1. To regulate the construction of sinks, gutters, wells, cesspools and privy vaults, and to compel the cleansing or emptying of the same, and the time and manner in which the work shall be done.

2. To regulate the anchorage of vessels within the limits of the city, and to prevent obstructions to the free navigation of all navigable waters within the same.

3. To prevent persons from throwing into any stream, creek, bay, or other body of water within the limits of the city, from vessels, wharves, or other places any dirt, ballast, ashes, garbage, dead animals, or other materials that may obstruct the same or pollute the water thereof.

4. To open streets to the channel of any navigable stream or creek within the limits of the city, and to deep water to [in] any navigable bay or lake within the same, and to construct and maintain public wharves at the ends of such streets.

5. To regulate the location of steam-boilers, the putting up of signs and awnings, and the construction of entrances to basements or cellars from the sidewalks.

6. To establish hack stands, and to regulate the rates of charges of hacks and other licensed vehicles, and to require a schedule of such charges, printed in conspicuous type and satisfactory to the council, to be posted in a conspicuous place in each hack or other licensed vehicle; provided, however, that the standing of hacks shall not be permitted on any street upon which railroads operated by steam shall be used.

7. To compel the attendance of absent members of said council at any of the meetings thereof, and to cause the arrest of any person for disorderly conduct at their meetings.

8. To regulate the speed of railway engines in the city, and to require railroad companies to station flagmen at street crossings; to grant franchises permitting steam railroads upon any of the streets of the city; provided, that the same shall only be granted after two weeks' notice, previously published in some newspaper published in the city, and by ordinance passed by the vote of two thirds of the members elected to said council, approved by the mayor, and upon the previous petition, in writing, of the owners of two thirds of the front feet of the lands upon the portion of the street to be so used.

9. To regulate the means of entrance to and exit from theaters, lecture-rooms, public halls, and churches, and to prohibit the placing of chairs, stools, benches, or other obstructions in the aisles of such buildings.

10. To require railroad companies to keep the street in repair between the tracks and along and within the distance of two feet upon each side of the track occupied by the company.

§ 321. They shall also have the exclusive right, in the manner prescribed by ordinance, of issuing and granting licenses, and of collecting tax licenses for the benefit of the city, upon the following business and property, to wit: Upon each and every person within the limits of the city who shall vend any goods, wares or merchandise, wines, distilled or fermented liquors, drugs, medicines, jewelry, or wares of precious metals; upon persons who keep horses or carriages for rent or hire; upon persons keeping billiard tables for hire, bowling alleys, and shooting galleries; also upon all taverns, innkeepers, and upon all persons who may sell or dispose of any malt, spirituous or fermented liquors or wines in less quantities than one quart; and the said licenses shall be issued quarterly or yearly. Also upon any person within the limits of the city, who shall keep a stallion, jack, bull, or ram, and who shall permit the same to be used for the purpose of propagation for hire or profit, which license shall be a yearly license; all of which licenses when granted by such city and duly obtained by the person or persons desiring the same, shall entitle them to carry on such business, trade, or profession in such city.

§ 322. All sales or leases of property belonging to the city shall be by public auction to the highest bidder, and upon such terms and conditions as the council may by ordinance direct; and all contracts for supplies, of any kind, for more than five hundred dollars, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after ten days' notice given by posting the same in three of the most public places in the city, or by publishing the same in any newspaper printed and published in such city.

§ 323. Licenses shall be discriminating and proportionate to the amount of business; and it shall be the duty of the council, by ordinance, to classify all kinds of business licensed in accordance herewith.

§ 324. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "The mayor and council of the city of ——— do ordain as follows." Every ordinance passed by the city council shall be presented to the mayor for his approval; if he approve it, he shall sign it; if not, he shall return it at the first meeting of the council held after five days thereafter, or at its next meeting; when the city council shall reconsider such ordinance, and if the same be approved by a vote of two thirds of all the members elected, and not otherwise, the same shall take effect and stand as an ordinance of such city. All ordinances shall be published for one week in a newspaper printed and published in such city, as often during such period as such newspaper shall be published.

§ 325. The council shall, upon the first Monday of October in each year, fix the rate of taxation to be levied upon all property, both real and personal, in said municipality necessary to raise sufficient revenue to carry on the various departments of the city government for the then ensuing year, not to exceed one dollar for each one hundred dollars upon the assessment roll, and to pay the bonded and other indebtedness of said city. The said council must, upon fixing said amount, transmit a statement thereof to the county auditor. The action of the city council in fixing the rate of taxation for city purposes is a valid levy of the rate so fixed upon all property, both real and personal, in the said city, and borne upon the assessment roll of said county, and has the effect provided in sections three thousand seven hundred and sixteen, three thousand seven hundred and seventeen, and three thousand seven hundred and eighteen of the Political Code, in regard to state and county taxes. The county auditor shall thereupon compute and enter, in a separate money column in the assessment book, the respective sums, in dollars and cents, rejecting the fractions of a cent, to be paid as a tax on the property therein enumerated, for the purposes of such city government, and foot up the column, showing the total amount of such taxes. The taxes so levied and computed shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes; and when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of said city; provided, that any property sold for such taxes shall be subject to redemption within the time and in the manner provided, or that may hereafter be provided by law, for the redemption of property sold for state or county taxes. All deeds made upon any sale of property for taxes or special assessments, under the provisions of this chapter, shall have the same force and effect in evidence as is or may hereafter be provided by law for deeds for property sold for non-payment of state or county taxes. The county treasurer must, at any time upon the demand of the city treasurer and mayor, settle with the city treasurer, and pay over to him all moneys in the county treasury belonging to such city, taking the receipt of the mayor and city treasurer therefor. The county treasurer shall receive, as compensation for all services rendered under this section as tax collector and treasurer, one third of one per centum of all moneys collected and paid over to the city treasurer, but not to exceed in all one thousand dollars per annum. The county treasurer and tax collector shall be liable on his official bond for all moneys received by him under the provisions of this section.

§ 326. In all matters before the city council concerning the granting of franchises, letting of contracts, auditing of bills, ordering of work to be done or supplies to be furnished, or whatever may involve the payment of money, or incurring of debt by the city, the vote shall be by yeas and nays, and be recorded in the journal.

§ 327. No member of the city' council shall vote in the council upon any motion, resolution, or ordinance, in favor of any franchise, contract, bill, award, or appropriation, in which he may have any pecuniary interest, present or prospective.

§ 328. The city council shall not create, allow or permit to accrue any debt or liability in excess of the available money in the treasury that may be legally apportioned and appropriated for such purposes; nor shall any warrant be drawn or evidence of indebtedness be issued, unless there be at the time sufficient money in the treasury legally applicable to the payment of the same, except as hereinafter provided.

§ 329. If, at any time, the city council shall deem it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purpose for which such indebtedness is to be incurred, they shall give notice of a special election by the qualified electors of the city, to be held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred. Such notice shall specify the amount of indebtedness proposed to be incurred, the purpose or purposes of the same, and the amount of money necessary to be raised annually by taxation for an interest and sinking fund, as hereinafter provided. Such notice shall be published for at least three weeks in some newspaper published in such city, as often during said period as said newspaper shall be published; and no other question or matter shall be submitted to the electors at such election. If, upon a canvass of the votes cast at such election, it appear that not less than two thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the city council to pass an ordinance providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness, and of paying the same; and an annual tax shall be levied and collected upon all the real and personal property subject to taxation within such city, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due: and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof, within a period of not more than twenty years from the time of contracting the same. It shall be the duty of the city council, in each year thereafter, at the time at which other taxes are levied, to levy a tax sufficient for such purpose, in addition to the taxes by this chapter authorized to be levied. Such tax, when collected, shall be exclusively appropriated to the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness, and the city treasurer shall be liable upon his official bond for any part of said fund otherwise used or appropriated.

§ 330. It shall be the duty of the city council before levying the annual city tax, to establish, by ordinance, separate funds, representing the several funded obligations of the city, if any, and the several departments requiring municipal expenditures, including a general fund, and the percentage of said levy shall be named for each fund, and the whole amount of taxes and revenues of the city apportioned accordingly, and no transfer shall be made except of balances in excess, or from the general fund to meet deficiencies, or to provide for the redemption of city bonds.

§ 331. Any city having a bonded indebtedness, contracted under laws heretofore passed, shall levy such taxes for the payment of such indebtedness, and the interest thereon, as are provided for in such laws, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied. All moneys' received from licenses, and from fines, penalties, and for forfeitures, shall be paid into the general fund.

§ 332. The city council shall have power, upon the payment of just compensation, to lay out and open new streets, lanes, alleys, courts, and places within the corporate limits of the city, but shall have no power to subject the city to any expense therefor, except for the necessary expense of surveying and mapping out the same, and when said streets are so laid out and opened, the provisions of this chapter shall be applicable thereto.

§ 333. The city council of said city shall have power to issue and collect an annual tax license on draymen, cabmen, omnibus proprietors, expressmen, and other common carriers doing business in the city, the proceeds of said licenses to be devoted to a street department fund for keeping in repair the streets in the city. Said annual license not be more than twelve dollars nor be less than eight dollars for such persons so licensed.

§ 334. The city council is empowered to open, extend, and widen streets, and to modify the boundaries thereof within its corporate limits, and to determine the property benefited thereby, and to assess the expenses of such improvement upon the property benefited, as hereinafter provided.

§ 335. All proceedings under said power shall be commenced by petition of five or more residents and freeholders within the city, signed by the petitioners, addressed to the city council, and filed with the clerk of said council. Such petition shall contain:

1. The names of the petitioners, and a statement that each of the petitioners is a resident and freeholder within the city;
2. A statement that, in the opinion of the petitioners, the public interests require that the improvement asked for (describing it generally) should be made;
3. A request that the council proceed to order the improvement made.

§ 336. At the regular meeting next after the meeting at which the petition is presented to the council, or at any subsequent meeting to which the proceedings may be regularly adjourned, the said council may, by resolution duly passed, determine the lands to be benefited by the improvement asked for in the petition, and to be assessed for the expenses thereof. Said resolution shall contain a description of each lot, piece, or parcel of land necessary to be taken and condemned for such improvement, and shall also specify the exterior boundaries of the district of land benefited thereby, and to be assessed therefor, and shall direct the city engineer to make a survey and map of the lands described in the resolution, a copy of which resolution shall be forthwith transmitted by the clerk of said council to the said city engineer.

§ 337. It shall be the duty of the city engineer, immediately upon receiving a copy of the resolution mentioned in section four, to survey the lands described in said resolution and make a map thereof, and to return said map to said council within twenty (20) days from the receipt by him of said copy of the resolution; said map shall show each piece, tract, or parcel of land necessary to be taken and condemned for said improvement, and also the exterior boundaries of the district to be benefited by such improvement and to be assessed on account of the cost and expenses thereof, as declared in the resolution, and the area thereof, exclusive of public streets and alleys. Said city engineer shall have the right to enter upon the lands and make examinations and surveys thereof, and such entry shall constitute no cause of action in favor of the owners of said lands, except for injuries resulting from negligence, wantonness, or malice.

§ 338. The council, at its regular meeting next after the return of the map by the city engineer, shall pass a preliminary resolution, declaring the intention of the corporation to make the improvement asked for in the petition. Said resolution shall contain a description of each piece, lot, or tract of land necessary and sought to be taken and condemned for the improvement, and also the exterior boundaries of the district of lands to be benefited thereby, and assessed for the expenses thereof; the resolution shall also specify a time, not more than fifteen (15) days from the passage thereof, for the hearing by said council of objections to the proposed improvement, and said resolution shall be published in at least one daily paper printed and circulated in the city, daily (Sundays and non-judicial days excepted), for at least ten (10) days prior to the time fixed for said hearing.

§ 339. If a majority of the owners of the lands in area to be assessed for the expenses of said improvement shall, on or before the day fixed by said resolution for the hearing of objections, appear and protest against said improvement, the proceedings shall be discontinued; provided, however, that such protest must be in writing, and shall contain a description of the land claimed by each protestant; and provided further, that the council may, by an unanimous vote of all its members, approved by the mayor, proceed to cause such improvement to be made, notwithstanding such protest.

§ 340. If the owners of a majority in area of the property to be assessed for the expenses of said improvement fail to appear and protest as provided in section seven, or if the council, by an unanimous vote, approved by the mayor, order said improvement to be made, said council must immediately pass a final resolution, declaring such determination. Such resolution shall refer to the said preliminary resolution, by its number, for a description of the lands necessary and sought to be taken and condemned for said improvement, and the district to be assessed for the expenses thereof.

§ 341. Immediately after the passage of such final resolution, the council shall apply to the superior court of the county in which such city is situated, either in term time or vacation, by petition, for the appointing of three commissioners to assess the compensation which shall be paid to the owners thereof for the lands sought to be taken for such improvement, and to assess upon the property within the district to be benefited thereby the costs of such improvement. Said petition shall recite all the proceedings had in the premises, and shall specify the exterior boundaries of the lands sought to be taken, and also the exterior boundaries of the district of lands to be benefited thereby, and assessed for the expenses thereof. A copy of the map made by the city engineer shall be annexed to said petition, and may be referred to in the petition for a description of the lands aforesaid.

§ 342. Upon filing such petition, such court shall pass and take such jurisdiction of such proceeding, and such court, or a judge thereof, shall, by order, fix a day for the hearing of such petition, which shall be not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of such order. Such order shall further direct notice of the time and place of such hearing to be given by the clerk by publication in two daily newspapers published in such city, and designated in such order, for at least a period of ten days in succession.

§ 343. Such notice shall specify the exterior boundaries of the lands sought to be taken for such improvement, and of the lands declared to be profited thereby and to be assessed for the expenses thereof, and shall further state that the damages to which the owner or owners of the land sought to be taken may be entitled for the same will be inquired into and determined, and that such damages, together with the cost of the proceedings for the acquiring title to such lands, and making apportionment thereof, will be apportioned and assessed upon the lands to be benefited thereby, by commissioners to be appointed by such court, on the day fixed by such order for the hearing. Such notice shall be published daily for at least ten days (Sundays and non-judicial days excepted) before such hearing.

§ 344. At the time fixed for the hearing, or at such other time as the hearing may be adjourned to, the court shall proceed to hear any person interested touching the regularity of the proceedings, and if satisfied that the proceedings have been regular, shall appoint three competent and disinterested commissioners. The court may at any time, remove any or all such commissioners for cause, upon reasonable notice and hearing, and may fill the vacancies occurring among them from any cause. Any persons interested may object to the appointment of any person as commissioner, on one or more of the grounds specified in section six hundred and forty-one of the Code of Civil Procedure, as grounds for the objection to the appointment of persons as referees.

§ 345. Commissioners shall be sworn to faithfully perform their duties according to the provisions of this chapter. They shall then proceed to view the lands mentioned and described in such resolution and petition, and may examine witnesses on oath, to be administered by any one of them, and shall keep minutes of the testimony so taken; they shall ascertain and appraise the value of the property sought to be taken for the improvements, and of all improvements thereon partaking of the realty, and of each and every estate therein; if it consist of different parcels, the value of each parcel and each estate, or interest therein, shall be separately appraised; if this property sought to be taken constitutes only a part of a larger parcel, the damages which will accrue to the portion not sought to be condemned or taken, by reason of the severance from the portion sought to be taken, and the construction of the improvement in the manner proposed shall be appraised by said commissioners; they shall also ascertain and determine, as near as may be, the entire costs of the proceedings for the opening, extension, or improvement aforesaid, including the costs of court and of commissioners; they shall then proceed to apportion and assess the whole amount of such costs and expenses, value of property sought to be taken, and damages to property not taken, upon the property within the district declared by the resolution of the council to be benefited by said improvement, and shall assess each tract, lot, piece, or parcel of land within said district in proportion to the benefits received by it from said improvement.

§ 346. The said commissioners, within a time to be fixed by the court, shall make a report of their proceedings, under their hands, or the hands of a majority of them, to the said court, in which report they shall describe, with common certainty, the several parcels of land sought to be taken for such improvement, and the names of the owners thereof, respectively, so far as they can be ascertained, designating unknown owners, if any such there be, and the sum of money which should be paid to each of said owners, as his or her compensation for the land necessary and sought to be taken and condemned for such improvement, or of his or her estate, therein; and in case only a part of a larger parcel has been taken for such improvement, and the remaining portion is damaged or benefited thereby, they shall describe such remaining portion, and specify the sum to be paid or assessed to the owner thereof, or such damages or benefits as the case may be; they shall also describe, with common certainty, the several parcels of land within the district deemed to be benefited by said improvement, and the names of the owners thereof, so far as they can be ascertained, designating unknown owners, if such there be, and the sum of money which is assessed upon each particular parcel, and which should be paid by the owner thereof.

§ 347. Upon the filing of such report, the said court shall, by order, fix a day for hearing objections to the confirmation thereof, and shall direct notice of the time and place of said hearing to be given by the clerk, by publication in a daily newspaper published in said city, for at least ten days (Sundays and non-judicial days excepted), prior to said day of hearing.

§ 348. Upon the day fixed for the hearing, the court shall proceed to hear any person interested upon any question touching the regularity of the proceedings, the sufficiency of the compensation awarded, or the justice or equality of the assessment, and may confirm said report or set the same aside, or remand the same for correction or alteration in any particular. If the report be set aside, the matter may in like manner be referred to the same or new commissioners appointed by the court, who shall proceed as hereinbefore provided; if the report be remanded, it shall be corrected, or altered in any particular required by the court.

§ 349. The commissioners shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for their services, to be certified to by the court, and taxed as part of the expenses of the proceeding.

§ 350. Upon confirmation of the report of the commissioners, judgment shall be rendered by the court thereon, which judgment must describe each parcel of land taken for such improvement, and the amount to which the owner is entitled as compensation or damages for the taking thereof, and the name of such owner or owners, if known; and in case only a portion of a larger parcel is taken, such judgment must describe such remaining portion, and the amount, if anything, to which the owner thereof is entitled as damages; and must also describe each parcel of land assessed for the expenses of such improvement, and the amount so assessed upon each parcel respectively. Such judgment shall direct a sale of each parcel so assessed, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount of such assessment and expenses of sale, and the application of the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the expenses of such sale, and the amount of compensation and damages awarded by such judgment. Such judgment shall be a lien upon the property against which such assessment is made, and may be enforced by a sale of the property assessed, as hereinafter provided.

§ 351. Within thirty days after the entry of such judgment, the persons liable must pay to the clerk of the court, for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto, the several amounts specified in such judgment, in default of which the respective parcels of land upon which such assessments have not been paid shall be sold by the sheriff of such county under a certified copy of such judgment, and in the manner provided by law for the sale of property upon decree of foreclosure of mortgage.

§ 352. The moneys realized from such sale shall be paid by the officer making the same, to the clerk of the court, for the benefit of the parties entitled thereto.

§ 353. Whenever the aggregate amount of damages or compensation awarded by such judgment shall have been paid to the clerk, either by voluntary payment or as moneys realized from sales under such judgment, the court must make and enter a final order or decree of condemnation of the lands taken for such improvement, which order or decree shall describe the property condemned and the purpose of such condemnation.

§ 354. A copy of such order or decree must be filed in the office of the recorder of such county, and thereupon, the property described therein shall vest in such city for the uses and purposes therein specified; and such city shall be entitled to and may take immediate possession thereof.

§ 355. Whenever the aggregate amount of damages or compensation awarded by such judgment shall have come to the hands of the clerk, he shall, upon the demand of any person entitled thereto, pay to said party the amount awarded to him or her by said judgment.

§ 356. If there is more than one claimant to any parcel of land taken for such improvement, or if the owner of any parcel is unknown, the amount awarded as damages or compensation for the taking thereof shall remain in court to be awarded to the true owner by due process of law.

§ 357. Any party feeling aggrieved by any proceedings, orders, or judgments of such court herein provided for may appeal to the supreme court, as in other cases.

§ 358. The city council shall not have power to appoint a greater number of policemen than shall be equal to one for every one thousand of the population of such city. No policeman or member of the fire department shall be removed from office except upon the order and direction of the mayor, and after charges in writing have been made against him, and evidence upon the same shall have been heard in public in the mode and manner to be prescribed by ordinance.

§ 359. All gas and water pipes laid in any paved, macadamized, or graded street must be of sufficient capacity to afford a free supply of gas or water for the estimated necessities of such street, and the district to be supplied by such pipes, for a period of not less than five years from the time of laying the same; which estimate of necessity and capacity shall be made by the city engineer, and approved by the council. It shall be the duty of the council, by ordinance, to prescribe regulations for the laying of gas and water pipes in the public streets.

ARTICLE IV.—EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 370. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the city council, but the council shall elect a president pro tempore to preside during his absence. He shall communicate to the council semiannually, or oftener if necessary a general statement of the situation and condition of the city, together with such recommendations relative thereto as he may deem expedient. He shall be vigilant and active in causing the ordinances of the city to be executed and enforced. He shall be the head of police, and shall exercise a supervision and control over the conduct of all subordinate officers, and receive and examine into all complaints preferred against any of them for violation or neglect of duty, and certify the same to the council. He shall sign all ordinances and contracts made on behalf of the city, and countersign all licenses and warrants on the treasury. He shall keep accounts current with every officer charged with the receipt or disbursement of money, and perform all the duties of an auditor. He shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law or ordinance.

§ 371. Every demand upon the treasury, except for the salary of the mayor, must, before it can be paid, be presented to the mayor, to be allowed, who shall satisfy himself whether the money is legally due and remains unpaid, and whether the payment thereof from the treasury of the city is authorized by law, and out of what fund. If he allow it, he shall indorse upon it the word "Allowed," with the name of the fund out of which it is payable, with the date of such allowance, and sign his name thereto; but the allowance or approval of the mayor, or of the city council, or of any other board or officer, of any demand which upon the face of it appears not to have been expressly made by law payable out of the treasury or fund to be charged therewith, shall afford no warrant to the treasurer or other disbursing officer for paying the same. The demand of the mayor for his salary shall be audited and allowed by the president pro tempore of the city council.

§ 372. The chief of police shall execute, within the city, and return all process issued and directed to him by the city justices, or either of them, arrest all persons guilty of a breach of the peace, or of a violation of any ordinance of the council, and take them before the proper magistrate within the city; and do and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by ordinance or may be required by the mayor.

§ 373. The records kept by the street superintendent of the city, and signed by him, shall have the same force and effect as other public records, and copies therefrom, duly certified, may be used in evidence with the same effect as the originals. The said records shall, during all office hours, be open to the inspection of any citizen wishing to examine them, free of charge.

§ 374. The street superintendent shall keep a public office in some convenient place to be designated by the city council, and such records as may be required by law. He shall superintend and direct the cleaning of all the sewers in the public streets, and the expense of the same shall be paid out of the street department fund, and perform all duties required by law or ordinance of such city.

§ 375. It shall be the duty of the street superintendent to see that the laws, orders, and regulations relating to the public streets and highways are fully carried into execution, and that the penalties therefor are regularly enforced. He shall keep himself informed of the condition of all public streets and highways, and also of all public buildings, parks, lots, and ground[s] of the city, as may be prescribed by the council; and should he fail to see the laws, orders, and regulations relative to the public streets and highways carried into execution, after notice from any citizen of a violation thereof, he and his sureties shall be liable upon his official bond to any person injured in person or property in consequence of such neglect.

§ 376. If, in consequence of any graded street or public highway, improved under the provisions of this chapter, being out of repair, and in a condition to endanger persons or animals passing therein, any person while carefully using such street or public highway, and exercising ordinary care to avoid such danger, suffer damage to his person, or if any animals or other property, being lawfully ridden, driven, or conveyed through such street or public highway, be injured, lost, or destroyed through any such defect therein, no recourse for damages thus suffered shall be had against the city; but if such defect in such street or public highway shall have existed for a period of twenty-four hours or more after notice to the street superintendent, then the street superintendent, and also all other officers through whose official negligence such defect shall have remained unrepaired, shall jointly and severally be liable to the party injured for the damages so sustained.

§ 377. The city council shall have power to appoint a city engineer, and by ordinance to prescribe his duties and fix his compensation, not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum. It shall be the duty of the city engineer to do the surveying and other work necessary to be done by law or any ordinance of said city, and to survey, measure, and estimate the work done and to be done under contracts for grading streets; and every certificate of work done by him, signed in his official capacity, shall be prima facie evidence in all the courts of this state of the truth of its contents; he shall also keep a record of all surveys made by him.

§ 378. The treasurer shall receive and pay out all moneys belonging to the city, and keep an account of all receipts and expenditures, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance; he shall make a monthly statement to the council of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding month, and in his capacity as city clerk he shall keep all the papers and documents belonging to the city, attend the meetings of the council, and keep a journal of their proceedings, and a record of all their ordinances, and shall do all other things required of him by ordinances.

§ 379. It shall be the duty of the several elected and appointed officers of said city, whenever required by the city council, to make reports to the said council, and in the manner required of them; and in their reports to embody all the matters and information required pertaining to the duties of their respective offices.

§ 380. The city council may provide by ordinance for the election or appointment of any other officer or officers necessary for the good government of the city, and the proper administration of the public interest, and shall prescribe their duties and terms of office, and fix their compensation.

ARTICLE V.—JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

§ 390. The judicial power of the city shall be vested in a police court, to be held therein by the city justices, or one of them, to be designated by the mayor, but either of said city justices may hold such court without such designation, and it is hereby made the duty of such city justices, in addition to the duties now required of them by law, to hold said police court.

§ 391. The police court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the following public offenses committed in the city:

1. Petit larceny;
2. Assault or battery, not charged to have been committed upon a public officer in the discharge of official duty, or with intent to kill;
3. Breaches of the peace, riots, affrays, committing wilful injury to property, and all misdemeanors punishable by fine or by imprisonment, or by both such fine and imprisonment;
4. Of proceedings respecting vagrants, lewd or disorderly persons.

§ 392. Said court shall also have exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings for violation of any ordinance of said city, both civil and criminal, and of an action for the collection of any license required by any ordinance of said city.

§ 393. Neither of said justices shall sit in cases in which he is a party, or in which he is interested, or where he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, and in case of the sickness or inability of the city justices, either of them may call in a justice of the peace residing in the county to act in his place and stead.

§ 394. Each of the city justices, while acting as judge of said court, shall also have power to hear cases for examination, and may commit and hold the offender to bail for trial in the proper court, and may try, condemn, or acquit, and carry his judgment into execution as the case may require, according to law, and punish persons guilty of contempt of court; and shall have power to issue warrants of arrest in case of a criminal prosecution for a violation of a city ordinance, as well as in case of the violation of the criminal law of the state; also all subpoenas, and all other processes necessary to the full and proper exercise of his powers and jurisdiction, and in such of the cases enumerated in this section in which trial by jury is not secured by the constitution of the state, he may proceed to judgment in the first instance without a jury, but on appeal the defendant shall be entitled to trial by jury in the superior court.

§ 395. The police court shall have a clerk, to be appointed by the city council, upon the nomination of the mayor, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the council. The clerk shall keep a record of the proceedings of and issue all process ordered by the city justices, or either of them, or by said police court, and receive and pay weekly into the city treasury all fines imposed by said court. He shall also each month render to the mayor (as auditor) an exact and detailed account, upon oath, of all fines imposed and collected, and all fines imposed and uncollected, since his last report. He shall prepare bonds, justify bail, when the amount has been fixed by either of the city justices or said court, in cases not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may administer oaths. The clerk shall remain at the court-room of said court during business hours, and during such reasonable times thereafter as may be necessary for discharging his duty. Before receiving his salary, each or any month, he shall make and file with the auditor an affidavit that he has deposited with the city treasurer all moneys that have come to his hands belonging to the city. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor. He shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two sureties to be approved by the mayor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

§ 396. All fines and other moneys collected on behalf of the city in the police court shall be paid into the city treasury on the first Tuesday of each month; and all bills for fees and costs due the officers of said court shall be reported to the city council each month.

§ 397. The city council shall furnish a suitable room for the holding of said court, and shall also furnish the necessary dockets and blanks. One docket shall be styled "The City Criminal Docket," in which all the criminal business shall be recorded, and each case shall be alphabetically indexed; another docket shall be styled "The City Civil Docket," and it shall contain each and every civil case in which the city is a party, or which is prosecuted or defended for her interest, and each case shall be properly indexed. A third docket shall contain all the other business appertaining to the office of said city justice, and in all cases the docket shall contain all such entries as are required by law to be made in justices' dockets; and in any case tried before the court, the docket must show what duties were performed by any officer of the court, and the amount of the fees due to the officer for such services, and what amount of money, if any, collected.

§ 399. Appeals may be taken from any judgment of said police court, to the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated, in the same manner in which appeals are taken from justices' courts in like cases.

§ 400. In all cases of imprisonment of persons convicted in said police court of any offense committed in the city, the persons so to be imprisoned, or by ordinance required to labor, shall be imprisoned in the city jail, or if required to labor, shall labor in the city.

§ 401. Said court shall have a seal, to be furnished by the city.

§ 402. The city justices shall, on the first Tuesday of each month, make to the city council a full and complete report of all the cases, civil and criminal, in which the city has an interest, or which are required to be entered in the city civil docket, or the city criminal docket; such report to be made upon blanks to be furnished by the city council, and in such form as they may require.

§ 403. Certified transcripts of the dockets, made by the clerk of said court, under the seal of said court, shall be evidence in any court of this state of the contents of said docket; and all warrants and other process issued out of said court, and all acts done by said court, and certified under its seal, shall have the same force and validity in any part of this state as though issued or done by any court of record of this state.

ARTICLE VI.—EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

§ 410. The government of the school department of the city shall be vested in a board of education, to consist of seven members, to be called school directors. One school director shall be elected from each ward at the regular municipal election, by the vote of the city at large, and shall hold office for the term of four years, and until his successor is elected and qualified; provided, that the first board of education elected under the provisions of this chapter shall, at their first meeting, so classify themselves by lot as that three of their number shall go out of office at the expiration of two years, and four at the expiration of four years.

§ 411. The board of education shall meet on the first Monday after their election, and elect one of their number president, and shall hold meetings at least once in each month thereafter at such times as shall be determined by a rule of said board. A majority of all the members elected shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time. The board may determine the rules of its proceedings. Its sessions shall be public, and its records shall be open to public inspection. The board shall also have power to fill all vacancies occurring in the board until the next regular municipal election.

§ 412. The board of education shall have sole power:

1. To establish and maintain public schools, and to establish school districts, and to fix and alter the boundaries thereof.

2. To employ and dismiss teachers, janitors, and school census marshals, and to fix, alter, allow and order paid their salaries or compensation, and to employ and pay such mechanics and laborers as may be necessary to carry into effect the powers and duties of the board, and to withhold, for good and sufficient cause, the whole or any part of the salary or wages of any person or persons employed as aforesaid.

3. To make, establish, and enforce all necessary and proper rules and regulations, not contrary to law, for the government and progress of public schools within the city, the teachers thereof, and the pupils therein, and for carrying into effect the laws relating to education; also to establish and regulate the grade of schools, and determine what text-books, courses of study, and mode of instruction shall be used in said schools.

4. To provide for the school department of the city fuel and lights, water, blanks, blank-books, printing and stationery, and to incur such other incidental expenses as may be deemed necessary by said board.

5. To build, alter, repair, rent, and provide school-houses, and furnish them with proper school furniture, apparatus, and appliances, and to insure any and all such school property.

6. To receive, purchase, lease, and hold in fee, in trust for the city, any and all real estate, and to hold in trust any personal property that may have been acquired, or may hereafter be acquired, for the use and benefit of the public schools of the city; provided, that no real estate shall be bought, sold, or exchanged, or expenditures incurred for the construction of new school-houses without the consent of four members of the board of education and four members of the city council; and provided further, that the proceeds of any such sale or exchange of real estate shall be exclusively applied to the purchase of other lots, or the erection of school-houses; and the city council of the city is hereby authorized and required to make over to said board of education, upon application in writing by said board, through its president and secretary, by good and sufficient deeds of conveyance, all property, both real and personal, now held by said city council in trust for the city for the use and benefit of the public schools; and the said board is hereby authorized to defray all expenses attending the same.

7. To grade, fence, and improve all school lots, and in front thereof to grade, sewer, plank, or pave and repair streets, and to construct and repair sidewalks.

8. To sue for any and all lots, land and property belonging to or claimed by the said school department, and to prosecute and defend all actions at law or in equity necessary to recover and maintain the full enjoyment and possession of said lots, lands, and property.

9. To determine annually the amount of money required for the support of the public schools, and for carrying into effect all the provisions of law in reference thereto; and in pursuance of this provision the board shall, on or before the first Monday in February of each year, submit in writing to the city council a careful estimate of the whole amount of money to be received from the state and county, and the amount required from the city for the above purposes, and the amount so found to be required from the city shall, by the city council, be added to the other amounts to be assessed and collected for city purposes; provided, that the amount to be thus assessed for school purposes shall not exceed thirty cents on each one hundred dollars valuation upon the assessment roll, but may be increased to forty cents by consent of two thirds of the city council, and that when collected it shall be immediately paid into the school fund, to be drawn out only upon the order of the board of education.

10. To establish regulations for the just and equal disbursement of all moneys belonging to the public school fund.

11. To examine and allow, in whole and in part, every demand payable out of the school fund, or to reject any such demands for good cause.

12. To discharge all legal encumbrances now existing, or which may hereafter exist, upon any school property.

13. To prohibit any child under six years of age from attending the public schools.

14. And generally to do and perform such other acts as may be necessary and proper to carry into force and effect the powers conferred on said board, and to increase the efficiency of the public schools in said city.

§ 413. The president of the board of education shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations concerning any demand upon the treasury payable out of the school fund, or other matters relating to his official duties.

§ 414. All contracts for building shall be given to the lowest bidder therefor offering adequate security, to be determined by the board, after due public notice published for not less than ten days in one daily paper of the city.

§ 415. No school director or superintendent shall be interested in any contract pertaining in any manner to the school department of said city. All contracts in violation of this section are declared void, and any director or superintendent violating or aiding in violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and shall be punished by fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars.

§ 416. No teacher shall be employed in any of the public schools without having a certificate issued under the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of granting the certificates required, the board of education shall appoint a city board of examination. The city board of examination shall consist of the school superintendent and four other persons, residents of such city, at least two of whom shall be experienced teachers. The members of the city board of examination shall receive for their services such compensation as may be fixed by the board of education. Such city board of examination shall have power:

1. To adopt rules and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of this state for its own government, and for the examination of teachers.

2. To examine applicants, and to prescribe a standard of proficiency which will entitle the person examined to a certificate.

3. To grant city certificates of three grades:

1. High school certificates, valid for six years, and authorizing the holder to teach any primary, grammar, or high school in such city;

2. City certificates, first grade, valid for four years, and authorizing the holder to teach any primary or grammar school in such city;

3. City certificates, second grade, valid for two years, and authorizing the holder to teach any primary school in such city;

4. Without examination, to grant city certificates and fix the grade thereof to the holders of state life diplomas, state educational diplomas, state normal school diplomas, state university diplomas (when recommended by the faculty of the university), state certificates, city certificates granted in other cities of this state, and life diplomas, and state normal school diplomas of other states;

5. To revoke or suspend for immoral or unprofessional conduct, profanity, intemperance, or evident unfitness for teaching, any certificate granted by them.

§ 417. The school superintendent shall act as secretary and bookkeeper of the board of education, and perform all clerical duties required by such board. In the absence of the superintendent, the board of education may appoint one of their own number to act as secretary. The school superintendent may appoint an assistant at a salary of one hundred dollars per month. The superintendent may, for a good and sufficient cause, provisionally suspend any teacher employed in the schools of such city until the next meeting of the board of education.

§ 418. The superintendent shall report to the board of education annually, and at such other times as they may require, all matters pertaining to the expenditures, income and condition and progress of the public schools of said city during the preceding year, with such recommendations as he may deem proper.

§ 419. It shall be the duty of the superintendent to visit and examine each school at least once a month, to observe, and cause to be observed, such general rules for the regulation and government and instruction of the schools, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, as may be established by the board of education; to attend the sessions of the board, and inform them at each session of the condition of the public schools, school-houses, school fund, and other matters connected therewith, and to recommend such measures as he may deem necessary for the advancement of education in the city. He shall acquaint himself with all the laws, rules, and regulations governing the public schools in said city, and the judicial decisions thereon, and give advice on subjects connected with the public schools, gratuitously, to officers, teachers, pupils, and their parents and guardians.

§ 420. In case of vacancy in the office of superintendent, the board of education shall have power to fill the vacancy until the next ensuing municipal election.

§ 421. The school fund of the city shall consist of all moneys received from the state school fund; of all moneys arising from taxes which shall be levied annually by the city council of the city for school purposes; of all moneys arising from the sale, rent, or exchange of any school property, and of such other moneys as may, from any source whatever, be paid into said school fund; which fund shall be kept separate and distinct from all other moneys, and shall only be used for school purposes under the provisions of this chapter. If, at the end of any fiscal year, any surplus remains in the school fund, such surplus money shall be carried forward to the school fund of the next fiscal year, and shall not be, for any purpose whatever, diverted or withdrawn from said fund, except under the provisions of this chapter.

§ 422. The said school fund shall be used and applied by said board of education for the following purposes, to wit:

1. For the payment of the salaries or wages of teachers, janitors, school census marshals, and other persons who may be employed by said board;
2. For the erection, alteration, repairs, rent, and furnishing of school-houses;
3. For the purchase money or rent of any real or personal property purchased or leased by said board;
4. For the insurance of all property;
5. For the discharge of all legal encumbrances on any school property;
6. For lighting school-rooms and the offices and rooms of the superintendent and board of education;
7. For supplying the schools with fuel, water, apparatus, blanks, blank-books, and necessary school appliances, together with books for indigent children;
8. For supplying books, printing and stationery for the use of the superintendent and board of education, and for the incidental expenses of the board and department;
9. For the payment of the salary of the superintendent and assistant superintendent;
10. For grading and improving all school lots, and for grading, sewerage, planking, or paving and repairing streets, and constructing and repairing sidewalks in front thereof.

§ 423. All claims payable out of the school fund shall be filed with the secretary of the board, and after they shall have been approved by a majority of all the members-elect of said board, upon a call of the ayes and noes, which shall be recorded, they shall be signed by the president of the board and by the superintendent, and be sent to the city treasurer. Every demand shall have indorsed upon it a certificate of its approval. All demands for salaries shall be paid monthly.

§ 424. All demands authorized by this article shall be paid by the city treasurer from the school fund, when the same shall be presented to him, ordered paid, and approved by the board: provided, that the said board shall not have power to contract any debt or liabilities, in any form whatsoever, against the said city, in contravention of this article, or exceeding in any year the income and revenue provided for the school fund for such year.

§ 425. It shall be the duty of the auditor of the county in which any such city may be situated, upon the first Monday in each month, and at such other times as he may deem proper, to certify in duplicate to the superintendent of schools of such county, the amount of school moneys at that time in the county treasury, and the amount received during the previous month. The county superintendent shall, upon receipt of such certificates, indorse upon one of them the amount of such moneys to which the common schools in such city are entitled. The certificate so indorsed shall at once be returned to said auditor, who shall direct upon the same the county treasurer to pay the sum designated upon such certificate to the treasury of such city for the use of the school fund thereof.

§ 426. The treasurer of such county shall thereupon pay to the treasurer of such city the sum directed by the auditor as above provided; and when said moneys are placed in such city school fund, they shall be used in precisely the same manner as moneys raised by city school taxes in such city; provided, that the entire revenue derived by such city from the state school fund, and the state school tax, shall be applied by said board of education exclusively to the support of primary and grammar schools.

CHAPTER IV.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS OF THE THIRD CLASS.

(A charter for cities having a population of more than fifteen thousand and not exceeding thirty thousand.)

ARTICLE I.—GENERAL POWERS.

§ 500. Every municipal corporation of the third class shall be entitled the city of —— (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and all proceedings whatever; shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the city authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit.

ARTICLE II.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO OFFICERS.

§ 501. The government of such city shall be vested in a mayor; a common council, to consist of seven aldermen; a board of education, to consist of seven school directors; a police judge; an assessor; a clerk, who shall be ex officio auditor; a treasurer; a superintendent of streets; a tax and license collector; a water-rate collector; a city attorney, and such other and inferior officers as the common council may appoint.

§ 502. The aldermen, mayor, police, judge, city attorney, and assessor shall be elected by the qualified electors of such city, at a general municipal election to be held therein on the second Tuesday in March, in each even-numbered year. The mayor, police judge, city attorney, and assessor shall hold office for the period of two years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The members of the common council and board of education shall hold office for the period of four years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, that the first common council elected under the provisions of this chapter shall, at their first meeting, so classify themselves by lot as that three of their number shall go out of office at the expiration of two years, and four at the expiration of four years; and provided further, that the first board of education elected under the provisions of this chapter shall, at their first meeting, so classify themselves by lots as that three of their number shall go out of office at the expiration of two years, and four at the expiration of four years.

§ 503. All other officers, except as otherwise in this chapter provided, shall be appointed by the common council, upon the nomination of the mayor, and shall hold office for the period of two years from and after the date of such appointment, and until their successors are appointed, elected, and qualified.

§ 504. The common council shall, by ordinance, determine what officers shall give bonds for the faithful performance of their duties, and fix the amount of such bond; and each of such officers shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond to such city in such penal sum as the common council by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is made by this chapter ex officio incumbent. Such bond shall be approved by the common council. All bonds, when approved, shall be filed with the clerk, except the bond of the clerk, if any, which shall be filed with the mayor. All the provisions of any law of this state relating to the official bonds of officers shall apply to such bonds except as herein otherwise provided. Every officer of such city, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and file with the clerk the constitutional oath of office.

§ 505. Any vacancy occurring in any of the offices provided for in this chapter, except in the office of school director, shall be filled by appointment by the common council upon the nomination of the mayor, but if such office be elective, such appointee shall hold office only until the next regular election, at which time a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term.

§ 506. The aldermen and school directors shall receive no compensation whatever. The annual salaries of other officers shall be as follows: Mayor, one thousand two hundred dollars; police judge, one thousand eight hundred dollars; assessor, one thousand eight hundred dollars; city attorney, one thousand five hundred dollars; street superintendent, one thousand two hundred dollars; clerk and auditor, one thousand five hundred dollars; tax and license collector, one thousand two hundred dollars; treasurer, one thousand dollars; water-rate collector, one thousand two hundred dollars; school superintendent, one thousand five hundred dollars; all of which salaries shall be paid monthly.

§ 507. All elections in such city shall be held in accordance with the general election law of the state, so far as the same may be made applicable; and no person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county, enrolled upon the great register thereof, and shall have resided in such city for at least thirty days next preceding such election. The common council shall give such notice of each election as may be prescribed by ordinance, shall appoint boards of election, and fix their compensation, and establish and change election precincts and polling places; provided, that no part of any ward less than the whole thereof shall be attached to any other ward, or part thereof, in forming election precincts. At any municipal election the last printed great register of the county shall be used, and any elector whose name is not upon such printed register shall be entitled to vote upon producing and filing with the board of election a certificate, under the hand and official seal of the county clerk, showing that his name is registered and uncanceled upon the great register of such county, provided that he is otherwise entitled to vote.

§ 508. No person shall be eligible to or hold any office in such city, whether filled by election or appointment, unless he be a resident and elector therein, and shall have resided in such city for one year next preceding the date of such election or appointment; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to school superintendents or school teachers. One alderman and one school director shall be elected from each ward, and the person so elected must be a resident of the ward from which he is so elected, and continue to be such resident during his term of office, and if he shall fail to so continue a resident of such ward, his office shall, by reason thereof, immediately become vacant.

§ 509. The trustees of any free public library created or existing in such city under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to establish free public libraries and reading-rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, shall be appointed by the council in the same manner as other officers are appointed under the provisions of this chapter, anything in the provisions of said act to the contrary notwithstanding.

ARTICLE III.—LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 520. The common council shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the date of said general municipal election, and shall hold regular meetings at least once in each month, at such times as they shall fix by ordinance. Special meetings may be called at any time by the mayor, or by three aldermen, by written notice delivered to each member at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. All meetings of the common council shall be held within the corporate limits of the city, at such place as may be designated by ordinance, and shall be public.

§ 521. At any meeting of the common council, a majority of the aldermen shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time, and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the council, and in case of his absence, the council may appoint a president pro tempore; and in case of the absence of the clerk, the mayor or president pro tempore shall appoint one of the members of the council clerk pro tempore.

§ 522. The common council shall judge of the qualifications of its members, and of all election returns, and determine contested elections of all city officers. They may establish rules for the conduct of their proceedings, and punish any member or other person for disorderly behavior at any meeting. They shall cause the clerk to keep a correct journal of all their proceedings, and, at the desire of any member, shall cause the ayes and noes to be taken on any question, and entered on the journal.

§ 523. No ordinance, and no resolution or order for the payment of money, for granting any franchise, for lighting or watering streets, or for supplying water for municipal purposes, shall be passed by the common council on the day of its introduction, nor within five days thereafter, nor at any other than a regular meeting; and no ordinance, and no such resolution or order, shall have any validity or effect unless passed by the votes of at least four aldermen and approved by the mayor; provided, that if the mayor shall neglect or refuse to approve the same within five days, then the same may be passed by the votes of five aldermen, and shall then take effect as if approved by the mayor.

§ 524. The common council of such city shall have power:

1. To pass ordinances not in conflict with the constitution and laws of this state, or of the United States.

2. To purchase, lease, or receive such real estate and personal property as may be necessary or proper for municipal purposes, and to control, dispose of, and convey the same for the benefit of the city; provided, that they shall not have power to sell or convey any portion of any water front.

3. To acquire, construct, repair, and manage pumps, aqueducts, reservoirs, and other works necessary or proper for supplying the city with water.

4. To establish, lay out, alter, open, keep open, improve, and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, bridges, squares, and other public highways and places within the city, and to drain, sprinkle, and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, macadamize, gravel, and curb the same in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks, and crosswalks therein or upon any part thereof; to cause to be planted, set out, and cultivated, shade trees therein; and generally manage and control all such highways and places.

5. To construct and maintain drains and sewers.

6. To provide fire-engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fire, and to construct and maintain telegraph and telephone lines for fire and police purposes.

7. To impose on and collect from every male inhabitant between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years an annual street poll-tax not exceeding two dollars; and no other road poll-tax shall be collected within the limits of such city.

8. To impose and collect an annual tax, not exceeding two dollars, on every dog owned or harbored within the limits of the city; and no other dog tax shall be collected within the limits of such city.

9. To levy and collect annually a property tax, not exceeding one dollar on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property within such city, which said tax shall be apportioned as follows: For the general fund, not exceeding fifty cents on each one hundred dollars; for the road fund, not exceeding twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars, and for the school fund, not exceeding twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars; each of which funds shall be kept separate from all others.

10. To license, for purposes of regulation and revenue, all and every kind of business authorized by law, and transacted or carried on in such city, and all shows, exhibitions, and lawful games carried on therein; to fix the rates of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise.

11. To improve the rivers and streams flowing through such city, or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten, and deepen the channels thereof, and remove obstructions therefrom; to improve the water front of the city; to construct and maintain embankments and other works to protect such city from overflow; and to bridge any creek or river so as not to interfere with navigation.

12. To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes.

13. To permit, under restrictions as they may deem proper, the laying of railroad tracks and the running of cars drawn by horses, steam, or other motive power thereon, and the laying of gas and water pipes in the public streets, and the construction and maintenance of telegraph and telephone lines therein.

14. To divide the city, by ordinance, into seven wards as nearly equal in population as may be, to fix the boundaries thereof, and to change the same from time to time; provided, that no change in the boundaries of any ward shall be made within sixty days next before the date of said general municipal election, nor within twenty months after the same shall have been established or altered.

15. To establish and regulate a fire department and a police department, to appoint and remove the officers and employees thereof, and to prescribe their duties and fix and order paid their salaries and compensation.

16. To appoint and remove such subordinate officers as they may deem proper, and to fix their duties and compensation.

17. To impose fines, penalties, and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances; and for any breach or violation of any ordinance, to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both; but no such fine shall exceed five hundred dollars, nor the term of such imprisonment exceed six months.

18. To cause all persons imprisoned for violation of any ordinance to labor on the streets or other public property or works within the city.

19. To do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

§ 525. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "The mayor and common council of the city of — do ordain as follows." Every ordinance shall be signed by the mayor, attested by the clerk, and published at least five times in a newspaper published in such city.

§ 526. All demands against such city, except for school purposes, shall be presented to and audited by the common council, in accordance with such regulations as they may by ordinance prescribe; and upon the allowance of any such demand, the mayor shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the same, which warrant shall be countersigned by the clerk, and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn, and out of what fund it is to be paid.

§ 527. The common council shall not create, audit, allow, or permit to accrue any debt or liability in excess of the available money in the treasury that may be legally apportioned and appropriated for such purposes; provided, that any city, during the first year of its existence under this act, may incur such indebtedness or liability as may be necessary, not exceeding in all the income and revenue provided for it for such year; nor shall any warrant be drawn, or evidence of indebtedness be issued, unless there be at the time sufficient money in the treasury legally applicable to the payment of the same, except as herein-after provided.

§ 528. If, at any time, the common council shall deem it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purpose for which such indebtedness is to be incurred, they shall give notice of a special election by the qualified electors of the city, to be held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred. Such notice shall specify the amount of indebtedness proposed to be incurred, the purpose or purposes of the same, and the amount of money necessary to be raised annually by taxation for an interest and sinking fund, as hereinafter provided. Such notice shall be published for at least three weeks in some newspaper published in such city; and no other question or matter shall be submitted to the electors at such election. If, upon a canvass of the votes cast at such election, it appear that not less than two thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the common council to pass an ordinance providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness, and of paying the same; and in each ordinance provision shall be made for the levy and collection of an annual tax upon all the real and personal property subject to taxation within such city sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due; and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof, within a period of not more than twenty years from the time of contracting the same. It shall be the duty of the common council in each year thereafter, at the time at which other taxes are levied, to levy a tax sufficient for such purpose, in addition to the taxes by this chapter authorized to be levied. Such tax, when collected, shall be kept in the treasury as a separate fund, to be inviolably appropriated to the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness.

§ 529. The violation of any ordinance of such city shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted by the authorities of such city in the name of the people of the state of California, or may be redressed by civil action, at the option of said authorities. Any person sentenced to imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance may be imprisoned in the city jail; or, if the common council by ordinance shall so prescribe, in the county jail of the county in which such city may be situated, in which case the expense of such imprisonment shall be a charge in favor of such county and against such city.

§ 530. Every act or thing done or being within the limits of such city, which is or may be declared by law or by any ordinance of such city to be a nuisance shall be and is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be considered and treated as such in all actions and proceedings whatever; and all remedies which are or may be given by law for the prevention and abatement of nuisances shall apply thereto.

§ 531. The common council are authorized and empowered to provide, by ordinance, a system for doing any or all work in or upon the streets, highways, and public places of such city, and for making therein street improvements and repairs, and for doing any or all work authorized by subdivisions four and five of section five hundred and twenty-four of this act, and for the payment of the cost and expenses thereof, either by the levy and collection of special assessments therefor, in proportion to benefits, upon the property to be benefited thereby, or by payments made out of the road fund of such city, or by both; provided, that in all cases where more than one half of the expense of any such improvement, except the construction of a sewer or drain, exceeding in amount the sum of one thousand dollars, is to be defrayed by special assessment, the common council shall first adopt a resolution, which shall be entered upon their journal, declaring their intention to make such improvement, and fixing a time at which objections to the making of such improvement will be considered. Such resolution shall also designate the boundaries of the district to be affected or benefited by such improvement. Upon adopting such resolution, the common council shall give notice of such intention, which notice shall be published for twenty days in a newspaper printed and published in such city. Such notice shall describe the improvement so proposed to be made, and state the estimated cost thereof, and designate the time set for such hearing, and shall refer to such resolution so entered upon the journal for such description of boundaries. If, at or before the time so fixed, written objections to such improvements, signed by the owners of two thirds in value of the property so to be affected or benefited, as shown by the last preceding city assessment roll, be not filed with the clerk, the common council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order the making of such improvement. Any such special assessment made and levied to defray the cost and expenses of any such work, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute a lien upon and against the property upon which such assessment is made and levied, from and after the date of the order for such assessment; which lien may be enforced by a summary sale of such property, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such lien; provided, that any property sold to satisfy any such lien shall be subject to redemption within the time and in the manner provided, or that may hereafter be provided by law for the redemption of property sold for taxes.

§ 532. The common council are authorized and empowered to provide by ordinance for the establishing, laying out, extending, and widening streets and other public highways and places within the city, and for taking private property therefor, and for taking private property for the purpose of rights of way for drains, sewers, and aqueducts, and for the purpose of widening and straightening the channels of streams, and the improvement of water fronts; but no private property or right of way over or through the same shall be taken without the consent of the owner thereof until a just compensation for the same shall be ascertained and paid to such owner, or into court for his use. If the owner of any parcel of land proposed to be taken for any such improvement shall be dissatisfied with the amount of compensation awarded by said council for the taking of such parcel, he may, within twenty days after the date of such award, commence an action against such city in any court of competent jurisdiction within the city, township, or county, to recover such amount of compensation as he may consider himself entitled to. The amount of compensation ascertained and awarded in such action shall be deemed and taken to be the amount of compensation to which such person will be entitled if such improvement be made. If such person fail to recover in such action a greater amount of compensation than was so awarded by said council, he shall not recover costs but shall pay costs to such city. Any owner of or person interested in any such parcel of land, who shall fail to commence such action within the time herein limited, shall be deemed to have waived his right in that behalf, and to have assented to and ratified the award of said council. The common council shall not acquire jurisdiction to exercise any of the powers hereinbefore in this section enumerated, until a petition in writing therefor is first presented to said council, signed by at least twenty inhabitants of said city, taxable therein for municipal purposes. Such petition must describe generally the street, highway, or public place proposed to be laid out or established, or the proposed alteration by widening or extending the same, or by widening or straightening the channels of streams, or by the improvement of water fronts; or if a right of way is sought for drains, sewers, or aqueducts, such petition shall describe the proposed route for the same. Such petition shall be heard at a regular meeting of the council, notice of such hearing being given by the clerk by publication in a newspaper published in such city, for a period of three weeks before such hearing. Such notice shall be deemed to give said council full jurisdiction over the subject-matter, and over the person of every owner of or person interested in any parcel of land to be taken or assessed for any such improvement; and every person interested, from and after the expiration of such publication, shall be deemed to have notice of all subsequent proceedings; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent such council from giving such other or further notice as they may deem proper. At the time fixed in such notice, or at such time to which such hearing may be postponed, the council shall proceed to hear and determine the prayer of such petition pursuant to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by such ordinance. Such system, so established by ordinance, may provide for the payment of such compensation, either by the levy and collection of special assessments therefor, in proportion to benefits upon the property to be affected or benefited by any such improvement, or by payments made out of the street fund, or river and water front improvement fund of such city, or by both. Any such special assessment made and levied to provide means for the payment of any such compensation and the cost of ascertaining the same, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute a lien upon and against the property upon which such assessment is made and levied, from and after the date of the order for such assessment; which lien may be enforced by a summary sale of such property, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such lien; provided, that any property sold to satisfy any such lien shall be subject to redemption within the time and in the manner provided or that may hereafter be provided by law for the redemption of property sold for taxes.

§ 533. The common council shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to provide by ordinance for the assessment, levy, and collection of all city taxes, which shall conform, as nearly as the circumstances of the case may permit, to the provisions of the laws of this state in reference to the assessment, levy, and collection of state and county taxes, except as to the times for such assessment, levy, and collection, and except as to the officers by whom such duties are to be performed. All taxes assessed, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute liens on the property assessed from and after the first Monday in March in each year; which liens may be enforced by a summary sale of such property, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by actions in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such liens; provided, that any property sold for such taxes shall be subject to redemption within the time and in the manner provided or that may hereafter be provided by law for the redemption of property sold for state or county taxes. All deeds made upon any sale of property for taxes or special assessments under the provisions of this chapter shall have the same force and effect in evidence as is or may hereafter be provided by law for deeds for property sold for non-payment of state or county taxes.

§ 534. No money shall be expended or drawn out of the street fund for any but street and sewer purposes, and no money shall be expended or drawn out of the school fund for any but school purposes. Whenever any city organizing under this act has a bonded indebtedness contracted or issued under any law of this state, all the provisions of such laws in regard to the levying, collection, and disposition of taxes and revenues for the payment of such indebtedness and the interest thereon, shall continue in force, and the taxes levied and revenues raised for the payment of the interest and principal of such indebtedness shall be in addition to the taxes provided by section five hundred and twenty-four of this act, and the common council of said city, organizing under this act, is hereby authorized and empowered to levy and collect such taxes and apportion such revenues for the payment of such indebtedness and interest, in addition to the limit of taxation hereinbefore prescribed in this act; and nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent any city from levying and collecting the tax authorized by the act entitled, "An act to establish free public libraries and reading-rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected. All moneys received from licenses, and from fines, penalties and forfeitures, shall be paid into the general fund.

§ 535. The common council may also levy and cause to be collected, in each year, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected, a tax, not exceeding twenty cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property within such city subject to taxation, the proceeds of which tax shall be known as the "River and Water Front Improvement Fund," and shall be applied to the improvement of streams, bays, and water fronts, the erection of embankments, and other works to protect the city from overflow, and the construction of works of drainage, and for no other purposes whatever.

§ 536. In the erection, improvement, and repair of all public buildings and works, in all street and sewer work, and in all work in or about streams, bays, or water fronts, or in or about embankments or other works for protection against overflow, or in furnishing any supplies or materials for the same, when the expenditures required for the same exceeds the sum of five hundred dollars, the same shall be done by contract, and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after due notice, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance; provided, that the common council, or board of education, may reject all bids presented, and readvertise, in their discretion; and provided further, that in case of any great and unforeseen calamity or emergency the common council, by a resolution unanimously adopted and approved by the mayor, may dispense with the foregoing provisions of this section, the reason for such action being entered on their minutes. The common council shall, annually, at a stated time, contract for doing all city printing and advertising, which contract shall be let to the lowest bidder, after notice as provided in this section. All advertising shall be done in a newspaper printed and published in such city, and the contract therefor shall be awarded separately from all other printing.

ARTICLE IV.—EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 550. The mayor shall be at the head of the executive department of the city. It shall be his duty to be vigilant and active in causing the laws and ordinances of the city to be duly executed and enforced; to have the general supervision of the police department; to receive and examine into all complaints preferred against any officer, and to certify the same to the common council; to administer and certify oaths and affirmations in any and all matters and proceedings pertaining to the city; to preside at all meetings of the common council; and to perform such other duties as are or may be prescribed by law or ordinance.

§ 551. It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a true and correct record of all the proceedings of the common council, and to countersign all warrants; to keep accounts current with every officer charged with the receipt or disbursement of money; to keep the seal of the city and affix the same to all instruments requiring such seal; to perform the duties required of him by the next section; to report to the common council on the first Monday of each and every month a full and detailed statement of the receipts and disbursements of the treasury during the preceding month, and the state of each particular fund, which statement shall be verified by his oath; to administer and certify oaths and affirmations; to perform such duties in and about the assessment, levy, and collection of taxes and assessments as may be prescribed by law or ordinance; to appoint deputies; and to perform such other and further duties as the common council may by ordinance prescribe.

§ 552. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive, upon the order of the clerk, all moneys due or belonging to the city, for which he shall give his receipt, which receipt shall be filed with the clerk by the person making such payment, and the clerk shall give to such persons his receipt therefor, which receipt shall be the only evidence of payment. He shall pay all warrants drawn by authority of and in accordance with law. He shall perform such duties in the collection of taxes or assessments as are or may be prescribed by law or ordinance. He shall, on the first Monday of each and every month, present to the common council a full and detailed statement of the amount of money belonging to the city received by him, and by him disbursed during the preceding month, and the state of each particular fund, which statement shall be verified by his oath. He may appoint deputies by and with the consent of the common council, and shall perform such other duties as are or may be prescribed by law or ordinance.

§ 553. The common council shall, by ordinances not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, prescribe the duties of all officers, and fix their compensation.

ARTICLE V.—JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

§ 560. The judicial power of the city shall be vested in a police court, to be held by the police judge of such city. Said police court shall have jurisdiction, concurrently with the justices' courts, of all criminal action and proceedings arising within the corporate limits of such city, and which might be tried in such justices' courts; and shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city, of all actions founded upon any obligation or liability created by any ordinance, and of all prosecutions for any violation of any ordinance. The rules of practice and mode of proceeding in said police court shall be the same as are or may be prescribed by law for justices' courts in like cases; and appeals may be taken to the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated from all judgments of said police court, in like manner and with like effect as in cases of appeals from justices' courts. Said court shall be a court of record.

§ 561. The police judge shall be judge of the police court, and shall have the powers and perform the duties of a magistrate. He may administer and certify oaths and affirmations, and take and certify acknowledgments.

§ 562. In all cases in which the police judge is a party, or in which he is interested, or when he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, or is otherwise disqualified, or in case of his sickness or inability to act, the mayor may call in a justice of the peace residing in the city to act in the place and stead of the police judge; or if there be no justice of the peace residing in the city, or if all those so residing are likewise disqualified, then he may call in any justice of the peace residing in the county in which such city may be situated.

§ 563. The common council shall appoint, upon the nomination of the mayor, a clerk for said police court. Said clerk shall keep the records of said court and the seal thereof, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by law or ordinance. He shall receive a salary of one hundred dollars per month. The council shall also provide a seal for said police court.

ARTICLE VI.—SCHOOL DEPARTMENT.

§ 570. From and after the organization of each of such cities, the same shall constitute a separate school district, which shall be governed by the board of education of such city.

§ 571. In case a vacancy shall occur in the office of school director, the board of education shall choose a person to fill such vacancy, who shall serve until the next election, when, if the term does not then expire, a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term.

§ 572. The board of education shall meet on the second Tuesday after such general municipal election and choose one of its members as president, and another as vice-president. Its regular meetings shall thereafter be held as often as twice in each month, and the time and place for holding such meetings shall be fixed by a rule of said board. Special meetings of said board may be held when called by written notice, signed by its president, or three of its members, and delivered personally to each of its members who shall not have signed the same. Four members shall constitute a quorum, and no business shall be transacted by said board of education without the concurrence of four of its members; but a majority of the members present at any meeting may adjourn from time to time. All meetings of said board of education shall be public, and full records of its proceedings shall be kept by the school superintendent, who shall be ex officio clerk of said board of education.

§ 573. The board of education shall have power:

1. To establish and maintain public schools, and to subdivide the school districts, and to fix and alter the boundaries of such subdivisions.
2. To appoint a school superintendent, who shall hold office during their pleasure, and to prescribe his duties, and fix his compensation.
3. To employ and dismiss teachers, janitors, truant officers, and school census marshals, and to fix, alter, allow, and order paid their salaries or compensation; and to employ and pay such mechanics and laborers as may be necessary to carry into effect the powers hereby conferred.
4. To make, establish, and enforce all necessary or proper rules and regulations, not in conflict with the laws of this state, for the government and management of public schools within such city, the teachers thereof, and the pupils therein, and for carrying into effect the laws relating to education.
5. To provide for the school department of such city fuel and lights, water, printing, and stationery, and to incur such other incidental expenses as may be deemed necessary by said board.
6. To build, alter, repair, rent, and provide school-houses, and to furnish the same with proper school furniture, apparatus, and appliances, and to insure any and all school property.
7. To purchase, receive, lease, and hold in fee, in trust for such city, any and all real estate and personal property that may have been acquired, or may hereafter be acquired, for the use and benefit of the schools of such city; provided, that no real estate shall be bought, sold, or exchanged, nor any expenditure incurred for the construction of new school-houses, without the approval of the common council; and provided further, that the proceeds of any such sale or exchange of real estate shall be exclusively applied to school purposes.
8. To grade, fence, and improve all school lots.
9. To determine annually the amount of money required for the support of the public schools, and for carrying into effect all the provisions of law in reference thereto; and in pursuance of this provision, the board of education shall, at least ten days before the meeting of the common council at which the annual city taxes are levied, submit in writing to the common council a careful estimate of the whole amount of money to be received from the state and county, and of the amount to be required from such city for the above-mentioned purpose; and the amount so found to be required from the city shall, by the common council, be added to the other amounts to be assessed and collected for city purposes, and when collected, the proceeds thereof shall be immediately paid into the school fund of such city, to be drawn out only upon the order of the board of education; provided, that such annual tax shall not exceed twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of the real and personal property within such city.
10. To establish regulations for the just and equal disbursement of all moneys belonging to the school fund.

11. To discharge all legal encumbrances existing at the time of the incorporation of such city, or thereafter, on any school property within such city.

12. To admit non-resident children, and persons over twenty-one years of age, to any of the departments of the schools of such city, upon the payment, monthly, in advance, to the treasurer of such city, for the school fund, of such tuition fee as said board may establish.

13. To prohibit any children under six years of age from attending the public schools.

14. To establish and regulate the grades of schools in such city, and the course of study, and the mode of instruction to be pursued therein, and to determine what text-books shall be used.

15. To do and perform, in addition to the foregoing powers, such other acts as may be necessary or proper to carry into effect the powers hereby conferred.

§ 574. The board of education may sue and be sued by their name of office. In any action or judicial proceeding against said board, service of process upon the president, or upon a majority of the members of the board, shall be sufficient to give the court jurisdiction to hear and determine the same.

§ 575. All moneys received by the treasurer of the county wherein such city may be situated, on account of the school fund of such city, or the school district consisting of the same, and all sums received into the county treasury, which may be apportioned to said city or district, shall be paid to the treasurer of such city by the treasurer of such county, as soon as received, or as soon as the apportionment shall be made, when apportionment is necessary.

§ 576. The president of the board of education shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations concerning any demand upon the treasury, payable out of the school fund, and in all other matters relating to the duties of the board of education, and to witnesses examined in any investigation had by such board of education, or by a committee thereof, duly appointed by it for that purpose.

§ 577. Said president may issue subpoenas under his hand and the seal of such city, attested by the city clerk, to compel the attendance of witnesses before such board of education, or committee thereof, who shall be entitled to the same fees as witnesses in civil cases, and who may be punished for contempt for non-attendance, or refusal to be sworn, or to answer, by the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated.

§ 578. Every claim payable out of the school fund shall be filed with the clerk of the board of education, and after it shall have been approved by the board, a certificate of such approval shall be indorsed thereon, signed by the president and clerk; and a warrant upon the school fund shall be issued thereon for the payment of such claim, which warrant shall be signed by the president of such board, and countersigned by the clerk, and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn.

§ 579. The entire revenue derived by such city from the state school fund and the state school tax shall be applied by said board of education exclusively to the support of primary and grammar schools.

ARTICLE VII.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§ 590. Every officer collecting or receiving any moneys belonging to or for the use of such city shall settle for the same with the clerk on the first Monday in each month, and immediately pay the same into the treasury, on the order of the clerk, for the benefit of the funds to which such moneys respectively belong.

§ 591. No officer of such city shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with such city, or with any of the officers thereof, in their official capacity, or in doing any work or furnishing any supplies for the use of such city or its officers in their official capacity; and any claim for compensation for work done, or supplies or materials furnished in which any such officer is interested, shall be void, and if audited and allowed shall not be paid by the treasurer. Any wilful violation of the provisions of this section shall be a ground for removal from office, and shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and punished as such.

CHAPTER V.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS OF THE FOURTH CLASS.

(Charter for cities having a population of more than ten thousand and not exceeding fifteen thousand.)

ARTICLE I.—GENERAL POWERS.

§ 600. Every municipal corporation of the fourth class shall be entitled the city of — (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever, and shall have and use a common seal, and the same alter at pleasure; may purchase, receive, have, take, hold, lease, use, and enjoy property of every name or description, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit.

ARTICLE II.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO OFFICERS.

§ 601. The officers of such city shall consist of a major, twelve councilmen, a collector, who shall also be street commissioner, an assessor, treasurer, city clerk, police judge, city attorney, chief of police, superintendent of public schools, and two school trustees for each ward; and whenever a free public library and reading-room is established therein, five trustees thereof; and the council may also provide for the election, by the voters of said city, or by said council, of a superintendent of irrigation. The city council may also elect a city surveyor, harbor-master, poundkeeper, and city jailer, and whenever a paid fire department shall be established in such city, a chief engineer, and one or more assistant engineers, and any other officer necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and for whose election or appointment no provision is made, and may by ordinance prescribe the duties of all city officers, and fix their compensation, subject to the limitations herein contained.

§ 602. On the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November of each odd-numbered year a municipal election shall be held, at which the qualified voters of such city shall elect one school trustee for each ward, and six councilmen, to be voted for by the wards they may respectively represent, and each to hold office for the term of four years, and until the qualification of his successor; and also a mayor, an assessor, a collector and street commissioner, city attorney, police judge, chief of police, and superintendent of public schools, who shall each hold office for two years, and until the qualification of a successor; provided, that at the first election held after the organization of such city under this act such city shall elect two school trustees for each ward, and twelve councilmen, who shall, at the first meeting of the city council and board of education, respectively, decide by lot their terms of office; six of said councilmen and one half of the number of school trustees to hold for the term of four years, and the others for the term of two years, and in each case until the qualification of their successors.

§ 603. The city council shall call all city elections, designate the time and place of holding the same, giving at least ten days' notice thereof, and shall appoint one inspector or clerk, and two judges of election, for each ward or election precinct in such city, who shall appoint two clerks, and all shall take the oath of office prescribed by law for inspectors, judges, and clerks of state and county elections. All provisions of law regulating elections for state and county officers, not conflicting herewith, shall apply to elections under this chapter. The polls for all city elections shall be open at eight o'clock a. m., and continue open until five o'clock p. m., the same day. If any officer so appointed shall fail to attend, those attending, with the electors assembled, shall fill their places by others from the qualified electors present. All returns of city elections shall be made out and signed by the officers of such election in the usual form, and deposited with the city clerk within two days after the election. The persons having the plurality of the votes cast for each of the respective offices voted for shall be declared elected. No person shall vote at any city election unless he shall be an elector for state and county officers, and shall have actually resided within such city, and in the precinct where he may offer to vote, thirty days preceding such election; provided, that any elector who may remove from one precinct to another within thirty days prior to such election may, if a qualified voter therein at the time of removal, vote in the precinct from which he may have moved. If any person not having the legal qualifications of an elector at any city election shall fraudulently vote, or attempt to vote, or knowingly hand in two or more ballots folded together, or shall vote, or attempt to vote, more than once at the same election, such person or persons, on conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for any period not more than three months, or may be punished by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 604. On the Monday following the election, the city council shall convene and publicly canvass the result, and shall issue certificates of election to each person elected by a plurality of votes. When two or more persons have received an equal and highest number of votes for any one of the offices voted for, the city council shall thereafter, at its first regular meeting, decide by vote between the parties which shall be elected. If the city council from any cause fail to meet on the day named, the mayor shall call a special meeting of said council within five days thereafter, and in addition to the notice provided for calling special meetings, shall publish the same on two successive days in some newspaper published in such city. If the mayor fail to call said meeting within said five days, any four councilmen may call it. At such special meeting all elections, appointments, or other business may be transacted that could have been on the day first herein named.

§ 605. Each officer of such city shall take the oath of office, and such as may be required to give bond, file the same, duly approved, within ten days after receiving notice of his election or appointment, or if no notice be received, then on or before the date fixed for the assumption by him of the duties of the office to which he may have been elected or appointed; but if any one, either elected or appointed to office, fail for ten days to qualify as required by law or to enter upon his duties at the time fixed by law or the orders of the city council, then such office shall become vacant; or if any such officer shall absent himself from such city continuously for ten days without the consent of the city council, or shall openly neglect or refuse to discharge his duties, such office may be by the city council declared vacant; provided, that the penalty for absence from the city shall not apply to such officers as serve without salary or other compensation. Such officers as are elected by the voters of the city shall enter upon their duties on the first Monday of January next succeeding the date of their election; such officers as are appointed or elected by the city council shall enter upon their duties within ten days after receiving notice of their appointment or election.

§ 606. When any vacancy occurs in any elective office, except the mayor, the city council may fill the same for the unexpired term, except in case of city councilmen, or school trustees, which shall be filled until the next city election, and until the qualification of a successor. The city council may, upon written charges to be entered upon their journal, after notice to the party, and after trial, by a vote of two thirds of all the members-elect, remove any officer.

§ 607. It shall be the duty of the city council to provide for the accountability of the city assessor, treasurer, clerk, police judge, collector, and street commissioner, city attorney, and all other officers herein provided for, by requiring from them sufficient security for the faithful performance of their duties or trusts, which security shall be given by them before entering on their respective duties. If such security should be or become insufficient, additional security may be required, and if not given within ten days, the council, by a vote of two thirds of the members, may declare the office vacant, and may thereafter fill the same.

§ 608. The mayor, councilmen, and school trustees shall not receive any salary or compensation for their services; provided, that members of the city council, or a committee thereof for that purpose appointed, may receive for their services, while acting as a board of equalization, a sum to be determined by the council, not to exceed for each one five dollars per day, for each day while actually so engaged, for two weeks in each year, and no longer.

§ 609. The collector and street commissioner shall receive a salary, to be fixed by the city council, which shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum.

§ 610. The city council shall have no power to allow any extra or additional compensation to that in this chapter expressly authorized to any officer for the rendition of services that the city council have power to require the officer to perform by virtue of his office.

§ 611. In case any such city shall, at the time of its organization under this act, be divided into wards, such divisions shall continue, but the city council may, at any time not within three months previous to an annual city election, change the boundaries of such wards, or divide it into others, not exceeding six in number; provided, that such change shall not affect the term of office of any councilman or school trustee, but they shall serve out their term for the ward in which their residence may be; but if more reside within any one ward than the proportion to which it is entitled, those of the shortest unexpired term shall, by the council, be assigned for such unexpired term to a ward where there is a vacancy. The representation of each ward in the city council shall be as near as may be in proportion to its population, but each ward shall have two school trustees.

ARTICLE III.—LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 620. The mayor and councilmen of the several wards shall constitute the city council, and at its first meeting in January next after a city election shall elect a city clerk, city treasurer, and one of their own body as president of the city council, and at any time when the mayor and president are both absent, may elect a president pro tempore, who shall act during such absence. They shall also, at such time, designate the number of policemen for such city, to be elected as hereinafter provided.

§ 621. A majority of the councilmen-elect shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A less number may adjourn from time to time, and they may compel the attendance of absent members. The council may punish their members for disorderly conduct, and upon written charges to be entered on their journal, for such conduct, after trial, may expel a member by a vote of two thirds of all the members elected. The mayor shall have a vote only in case of a tie in the votes of the other members. They shall determine their rules of proceeding and the qualification of members. The sittings of the council shall be open to the public, except where the interests of the city shall require secrecy. A journal of all their proceedings shall be kept by the clerk under their direction. At any time, at the request of any two members, the ayes and noes on any question shall be taken and entered upon the journal.

§ 622. The city council shall have power and authority to make and pass all by-laws, ordinances, orders, and resolutions not repugnant to the constitution of the United States or of the state of California, or the provisions of this charter, necessary for the municipal government and the management of the affairs of the city, for the execution of the powers vested in said body corporate, and for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter; to fix and collect a license tax on and to regulate theaters, melodeons, balls, concerts, dances, and all theatrical, melodeon, circus, or other performances, and all performances where an admission fee is charged, or which may be held in any house or place where wines or liquors are sold to the participators; also all shows, billiard tables, bowling alleys, exhibitions, or amusements; to fix and collect a license tax on and to regulate all taverns, hotels, restaurants, saloons, bar-rooms, banks, brokers, manufactories, livery-stable keepers, express companies, and persons engaged in transmitting letters or packages, railroad, stage, and steamboat companies or owners, whose principal place of business is in such city, or who shall have an agency therein; to license and regulate auctioneers; to license, regulate, tax, prohibit, or suppress all tippling-houses, dram-shops, saloons, bars, bar-rooms, raffles, hawkers, peddlers, pawnbrokers, refreshment or coffee stands, booths, or sheds; to prohibit or suppress, or to license and regulate, all dance-houses, fandango-houses, cock-fights, dog-fights, or any exhibition or show of any animal or animals; to license and tax hackney-coaches, cabs, omnibuses, drays, market-wagons, and all other vehicles used for hire, and to regulate their stands, and to fix the rates to be charged for the transportation of persons, baggage, and property; and to license or suppress runners for steamboats, railroads, taverns, or hotels; and to fix and collect a license tax upon all occupations and trades, and all and every kind of business authorized by law, not heretofore specified; and provided, that in the business of selling intoxicating drinks, wines, ales, and beers, in less quantities than one quart, or to be drank on the premises where sold, and on any other business, trade, or calling not provided by law to be licensed for state and county purposes, the amount of license shall be fixed at the discretion of the city council, as they may deem the interests and good order of the city may require; also to prevent and restrain any riot or riotous assemblage, disturbance of the peace, or disorderly conduct, in any place, house, or street in the city; to prevent, remove, and abate nuisances at the expense of the parties creating, causing, or committing, or maintaining the same; to establish, maintain, and regulate a common pound for estrays, and to appoint a poundkeeper, who shall be paid out of the fines and fees imposed and collected for the owners of any animals impounded, and from no other source; to prevent and regulate the running at large of any and all domestic animals within the city limits, or any parts thereof; and to regulate or prevent the keeping of such animals within any part of the city; to control and regulate slaughter-houses, wash-houses, laundries, tanneries, forges, and offensive trades, and to provide for their exclusion or removal from the city limits, or from any part thereof; to provide, by regulation, for the prevention and summary removal of all filth and garbage in the streets, sloughs, alleys, back yards, or public grounds of such city, or elsewhere therein; to establish, alter, and repair city prisons, and to provide for the regulation of the same, and for the safe-keeping of persons committed thereto; to provide for the care, feeding, and clothing of the city prisoners; to provide for the formation of a chain-gang for persons convicted of crimes or misdemeanors, and their proper employment and compulsory working for the benefit of the city; and also to provide for the arrest and compulsory working of vagrants; to prohibit and suppress all gaming, and all gambling or disorderly houses, and houses of ill-fame, and all immoral and indecent amusements, exhibitions, and shows; to establish and regulate markets and market-places; to fix and regulate the speed at which railroad cars may run within the city limits, or any portion thereof; to provide for and regulate the commons of the city; to regulate and prohibit fast driving or riding in any portion of the city; to regulate or prohibit the loading or storage of gunpowder and combustible or explosive materials in the city, or transporting the same through its streets or over its waters; to have, purchase, hold, use, and enjoy property of every name or kind whatsoever, and the same to sell, lease, transfer, mortgage, convey, control, or improve; to build, erect, or construct houses, buildings, or structures of any kind needful for the use or purposes of such city; to establish, continue, regulate, and maintain a fire department for such city, to change or reorganize the same, and to disband any company or companies of the said department; also to discontinue and disband said fire department, and to create, organize, establish, and maintain a paid fire department for such city; provided, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the said city council to disband or discontinue the fire department of any city having, at the time of its organization under this act, a volunteer fire department organized and existing, or to create, establish, and maintain a paid fire department therein, without first submitting the proposition of establishing a paid fire department for such city to the legal voters thereof, at a general city election, for decision, and not after such election, unless thereat a majority of all the votes cast at such election are in favor thereof; and in the event that any time hereafter the volunteer fire department of such city shall be disorganized or disbanded, and a paid fire department established in its stead, then every person who shall have been an active fireman for the space of two years next before the date of such disbanding and establishing shall be entitled to and shall receive an exempt fireman's certificate, and such certificate shall entitle the person to whom it is issued to all benefits and immunities accorded by the laws of this state in regard to exempt firemen; to institute and perfect any and all measures and means for the prevention or extinguishment of fires; to establish fire limits, and the same to alter at pleasure; to regulate or prevent the erection of wooden or other buildings or structures of combustible materials; to regulate the construction of buildings, sheds, awnings, signs, or any structures of a dangerous or unsafe character; to adopt, enter into, and carry out means for securing a supply of water for the use of such city or its inhabitants, or for irrigating purposes therein; to prevent the overflow of the city, or to secure its drainage; to provide for the numbering of houses; to establish a board of health; to prevent the introduction and spread of disease; to establish a city infirmary, and provide for the indigent sick; and to provide and enforce regulations for the protection of health, cleanliness, peace, and good order of the city; to establish and maintain hospitals within or without the city limits; to control and regulate interments, and prohibit them within the city limits; to build, alter, improve, keep in repair, and control the water front; to erect, regulate, and repair wharves, and to fix the rate of wharfage and transit wharf, and levy dues upon vessels and commodities; and to provide for the regulation of berths, landing, stationing, and removing of steamboats, sail vessels, rafts, barges, and all other water-craft; to fix the rate of speed at which steamboats and other steam water-craft may run along the water front of the city; to build bridges so as not to interfere with navigation; to provide for the removal of obstructions to the navigation of any channel or watercourse; to clear out and excavate sloughs and other watercourses or channels; to license steamers, boats, and vessels used in any watercourse in the city, and to fix and collect a license tax thereon; to license ferries and bridges under the law regulating the granting of such license; to determine and impose fines for forfeitures and penalties that shall be incurred for the breach or violation of any city ordinance, and also for a violation of the provisions of this chapter, when no penalty is affixed thereto or provided by law, and to appropriate all such fines, penalties, and forfeitures for the benefit of the city; but no penalty to be enforced shall exceed, for any offense, the amount of five hundred dollars, or three months' imprisonment, or both; and every violation of any lawful order, regulation, or ordinance of the city council of such city is hereby declared a misdemeanor or public offense, and all prosecutions for the same may be in the name of the people of the state of California; to create and establish a city police; to prescribe their duties and their compensation, and to provide for the regulation and government of the same; to provide for conducting elections and establishing election precincts, when necessary; to examine, either in open session or by committee, the accounts or doings of all officers or other persons having the care, management, or disposition of moneys, property, or business of the city; to make all appropriations, contracts or agreements for the use or benefit of the city, and in the city's name; to provide by ordinance for the opening, laying out, altering, constructing, extending, repairing, grading, paving, graveling, macadamizing, or otherwise improving of public streets, avenues, and other public ways, or any portion of either thereof, and for the construction, regulation and repair of sidewalks, and other street improvements, all at the expense of the property to be benefited thereby, without any recourse, in any event, upon the city for any portion of the expense of such work, or any delinquency of the property holders or owners, and to provide for the forced sale thereof for such purposes; to establish a uniform grade for streets, avenues, sidewalks, and squares, and to enforce the observance thereof; to clear, cleanse, alter, straighten, widen, fill up, or close any waterway, drain, or sewer, or any watercourse in such city, when not declared by law to be navigable; to adopt, provide for, establish, and maintain a general system of sewerage, or drainage, or both, and the regulation thereof, the expense thereof to be borne by general taxation upon the taxable property and inhabitants of and in such city; to provide funds for the purpose aforesaid, and to determine manner, terms, and place of connection with main or central lines of pipes, sewers, or drains established with funds derived from general tax, and compel compliance with and conformity to such general system of sewerage, or drainage, or both, and the regulations of said council thereto relating, by the infliction of suitable penalties and forfeitures against person and property, or either, for non-conformity to or failure to comply with the provisions of such system and regulations, or either; to provide for all public buildings, public parks, or squares, necessary or proper for the use of the city; to permit the use of the streets for railroad purposes; to order paid any final judgment against such city; but none of its lands, or property of any kind or nature, taxes, revenues, franchise, or rights, or interest, shall be attached, levied upon, or sold in or under any process whatsoever; to regulate the sale of coal and wood in such city, and may appoint a measurer of wood and weigher of coal for the city, and define his duties, and prescribe his term of office, and the fees he shall receive for his services; provided, that such fees shall, in all cases, be paid by the parties requiring such service.

§ 623. The city council shall not create, audit, allow, nor permit to accrue any debts or liabilities above the actual revenue and available means in the treasury that may be legally apportioned for such purpose, nor shall any warrant be drawn, or evidence of indebtedness be issued, unless there shall be sufficient money in the treasury justly applicable to meet the same.

§ 624. All accounts and demands that shall lawfully arise against the city shall be submitted to the city council, and if found correct shall be allowed, and an order be made that the demand be paid; upon which (if there be funds in the treasury as in the preceding section provided) the clerk shall draw a warrant, which shall be countersigned by the president of the city council, upon the treasurer, in favor of the owner or owners of the demand, specifying for what purpose and by what authority it is issued, and out of what fund it is to be paid, and the treasurer shall pay the same out of the proper fund. All accounts and demands against such city, other than such as are chargeable to or payable out of the school fund, must be presented to the city council duly itemized, and accompanied with an affidavit of the party, or his agent, stating the same to be a true and legitimate claim against such city for the full amount for which the same is presented, and that the same accrued as set forth, and with all necessary and proper vouchers, within one year from the date the same accrued; and any claim or demand not so presented within the time aforesaid shall be forever barred, and said council shall have no authority to allow any account or demand not so presented in manner and time as aforesaid, nor shall any action be maintained against such city for or on account of any demands or claim against the same until such demand or claim shall have first been presented to the city council for action thereon.

§ 625. The annual expenses of such city shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, except in cities where one per centum on the valuation of the property therein raises more than the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and in such cities the annual expenses shall not exceed the sum of one per centum of the valuation of the property therein; provided, however, that moneys authorized to be raised and expended for the payment of the funded or bonded indebtedness of such city, and for school purposes in such city, as provided to be raised by the provisions of this charter, shall not be considered a portion of said annual expense. If, at any time after the said sum shall have been expended in any year, it shall appear that the interests of such city demand an expenditure of an additional sum, the city council shall make a report of the same, which shall be published for at least three weeks in some newspaper printed and published in such city, particularly specifying the object or objects for which said expenditure is required, and the amount of money necessary to be raised to complete the same. At any time within ten days after the expiration of said publication, the city council shall order an election, giving ten days' notice thereof, at which time those persons who are legal voters of such city may vote for or against a tax to raise such additional sum. The election shall be conducted and returns made and canvassed in all respects as the general elections of such city, and a majority shall determine if such tax be levied or not. If the vote is in favor of such tax, the city council shall forthwith, by an order to be entered on the journal of their proceedings, order the tax to be levied and collected upon the basis of the last municipal assessment, and shall make the proposed expenditure; provided, that the special tax thus to be levied shall, for no one year, be more than one per centum of the valuation of real and personal property in the city, as shown by the last assessment roll. All special taxes to be levied and collected under the provisions of this section shall be levied and collected in the manner, form, and ways prescribed for the levying and collecting of the general taxes of such city; and as a security for their payment, a lien shall attach to and against each lot of land for the amount assessed against it from the date of the order; and every person, firm, or corporation against whom a tax be thus assessed shall be personally liable to pay the amount to such city. Said lien shall continue until such taxes are paid, or the property become vested in a purchaser under a sale thereof. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 371.]

§ 626. Every appropriation or payment of money made or ordered by the city council in excess of said sum stated in section six hundred and twenty-five, unless it shall be authorized by a vote of the electors of such city, as provided for in the preceding section, shall be invalid, illegal, and void, and shall be recoverable by the city from the party or parties to whom the same is made, if knowingly taken or received by such party or parties; and the members of the city council who shall have voted for the same shall be individually, jointly, and severally liable for such excess, and it may be recovered from them in any court of competent jurisdiction by the party or parties with whom they have contracted, or by the city, if payment has been actually made. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 371.]

§ 627. All the streets in such city that have been or shall hereafter be laid out and dedicated by the party or parties owning the land fronting upon the same, or by the authority of such city, and declared to be public streets, and that have been or shall hereafter be used as such, shall be and are hereby declared public streets to the extent that the same may have been or shall hereafter be used, laid out, or dedicated.

§ 628. All contracts for work to be performed, or materials to be used, ordered by or for such city, or in which it is interested, may be, and when the cost exceeds five hundred dollars shall be, let to the lowest bidder. A notice, signed by the clerk, soliciting sealed proposals, shall be published a reasonable time, in no case less than ten days, prior to the time fixed for opening such bids. Such notice shall designate the work to be done, and the place and the time in which it may be performed, with such other specifications as may tend to give the bidders a knowledge of the object to be accomplished, and with a reference to the diagram or specifications on file in the clerk's office. On the day limited in said notice for the opening of said bids the council, or a committee therefor appointed, shall, in open meeting, open and declare said bids and award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder; provided, however, that the city council, or its committee, may reject all bids when considered too high or uncertain from any circumstances. The council or committee may, before considering any offer, require security that the party will enter into a contract if awarded to him; and all contracts shall be in writing, and accompanied with a bond satisfactory to the mayor. No officer of such city shall be interested in any contract to which the city is a party, and any contract contrary to the provisions hereof shall be void.

§ 629. The city council is authorized and empowered to establish, lay out, alter, open, improve, and repair streets, avenues, sidewalks, alleys, bridges, squares, and other public highways and places within the city, and to drain, sprinkle, and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, macadamize, gravel, and curb the same, in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks, and crosswalks therein, or upon any part thereof; to cause to be planted, set out, and cultivated, shade trees along the lines thereof or therein, and generally to manage and control all such highways and places.

§ 630. The city council shall have the power to provide by ordinance for doing any or all work in or upon the streets, avenues, highways, and public places of such city, and for making therein street improvements and repairs, or for the preservation thereof, and for doing any or all work thereupon or therein authorized by this chapter; and for the payment of the cost and expenses thereof by the levy and collection of special assessments therefor upon the property to be affected or benefited thereby. That is to say, the expense or cost of any work or improvement upon the streets, avenues, or public ways of such city shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed for the full debt thereof in proportion to the benefits upon the property to be benefited sufficient to cover the total expense of the work to the center of the street on which it fronts. The expense of all improvements in the space formed by the junction of two or more streets, or where one main street terminates in or crosses another main street, and also all necessary street crossings or crossways, shall be paid by such city. In all the streets constituting the water front of such city, or bounded on the one side by the property thereof, the expense of work done on that portion of said streets from the center line thereof to the said water front, or to such property of the city bounded thereon, shall be provided for by such city, but no contract for any such work shall be given, except to the lowest responsible bidder, and in the manner hereinbefore provided. When any work or improvement mentioned in this section is done or made on one side of the center line of said streets, avenues, or public ways, the lots or portions of lots fronting on that side only shall be assessed to cover the expenses of said work, according to the provisions of this chapter.

§ 631. The style of the city ordinances shall be as follows: "The mayor and city council of the city of —— do ordain as follows;" and all ordinances shall be published in one or more of the newspapers published in the city.

§ 632. By-laws and ordinances shall be passed by the city council and approved by the mayor, or the president of the city council acting in his stead. But before any by-law or ordinance shall have any binding validity, it shall be published in one or more newspapers published in the city, and recorded in the record-book to be kept by the clerk. The clerk shall certify on the record the fact of publication, and so certified, the record shall be prima facie evidence of the passage thereof, and may be read as evidence of the by-law or ordinance, and its publication. A printed copy of any ordinance or by-law, or a compilation thereof, printed by authority of the city council, and attested by the clerk, shall be evidence thereof in same manner and with like effect.

§ 633. All orders of the city council, to have force and legal validity, shall be entered on the journal of their proceedings, which journal shall be signed by the officer who may preside at such meeting.

§ 634. Upon the passage of all ordinances appropriating money, imposing taxes, abolishing licenses, increasing or lessening the amount to be paid for licenses, the ayes and noes shall be entered upon the journal.

§ 635. A majority of all the members elected shall be necessary to pass any ordinance appropriating for any purpose the sum of five hundred dollars or upwards, or any ordinance imposing any assessment, tax or license, or in anywise increasing or diminishing the city revenue.

§ 636. The trustees of any free public library, created or existing in such city under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to establish the public libraries and reading-rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, shall be appointed by the city council in the same manner as other officers are appointed under the provisions of this chapter, anything in the provisions of said act to the contrary notwithstanding.

ARTICLE IV.—TAXATION.

§ 640. The city council shall have full power and authority to assess, levy, and collect annually taxes upon all the property within the city, taxable for state purposes, not exceeding one per centum upon the assessed value thereof, which shall be paid into the general fund for current expenses. They shall provide for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonded indebtedness, if any, of such city, and for the payment of the other indebtedness of such city not funded; and they shall each year levy, assess, and collect an additional tax upon the taxable property as aforesaid, not exceeding two per centum in any one year, which, when collected, shall be paid into a fund to be disbursed as follows:

1. To pay the interest on said bonds;
2. To a fund for the payment of the principal thereof; and,
3. To meet any indebtedness, as aforesaid, not funded.

And the city council, in making said levy, shall estimate the proportion requisite for each fund, and the same shall be expended, under the direction of the city council, for the purpose aforesaid, and for no other purpose. Said tax shall be levied, assessed, and collected upon all property liable to taxation within such portion and such limits, and so much of the territory of such city as shall be liable therefor under the laws and charters in existence at the time of the organization of such city under this act; and if, by reason of extension of territory, or from any cause, a portion only, or a certain district, of such city be liable, under said laws and charters, for the payment of the bonded and other indebtedness above named, or any portion of either thereof, the city council in levying such tax shall make such levy upon and against the property which is situated and persons who may reside in the territory of such city, liable in each case for the payment of such indebtedness, or any particular class or portion thereof, according to such existing laws and charters. The city council shall also have power to raise annually, by tax upon all the property within the city taxable for state purposes, whatever amount of money may be requisite for the support of free public schools therein, including high schools, and providing and furnishing houses therefor; but the tax provided for in this section shall not exceed thirty-five cents on each one hundred dollars' valuation upon the assessment roll in any one year, and may, in like manner, raise by tax a fund for the establishment and maintenance of a free public library and reading-room; such tax not to exceed, in any one year, the rate of ten cents on each hundred dollars' valuation.

§ 641. It shall be the duty of the city assessor to prepare, between the first day of January and the first Monday in April in each year, and present to the city clerk, with his certificate of its correctness, a list of all the real and personal property within the city on the first day of January taxable for state and county purposes, with a true valuation thereof on the first day of January, which said assessment list shall conform as near as practicable, when not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, to the assessment list required by law to be made by the county assessor for state and county purposes; also, to make all assessments for the improvements of streets as herein or by ordinance provided; to be present at the sessions of all boards of equalization mentioned in this chapter, and to furnish to said board such information as may be required, and to perform such other services in reference to the assessments of property in the city or otherwise appertaining to his office as the city council by ordinance or resolution may require. During the session of the board of equalization the city assessor shall enter upon the assessment list all the changes and corrections made by the board, and may assess and add to such list any property in such city not previously assessed. In the assessment and listing of property for taxation, and in the collection of tax upon personal property not secured by lien upon real estate, he shall have and may exercise the same powers as are conferred by law upon county assessors, and shall receive therefor the same fees and compensation. He shall receive a salary to be fixed by the city council, which shall not exceed five hundred dollars per annum. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 371.]

§ 642. The city council, or a committee of their number selected for that purpose by the city council, at a meeting thereof to be held on the first Monday of April of each year, shall constitute a board of equalization, and shall, after the assessor shall have completed and handed in his assessment list to the city clerk, and after five days' notice published in some newspaper in such city, hold meetings to hear and determine all complaints respecting the valuation of property as fixed by the assessor in such list, and shall have power, on their own motion, with or without complaint made, to modify and change such valuation in any way they shall deem just and proper; provided, however, that before making any change in any assessment, the board shall notify the person interested by letter, deposited in the post-office or express, post-paid, and addressed to such person, at least three days before action taken, of the day fixed when the matter shall be investigated; provided, further, that no reduction must be made in the valuation of property, unless the party affected thereby, or his agent, makes and files with the board a written application therefor verified by his oath, showing the facts upon which it is claimed such reduction should be made. Any member of said board shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations in the matters before said board, and the sessions of said board shall be held from time to time, as in its notice specified, for the period of two weeks, and no longer.

§ 643. After the board of equalization shall have completed their duties, the city clerk shall add up the columns of valuation, and enter the total valuation of each description of property in the list, and the total value of all property assessed and listed thereon; and thus equalized and added up, the clerk shall, on the first Monday of May thereafter, deliver it to the city council.

§ 644. On the first Monday in May in every year the city council, by an ordinance, shall levy upon all the property in the city taxable by law for state purposes a tax for school purposes, and for the current and general expenses of the city, and, in conformity to the provisions of this chapter, shall levy any and all other taxes by law directed then to be levied or assessed; and, in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, shall levy a tax for the payment of the funded debt upon the property liable therefor. Every tax so levied is made a lien, which shall attach on said day in each year to and against all real property assessed for the amount assessed against it; and if said property be assessed to a wrong person, or by a wrong name, said lien shall in nowise be affected or invalidated, and it shall not be satisfied or removed until the taxes are paid, or the property has absolutely vested in a purchaser under and by reason of a sale for such taxes. Every tax assessed upon personal property is a lien upon the real property of the owner thereof from and after the time of the levy of such tax. The fiscal year shall begin on the first day of January; and the terms "real and personal property" shall have the same meaning as the same terms used in the revenue laws of the state.

§ 645. As soon as the city council have declared and levied the taxes in any year, as in the preceding section provided, the city clerk shall carry out, in a separate money column in the list, the amount of taxes assessed against each individual, firm, company, corporation, or unknown owner, and add and put down the aggregate of all taxes as shown by the list; and as thus carried out, the city clerk shall certify to its correctness, and on or before the third Monday of May thereafter deliver it to the city collector, and shall charge him with the amount of taxes so footed up, and take his receipt therefor.

§ 646. The collector, on receiving the assessment list certified by the clerk, shall proceed to collect the taxes specified therein, and pay over the same into the treasury, taking a receipt thereof [therefor]. For the purpose of collecting the taxes authorized by this chapter, the city collector shall have such powers as are given by the revenue laws of this state to collectors of state and county taxes, so far as the same are applicable. All taxes unpaid at the close of official business on the third Monday of June shall be deemed delinquent, after which time the collector shall receive no money for taxes; and he shall, on said day, enter upon assessment roll a levy upon all property therein assessed the taxes upon which remain unpaid, and shall immediately ascertain the total amount of taxes unpaid, and file in the office of the city clerk a list of all persons and property then owing taxes, verified by his oath, which list shall be known as the delinquent list.

§ 647. On the third Monday in June of each year, at six o'clock p. m., all unpaid taxes are delinquent, and thereafter the collector must collect thereon, for the use of the city, an addition of five per centum.

§ 648. On the first Monday in July of each year, the city collector must deliver to the city clerk a complete delinquent list of all persons and property then owing taxes: and in the list so delivered must be set down in numerical or alphabetical order all matters and things contained in the assessment roll and relating to delinquent persons or property.

§ 649. The city clerk must carefully compare such delinquent list with the assessment roll, and if satisfied that it contains a full and true statement of all taxes due and unpaid, he must foot up the total amount of taxes so remaining unpaid, credit the city collector therewith, and make a final settlement with him of all taxes charged against him on the assessment roll; and must require from him the treasurer's receipt for the full amount of taxes collected.

§ 650. After settlement with the city collector, as prescribed in the preceding section, the city clerk must charge the city collector with the amount of taxes due on the delinquent tax list, with the five per centum added thereto, and within three days thereafter deliver the list, duly certified, to such city collector.

§ 651. On or before the third Monday in July of each year, the city collector must publish the delinquent list, which must contain the names of the persons and a description of property delinquent, and the amount of taxes and costs due, opposite each name and description, with the taxes due on personal property, added to taxes on real estate where the real estate is liable therefor, or the several taxes are due from the same person. To said list must be appended and with it published a notice that unless the taxes delinquent, together with the costs and percentage, are paid, the real property upon which such taxes are a lien will be sold at public auction, and designating therein the time and place of such sale, which must take place in or in front of the city collector's office, and not less than fourteen nor more than twenty-one days from the first publication.

§ 652. Said list must be published three times a week for two successive weeks in some newspaper or supplement thereto published in such city, and when such publication is completed, and before commencing the sale, the city collector must file with the city clerk a copy of the publication, with his affidavit attached thereto, that it is a true copy of the same, and that the publication was made in a newspaper or a supplement thereto, stating the name and place of publication; such affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of all the facts therein stated. The expense of the publication of the delinquent list is to be paid by the city.

§ 653. The city collector must collect, in addition to the taxes due on the delinquent list, and five per centum added thereto, fifty cents on each lot, piece, or tract of land separately assessed, and on each assessment of personal property, one half of which must go to the city, and the other to the city collector, in full for preparing the list.

§ 654. On the day fixed for the sale, or on some subsequent day to which he may have postponed it, of which he must give notice, the city collector, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and three p. m., must commence the sale of the property advertised, commencing at the head of the list, and continuing alphabetically, or in the numerical order of lots and blocks, until completed.

§ 655. He may postpone the day of commencing the sale, or the sale, from day to day; but the sale must be completed within two weeks from the day first fixed.

§ 656. The owner or person in possession of any real estate offered for sale for taxes due thereon may designate, in writing, to the city collector, prior to the sale, what portion of the property he wishes sold, if less than the whole; but if the owner or the possessor does not, then the collector may designate it, and the person who will take the least quantity of the land, or in case an undivided interest is assessed, then the smallest portion of the interest, and pay the taxes and costs due, including fifty cents to the city collector for the duplicate certificate of sale, is the purchaser.

§ 657. After receiving the amount of the taxes and costs, the city collector must make out in duplicate a certificate, dated on the day of sale, stating (when known) the name of the person assessed, a description of the land sold, the amount paid therefor, that it was sold for taxes, giving the amount and year of the assessment, and specifying the time when the purchaser will be entitled to a deed.

§ 658. The certificates must be signed by the collector, and one copy delivered to the purchaser, and the other filed in the office of the county recorder.

§ 660. On filing the certificate with the county recorder, the lien of the city vests in the purchaser, and is only divested by the payment to him, or to the city treasurer for his use, of the purchase money, and fifty per centum thereon.

§ 661. A redemption of the property sold may be made by the owner, or any party in interest within twelve months from the date of the purchase.

§ 662. On receiving the certificate of sale, the recorder must file it, and make an entry in a book similar to that required of the collector. On the presentation of the receipt of the person named in the certificate or of the city treasurer for his use, of the total amount of redemption money, the recorder must mark the word "Redeemed," the date, and by whom redeemed, on the certificate, and in the margin of the book where the entry of the certificate is made.

§ 663. If the property is not redeemed within the time allowed by law for its redemption, the city collector, or his successor in office, must make to the purchaser, or assignee, a deed of the property, reciting in the deed substantially the matters contained in the certificate, and that no person has redeemed the property during the time allowed for its redemption. The collector shall be entitled to receive from the purchaser three dollars for making such deed.

§ 664. The matters recited in the certificate of sale must be recited in the deed, and such deed duly acknowledged or proved is prima facie evidence that:

1. The property was assessed, as required by law;
2. The property was equalized, as required by law;
3. The taxes were levied in accordance with law;
4. The taxes were not paid;

5. At a proper time and place the property was sold, as prescribed by law, and by the proper officer;
6. The property was not redeemed;
7. The person who executed the deed was the proper officer;
8. Where the real estate was sold to pay taxes on personal property, that the real estate belonged to the person liable to pay the tax.

§ 665. Such deed, duly acknowledged or proved, is (except as against actual fraud) conclusive evidence of the regularity of all other proceedings, from the assessment by the assessor, inclusive, up to the execution of the deed, and conveys to the grantee the absolute title to the lands described therein, free from all encumbrances.

§ 666. The assessment roll or delinquent list, or a copy thereof, certified by the city clerk, showing unpaid taxes against any person or property, is prima facie evidence of the assessment, the property assessed, the delinquency, the amount due and unpaid, and that all the forms of law in relation to the assessment and levy of such taxes have been complied with.

ARTICLE V.—EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 670. The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the city. He shall have a general supervision over the several departments of the city government, and over all its interests, shall preside over the city council when present, once in three months submit a general statement of the condition of its various departments, and recommend to the city council such measures as he may deem expedient for the public good, or improvement of the city, its finances, or government. He shall sign all ordinances passed by the city council, if he approves them; if he does not approve, he shall, within eight days after its submission to him, return the same to the city clerk's office, with his objections in writing, and at the first meeting of the city council thereafter the same shall be entered upon their journal, and they shall then reconsider such ordinance, and unless two thirds of the councilmen-elect vote for its passage, it shall not become a law. If the mayor shall not so return any ordinance within eight days, it shall become a law as if he had signed it. He may call special meetings of the city council at any time; he shall do so at the written request of four councilmen, by notifying each member personally, or by a written notice left at his last and usual place of abode, or at his place of business during business hours, stating the purpose of such meeting.

§ 671. The president of the city council shall preside at all its meetings when the mayor is not present; and whenever there is a vacancy in the office of mayor, or he is absent from the city, or unable, from any cause, to discharge the duties of his office, the president shall act as mayor and exercise all his authority and be subject to his duties. He shall countersign all warrants and licenses issued under and by authority of the city, but in his absence or inability to perform said duty, the mayor, or, if he is absent or unable to perform said duty, the president pro tempore, or if none has been elected the chairman of the finance committee, may sign the same.

§ 672. The chief of police, city attorney, city assessor, city clerk, and city collector, and street commissioner may each, with the approval of the city council, only appoint such deputies as may be necessary, by writing, to be filed with the clerk. Each deputy so appointed shall receive for his services a compensation to be fixed by the city council, not exceeding one hundred dollars per month, and shall perform such duties under the direction of his principal as may by said council be prescribed. The principals shall be each responsible for his deputy, and may revoke the appointment at pleasure.

§ 673. The chief of police shall receive a salary which shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, to be determined by the city council.

§ 674. The city treasurer shall receive a salary which shall not exceed the sum of three hundred dollars per annum, to be determined by the city council.

§ 675. It shall be the duty of the city treasurer to receive and safely keep all moneys belonging to such city, from whatever source derived, to place the same to the credit of the different funds to which they properly belong, in a book kept for that purpose; to disburse said moneys by the direction of the city council, and in accordance with the provisions made by them, and the school fund, by the direction of the board of education, under the provisions of this chapter, and to make a report monthly to the city council of the condition of the treasury.

§ 676. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the city to keep the corporate seal and all papers and documents belonging to the city; to file them in his office, under appropriate heads; to attend the sittings of the city council and to keep a journal of their proceedings and records of all their by-laws, resolutions, and ordinances; to sign all warrants and licenses issued in pursuance of the orders and ordinances of the city council, and to affix the corporate seal on such licenses; to keep an accurate account in a suitable book, under the appropriate heads, of expenditures of all orders drawn upon the city treasurer, and all warrants issued in pursuance thereof; also, to keep an account in an appropriate book of all licenses issued, with the names of the persons to whom issued, the date of issue, the time for which the same was granted, and the sums paid therefor, and to perform such other duties as he may be required to perform by the provisions of this act, or by ordinance. He shall receive for his services a salary to be fixed by the city council, not exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars per month.

§ 677. It shall be the duty of the city assessor to prepare the assessment rolls, lists, and books, and to make the assessment of persons and property in said city as required by this chapter; also to make and present all assessments for improvement of streets, or other work of like character. He shall receive a salary, to be fixed by the city council, not exceeding five hundred dollars per annum.

§ 678. The city collector and street commissioner shall collect all taxes, assessments, licenses, wharfage rates, and all other moneys or dues owing, accruing, belonging, or coming to said city, and the same shall pay over monthly to the city treasurer, unless otherwise ordered by the city council. He shall regulate the landing and stationing of all steamers, vessels, boats, or other water-craft, and shall make report to the city council each month. As street commissioner, he shall have the general supervision of all streets, public squares, levees, wharves, sloughs, drains, waterways, bridges, sidewalks, crosswalks, and public buildings, and shall superintend all work, repairs, or improvement thereof or thereon. At the request of the street committee of the city council, he shall make report to them of any of his doings, and shall do and perform all such other duties as may be required of him by ordinance of the city council. As street commissioner of such city, he is hereby authorized, in his official capacity, to make all written contracts, and receive all bonds authorized in this chapter, and to do any other act, either expressed or implied, that pertains to the street department under this chapter. He shall fix the time for the performance of the work under all contracts entered into by him, in accordance with the notice given by the council; and may extend the time so fixed, from time to time, under the direction of said council. All work upon the streets, avenues, or in the matter of sidewalks or bridges, or in the improvement of the public buildings, squares, and places of said city provided for in this chapter, or under the orders or ordinances of the city council of such city, must in all cases be done under the direction and to the satisfaction of the street commissioner, and the materials used shall be such as are required by said commissioner, in accordance with the contracts; and all contracts made therefor must contain this condition, and also express notice that in no case, except when it is otherwise provided in this chapter, will the city be liable for any portion of the expense, and where such expense is defrayed by assessments, in no case for any delinquency of persons or property assessed.

§ 679. The police force of such city shall consist of the chief of police, and such number of policemen as shall from time to time be fixed and determined by the city council.

§ 680. The policemen of such city shall be elected by a police commission, to consist of the mayor, chief of police, and the police judge; and such policemen shall hold office from and after their election to and including the second Monday in January next ensuing after a regular city election, unless sooner removed for cause.

§ 681. The president of the city council, the chairman of the finance committee, and the chairman of the street committee of the city council shall constitute a police trial commission, and such commission shall have power, under rules of procedure to be prescribed by ordinance of such city, to receive, hear, try, and determine all complaints against policemen of such city for violation of official duty, or of any rule, regulation, by-law, or ordinance of such city, and shall have power in such behalf to condemn or acquit, reprimand, suspend, or remove any policeman.

ARTICLE VI.—JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

§ 690. A police court is hereby established in such city, which court shall always be open, except upon non-judicial days, and upon such days may transact criminal business only.

§ 691. The police court of such city shall have jurisdiction of the following public offenses committed within such city:

1. Petit larceny;
2. Assault or battery, not charged to have been committed upon a public officer in the discharge of his official duty or with intent to kill;
3. Breaches of the peace, riots, affrays, committing wilful injury to property, and all misdemeanors punishable by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment;

4. Of proceedings respecting vagrants, loud [lewd] or disorderly persons;

5. Of all proceedings for violation of any ordinance of said city, both civil and criminal; of any and all suits to recover taxes, general or special, levied in such city for city purposes, and of all suits to recover any assessment levied in such city for the improvement of streets, avenues, levees, sidewalks, and public squares, and for the opening or laying out of the same, when the amount of said tax or assessment sought to be collected against the person, firm, or corporation assessed is less than three hundred dollars, provided, no lien upon the property taxed or assessed for the non-payment of the taxes or assessment is sought to be foreclosed by said suit;

6. Of an action for the collection of money due to such city, or from the city to any person, firm, or corporation, when the amount sought to be collected is less than three hundred dollars;

7. Of an action for the breach or violation of any official bond given by any city officer, and for the breach of any contract, and any action for damages in which the city is a party, or is in any way interested, and on all forfeited recognizances given to or for the benefit or in behalf of such city, and upon all bonds given upon any appeal taken from the judgment of said court in any action above named, when the amount claimed, exclusive of cost, is less than three hundred dollars;

8. Of an action for the recovery of personal property belonging to the city when the value of the property, exclusive of the damages for the taking or detention, is less than three hundred dollars;

9. Of an action for the collection of any license required by any ordinance of the city;

10. The police court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings mentioned in this section; and no justice of the peace in such city shall have power to try and decide any cases of the classes mentioned in said section; provided, that any justice of the peace of such city who may be designated in writing by the mayor, or president of the city council thereof, for the purpose, shall have power to preside in and hold the police judge's court of said city in the cases in which the police judge is a party, or in which he is directly interested, or when the judge is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree; and also in the case of the sickness or temporary absence of the judge, or his inability to act from any cause; and in all such cases, and during such sickness, temporary absence, or inability, the justice so designated shall act as police judge, and shall have and exercise all the powers, jurisdiction, and authority which are or may be by law conferred upon said court or judge.

§ 692. The judge of said court shall also have power to hear cases for examination, and may commit and hold the offender to bail for trial in the proper court, and may try, condemn, or acquit, and carry his judgment into execution, as the case may require, according to law; and to punish persons guilty of contempt of court, and shall have power to issue warrants of arrest in cases of a criminal prosecution for the violation of a city ordinance, as well as in case of the violation of the criminal law of the state; also, all subpœnas and all other processes necessary to the full and proper exercise of his powers and jurisdiction in all criminal trials before the police judge for the violation of a city ordinance, as well as in cases of a violation of the criminal law of the state, made triable before such court; the defendant shall be entitled, if demanded by him, to a jury trial, but a trial by jury may be waived by the defendant in all such cases, and upon such waiver the court shall proceed and try the case.

§ 693. The city council shall furnish, for the use of the police court, two dockets; one shall be styled the "City Criminal Docket," in which all criminal cases shall be recorded, and each case shall be alphabetically indexed; the other shall be styled the "City Civil Docket," and it shall contain a record of every civil case which is prosecuted before said court, and each case shall be properly indexed, and in all cases the dockets shall contain all such entries as are required by law to be made in the justice's docket; and in any case commenced or tried before the court the docket must show what duties were performed by each officer, and the amount of fees due to the officer for such services, and the amount of money, if any, collected.

§ 694. Appeals from the police court may be taken to the superior court of the county in all cases cognizable by the said police court, and such appeals shall be taken as in case of appeal from a justice's court.

§ 695. The city attorney of such city shall prosecute all cases for the violation of any lawful order, regulation, or ordinance of the city council, and shall prosecute, conduct, and control all proceedings in cases mentioned in section six hundred and twenty-two of this act, both in the police court and on appeal therefrom to the superior court, but the district attorney shall attend and conduct all proceedings of the nature of a preliminary examination before said police court.

§ 696. In all cases when the police court is authorized to impose a fine or imprisonment, or both, upon persons convicted in said court of any offense triable therein, the said court may sentence the offender to be imprisoned in the city jail, if there be one established by the city council, if not, then until said council shall designate and establish a city jail or prison, may sentence offenders to be imprisoned in the county jail, and in addition to imprisonment, may sentence offenders to be employed to labor in the city, under the direction of the chief of police, and in the manner prescribed by ordinance, for the benefit of the city, during such time of imprisonment, and may, in case of imposing a fine, embrace as a part of the sentence that, in default of the payment of such fine, the defendant shall be imprisoned and required to labor for the benefit of the city as before provided, at the rate of two dollars a day, till such fine is satisfied. Offenders required to labor under the direction of the chief of police shall, until the establishment of a city jail, be returned to the county jail at the end of each day's labor during their term of imprisonment, until a city jail shall be by the city council established. It is hereby made the duty of the officer having the control or charge of the county jail of the county wherein such city is situated, to receive and safely keep all persons imprisoned by any judgment or order of the police court, in accordance with the order of commitment, and to allow those to be removed from the jail under the charge of the chief of police, who are required to labor for the benefit of the city, or whom the police judge may order brought forth for trial, and the keeper of the jail shall in no way be responsible for the safe-keeping of such prisoners while so under the charge of the chief of police.

§ 697. The court shall have a seal, to be provided by the city, and certified transcripts of the police judge's docket and the seal of his court shall be evidence in any court of the state of the contents of the docket; and all warrants, and other processes issued out of said court, and all acts done by said police judge under its seal, shall have the same force and validity, in any part of this state, as though issued or done by any court of record of this state.

§ 698. The police judge shall, on the last Saturday of each month, make to the city council a full report of all the cases tried in his court for that month, in which the city may be interested, and at the same time shall pay into the city treasury all fines and other moneys collected on behalf of the city for such month.

§ 699. The city council of such city shall allow to the police judge an annual salary which shall not exceed the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, and to the chief of police and the several policemen of such city each a salary which shall be fixed by said council. The salaries of the police judge, and chief of police and policemen shall be paid from time to time as other city officers and as the council may determine. The chief of police, or any policeman of such city, is hereby authorized and empowered to serve, execute, and return any and all warrants of arrest, and all processes directed to him by the police judge of said city, and to arrest all persons accused or guilty of the violation of any city ordinance, or of any public offense, and to do and perform all acts and duties which, in criminal cases, any constable of the county may lawfully do, and receive like fees for such services; provided, the city council may, in their discretion, deduct the amount so received, for fees from the monthly salary of such officers, or order the same paid into the city treasury for the use and benefit of the city, as received by said officers respectively; provided, that nothing in this charter shall be construed as authorizing or entitling such officers to charge or receive from such city, or the county wherein situated, any fees or costs in any case whatever, nor shall such city or county be liable to pay any fees or costs to such officers for any service they may render in any action or proceeding, either civil or criminal. The chief of police shall attend the session of the police court when required, supervise and direct the police force of the city, and perform such other duties as may be required by the city council appertaining to the government of the city or the management of its affairs, not especially devolved upon some other officer named in this chapter; and the chief of police, or any policeman, at his discretion, shall serve all notices by this chapter provided to be served, in which the city is in any way interested, and the return of the officer serving shall be evidence of the facts in such return stated, but none of such officers shall serve or execute any civil process, except as provided in this chapter.

§ 700. The justices of the peace in and for the township embracing such city shall have the same powers as the same officers in any justice's court of the county, and shall have and may exercise like powers and authority; provided, however, that no justice of the peace in such city shall have power to conduct or try and decide any proceedings or cases of the classes mentioned in section six hundred and twenty-two of this act; but nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any of the justices in said city from acting as police judge.

§ 701. The interest which any inhabitant of such city may have in a penalty for the breach of a by-law or ordinance of such city shall not disqualify said inhabitant to act as judge, juror, or witness in any prosecution to recover the penalty.

ARTICLE VII.—SCHOOL DEPARTMENT.

§ 710. The board of education of such city shall be elected as in this chapter provided, and shall consist of one superintendent and two trustees from each ward in the city.

§ 711. The superintendent shall be ex officio secretary of the board of education, and shall receive for his services a salary which shall not exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum. He shall report to the city council, annually, on or before the first Monday in January, and at such other times as they may require, all matters pertaining to the expenditures, income, condition, and progress of the public schools of the city during the preceding year, together with such accommodations [recommendations] as he may deem proper, and shall, at the regular meeting of the board of education in June of each year, submit to the board a detailed statement of the amount, as near as may be ascertained, of fuel, blanks, blank-books, apparatus, stationery, and such other articles, materials, or supplies, including books for indigent children, as may be necessary for the use of the city schools and the board for one year following. He shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations concerning any demand upon the treasury payable out of the school fund, or other matters relating to his official duties. [Amendment, Stats. 1885, 134.]

§ 712. The board of education shall, upon the receipt of the statement from the superintendent, as in the preceding section provided, advertise for the space of five successive days in some newspaper published in such city, for sealed proposals for furnishing the articles in said statement specified. Said advertisement shall designate a day after the expiration of the publication aforesaid when said proposals will be considered, at which time the board or a committee thereof by the board for such purpose designated, shall meet and publicly open and declare the proposals received and shall thereupon award the contract therefor to the lowest responsible bidder or bidders, in each case; provided, that all bids may be rejected if deemed too high. Said board may, in their discretion, require a good and sufficient bond with two or more sureties, to be filed by each bidder, in the sum of two hundred dollars, conditioned for the fulfilment of his proposal in case of the acceptance thereof.

§ 713. Subject to and in accordance with the directions and provisions of this chapter, the board of education shall have full power:

1. To establish and maintain public schools, including high school, and fix and alter the boundaries of the district thereof.
2. To employ and dismiss teachers, janitors, and other necessary help, and to fix, alter, allow, and order paid their salaries or compensation, and to employ and pay such mechanics and laborers as may be necessary to carry into effect the powers and duties of the board, and to withhold, for good and sufficient cause, the whole or any part of the salary or wages of any person or persons employed as aforesaid.

3. To make, establish, and enforce all necessary and proper rules and regulations not contrary to law, for the government and progress of the public schools within the city, the pupils therein and the teachers thereof, and for carrying into effect the laws relating to education; also, to establish and regulate the grade of schools, and determine what course of study and mode of instruction shall be used in said schools.

4. To build, alter, repair, rent, and provide school-houses, and the same furnish with lights, water, proper school furniture, apparatus, and school appliances, and to insure any and all school property.

5. To receive, purchase, lease, and hold in fee, in trust for such city, any and all real estate; and to hold in trust any personal property that may have been or may hereafter be acquired for the use and benefit of the public schools of such city.

6. To grade, fence, and improve school lots, and in front thereof to grade, sewer, plank, or pave and repave, and to construct and repair sidewalks.

7. To sue for any and all lots, lands, and property belonging to or claimed by the said school department; and to prosecute and defend all actions at law or in equity necessary to recover and maintain the full enjoyment and possession of said lots, lands, and property, and to employ and pay counsel in such cases.

8. To determine annually the amount of taxation, not exceeding thirty-five cents on each one hundred dollars valuation on the assessment roll, to be raised upon the real and personal property within the city not exempt from taxation, for the establishment and support of free public schools therein; and for carrying into effect all the provisions of law regarding public schools, and the amount so determined by said board of education shall be reported in writing to the city council on or before the first Monday of April of each year; and the said city council are hereby authorized and required to levy and cause to be collected, at the time and in the manner of levying other city taxes, the amount of taxation so determined and reported to them by the said board of education, as school tax, upon all taxable property in the city; and said tax shall be in addition to all other amounts levied for city purposes.

9. To establish regulations for the just and equal disbursement of all moneys belonging to the "Public School Fund."

10. To examine and allow, in whole or in part, every demand payable out of the school fund, or to reject any such demand for good cause, of which the board shall be sole judge.

11. To discharge all legal encumbrances now existing, or which may hereafter exist, upon any school property.

12. To prohibit any child under six years of age from attending the public schools.

13. And generally to do and perform such other acts as may be necessary and proper to carry into force and effect the powers conferred on said board.

14. To use and apply the school fund of the city for the purposes in this section heretofore named, and for no other purpose whatever.

15. To admit non-resident children to any of the departments of the schools of such city upon the payment, at such times as said board may direct, of tuition fee, to be fixed by said board.

§ 714. No teacher shall be employed in any of the public schools of such city without having a certificate of the proper grade, issued under the provisions of this chapter. For the purpose of granting certificates required, the board of education, either as a body or by a board of examination appointed by said board of education, and of which the superintendent shall be president, shall hold examinations of teachers. No certificate shall be issued except to a person who shall have passed a satisfactory examination in such branches as the board may require, and shall have given evidence of good moral character, ability, and fitness to teach. Examinations of teachers must be held semi-annually, at such times as the board may determine.

§ 715. The board may, in its discretion, renew without re-examination the certificate of any person so employed. It shall have power to revoke the certificate of any teacher upon evidence of immoral or unprofessional conduct or incompetency, and shall always have the power to dismiss any and all teachers, and to alter the amount of salary or compensation paid to either or any of them. The board of education may also, without examination, grant certificates and fix the grade thereof to the holders of life diplomas, state educational diplomas, normal school diplomas, state university diplomas, and to the holders of such state and county certificates as were in full force and effect on the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eighty.

§ 716. It shall be the duty of the board of education to visit and examine each school at least once each and every month; to observe, and cause to be observed, such general rules for the regulation and government and instruction of the schools, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, as may be established by the board.

§ 717. The public school fund of such city shall consist of all moneys received from the state and county school fund; of all moneys arising from taxes which shall be levied by the city council for school purposes; of all moneys arising from sale, rent, or exchange of school property, and of such other moneys as may from any source whatever be paid into said school fund; which fund shall be kept separate and distinct from all other moneys, and shall only be used for school purposes under the provisions of this chapter. No fees or commission shall be allowed or paid for assessing, collecting, keeping, or disbursing of school moneys; and if at the end of the fiscal year any surplus remains in the school fund, such surplus money shall be carried forward to the school fund of the next fiscal year, and no part of the school fund shall be for any purpose or in any manner whatever diverted or withdrawn from said fund, except as in this chapter provided.

§ 718. All claims payable out of the school fund shall be filed with the secretary of the board, and shall be approved by a majority of all the members of the board, and certificate of such approval shall be indorsed thereon; whereupon the secretary of said board shall draw a warrant upon the city treasurer for the payment thereof, which warrant shall be countersigned by the superintendent. All demands for salaries of teachers and compensation of janitors shall be payable monthly in the same manner without presentation of claims therefor.

§ 719. All demands authorized by this article, and by the board approved as aforesaid, shall be paid by the city treasurer from the school fund upon the presentation of the warrants therefor; provided, that the board of education shall not, without the consent of the city council first had, have power to create any debts or liability in any one year to exceed the actual revenue or available means in the city treasury under the control of the board, and justly applicable for school purposes for such year.

CHAPTER VI.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS OF THE FIFTH CLASS.

(A charter for cities having a population of more than three thousand and not exceeding ten thousand.)

ARTICLE I.—GENERAL POWERS.

§ 750. Every municipal corporation of the fifth class shall be entitled the city of —— (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever; shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the city authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit.

ARTICLE II.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO OFFICERS.

§ 751. The government of said city shall be vested in a board of trustees, to consist of five members; a board of education, to consist of five members; and whenever a free public library and reading-room is established therein, five trustees thereof; a recorder; a treasurer; a clerk; an attorney; a marshal; an assessor, and such subordinate officers as are hereinafter provided for; provided, that the board of trustees may, in its discretion, by an ordinance adopted, published and recorded as required for general ordinances, at least thirty days before a general city election, at which city officers are to be elected, unite and consolidate certain offices, by declaring:

1. The city marshal elected shall be ex officio superintendent of streets and health officer;

2. The city clerk elected shall be ex officio recorder and assessor;

3. The city treasurer elected shall be ex officio city tax collector and license-tax collector;

4. The city attorney elected shall be ex officio city clerk. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 70.]

§ 752. The members of the board of trustees, and of the board of education, and the city clerk, city attorney, assessor, marshal, treasurer, and recorder shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city at a general municipal election, to be held therein on the second Monday in April, nineteen hundred and three, and on the second Monday in April of each fourth year thereafter and shall hold office for the period of four years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, that a general municipal election shall be held in said city on the second Monday in April, nineteen hundred and five, for the election of successors to the members of the board of trustees and of the board of education whose terms of office expire during said year, and said successors shall hold office for the period of two years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The board of trustees may in their discretion appoint a poundmaster, also a superintendent of streets, and a city engineer, all of whom shall hold office during the pleasure of the board. [Amendment, Stats. 1903, 40.]

§ 753. The clerk, treasurer, city attorney, and marshal shall, respectively, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, each execute a bond to such city in such penal sum as the board of trustees by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is made by this chapter ex officio incumbent. Such bonds shall be approved by the board of trustees. All bonds, when approved, shall be filed with the clerk, except the bond of the clerk, which shall be filed with the president of the board of trustees. All the provisions of any law of this state relating to the official bonds of officers shall apply to such bonds except as herein otherwise provided. Every officer of such city, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and file with the clerk the constitutional oath of office.

§ 754. Any vacancy occurring in any of the offices provided for in this act shall be filled by appointment by the board of trustees; but if such office be elective, such appointee shall hold office only until the next regular election, at which time a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term. In case a member of the board of trustees is absent from the city for the period of ninety days, unless by permission of the board of trustees, his office shall by the board be declared vacant, and the same filled as in case of other vacancies.

§ 755. The members of the board of trustees shall receive no compensation whatever, except while acting as a board of equalization. The treasurer, assessor, marshal, clerk, and recorder shall severally receive at stated times a compensation to be fixed by ordinance, by the board of trustees, which compensation shall not be increased or diminished after their election, or during their several terms of office. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the board of trustees from fixing such several amounts of compensation, in the first instance, during the term of office of any such officer, or after his election. The compensation of all other officers shall be fixed from time to time by the board of trustees. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 389.]

§ 756. All elections in such city shall be held in accordance with the general election laws of the state, so far as the same may be applicable, and no person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county, enrolled upon the great register thereof, and shall have resided in such city for at least thirty days next preceding such election. The board of trustees shall give such notice of each election as may be prescribed by ordinance, shall appoint boards of election, and fix their compensation, and establish election precincts and polling-places, and may change the same; provided, that no part of any ward less than the whole thereof shall be attached to any other ward, or part thereof, in forming election precincts. At any municipal election the last printed great register of the county shall be used, and any elector whose name is not upon such printed register shall be entitled to vote, upon producing and filing with the board of election a certificate, under the hand and official seal of the county clerk, showing that his name is registered and uncanceled upon the great register of such county, provided that he is otherwise entitled to vote.

§ 757. No person shall be eligible to or hold any office in such city, whether filled by election, or appointment, unless he be a resident and elector therein, and shall have resided in such city for one year next preceding the date of such election or appointment.

§ 758. The trustees of any free public library created or existing in such city under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to establish free public libraries and reading-rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city, at a general municipal election to be held therein on the second Monday in April next succeeding the passage and approval of this act, and shall hold office for the period of four years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. In case a vacancy shall occur in the office of trustee of such free public library and reading-room, the board of trustees of said free public library and reading-room shall choose a person to fill such vacancy, who shall serve until the next general municipal election, when, if the term does not then expire, a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term. [Amendment, Stats. 1897, 403.]

ARTICLE III.—LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 760. The board of trustees shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the date of said general municipal election, shall take the oath of office, shall choose one of their number president, and shall hold regular meetings at least once in each month, at such times as they shall fix by ordinance. Special meetings may be called at any time by the president of the board or by three trustees, by written notice delivered to each member at least three hours before the time specified for the purposed meeting. All meetings of the board of trustees shall be held within the corporate limits of the city, at such place as may be designated by ordinance, and shall be public.

§ 761. At any meeting of the board of trustees, a majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time, and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The president of the board shall preside at all meetings of the board, and in case of his absence, the board may appoint a president pro tempore; and in case of the absence of the clerk, the president or president pro tempore shall appoint one of the members of the board clerk pro tempore.

§ 762. The board of trustees shall judge of the qualifications of its members and of all election returns, and determine contested elections of all city officers.

They may establish rules for the conduct of their proceedings, and punish any member, or other person, for disorderly behavior at any meeting. They shall cause the clerk to keep a correct journal of all their proceedings, and, at the desire of any member, shall cause the ayes and noes to be taken on any question, and entered on the journal.

§ 763. No resolution granting any franchise, and no ordinance for any purpose, shall be passed by the board of trustees on the day of its introduction, nor within five days thereafter, nor at any other than a regular meeting, or an adjourned regular meeting, and no such resolution and no ordinance granting any franchise shall be passed without being first submitted to the city attorney. No resolution or order for the payment of money shall be passed at any other than a regular meeting, or an adjourned regular meeting, and no resolution or order for the payment of money, no resolution granting a franchise, and no ordinance for any purpose, shall have any validity or effect unless passed by the affirmative vote of at least three trustees. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 389.]

§ 764. The board of trustees of such city shall have power:

1. To pass ordinances not in conflict with the constitution and laws of this state, or of the United States.

2. To purchase, lease, or receive such real estate and personal property as may be necessary or proper for municipal purposes, and to control, dispose of, and convey the same for the benefit of the city; provided, that they shall not have any power to sell or convey any portion of any water front; but may rent such water front for a term not exceeding ten years for the purpose of erecting bath-houses thereon.

3. To contract for supplying the city with water and electric or other lights for municipal purposes; to purchase, lease, or construct waterworks, and electric plants, subject to the proviso in this subdivision contained, and all power, machinery, conductors, and appliances necessary therefor, and to supply said city with, and to sell to the inhabitants thereof, water, light, heat, and power; provided, that no such purchase or lease shall be made unless the question of acquiring such property is submitted to the voters of such city in the same manner as other propositions, at a general or special municipal election, and a majority of the electors, voting at such election, shall vote in favor of such proposition.

4. To establish, build and repair bridges; to establish, lay out, alter, keep open, open, improve and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares, and other public highways and places within the city, and to drain, sprinkle, oil, and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, macadamize, gravel and curb the same in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks, and crosswalks therein, or upon any part thereof, to cause to be planted, set out, and cultivated, shade trees therein; and generally to manage and control all such highways and places.

5. To establish, construct and maintain drains and sewers, and to provide by ordinance for a general system of sewers, and the expense of building and maintaining the same.

6. To provide fire-engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fires.

7. To impose on and collect from every male inhabitant between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, an annual street poll-tax, not exceeding two dollars, and no other road poll-tax shall be collected within the limits of such city; provided that any member of a volunteer fire company in such city shall be exempt from such tax.

8. To impose and collect an annual license, not exceeding two dollars on every dog owned or harbored within the limits of the city.

9. To levy and collect annually a property tax, which shall be apportioned as follows: For the general fund, not exceeding sixty cents on each one hundred dollars; for street fund, not exceeding thirty cents on each one hundred dollars; for school fund, not exceeding twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars; for sewer fund, not exceeding ten cents on each one hundred dollars. The levy for all purposes for any one year for all purposes to which such funds are applicable shall not exceed one dollar on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property within such city.

10. To license, for purposes of regulation and revenue, all and every kind of business, including the sale of intoxicating liquors, authorized by law and transacted or carried on in such city, and all shows, exhibitions, and lawful games carried on therein; to fix the rates of license upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise.

11. To improve the rivers and streams flowing through such city, or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten, and deepen the channels thereof, and to remove obstructions therefrom; to improve the water front of the city, and to construct and maintain embankments and other works to protect such city from overflow.

12. To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes.

13. To permit, under such restrictions as they may deem proper, the laying of railroad tracks and the running of cars drawn by horses, steam, electricity, or other power thereon, and the laying of gas or water pipes in the public streets, and to construct and maintain, and to permit the construction and maintenance of telegraph, telephone, and electric light lines therein.

14. In its discretion to divide the city, by ordinance, into a convenient number of wards, not exceeding five, to fix the boundaries thereof, and to change the same from time to time; provided, that no change in the boundaries of any ward shall be made within sixty days next before the date of said general municipal election, nor within twenty months after the same shall have been established or altered. Whenever such city shall be so divided into wards, the board of trustees shall designate by ordinance the number of trustees to be elected from each ward, apportioning the same in proportion to the population of such ward; and thereafter the trustees so designated shall be elected by the qualified electors resident in such ward, or by the general vote of the whole city, as may be designated in such ordinance.

15. To appoint and remove such policemen and such other subordinate officers as they may deem proper, and to fix their duties and compensation.

16. To impose fines, penalties, and forfeitures for any and all violation of ordinances, and for any breach or violation of any ordinance to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both, but no such fine shall exceed three hundred dollars, nor the term of such imprisonment exceed three months.

17. To cause all persons imprisoned for violation of any ordinance to labor on the streets, or other property or works within the city.

18. To establish fire limits, and the same to alter at pleasure; to regulate or prevent the erection of wooden or other buildings or structures of combustible materials; to regulate the construction of all buildings, sheds, awnings, signs, or any structure of a dangerous or unsafe character; to provide, by regulation, for the prevention and summary removal of all filth and garbage in the streets, sloughs, alleys, back yards or public grounds of such city, or elsewhere therein; to regulate or prohibit the storage of gunpowder and combustible or explosive materials of every kind and nature within the city limits, and to prescribe the limits in which the same may be kept or stored.

19. To do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and to exact and enforce within the limits of such city all other local, police, sanitary, and other regulations as do not conflict with general laws. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 45.]

§ 765. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "The board of trustees of the city of ——— do ordain as follows." Every ordinance shall be signed by the president of the board of trustees, attested by the clerk, and published at least once in a newspaper published in such city, or printed and posted in at least three public places therein. It shall not be necessary in any action, civil or criminal, to plead or prove the organization or existence of such corporation, nor the passage, existence, or validity of any ordinance thereof; and courts shall take judicial cognizance thereof without proof. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 389.]

§ 766. All demands against such city, except as otherwise by law provided, shall be presented to and audited by the board of trustees, in accordance with such regulations as they may by ordinance prescribe; and upon the allowance of any such demand, the president of the board shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the same, which warrant will be countersigned by the clerk, and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn, and out of what fund it is to be paid. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 389.]

§ 767. The board of trustees shall not create, audit, allow, or permit to accrue any debt or liability in excess of the available money in the treasury that may be legally apportioned and appropriated for such purposes, except in the manner provided by law for incurring indebtedness; provided, that any city during the first year of its existence under this act may incur such indebtedness or liability as may be necessary, not exceeding in all the income or revenue provided for it for such year; nor shall any warrant be drawn, or evidence of indebtedness be issued, unless there be at the time sufficient money in the treasury legally applicable to the payment of the same, except as hereinbefore provided. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 389.]

§ 768. If at any time the board of trustees shall deem it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purposes for which such indebtedness is to be incurred, they shall give notice of a special election by the qualified electors of the city, to be held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred. Such notice shall specify the amount of indebtedness proposed to be incurred; the purpose or purposes if the question of indebtedness for more than one purpose be proposed of the same, and the amount of money necessary to be raised annually by taxation for an interest and sinking fund as hereinafter provided; provided, that such interest shall not be in excess of seven per centum per annum. Such notice shall be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper published in such city, and no other question or matter shall be submitted to the electors at such election. If, upon the canvass of the votes cast at such election, it appears that not less than two thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the board of trustees to pass an ordinance providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness and of paying the same; and in such ordinance provision shall be made for the levy and collection of an annual tax upon all the real and personal property subject to taxation within such city, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due; and also, to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof within a period of not more than twenty years from the time of contracting of the same. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees, in each year thereafter, at the time at which taxes are levied, to levy a tax sufficient for such purposes in addition to the taxes by this chapter authorized to be levied. Such tax when collected shall be kept in the treasury as a separate fund, or funds, in case indebtedness be incurred for different purposes, to be inviolably appropriated to the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 371.]

[At the same session another amendment of § 763 (Stats. 1889, 397) was as follows: "If at any time the board of trustees shall deem it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purposes for which such indebtedness is to be incurred, they shall give notice of a special election by the qualified electors of the city, to be held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred. Such notice shall specify the amount of indebtedness proposed to be incurred, the purpose or purposes (if the question of indebtedness for more than one purpose be proposed) of the same, and the amount of money necessary to be raised annually by taxation for an interest and sinking fund for each purpose, as hereinafter provided. Such notice shall be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper published and circulated in such city; and no other question or matter shall be submitted to the electors at such election. If, upon a canvass of the votes cast at such election, it appears that not less than two thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election, or if more than one proposition is submitted, voting on such proposition, shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the board of trustees to pass an ordinance providing for the work of creating such indebtedness and of paying the same; and in such ordinance provision shall be made for the levy and collection of an annual tax upon all the real and personal property subject to taxation within such city, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due; and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof within a period of not more than twenty years from the time of contracting the same. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees in each year thereafter, at the time at which other taxes are levied, to levy a tax sufficient for such purposes in addition to the taxes by this chapter authorized to be levied. Such tax, when collected, shall be kept in the treasury as a separate fund, or funded if indebtedness be incurred for different purposes, to be inviolably appropriated to the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness.”]

§ 769. The violation of any ordinance of such city shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted by the authorities of such city in the name of the people of the state of California, or may be redressed by civil action, at the option of said authorities. Any person sentenced to imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance may be imprisoned in the city jail, or, if the board of trustees shall by ordinance so prescribe, in the county jail of the county in which such city may be situated; in which case the expense of such imprisonment shall be a charge in favor of such county against such city. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 72.]

§ 770. Every act or thing done or being within the limits of such city, which is or may be declared by law or by any ordinance of such city to be a nuisance, shall be and is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be considered and treated as such in all actions and proceedings whatever; and all remedies which are or may be given by law for the prevention and abatement of nuisances shall apply thereto.

§ 771. The board of trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to order any work authorized by this chapter to be done upon the streets, avenues, highways and public places of such city. The cost and expense incurred therefor shall be paid as follows, to wit: The expense or cost of improving and repairing streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares, and other public highways and places within the city, removing obstructions therefrom; grading, paving, macadamizing, graveling, and curbing the same, and constructing gutters, culverts, and sidewalks therein, shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed for the full debt thereof in proportion to the benefits upon the property to be benefited, sufficient to cover the total expense of the work to the center of the street on which it fronts, provided, that the board of trustees may expend from the general fund for said purposes a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars on any one street in any one year. The expense of all improvements in the space formed by the junction of two or more streets, or where one main street terminates in or crosses another main street, and also all necessary street crossings, or crossways at corners or intersection of streets, and the expense of establishing, building, and repairing bridges in such city, shall be paid by such city. The expense incurred in making and repairing sewers in any streets shall be paid, one fourth by the owner of the lands on one side of said street, one fourth by the owner of the land on the other side of said street, and one half by the city out of the sewer fund. In all the streets constituting the water front of such city, or bounded on the one side by the property thereof, the expense of work done on that portion of said streets, from the center line thereof to the said water front, or to such property of the city bounded thereon, shall be paid for by such city; but no contract for any such work shall be given, except to the lowest responsible bidder, and in the manner hereinafter provided. When any work or improvements mentioned in this section is done or made on one side of the center line of said streets, avenues, or public highways, the lots or portions of lots fronting on that side only shall be assessed to cover the expenses of said work, according to the provisions of this chapter. Whenever any expenses or cost of work shall have been assessed on any lands, the amount of said expenses shall become a lien upon said lands, which shall take precedence of all other liens, and which may be foreclosed in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure. Said suit shall be in the name of the city of (naming it), as plaintiff. Upon the filing of a complaint in the superior court to enforce a lien of any kind hereon, the plaintiff shall be entitled, if a recovery is had or the money is paid, to include as costs the sum of twenty-five dollars as attorney's fees.

§ 772. Whenever it shall become necessary for the city to take or damage private property for the purpose of establishing, laying out, extending, and widening streets and other public highways and places within the city, or for the purpose of rights of way for drains, sewers, and aqueducts, and for the purpose of widening, straightening, or diverting the channels of streams, and the improvement of water fronts, and the board of trustees cannot agree with the owner thereof as to the price to be paid, the trustees may direct proceedings to be taken under section twelve hundred and thirty-seven, and following sections, to and including section twelve hundred and sixty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure, to procure the same.

§ 773. The board of trustees shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to provide by ordinance a system for the assessment, levy, and collection of all city taxes not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. All taxes shall be collected by the marshal or treasurer, as may be determined by the board of trustees by ordinance. All taxes assessed, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the cost of collection, shall constitute liens on the property assessed; every tax upon the personal property shall be a lien upon the real property of the owner thereof. The liens provided for in this section shall attach as of the first Monday in March of each year, and may be enforced by a sale of the real property affected, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such liens; provided, that any property sold for such taxes shall be subject to redemption within five years and upon the terms provided or that may hereafter be provided for the redemption of property sold for state taxes. All deeds made upon any sale of property for taxes or special assessments under the provisions of this chapter shall have the same force and effect in evidence as is or may hereafter be provided by law for deeds for property sold for non-payment of state taxes. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 88, but see § 871 post and note.]

§ 774. The board of trustees shall meet at their usual place of holding meetings on the second Monday of August of each year, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, and sit as a board of equalization, and shall continue in session from day to day until all the returns of the assessor have been rectified. They shall have power to hear complaints, and to correct, modify, or strike out any assessment made by the assessor, and may, of their own motion, raise any assessment, upon notice to the party whose assessment is to be raised. The corrected list for each tax shall be the assessment roll for said tax for said year. It shall be certified by the city clerk, who shall act as clerk of the board of equalization, as being the assessment roll for said tax, and shall be the assessment roll upon which such tax is to be levied in said year.

§ 775. Nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to prevent any city having a bonded indebtedness, contracted under laws heretofore passed, from levying and collecting such taxes for the payment of such indebtedness, and the interest thereon, as are provided for in such laws, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected; nor to prevent any city from levying and collecting the tax authorized by the act entitled "An act to establish free public libraries and reading-rooms," approved April twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected. All moneys received from licenses, street poll-tax, and from fines, penalties, and forfeitures, shall be paid into the general fund.

§ 776. The board of trustees may also levy, and cause to be collected in each year, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected, a tax, not exceeding ten cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of all real and personal property within such city subject to taxation, the proceeds of which tax shall be known as the "River and Water Front Improvement Fund," and shall be applied to the improvement of streams, bays, and water fronts, and the erection of embankments and other works to protect the city from overflow, and for no other purposes whatever.

§ 777. In the erection, improvement, and repair of all public buildings and works, in all street and sewer work, and in all work in or about streams, bays, or water fronts, or in or about embankments, or other works for protection against overflow, and in furnishing any supplies or materials for the same, when the expenditure required for the same exceeds the sum of one hundred dollars, the same shall be done by contract, and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in such city, for at least two weeks, or if there be no newspaper printed or published therein, by printing and posting the same in at least four public places therein for the same period. Such notice shall distinctly and specifically state the work contemplated to be done; provided, that the board of trustees may reject any and all bids presented, and readvertise, in their discretion. The board of trustees shall annually, at a stated time, contract for doing all city printing and advertising, which contract shall be let to the lowest bidder, after notice, as provided in this section, and the contract therefor shall be awarded separately from all other printing. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 54.]

§ 778. The president of the board of trustees shall preside over all meetings of the board at which he is present. In his absence a president pro tempore may be chosen. The president, and in his absence the president pro tempore, shall sign all warrants drawn on the city treasurer, and, unless otherwise provided by said board, shall sign all written contracts entered into by said city, as such president or president pro tempore. The authority and power of the president pro tempore shall continue only during the day on which he is chosen. The president and president pro tempore shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, and take affidavits and certify the same under their hands. The president or president pro tempore shall sign all conveyances made by said city, and all instruments which shall require the seal of the city. The president is authorized to acknowledge the execution of all instruments executed by said city that require to be acknowledged. He shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations concerning any demand upon the treasury, and in all matters relating to the duties of the board of trustees, and to witnesses examined in any investigation had by said board, or by any committee thereof duly authorized to make such investigation. Said president may issue subpoenas under his hand and the seal of such city, attested by the city clerk to compel the attendance of witnesses before such board of trustees or committee thereof. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 389.]

ARTICLE IV.—EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 786. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive and safely keep all moneys which shall come into his hands as city treasurer, for all of which he shall give duplicate receipts, one of which shall be filed with the city clerk. He shall pay out said money on warrants signed by the proper officers, and not otherwise, except interest coupons on bonds. He shall make quarterly settlements with the city clerk. He shall collect all taxes levied by the board of trustees, if so required by ordinance. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 389.]

§ 787. It shall be the duty of the assessor, between the first day of May and the first day of August in each year, to make out a true list of all the taxable property within the city. The mode of making out of said list, and proceedings relating thereto, shall be in conformity with laws now in force regulating county assessors, except as the same may be otherwise provided in this act, or by ordinance. Said list shall describe the property assessed and the value thereof, and shall contain all other matters required to be stated in such lists by county assessors. Said assessor shall verify said list by his oath, and shall deposit the same with the city clerk, on or before the first Monday of August in each year. The assessor shall, during said time, also make a list of all male persons residing within the limits of such city over the age of twenty-one years, and shall verify said list by his oath, and shall, on or before the first Monday of August in each year, deposit the same with the city clerk. Said assessor and his deputy shall have power to administer all oaths and affirmations necessary in the performance of his duties.

§ 788. It shall be the duty of the city clerk to keep a full and true record of all the proceedings of the board of trustees and of the board of equalization. The proceedings of the board of trustees shall be kept in a book, marked "Records of the Board of Trustees." The proceedings of the board of equalization shall be kept in a separate book, marked "Records of the Board of Equalization." He shall keep a book, which shall be marked "City Accounts," in which shall be entered as a credit all moneys received by the city for licenses, the amount of any tax when levied, and all other moneys received; and in which shall be entered upon the debtor side all commissions deducted, and all warrants drawn on the treasury. He shall also keep a book, marked "Marshal's Account," in which he shall charge the city marshal with all the tax lists, if any, delivered to him, and all licenses delivered to him. He shall credit the marshal with the delinquent lists returned by him. He shall also keep a book, marked "Treasurer's Account," in which he shall keep a full account of the transactions of the city with the treasurer. He shall also keep a book, marked "City Licenses," in which he shall enter all licenses delivered by him to the marshal, and the amount thereof. He shall also keep a book, marked "City Ordinances," into which he shall copy all city ordinances, with his certificate annexed to said copy, stating the foregoing ordinance is a true and correct copy of an ordinance of such city, and giving the number and title of said ordinance, and stating that the same has been published or posted according to law. Said record copy, with said certificate, or the original ordinance, shall be prima facie evidence of the contents of the ordinance and of the due passage and publication of the same, and shall be admissible as such evidence in any court or proceeding. Said records shall not be filed in any case, but shall be returned to the custody of the city clerk. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the proof of the passage and publication of ordinances in the usual way. Each of the foregoing books, except the records of the board of trustees and the board of equalization, shall have a general index, sufficiently comprehensive to enable a person readily to ascertain matters contained therein. The city clerk shall also keep a book, marked "Demands and Warrants," in which he shall note every demand against the city, and file the same. He shall state therein, under the note of the demands, the final disposition made of the same; and if the same is allowed and a warrant is drawn, he shall also state the number of the warrant, with sufficient dates. This books shall contain an index, in which reference shall be made to each demand. Upon the completion of the assessment roll for any of the taxes of the city, and levying of the tax thereon, the city clerk shall apportion the taxes upon such assessment roll, and shall deliver it to the officer charged with the duty of collecting taxes. It shall not be necessary to make a duplicate assessment roll. He may appoint a deputy, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible; and he and his deputy shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, to take affidavits and depositions to be used in any court or proceeding in the state, and to certify the same. He and his deputy shall take all necessary affidavits to demands against the city, and certify the same without charge. He shall be the custodian of the seal of such city. He shall make a quarterly statement, in writing, showing the receipts and expenditures of the city for the preceding quarter, and the amount remaining in the treasury. He shall, at the end of every fiscal year, make a full and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year, and a full statement of the financial condition of the affairs of the city, which shall be published. He shall perform such other services as this act and the ordinances of the board of trustees shall require. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 389.]

§ 789. It shall be the duty of the city attorney to advise the city authorities and officers in all legal matters pertaining to the business of said city and to render such other services in the line of his profession as may be required of him by the board of trustees. [Amendment, Stats. 1889, 389.]

§ 790. The department of police of said city shall be under the direction and control of the city marshal; and for the suppression of any riot, public tumult, disturbance of the peace, or resistance against the laws or public authorities in the lawful exercise of their functions, he shall have the powers that are now or may hereafter be conferred upon sheriffs by the laws of the state, and shall, in all respects, be entitled to the same protection; and his lawful orders shall be promptly executed by deputies, police officers, and watchmen in said city, and every citizen shall also lend him aid, when required, for the arrest of offenders and maintenance of public order. He shall and is hereby authorized to execute and return all process issued and directed to him by any legal authority. It shall be his duty to prosecute before the recorder all breaches or violations of or non-compliance with any city ordinance which shall come to his knowledge. He shall collect all taxes levied by the board of trustees, except as is herein provided. He shall, at the expiration of any month, pay to the city treasurer all taxes and other funds of said city collected by him during said month. He shall, upon payment of the money, file with the treasurer an affidavit, stating that the money so paid is all the taxes or funds that he has collected or received during the preceding month. He shall, upon the receipt of any tax list, give his receipt for the same to the city clerk, and shall, upon depositing with the city clerk the delinquent tax list, take his receipt therefor. He shall receive from the clerk all city licenses and collect the same. He shall have charge of the city prison and prisoners, and of any chain-gang which may be established by the board of trustees. He shall, for service of any process, receive the same fees as constables. He may appoint, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, one or more deputies, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible, whose only compensation shall be fees for the service of process, which shall be the same as those allowed to the city marshal. He may also, with the concurrence of the president of the board of trustees, when the same may be by them deemed necessary for the preservation of public order, appoint additional policemen, who shall discharge the duties assigned them for one day only. He shall perform such other services as this act and the ordinances of the board of trustees shall require, and shall receive such compensation from the city as shall be fixed by ordinance, in addition to such mileage and fees as he shall receive in the service of process of the courts of this state, other than the recorder's court of such city, which mileage and fees shall be the same as is allowed by law to constables in the county in which such city is situated. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 299.]

§ 791. The board of trustees shall, by ordinances not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, prescribe the additional duties of all officers, and fix their compensation.

ARTICLE V.—SCHOOL DEPARTMENT.

§ 795. From and after the organization of each of such cities, the same shall constitute a separate school district, which shall be governed by the board of education of such city; provided the board of supervisors may include more territory in such school district than that included in such city, and in that case such outside territory shall be deemed a part of such city for the purpose of holding the general municipal election and shall be an election precinct by itself and its qualified electors shall vote only for the board of education, and said outside territory shall be deemed to be a part of said city for all matters connected with the school department, and the annual levying and collecting of the property tax for the school fund. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 28.]

§ 796. In case a vacancy shall occur in the office of school director, the board of education shall choose a person to fill such vacancy, who shall serve until the next election, when, if the term does not then expire, a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term.

§ 797. The board of education shall meet on the second Tuesday after such general municipal election, and choose one of its members as president, and shall appoint a secretary, who shall hold at the pleasure of said board. The regular meetings of said board shall thereafter be held as often as once in each month, in the place provided for the board of trustees, and the time for holding such meetings shall be fixed by the board of education. Special meetings of said board may be held when called by written notice, signed by its president, or three of its members, and delivered personally to each of its members who shall not have signed the same. Three members shall constitute a quorum, and no business shall be transacted by said board of education without the concurrence of three of its members; but a majority of the members present at any meeting may adjourn from time to time. All the meetings of said board of education shall be public, and full records of its proceedings shall be kept by the secretary of said board. The members of the board of education shall receive no compensation for their services as school directors. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 114.]

§ 798. The board of education shall have power:

1. To establish and maintain public, primary, kindergarten, grammar, and evening schools, and to subdivide the school districts, and to fix and alter the boundaries of such subdivisions.

2. To employ and dismiss a superintendent of schools, teachers, janitors, truant officers, and school census marshals, and to fix, alter, allow, and order paid their salaries or compensations; and to employ and pay such mechanics and laborers as may be necessary to carry into effect the powers hereby conferred.

3. To make, establish, and enforce all necessary or proper rules and regulations, not in conflict with the laws of this state, for the government and management of public schools within such city, the teachers thereof, and the pupils therein, and for carrying into effect the laws relating to education.

4. To provide for the school department of such city, fuel and lights, water, printing, and stationery, and to incur such other incidental expenses as may be deemed necessary by said board.

5. To build, alter, repair, rent, and provide school-houses, and to furnish the same with proper school furniture, apparatus, and appliances, and to insure any and all school property.

6. To purchase, receive, lease, and hold in fee, in trust for such city, any and all real estate and personal property that may have been acquired, or may hereafter be acquired, for the use and benefit of the schools of such city; provided, that no real estate shall be bought, sold, or exchanged, nor any expenditure incurred for the construction of new school-houses, without the approval of the board of trustees; and provided further, that the proceeds of any such sale or exchange of real estate shall be exclusively applied to the purchase of other lots for the erection of school-houses.

7. To grade, fence, and improve all school lots.

8. To determine annually the amount of money required for the support of the public schools, and for carrying into effect all the provisions of law in reference thereto; and in pursuance of this provision, the board of education shall, at least ten days before the meeting of the board of trustees at which the annual city taxes are levied, submit in writing to the board of trustees a careful estimate of the whole amount of money to be received from the state and county, and of the amount to be required from such city for the above-mentioned purposes; and the amount so found to be required from the city shall, by the board of trustees, be added to the above amounts to be assessed and collected for city purposes, and when collected, the proceeds thereof shall be immediately paid into the school fund of such city, to be drawn out only upon the order of the board of education; provided, that such annual tax shall not exceed twenty-five cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessed valuation of the real and personal property within such city.

9. To establish regulations for the just and equal disbursement of all moneys belonging to the school fund.

10. To discharge all legal encumbrances existing at the time of the incorporation of such city, or thereafter, on any school property within such city.

11. To admit non-resident children, and persons over twenty-one years of age, to any of the departments of the schools of such city, upon the payment monthly, in advance, of such tuition fee as said board may establish.

12. To prohibit any children under six years of age from attending the public schools.

13. To establish and regulate the grades of schools in such city, and the course of study, and the mode of instruction to be pursued therein, and determine what text-books shall be used.

14. To do and perform, in addition to the foregoing powers, such other acts as may be necessary or proper to carry into effect the powers hereby conferred. [Amendment adopted March 14, 1889. Stats. 1889, 98.]

§ 799. The board of education may sue and be sued by their name of office. In any action or judicial proceeding against said board, service of process upon the president, or upon a majority of the members of the board shall be sufficient to give the court jurisdiction to hear and determine the same.

§ 800. All moneys received by the treasurer of the county wherein such city may be situated, on account of the school fund of such city, or the school district consisting of the same, and all sums received into the county treasury, which may be apportioned to said city or district, shall be paid to the treasurer of such city, by the treasurer of such county, as soon as received, or as soon as the apportionment shall be made, when apportionment is necessary, upon the order of the board of education.

§ 801. The president of the board of education shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations concerning any demand upon the treasury, payable out of the school fund, and in all other matters relating to the duties of the board of education, and to witnesses examined in any investigation had by such board of education, or by a committee thereof, duly appointed by it, for that purpose.

§ 802. Said president may issue subpoenas under his hand and the seal of such city, attested by the city clerk, to compel the attendance of witnesses before such board of education, or committee thereof, who shall be entitled to the same fees as witnesses in civil cases, and who may be punished for contempt for non-attendance, or refusal to be sworn, or to answer, by the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated.

§ 803. Every claim payable out of the school fund shall be filed with the secretary of the board of education, and after it shall have been approved by the board a certificate of such approval shall be indorsed thereon, signed by the president and secretary, and a warrant upon the school fund shall be issued thereon for the payment of such claim, which warrant shall be signed by the president of such board, and countersigned by the secretary and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn.

§ 804. The secretary shall report to the board annually, and at such other times as they may require, all matters pertaining to the expense, income, condition, and progress of the public schools of said city during the preceding year, with such recommendations as he may deem proper. He shall observe, and cause to be observed, such general rules and regulations for the government of and instruction in the schools, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, as may be established by the board of education. He shall attend the sessions of the board, and inform them at each session of the condition of the public schools, school-houses, school funds, and other matters connected therewith, and recommend such measures as he may deem necessary for the advancement of education in the city, and shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by the board. He shall receive as compensation for his services, payable out of the school fund, such sum as the board of education from time to time may allow.

ARTICLE VI.—JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

§ 806. A recorder's court is hereby established in such city, to be held by the recorder of such city, provided, that the provisions of this section as to the establishment of recorder's courts and recorders in such city shall not apply to any such city in which a city justice's court or a city justice of the peace is now or may hereafter be established, and any recorder's court now existing in any such last-mentioned city is hereby abolished. Said recorder's court shall have jurisdiction, concurrently with the justice's courts, of all actions and proceedings, civil and criminal, arising within the corporate limits of such city, and which might be tried in such justice's court; and shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city, of all actions founded upon any obligation or liability created by any ordinance, and of all prosecutions for any violation of any ordinance. In all civil actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city, where the fine, penalty or forfeiture imposed by the ordinance is not more than fifty dollars, the trial must be by the court, in civil actions where the fine, penalty or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city is over fifty dollars, the defendant is entitled to a jury. Except as in this section otherwise provided, the rules of practice and mode of proceeding in said recorder's court shall be the same as are or may be prescribed by law for justices' courts in like cases, and appeals may be taken to the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated, from all judgments of said recorder's court in like manner and with like effect as in cases of appeals from justices' courts. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 72.]

§ 807. The recorder shall be judge of the recorder's court, and shall have the powers and perform the duties of a magistrate. He may administer and certify oaths and affirmations, and take and certify acknowledgments. He shall be entitled to charge and receive for his services such fees as are or may be allowed by law to justices of the peace for like services, except that for his services in criminal prosecution for violation of ordinances he shall be entitled to receive only such monthly salary as the board of trustees shall by ordinance prescribe; which compensation, when once fixed, shall not be altered within two years.

§ 808. In all cases in which the recorder is a party, or in which he is interested, or when he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, or is otherwise disqualified, or in case of sickness or inability to act, the recorder may call in a justice of the peace residing in the city, to act in his place and stead; or if there be no justice of the peace residing in the city, or if all those so residing are likewise disqualified, then he may call in any justice of the peace residing in the county in which such city may be situated.

ARTICLE VII.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§ 810. Every officer collecting or receiving any moneys belonging to or for the use of such city shall settle for the same with the clerk on the first Monday in each month, and immediately pay the same into the treasury, on the order of the clerk, for the benefit of the funds to which such moneys respectively belong.

§ 811. No officer of such city shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with such city, or with any of the officers thereof, in their official capacity, or in doing any work or furnishing any supplies for the use of such city or its officers in their official capacity; and any claim for compensation for work done, or supplies or materials furnished, in which any such officer is interested, shall be void, and if audited and allowed shall not be paid by the treasurer. Any wilful violation of the provisions of this section shall be a ground for removal from office, and shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and punished as such.

§ 812. Every act or thing done or being within the limits of such city, which is or may be declared by law or by any ordinance of such city to be a nuisance, shall be and is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be considered and treated as such in all actions and proceedings whatever; and all remedies which are or may be given by law for the prevention and abatement of nuisances shall apply thereto.

§ 813. The fire department of a city of the fifth class shall consist of companies of volunteer or paid firemen, as the board of trustees may determine, organized into engine, hose, or hook-and-ladder companies. Such fire department, except where the same comprises one or more companies of paid firemen, and such companies of volunteer firemen, shall elect their own officers: but the board of trustees shall appoint the chief and other officers of such department, where the same comprises one or more companies of paid firemen. The election of any person as chief of any such volunteer fire department shall be forthwith certified by the secretary of said department to the board of trustees of such city, and by them at their next regular meeting confirmed. The chief of the fire department shall give a bond to the chairman of the board of trustees of such city, in the sum of one thousand dollars; the chief of every fire department shall inquire into the cause of every fire occurring in the city, and keep a record thereof. He shall have exclusive control of the working of the fire department in time of conflagration or fire. He must aid in the enforcement of all fire ordinances duly enacted, examine buildings in process of erection, report violation of ordinances relating to the prevention and extinguishment of fires when directed by the proper authorities, and institute proceedings therefor, and shall have general control, management, and direction of the fire companies, hose, hook-and-ladder companies, and engine, and fire departments of such city, and shall perform such other duties as may be by ordinances of said city, or by law, imposed upon him. His compensation, which shall not be less than ten dollars per month, must be fixed and paid by the board of city trustees. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 16.]

CHAPTER VII.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS OF THE SIXTH CLASS.

(A charter for cities and towns having a population of not exceeding three thousand.)

ARTICLE I.—GENERAL POWERS.

§ 850. Every municipal corporation of the sixth class shall be entitled the city (or town) of — (naming it), and by such name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued in all courts and places, and in all proceedings whatever; shall have and use a common seal, alterable at the pleasure of the city or town authorities, and may purchase, lease, receive, hold, and enjoy real and personal property, and control and dispose of the same for the common benefit.

ARTICLE II.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO OFFICERS.

§ 851. The government of such city or town shall be vested in a board of trustees, to consist of five members; a clerk, who shall be ex officio assessor; a treasurer; a marshal, who shall be ex officio tax and license collector; a recorder, to be appointed by the board of trustees; and such subordinate officers as are hereinafter provided for. [Amendment, Stats. 1895, 266.]

§ 852. The members of the board of trustees and the clerk, treasurer, and marshal shall be elected by the qualified electors of said city or town at a general municipal election to be held therein on the second Monday in April in each even-numbered year. The clerk, treasurer, and marshal shall hold office for the period of two years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. Members of the board of trustees shall hold office for the period of four years from and after the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, that the first board of trustees elected under the provisions of this act shall, at their first meeting, so classify themselves by lot as that three of their number shall go out of office at the expiration of two years and two at the expiration of four years. The board of trustees may, in their discretion, appoint an attorney, a poundmaster, a superintendent of streets, a civil engineer, and such police and other subordinate officers as in their judgment may be deemed necessary, and fix their compensation, which said officers shall hold office during the pleasure of said board.

§ 853. The clerk, treasurer, and marshal shall, respectively, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, each execute a bond to such city or town in such penal sum as the board of trustees by ordinance may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties, including in the same bond the duties of all offices of which he is made by this chapter ex officio incumbent; such bonds shall be approved by the board of trustees. All bonds, when approved, shall be filed with the clerk, except the bond of the clerk, which shall be filed with the president of the board of trustees. All the provisions of any law of this state relating to the official bonds of officers shall apply to such bonds, except as herein otherwise provided. Every officer of such city, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take and file with the clerk the constitutional oath of office.

§ 854. Any vacancy occurring in any of the offices provided for in this act shall be filled by appointment by the board of trustees; but if such office be elective, such appointee shall hold office only until the next regular election, at which time a person shall be elected to serve for the remainder of such unexpired term. In case a member of the board of trustees is absent from the city for the period of ninety days, unless by permission of the board of trustees, his office shall by the board be declared vacant, and the same filled as in case of other vacancies.

§ 855. The members of the board of trustees shall receive no compensation whatever. The clerk, treasurer, marshal, and recorder shall severally receive, at stated times, a compensation, to be fixed by ordinance by the board of trustees, which compensation shall not be increased or diminished after their election, or during their several terms of office. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the board of trustees from fixing such several amounts of compensation in the first instance, during the term of office of any such officer, or after his election. The compensation of all other officers shall be fixed from time to time by the boards of trustees.

§ 856. All elections in such city or town shall be held in accordance with the general election laws of the state, so far as the same may be made applicable; and no person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county, enrolled upon the great register thereof, and shall have resided in such city for at least thirty days next preceeding such election. The board of trustees shall give such notice of each election as may be prescribed by ordinance, shall appoint boards of election, and fix their compensation, and establish election precincts and polling-places, and may change the same. At any municipal election the last printed great register of the county shall be used, and any elector whose name is not upon such printed register shall be entitled to vote upon producing and filing with the board of election a certificate, under the hand and official seal of the county clerk, showing that his name is registered and uncanceled upon the great register of such county; provided, that he is otherwise entitled to vote.

§ 857. No person shall be eligible to or hold any elective office in such city, unless he be a resident and elector therein, and shall have resided in such city for one year next preceeding the date of such election. [Amendment became a law under constitutional provision without governor's approval, March 14, 1901. Stats. 1901, 293.]

ARTICLE III.—LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

§ 858. The board of trustees shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the date of said general municipal election, shall take the oath of office, shall choose one of their number president, and shall hold regular meetings at least once in each month, at such times as they shall fix by ordinance. Special meetings may be called at any time by the president of the board, or by three trustees, by written notice delivered to each member, at least three hours before the time specified for the proposed meeting. All meetings of the board of trustees shall be held within the corporate limits of the city, at such place as may be designated by ordinance, and shall be public.

§ 859. At any meeting of the board of trustees a majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time, and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as may be prescribed by ordinance. The president of the board shall preside at all meetings of the board, and in case of his absence the board may appoint a president pro tempore; and in case of the absence of the clerk, the president or president pro tempore shall appoint one of the members of the board clerk pro tempore.

§ 860. The board of trustees shall judge of the qualifications of its members and of all election returns, and determine contested elections of all city officers. They may establish rules for the conduct of their proceedings, and punish any member or other person for disorderly behavior at any meeting. They shall cause the clerk to keep a correct journal of all their proceedings, and at the desire of any member shall cause the ayes and noes to be taken on any question, and entered on the journal.

§ 861. No ordinance, and no resolution granting any franchise for any purpose, shall be passed by the board of trustees on the day of its introduction, nor within five days thereafter nor at any other than a regular meeting. No resolution or order for the payment of money shall be passed at any other time than at a regular meeting. And no such ordinance, resolution, or order shall have any validity or effect unless passed by the votes of at least three trustees.

§ 862. The board of trustees of said city shall have power:

1. To pass ordinances not in conflict with the constitution and laws of this state or of the United States.

2. To purchase, lease, or receive such real estate and personal property as may be necessary or proper for municipal purposes, and to control, dispose of, and convey the same for the benefit of the city or town; provided, they shall not have power to sell or convey any portion of any water front.

3. To contract for supplying the city or town with water for municipal purposes, or to acquire, construct, repair, and manage pumps, aqueducts, reservoirs, or other works necessary or proper for supplying water for the use of such city or the inhabitants, or for irrigating purposes therein.

4. To establish, build, and repair bridges; to establish, lay out, alter, keep open, improve, and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares, and other public highways and places within the city or town, and to drain, sprinkle, oil, and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, macadamize, gravel, and curb the same, in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks, and crosswalks therein, or on any part thereof; to cause to be planted, set out, and cultivated, shade trees therein; and generally to manage and control all such highways and places; and in the exercise of the powers herein granted to expend, in their discretion, the ordinary annual income and revenue of the municipality in payment of the costs and expenses of the whole or any part of such work or improvement.

5. To construct, establish, and maintain drains and sewers.

6. To provide fire-engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fires.

7. To impose on and collect from every male inhabitant, between the ages of twenty-one and sixty years, an annual street poll-tax, not exceeding two dollars; and no other road poll-tax shall be collected within the limits of the city.

8. To impose and collect an annual license not exceeding two dollars on every male dog, and four dollars on every female dog owned or harbored within the limits of the city.

9. To levy and collect annually a property tax, which shall not exceed seventy-five cents on each one hundred dollars.

10. To license, for the purpose of revenue and regulation, all and every kind of business authorized by law and transacted and carried on in such city or town, and all shows, exhibitions, and lawful games carried on therein; to fix the rates of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise.

11. To improve the rivers and streams flowing through such city or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten, and deepen the channels thereof, and remove obstructions therefrom; to improve the water front of the city; to construct and maintain embankments and other works, to protect such city from overflow; and to acquire, own, construct, maintain, and operate on any lands bordering on any navigable bay, lake, inlet, river, creek, slough, or arm of the sea within the corporate limits of such city or contiguous thereto, wharves, chutes, piers, breakwaters, bath-houses, and life-saving stations.

12. To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes.

13. To acquire, own, construct, maintain, and operate street railways, telephone and telegraph lines, gas and other works for light and heat; public libraries, museums, gymnasiums, parks, and baths, and to permit under such restrictions as they may deem proper, the laying of railroad tracks and the running of cars drawn by horses, steam, or other power thereon, and the laying of gas and water pipes in the public streets, and to permit the construction and maintenance of telegraph and telephone lines therein.

14. To impose fines, penalties, and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances; and for any breach or violation of any ordinance; to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both; but no such fine shall exceed three hundred dollars, nor the term of imprisonment exceed three months.

15. To cause all persons imprisoned for violation of any ordinance to labor on the streets, or other public property, or works within the city.

16. To establish and maintain fire limits, and to regulate building and construction within the municipality.

17. To do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this act. [Amendment, Stats. 1903, 93.]

§ 863. The enacting clause of all ordinances shall be as follows: "The board of trustees of the city (or town) of —— do ordain as follows." Every ordinance shall be signed by the president of the board of trustees, attested by the clerk, and published at least once in a newspaper published in such city or town, or printed and posted in at least three public places therein.

§ 864. All demands against such city or town shall be presented to and audited by the board of trustees, in accordance with such regulations as they may by ordinance prescribe; and upon the allowance of any such demand, the president of the board shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the same, which warrant shall be countersigned by the clerk, and shall specify for what purpose the same is drawn, and out of what fund it is to be paid.

§ 865. The board of trustees shall not create, audit, allow, or permit to accrue, any debt or liability in excess of the available money in the treasury that may be legally apportioned and appropriated for such purposes; provided, that any city or town during the first year of its existence under this act may incur such indebtedness or liability as may be necessary, not exceeding in all the income and revenue provided for it in such year; nor shall any warrant be drawn, or evidence of indebtedness be issued, unless there be at the time sufficient money in the treasury legally applicable to the payment of the same, except as hereinafter provided.

§ 866. If at any time the board of trustees shall deem it necessary to incur any indebtedness in excess of the money in the treasury applicable to the purpose for which such indebtedness is to be incurred, they shall give notice of a special election by the qualified electors of the city or town, to be held to determine whether such indebtedness shall be incurred. Such notice shall specify the amount of indebtedness proposed to be incurred, the purpose or purposes of the same, and the amount of money necessary to be raised annually, by taxation, for an interest and sinking fund, as hereinafter provided. Such notice shall be published for at least two weeks in some newspaper published in such city or town; and no other question or matter shall be submitted to the electors at such election. If upon a canvass of the votes cast at such election it appears that not less than two thirds of all the qualified electors voting at such election shall have voted in favor of incurring such indebtedness, it shall be the duty of the board of trustees to pass an ordinance providing for the mode of creating such indebtedness, and of paying the same; and in such ordinance provision shall be made for the levy and collection of an annual tax upon all the real and personal property subject to taxation within such city or town, sufficient to pay the interest on such indebtedness as it falls due; and also to constitute a sinking fund for the payment of the principal thereof, within a period of not more than twenty years from the time of contracting the same. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees, in each year thereafter, at the time at which other taxes are levied, to levy a tax sufficient for such purpose, in addition to the taxes by this chapter authorized to be levied. Such tax, when collected, shall be kept in the treasury as a separate fund, to be inviolably appropriated to the payment of the principal and interest of such indebtedness.

§ 867. The violation of any ordinance of such city or town shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and may be prosecuted by the authorities of such city or town in the name of the people of the state of California, or may be redressed by civil action, at the option of said authorities. Any person sentenced to imprisonment for the violation of an ordinance may be imprisoned in the jail for such city or town; or if the board of trustees by ordinance shall so prescribe, in the county jail of the county in which such city or town may be situated, in which case the expense of such imprisonment shall be a charge in favor of such county and against such city or town.

§ 868. Every act or thing done or being within the limits of such city or town, which is or may be declared by law or by any ordinance of such city or town to be a nuisance, shall be and is hereby declared to be a nuisance, and shall be considered and treated as such in all actions and proceedings whatever; and all remedies which are or may be given by law for the prevention and abatement of nuisances shall apply thereto.

§ 869. The board of trustees are hereby authorized and empowered to order any work authorized by this chapter to be done upon the streets, avenues, highways, and public places of such city or town. The cost and expense incurred therefor shall be paid as follows, to wit: The expense or cost of improving and repairing streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares, and other public highways and places within the city or town, removing obstructions therefrom; grading, paving, macadamizing, graveling, and curbing the same, and constructing gutters, culverts, and sidewalks therein, shall be assessed upon the lots and lands fronting thereon, each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed for the full depth thereof in proportion to the benefits upon the property to be benefited, sufficient to cover the total expense of the work to the center of the street on which it fronts; provided, that the board of trustees may expend from the general fund for said purposes a sum which in their judgment may be necessary. The expense of all improvements in the space formed by the junction of two or more streets, or where one main street terminates in or crosses another main street, and also all necessary street crossings, or crossways at corners or intersection of streets, and the expense of establishing, building, and repairing bridges in such city or town, shall be paid by such city or town. The expense incurred in making and repairing sewers in any street shall be paid, one fourth by the owner of the lands on one side of said street, one fourth by the owner of the land[s] on the other side of said street, and one half by the city or town out of the sewer fund. In all the streets constituting the water front of such city or town, or bounded on the one side by the property thereof, the expense of work done on that portion of said streets, from the center line thereof to the said water front, or to such property of the city or town bounded thereon, shall be paid for by such city or town, but no contract for any such work shall be given except to the lowest responsible bidder, and in the manner hereinafter provided. When any work or improvements mentioned in this section is done or made on one side of the center line of said streets, avenues, or public highways, the lots or portions of lots fronting on that side only shall be assessed to cover the expenses of said work according to the provisions of this chapter. Whenever any expenses or costs of work shall have been assessed on any lands, the amount of said expenses shall become a lien upon said lands, which shall take precedence of all other liens, and which may be foreclosed in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure. Such suit shall be in the name of such city or town as plaintiff. Upon the filing of a complaint in the superior court to enforce a lien of any kind hereon, the plaintiff shall be entitled, if a recovery is had or the money is paid, to include as costs the sum of twenty-five dollars as attorney's fees.

§ 870. Whenever it shall become necessary for the city or town to take or damage private property for the purpose of establishing, laying out, extending and widening streets and other public highways and places within the city or town, or for the purpose of rights of way for drains, sewers and aqueducts, and for the purpose of widening, straightening or diverting the channels of streams, or the improvement of water fronts, or the acquisition or maintenance of public harbors, the trustees may direct proceedings to be taken under section twelve hundred and thirty-seven and following sections, to and including section twelve hundred and sixty-three of the Code of Civil Procedure, to procure the same. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 12.]

§ 871. The board of trustees shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to provide by ordinance a system for the assessment, levy, and collection of all city or town taxes not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. All taxes shall be collected by the marshal or treasurer, as may be determined by the board of trustees by ordinance. All taxes assessed, together with any percentage imposed for delinquency and the costs of collection, shall constitute liens on the property assessed; every tax upon personal property shall be a lien upon the real property of the owner thereof. The liens provided for in this section shall attach as of the first Monday in March of each year, and may be enforced by a sale of the real property affected, and the execution and delivery of all necessary certificates and deeds therefor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by ordinance, or by action in any court of competent jurisdiction to foreclose such liens; provided, that any property sold for such taxes shall be subject to redemption within five years and upon the terms provided or that may hereafter be provided for the redemption of property sold for state taxes. All deeds made upon any sale of property for taxes or special assessments under the provisions of this chapter shall have the same force and effect in evidence as is or may hereafter be provided by law for deeds for property sold for non-payment of state taxes. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 89.]

[The amendatory act of 1895 also contained the following section: § 3. This act shall not repeal, or in any manner affect, modify, or interfere with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the state of California, except municipal corporations of the first class, and to provide for the consolidation and abolition of certain municipal offices, and to provide that their duties may be performed by certain officers of the county, and fixing the compensation to be allowed for such county officers for the services so rendered to such municipal corporations" approved March twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety five; or any of the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the state, except municipal corporations of the first, second, third and fourth classes, and cities operating under a charter framed under section eight, article eleven, of constitution," approved March second, eighteen hundred and ninety-one.]

§ 872. The board of trustees shall meet at their usual place of holding meetings on the second Monday of August of each year, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, and sit as a board of equalization, and shall continue in session from day to day until all the returns of the assessor have been rectified. They shall have power to hear complaints, and to correct, modify, or strike out any assessment made by the assessor, and may, of their own motion, raise any assessment, upon notice to the party whose assessment is to be raised. The corrected list for each tax shall be the assessment roll for said tax for said year. It shall be certified by the clerk, who shall act as clerk of the board of equalization, as being the assessment roll for said tax, and shall be the assessment roll upon which such tax is to be levied in said year.

§ 873. Nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to prevent any city or town having a bonded indebtedness, contracted under laws heretofore passed, from levying and collecting such taxes for the payment of such indebtedness, and the interest thereon, as are provided for in such laws, in addition to the taxes herein authorized to be levied and collected. All moneys received from licenses, street poll-tax, and from fines, penalties, and forfeitures, shall be paid into the general fund.

§ 874. In the erection, improvement, and repair of all public buildings and works, in all street and sewer work, and in all work in or about streams, bays, or water fronts, or in or about embankments, or other works for protection against overflow, and in furnishing any supplies or materials for the same, when the expenditure required for the same exceeds the sum of one hundred dollars, the same shall be done by contract, and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice by publication in a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in such city or town, for at least two weeks, or if there be no newspaper printed or published therein, by printing and posting the same in at least four public places therein for the same period; such notice shall distinctly and specifically state the work contemplated to be done; provided, that the board of trustees may reject any and all bids presented and readvertise, in their discretion. The board of trustees shall annually, at a stated time, contract for doing all city printing and advertising, which contract shall be let to the lowest bidder, after notice, as provided in this section. [Amendment, Stats. 1897, 89.]

§ 875. The president of the board of trustees shall preside over all meetings of the board at which he is present. In his absence a president pro tempore may be chosen. The president, and in his absence the president pro tempore, shall sign all warrants drawn on the treasurer, and shall sign all written contracts entered into by said city or town, as such president or president pro tempore. The authority and power of the president pro tempore shall continue only during the day on which he is chosen. The president and president pro tempore shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, and take affidavits and testify the same under their hands. The president or president pro tempore shall sign all conveyances made by said city or town, and all instruments which shall require the seal of the city or town. The president is authorized to acknowledge the execution of all instruments executed by said city or town, that require to be acknowledged.

ARTICLE IV.—EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

He shall pay out said money or warrants signed by the president and countersigned by the clerk, and not otherwise. He shall make quarterly settlements with the clerk. When no compensation has been allowed to him by the board of trustees, he shall be allowed one per centum on all moneys received and paid by him as such treasurer. He may credit himself with such per centum in his settlements with the clerk. Upon each quarterly settlement he shall file a statement of his account with the clerk. [Amendment, Stats. 1903, 336.]

§ 877. It shall be the duty of the assessor, between the first day of May and the first day of August in each year, to make out a true list of all the taxable property within the city or town. The mode of making out of said list, and proceedings relating thereto, shall be in conformity with laws now in force regulating county assessors, except as the same may be otherwise provided in this act, or by ordinance. Said list shall describe the property assessed, and the value thereof, and shall contain all other matters required to be stated in such lists by county assessors. Said assessor shall verify said list by his oath, and shall deposit the same with the clerk on or before the first Monday of August of each year. The assessor shall, during said time, also make a list of all male persons residing within the limits of the city or town, over the age of twenty-one years, and shall verify said list by his oath, and shall, on or before the first Monday of August in each year, deposit the same with the clerk. Said assessor and his deputy shall have power to administer all oaths and affirmations necessary in the performance of his duty.

§ 878. It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a full, true record of all the proceedings of the board of trustees and of the board of equalization. The proceedings of the board of trustees shall be kept in a book, marked "Records of the Board of Trustees." The proceedings of the board of equalization shall be kept in a separate book, marked "Records of the Board of Equalization." He shall keep a book, which shall be marked "City (or Town) Accounts," in which shall be entered as a credit all moneys received by the city or town for licenses, the amount of any tax when levied, and all other moneys when received, and in which shall be entered upon the debtor side all commissions deducted and all warrants drawn on the treasury. He shall also keep a book, marked "Marshal's Account," in which he shall charge the marshal with all the tax lists delivered to him, and all licenses delivered to him. He shall credit the marshal with the delinquent lists returned by him, and with his commission for collecting. He shall also keep a book, marked "Treasurer's Account," in which he shall keep a full account of the transactions of the city or town with the treasurer. He shall also keep a book, marked "Licenses," in which he shall enter all licenses issued by him, the date thereof, to whom issued, for what, the time when it expires, and the amount paid. He shall also keep a book marked "Attorney's Account," and shall therein charge said attorney with all delinquent tax lists delivered to him, and shall credit him with money paid and delinquent tax lists returned. He shall keep a book, marked "Ordinances," into which he shall copy all city or town ordinances, with his certificate annexed to said copy stating the foregoing ordinance is a true and correct copy of an ordinance of the city or town, and giving the number and title of said ordinance, and stating that the same has been published or posted according to law. Said record copy, with said certificate, shall be prima facie evidence of the contents of the ordinance and of the passage and publication of the same, and shall be admissible as such evidence in any court or proceeding. Such records shall not be filed in any case, but shall be returned to the custody of the clerk. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the proof of the passage and publication of ordinances in the usual way. Each of the foregoing books, except the records of the board of trustees and the board of equalization, shall have a general index, sufficiently comprehensive to enable a person readily to ascertain matters contained therein. The clerk shall also keep a book, marked "Demands and Warrants," in which he shall note every demand against the city or town, and file the same. He shall state therein, under the note of the demands, the final disposition made of the same; and if the same is allowed, and a warrant drawn, he shall also state the number of the warrant, with sufficient dates. This book shall contain an index, in which reference shall be made to each demand. Upon the completion of the assessment roll of any of the taxes of the city or town, and the levying of the tax thereon, the clerk shall apportion the taxes upon such assessment roll, and make out and deliver to the marshal a tax list in the usual form, taking his receipt therefor. He may appoint a deputy, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible; and he and his deputy shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations, to take affidavits and depositions to be used in any court or proceeding in the state, and to certify the same. He and his deputy shall take all necessary affidavits to demands against the city or town, and certify the same without charge. He shall be the custodian of the seal of the city or town. He shall make a quarterly statement in writing, showing the receipts and expenditures of the city or town for the preceding quarter, and the amount remaining in the treasury. He shall at the end of every fiscal year make a full and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the preceding year, and a full statement of the financial condition of the affairs of the city or town, which shall be published. He shall perform such other services as this act and the ordinances of the board of trustees shall require.

§ 879. It shall be the duty of the attorney to advise the city or town authorities and officers in all legal matters pertaining to the business of said city or town. He shall receive the delinquent list and receipt therefor; he is authorized to bring suit in the name of the city or town, in the proper court, for the collection of any tax; he shall receive for collecting taxes such per centum on the amount collected as may be provided by ordinance, which said per centum shall be collected of the delinquent taxpayers as provided by ordinance. In case a suit shall be brought in the superior court upon a tax upon real estate to sell such real estate for the purpose of paying such tax and costs, he shall be allowed, in addition to the said per centum, twenty-five dollars for each suit brought, to be taxed as costs in such suit, and not to be paid to said attorney unless collected of the defendant in such suit. Said attorney shall receive such other compensation as may be allowed by the board of trustees.

§ 880. The department of police of said city or town shall be under the direction and control of the marshal; and for the suppression of any riot, public tumult, disturbance of the peace, or resistance against the laws or public authorities in the lawful exercise of their functions, he shall have the powers that are now or may hereafter be conferred upon sheriffs by laws of the state, and shall in all respects be entitled to the same protection; and his lawful orders shall be promptly executed by deputies, police officers, and watchmen in said city or town, and every citizen shall also lend his aid, when required, for the arrest of offenders and maintenance of public order. He shall, and is hereby authorized to, execute and return all process issued and directed to him by any legal authority. It shall be his duty to prosecute before the recorder all breaches or violations of or non-compliance with any ordinance which shall come to his knowledge. He shall collect all taxes levied by the board of trustees, except as herein provided. He shall, at the expiration of any month, pay to the treasurer all taxes and other funds of said city or town collected by him during said month. He shall, upon payment of the money, file with the treasurer an affidavit, stating that the money so paid is all the taxes or funds that he has collected or received during the preceding month. He shall, upon the receipt of any tax list, give his receipt for the same to the clerk, and shall, upon depositing with the clerk the delinquent tax list, take his receipt therefor. He shall receive from the clerk all licenses, and collect the same. He shall have charge of the prison and prisoners, and of any chain-gang which may be established by the board of trustees. He shall for service of any process receive the same fees as constables, but his fees for services in any criminal action or proceeding upon process issued from the recorder's court shall not be a charge against the county. He may appoint, subject to the approval of the board of trustees, one or more deputies, for whose acts he and his bondsmen shall be responsible, whose only compensation shall be fees for the service of process, which shall be the same as those allowed to the marshal. He may also, with the concurrence of the president of the board of trustees, when the same may be by them deemed necessary for the preservation of public order, appoint additional policemen, who shall discharge the duties assigned them for one day only. He shall perform such other services as this act and the ordinances of the board of trustees shall require, and shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by ordinance. [Amendment, Stats. 1903, 135.]

§ 881. The board of trustees shall, by ordinances not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, prescribe the additional duties of all officers, and fix their compensation.

ARTICLE V.—JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

§ 882. A recorder's court is hereby established in such city or town, to be held by the recorder of such city or town. Said recorder's court shall have jurisdiction, concurrently with the justices' courts, of all actions and proceedings, civil and criminal, arising within the corporate limits of such city or town, and which might be tried in such justice's court; and shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city or town, of all actions founded upon any obligation created by any ordinance, and of all prosecutions for any violation of any ordinance. In all civil actions for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city or town, where the fine, penalty or forfeiture imposed by the ordinance is not more than fifty dollars, the trial must be by the court, in civil actions where the fine, penalty or forfeiture prescribed for the breach of any ordinance of such city or town is over fifty dollars, the defendant is entitled to a jury. Except as in this section otherwise provided, the rules of practice and mode of proceeding in said recorder's court shall be the same as are or may be prescribed by law for justices' courts in like cases; and appeals may be taken to the superior court of the county in which such city or town may be situated, from all judgments of said recorder's court, in like manner and with like effect as in cases of appeals from justices' courts. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 72, 73.]

§ 883. The recorder shall be judge of the recorder's court, and shall have the powers and perform the duties of a magistrate. He may administer and certify oaths and affirmations, and take and certify acknowledgments. He shall be entitled to charge and receive for his services such fees as are or may be allowed by law for justices of the peace for like services, except that for his services in criminal prosecutions for violation of ordinances he shall be entitled to receive only such fees as the board of trustees shall by ordinance prescribe; but his fees for services in any criminal case shall not be a charge against the county. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 269.]

§ 884. In all cases in which the recorder is a party, or in which he is interested, or when he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, or is otherwise disqualified, or in case of sickness or inability to act, the recorder may call in a justice of the peace residing in the city or town to act in his place and stead; or if there be no justice of the peace residing in the city or town, or if all those so residing are likewise disqualified, then he may call in any justice of the peace residing in the county in which such city or town may be situated.

ARTICLE VI.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§ 885. Every officer collecting or receiving any moneys belonging to or for the use of such city or town shall settle for the same with the clerk on the first Monday in each month, and immediately pay the same into the treasury, on the order of the clerk, for the benefit of the funds to which such moneys respectively belong.

§ 886. No officer of such city or town shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with such city or town, or with any of the officers thereof in their official capacity, or in doing any work or furnishing any supplies for the use of such city or town, or its officers in their official capacity; and any claim for compensation for work done, or supplies or materials furnished, in which any such officer is interested, shall be void, and if audited and allowed shall not be paid by the treasurer. Any wilful violation of the provisions of this section shall be a ground for removal from office, and shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and punished as such.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—CEMETERIES.

Authorizing municipalities of less than the first class to obtain, by purchase, donation, or devise, lands for cemetery purposes; and authorizing the board of trustees of said municipalities to make all necessary rules and regulations for the government and disposition of the same.

(Stats. 1899, 22, ch. XXI.)

§ 1. Cities and towns of less than the first class are hereby authorized to purchase, or receive by donation or devise and dispose of, all and any necessary property for cemetery purposes.

§ 2. The board of trustees or other governing body of said municipalities shall make all necessary rules and regulations for the government, embellishment, and disposition of the same.

§ 3. The boards of trustees or other governing body of said municipalities shall, by ordinance, prescribe the method and conditions by which burial lots may be sold in said cemetery, and may authorize any officer of the municipality to execute conveyances in behalf of said municipality, subject to the restrictions that may be deemed proper.

§ 4. All acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

See tit. Cemeteries.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—CENSUS.

To authorize any city or city and county of this state to take its census.

(Stats. 1897, 28, ch. XXX.)

§ 1. The council, or other legislative body of any city in this state, and the board of supervisors, or other legislative body of any city and county of this state, is hereby authorized, whenever said council, board of supervisors, or other legislative body, may deem it necessary, between the years of taking the federal census, to take the census of such city, or city and county, in the manner prescribed by section two of this act.

§ 2. Said council, board of supervisors, or other legislative body of any city, or city and county of this state electing to take a census, as in this act provided for, shall pass a resolution of intention declaring its intention to cause such census to be taken by one or more suitable persons appointed therefor by such council, board of supervisors, or other legislative body, at the expense of said city or cities desiring such census taken, and such census shall, by such persons so appointed, be taken of all the inhabitants of such city, or city and county, and in said census the full name of each person shall be plainly written and the names alphabetically arranged and regularly numbered in one complete series, and when completed shall be verified before any officer authorized to administer oaths, and be filed with the clerk of such city, or city and county.

§ 3. A certified copy of such census shall be prepared by said clerk after being so filed, and shall be filed by him with the secretary of state for this state, and thereupon the same shall be known and be the official state census of said city, or city and county.

§ 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

In re Mitchell, 120 Cal. 384, 385, 52 Pac.Rep. 799.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—ASSEMBLY HALLS.

Authorizing cities, towns, and municipal corporations to establish and maintain public assembly or convention halls, and to incur indebtedness for such improvements.

(Stats. 1903, 412, ch. CCLXXXVI.)

§ 1. Any city, town, or municipal corporation in this state may acquire, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, all necessary land whereon to construct, and may construct and maintain thereon, a public assembly or convention hall, and may incur indebtedness, as hereinafter provided, to pay the cost of such improvement.

§ 2. Whenever the legislative body of any city, town, or municipal corporation shall, by resolution passed by a vote of a majority of its members, determine that the public interest or necessity demands the acquisition of the necessary land whereon to construct, and the construction or completion thereon, of a public assembly or convention hall, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the municipality, it may, at any subsequent meeting of such body, by an ordinance, passed by a vote of two thirds of all its members, call a special election, and submit to the qualified voters of said municipality, the proposition of incurring a debt for the purpose set forth in said resolution. The ordinance calling such special election shall recite the object and purpose for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the proposed improvement, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness; and shall fix the date on which such special election will be held, the manner of holding such election, and of voting for or against such proposition; and in all other particulars not recited in said ordinance, such election shall be held as provided by law for holding municipal elections in such municipality. Such ordinance shall be published once a day for a period of five days in a daily newspaper published in said municipality, or once a week for three successive weeks in a weekly newspaper published in said municipality. No other notice of such election need be given.

§ 3. It shall require the votes of two thirds of all the voters voting at such special election to authorize the issuance of the bonds herein provided for.

§ 4. No city, town, or municipal corporation shall incur an indebtedness under the provisions of this act, which together with all other indebtedness of said city, town, or municipal corporation, shall, in the aggregate, exceed fifteen per centum of the assessed value of all the real and personal property in said city, town or municipal corporation.

§ 5. All bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be issued, sold, and made payable, in the manner and form prescribed for the issue, sale, and payment of municipal bonds, by an act entitled, "An act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction, or completion thereof," which became a law, under the provisions of the constitution, without the governor's approval, February twenty-five, nineteen hundred and one.

§ 6. The proceeds of the sale of bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be placed in the municipal treasury to the credit of a fund to be known as the public hall fund, and shall be applied, exclusively, to the purpose and object mentioned in the ordinance.

§ 7. The legislative body of said municipality shall, at the time of fixing the general tax levy, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect, annually, each year until said bonds are paid, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest and the part of the principal of such bonds, that shall become due before the time for fixing the next general tax levy, and is not at the time of fixing such annual tax levy, otherwise provided for by funds then in the treasury and set apart for that purpose. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the same time, and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected, and be used for no other purpose than the payment of said bonds and accruing interest.

§ 8. All moneys derived from the use or hire of such assembly or convention hall shall be deposited in the treasury of the municipality to the credit of said public hall fund, and shall be applied, exclusively, to the following purposes, to wit:

First—For the necessary expenses of conducting, maintaining, and insuring such hall, and of making all improvements and repairs thereof.

Second—For the payment of instalments of interest or principal becoming due on said bonds until the whole of said bonded indebtedness shall have been paid.

Third—Any surplus remaining after providing for the purposes, first and second above specified, may be appropriated and used for general municipal purposes.

§ 9. The legislative body of any city, town, or municipal corporation where-in bonds have been issued for the construction or completion of a public assembly or convention hall, under the provisions of this act, shall have the power to appoint and employ all needful architects, engineers, superintendents, and agents, to prepare plans for the construction or completion of such public assembly or convention hall, and to superintend such work. All contracts for the construction or completion of such public assembly or convention hall, or for the furnishing of labor or materials therefor, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The legislative body of the municipality shall advertise for at least ten days in one or more newspapers published in such municipality, inviting sealed proposals for the construction or completion of said improvement, or for the furnishing of labor and materials therefor before any contracts shall be made. The said legislative body shall have the right to require from the successful bidder such bonds as they may deem best to insure the faithful performance of his contract. They shall also have the right to reject any and all bids. Said legislative body shall have power to appoint such officers, or agents, and to make and enforce such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the management, control, letting, and use of such public assembly or convention hall; provided, however, that in cities, towns, or municipal corporations, operating under a charter, heretofore or hereafter framed under section eight of article eleven of the constitution, and providing for a board of public works, all matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative body of the municipality, shall be done and performed by said board of public works; provided, further, that in cities, towns, or municipal corporations not having such board of public works, the legislative body may, by ordinance, appoint a commission to select the site for said hall, to have charge and supervision of its construction, and to manage and control the letting and use thereof, and may, by ordinance, prescribe and regulate the powers and duties of said commission.

§ 10. This act shall take effect immediately.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—BONDS.

Authorizing the common council, board of trustees, or other governing body of any incorporated city or town other than cities of the first class to refund its indebtedness, to issue bonds therefor, and to provide for the payment of the same.

(Stats. 1897, 75, ch. LXXXII; amended 1901, 274, ch. CXIV.)

§ 1. The common council, board of trustees, or other governing body of any incorporated city or town other than cities of the first class in this state, having an outstanding indebtedness evidenced by bonds or warrants thereof, or by judgment or judgments recovered against it upon bonds or warrants originally issued by such town or city, is empowered, by a two-thirds vote of its number, to fund or refund the said indebtedness and issue bonds of such city or town therefor in sums of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars each, and having not more than forty years to run, and bearing a rate of interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually; provided, that no indebtedness shall be refunded at a higher rate of interest than that borne by the original debt. Such bonds shall be of the character known as "serials," not less than one fortieth of the principal being payable each year, together with the interest due on all sums unpaid. Principal and interest on said bonds shall be payable in gold coin or other lawful money of the United States, as may be expressed in said bonds, at the office of treasurer of said city or town. Said bonds shall be sold in the manner provided by such city council or other governing body, to the highest bidder therefor, for not less than their face value, in the same character of money as that in which they are payable. The proceeds of such sale shall be placed in the treasury of such city or town to the credit of the "Funding Fund," and shall be applied only to refunding the indebtedness for which said bonds are issued. Said trustees, or other governing body, shall at the time for fixing the general tax levy for each year and in the same manner as such tax levy is made, levy and collect sufficient money to pay such part of the principal of said bonds issued under this act, as one year bears to the number of years for which the bonds are to run, and also the annual interest upon the sums unpaid. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 274.]

§ 2. Whenever sufficient money is in the funding fund, in the hands of the treasurer, to redeem one or more of the outstanding bonds proposed to be refunded, he shall publish once a week for two weeks in some newspaper of general circulation published in such city or town, if there be any, a notice to the effect that he is prepared to pay such bond or bonds (giving the number thereof), and if the same are not presented for redemption within thirty days after the first publication of such notice, the interest on such bonds will cease. He shall, at the same time, deposit in the post-office a copy of such notice, inclosed in a sealed envelope, with the postage paid thereon, addressed to the owner or owners of such bond or bonds, at the post-office address of such owner or owners, as shown by the record thereof kept in the treasurer's office. If such bond or bonds are not presented within the time specified in such notice, the interest thereon shall then cease, and the amount due be set aside for the payment of the same, whenever presented. All redemption of bonds shall be made according to the priority in the order of their issuance, beginning at the first number. Whenever such outstanding bonds are surrendered and paid, the treasurer shall proceed to cancel the same by indorsing on the face thereof the amount for which they are received, the word "Canceled" and the date of cancelation. He shall also keep a record of such bonds so redeemed, and shall make a report of the same to the common council, or other governing body of such city or town, at least once a month, accompanying the same therewith by the bonds which have been taken up and canceled.

§ 3. All moneys which shall remain in said funding fund after all outstanding bonds or indebtedness as were proposed to be refunded have been taken up and canceled, shall be paid into the general fund of such city or town, and become a part thereof. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 274.]

§ 4. Chapter eighty-two of the statutes of eighteen hundred and eighty-three, chapter forty-eight of the statutes of eighteen hundred and ninety-three, and chapter one hundred and seventy-six of the statutes of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, all being laws of the state of California in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately after its passage.

It is held that section 4 of the foregoing act did not repeal section 6 of the Act of 1889, 399, ch. CCLXI.—See City of Los Angeles vs. Hance, 122 Cal. 77, 78, 54 Pac. Rep. 387.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—BOUNDARIES.

To provide for the alteration of the boundaries of and for the annexation of territory to incorporated towns and cities, and for the incorporation of such annexed territory in and as a part of such municipalities, and for the districting, government, and municipal control of annexed territory.

§ 1. The boundaries of any incorporated town or city, whether heretofore or hereafter formed, incorporated, reincorporated, organized, or reorganized, may be altered, and new territory annexed thereto, incorporated and included therein, and made a part thereof, upon proceedings being had and taken as in this act provided. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of any such municipal corporation, upon receiving a written petition therefor containing a description of the new territory asked to be annexed to such corporation, and signed by not less than one fifth in number of the qualified electors of such municipal corporation, computed upon the number of votes cast at the last general municipal election held therein, must, without delay, submit to the electors of such municipal corporation and to the electors residing in the territory proposed by such petition to be annexed to such corporation, the question whether such new territory shall be annexed to, incorporated in, and made a part of such municipal corporation. Such question shall be submitted at a special election to be held for that purpose, and no other; and such legislative body is hereby empowered to, and it shall be its duty to, cause notice to be given of such election by the publication of a notice thereof in a newspaper printed and published in such municipal corporation, and also in a newspaper, if any such there be, printed and published outside of such corporation, but in the county in which the territory so proposed to be annexed is situated, in each case at least once a week for a period of four successive weeks next preceding the date of such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be submitted, i. e., that it is proposed to annex to, incorporate in, and make a part of such municipal corporation the territory sought to be annexed, specifically describing the boundaries thereof; and in said notice the qualified electors of said municipal corporation, and the qualified electors residing in said territory so proposed to be annexed, shall be invited to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the words "For annexation" or "Against annexation," or words equivalent thereto. Such legislative body is hereby empowered, and it shall be its duty, to establish, and in such notice of election designate the voting precinct or precincts, and the place or places at which the polls will be opened in such territory so proposed to be annexed, and also in such municipal corporation. And such place or places shall be that or those commonly used as voting places within such municipal corporation, and also that or those commonly used within such new territory, if any such there be. Such legislative body is empowered to, and it shall, appoint the officers of such election, who shall be, for each voting place in such municipal corporation, and for such voting place in said new territory, two judges and one inspector, each of whom shall be a qualified elector of the voting precinct in which he is appointed to act as an officer of such election. The ballots used at such election, the opening and closing of the polls, and the holding and conducting of such election, shall be in conformity, as far as may be, with the general laws of this state concerning elections; and the judges and inspectors of such election shall immediately on the closing of the polls, count the ballots, make up and certify the tally-sheets of the ballots cast at their respective polling-places, seal, and then immediately return the same as below provided, doing so, as nearly as practicable, in the manner provided in the election laws of this state; but the ballots, tally-sheets, and returns shall be so returned to and deposited with the clerk of such legislative body. Such legislative body shall, at the time provided for its regular meeting next after the expiration of three days from and after the date of said election, meet and proceed to open and canvass said ballots, tally-sheets, and returns; and such canvass shall be completed at such meeting, if practicable, and in any event, as soon as practicable, avoiding adjournment or adjournments, if possible, until said canvass is completed. Such canvass by such legislative body shall be conducted and completed as follows: The ballots cast in such outside territory so proposed to be annexed, together with the tally-sheets and returns belonging therewith, shall be canvassed separately; and the ballots cast inside of said municipal corporation, together with their tally-sheets and returns, shall be canvassed separately. Immediately upon the completion of such canvass said legislative body shall cause a record thereof to be made and entered upon its minutes, showing the whole number of ballots cast in such outside territory, the whole number of ballots cast in such municipal corporation, the number thereof cast in each in favor of annexation, and the number thereof cast in each against annexation; and if it shall appear from such canvass that a majority of all the ballots cast in such outside territory, and a majority of all the ballots cast inside of said municipal corporation, are in favor of annexation, the clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, of such legislative body, shall promptly make and certify, under the seal of said municipal corporation, and transmit to the secretary of state, a copy of said record so entered upon said minutes, together with a statement showing the date of said election and the time and result of said canvass, which document shall be filed by the secretary of state immediately upon the receipt thereof. From and after the date of the filing of said document in the office of the secretary of state, the annexation of such territory so proposed to be annexed shall be deemed and shall be complete, and thenceforth such annexed territory shall be, to all intents and purposes, a part of such municipal corporation, except only that no property within such annexed territory shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness or liability of such municipal corporation contracted prior to or existing at the time of such annexation. No territory which, at the time such petition for such proposed annexation is presented to such legislative body, forms any part of any incorporated town or city, shall be annexed under the provisions of this act.

§ 2. The legislative body of any incorporated town or city which is or shall be divided into wards, and to which territory has been heretofore or shall be hereafter annexed, must by ordinance either so alter the boundaries of the wards of such municipal corporation as to include such annexed territory in one or more wards adjoining such annexed territory, or make of such annexed territory one or more additional wards; provided, that the number of wards shall not be so increased as to exceed the number which such municipal corporation may according to law have. In altering the boundaries of wards, or creating new wards, regard must be had to the number of inhabitants, so that each ward shall contain, as near as may be, an equal number of inhabitants, exclusive of persons incapable of citizenship in this state.

§ 3. Nothing in this act provided for shall alter or affect the boundaries of any senatorial or assembly district.

§ 4. All proper expenses of proceedings for annexation of territory under this act, whether such annexation shall be made and completed or not, shall be paid by the municipal corporation so annexing or attempting to annex such territory. In the event that a tax for road purposes has been levied by the board of supervisors of any county against property situate in territory which, subsequent to such levy, is annexed by any town or city under the provisions of this act, but which, at the time of such annexation has not been collected, then all such taxes so uncollected shall be and become the property of the town or city to which such territory is annexed, and same shall, with other county taxes, be collected by the county tax collector, and by him paid in to the county treasurer of said county, after which the same shall, by the county treasurer, be paid to such town or city, upon proper warrant therefor. The town or city clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk of such town or city, shall, at any regular meeting of the board of supervisors of said county, present and file a verified claim for any money thus due such town or city, setting forth the fact and the date of such annexation, and the amount in the hands of said county treasurer so due such town or city. Said claim shall be audited by the board of supervisors in the manner in which other claims against the county are audited, and if the amount thereof is correct, the same shall be allowed, and the county auditor instructed to draw his warrant for said amount against the road fund of the district in which such annexed territory is situated. This law shall apply to all such taxes not paid into the county treasury prior to the passage of this act. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 551.]

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—BOUNDARIES.

To provide for the alteration of the boundaries of incorporated towns and cities by annexation of uninhabited territory thereto, and for the incorporation of such annexed territory in and as a part of such municipality, and for the districting, government, and municipal control of annexed territory.

(Stats. 1899, 37, ch. XLI.)

§ 1. The boundaries of any incorporated town or city may be altered and new uninhabited territory annexed thereto, incorporated, and included therein, upon proceedings being taken as in this act provided. The legislative body of any such municipal corporation, upon receiving a written petition therefor, containing a description of the new uninhabited territory asked to be included in such corporation, and signed by not less than one tenth in number of the qualified electors of such municipal corporation, computed upon the number of votes cast at the last general municipal election held therein, must, without delay, notify the board of supervisors of the county in which said town or city is located of the fact of the filing of such petition. Upon the receipt of such notification, it shall be the duty of said board of supervisors to cause notice to be published for a period of five days, setting forth by general description the land sought to be annexed to the said municipality, and announcing the time and place when and where objections to said annexation will be heard. Any person owning any land so sought to be annexed, may object to said annexation by filing a written remonstrance with the said board of supervisors. At the time specified in said notice, or at such other time as may be fixed by postponement, the said board of supervisors shall hear the said protestations, and unless the remonstrances are filed by the owners of any single tract of land exceeding five acres in area, or by the owners of more than one half of the land sought to be annexed, the decision of said board of supervisors upon said protestations shall be final and conclusive. In the event that the owners of more than one half of the land so sought to be annexed, or the owners of any single tract of land exceeding five acres in area, file remonstrances against such annexation, said protestations shall be sustained by said board of supervisors, and shall be a bar to any further proceedings under the provisions of this act for the period of one year. In the event that there are no protestations filed, or, if filed, if the same are overruled by said board of supervisors, and the said board shall, by resolution, consent to the annexation of said new uninhabited territory by the municipality, it shall then be the duty of the legislative branch of said municipality to submit to the electors of such municipality the question whether or not said new territory shall be annexed to, and incorporated in, and made a part of, such municipal corporation. Such question shall be submitted at a special election to be held for that purpose, or at any municipal election. Notice of said election shall be published in a newspaper, printed in such city or town, at least once a week for a period of two weeks next preceding such election. Said notice shall state that it is proposed to incorporate the territory sought to be annexed as a part of such municipal corporation, and invite the electors of said city or town to vote upon such proposition, by marking their ballots "For annexation," or "Against annexation." In said notice, the territory sought to be annexed may be generally described in such manner as to apprise the voters of the particular land sought to be annexed. Said legislative body is hereby empowered, and it shall be its duty to establish, and in such notice of election designate the voting precinct or precincts, and the place or places at which the polls will be opened in said city or town, and said elective body is empowered to appoint the officers of such election, who shall be for each voting place at least two judges and one inspector, each of whom shall be a qualified elector of said city. The judges and inspectors of such election shall, immediately upon the closing of the polls, count the ballots, make up and certify the returns of the ballots cast at their respective polling places as quickly as practicable, in the manner provided in the laws of this state, and deposit all said returns with the clerk of said city or town. Said legislative body shall, at the time provided for its regular meeting next after the said returns are filed with the said clerk of said city or town, meet and proceed to open and canvass said returns, and immediately upon the completion of such canvass cause a report thereof to be made and entered upon its minutes, showing the whole number of votes cast, and the number cast in favor of annexation, and the number cast against annexation; and if it shall appear from such canvass that a majority of all the votes cast is in favor of annexation, the clerk or other officer performing the duties of the clerk of such legislative body shall make and certify, under the seal of said municipal corporation, and transmit to the secretary of state, and to the board of supervisors of the county in which said city or town is located, a copy of said report so entered upon its minutes, together with a statement showing the date of said election, and the time and result of said canvass, which document shall be filed by the secretary of state and the clerk of said board of supervisors. From and after the date of the filing of said document in the office of the secretary of state, the annexation of such territory so proposed to be annexed shall be deemed and shall be complete, and thenceforth such annexed territory shall be a part of such municipal corporation for all intents and purposes, except only that no part of such annexed territory shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness or liability of such municipal corporation contracted prior to or existing at the time of such annexation. No territory which at the time the said petition for proposed annexation is presented to said legislative body forms any part of any incorporated city or town shall be included under the provisions of this act.

§ 2. The legislative body of any incorporated city or town which is or shall be divided into wards, and which territory has been heretofore or shall be hereafter annexed, must by ordinance so alter the boundaries of the wards of said municipal corporation as to include such annexed territory, in one or more wards adjoining such annexed territory, or may form such annexed territory into one or more additional wards; provided, that the number of wards shall not be so increased as to exceed the number which said municipal corporation may, according to law, have.

§ 3. Nothing in this act provided for shall alter or affect the boundaries of any senatorial or assembly district.

§ 4. All proper expenses of proceedings for annexation of territory under this act, whether such annexation shall be made and completed or not, shall be paid by the municipal corporation so annexing or attempting to annex such territory.

§ 5. Nothing in this act shall be deemed to repeal the provisions of any act now providing for the annexation of inhabited territory, but territory shall be deemed uninhabited, for the purposes of this act, unless the occupants are bona fide residents thereof.

§ 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—BOUNDARIES.

To amend section one of an act entitled an act to provide for changing the boundaries of cities and municipal corporations, and to exclude territory therefrom, approved March twentieth, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

§ 1. The boundaries of any city or municipal corporation may be altered, and territory excluded therefrom, after proceeding had, as required in this section. The council, board of trustees, or other legislative body of such corporation, shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than a majority of the qualified electors thereof, as shown by the vote cast at the last municipal election held therein, submit to the electors of such corporation the question whether such territory as is proposed by such petition shall be excluded from such municipal corporation and cease to be a part thereof. Such question shall be submitted at a special election to be held for that purpose, and such legislative body shall give notice thereof by publication in a newspaper printed and published in such corporation for a period of four weeks prior to such election. Such notice shall distinctly state the proposition to be so submitted, and shall designate specifically the boundaries of the territory so proposed to be excluded. And the electors shall be invited thereby to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the words "For exclusion" or "Against exclusion," or words equivalent thereto; such legislative body shall also designate the place or places at which the polls will be opened in such territory so proposed to be excluded, which place or places shall be that or those usually used for that purpose within such territory, if any such there be, and for the purposes of this act, the qualified electors residing in the territory proposed to be excluded shall be entitled to vote at the polls in such territory, and not elsewhere. Such legislative body shall also appoint and designate in such notice the names of the officers of election. Such legislative body shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat. The votes cast in such territory so proposed to be excluded shall be canvassed separately, and if it shall appear on such canvass that a majority of all the votes cast in such territory, and a majority of all the votes in such corporation, shall be for exclusion, such legislative body shall, by an order entered upon their minutes, cause their clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, to make and transmit to the secretary of state a certified abstract of such vote, which abstract shall show the whole number of electors voting in such territory, the whole number of electors voting in such corporation exclusive of such territory, the number of votes cast in each for exclusion, and the whole number of votes cast in each against exclusion. From and after the date of filing such abstract, such exclusion of territory from such municipal corporation shall be deemed complete, and thereafter such territory shall cease to be a part of such municipal corporation; provided, that nothing contained in this act shall be held to relieve in any manner whatsoever any part of such territory from any liability for any debt contracted by such municipal corporation prior to such exclusion; and provided further, that such municipal corporation is hereby authorized to levy and collect from any territory so excluded, from time to time, such sums of money as shall be found due from it on account of its just proportion of liability for any payment on the principal or interest of such debts. Such assessment and collection shall be made in the same manner and at the same time that such assessment and collection is levied and made upon the property of such municipal corporation for any payment on account of such debts; and provided further, that any such territory so excluded from any municipal corporation may at any time tender to the legislative body of such municipal corporation the amount for which such territory is liable on account of such debts, and after such tender is made, such authority as is herein given to such municipal corporation to levy and assess taxes on such excluded territory shall cease; provided, however, that after an election shall have been held for the exclusion of any portion of a municipal corporation if the vote shall be against exclusion, no election for the exclusion of the same territory shall again be held within three years from the date of such former election.

§ 2. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

§ 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

People ex rel. Miller vs. Common Council, 85 Cal. 369, 370, 24 Pac. Rep. 727; Wiedwald vs. Dodson, 95 Cal. 450, 452, 30 Pac. Rep. 580; Johnson vs. City of San Diego, 109 Cal. 468, 473, 42 Pac. Rep. 249, 30 L. R. A. 178; People ex rel. Cuff vs. City of Oakland, 123 Cal. 598, 605, 56 Pac. Rep. 445.

The amendment of 1905 apparently supercedes the former statute. The statute of 1889, 356, ch. XXXLVI, on this subject is doubtless repealed also by this statute. Under the statute of 1889, 356, the petition need only be signed by "not less than one fifth" of the qualified electors. The present statute requires a "majority," and the present statute repeals all acts and parts of acts in conflict therewith.

The decisions citing the statute of 1889, 356, are, however, given as follows:

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—BUILDINGS.

Conferring power upon the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of cities, or cities and counties, of over one hundred thousand inhabitants, to acquire or condemn land for a suitable site, and erect thereon a suitable building or buildings for municipal purposes.

(Stats. 1895, 242, ch. CXCVIII; amended 1897, 50, ch. LV.)

§ 1. Power and authority is hereby conferred upon the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of every city, or city and county, in this state having a population of over one hundred thousand inhabitants, to provide for the erection and construction in such city, or city and county, and at the expense of the same, such additional or other municipal building or buildings as the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, may determine upon for the accommodation of the criminal department of the superior court, police courts, police stations, prisons, morgues, or coroner's offices of such city, or city and county, and for such other municipal uses as may be deemed necessary.

§ 2. In the event that the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, shall deem it expedient, and in their judgment that the public good requires the construction of such building or buildings, for the construction of which power is conferred upon them by section one of this act, in the manner and mode prescribed by this act, they are hereby authorized and empowered to express such judgment by resolution or order, in such manner as they may deem proper. And for the purpose of raising the money necessary to complete said building or buildings, the said common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, is hereby authorized and empowered to levy and collect, in the same manner and at the same time as other taxes are levied and collected in such city, or city and county, for municipal purposes, an ad valorem property tax on real and personal property, which shall not in the aggregate exceed the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, which sum shall cover all the expense of the said building or buildings.

§ 3. As a site for the erection and construction of said building or buildings, power is hereby conferred upon the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, to acquire by purchase, or to condemn and acquire under the laws of eminent domain, such land as may be necessary therefor.

§ 4. The money arising from the tax hereby authorized to be levied and collected shall be kept by the city, city and county treasury of such city, or city and county in a fund to be known as the "Public Building Fund," and out of which said fund all claims for work, labor, and materials used in the construction of said building, and all other expenses authorized to be incurred under the provisions of this act, shall be paid. All claims against the said fund shall be allowed by the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, by resolution entered upon the minutes in the same manner and form as other expenditures are authorized, before the auditor shall be authorized to audit the same; and in no case shall any portion of said fund be used or expended for any other purpose than those herein indicated, nor shall any part of the cost of the construction of said building be paid out of any other or different fund; nor shall any lien for work, labor, or material at any time attach to the said building or buildings, nor the land upon which the same is located in any manner whatever.

§ 5. When work is to be done upon said building or buildings, or materials to be furnished, it shall be the duty of the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, to advertise for at least ten days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in such city, or city and county, for sealed proposals for doing both said work and furnishing said material. The said work and material shall be of the best quality. The advertisement shall contain a general description of the work to be done and the materials to be furnished, the time within which the same is to be done or furnished, and may refer to plans and specifications for such other details as may be necessary to give a correct understanding regarding the work or materials. The advertisement shall also state the day and an hour of said day within which bids will be received. At the hour and day stated in the advertisement, the said board or body shall proceed to open the bids in the presence of the bidders, and an abstract of each shall be recorded in the minutes by the clerk. A day and hour shall then be fixed for considering the bids and awarding the contract. An abstract of said bids, showing the name of each bidder, the price at which work, labor, and materials are offered to be done or furnished by each, and such other things as may be necessary to show or explain the offer, shall be made by the clerk and published for five days in a daily newspaper of general circulation published in such city, or city and county. At the expiration of five days after the first publication of the abstract, on the day and at the hour fixed by said board or body, said board or body shall proceed to consider the several bids and award the contract for doing the work and supplying the material for which proposals are invited, and for none other, to the lowest bidder who shall furnish sufficient sureties to guarantee the performance of the contract; provided, the advertisement hereinbefore provided for, shall invite proposals and bids, in one total sum or amount, for the performance of all the work and the furnishing of all the materials called for in the said advertisement for the erection of the entire building or buildings. Said board or body shall have the right to reject any or all bids, when in their judgment the public interests may be thereby promoted. Such contract shall be executed on behalf of such city, or city and county, by the mayor, or president of the common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county. No change in the plans or specifications shall be made after proposals for doing work and furnishing materials have been called for, nor shall any contractor be allowed a claim for work done or materials furnished in excess of his contract, except on the approval of said common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of cities, or cities and counties; provided, that the aggregate cost of any change, or changes, shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars. All contracts shall be in writing, and shall be carefully drawn by the city attorney, [or] city and county attorney, or other law officer of such city, or city and county, and shall contain detailed specifications of the work to be done, the manner in which the same shall be executed, the quality of the material, and the time within which the same shall be completed; and such penalty for the non-performance of such contract as said board or body may deem just and reasonable. All contracts shall be signed in triplicate—one copy of which, with the plans and specifications of the work to be done, shall be filed with the clerk or secretary of said board or body, and shall at all times, in office hours, be open to the inspection of the public; one, with the plans and specifications, shall be kept in the office of said board or body, and the other copy, with plans and specifications, shall be delivered to the contractor. [Amendment, Stats. 1897, 50.]

§ 6. The common council, board of supervisors, or other governing body of such city, or city and county, may make payments on such contract from time to time, as work progresses or materials are furnished; but until the contract is completed, at no time shall the payments exceed seventy-five per centum of the value of the labor or materials furnished.

§ 7. The plans and specifications herein referred to shall be secured by said board or body after the publication for ten days in a daily newspaper of general circulation in such city, or city and county, of a resolution inviting the submission of competitive plans and specifications for said building or buildings. Said resolution shall contain a general statement of the purposes for which said building or buildings are to be used, the cost thereof, and the character of the design required. Said plans and specifications may be submitted to such board or body under such requirements and conditions, and at such time as said board or body may prescribe.

§ 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—OVER TEN THOUSAND—COURTS.

Providing that in all cities of over ten thousand inhabitants, the mayor, or other chief executive, shall not be required to act as city judge, or ex officio judge of the city court, or as justice of the peace; to provide for the abolishment of such city court, and for the transfer of the business and properties of said city court to the justice of the peace of such cities, and to require such justice to finish such business, and to repeal all special acts in conflict herewith.

(Stats. 1887, 51, ch. XXXIX.)

§ 1. In cities of over ten thousand inhabitants, the mayor, or other chief executive thereof, shall not be required to act as justice of the peace, or to hold a city court, or to act as ex officio city judge, or to perform any of the duties of judge of the city courts; and all city courts created by law to be held by such mayor, or other chief executive of such cities, are hereby abolished.

§ 2. All books, dockets, files, documents, papers, and properties of every kind whatsoever belonging to such city court, shall be transferred to the justice of the peace of said city, provided for by law, to hold the police court of such city, or if there be no such police court therein, then to such justice of the peace therein as may be designated for such purpose by the mayor thereof; and such justice of the peace shall have jurisdiction of all matters heretofore brought in such city court, or of which said city court had jurisdiction; and it shall be his duty to collect all fines and charges required by law to be collected by such city court, and to account for and pay the same over to the treasurer of said city in the same manner, and at the same times and under such terms and conditions, as heretofore required of and by said city court. Said justice of the peace shall complete all such unfinished business as may be transferred to him from said city court under the provisions hereof, in the same manner as heretofore required of said city court.

§ 3. The provisions of all acts and every special act of the legislature which conflict in any wise with this act are each and every one hereby repealed.

§ 4. This act shall take effect and be in force at once after its passage.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—DISINCORPORATION.

To provide for the ownership of property and the winding up of the affairs of municipal corporations disincorporated under the provisions of an act of the legislature of the state of California, entitled "An act to provide for the disincorporation of municipal corporations of the sixth class," approved March twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, when two thirds or more in value of assessable property within the former limits thereof shall be included within the boundaries of any subsequently incorporated city or town.

(Stats. 1899, 17, ch. XVIII.)

§ 1. Any city or town heretofore or hereafter incorporated that, at the time of incorporation, shall embrace within the corporate limits thereof two thirds or more in value of assessable property formerly contained within the corporate boundaries of any city or town disincorporated under the provisions of an act of the legislature of the state of California, approved March twenty-sixth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act to provide for the disincorporation of municipal corporations of the sixth class," shall succeed to and become the owner of all public property formerly belonging to such disincorporated city or town; and also to such proportion of the corporate debts, liabilities, and credits due or owing and unpaid, as the total value of assessable property of such former city or town lying within its boundaries, as aforesaid, shall bear to the total value of all assessable property situated within the former limits of said municipal corporation so disincorporated; such valuation to be determined by the assessment roll of the county in which such city or town is situated for the fiscal year in which said municipality was disincorporated; provided, that any territory contained therein that was not included within the former limits of said disincorporated municipality shall not be liable to be taxed for any debt or liability of said disincorporated city or town.

§ 2. The board of supervisors of the county in which said city or town is situated shall, upon written request of the board of trustees or other legislative body thereof, forthwith cause the county auditor to prepare a statement of the total valuation of assessable property in said disincorporated municipality and the total amount thereof contained in said incorporated city or town, as aforesaid, and said auditor shall prepare the same without cost. If it appears from said statement that two thirds or more in value of said assessable property is contained within the boundaries of said incorporated city or town, said board of supervisors shall, by an order duly entered upon their minutes, fix the relative proportion thereof, which proportion so fixed shall be the proportion of the debts and liabilities of said disincorporated municipality for which said incorporated city or town shall be liable; and shall forward a certified copy of said entry to the secretary of state and also to the city clerk of said incorporated city or town, and forthwith turn over to the board of trustees or other legislative body thereof, all public property taken by them under the provisions of said act providing for the disincorporation of cities of the sixth class, and such proportion of all moneys in the special fund provided for in said act, as said incorporated city or town is entitled to, estimated as in the case of debts and liabilities, as aforesaid. And thereupon the ownership and title to all public property of every description formerly belonging to said disincorporated municipality, which under the provisions of said act has been taken possession of by the board of supervisors and passed into the control of the county or passed into the ownership and possession of the state of California by reason of said disincorporation, shall immediately be vested in said incorporated city or town as fully as if said property had been originally acquired by it.

§ 3. If there be a bonded indebtedness of said disincorporated municipality existing on its former territory, a portion of which is included in said city or town as aforesaid, the board of trustees or other legislative body of such city or town shall make provisions to pay its proportion thereof, estimated as aforesaid, in the same manner it should have been paid had said city or town not disincorporated; and for that purpose shall annually levy and collect, at the same time other city taxes are levied and collected, a special tax on the territory of said disincorporated municipality within the limits of said city or town, sufficient to pay its proportion thereof as the same shall become due; and the board of supervisors of said county shall annually levy and collect, at the same time other county taxes are levied and collected, a special tax on the remainder of said territory not included in said city or town, sufficient to pay the balance thereof, and cause the same to be paid to the treasurer of said city or town, and it shall be the duty of said city treasurer to pay said bonded indebtedness as the same becomes due with said moneys levied and collected as aforesaid, in conformity with the laws under which such indebtedness was incurred.

§ 4. Any property within the limits of said disincorporated city or town that has been sold for any tax levied by such disincorporated municipality may be redeemed or a tax deed issued therefor, in the same manner and with the same effect as if said municipality had not disincorporated. Such proceedings to be had and deed issued in the corporate name of said city or town in which said land is situated.

§ 5. All acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—FISCAL YEAR.

Providing for changing the fiscal year of cities in this state operating under a charter framed under section eight, article eleven, of the constitution.

(Stats. 1895, 128, ch. CXXXIX.)

§ 1. Any city or municipal corporation within this state, operating under a charter framed under the provisions of section eight, article eleven, of the constitution, may, by ordinance, adopted by a majority of all the members of the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of such city or municipal corporation, change the fiscal year of such city or municipal corporation to begin at any other time than that fixed by such charter; and may provide sufficient revenue to carry on the business of the city or municipal corporation from the end of the previous fiscal year to the commencement of the fiscal year thus fixed, by adding to the first tax levy made for the new fiscal year a sufficient amount, in addition to the limit in such charter provided, that will raise enough money to pay claims contracted between the ending of the previous fiscal year and the commencement of the new fiscal year. And may also provide by ordinance, passed in the same manner, the time for making the annual tax levy, and the time at which the lien thereof shall attach; and may change the time or times designated in such charter for making the assessment, demand statements of property, preparing the assessment roll, equalizing the assessment, and all other matters relating to the assessment and collection of municipal taxes.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—FREEHOLDER ELECTIONS.

In relation to municipal elections where the same are held separate from general state elections, and elections held under the authority of section eight of article eleven of the constitution, to elect boards of freeholders, or to vote upon proposed charters or upon amendments to existing charters, and to repeal an act entitled an act in relation to elections held under the authority of section eight of article eleven of the constitution, approved March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven.

§ 1. Except in the particulars otherwise provided for in the constitution, all municipal elections, where the same are held separate from general state elections, and all elections held under the authority of section eight of article eleven of the constitution, to elect boards of freeholders, or to vote upon proposed charters, or upon amendments to existing charters, shall be conducted under the provisions of this act.

§ 2. The boards of municipalities charged with the conduct and carrying on of elections may district and subdivide the municipalities into municipal election precincts, for the holding of the elections mentioned in section one of this act, and change and alter such precincts, and redistrict the municipality for such elections as often as occasion may require.

§ 3. In establishing such municipal election precincts, said board may consolidate the precincts which existed for the holding of the last preceding general state election to a number not exceeding six for each municipal election precinct, and shall number the municipal election precincts so established consecutively, and each precinct as established shall be known as "Municipal Election Precinct Number —."

§ 4. All persons shall be entitled to vote at the elections mentioned in section one who come within the terms or comply with the requirements of this act.

§ 5. Every person who was a qualified elector at the general state election immediately preceding the holding of any of the elections mentioned in section one of this act, and who was upon the great register of the county, or city and county, where any such municipality is situated, as a qualified elector of any one of the precincts which compose a municipal election precinct, and who continues to reside within the exterior boundaries of such municipal election precinct until the time of the holding of the election herein provided for, shall be entitled to vote at said election without other or additional registration.

§ 6. All other persons claiming to be entitled to vote at any of the elections provided for in this act must be registered upon the great register of the county, or city and county, within which such municipality is situated, as an elector of and within one of the precincts which compose the municipal election precinct wherein he claims to be entitled to vote. Such registration must take place at least twenty-five days prior to the election; and it shall be the duty of the county clerk of the county, or city and county, within which such municipality is situated, and in those counties or cities and counties wherein the county clerk is not the officer charged with the duty of registering voters, then of the officer so charged, to keep his office open for at least thirty days prior to the twenty-fifth day preceding any such election, for the registration of voters who may desire to vote at such election.

§ 7. The boards of municipalities charged with the conduct of elections shall appoint a board of election for each municipal election precinct, to consist of two inspectors, two judges, two clerks, and two ballots clerks, who shall apportion among themselves the work and labor required to conduct such election within their respective municipal election precincts. But one poll list need be kept, and but one register. These shall be returned to the proper officers as a part of the official returns.

§ 8. The register used in each municipal election precinct shall consist of a copy of the register of the county, or city and county, used at the general state election immediately preceding the holding of the election provided for in this act in the precincts which compose the municipal election precinct, together with the additional names of the persons who, by registration had since such general state election, are entitled to vote at any of the elections herein provided for within the municipal election precinct. In the event that precinct registers were used at the last preceding general state election, then it shall be the duty of the county clerk, or persons clothed with the authority for the registration of voters, to furnish a copy of the precinct register of each of the precincts which compose said municipal election precinct to the board of election for each municipal election precinct and the additional registrations above mentioned.

§ 9. No person shall be entitled to vote at any election provided for in this act unless his name appear upon the great register or precinct register as a voter within the exterior boundaries of the municipal election precinct, or unless, according to the constitution and laws of this state, he is entitled to vote thereat.

§ 10. The provisions of law which would be applicable to the elections mentioned in section one of this act, but for the passage hereof, shall, nevertheless, control the said elections as to the matters for which no provision is herein contained.

§ 11. The act approved March thirty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, entitled an act in relation to elections held under the authority of section eight of article eleven of the constitution to elect boards of freeholders, or to vote upon proposed charters, or amendments to existing charters, is hereby repealed.

§ 12. This act shall take effect immediately.

As to formation of election precincts, this statute is "directory."—People ex rel. Skelton vs. Los Angeles, 133 Cal. 338, 344, 65 Pac. Rep. 749. Cited, but not on same point, in Fragley vs. Phelan, 126 Cal. 383, 392, 58 Pac. Rep. 923; German Sav. & L. Soc. vs. Ramish, 138 Cal. 120, 130, 69 Pac. Rep. 89, 70 Pac. Rep. 1067.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—GIFTS BY.

To ratify and confirm the conveyance of certain property to trustees for charitable or educational purposes by the city council or trustees of any city of less than fifty thousand inhabitants, or of any incorporated town.

(Stats. 1889, 94, ch. LXXXIX.)

§ 1. Wherever the city council or trustees of any city of less than fifty thousand inhabitants, or of any incorporated town, has by deed of trust conveyed property, or any portion thereof, that has been set apart for a public park, to trustees, for charitable or educational uses, such conveyance is hereby ratified and confirmed; provided, that no institution now existing or to be established on such property shall be private in its benefits, or sectarian in its work or teachings, or be to any extent under the management or control of or in any way tributary to any religious creed or order, church, or sectarian denomination whatsoever; provided further, that land so conveyed shall be kept open as public grounds by the trustees of such institutions as are or may be placed thereon, and that the public visitation of such grounds shall not be restricted, excepting by such reasonable regulations as park property and the proper maintenance of such institutions may require; provided further, that property so conveyed shall revert to the grantors, whenever and so far as the grantees do not use the same in accordance with the stipulations of the deed of trust and with the requirements of this statute.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—GRAVEL BEDS.

Authorizing municipal corporations to lease, purchase, own, and operate gravel beds and quarries, and to transport gravel and rock therefrom to such municipal corporations, for the purpose of making, improving, and repairing roads.

(Stats. 1897, 217, ch. CLX.)

§ 1. Any incorporated city or town in this state may acquire, lease, purchase, and operate any gravel bed or quarry within the county where such city or town is situated, and may equip and operate a plant at such gravel bed or quarry, or within such town or city, for the purpose of breaking, crushing, or otherwise preparing gravel or rock to be used in making, paving, improving, or repairing its streets. Any such city or town may acquire, lease, or purchase and maintain all necessary roads, rights of way, and tramways over which to transport gravel or rock from such gravel bed or quarry to such city or town, and all necessary appliances for that purpose.

§ 2. No money shall be expended or expense incurred for any of the purposes set forth in section one, unless the same is authorized at a regular meeting of the legislative body of such city or town, and by a vote of two thirds of the members thereof.

§ 3. This act shall not extend or enlarge any limitation upon municipal taxation or the expenditure of municipal funds, now existing by reason of state laws or city charters in any of the cities or towns of this state.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—IMPROVEMENTS.

Authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations, incorporated under the laws of this state, for the construction of waterworks, sewers, and all necessary public improvements, or for any purpose whatever, and to repeal the act approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, entitled an act to authorize municipal corporations of the fifth class, containing more than three thousand and less than ten thousand inhabitants, to obtain waterworks, also to repeal an act approved March fifteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, entitled an act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations, incorporated under the laws of this state.

§ 1. Any city, town or municipal corporation, incorporated under the laws of this state, may, as hereinafter provided, incur indebtedness to pay the cost of any municipal improvement, or for any purpose whatever requiring an expenditure greater than the amount allowed for such improvement by the annual tax levy.

§ 2. Whenever the legislative branch of any city, town, or municipal corporation shall, by ordinance passed by a vote of two thirds of all its members, and approved by the executive of said city, town, or municipal corporation, determine that the public interest or necessity demands the acquisition, construction, or completion of any municipal buildings, bridges, waterworks, water rights, sewers, or other municipal improvements, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the municipality, they may, after the publication of such ordinance for at least two weeks in some newspaper published in such municipality, and at their next regular meeting after such publication, or at an adjourned meeting, by ordinance passed by a vote of two thirds of all its members, and also approved by the said executive, call a special election and submit to the qualified voters of said city, town, or municipal corporation, the proposition for the purpose set forth in the ordinance, and no question other than the incurring of indebtedness for said purpose shall be submitted. The ordinance calling such special election shall recite the objects and purposes for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the proposed public improvement, the necessity for such improvement, and that the bonds of the municipality shall issue for the payment of the cost of such improvement, as in such ordinance set forth, if the proposition be accepted by the qualified voters, as hereinafter provided, and shall fix the day on which such special election shall be held, the manner of holding such election, and the voting for or against incurring such indebtedness; such election shall be held as provided by law for holding such election in such city, town, or municipal corporation; provided, however, that where by the terms or provisions of the charter of any city, town, or municipal corporation, the cost of making the proposed improvements is to be or must be paid from a special fund created by such charter for that purpose, the proposition of incurring such an indebtedness may be submitted to the qualified voters at any general election for officers of the state of California or of such city, town, or municipal corporation. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 94.]

§ 3. Such ordinance shall be published once a day, for at least ten days, or once a week for two weeks before the publication of the notice of the special election, in some newspaper published in such municipality. After said publication said legislative body shall cause to be published, for not less than two weeks, in at least one of the newspapers published in such municipality, a notice of such special election, the purpose for which the indebtedness is to be incurred, the number and character of the bonds to be issued, the rate of interest to be paid, and the amount of tax levy to be made for the payment thereof. It shall require the votes of two thirds of all the voters voting at such special election to authorize the issuance of the bonds herein provided.

§ 4. It shall be the duty of the legislative branch of any municipality contemplating permanent public improvements, to first have plans and estimates of the cost of such improvements made by a competent engineer or architect, who has had successful experience in such work, before the question of incurring any indebtedness for such improvement is submitted to vote.

§ 5. No city, town, or municipal corporation shall incur any indebtedness for public improvements which shall, in the aggregate, exceed fifteen per centum of the assessed value of all the taxable real estate and personal property of such city, town, or municipal corporation. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 84.]

§ 6. All municipal bonds for public improvements issued under the provisions of this act shall be of the character of bonds known as serials, and shall be payable in gold coin or lawful money of the United States, in the manner following: One fortieth part of the whole amount of indebtedness shall be paid each and every year, on a day and at a place to be fixed by the legislative branch of the municipality issuing the bonds, together with the interest on all sums unpaid at such date. The bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the legislative branch of the municipality may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars, nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars each, payable on the day and at the place fixed in such bond, and with interest at the rate specified in the bond, which rate shall not be in excess of the legal rate of the state of California, and may be payable annually or semiannually. Such bonds may be issued and sold by the legislative branch of the city, town, or municipal corporation, as they may determine, at not less than their face value, in gold coin of the United States, and the proceeds of such sale shall be placed in the municipal treasury to the credit of the proper improvement fund, and shall be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects mentioned in the ordinance, until such objects are fully accomplished, after which, if any surplus remains, such surplus shall be transferred to the general fund of such municipality. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 61.]

§ 7. The legislative branch of any city, town, or municipal corporation, issuing bonds under authority of this act, shall have the right to determine the rate of interest such bonds shall bear; provided, that in no case shall it exceed seven per centum per annum, and to name the date and place where such bonds and interest shall be paid; provided, that the place of payment shall be either at the office of the treasurer of the municipality, or at some designated bank in San Francisco, Chicago, New York, or Boston. The said bonds shall be signed by the executive of the municipality, and also by the treasurer thereof, and shall be countersigned by the clerk. The coupons of said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the treasurer.

§ 8. The legislative branch of said city, town, or municipal corporation shall, at the time of fixing the general tax levy, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect annually, each year, for the term of forty years, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds, also one fortieth part of the aggregate amount of such indebtedness so incurred. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected.

All acts or parts of acts conflicting with this act are hereby repealed. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 61.]

tendents, and engineers to properly look after the construction and operation of such public works, and in all lawful ways to protect and preserve the rights and interests of the municipality; provided, however, that in cities, towns, or municipalities operating under a charter heretofore or hereafter framed under section eight of article eleven of the constitution, and having a board of public works, all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative branch of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board of public works of such city, town, or municipality. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 132.]

§ 10. All contracts for the construction or completion of any public works or improvements, or for furnishing labor or materials therefor, as herein provided, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The legislative branch of the municipality shall advertise, for at least ten days, in one or more newspapers published in the municipality, inviting sealed proposals for furnishing the labor and materials for the proposed improvements, before any contract shall be made therefor. The said legislative branch shall have the right to require such bonds as they may deem best from the successful bidder, to insure the faithful performance of the contract work. They shall also have the right to reject any or all bids; provided, however, that in cities, towns, or municipalities operating under a charter heretofore or hereafter framed under section eight of article eleven of the constitution, and having a board of public works, all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative branch of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board of public works of such city, town, or municipality. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 132.]

§ 11. Whenever the legislative branch of any municipality shall by resolution deem it necessary, they may require the treasurer of such municipality to give additional bonds for the safe custody and care of the public funds.

§ 12. The act approved March ninth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, entitled an act to authorize municipal corporations of the fifth class, containing more than three thousand and less than ten thousand inhabitants, to obtain public waterworks, and the act approved March fifteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, entitled an act authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations, incorporated under the laws of this state, and all general acts, or special acts, or parts of acts, conflicting with this act, are hereby repealed.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—IMPROVEMENT BONDS.

Authorizing the incurring of indebtedness by cities, towns, and municipal corporations for municipal improvements, and regulating the acquisition, construction, or completion thereof.

(Stats. 1901, 27, ch. XXXII.)

§ 1. Any city, town or municipal corporation incorporated under the laws of this state, may as hereinafter provided incur indebtedness to pay the cost of any municipal improvement requiring an expenditure greater than the amount allowed for such improvement by the annual tax levy.

§ 2. Whenever the legislative branch of any city, town or municipal corporation shall, by resolution passed by vote of two thirds of all its members and approved by the executive of said municipality, determine that the public interest or necessity demands the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement, including bridges, waterworks, water rights, sewers, light or power works or plants, buildings for municipal uses, school-houses, fire apparatus, and street work, or other works, property or structures necessary or convenient to carry out the objects, purposes and powers of the municipality, the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary annual income and revenue of the municipality, it may at any subsequent meeting of such board, by a vote of two thirds of all its members, and also approved by said executive, call a special election and submit to the qualified voters of said city, town or municipal corporation the proposition of incurring a debt for the purpose set forth in said resolution, and no question other than the incurring of the indebtedness for said purpose shall be submitted; provided, that propositions of incurring indebtedness for more than one object or purpose may be submitted at the same election. The ordinance calling such special election shall recite the objects and purposes for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the proposed public improvements, the amount of the principal of the indebtedness to be incurred therefor, and the rate of interest to be paid on said indebtedness, and shall fix the date on which such special election will be held, the manner of holding such election and the voting for or against incurring such indebtedness, and in all particulars not recited in said ordinance such election shall be held as provided by law for holding municipal elections in such municipality.

§ 3. Such ordinance shall be published once a day for at least seven days in some newspaper published at least six days a week in such municipality, or once a week for two weeks in some newspaper published less than six days a week in such municipality, and one insertion each week for two succeeding weeks shall be a sufficient publication in such newspaper published less than six days per week. In municipalities where no such newspaper is published, such ordinance shall be posted in three public places therein for two succeeding weeks. No other notice of such election need be given. It shall require the votes of two thirds of all the voters voting at such special election to authorize the issuance of the bonds herein provided; provided, however, should the proposition so submitted at such election fail to receive the requisite number of votes of the qualified voters, voting at such election to incur the indebtedness for the purpose specified, the legislative branch of such municipality shall have no power or authority within one year after such election to call or order another election for incurring any indebtedness for improvements substantially the same as voted upon at such prior election, unless a petition, signed by a majority of the taxpayers on the latest assessment roll of such municipality, be filed with such municipality, requesting that such proposition or a proposition substantially the same be submitted at an election to be called for the submission of such proposition and to be held in accordance with the provisions of this act.

§ 4. No city, town or municipal corporation shall incur an indebtedness for public improvements which shall in the aggregate exceed fifteen per centum of the assessed value of all the real and personal property of such city, town or municipal corporation.

§ 5. All municipal bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be payable substantially in the manner following: A part to be determined by the legislative body of the municipality, which shall be not less than one fortieth part of the whole amount of such indebtedness, shall be paid each and every year on a day and date, at the city treasury, to be fixed by the legislative branch of the municipality issuing the bonds, together with the interest on all sums unpaid at such date. The bonds shall be issued in such denominations as the legislative branch of the municipality may determine, except that no bonds shall be of a less denomination than one hundred dollars, nor of a greater denomination than one thousand dollars, and shall be payable on the day and at the place fixed in such bond, and with interest at the rate specified in the bond, which rate shall not be in excess of six per centum per annum and shall be payable semi-annually, and said bonds shall be signed by the executive of the municipality, and also by the treasurer thereof, and shall be countersigned by the clerk. The coupons of said bonds shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the treasurer.

§ 6. Such bonds may be issued and sold by the legislative branch of the city, town or municipal corporation as they may determine, but for not less than their par value, and the proceeds of such bonds shall be placed in the municipal treasury to the credit of the proper improvement fund, and shall be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects mentioned in the ordinance.

§ 7. The legislative branch of said city, town or municipality shall at the time of fixing the general tax levy, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect annually each year until said bonds are paid, or until there shall be a sum in the treasury of said city, town or municipality set apart for that purpose to meet all sums coming due for principal and interest on such bonds, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds, and also such part of the principal thereof as shall become due before the time for fixing the next general tax levy. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected, and be used for no other purpose than the payment of said bonds and accruing interest.

§ 8. It shall be the duty of the legislative branch of every city, town or municipal corporation, wherein public improvements are being made under the provisions of this act, to make all needful rules and regulations for carrying out and maintaining such improvements, to appoint all needful agents, superintendents and engineers to properly look after the construction and operation of such public works, and in all lawful ways to protect and preserve the rights and interests of the municipality; provided, however, that in cities, towns, or municipalities operating under a charter heretofore or hereafter framed under section eight of article eleven of the constitution, and having a board of public works, all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative branch of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board of public works of such city, town or municipality.

§ 9. All contracts for the construction or completion of any public works or improvements, or for furnishing labor or materials therefor, as herein provided, shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder. The legislative branch of the municipality shall advertise, for at least ten days, in one or more newspapers published in the municipality, inviting sealed proposals for furnishing the labor and materials for the proposed improvements, before any contract shall be made therefor. The said legislative branch shall have the right to require such bonds as they may deem best from the successful bidder, to insure the faithful performance of the contract work. They shall also have the right to reject any and all bids; provided, however, that in cities, towns or municipalities operating under a charter heretofore or hereafter framed under section eight of article eleven of the constitution, and having a board of public works, all the matters and things required in this section to be done and performed by the legislative branch of the municipality shall be done and performed by the board of public works of such city, town or municipality.

§ 10. Whenever the legislative branch of any municipality shall by resolution deem it necessary, they may require the treasurer of such municipality to give additional bonds for the safe custody and care of the public funds.

§ 11. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

§ 12. This act shall not be deemed to repeal, conflict with or modify any provision of any statute of this state concerning the levy of special taxes for specific public improvements when bond issues are not contemplated.

§ 13. This act shall take effect immediately.

See next following statute.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—IMPROVEMENT TAX.

To provide for the disposal of money raised by cities or towns for public improvement after the same has been completed and paid for.

(Stats. 1899, 105, ch. XCI.)

§ 1. Whenever any city or town hereafter raises, or has heretofore voted to raise, any sum of money for a specific public improvement, and after such improvement has been fully completed and paid for, a residue remains, for the disposition of which there is now no provision of law, such residue shall be paid into the general fund of such city or town and form part thereof.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—SPECIAL IMPROVEMENT TAX.

Providing for the levy of a special tax for specific public improvements within municipalities.

(Stats. 1901, 296, ch. CXXXVII.)

§ 1. Whenever it shall be determined by the legislative body of any municipality within the state of California that the public interest of such municipality demands the acquisition, construction or completion of any municipal improvement, including bridges, waterworks, water rights, sewers, light or power works or plants, buildings for municipal uses, fire apparatus and street work, or other works, property or structures necessary or convenient to carry out the objects, purposes and powers of the municipality the cost of which will be too great to be paid out of the revenues of the municipality to be received during the fiscal year, or years, in which such improvement is proposed to be made, a special tax, not to exceed the sum of fifty cents on each one hundred dollars, may be levied on the property assessed for purposes of taxation within said municipality, which said rate of taxation may be in addition to the annual rate of taxation allowed by law to be levied therein.

§ 2. Before said tax shall be levied by the legislative body of a municipality the question of the levy of such tax shall be submitted to the voters of the municipality at any general or special municipal election, or at a special election to be held for that purpose, and if two thirds of the votes cast upon the proposition of levying such tax shall be in favor of the levy thereof, then the levy shall be made; otherwise, the tax shall not be levied. Upon the ballots used at such election, the proposition to be voted for shall be stated in appropriate words and the same arranged so that the voter may indicate his choice upon the proposition. If a special election is held, the same shall be held and conducted as are other elections within the municipality.

§ 3. At least two weeks before such election is held the legislative body of the municipality shall adopt an ordinance calling and providing for the same, wherein it shall be stated:

1. The nature of the proposed improvement for the cost of which the special tax shall be levied;
2. The total amount of money to be raised for such improvement;
3. The annual rate of taxation to be levied.

§ 4. At the time fixed by law for the levying of taxes within the municipality, the legislative body thereof shall include the special tax herein provided for, which shall be the rate specified in the ordinance calling said election, nor shall it be levied for a longer period of years than shall be sufficient to raise the amount of money specified in said ordinance. The proceeds of said special tax shall be set apart in a special fund and shall only be expended for the purposes of making the improvement stated in said ordinance; provided, that any balance remaining after said improvement shall have been fully completed and paid for may be transferred to the general fund of the municipality.

§ 5. This act shall not be deemed to repeal, conflict with or modify any provision of any statute of this state concerning the incurring of a bonded indebtedness by municipalities for public improvements.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—"IMPROVEMENT ACT OF 1901"— STREETS.

To provide for local improvements upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities, such act to be known as "The Local Improvement Act of 1901."

(Stats. 1901, 34, ch. XXXVIII.)

§ 1. All streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts in the municipalities of this state, now open or dedicated, or which may hereafter be opened or dedicated to public use, shall be deemed and be held to be open public streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, for the purposes of this act, and the legislative body of each municipality is hereby empowered to establish and change the grades of said streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, and fix the width thereof, and is hereby invested with jurisdiction to order to be done thereon any of the work mentioned in section two of this act, under the proceedings hereinafter described.

§ 2. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the legislative body is hereby authorized and empowered to order the whole, or any portion, either in length or width, of the streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, courts, or places of any such municipality graded or regraded to the official grade, planked or replanked, paved or repaved, macadamized or remacadamized, graveled or regraveled, piled or repiled, capped or recapped, sewerred or re sewerred, supplied or resupplied with drains for storm water or other purposes, and to order sidewalks, parkways, manholes, catch-basins, culverts, cesspools, gutters, tunnels, curbing, and crosswalks to be constructed therein, or to order breakwaters, levees, or walls of rock, or other material, to protect the same from overflow or injury, and to order any other work to be done which shall be necessary to complete the whole or any portion of said streets, avenues, sidewalks, lanes, alleys, courts, or places, and it may order any of the said work to be improved, and also to order a sewer or sewers, with outlets, for drainage or sanitary purposes, in, over, or through any right of way granted or obtained for such purpose; and to provide for the maintenance of any such work.

§ 3. Before ordering any work done or improvement made which is authorized by section two of this act the legislative body shall pass a resolution referring the proposed work to the city engineer, if there be one, and if not, to some civil engineer employed by them for the purpose and named in the resolution, and instructing him to make to the legislative body a report in writing, containing his recommendations as to the best method of doing said work or of making said improvement, to which report shall be attached the exhibits hereinafter referred to.

§ 4. Thereafter, the said engineer shall file with the clerk of the municipality the report called for by section three above, and annex thereto the following exhibits, to wit:

1. A description of the work to be done; said work may include one or more streets in the same proceeding;

2. A description of the exterior boundaries of the district which will be benefited by the proposed improvement and should be specially assessed to pay the cost thereof;

3. Plans, profiles, cross-sections and specifications of the work required in order to accomplish said improvement;

4. An estimate of the expense of said improvements, deducting therefrom the estimated cost of so much, if any, of said improvements as may be by law required to be done by railroads having tracks upon the streets affected;

5. A map showing the district above referred to, and also the subdivisions of the property within said district, as ascertained by said engineer, each of which subdivisions shall be given upon said map a separate number in red ink;

6. A list referring to the said subdivisions upon said map by the respective red ink numbers thereof, and showing the names of the owners, if known, otherwise designating them as unknown, and the valuations of said respective subdivisions, as the same appear upon the last assessment roll of said municipality, if they so appear, otherwise as estimated by said engineer, also the dimensions, areas, and his estimates of the benefits which the respective parcels will receive from said improvement;

7. An estimate of all incidental expenses likely to be incurred in connection with the work, such as clerical, engineering, inspection, printing and advertising.

§ 5. After the report of the engineer provided for in the next preceding section has been filed with the clerk of the municipality, the legislative body of said municipality shall consider the same and shall have power, by resolution, to adopt the same as filed by said engineer, or as modified by the legislative body, and levy the assessment accordingly, but the same shall not constitute a lien until all parties interested have had an opportunity to be heard as hereinafter provided; in the same resolution the legislative body shall set forth the following:

1st. The rate of interest to be charged upon deferred payments;

2d. The time to be allowed upon deferred payments;

3d. The rate of interest to be allowed upon bonds issued to cover deferred payments;

4th. The time for which bonds issued to cover deferred payments are to run;

5th. The day and hour when and where any and all persons may appear before the legislative body and show cause, if any they have, why said improvement provided for in said resolution should not be carried out in accordance therewith; said time to be not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of passage of said resolution;

6th. A description of the exterior boundaries of the district declared by the legislative body to be benefited by the proposed improvement and assessed to pay the costs and expenses thereof.

The rate of interest above referred to shall not exceed seven per centum, and in the same resolution the legislative body shall provide, if they so determine, that the work covered by said resolution shall include maintenance thereof for a stated number of years to be fixed by said resolution.

§ 6. After the passage of the resolution mentioned in section five hereof there shall be conspicuously posted in three of the most public places within the municipality, and also along the street frontages of all the real property within the district, at not more than one hundred feet in distance apart, notices of the hearing provided for in section five; said notices shall be headed, "Notice of Local Improvement," in letters of not less than one inch in length, and shall in legible characters state the fact of the passage of the resolution mentioned in section five, and briefly describe the work or improvement proposed, and refer to said resolution for further particulars; said notice shall also state the date, hour and place for which the said hearing has been set, and shall notify all parties interested in any real estate within the limits of said district then and there to show cause, if any they have, why the said improvements proposed in said resolution should not be carried out in accordance therewith; said notice shall also contain a description of the district covered by the resolution by the exterior boundaries thereof, said description to be in bold-face type; said notices must be posted at least twenty days before the time set for the hearing, and must be published twice in some newspaper of general circulation, published within the municipal corporation in which the improvements are to be made, at least ten days before the date of hearing.

§ 7. At the time named in the notice hereinbefore provided for[,] for said hearing[,] there shall be filed with the legislative body an affidavit that the notice has been posted as hereinbefore provided for, and an affidavit of the printer or publisher of the newspaper in which said notice has been published that the same has been published as hereinbefore provided for, and the legislative body, before proceeding with said hearing, shall have entered upon the minutes of the meeting an order reciting that notice of said hearing has been posted and published according to law, and such recitals shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein recited, and the legislative body shall thereupon proceed with the hearing of any objections which shall have been made in writing and filed with the clerk of the municipality not later than the hour for hearing named in said notice, and no other objections shall be considered. Said hearing may be continued from time to time by the legislative body, and all parties interested shall be deemed to have notice of said continuances. All objections must be in writing, must contain a description of the property in which the objector is interested, and set forth the nature of his title thereto or interest therein, and must state the objector's ground of opposition, and must be signed and verified by the objector himself, or his attorney in fact, and objections which do not comply with these requirements shall not be considered by the said legislative body.

§ 8. At the close of the hearing provided for in the preceding section, the legislative body shall pass a resolution setting aside, modifying, or confirming the resolution provided for in section five hereof, and where the same is confirmed or modified, the lien of the assessment provided for therein shall immediately become attached to the respective parcels of land in accordance with said confirmed or modified resolution.

§ 9. Any action to contest an assessment levied by the legislative body of any municipality under the terms of this act must be commenced within thirty days after the entry upon the minutes of such legislative body of the resolution provided for in the preceding section hereof; and any appeal from a final judgment in such an action must be perfected within thirty days after the entry of such judgment.

§ 10. After the expiration of thirty days from the passage of the resolution provided for in section eight hereof, the clerk of the municipality shall transmit to the tax collector of the municipality the map and list provided for in subdivisions five and six, respectively, of section four hereof, and any modification made by the legislative body therein; provided, however, if any actions have been brought within thirty days after the passage of the resolution referred to in section eight, such transmission shall be postponed until such actions have been finally determined.

§ 11. Upon the receipt of the map and list referred to in the last preceding section, the tax collector of the municipality shall record the same in a substantial book to be kept for that purpose in his office. Said book shall also be ruled with appropriate columns, in which the tax collector shall extend the amounts of all instalments of principal and interest and deferred payments, and each of said columns shall be provided with a space in which he shall make record of the fact and date of all payments received by him; and there shall also be a column in which shall be entered a reference by volume and page to the respective agreements under which said deferred payments are made.

§ 12. The tax collector of the municipality shall thereupon fix a day, not less than thirty nor more than forty days from the date of the receipt by him of the map and list transmitted to him under the provisions of section ten hereof, which day shall be the last day for cash payments; and also shall fix a day for the sale of the various parcels of land within said district, which said day shall be not less than forty nor more than sixty days from the receipt by him of the map and list transmitted to him under the provisions of section ten hereof; notice thereof shall be given in conformity with the general laws of the state of California providing for notice of sale of real estate upon execution, and shall be posted and published in the same manner as such notices; provided, however, that the descriptions of the various parcels need not be set out at length, but only by the respective numbers of the same, as the same appear upon the assessment and diagram, which shall be properly referred to in said notice; which shall be in one writing, containing all of said descriptions.

§ 13. At the time and place fixed for the sale of said property by the terms of the notice referred to in the last section, the tax collector shall sell the respective parcels of land within said district, the assessments against which have not been paid or bonded against as hereinafter provided, or so much of each parcel as shall be necessary to realize the amount assessed against such parcel and its proportion of the expenses of sale, in the order of their numbers upon the map provided for in subdivision five of section four hereof, at which sale the municipality may be a purchaser; provided, however, if at or before the time fixed in the notice of sale the owner of any parcel shall file with the tax collector a written agreement, waiving all objections, of whatsoever kind or nature, against the assessment and all proceedings with reference to the same, and undertaking to pay the assessment on his parcel in yearly instalments not to exceed ten in number, the first of which shall be paid at the time said agreement is filed, and the others annually thereafter, one each year, at the time when the first instalment of municipal taxes within said municipality is payable, with interest on all deferred payments at the rate of — per centum per annum, being the same rate fixed by the resolution provided for in section five above for deferred payments, payable at the same time as the instalments of principal, then, and in that event, the tax collector shall mark upon the record of the assessment, opposite the respective descriptions or numbers of such parcels, memoranda to the effect that time has been given; said waivers and undertakings shall be taken upon printed forms provided by the tax collector, bound in a substantial book and kept among the records of his office; said agreements shall contain a provision to the effect that in case of default in payment of any instalment of principal provided for therein, or interest accrued on deferred payments, at the time called for by said agreements, then, in that event, the entire remaining unpaid instalments shall become immediately due and payable, and the tax collector shall then forthwith, upon twelve days' written notice mailed to the last known address of the party, sell the property covered by the delinquent payment to realize the entire unpaid balance of said instalments, with accrued interests, and costs of sale; provided, the same have not been paid before the expiration of said twelve days. At such sale the municipality may be a bidder; said agreement shall provide that the entire unpaid balance may be paid at any time before maturity, together with interest on all deferred payments, until the date of maturity of the instalment of principal next falling due.

§ 14. The tax collector shall issue for each sale an original and duplicate certificate of sale, referring to the proceedings, describing the parcels sold, and containing the name of the purchaser; the originals he shall deliver to the purchaser, and the duplicates he shall keep on file in his office in the form of stubs in a certificate book.

§ 15. If the property sold as provided in the above proceedings be not redeemed within one year after the sale, the tax collector shall then issue to the party named in the original certificate, or his assignee, a deed of the property described in said certificate, which said deeds shall refer, in general terms, to the proceedings under which the same is issued, and shall contain a description of the property, following the description in the certificate; the grantee of such deed is, immediately upon receipt thereof, entitled to possession of the property described therein.

§ 16. At any time before the expiration of the year above provided for, in which redemption may be made, any property sold under the provisions of the preceding sections may be redeemed by the payment to the tax collector of the amount for which the property was sold, with an additional penalty of twenty-five per centum of the amount for which the same was sold; all redemption money shall be paid by the tax collector to the persons holding the respective original certificates of sale, upon their delivering up the same, and receipting for the amount received from the tax collector therefor.

§ 17. The said funds collected by the tax collector under the proceedings herein provided for, either upon voluntary payment or as the result of sales, shall be paid by said tax collector, as fast as collected, to the treasurer of said municipality, who shall enter the same in a special fund designated by reference to the number of the proceeding, and shall be paid out only for purposes provided for in this act.

§ 18. After all sales above provided for have been made, the tax collector shall report to the legislative body of the municipality the amount of cash collections and the amount of instalment agreements taken; at any time thereafter the legislative body may order bonds issued against the said special local improvement fund, in such denominations and on such terms, not to exceed ten years, and at such rate of interest, not to exceed seven per centum per annum, as they shall have designated in said proceedings, the aggregate of such bonds not to exceed the amount of the instalment agreements taken, as above set forth; the form of such bonds shall be substantially as follows:

“LOCAL IMPROVEMENT BOND.

“District No. —.

No. —.

“Under and by virtue of an act of the legislature of the state of California (title of this act) the (insert the legal title of the municipality) out of the fund hereinafter referred to, will pay to the bearer the sum of $— United States gold coin of the same weight and fineness as that now issued from the mints of the United States of America, with interest thereon, in like gold coin, at the rate of — per centum per annum, all as hereinafter specified, and at the office of the treasurer of said municipality.

“This bond is payable exclusively from street improvement fund number — (here insert designation of special fund, as same is identified on the books of the treasurer of the municipality, as provided in section nineteen of this act), and neither the municipality nor any officer thereof shall be holden for payment otherwise of its principal or interest; and instalments of principal and interest accruing hereon shall be payable out of any moneys in said fund at the date of their maturity, in order of presentation, and shall be secured by all agreements and liens provided for by this act and arising out of the improvement to which said fund relates. The term of this bond is — years from its date, and, at the expiration of said time, the whole sum then unpaid shall be due and payable; but on the second day of January of each year after its date, an even annual proportion of its whole amount is due and payable, upon the presentation of the coupon therefor, until the whole is paid, with all accrued interest, at the rate of — per centum per annum. The interest is payable semiannually, to wit: On the second days of January and July in each year hereafter, upon the presentation of the coupons therefor, the first of which is for the interest from date to the next second day of —, and thereafter the interest coupons are for semiannual interest, except the last, which is for interest from the semiannual payment next preceding and to the date of the final maturity of this bond. Should default be made in the annual payment upon the principal, or in any payment of interest, the holder of this bond is entitled to declare the whole unpaid amount to be due and payable, and to have all liens and agreements, which are security for said fund and are then enforceable, immediately enforced in payment thereof. The principal hereof may be paid, at the option of said municipality, at any time before maturity. Notice of such redemption must be published by the treasurer of said municipality once in some newspaper of general circulation, published in said municipality, or at the county seat of the county in which the same is located, and, at the expiration of one month from said publication, interest on all principal sums covered by such notice shall cease.

“At said — of — the — day of — in the year one thousand — hundred and —.

“(Insert title of presiding officer of the legislative body.)”

“_____”

“Treasurer of the (name of the municipality.)”

Said bonds shall be signed by the presiding officer of the legislative body of the municipality and countersigned by the treasurer of said municipality, and the seal of the municipality shall be affixed thereto. Said coupons shall be signed by the treasurer of the municipality, and his signature thereto may be by lithograph.

Said bonds shall then be sold at not less than par to the highest bidder, for cash in United States gold coin; the proceeds shall be paid into the said special local improvement fund in the treasurer's hands.

§ 19. At any time after the funds for the work, or any part of the work, are actually in the hands of the treasurer, the legislative body may let the contract, or contracts, for such work, or the respective parts thereof; all contracts shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice published in some newspaper of general circulation published within the municipality, for two insertions, a week apart; or if there be no such newspaper, then by such posting as the legislative body may provide.

Every bid shall be accompanied by the certified check amounting to ten per centum of the bid, payable to the order of the presiding officer of the legislative body of the municipality, and the same shall be forfeited to the municipality in case the bidder depositing the same do not, within ten days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the municipality for the work, the faithful performance of which shall be secured by an undertaking in such penal sum as the legislative body shall require, and with sureties satisfactory to said body; when such contract and bond have been entered into, said check shall be returned to the successful bidder; the unsuccessful bidders shall receive their checks upon notice of rejection of their bids; and the legislative body may require, and, if so, it must be stated in the original resolution and petition and in the notice for bids, that the contractor to whom the work is awarded shall furnish the municipality with a bond in such sum and with such responsible surety corporation (legally qualified to carry on business in the state of California), as guarantor, as shall be approved by said legislative body, conditioned that the said contractor shall maintain free from all defects, except such as may result from ordinary wear and tear, the work contracted for and performed for such period as may be designated by said legislative body.

The contract must provide that the work be done, and the work must be done, strictly in accordance with the plans and specifications provided for in section four of this act, as modified by the resolution provided for in section five of this act; the contract must contain provisions making it comply with the terms of all statutes of the state of California in force at the time of the making of the contract, with reference to employment, hours and wages of labor.

The work must be done under the supervision of the superintendent of streets of the municipality, or such deputy or deputies as the legislative body shall appoint for the purpose.

No work shall be paid for until it has been accepted by the legislative body. Whenever the contractor desires the work or part thereof to be accepted he must make written application to that effect to the legislative body of the municipality. Upon the filing of such application for acceptance, the clerk of the municipality shall give at least five days' notice by publication within the municipality or by posting upon the premises affected, as the legislative body shall determine, that at a certain time to be named in said notice the legislative body of the municipality will hear and consider any objections to the acceptance of the work or part of the work for the acceptance of which said contractor has made such application, and only after such hearing shall any work be accepted. If upon such hearing objections to the acceptance are made and held by the legislative body to be good, the legislative body must require the contractor to take such steps as will remove such objections, and in the event of his failure to do so within such time as the legislative body shall prescribe, the legislative body may relet such portion of the work and charge the contractor the cost thereof together with all expenses incidental to said reletting, and retain the same out of any moneys due or to become due to him under the contract, and also hold him and his sureties responsible therefor upon his bond.

The work must be commenced and completed within such time as the legislative body shall prescribe. If the contractor abandon the work, or fail to proceed with the same as rapidly as required by his contract, the legislative body may relet the work and pay the cost of the same out of any funds due or to grow due the contractor, and also any expenses incidental to the reletting, and also hold him and his sureties responsible for the same upon his bond, and also for any damages resulting from such abandonment.

§ 20. In case the first assessment for any local improvement prove insufficient, a second may be made in the same manner as nearly as may be, except that no protest shall be entertained upon subject-matter already decided in the first hearing, and so on until sufficient money shall have been realized to pay for such local improvement.

§ 21. If at any time an assessment for any local improvement shall realize a larger sum than is necessary for such improvement, the excess shall be refunded upon warrant on the treasurer, authorized by the legislative body, pro rata, to the parties by whom it was paid; and, in the case of instalment assessments, shall be credited on the unpaid instalments, beginning with the one due at the latest date.

§ 22. All special assessments levied under this act shall, from the date of confirmation as provided in section eight hereof, be a lien upon the real estate upon which they are imposed, paramount to all other liens, except prior assessments and general taxes, and such lien shall continue until such special assessments are paid; and all parties shall have constructive notice of such lien from the date of entry of the resolution referred to in section eight above.

§ 23. Whenever the majority of frontage between any two consecutive crossings upon any of the public ways mentioned in section one of this act, has been improved, the legislative body may compel the remainder of said frontage between said crossings to be similarly improved without other proceedings than those provided for in this section as follows, to wit: The legislative body shall pass a resolution ordering said work to be done, briefly describing the work and the property in front of which the work is to be done, and fixing a time when objections to the doing of said work will be heard by said legislative body, which said time shall be not less than two weeks nor more than thirty days from the date of the passage of the resolution; at least ten days before the time named in said resolution for said hearing the clerk of the municipality shall mail a copy of said resolution to the person or persons to whom the property in front of which the said work is to be done is assessed upon the last preceding assessment roll of such municipality, at their addresses if known, otherwise addressed to them care of the United States post-office in the municipality, shall personally serve upon the person or persons in possession of the premises, if the same be occupied, and shall post a copy of the same in a conspicuous place upon the said premises, and the certificate of said clerk to the effect that said mailing, posting and service has been done shall be filed with the legislative body and entered upon their minutes, and said entry shall constitute conclusive evidence of the facts stated in said certificate; at the time named in said resolution said legislative body shall meet and consider any objections which may be made to the doing of said work; if there are no objections or if the legislative body overrule the same, the legislative body shall then pass a resolution ordering said work to be done; if within ten days after the passage of the last-named resolution satisfactory evidence be not produced to the legislative body that the said work is to be immediately done by private contract the legislative body may advertise for bids for such work by such publication or posting as they shall deem necessary and let the work to the lowest responsible bidder, and pay for the same out of the general fund or any other fund available for the purpose; the entire cost of such work together with the expenses incidental to the proceedings therefor shall be charged against the property in front of which the same has been done; the clerk of the municipality shall immediately upon the completion and acceptance of the work file an itemized statement of said charge with the recorder of the county in which the municipality is located, and thereupon the said charge shall become a lien upon the property affected, which said lien shall relate back to the date of the passage of the original resolution first above mentioned and shall be continued upon such property until the same is paid in full with interest at seven per centum from the date of the record of said statement, and the municipality shall have power to enforce said lien by foreclosure suit and sell said property for the satisfaction thereof.

§ 24. This act shall be known as "The Local Improvement Act of 1901" and shall take effect and be in force upon its passage and approval.

§ 25. This act shall in nowise affect an act entitled "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March eighteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, or amendments thereto, or an act entitled "An act to provide a system of street improvement bonds to represent certain assessments for the cost of street work and improvement within municipalities, and also for the payment of said bonds," approved February twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-three; or any of said acts; but is intended to and does provide an alternate system of proceedings for public improvements, and it shall be within the discretionary power of the legislative body of any municipality to proceed in making such improvements, either under the provisions of this act, or under the provisions of the other said acts, but when any proceedings are commenced under this act the provisions of this act, and such amendments thereto as may hereafter be adopted, and no other, shall thereafter apply to all such proceedings; but any provision contained in said or any other acts in conflict with provisions hereof shall be void as to and of no effect upon proceedings commenced under the provisions of this act.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—INDEBTEDNESS.

Providing for the adjustment, settlement, and payment of any indebtedness existing against any city or municipal corporation at the time of exclusion of territory therefrom, and the division of the property thereof.

(Stats. 1893, 536, ch. CCXLIV.)

§ 1. That where any territory has been or shall be excluded from any city or municipal corporation, the superior court of the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situate shall, upon a verified petition of any ten taxpayers residing in such city or municipal corporation, or in the territory excluded, made for the purpose of adjusting the amount of the indebtedness of such city or municipal corporation existing at the time of the exclusion of such territory due from the excluded territory, and stating the facts of such exclusion and the amount of such indebtedness, cause notice to be given by publication thereof in a newspaper published in such city or municipal corporation, or in a newspaper published in the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situated, for ten days, stating the substance of such petition, and the time and place that the same shall be heard by said superior court, which time of hearing shall be at least fifteen days after the filing of such petition, or at any time thereafter to which such hearing may be continued by the court.

Any person, corporation, or taxpayer interested in such city or municipal corporation, or in such excluded territory, or in the adjustment and settlement of such indebtedness, may demur to or answer said petition. The rules of pleading and practice provided by the Code of Civil Procedure which are not in conflict with the provisions of this act, are hereby made applicable to the special proceedings herein provided for. The persons so demurring or answering said petition shall be the defendants to said special proceedings, and the signers of the petition shall be the plaintiffs.

Upon the hearing of such special proceedings, the court shall have power to determine the amount due from such excluded territory to the city or municipal corporation from which it was excluded as its proportion of the indebtedness of such city or municipal corporation existing at the time such territory was excluded. In fixing the amount due from such excluded territory, the said court must ascertain and find the purposes for which the said indebtedness was created; the manner and place in which the proceeds of said indebtedness were expended; the value of the property belonging to the said city or municipal corporation at the time of such exclusion; the assessed value of the property situate in said city or municipal corporation at the time the city assessment was made immediately preceding such exclusion, and the assessed value of the excluded territory as shown by such city assessment. If the value of the property belonging to said city or municipal corporation, and which remains within the boundaries thereof after such exclusion, should exceed the value of city or municipal property situated in such excluded territory, and also exceed the pro rata portion of the indebtedness of the city or municipal corporation due from such excluded territory as shown by said assessment, the court shall find and adjudge that there is nothing due from such excluded territory. After such finding is made, and judgment rendered by the court, such excluded territory shall not be subject to the payment of any such indebtedness, and all property belonging to such city or municipal corporation remaining within its boundaries shall belong exclusively to it.

If the court finds, after deducting the value of the city or municipal property from the value of that in the excluded territory, and the pro rata portion of the indebtedness to be borne by such excluded territory, a balance due from such excluded territory, it shall render judgment accordingly, and the amount of such judgment shall be collected and paid in the same manner and at the same time that the assessment is levied for, and the collection of the annual municipal taxes is made upon the property remaining in such city or municipal corporation for any payment on account of such indebtedness; provided, however, that any such territory excluded from any city or municipal corporation may, at any time, tender to the legislative body of such city or municipal corporation the amount for which such excluded territory is liable on account of such indebtedness; and after such tender is made the authority of such city or municipal corporation to levy and assess taxes on such excluded territory shall forever cease.

Johnson vs. City San Diego, 109 Cal. 468, 472. 42 Pac. Rep. 249, 30 L. R. A. 178.

Popular vote as to paying indebtedness.—An act authorizing cities of not less than 26,000 nor more than 30,000 to vote upon the question of paying certain indebtedness (1891, 8, ch. XII) has evidently served its purpose, and is omitted.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—JUDGMENTS.

Prescribing how judgments which may be recovered against any city and county of over one hundred thousand population shall be paid.

(Stats. 1895, 163, ch. CLIX.)

§ 1. All existing judgments against any city and county of over one hundred thousand population shall be paid by the treasurer of such city and county, out of the or any general fund thereof, after the same shall have been audited by the auditor, auditing officer, board, or other auditing officer or officers, and it is hereby made the duty of the board of supervisors and mayor of such city and county to include in the tax levy for any fiscal year a sum sufficient to pay existing judgments.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately after its passage.

See next succeeding statute.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—JUDGMENTS.

To provide for the payment of judgments against counties, cities, cities and counties, and towns.

(Stats. 1901, 794, ch. CCXXXVI.)

§ 1. All final judgments now existing or that may be obtained hereafter against any county, city and county, city, or town of the state of California, shall be paid by the treasurer of such county, city and county, or town, as hereinafter provided.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to file with the auditor and to furnish the board of supervisors, town trustees, or other board or body authorized by law to levy taxes, a complete list of all the existing final judgments against such county, city and county, city, or town, of record in his office, at least fifteen days before the day on which any tax levy must by law be made.

§ 3. It shall be the duty of the auditor to examine and audit the final judgments so reported by the county clerk, and to certify the amount of such final judgments to the treasurer within five (5) days from the day on which such list of final judgments is filed with him. Thereupon, the board of supervisors, city council, town trustees, or other board of [or] officers, as the case may be, having authority to levy taxes upon the taxable property of such county, city and county, city, or town, must include in the tax levy for the next fiscal year a rate or sum sufficient to pay all final judgments existing against such county, city and county, city, or town. The omission to include the amount of any existing final judgment in the tax levy for any year, shall not of itself invalidate the tax levy as made, but such omission or omissions must be included in the next tax levy; provided, that the board of supervisors or other board or officers having authority to levy taxes may provide for the payment of such final judgments when so audited by including in the tax levy for the next fiscal year an aliquot part or fraction of the amount of such judgments, and thereupon the treasurer shall pay to each judgment creditor a like aliquot part or fraction of the amount of the judgment of the creditor, and thereafter a like aliquot part or fraction of the amount of such judgments shall be levied and paid each successive year until the whole thereof shall be fully paid; but such fractional levy and payment shall in no case be less than one tenth ($\frac{1}{10}$) of the whole amount of such judgments.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—LIGHT.

To provide for the lighting of public streets, lanes, alleys, courts and places in municipalities, and for the assessment of the costs and expenses thereof upon the property benefited thereby.

(Stats. 1905, 564, ch. CDXIX.)

§ 1. Whenever the public interest or convenience may require, the city council of any municipality in the state shall have full power and authority to order poles, posts, wires, pipes, conduits and lamps, or any of said appliances, or any other suitable and necessary appliances, to be installed in and along the whole or any part of any public street, lane, alley, court or place in such municipality, for the purpose of lighting the same; also to order appliances in and along the same, installed under this act, or otherwise installed and owned or controlled by such municipality, to be maintained; and also to order gas, electric current, or other illuminating agent, to be furnished for such lighting: in the manner and under the proceedings hereinafter described.

§ 2. Before ordering any improvement to be made, which is authorized by section one of this act, the city council shall adopt a resolution declaring its intention to do so, briefly describing the proposed improvement, which may include the whole or any part of one or more streets, lanes, alleys, courts or places, and specifying the exterior boundaries of the district to be benefited by said improvement and to be assessed to pay the cost and expenses thereof, and to be known as the assessment district. Said proposed improvement may include any or all of the different kinds of work mentioned in section one of this act; provided, however, that the maintenance of appliances or the furnishing of gas, electric current or other illuminating agent, shall be for a period stated in the resolution of intention, but not exceeding two years. The city council shall also, in the same resolution, refer the proposed improvement to the city engineer, if there be one, and if not, to some competent person employed by the municipality for the purpose and named in said resolution, and direct him to make and file with the clerk of the city council a report in writing presenting the following:

1. Plans and specifications for the work required in order to make said improvements;
2. An estimate of the cost of said improvement and of the incidental expenses in connection therewith;
3. A diagram showing the district above referred to, and also the boundaries and dimensions of the respective subdivisions of the land within said district, each of which subdivisions shall be given a separate number in red ink upon said diagram.
4. A proposed assessment of the total amount of the costs and expenses of the proposed improvement upon the several subdivisions of land in said district in proportion to the estimated benefits to be received by such subdivisions, respectively, from said improvement. Said assessment shall refer to such subdivisions upon said diagram by the respective red ink numbers thereof, and shall show the names of the owners, if known, otherwise designating them as unknown. No mistake in the name of the owner of any parcel of land shall affect the validity of the assessment thereon.

In any municipality having a board of public works created by its charter or by law, the proposed improvement shall be referred to said board, and the report provided for herein shall be made by said board.

§ 3. Upon the filing of the report provided for in section two of this act, the said clerk shall present the same to the city council for consideration, and said council may modify the same in any respect, and, in case of any such modification, the report as modified shall stand as the report for the purpose of all subsequent proceedings. Thereafter the council, by resolution, shall appoint a time and place for hearing protests in relation to the proposed improvement, which time shall not be less than twenty days from the date of the passage of said resolution, and shall direct the clerk of the city council to give notice of said hearing, and shall designate the newspaper in which such notice shall be published.

§ 4. After the passage of the resolution mentioned in section three of this act, the clerk of said city council shall cause to be conspicuously posted along all streets and parts of streets within the assessment district described in the resolution of intention, at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart, notices (not less than three in all), of the passage of said resolution of intention and of the filing of said report. Said notices shall be headed "Notice of Local Improvement," in letters not less than one inch in length, shall be in legible characters, and shall state the fact and date of the passage of said resolution of intention and of the filing of said report, and the date set for the hearing of said protests, and briefly describe the improvement proposed, and refer to said resolution and report for further particulars. He shall also cause a notice similar in substance to be published for a period of two days in a daily newspaper published and circulated in said municipality, and designated by said city council for that purpose, or if there is no daily newspaper in said municipality, then by two successive insertions in a weekly paper, so published, circulated and designated. Said notices must be posted and published, as above provided, at least ten days before the date set for the hearing of said protests.

§ 5. Any person interested, objecting to said improvement, or to the extent of the assessment district, or to the proposed assessment provided for in section two of this act, may file a written protest with the clerk of the city council at or before the time set for the hearing referred to in section three hereof. The clerk shall indorse on every such protest the date of its reception by him, and at the time appointed for the hearing above provided for, shall present to said city council all protests so filed with him. If such protests are against said improvement and said city council finds that the same are signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district, all further proceedings under said resolution of intention shall be barred and no new resolution of intention for the same improvement shall be passed within six months after the presentation of such protests to the city council, unless the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within said assessment district shall in the mean time petition therefor. If such protests are against the improvement and the council finds that they are not signed by the owners of a majority of the frontage of the property fronting on streets or parts of streets within the assessment district, or if such protests are against the extent of the assessment district, the council shall hear said protests at the time appointed therefor, as above provided, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and pass upon the same, and its decision shall be final and conclusive, and if such protests are sustained the proceeding shall be abandoned, but may be renewed at any time, and if such protests are denied, the proposed assessment shall be confirmed. If such protests are against the proposed assessment, the council shall hear said protests at the time appointed therefor as above provided, or at any time to which the hearing thereof may be adjourned, and may confirm, modify or correct said proposed assessment.

When, upon the hearing, said proposed assessment is confirmed, modified or corrected, or in case no protests are filed, the report provided for in section two hereof shall be adopted as a whole, with any modifications or corrections that have been made therein, and the city council shall by resolution order said proposed improvement to be made, and declare its action upon said report and assessment, which resolution shall be final and conclusive on all persons, and the assessment shall be thereby levied upon the respective subdivisions of land in the assessment district.

§ 6. The validity of an assessment levied under this act shall not be contested in any action or proceeding unless the same is commenced within thirty days after the time said assessment is levied, and any appeal from a final judgment in such an action or proceeding must be perfected within thirty days after the entry of such judgment.

§ 7. Upon the passage of the resolution provided for in section five hereof, the clerk of said city council shall transmit to the tax collector of the municipality, the diagram and assessment provided for in subdivisions three and four of section two hereof, and any modifications or corrections thereof made by said city council.

§ 8. Upon the receipt of the diagram and assessment referred to in the last preceding section, the tax collector of the municipality shall record the same in a substantial book, to be kept for that purpose, in his office, and shall thereupon fix a day not less than twenty, nor more than thirty, days from the date of the receipt by him of said diagram and assessment after which all assessments unpaid shall become delinquent and ten per centum shall be added to the amount thereof, and shall also fix a day for the sale of the various parcels of land within said district upon which the assessments are unpaid, which said date shall be not less than fifty days nor more than sixty days from the date of the receipt by him of said diagram and assessment.

§ 9. Notice of the sale of property upon which the said assessments are delinquent shall be given by said tax collector by posting and publication in the manner now provided by the general laws of the state of California, for giving notice of sale of real estate upon execution, provided, however, that the descriptions of the various parcels of land need not be set out at length, but only by the respective numbers of the same as they appear upon the assessment and diagram, which shall be properly referred to in said notice, and said descriptions shall all be contained in one notice. At the time and place fixed for the sale of said property the tax collector shall separately sell the respective parcels of land within said district the assessments against which have not been paid, or so much of each parcel as shall be necessary to realize the amount assessed against said parcel, said ten per centum penalty for delinquency, and its proportion of the expenses of sale, in the order of their numbers upon said diagram. At said sale the municipality may be a purchaser.

§ 10. The tax collector shall issue for each sale an original and a duplicate certificate of sale, referring to the proceedings, describing the parcel sold, and giving the name of the purchaser and the amount for which said parcel was sold. The original certificate he shall deliver to the purchaser, and the duplicate he shall keep on file in his office in the form of a stub in the certificate book.

§ 11. At any time before the expiration of one year from the date of the sale, any property sold under the provisions of the preceding sections may be redeemed by the payment to the tax collector of the amount for which the property was sold, with an additional penalty of twenty-five per centum of said amount. Said redemption money shall be paid by the tax collector to the person holding the original certificate of sale upon his delivering up the same and receipting for the amount received from the tax collector therefor. Upon redemption of any parcel of land the tax collector shall enter the fact and date of such redemption upon the duplicate certificate of sale thereof.

§ 12. If the property is sold, and is not redeemed within said period of one year from the date of the sale, the tax collector shall execute to the person named in the original certificate, or to his assignee, a deed of the property described in said certificate, which said deed shall refer in general terms to the proceedings under which the same is issued, and shall contain a description of the property. Such deed shall convey title in fee to said property, and the grantee is immediately, upon the receipt thereof, entitled to possession of the property described therein.

§ 13. The funds collected by the tax collector under the proceedings herein provided for, either upon voluntary payment, or as the result of sales, shall be paid by said tax collector, as fast as collected, to the treasurer of said municipality, who shall place the same in a special fund designated by the number or name of the proceeding, and payments shall be made out of said special fund only for the purposes provided for in this act. To expedite the making of any such improvement, the city council may at any time transfer into said special fund, out of any money in the general fund, such sums as it may deem necessary, and the sums so transferred shall be deemed a loan to such special fund and shall be repaid out of the proceeds of the assessments provided for in this act.

§ 14. At any time after the funds for the work, or any part of the work, shall be in the hands of said treasurer, the city council may let the contract or contracts for such work, or the respective parts thereof. Every such contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice published by two insertions in some newspaper published in such municipality and designated by the city council for that purpose, or if there be no such newspaper, then by such posting as the city council may provide.

Every bid shall be accompanied by a certified check, amounting to ten per centum of the bid, payable to the order of the clerk of said city council, and the same shall be forfeited to the municipality in case the bidder depositing the same does not, within ten days after written notice that the contract has been awarded to him, enter into a contract with the municipality for the work, the faithful performance of which shall be secured by an undertaking in such penal sum as the city council shall require, with sureties satisfactory to said council.

The contract must provide that the work shall be done, and the work must be done, strictly in accordance with the plans and specifications contained in the report provided for in sections two and three of this act. The work must be done under the supervision of the board, officer or person by whom the report provided for in section two of this act was made, and no work shall be paid for until it has been accepted by said board, officer or person and by said city council.

If the contractor abandons the work or fails to proceed with the same as rapidly as required by his contract, the said city council may relet the work in the same manner as in the case of the first letting thereof, and retain the cost of the same, and also any expense incidental to the reletting, out of any funds due or to become due to the contractor, and also hold him and his sureties responsible for such cost and expense, and for any damages resulting from such abandonment or failure upon his bond.

§ 15. In case the first assessment for any improvement provided for in this act proves insufficient, a supplemental assessment may be made to raise the deficit, in the same manner as nearly as may be, as the first assessment, except that protests may only be made to such supplemental assessment, and so on until sufficient money shall have been realized to pay for such improvement.

§ 16. If at any time an assessment for any such improvement shall realize a larger sum than is necessary therefor, the excess shall be refunded pro rata to the parties by whom it was paid.

§ 17. Every special assessment levied under this act shall, from the date of the levy thereof, be a lien upon the land upon which it is levied paramount to all other liens, except prior assessments and taxation, and such lien shall continue until such special assessment is paid, or until the property is sold and a deed is made therefor to the purchaser as hereinbefore provided, and all parties shall have constructive notice of such lien from the date of the passage of the resolution referred to in section five hereof.

§ 18. The following words and phrases shall, where used in this act, have the following meanings:

(1) The term "improvement" includes all work and improvements mentioned in section one of this act.

(2) The terms "municipality" and "city" include every incorporated city, city and county, or other corporation organized for municipal purposes.

(3) The terms "city council" and "council" include any body or board in which by law is vested the legislative power of any city.

(4) The terms "treasurer" and "city treasurer" include any person or officer who has charge and makes payments of the city funds.

(5) The term "city engineer" includes any person or officer who has charge of the surveying and engineering work of said city.

§ 19. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

See tit. Gas Companies.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—MAPS.

Requiring the recording of maps of cities, towns, additions to cities or towns, or subdivisions of lands into small lots or tracts for the purposes of sale, and providing a penalty for the selling or offering for sale any lots or tracts in cities, towns, additions to cities, towns, subdivisions, or additions thereto, before such maps are filed and recorded.

(Stats. 1893, 96, ch. LXXX; amended 1901, 288, ch. CXXIV.)

§ 1. Whenever any city, town, or subdivision of land into lots, or any addition to any city, town, or such subdivision, shall be laid out into lots for the purposes of sale, the proprietor or proprietors thereof shall cause to be made out an accurate map or plat thereof, particularly setting forth and describing.—

First. All the parcels of ground within such city, town, addition, or subdivision reserved for public purposes, by their boundaries, courses, and extent, whether they be intended for avenues, streets, lanes, alleys, courts, commons, or other public uses; and,

Second. All lots intended for sale, either by number or letter, and their precise length and width.

§ 2. Such map or plat shall be acknowledged by the proprietor, or if any incorporated company, by the chief officer thereof, before some officer authorized by law to take the acknowledgment of conveyances of real estate.

§ 3. The map or plat so made, acknowledged, and certified shall be presented to the governing body having control of the streets, roads, alleys, and highways in the territory shown on the map or plat, and said governing body shall indorse thereon which streets, roads, alleys, and highways, offered by said map or plat, they accept on behalf of the public, and thereupon such streets, roads, alleys, and highways, only as have been thus accepted, shall be and become dedicated to public use. When so indorsed, and not before, said map or plat shall be recorded in the office of the county recorder of the county in which the city, town, addition, or subdivision is situated, in a book kept for that purpose. The map or plat shall be not more than thirty-six inches by thirty-six inches in size, and shall be drawn in all details clearly and legibly, and if not so drawn may be refused by the county recorder. When such map or plat is presented to be recorded the county recorder shall paste the same securely in a book of maps, and it shall then be deemed to have been recorded under the provisions of this act. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 288.]

§ 4. Every person who sells or offers for sale any lot within any city, town, subdivision, or addition, before the map or plat thereof is made out, acknowledged, filed, as herein provided, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars and not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed six months, or both such fine and imprisonment.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—ORDINANCES.

To require ordinances and resolutions passed by the city council or other legislative body of any municipality to be presented to the mayor or other chief executive officer of such municipality for his approval.

§ 1. Every ordinance and every resolution of the city council of any municipality providing for any specific improvement, or the granting of any franchise, or other privilege, or affecting real property interests, or the expenditure of more than one hundred dollars of the public moneys, or levying tax or assessment, or establishing rates for artificial light, and every ordinance or resolution imposing a duty or penalty, which shall have passed the city council, shall, before it takes effect, be presented to the mayor for his approval. The mayor shall return such ordinance or resolution to the city council within ten days after receiving it. If he approve it he shall sign it, and it shall then take effect. If he disapprove it he shall specify his objections thereto in writing. If he do not return it with such disapproval within the time above specified, it shall take effect as if he had approved it. The objections of the mayor shall be entered at large on the journal of the city council, and the city council shall cause the same to be immediately published. The city council shall, after five, and within thirty days after such ordinance or resolution shall have been returned with the mayor's disapproval, reconsider and vote upon the same; and if the same shall, upon reconsideration, be again passed by the affirmative vote of not less than three fourths of all the members, the presiding officer shall certify that fact on the ordinance or resolution, and when so certified, it shall take effect as if it had received the approval of the mayor; but if the ordinance or resolution shall fail to receive upon the first vote thereon after its return with the mayor's disapproval, the affirmative votes of three fourths of all the members, it shall be deemed finally lost. The vote on such reconsideration shall be taken by ayes and noes, and the names of the members voting for or against the same shall be entered in the journal; provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to cities in which the mayor is a member of the city council, or other governing body.

§ 2. The word "municipality," and the word "city," as used in this act, shall be understood and so construed as to include, and is hereby declared to include, all corporations heretofore organized and now existing, and those hereafter organized, for municipal purposes.

§ 3. The term "city council" is hereby declared to include any body or board which, under the law, is the legislative department of the government of any city.

§ 4. In municipalities in which there is no mayor, then the duties imposed upon said officer by the provisions of this act shall be performed by the president of the board of trustees, or other chief executive officer of the municipality.

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and all acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Held not to affect cities having charters.—See Morton vs. Broderick, 118 Cal. 474, 486, 50 Pac. Rep. 644.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—PARKS—BOULEVARDS.

To authorize cities and towns owning public parks outside of their limits, to lay out, construct, and maintain roads, streets, and boulevards from the boundaries of such cities or towns to, into, and through such parks, and to acquire lands for that purpose.

(Stats. 1897, 45, ch. XLIX.)

§ 1. It shall be lawful for the council, board of trustees, or other governing body of any city or town, to lay out, open, construct, and cause to be constructed, maintain and control all roads, streets, and boulevards, which may be necessary or requisite for the purpose of connecting such city or town with any public park situated wholly or partly outside of the limits of such city or town, of which it shall be the owner, and to acquire by gift, purchase, or condemnation, in the manner required by the law of eminent domain, any land or rights of way lying between the limits of such city or town and the exterior limits of such park, for the purposes aforesaid.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

See next following statutes, also the preceding statute.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—PARKS.

To enable incorporated "cities and counties" and "cities" and "towns," to acquire, maintain and improve public parks and boulevards.

(Stats. 1889, 361, ch. CCXLVIII.)

§ 1. Any incorporated "city and county" or "city" or "town" in this state may acquire and hold land for the uses and purposes of public parks, or public boulevard, or both, either by purchase, with the consent of the owner, or by condemnation, under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure of the state of California, title seven, of part three.

§ 2. The land to be so acquired and held may be within the corporate limits of the "city and county" or "city" or "town," or conveniently adjacent thereto; and in either case it shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the municipality acquiring it, and to the laws, ordinances, rules, and regulations thereof.

§ 3. The board of supervisors, city council, trustees, or other municipal legislative board, or body of any incorporated "city and county," or "city," or "town," may, by ordinance, or in such manner as other municipal legislative acts are enacted, under its charter or act of incorporation, determine what lands are necessary and proper to be acquired for the uses and purposes aforesaid.

§ 4. Any incorporated "city and county," or "city," or "town," may, in addition to the annual tax, levy for other municipal purposes, and at the same time and in the same manner cause to be assessed and levied upon the taxable property within the municipality an annual tax in such amount as may be deemed necessary and proper for the acquisition or maintenance or improvement of its public parks or boulevards, or both, and the revenue so obtained shall be applied to no other use or purpose.

§ 5. The board of supervisors, city council, trustees, or other municipal legislative body or board of any incorporated "city and county," or "city," or "town," may by ordinance or in such manner as other municipal legislative acts are enacted under its charter or act of incorporation, call an election and submit to the qualified electors of the municipality, the proposition to issue the bonds of the municipality, to a specified amount, the proceeds of the sale of which shall be applied exclusively to the acquisition, maintenance, and improvement of its public parks, or boulevards, or both. Such election shall be conducted, and the result determined substantially as are other local municipal elections of the municipality in which it is held.

§ 6. If at such an election two thirds of the qualified electors voting an assent to the issuance of the bonds, then the "city and county" or "city" or "town," having held such election may, by ordinance or in such manner as other municipal legislative acts are enacted under its charter or act of incorporation, provide for the issuance, and cause to be issued, its bonds to the amount specified and so voted for; provided, however, that said bonds shall mature and become due and payable at a time not exceeding twenty years, and shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding five per centum per annum, payable annually, and that before or at the time of the issuance of said bonds, provision shall be made for the collection of an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest thereon as it falls due, and also to constitute a sinking fund to pay the principal thereof at maturity, and not exceeding twenty years from the date thereof.

§ 7. The bonds shall be numbered consecutively from one upwards, and shall be issued in the order of their respective numbers, commencing with number one, and there shall be attached thereto coupons for the payment of the annual interest. They shall be known and designated either as the "park and boulevard," or "park," or "boulevard" bonds of the municipality issuing them. Each bond shall not exceed in the amount of its principal one thousand dollars, and may be in any smaller amount.

§ 8. The bonds or any number thereof so issued shall be sold to the highest bidder, after advertised notice for sealed proposals thereof; but no bid shall be accepted at less than the par value thereof, nor shall any bonds be sold during any one year in excess of the actual expenditures incurred in that year.

§ 9. The money obtained from the sale of the bonds shall be kept in a separate fund, and shall be used exclusively for the acquisition, or maintenance, or improvement of the public parks or boulevards, or both, of the municipality issuing them, and for no other use or purpose.

§ 10. Whenever and as often as there shall be in the sinking fund an amount deemed sufficient for the purpose, the board of supervisors, city council, trustees, or other municipal legislative board or body of the municipality issuing the bonds, may, by ordinance or in such manner as other municipal legislative acts are enacted under its charter or act of incorporation, cause notice to be given by advertisement, that the amount (stating it) is in the sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds, and inviting sealed proposals for the redemption, surrender, and cancelation of bonds, with the interest thereon, to the specified amount in the sinking fund; and at the date designated in the notice the bids shall be opened, if any there be, and the bid or bids offering to surrender bonds for the lowest sum, not more than par value, shall be accepted. If sufficient bids shall not be received to consume the money in the sinking fund, and the whole or a portion deemed sufficient for the purpose shall still remain in the sinking fund, notice shall be given by advertisement for not less than thirty days, stating that there is an amount, to be specified in the notice, still remaining in the sinking fund to be applied to the redemption of the bonds with interest thereon having the highest numbers (specifying the numbers), and if said bonds be not presented for redemption, surrender, and cancelation within the time specified in the notice, they shall thereafter cease to draw interest, and the amount in the sinking fund shall be kept for their redemption when presented, but no more shall be paid therefor than the amount of principal and interest due at the expiration of the time specified in the aforesaid notice.

§ 11. Any incorporated "city and county," or "city" or "town," in this state, availing itself of the privileges, benefits, and powers of this act, may, by ordinance or in such manner as other municipal legislative acts are enacted under its charter or act of incorporation, prescribe such further conditions and provisions for the issuance and sale of the bonds herein provided for and for the redemption thereof as are not inconsistent with the constitution of this state, or the provisions of this act, or its charter or act of incorporation.

§ 12. All notices and advertisements provided for in this act shall be given by publication in a newspaper, if there be one published within the municipality; if there be none, then by posting in at least three public places within the municipality; and when no other time is prescribed in this act, they shall be for such length of time as may by the board of supervisors, city council, trustees, or other municipal legislative board or body of the municipality be deemed and determined to be reasonable; but the bonds issued under the authority of this act, and sold to purchasers in good faith, shall not be held to be invalid for any defect in any of the notices herein provided for.

§ 13. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of its passage.

Fritz vs. San Francisco, 132 Cal. 373-375, 64 Pac. Rep. 566; McHugh vs. San Francisco, 132 Cal. 381, 64 Pac. Rep. 570.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—PARKS.

To provide for the maintenance and support of the public parks heretofore created within the various cities and cities and counties of the state, and to amend the existing acts in relation thereto.

§ 1. All lands, parks, highways, and avenues in any city or city and county in this state, which have been heretofore set apart by law as and for public parks, and which have been placed under the management or control of a board or of boards of park commissioners, shall hereafter remain and continue to be public parks, and subject to the management and control of the board or boards of park commissioners of said respective cities or cities and counties in the manner specified in this act; and such board or boards of park commissioners, and the members thereof, shall be appointed and constituted in the manner and for the terms and shall have the qualifications set forth in this act.

§ 2. Every such board of park commissioners (except in cities which, at the last federal census, had a population of more than fifty thousand and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, and which cities have adopted a charter according to the constitution and laws of this state, as hereinafter provided) shall consist of three persons, who shall be appointed by the governor of the state, and shall hold their offices for four years, respectively, and shall receive no compensation for their services. In case of a vacancy in the membership of the board, the same shall be filled by an appointee of the remaining members of the board, for the residue of the term then vacant; but all vacancies caused by the expiration of the term of office of any member of such board, or by the failure or neglect to qualify of any person appointed to such board by the governor, shall be filled by the governor by the appointment of a new member. Each member of every board of park commissioners shall be a freeholder and a resident of the city, or city and county, in which the board of which he is a member is to act. The governor of the state shall issue a commission to every such commissioner appointed by him, and each such commissioner shall, within twenty days after the receipt thereof, take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law. In every such board of park commissioners two members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and the concurrent action of two members of such board shall be sufficient to enable the said board to make any contracts pertaining to the park or parks under the control of such board, or to draw and expend any moneys which shall have been lawfully appropriated or set apart for the support of such park or parks, or which shall constitute any portion of the funds legally applicable to the support of the same; provided, however, that in all cities which, at the last federal census, had a population of more than fifty thousand and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, and which cities have adopted a charter according to the constitution and laws of this state, that such board of park commissioners shall consist of the same number and shall be appointed in the manner provided by such charters. They shall also have such powers as are therein provided, and shall be governed in all matters by the provisions of such charters. All provisions herein, and also in the act to which this is amendatory, which are not in conflict with such charters, shall apply to such board of park commissioners when so appointed. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 79.]

[The amendatory act of 1893, page 79, also contained the following section: "§ 3. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately after its passage, and after which time the boards of park commissioners in cities which, at the last federal census, had a population of more than fifty thousand and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, and which have adopted charters under the constitution and laws of this state, and which boards have heretofore been appointed under the provisions of the act to which this is amendatory, shall serve only as such board of park commissioners until a board of park commissioners is appointed under the provisions of such charters."]

§ 3. Every such board of park commissioners shall have the full and exclusive power to govern, manage, and direct the parks, avenues, and grounds which have been or shall be placed under its care and charge; to employ and appoint such superintendents, laborers, clerks, or secretaries, attorney, surveyors, engineers; to engage and employ musicians for service in the park, and other officers and assistants, as to said board shall seem necessary and expedient for the proper management of the said parks and of its affairs; to prescribe and fix the duties, authority, and compensation of such appointees and employees, and to have the management and disbursement of all funds legally appropriated or provided for the support of said parks and grounds; provided, that no moneys shall for any of said purposes be paid out of the treasury of any city, or city and county, except upon warrants duly signed by a majority of the board of park commissioners thereof, and duly audited by the auditor of such city, or city and county. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 343.]

§ 4. It shall be a felony for any park commissioner to be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or work of any kind connected with the park or grounds under the control of the board of which he shall be a member; and it shall be the duty of any commissioner or other person who shall know or be informed of the violation of the section, forthwith to report the same to the governor, who shall hear the allegations and proofs in regard thereto; and if, after such hearing, he shall be satisfied of the truth of said charge, he shall immediately remove the commissioner who has been guilty of the offense.

§ 5. Every such board of park commissioners shall annually, and on the first Monday of July of each year, make to the legislature of the state, and to the board of supervisors or other municipal council of the city, or city and county, in which such board shall be acting, a full report of the proceedings, and a detailed statement of its receipts and expenditures. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 343.]

§ 6. It shall be lawful for every such board of park commissioners to let or lease any portion of the parks or grounds under their control, not exceeding one acre in extent, to any one party, and the lease therefor shall be unassignable, nor shall any portion of such park be leased to any street or other railroad company for terms not exceeding three years, until the grounds so leased shall be required for the improvements of such parks, or for public use as a park thereof. All moneys realized from such leases shall be paid into the treasury of the city, or city and county, in which such parks shall be situated, and shall be added to the funds otherwise appropriated or provided for the support of such parks. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 343.]

§ 7. It shall be lawful for every such board of park commissioners to pass and adopt such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the regulation, use, and government of the parks and grounds under their supervision, not inconsistent with the laws of the state of California. Such ordinances shall, within five days after their passage, be published for ten days, Sunday excepted, in a daily newspaper published in the city or city and county in which such board shall be acting, to be selected by the said board. All persons violating or offending against any such ordinances shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished therefor on conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 8. Prisoners over the age of twenty-one years, and sentenced to hard labor in any of the jails, prisons, houses of correction, workhouses, or other penal establishment of any such city or city and county, may, upon the request and requisition of the board of park commissioners of such city or city and county, be put to work upon the parks and grounds which are under the control of such board.

§ 9. Every such board of park commissioners is authorized and empowered to accept and receive donations and aid from individuals and corporations, and legacies and bequests by the last wills of deceased persons, for the aid or improvement of the parks and grounds under the control of such board; and all moneys that shall be derived by any such board from such donations, legacies, and bequests shall, unless otherwise provided by the terms of such gift, legacy, or bequest, be deposited in the treasury of the city or city and county in which said parks and grounds shall be situated, and shall be withdrawn therefrom and paid out in the same manner as is provided for the payment of moneys legally appropriated for the support and improvements of such parks and grounds; provided, however, that if the moneys derived from such gifts, bequests, or legacies shall at any time exceed in amount the sum necessary for immediate expenditure on said parks and grounds, or if, in the judgment of the said board of park commissioners, it should be advisable to invest the same, or a part thereof, in some interest-bearing or productive investment, the said board of park commissioners are hereby authorized to invest the said moneys or any part thereof in interest-bearing bonds of the government of the United States, or of the state of California, and thereafter to sell and dispose of said bonds, or to change the form of said investment, as to said board shall seem best.

§ 10. The board of supervisors, municipal council, or other legislative body of any city, or city and county in the state, having within its limits parks or grounds under the control and management of a board of park commissioners, and of an area or acreage of more than ten acres, is hereby authorized and empowered to levy and collect each year, in the mode prescribed by law for the levy and collection of taxes, a tax of not less than six nor more than ten cents upon each one hundred dollars assessed valuation of taxable property within such city, or city and county, for the purpose of preserving, maintaining, and improving the parks and grounds under the control of such board of park commissioners. All moneys collected and arising from the said tax shall be paid by the tax collector, or other officer collecting the same, into the treasury of said city, or city or county, and shall be deemed to be thereupon appropriated and set apart for the maintenance, preservation, and improvement of said parks and grounds, and shall be paid out by the treasurer upon warrants signed by a majority of the said board of park commissioners, and audited by the auditor of such city, or city and county. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 343.]

§ 11. No board of park commissioners shall in any year incur any debt or liability nor expend any money beyond the amount of moneys legally applicable during such year to the support, preservation, and improvement of the parks and grounds under the control of such board.

§ 12. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

§ 13. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

See last preceding statutes, also next following statute.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—PARKS.

To extend the jurisdiction and authority of cities and towns over parks owned by them situated beyond the limits of such cities and towns, and over streets and avenues leading to the same.

(Stats. 1897, 47, ch. LI.)

§ 1. The municipal authority of the several cities and towns in this state, which now own or shall hereafter own any parks situated outside of the limits of such city or town, shall have the same power, authority, and jurisdiction over such parks, and over streets and avenues leading therefrom to said parks, and over persons and property therein, as they now or hereafter may have over said cities and towns and over persons and property therein; and the local courts of said cities and towns shall have the same jurisdiction, both civil and criminal, over said parks, streets, and avenues, and over persons and property therein, as they may have over the parks, streets, and avenues within such cities or towns respectively.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—PARKS—TAX.

To authorize the common councils and boards of supervisors of the several cities, counties, and cities and counties in this state to levy taxes for the maintenance of public parks having an area of over ten acres each within their respective limits.

(Stats. 1887, 52, ch. XLI.)

§ 1. The common council and the board of supervisors of any city, county, or city and county of this state, are hereby authorized and empowered to levy a yearly tax of not to exceed three cents upon every one hundred dollars' assessed valuation of property, real and personal, in such city, county, or city and county, for the purpose of maintaining and improving any public park or parks, having an area of ten acres each, therein situated.

§ 2. All moneys arising from the tax authorized to be levied by the preceding section, shall be collected by the tax collector of the city, county, or city and county wherein said park or parks may be situated, and shall be kept by the treasurer of said city, county, or city and county, subject only to the order of the public officer or officers, or board or commissioners, having legal charge and control of the management and maintenance of said park or parks.

§ 3. The terms common council and board of supervisors are hereby declared to include any body or board which, under the law, is the legislative department of the government of any city, county, or city and county.

§ 4. This act shall be enforced from and after its passage.

See statutes next preceding and following.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—PARKS.

Authorizing the commissioners of any public park in this state, and especially the park commissioners of Golden Gate Park, in San Francisco, to accept donations and bequests in aid of the improvement and embellishment of their respective parks, and to invest the funds derived therefrom.

(Stats. 1885, 38, ch. XXXIV.)

§ 1. The commissioners of any public park in this state, and especially the park commissioners of Golden Gate Park, in the city and county of San Francisco, are hereby authorized and empowered to accept and receive donations and aid from individuals and corporations, and to receive legacies and bequests by the last wills and testaments of deceased persons, and especially to receive aid and contributions from that certain corporation organized and incorporated under the laws of the state of California, known as the Park Aid Improvement Company, and the moneys derived and to be derived therefrom shall be and are hereby recognized as a portion of the public funds belonging to said park commissioners, and applicable under the direction of the said park commissioners to the purposes of preserving and embellishing the parks under their respective management and control.

§ 2. If the funds derived as aforesaid shall, at any time, exceed in amount the sum necessary for immediate expenditure on the said park grounds, or if, in the judgment of the said park commissioners, it should be advisable to invest the same and make the same productive, the said park commissioners are hereby authorized to invest the same, or any portion thereof, in interest-bearing bonds of the government of the United States, or of the state of California, and to use the interest and income thereof for the purposes aforesaid, with the like power to sell and dispose of the said bonds if, in their discretion, the principal thereof shall be necessary for the purposes aforesaid.

§ 3. This act shall take effect and be in force immediately.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—PROTECTION FROM OVERFLOW.

To promote the protection of cities, towns, and municipal corporations from overflow by water and the drainage of the same, and for such purposes authorizing the incurring of indebtedness and the issuance of bonds therefor by the same, and providing for the disposition of the proceeds of such bonds, and for the supervision of the protective and other works.

§ 1. Any city, town, or municipal corporation incorporated under the laws of this state may, by procedure hereinafter prescribed, incur indebtedness and liability, although in excess of the income and revenue by it provided for the current fiscal year, but not so that the aggregate funded indebtedness thereof shall exceed six per centum of the assessed value of all the real and personal property in the municipality, for the purpose of protecting such city, town, or municipal corporation from overflow by water, and for the purpose of draining such city, town, or municipal corporation, and for the purpose of securing an outlet for such overflow water and drainage, or for any part of said purposes, whether by means of canals, ditches, levees, dikes, embankments, dams, and machinery and other like appropriate or ancillary means or works, or any of the same, whether situated within or without the territorial limits of such city, town, or municipal corporation.

§ 2. The procedure mentioned in section one aforesaid shall be as follows, to wit: The city council or legislative body of such city, town, or municipal corporation shall, first, have made by some competent person general plans and estimates of the cost of such canals, ditches, levees, dikes, embankments, dams, machinery, and other means or works as may be contemplated, which general plans and estimates shall, after adoption, be filed in the office of the clerk of such municipality, and which general plans shall be substantially adhered to thereafter in proceedings under this act. Said city council or legislative body shall, secondly, after the filing of such general plans and estimates, and by resolution or ordinance passed at a regular meeting by a vote of two thirds of all its members and approved by the executive of the municipality, determine, if so advised, that the public good demands the construction, acquisition, and completion, or either, of canals, ditches, levees, dikes, embankments, dams, machinery, and other like appropriate or ancillary means, or works, or any of the same, for any or all of the purposes mentioned in section one aforesaid; and shall further, by the same resolution or ordinance, determine, if so advised, that the cost of the same will be too great to be paid out of the ordinary income or revenue of the municipality; and such resolution or ordinance, shall, after its passage and approval, be published as hereinafter prescribed. Said city council or legislative body shall, within one month after the publication aforesaid, and by resolution or ordinance passed at a regular meeting by a vote of two thirds of all its members, and approved by the executive of the municipality, call a special election, and submit to the qualified voters of such city, town, or municipal corporation the proposition to incur a debt for any or all of the purposes mentioned in section one aforesaid, and which have been as aforesaid determined to be demanded for the public good. The resolution or ordinance calling such special election shall specify the purpose for which the indebtedness is proposed to be incurred, the estimated cost of the things proposed, that bonds of the municipality will issue in the amount of such estimated cost, the number and character of such bonds, the rate of interest to be paid, and the amount of the tax levy for each year during the outstanding of such bonds to be made for their payment. Such last-named resolution or ordinance shall be published as hereinafter prescribed. Such city council or legislative body shall cause to be published, after the publication last named and prior to the day of holding such special election, a notice of the same, which notice shall set forth substantially all the matters contained in the aforesaid resolution or ordinance calling such special election.

§ 3. Every publication hereinbefore mentioned or required shall be in some newspaper published in such city, town, or municipal corporation; if in a daily paper in at least ten issues thereof, and if in a weekly paper in at least two issues thereof; and no publication shall be deemed to have begun until any one required preceding the same shall have been completed.

§ 4. Such special election shall be held in the manner provided by law for holding elections in such city, town, or municipal corporation.

§ 5. It shall require the votes of two thirds of all the voters voting at such special election to authorize the incurring of any indebtedness or the issuance of any bonds under this act. If two thirds of all the votes cast at such special election be in favor of the proposition submitted, the city council or legislative body may, by ordinance reciting the result of said election, provide for the issuance of the proposed bonds and any matter incidental thereto.

§ 6. All municipal bonds issued under this act shall be of the kind known as serials, and of such denominations as the city council or legislative body may determine; provided, that no bond shall be for less than one hundred dollars nor for more than one thousand dollars, and that not less than one fortieth part of the whole indebtedness evidenced by the whole of the issue of such bonds shall be, by the terms of such bonds, made payable each and every year. Each bond shall be made payable either in gold coin or other lawful money of the United States as may be expressed in such bond, on a day and at a place designated therein, with interest at the rate specified therein, which rate shall not exceed seven per centum per annum, to be fixed by such city council or legislative body. Said place of payment shall be either at the office of the treasurer of the municipality, or at some designated bank in San Francisco, Chicago, or New York. Said bonds shall be executed on the part of such municipality by the mayor or other executive thereof, and by the treasurer thereof, and countersigned by the clerk of the municipality. The interest coupons shall be numbered consecutively and signed by the treasurer.

§ 7. Any of such bonds may be issued by the city council or legislative body of such city, town, or municipal corporation, and by the same sold, at not less than their face value; and the proceeds of such sale shall be deposited in the municipal treasury to the credit of a designated fund and be applied exclusively to the purposes and objects for which, as aforesaid, the electors have voted to incur indebtedness or liability, until such purposes and objects shall have been accomplished, after which, the surplus, if any, may be transferred to the general fund of the municipality.

§ 8. Such city council or legislative body shall, at the time of fixing the general tax levy, and in the manner for such general tax levy provided, levy and collect annually, each year, for the term of forty years, a tax sufficient to pay the annual interest on such bonds and also one fortieth part of the aggregate amount of such indebtedness so incurred. The taxes herein required to be levied and collected shall be in addition to all other taxes levied for municipal purposes, and shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as other municipal taxes are collected.

§ 9. The city council or legislative body of every city, town, or municipal corporation wherein or for which any public works or improvements are being had or constructed for the purposes hereinbefore specified, and for which indebtedness has been incurred under the provisions of this act, shall have power to make all needful rules and regulations for acquisition, construction, and completion of such works and improvements; to appoint all needful agents, superintendents, and engineers to supervise and construct the same, and shall have power in all lawful ways to protect and preserve the rights and interests of the municipality in respect thereof.

§ 10. All contracts as to said works and improvements shall be let, in such parcels as the city council or legislative body may determine, to the lowest responsible bidder, after notice given for at least ten days by publication in one or more newspapers published in the municipality, inviting sealed proposals. Security or bonds may be required in order to guarantee good faith in bidding and in the performance of contracts, or either, in such amount as such council or legislative body may determine, and such council or legislative body may reject any or all bids.

§ 11. The city council or legislative body of the municipality may, by resolution, if it deem the same necessary, require the treasurer of the municipality to give additional bonds for the safe custody and care of public funds derived under this act.

§ 12. The provisions of this act are intended to be paramount and controlling as to all matters provided for therein and as to all questions arising in or out of procedure thereunder.

§ 13. This act shall take effect from and after the time of its passage.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—REORGANIZATION.

To enable cities incorporated and operating under a charter framed under section eight, article eleven, of the constitution, to abandon and annul such charter, and organize under general laws.

(Stats. 1897, 200, ch. CXXXVIII.)

§ 1. The common council, or other legislative body of any city in this state, operating under a charter framed under section eight, article eleven, of the constitution, shall have power, and it shall be their duty, whenever a petition is presented to them, signed by one half of the qualified electors of such city, by ordinance, to submit to the qualified electors of such city at any general election, the question whether such city shall abandon such charter and reorganize under the general laws of the state providing for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations. Such election shall be called and held in accordance with the provisions of such charter for calling and holding elections, and if two thirds of such qualified electors voting at such election shall vote to abandon such charter and reorganize under the general laws of the state providing for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations, such city shall, from and after the thirtieth day after such election, cease to be organized under such charter, and such charter shall be superseded by said general laws, and organized thereunder. In case such proposition shall fail to receive the vote of two thirds of such electors, then the proposition for the abandonment of such charter and reorganization under the general laws shall not be again submitted for two years.

§ 2. All officers of such city shall continue in office, and their powers under said charter shall not cease until officers shall have been elected and qualified under said general laws.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—SEWER DISTRICTS.

Providing for the establishment and maintenance of sewer districts adjacent to municipal corporations.

(Stats. 1899, 81, ch. LXVI.)

§ 1. It shall be the mandatory duty of the board of supervisors of any county of the state of California, whenever a petition of one third of the resident electors of any district describing the exterior boundaries of the said district shall be presented to them, praying for the formation of a sewerage district thereof, to publish for ten days in some daily paper in the nearest municipal corporation, or if there is no daily paper, then to publish weekly for two successive weeks in a weekly paper published in the nearest municipality, a notice of such petition and a description of the exterior boundaries of the district so proposed. If within twenty days after the last such publication a protest containing the signatures of the owners of a majority of the assessed valuation of the property within such district shall be filed with said board of supervisors, then said petition shall be denied, and no part of such district shall be included within any sewer district formed within six months thereafter. If no such protest be filed as herein provided, then at the expiration of the twenty days allowed for such protest it shall be the duty of the said board of supervisors to declare such district a sewer district.

§ 2. At the time of making each tax levy subsequent to the formation of said district, said board of supervisors must levy such an amount of taxes upon the taxable property of said district as shall by said board be deemed necessary for carrying out the provisions of this act and of the formation of said sewerage district, and said taxes shall be collected in the same manner as state and county taxes are collected; and said board of supervisors must provide in said levy for assessing and collecting a sufficient amount of money thereby to pay to any municipality whose sewers shall be connected with, as hereinafter provided, the amount fixed by the legislative body of said municipality, as charges for said privilege of connecting with sewerage system, and said amount must be fixed by said legislative body before the first day of March of each year, and notice thereof must be given said board of supervisors.

§ 3. Said board of supervisors shall have power, after the formation of said sewerage district, to lay out and construct sewers therein, and to provide for making connections with said sewer by property holders and other persons resident within said district, and for the maintenance and extension of said sewerage district as may be in their judgment required, and must compel property holders to connect all buildings therewith.

§ 4. Whenever a sewerage district shall be formed, as provided in this act, of territory adjacent to any municipality having a sewerage system, the sewerage system of said sewerage district must be connected with and have its outlet through the sewerage system of said municipality; provided, that no connection can be made or maintained with the sewerage system of any municipality without the consent first obtained from and expressed by the legislative body of said municipality; and when connection is made with the sewers of the municipality said board of supervisors, from the funds collected from the taxes above provided for, shall pay to said municipality annually the sum of money that shall be fixed as charges by the said board of supervisors and said legislative body of said municipality for the privilege of so connecting and maintaining connection with the sewer system thereof, and this amount may vary from year to year as the said board of supervisors and said legislative body of said municipality shall deem reasonable.

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—SIXTH CLASS.

To enable municipal corporations of the sixth class to elect officers.

(Stats. 1885, 136, ch. CXLVII.)

§ 1. Whenever a corporation of the sixth class shall have failed, from any cause, to elect officers in accordance with its charter, and there are no officers to carry on the city government, or call an election for officers, in any such case citizens of such corporation may present a petition to the governor for the appointment of three commissioners of election. Such petition shall set forth: 1. The name of the corporation, and when, and how organized; 2. When the last election for officers took place, and whether any of such officers are performing their duties, and if not, how long since they ceased to perform their duties; 3. The provision of the charter as to the qualifications of voters; 4. That the persons signing the petition possess the qualifications provided by the charter for voters, and that each of said signers is a householder and freeholder in said corporation. The petition shall be signed by not less than seventy-five persons possessing all the qualifications mentioned in the body of the petition, and shall be verified by at least two of the signers, that, of their own knowledge, the petition is true, and that all the signers possess all the qualifications set forth in the petition. Upon the presentation of the petition to the governor, he may either act upon the petition or require additional evidence of the matters set forth in the petition. Upon being satisfied of the truth of the matters set forth in the petition, the governor is authorized and empowered to appoint three persons as commissioners of election for such corporation. Such commission shall be known and styled "Board of Election Commissioners for" (here give name of corporation).

§ 2. The governor shall cause a commission to be issued to the commissioners, and the issuance of such commission shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all the proceedings to and including the appointment of such commissioner. Within ten days after their appointment, the commissioners shall take the oath of office before some judge or clerk, which oath shall be indorsed upon the commission, and a copy filed in the office of the secretary of state, and shall organize by the election of a president and secretary from their own members. The board shall cause to be kept minutes of all their proceedings, which minutes shall be signed at the close of each meeting by the president and secretary.

§ 3. The board of election commissioners shall have power: First, by an order entered in their minutes, to call an election for such officers as are declared in the charter of such corporation to be elected only by the voters in said corporation. Such orders shall specify the names of the offices to be filled, and, when any office is to be filled by an election in any ward or subdivision of said corporation, the order shall so state, and the date fixed for the election. Previous to the election, the board shall appoint officers of election, and fix the places of holding the election, as required in the charter of such corporation. The board shall cause notice of such election to be published in one or more newspapers published in said corporation; or if none be published therein, then by posting notices, for at least twenty days before such election. Such election shall be conducted as required by the charter of said corporation for the election of officers, except that it shall not be necessary to use printed registers, but should any voter be challenged on the ground that his name does not appear on the great register of the county, it shall be sufficient for him to state, under oath, that he believes his name is upon the great register, and if no other evidence is offered, the board of election shall accept his statement as true.

§ 4. The boards of election shall make return of the election as required in the charter, except that the returns shall be returned and delivered to the board of election commissioners, of all officers voted for at such election, without reference to whether any of such officers were voted for in the whole, or only a ward or subdivision of the corporation, and no officer of election shall issue a certificate of election.

§ 5. Within five days after the election the board of election commissioners shall proceed to canvass said returns and declare what persons were elected. Said board shall thereupon issue certificates of election to the persons so declared to be elected; such certificate shall be signed by all the commissioners, and shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all the proceedings taken in said election and by said board, except as against any suit or proceeding that may be commenced to oust from office any of said persons holding a certificate.

§ 6. Within ten days after issuance of the certificates, the officers shall be qualified and enter upon the discharge of their duties, in accordance with the charter. If any person chosen at said election shall fail to take the oath of office and enter upon the discharge of the duties within the time above specified, then the office to which he shall have been elected shall be deemed and held to be vacant, the same as if he had never been elected. At the first meeting of the legislative department of the corporation after the election, the board of election commissioners shall deliver to said legislative department all books and papers in their possession, relating to their office of election commissioners, and said legislative department shall cause the same to be filed by their clerk, and shall cause the commission issued by the governor to said commissioners, and the minutes of said commissioners, and notice of the election, to be entered in the book of minutes of said legislative department, and such entries, when so made, shall be evidence of all the matters therein stated, and as conclusive evidence as the original.

§ 7. Whenever the officers elected at such election, and the officers authorized by the charter to be elected or appointed by the legislative or executive department of said corporation, shall have qualified and entered upon the discharge of their duties, then said corporation shall be deemed and held to be fully organized and in operation, as if said election had been held at the time and in all respects in the manner required by the charter.

§ 8. Whenever the government of the corporation is in full operation, as set forth in section seven, the legislative department shall cause a resolution to be entered in their minutes declaring the same; and such resolution shall be conclusive evidence of the same, except as against a direct action or proceeding to set aside or annul said government.

§ 9. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

See next following statute.

As to disincorporation of municipalities of sixth class, see Stats. 1895, 115, as amended, post p. 989.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—SIXTH CLASS.

To validate the organization and incorporation of municipal corporations of the sixth class.

(Stats. 1903, 29, ch. XXV.)

§ 1. All municipal corporations of the sixth class, the organization and incorporation of which have been authenticated by an order of a board of supervisors in this state, declaring the same incorporated as municipal corporations of the sixth class, and a certified copy of which order has been filed by such board of supervisors in the office of the secretary of state, showing such copy of said order to have been filed in said office, and which corporations thereafter have acted in the form and manner of municipal corporations under the provisions of "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and the amendments thereto, are hereby declared to be and to have been municipal corporations of the sixth class from the date of filing the certified copy of said order of the board of supervisors with the secretary of state; and all the acts of the said municipal corporations heretofore exercised according to the act aforesaid, are hereby validated and declared as legal.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—TAXATION.

To provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the state, excepting municipal corporations of the first, second, third, and fourth classes, and cities operating under a charter framed under section eight, article eleven, of the constitution.

(Stats. 1891, 22, ch. XXXVI.)

§ 1. The board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation or city in this state, excepting municipal corporations of the first, second, third, and fourth classes, and cities operating under a charter framed under section eight, article eleven, of the constitution, shall have power and it shall be their duty to fix, by ordinance, the amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation upon the-taxable property therein, as a revenue to carry on the various departments of such corporation or city for the current year, not to exceed the limit fixed by law, and to pay the bonded or other indebtedness of such municipal corporation or city. The board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body shall meet for such purpose, and shall so ascertain and fix said amount, on the first Monday in August of each year; provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to or be in force in any city or municipal corporation until its board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body shall have passed an ordinance electing to avail itself of the provisions of this act, and filed a certified copy of the same with the auditor of the county in which such municipal corporation or city is situated, on or before the first Monday in March of each year.

§ 2. The county auditor must, on or before the third Monday in August of each year, transmit to the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of each municipal corporation or city within such county a statement, in writing, showing the total value of all property within each municipal corporation or city, respectively, which value shall be ascertained from the assessment book of such county for such year, as equalized and corrected by the board of supervisors for such county.

§ 3. Each board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of such municipal corporation or city shall, on the first Monday of October, fix the rate of taxes, designating the number of cents upon each hundred dollars, using as a basis the value of property as assessed by the county assessor and so returned to such board by the county auditor, as required in section two of this act, which rate of taxation shall be sufficient to raise the amount so fixed by such board, as required in section one of this act, which acts by said board are declared to be a valid assessment of such property and a valid levy of such rates so fixed. Such municipal or city board must immediately thereafter transmit to the county auditor of the county in which such municipal corporation or city is situated a statement of such rate so fixed by such municipal board.

§ 4. The auditor must then compute and enter in a separate column in the assessment book, to be headed "City Tax, City of ——" (naming it), the respective sums, in dollars and cents, to be paid as a municipal or city tax on the property therein enumerated and assessed as being in any municipal corporation or city, using the rate of levy so fixed by such municipal board and the assessed value as found in such assessment book; such taxes so levied shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes; and when collected the net amount as ascertained by section five shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipal corporation or city to which it respectively belongs, under the general requirements and penalties provided by law for the settlement of other taxes.

§ 5. The board of supervisors, on the filing of itemized statements by the county auditor and county tax collector showing the additional expense to their offices of assessing and collecting these local taxes, may, by an order spread upon its minutes, deduct such expenses from the taxes of each municipal corporation or city, while in the hands of the county tax collector, and cover the same into the county salary fund.

§ 6. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Marquis vs. City Santa Ana, 103 Cal. 661, 664, 37 Pac. Rep. 650.
See next following statute.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—TAXATION.

To provide for the levy and collection of taxes by and for the use of municipal corporations and cities incorporated under the laws of the state of California, except municipal corporations of the first class, and to provide for the consolidation and abolition of certain municipal offices, and to provide that their duties may be performed by certain officers of the county, and fixing the compensation to be allowed for such county officers for the services so rendered to such municipal corporations.

§ 1. The board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation or city in this state, except municipal corporations of the first class, shall have power, and it shall be their duty to fix by ordinance the amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation upon the taxable property therein, as a revenue to carry on the various departments of such municipal corporation or city for the current year, not to exceed the limit fixed by law, and to pay the bonded or other indebtedness of such municipal corporation or city. The board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body, shall meet for such purpose, and shall so ascertain and fix said amount, on the first Monday in August of each year; provided, however, that the provisions of this act shall not apply to or be in force in any city or municipal corporation until its board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body, shall have passed an ordinance electing to avail itself of the provisions of this act, and filed a certified copy of the same with the auditor of the county in which such municipal corporation or city is situated, on or before the first Monday in February of each year; and thereafter all assessments shall be made and taxes collected by the assessor and tax collector of such county until such city or municipal corporation shall, by ordinance, elect not to avail itself of the provisions of this act for any longer time.

§ 2. The board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation or city in this state, except municipal corporations of the first class, shall have power to elect that the duties of the city treasurer of such city or municipal corporation shall be performed by the county treasurer of the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situated; and whenever such board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body shall, by ordinance, so determine, such duties shall be performed by the treasurer of the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situated. A certified copy of such ordinance shall be served on the tax collector and treasurer of such county, and such ordinance shall also prescribe the manner in which money shall be drawn out of the various funds belonging to such city or municipal corporation in the hands of the treasurer.

§ 3. The county auditor must, on or before the second Monday in August of each year, transmit to the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of such municipal corporation or city within such county, a statement, in writing, showing the total value of all property within each municipal corporation or city, respectively, which value shall be ascertained from the assessment books of such county for such year, as equalized and corrected by the board of supervisors of such county.

§ 4. Each board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of such municipal corporation or city shall, on the first Monday in September, fix the rate of taxes, designated in the number of cents upon each hundred dollars, using as a basis the value of the property as assessed by the county assessor, and so returned to such board by the county auditor, as required by section two of this act, which rate of taxation shall be sufficient to raise the amount so fixed by such board, as required in section one of this act, which acts by said board are declared to be a valid assessment of such property and a valid levy of such rates so fixed. Such municipal or city board must immediately thereafter transmit to the county auditor of the county in which such municipal corporation or city is situated a statement of such rate so fixed by such municipal board.

§ 5. The auditor must then compute and enter in a separate column in the assessment book, to be headed "City Tax, City of ——" (naming it), the respective sums in dollars and cents to be paid as a municipal or city tax on the property therein enumerated and assessed as being in any municipal corporation or city, using the rate of levy so fixed by such municipal board, and the assessed value as found in such assessment book. Such taxes so levied shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes; and when collected the net amount as ascertained by sections six and seven of this act shall be paid to the treasurer of the municipal corporation or city to which it respectively belongs, under the general requirements and penalties provided by law for the settlement of other taxes; provided, however, that when such city has by ordinance, a certified copy of which has been served upon the tax collector of such county, elected to avail itself of the provisions of section two of this act, then such tax collector shall pay the money belonging to such city or municipal corporation over to the treasurer of the county in which such city or municipal corporation is situated.

§ 6. The county auditor and county tax collector shall file with the board of supervisors itemized statements showing the additional expense to their offices of assessing and collecting these local taxes, and upon the filing of such statements the board of supervisors shall, by an order spread upon the minutes, deduct such expenses from the taxes of such municipal corporation or city, while in the hands of the county tax collector, and transfer the same into the county salary fund; provided, that not more than one per centum shall be charged for collecting the first twenty-five thousand dollars so collected, and one fourth of one per centum for all sums over that amount. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 429.]

§ 7. Whenever the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation or city in this state has elected to avail itself of the provisions of section two of this act, the board of supervisors of such county shall also reserve as and for the expenses of the county treasurer, incurred by reason of the imposing of these duties upon him, the sum of one fourth of one per centum, which sum shall be deducted from the money collected by the county tax collector, and covered in to the county treasurer into the county salary fund.

§ 8. Whenever the board of trustees, common council, or other legislative body of any municipal corporation or city in this state shall have availed itself of the provisions of this act, all duties, other than the assessing of the property of such city or municipal corporation, belonging to the office of the city assessor shall be transferred to and performed by the clerk of such city or municipal corporation; and all duties, other than the collection of taxes, belonging to the office of city tax collector shall be transferred to and be performed by the city marshal or chief of police of such city or municipal corporation, and thereafter the office of city assessor, and city tax collector, and city treasurer may be by ordinance abolished.

§ 9. Whenever any real property situate in any city or municipal corporation which has availed itself of the provisions of this act has been sold for taxes and has been redeemed, the money paid for such redemption shall be apportioned by the county treasurer to such city or municipal corporation in the proportion which the tax due to such city or municipal corporation bears to the total tax for which such real property was sold.

§ 10. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

§ 11. This act shall take effect immediately.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—TREES.

To provide for the planting, maintenance, and care of shade trees upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, and places within municipalities, and of hedges upon the lines thereof; also, for the eradication of certain weeds within city limits.

(Stats. 1893, 153, ch. CXL.)

§ 1. All streets, lanes, alleys, places, or courts, in the municipalities of this state, now open or dedicated, or which may hereafter be opened or dedicated to public use, whose grade has been officially established, and which have been actually graded in conformity therewith, may be planted with shade trees along the edges of the sidewalks thereof, by order of the city council, which shall have power also to provide for the maintenance and care of the same; and the city council shall have power to prescribe the height, thickness, and manner of trimming of all hedges set out, or that shall be hereafter set out, along the line of any street, lane, alley, place, or court dedicated to public use, whether graded or not, and to compel compliance with its ordinances in the premises by the owners or occupants of the lots fronting thereon. The powers hereby conferred upon city councils shall be exercised in the manner and under the proceedings hereinafter described.

§ 2. The city council of any municipality in the state may, at its discretion, pass a resolution of intention to plant, or cause to be planted, with shade trees, any graded street, lane, alley, place, or court within the limits of such municipality. Such resolution of intention may embrace the entire length of any street, lane, alley, place, or court, or any portion thereof, but must specify the kind of trees to be planted, their size, age, and their distance apart. The street superintendent shall thereupon cause to be conspicuously posted along both sides of the street mentioned in the resolution, at not more than three hundred feet in distance apart, notices of the passage of said resolution. Said notice shall be headed "Notice to Plant Shade Trees," in letters not less than one inch in length, and shall, in legible characters, set forth the language of the resolution, and the date of its passage. The city clerk shall also cause a copy of the resolution to be published for six days in one or more daily newspapers published and circulated in said city, and designated by said city council.

§ 3. The owners of a majority of the frontage of the property on both sides of the street proposed to be planted as aforesaid, may, within ten days after the expiration of the time of publication of said resolution, file their written statement of objections to the proposed work, with the city clerk, which must be signed by the objectors, each one writing after his or her name the number of feet frontage owned by him or her. Such objection must show wherein the parties making them will be injured or aggrieved by the proposed work, and if the objection be to the kind of trees proposed to be planted, they must name some other kind of tree to be substituted therefor. The city council shall, at its next meeting after the filing of said objections, fix a time for hearing the same, not less than one week thereafter. The city clerk shall thereupon notify each objector, or his agent, who has signed his or her name to the statement, by depositing in the post-office of said city, a notice addressed to him or her, postage prepaid, notifying the objectors of the time and place of hearing. At the time specified, the council shall hear the objections urged, and pass upon the same, and its decision shall be final and conclusive, except that in the choice of trees to be planted, it shall be governed by the written request of the owners of a majority of the frontage on both sides of the street which it is proposed to plant. If the objections be sustained, no further proceedings shall be taken under the resolution of intention for six months after the date of its passage. If it be again proposed to plant the street, the council shall commence proceedings de novo, as if no action had been previously taken.

§ 4. At the expiration of ten days after the expiration of the time of publication of said resolution of intention, if no written objections to the work therein described shall have been filed with the city clerk, as hereinbefore provided, otherwise immediately upon the overruling of the objections by the council, the council shall be deemed to have acquired jurisdiction to order to be done the work which is authorized by this act, which order shall be published for two days in the same papers and manner as provided for the publication of the resolution of intention.

§ 5. Before passing any resolutions for the planting of any street, the city council shall cause notice, with specifications, to be posted conspicuously for five days near the door of the council chamber, and shall advertise the same for five days in the same manner and papers as heretofore provided for the publication of the resolution of intention, inviting sealed proposals for bids for furnishing the trees and doing the work ordered. All bids shall state the sum or price for which the bidder will undertake to furnish the trees, of the kind, age, and size required, and will suitably prepare the ground, set out the trees, warrant every one of them to grow, or replace all that fail to grow or receive damage from whatever cause with others of the same kind, and of suitable age and size to preserve uniformity, and will for three years care for, cultivate, protect, irrigate, and trim said trees. And no order for the planting of any street shade trees shall be made that does not likewise provide for the care and maintenance of the trees for three years by the contractor planting the trees. All proposals or bids shall be accompanied by a check payable to the order of the mayor, or president of the city council, certified by a responsible bank, for an amount which shall not be less than ten per centum of the aggregate of the proposal. Said proposals or bids shall be delivered to the clerk of the city council, indorsed "Proposals to Plant Trees," and said council shall, in open session, examine and publicly declare the same; provided, that no proposal or bid shall be considered unless accompanied by said check. The council may reject all proposals, should it deem this for the public good, and shall reject the bid of any party who has been delinquent or unfaithful in any former contract with the municipality, and may award the contract to the lowest responsible bidder, at the prices named in his bid, which award shall be approved by the mayor, or president of the council. Notice of such awards of contract shall be posted and advertised for five days, in the manner hereinbefore provided, and it shall be the duty of the superintendent of streets to enter into a contract with the bidder to whom the work shall have been awarded by the council, and at the prices specified in his bid; whereupon the certified checks of all the other bidders shall be returned to them, respectively. But if such lowest bidder neglects, fails, or refuses, for fifteen days after the first posting and publication of the award, to enter into the contract, then the city council, without further proceedings, shall again advertise for proposals or bids as in the first instance, and shall award the contract for said work to the then lowest bidder. If the contractor who shall have taken any contract shall not complete the planting within the time limited in the contract, or within such further time as the council may give him, the superintendent of streets shall report such delinquency to the council, which may relet the unfinished portion of the planting, and the future care of the trees, after pursuing the formalities hereinbefore prescribed for the letting of the whole in the first instance.

§ 6. All contractors shall, at the time of executing any contract for the planting and care of trees, execute a bond to the satisfaction of the mayor, or president of the city council, with two or more sureties, and payable to the city, in such sums as the mayor, or president of the council, shall deem adequate, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, and the sureties shall justify before the recorder, or a justice of the peace, in double the amount mentioned in such bond, over and above all statutory exemption. Before being entitled to any contract, the bidder to whom the award shall have been made must pay into the city treasury the cost of the publication of notices, resolutions, and orders, and all other incidental expenses required under the proceedings prescribed by this act.

§ 7. All work done under the provisions of this statute shall be executed under the direction of the superintendent of streets, whose duty it shall be, under the general control of the council, to see that all the obligations assumed by contractors towards the city are faithfully complied with, and that all trees furnished are sound, healthy, free from infection by insects, and of the kind, size, and age called for by the contract. He shall certify to the completion of all work, or portion of work, which, by the terms of the contract, shall entitle the contractor to payment in whole or in part, and the presentation of his certificate by the contractor shall be a condition precedent to each payment that shall become due under the contract.

§ 8. All sums due to contractors under the provisions of this act shall be payable by instalments, as follows, to wit: Not more than one half the entire consideration in the contract shall be payable on the completion of the planting, and out of this amount the superintendent of streets shall see that the trees are paid for, to the party furnishing the same; one half the balance at the end of eighteen months after the completion of the planting; provided, all conditions shall have been complied with; the remaining one half to be paid at the end of three years after the completion of the planting; provided, all conditions shall have been complied with.

§ 9. Immediately upon the execution of any contract for the planting and care of street trees under the provisions of this act, it shall be the duty of the city assessor to make an assessment to cover the sum to become due for the work specified in such contract (including all incidental expenses) upon the lots and land fronting on the street, lane, alley, court, or place to which such contract relates, each lot or portion of a lot being separately assessed, in proportion to the frontage, at a rate per foot front sufficient to cover the total expenses of the work. Said assessment shall briefly refer to the contract, the work contracted for, and shall show the amount to be paid therefor, together with any incidental expenses, the rate per foot front assessed, the amount of each assessment, the name of the owner of each lot, if known to the assessor (if unknown, the word "Unknown" shall be written opposite the number or description of the lot, with the amount assessed thereon). And the assessor shall attach to said assessment a diagram, exhibiting the street, lane, alley, place, or court on which the work is contracted to be done, and showing the relative location and frontage of such lot, numbered to correspond with the numbers in the assessment. To said assessment shall be attached a warrant, which shall be signed by the superintendent of streets, and countersigned by the mayor, or president of the council. The said assessments and warrants shall be separately issued for each payment that shall be due the contractor, as specified in section eight of this act, and shall be substantially in the following form:

FORM OF THE WARRANT.

By virtue hereof, I (name of the superintendent of streets), of the city of _____, county of _____, and state of California, by virtue of the authority vested in me as said superintendent of streets, do authorize and empower (name of contractor), his agents or assigns, to demand and receive the several assessments upon the assessment and diagram hereto attached, and this shall be his warrant for the same.

Date _____, _____. (Name of superintendent of streets.)

Countersigned by (name of mayor or president of council).

Recorded (date _____, _____. (Name of superintendent of streets.)

Said warrant, assessment, and diagram shall be recorded in the office of the superintendent of streets. When so recorded the several amounts assessed shall be a lien upon the lands, lots, or portions of lots assessed, respectively, for the period of two years from the date of said recording unless sooner discharged. From and after the date of said record all persons interested in any manner in any or all of the lots assessed, shall be deemed to have notice of the contents of said record.

§ 10. After said warrant, assessment, and diagram shall have been recorded, the same shall be delivered to the contractor, his agents or assigns, on demand, who shall thereby be authorized to demand and receive the amounts of the several assessments. In default whereof, and as regards enforced collections, interest, cost, and penalties, and the correction of errors, the same proceedings are to be had as are specified in sections nine, ten, eleven, twelve, sixteen, and seventeen of an act entitled "An act to provide for work upon streets, lanes, alleys, courts, places, and sidewalks, and for the construction of sewers within municipalities," approved March eighteen, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, amended March fourteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

§ 11. The city council of every municipality in this state has jurisdiction of the hedges and fences placed by property owners along street lines, and may, by ordinance, prohibit the planting of thorn-bearing hedges, and the use of barbed wire along street lines, and may regulate the height, width, and the mode of trimming hedges, and enforce ordinances enacted for such purposes against absentees, or other negligent or recusant owners or occupants of lots or lands on which hedges are maintained. They may also condemn, as public nuisances, any or all weeds whose seeds are of a winged or downy nature, and are spread by the winds, and may compel the eradication of such weeds by the owners of the lots whereon they grow, or at their expense.

§ 12. The city council or trustees of every municipality shall provide for the replacement of missing trees, and for the trimming and care of all trees that have or shall have been planted for three or more years in the streets and highways, whether such planting shall have been done under this act or otherwise; the expense whereof must be defrayed out of the street fund, and the work be done by the superintendent of streets of such municipality.

§ 13. This act shall only apply to such municipalities as shall by vote of the electors residing therein determine to come within its provisions.

§ 14. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—VALIDATING.

Concerning municipal corporations.

(Stats. 1885, 31, ch. XXVII.)

§ 1. All municipal corporations whose incorporation has been or may hereafter be authenticated by an order of any board of supervisors in this state, declaring the same incorporated as a municipal corporation, and a certified copy of which order has been or may hereafter be filed by such board of supervisors in the office of the secretary of state, and which have heretofore been or may hereafter be organized under a certificate from the secretary of state, showing such order to have been filed in his office, and which thereafter have acted, or hereafter may act, in the form and manner of a municipal corporation, under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, are hereby declared to be and to have been municipal corporations from the date of filing the certified copy of said order of the board of supervisors with the secretary of state; and all the acts of said municipal corporations heretofore exercised, or which may be hereafter exercised, according to the act aforesaid, are hereby validated and declared to be legal.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—VALIDATING.

To validate proceedings for the reorganization of municipal corporations taken since the passage of the act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations."

(Stats. 1887, 150, ch. CXXXIII.)

§ 1. All cities and counties, cities, or towns reorganized or claiming to have been reorganized, since the passage of the act the title of which is recited in the title hereof, or which have attempted since said date to reorganize under the provisions of said act, and have acted as municipal corporations since such reorganization, or attempted reorganization, are hereby declared to be, and to have been from the date of such reorganization, or attempted reorganization, duly and legally incorporated and reorganized cities, and all proceedings for the reorganization of such municipal corporations are hereby validated and declared legal.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—VALIDATING.

To validate proceedings for the reorganization of municipal corporations taken since the passage of the act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three.

(Stats. 1889, 203, ch. CLXIX.)

§ 1. All cities and counties, cities, or towns reorganized, or claiming to have been reorganized, since the passage of the act the title of which is recited in the title hereof, or which have attempted since said date to reorganize or incorporate under the provisions of said act, and have acted as municipal corporations since such reorganization, are hereby declared to be, and to have been from the date of such reorganization, or attempted reorganization, duly and legally incorporated and reorganized cities, and all proceedings for the reorganization of such municipal corporations are hereby validated and declared legal.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—VALIDATING.

To validate proceedings for the reorganization of municipal corporations taken since the passage of the act entitled "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and also since the passage of the act entitled "An act to provide for the classification of municipal corporations," approved March second, eighteen hundred and eighty-three.

(Stats. 1891, 92, ch. LXXXVIII.)

§ 1. All cities and counties, cities, or towns, reorganized, or claiming to have been reorganized, since the passage of the acts the titles of which are recited in the title hereof, or which have attempted since said dates to reorganize or incorporate under the provisions of said acts, or either of them, and have acted as municipal corporations since such reorganization, are hereby declared to be and to have been from the date of such reorganization, or attempted reorganization, duly and legally incorporated and reorganized cities, and all proceedings for the reorganization of such municipal corporations are hereby validated and declared legal.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—VALIDATING.

To validate the organization and incorporation of municipal corporations.

(Stats. 1897, 168, ch. CXII.)

§ 1. All municipal corporations the organization and incorporation of which have been authenticated by an order of a board of supervisors in this state, declaring the same incorporated as municipal corporations of the classes to which such corporations may respectively belong, and a certified copy of which order has been filed by such board of supervisors in the office of the secretary of state, showing such copy of said order to have been filed in said office, and which corporations thereafter have acted in the form and manner of municipal corporations under the provisions of "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and the amendments thereto, are hereby declared to be and to have been municipal corporations from the date of filing the certified copy of said order of the board of supervisors with the secretary of state; and all the acts of the said municipal corporations heretofore exercised according to the act aforesaid, are hereby validated and declared as legal.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and approval.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—VALIDATING.

To validate the organization and incorporation of municipal corporations.

(Stats. 1905, 400, ch. CCCXLI.)

§ 1. All municipal corporations the organization and incorporation of which have been authenticated by an order of a board of supervisors in this state, declaring the same incorporated as municipal corporations of the classes to which such corporations may respectively belong, and a certified copy of which order has been filed by such board of supervisors in the office of the secretary of state, showing such copy of said order to have been filed in said office, and which corporations thereafter have acted in the form and manner of municipal corporations under the provisions of "An act to provide for the organization, incorporation, and government of municipal corporations," approved March thirteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and the amendments thereto, are hereby declared to be and to have been municipal corporations from the date of filing the certified copy of said order of the board of supervisors with the secretary of state; and all the acts of the said municipal corporations heretofore performed according to the act aforesaid, are hereby validated, and declared as legal.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—WATER SUPPLY.

To enable the board of supervisors, town council, board of aldermen, or other legislative body of any city and county, city, or town, to obtain data and information, from any corporation, company, or person supplying water to such city and county, city, or town, requiring such boards, town council, or other legislative body to perform the duties prescribed by section one of article fourteen of the constitution, and prescribing penalties for the non-performance of such duties.

(Stats. 1881, 54, ch. LII.)

§ 1. The board of supervisors, town council, board of aldermen, or other legislative body of any city and county, city, or town, are hereby authorized and empowered, and it is made their official duty, to annually fix the rates that shall be charged and collected by any person, company, association, or corporation for water furnished to any such city and county, or city, or town, or the inhabitants thereof. Such rates shall be fixed at a regular or special session of such board or other legislative body, held during the month of February of each year, and shall take effect on the first day of July thereafter, and shall continue in full force and effect for the term of one year and no longer.

§ 2. The board of supervisors, town council, board of aldermen, or other legislative body of any city and county, city, or town, are hereby authorized, and it is hereby made their duty, at least thirty days prior to the fifteenth day of January of each year, to require, by ordinance or otherwise, any corporation, company, or person supplying water to such county, city or town, or to the inhabitants thereof, to furnish to such board, or other governing body, in the month of January in each year, a detailed statement, verified by the oath of the president and secretary of such corporation or company, or of such person, as the case may be, showing the name of each water-rate payer, his or her place of residence, and the amount paid for water by each of such water-rate payers, during the year preceeding the date of such statement, and also showing all revenue derived from all sources, and an itemized statement of expenditures made for supplying water during said time.

§ 3. Accompanying the first statement made as prescribed in section two of this act, every such corporation, company, or person shall furnish a detailed statement, verified in like manner as the statement mentioned in section two hereof, showing the amount of money actually expended annually, since commencing business, in the purchase, construction, and maintenance, respectively, of the property necessary to the carrying on of its business, and also the gross cash receipts annually, for the same period, from all sources.

§ 4. Every corporation, company, or person who shall refuse or neglect to furnish the statements mentioned in sections two and three of this act, or either of them, or who shall furnish any false statement in relation thereto, within thirty days after having been required or requested to furnish the same as prescribed in sections one, two, and three of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 5. Upon receiving the statements provided for in sections two and three of this act, the board of supervisors, town council, board of aldermen, or other legislative body, shall cause a copy thereof to be made and filed in the office of the county recorder of such city and county, or of the county wherein such city or town is situated.

§ 6. Rates for the furnishing of water shall be equal and uniform. There shall be no discriminations made between persons, or between persons and corporations, or as to the use of water for private and domestic, and public or municipal purposes; provided, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to allow any person, company, association, or corporation, to charge any person, corporation, or association anything for water furnished them when, by any present law, such water is free.

§ 7. Any person, company, association, or corporation charging, or attempting to collect from the persons, corporations, or municipalities using water, any sum in excess of the rate fixed, as hereinbefore designated, shall, upon the complaint of said board of supervisors, town council, board of aldermen, or other legislative body thereof, or of any water-rate payer, and upon conviction before any court of competent jurisdiction, shall forfeit the franchises and waterworks of such person, company, association, or corporation to the city and county, city or town, wherein the said water is furnished and used.

§ 8. Any board of supervisors, or other legislative body of any city and county, city, or town which shall fail or refuse to perform any of the duties prescribed by this act, at the time and in the manner hereinbefore specified, shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance in office, and upon conviction thereof, at the suit of any interested party, in any court of competent jurisdiction, shall be removed from office.

§ 9. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of its passage.

§§ 2, 3—Water Works vs. San Francisco, 82 Cal. 286, 331, 22 Pac. Rep. 1046, 6 L. R. A. 756. § 6—*Spring Valley W. MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—WATER.

Authorizing incorporated cities to acquire, by gift, purchase, or condemnation proceedings, water, water rights, reservoir sites, rights of way, and other appliances for supplying such cities and their inhabitants with water.

(Stats. 1891, 102, ch. XCVI.)

§ 1. Any incorporated city in this state may acquire by gift, purchase, or condemnation proceedings, under the power of eminent domain, water, water rights, reservoir sites, rights of way for pipes, aqueducts, flumes, or other conduits, and all other property and appliances suitable and proper for supplying such city and its inhabitants with water.

§ 2. This act shall go into effect immediately upon its passage.

City Los Angeles vs. Pomeroy, 124 Cal. 597, 616, 57 Pac. Rep. 585.
See Stats. 1903, 405, post, joint water system.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—WATER.

To authorize cities to acquire and operate a joint system or systems of water supply.

(Stats. 1903, 405, ch. CCLXXIX.)

§ 1. Any two or more cities incorporated under the constitution and laws of this state are hereby empowered to jointly acquire and develop a source or sources of water supply for municipal and domestic purposes, and to construct the works necessary for their joint and several purposes and needs.

§ 2. Whenever the legislative body of a city deems it advisable to investigate the desirability of joint action with any other city, or cities, for acquiring and maintaining a water supply, such legislative body shall pass a resolution to that effect, and thereupon the mayor of said city shall, with the consent and advice of said legislative body, appoint three commissioners to confer with like commissioners from any other city. Said commissioners from the respective cities shall meet and consider the question of the desirability of their respective cities taking joint action to acquire and develop water supply for their respective cities, and the plans, terms and conditions they deem feasible, just and equitable, and if they agree upon such plans, terms and conditions they shall report the same to the legislative bodies of their respective cities.

§ 3. If the legislative bodies of two or more cities approve the plans, terms and conditions of the joint action reported by the commissioners they shall, by resolution, declare such approval, and shall submit the same to the qualified voters of their respective cities for their approval or rejection at the next city election, or at a special election called for that purpose. If the terms, conditions and plans are approved by a majority of the voters voting thereon at such election the said cities may enter upon the work of developing or acquiring water supply for the said cities in accordance with such plans, terms and conditions. And any city may, in the manner required by law, issue bonds for the purpose of prosecuting and completing the work of acquiring a water supply jointly with other cities. All proceedings relating to the issue of such bonds shall be taken as now required by law for the issue of bonds to acquire a water supply.

§ 4. Joint ownership and costs shall be restricted to those portions of the sources and works which shall be common to all the municipalities served, and each municipality shall exclusively own, construct and operate those sources and works which are for its exclusive use.

§ 5. The apportionment of all costs of acquisition, construction, operation and maintenance of the joint properties shall be made upon the basis of the amount of water proposed to be apportioned to the several municipalities, unless a different apportionment of costs shall be agreed upon.

§ 6. The total costs of works which shall exclusively serve any municipality shall be borne by such municipality exclusively.

§ 7. The plans, terms, conditions, or other agreement for acquiring said water supply, may be modified from time to time by agreement between the respective cities, which agreement shall be declared by the action of their respective legislative bodies.

§ 8. The term "city" and the term "municipality," as used in this act shall include a consolidated city and county, and the same rights and privileges by this act given to an incorporated city shall pertain to a consolidated city and county.

§ 9. Before any resolution or ordinance relating to the joint acquisition of a water supply becomes binding upon any city or municipality it shall be approved by the mayor of such city, or passed over his veto, in the manner provided by law or the charter of such city for the passage of ordinances.

§ 10. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

See Stats. 1891, 102, ante, and see next following statute.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—WATER.

To provide for the sale of an excess of water when owned by a municipality.

(Stats. 1897, 182, ch. CXXI.)

§ 1. Whenever the water supply owned by any city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, is in excess of the amount required to supply the water required by the inhabitants thereof, it may be declared by ordinance that such excess exists, and such excess of water may be sold outside of the limits of the corporation; but in no case shall a contract be made for a supply of any excess of water sold by a city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, outside the corporate limits for a period longer than one year; and in no case shall such a contract be made unless the legislative authority of a city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, declare by ordinance that there exists an excess of water not required to supply the inhabitants of the city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, within the term of the contract, but water not required to supply the inhabitants of a city, incorporated town, county, or city and county, may be sold by the authorities thereof outside the corporate limits from month to month during the existence of such excess, and shall be sold only at the rates fixed for consumers inside the corporate limits.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS—SIXTH CLASS—DISINCORPORATION.

To provide for the disincorporation of municipal corporations of the sixth class.

§ 1. A municipal corporation of the sixth class may disincorporate after proceedings had as required in this act. The council, the board of trustees, or other legislative body of such corporation shall, upon receiving a petition therefor, signed by not less than half of the qualified electors thereof, as shown by the vote cast at the last municipal election held therein, submit to the electors of such corporation the question whether such municipal corporation shall disincorporate. Such question shall be submitted at a special election to be held for that purpose, and such legislative body shall give notice thereof by publication in a newspaper printed or published in such corporation, or if there is no newspaper published in said corporation, then in some newspaper published in the county in which said corporation is situated, for a period of thirty days prior to such election. Said notice shall state that the question of disincorporating said corporation will be submitted to the legal voters of the same at the time appointed for such election, and the electors shall be invited thereby to vote upon such proposition by placing upon their ballots the cross, as provided by law, after the words "For disincorporation," or "Against disincorporation." Such legislative body shall also designate in said notice the place or places at which the polls will be open in said municipal corporation; and shall also appoint and designate in such notice the names of the officers of election. The vote at said election shall be taken, canvassed, and returned in the same manner as in other municipal elections. Such legislative body shall meet on the Monday next succeeding the day of such election, and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat.

If it be found by the canvass of said votes that less than two thirds of the votes cast were in favor of disincorporation, such legislative body shall declare the petition for disincorporation denied, in which case no new election shall be held on the question of disincorporating the corporation involved in said petition and vote until after the expiration of two years from date of the election so held. In case it shall appear from said canvass that two thirds of all the votes cast were in favor of disincorporation, said legislative body shall, under their hands, make and file in their office, and cause to be entered upon their record of proceedings, an order that the petition for such disincorporation be granted, and declaring that such corporation be disincorporated; said order to take effect at the time hereinafter provided.

Said legislative body shall, in case said corporation is so disincorporated, forthwith cause their clerk, or other officer performing the duties of clerk, by an order entered in their minutes, to make and transmit to the secretary of state and board of supervisors of the county in which said corporation is situated, a certified copy and abstract of the notice of election hereinbefore provided for, the whole number of electors voting for said disincorporation, and the number of electors voting against said disincorporation. Thirty days from and after the holding of the election, in case two thirds of the said votes were cast in favor of said disincorporation, said municipal corporation shall be forever disincorporated. Said legislative body shall forthwith, after ascertaining by said canvass that said disincorporation has been carried, determine the amount of the indebtedness of said municipal corporation, the amount of money in the treasury thereof, and the amount of any tax levy made by said corporation unpaid or not due, and all other indebtedness due or coming due to said corporation, and within thirty days from the date of said election shall transmit a certified statement of said amount to the board of supervisors of the county in which said municipal corporation is situated; and the treasurer of said corporation shall before the expiration of said thirty days, turn over to the treasurer of said county all moneys of said municipal corporation in his possession, and said county treasurer shall place said moneys in a special fund, to be drawn upon as hereinafter provided for. Upon the disincorporation of said municipal corporation, every public officer of said corporation shall immediately turn over to the board of supervisors of the county in which said corporation is situated, all public property of every nature and description in their possession; provided, however, that all court records of the recorder's court of the said municipal corporation shall be retained by said recorder as justice of the peace of the township, and as such justice of the peace he shall have authority to execute and complete all unfinished business standing on the same. Nothing contained in this act shall be held to relieve said municipal corporation, or the territory included within it, from any liability for any debt contracted by such municipal corporation prior to its disincorporation. All warrants for said indebtedness shall be drawn by the board of supervisors of the county in which said municipal corporation is situated, on the fund hereinabove provided for in the county treasury. If, at the time of said disincorporation, a tax shall have been levied by said municipal corporation, and remains uncollected, it shall be the duty of the tax collector of the county in which said municipal corporation was situated to collect said tax when due, and pay the same into the county treasury. All property upon which any municipal tax has been levied and the same has become delinquent, either before or after the date of such disincorporation, and all property sold for any tax levied by said municipal corporation, may be redeemed by any party interested, by the payment to the county treasurer, upon the estimates of the auditor, of the money that would have been necessary to redeem such property, had said city not disincorporated. All moneys paid into the county treasury under the provisions of this act shall be placed to the credit of the special fund hereinbefore provided for. If, at any time after the disincorporation of such municipal corporation, it should be found that there is not sufficient money in the treasury to the credit of the fund hereinabove provided for, with which to pay any indebtedness of said municipal corporation, the board of supervisors of said county shall have the power, and it shall be their duty to levy, and there shall be collected from the territory formerly included within said municipal corporation, a tax or taxes sufficient in amount to pay the said indebtedness, of said municipal corporation, as the same shall become due; such tax or taxes, assessments, and collections shall be made in the same manner and at the same time that other taxes of said county are levied and collected, and shall be an additional tax upon the property included within said territory for the payment of said debts. If, after payment of the debts of said municipal corporation, there shall remain any surplus in the hands of said county treasurer to the credit of the fund hereinbefore mentioned, the money so remaining shall be transferred to the school fund of the districts or district covered by said municipal corporation. [Amendment, Stats. 1899, 13.]

§ 2. The board of supervisors of the county in which any such municipal corporation has been disincorporated, shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, if the board of trustees or other legislative body of such corporation shall fail or refuse to return to said board of supervisors the statement of said amounts as hereinbefore in this act provided, to ascertain the indebtedness of said municipal corporation at the time of its disincorporation, and the amount of money in its treasury and the amount due to it at the said time. Said board of supervisors shall make provision for the collection of the amounts due to said municipal corporation, and for the closing up of its affairs, and any act or acts necessary for such purpose and not otherwise herein provided for, shall, upon the order of said board of supervisors directing the same, be as fully done and performed by the officer or officers performing similar duties for the said county, and with as full effect as if the same had been performed by the proper officer of said municipal corporation, before disincorporation, and said county shall succeed to and possess all the rights of said municipal corporation in and to said indebtedness, and shall have power to sue for or otherwise collect any such debts, in the name of the county. All costs and expense of ascertaining the facts hereinbefore mentioned, and all other costs and expense incurred by the board of supervisors in the execution of the powers and duties of said board of supervisors, provided for in this act, shall be paid out of the special fund in said county treasury hereinbefore in this act provided for. All provisions of this act relating to the settlement of a municipal corporation after disincorporation shall be applicable to the winding up of the affairs of any disincorporated municipality whether disincorporated before or after the passage of this act. [Amendment, Stats. 1899, 13.]

§ 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

NAPA COUNTY—RECORDS.

To provide for the transcribing and transferring certain records in Sonoma and Solano counties to the county of Napa.

(Stats. 1858, 65, ch. LXXXII.)

§ 1. The board of supervisors of the county of Napa are hereby authorized to contract with the recorders of the counties of Sonoma and Solano, at a rate not exceeding twenty-five cents per folio, to transcribe into suitable books, to be provided by said board, accurate and full copies of deeds, mortgages, powers of attorney, plots, and other evidences of title, to all lands situated within the county of Napa; also, all records kept or made by, as well as acknowledgments taken before alcaldes, or other officers acting under former Mexican or California laws, and now of record in the recorders' offices of said counties of Sonoma and Solano, respectively; and certify the same.

§ 2. Said records, so transcribed, as provided in the foregoing section, shall be filed in the recorder's office of Napa County, and shall thereafter be held and deemed as original records, for all purposes affecting the lands therein described.

NAPA COUNTY—COURT-HOUSE.

To provide for building and furnishing a new court-house and jail.

(Stats. 1877-8, 569, ch. CCCLXXXIX.)

The bonds were made to mature in twenty years, and the act is omitted.

NAPA COUNTY—BOUNDARIES.

An act to define the northern boundary-line of this county was passed (Stats. 1871-2, 305, ch. CCXXIX), but it is believed that the same is superseded by § 3958 of the Political Code, enacted four days later than the statute.

NAPA COUNTY—RECORDS.

For the better preservation of certain records of Napa County.

(Stats. 1863-4, 500, ch. CCCCLII.)

§ 1. J. H. Howland, the recorder of Napa County, may procure suitable books, and transcribe therein the following records of Napa County, viz.: Book A of Deeds; Book A of Mortgages; Book A of Leases; Book A of Assignments of Mortgages; Book A of Notices of Actions; Book A of Pre-emption Claims; Book A of Brands; Book A of Notices of Lien; Book A and B of Marriages; Book A of Miscellaneous Records; Book A of Releases of Mortgages; Book A of Official Bonds; Book A of School Warrants; Book A and B of Judgment Transcripts; Book A of Attachments; Book A of Power[s] of Attorney; Book A of Swamp Lands.

§ 2. After making such transcripts they shall each be certified to by the recorder as true and correct copies of the original, and thereafter shall be parts of the official records of said county.

§ 3. The board of supervisors of said county shall order the auditor of said county to draw warrants in favor of the said recorder on the general county fund of said county for the actual cost of such books, and they shall also allow and pay in the same manner to the recorder, for his services in transcribing such records one half of the amount that is now by law allowed him for recording and indexing records in said county.

§ 4. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

NAPA COUNTY—RECORDS.

To legalize certain notarial acknowledgments in Napa County.

(Stats. 1875-6, 572, ch. CCCIX.)

§ 1. All acknowledgments of deeds and other instruments of writing, whereby real estate, or any interest therein, is conveyed or may be affected, heretofore taken before N. M. Bonham, acting as a notary public in and for Napa County, and by him certified in the usual legal form, from and after the passage of this act have the same force and effect, and the records thereof, and of the deeds and instruments so acknowledged, if they shall have been admitted to record, shall impart notice to the same extent as though such acknowledgment had been taken before and certified by an officer authorized by law to take and certify such acknowledgments.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

NAPA RIVER.

NATIONAL GUARD OF CALIFORNIA.

Regarding organizations, officers, and members of the National Guard who entered the United States volunteer service in the Spanish-American war; their privileges, and exemptions, and retirements, and providing for the return to the National Guard of such organizations, officers and members.

(Stats. 1899, 158, ch. CXXVII.)

§ 1. Each and all of the officers and members of the regiments and companies of the National Guard of the state of California who were mustered into the United States volunteer service in the Spanish-American war of eighteen hundred and ninety-eight and have been discharged therefrom are hereby granted leave of absence from the time of their mustering into the United States volunteer service until being mustered out of the same, and that within one hundred and fifty days from their being so mustered out they may report for duty to the brigadier-general of the brigade from which they went, if a regiment; or to the commanding officer of the regiment or battalion from which they went, if a company or division; and they shall at once be recognized as belonging to the National Guard and returned to duty as a company, division, battalion, or regiment, which they were at the time they entered said volunteer service, and any company or division not having the minimum number required by law shall recruit up to the requisite number within the time above specified.

All officers of such companies, divisions, battalions, and regiments as entered said volunteer service, and shall return to the National Guard as above provided for, shall continue to serve under the commissions held by them at the time they entered the said volunteer service for the unexpired portion of their respective commissions, the same as if they had not entered such volunteer service, and had remained continuously in the National Guard.

Those officers of the National Guard who entered said volunteer service, but whose term of office would have expired had they remained in the National Guard, are hereby granted all the privileges, exemptions, and retirements up to the date of their being mustered out of said volunteer service, the same as if they had remained in the National Guard, and, should they return to duty within the time herein provided, and be re-elected to any commissioned office, as provided by law, their time shall be continuous for all purposes, as if their said terms had not expired.

Officers and members of the regiments, battalions, companies, and divisions of the National Guard, who did enter the said volunteer service with their respective commands, if they report for duty with such commands, provided they resume their places in the National Guard, as above provided for, are granted continuous service, as in the National Guard, for all purposes up to such time as they so report; those who do not so report are hereby granted honorable discharge from the National Guard, as of the date of the mustering into said volunteer service of their respective organizations.

§ 2. In computing the term of service for any purpose regarding privileges and exemptions and retirements provided by law for officers and members of the National Guard, the time which any officer or enlisted man has served or may hereafter serve in said volunteer service shall be computed and allowed for as continuous service, the same as if such service had been in the National Guard, and including such time not exceeding one hundred and fifty days to those already mustered out of such service, and such time as may be provided under this act for those not yet mustered out of such service to the time when he shall report for duty in the National Guard as hereinbefore provided; and the same shall apply to any volunteer whose term of service in the National Guard expires before being mustered out of said volunteer service, or who re-enters the National Guard within the time provided for in this act.

§ 3. The governor is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe the time for the re-entry into the National Guard of those organizations, officers, and members who entered in said volunteer service but have not yet been discharged therefrom, after they shall have been so discharged, and they may re-enter the National Guard upon the terms and conditions, except as to time, provided in this act, and they are hereby granted leave of absence for the entire period they have been or may be in said volunteer service.

§ 4. No organization, officer, or member hereby granted leave of absence shall draw or be allowed any pay, allowance, money, or property from the state of California for the time or any portion of the time they are hereby granted leave of absence, but all organizations shall be entitled to all military allowances provided by law as soon as they are recruited up to the minimum required by law, and that fact is reported to and approved by the governor.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

See KERR'S CYC. POL. CODE § 1973a and note.

NATIONAL GUARD—TO REORGANIZE.

To ascertain and pay armory rents, armorers' wages, and other expenses arising out of the mustering in of portions of the National Guard and Naval Militia into the United States volunteer service; also, the expenses incurred in reorganizing the National Guard and to result therefrom; and making an appropriation to pay the same.

(Stats. 1899, 80, ch. LXV.)

§ 1. The governor is hereby authorized and empowered to detail one or more officers of the National Guard, as he may deem necessary, to ascertain and determine what, if any, rents for armories, wages of armorers, and any other proper expenses should be paid in consequence of the mustering in of any of the National Guard or Naval Militia who were mustered into the United States volunteer service during the year eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and also the claims existing or which may have arisen, or which may arise by reason of the said National Guard and Naval Militia having been so mustered in, and also any and all proper charges and expenses against the state on account of the companies, or any of them, which were so mustered in, and by reason of the use of armories for the care and custody of the property left therein, and any proper expenses which have been incurred, or which may be incurred, in the reorganization of said guard.

§ 2. Any officer or officers so detailed shall have and receive the same pay and allowances as an officer of like rank in the United States Army for the time actually employed, together with reasonable traveling expenses.

§ 3. Any and all claims so adjusted by said appointed officers shall be transmitted through regular military channels to the governor, who shall submit the same to the board of military auditors, and, if approved by it, the controller is directed to draw his warrant in favor of the respective parties, to whom or in whose favor the claims have been allowed, and also his warrant for the pay and expenses of such detailed officer or officers, and for the amounts thereof, and the treasurer is directed to pay the same.

§ 4. The unexpended balance of the appropriation for "armory rents and other expenses, National Guard of California," for the forty-ninth and fiftieth fiscal years, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated for the purposes of this act.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

NATIONAL GUARD OF CALIFORNIA.

To establish a camp of instruction for the National Guard of the state of California, and to authorize the acquisition, by donation, of a site for the same.

(Stats. 1899, 65, ch. LV.)

§ 1. There is hereby established, at or near the city of Santa Cruz, county of Santa Cruz, state of California, a camp of instruction for the National Guard of California.

§ 2. The adjutant-general, major-general, and the senior brigadier-general of the National Guard of the state of California, are hereby appointed commissioners for the purpose of selecting a suitable site for said camp of instruction, at or near said city of Santa Cruz. They shall, within ninety days after the passage of this act, examine the different tracts of land offered by the city of Santa Cruz and the county of Santa Cruz, or the citizens thereof, for the location of said camp of instruction, and shall select therefrom, if in their judgment practicable, a suitable site for said camp of instruction.

§ 3. After the selection of said site by the commissioners named in the preceding section, and their action meeting the approval of the governor, the said commissioners shall have the power to procure by donation the site so selected for said camp of instruction. The deed or deeds therefor shall be duly executed to the people of the state of California and delivered to the controller, after examination and approval by the attorney-general.

§ 4. Said camp of instruction shall be known as and called, the state camp of instruction for the National Guard of California.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

NATIONAL GUARD OF CALIFORNIA.

Providing that all encampments of the National Guard shall be held at the state camp of instruction, unless otherwise ordered.

(Stats. 1899, 148, ch. CXII.)

§ 1. The commander-in-chief may annually order an encampment for discipline and drill, either by division, brigade, regiment, battalion, or unattached company. All encampments shall be held at the state camp of instruction for the National Guard of California, unless otherwise ordered by the commander-in-chief.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

NATIONAL GUARD OF CALIFORNIA.

To provide for independent and unattached companies of the National Guard of the state of California, and to provide for the manner of making allowances for the use and support of such companies.

(Stats. 1901, 110, ch. XCV.)

§ 1. Any military organization composed of veterans of the Civil War, and having the minimum number required to constitute a company, if, upon the required examination they be found capable of efficient service to the state in the performance of active, garrison, or other military duty, may be organized and mustered into the military service of the state, notwithstanding the members thereof may be over the age of forty-five years; and such companies or organizations when so constituted shall be mustered into, and become a part of, the National Guard of the state, and shall be subject to all the laws regulating and governing the National Guard, except that they shall be deemed and considered independent, unattached companies, acting under the direct orders of the commander-in-chief.

§ 2. Such companies shall receive such allowances as may be approved and allowed by the state board of military auditors out of any moneys appropriated for the use of such companies; provided, however, that such allowances shall in no case exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for any one of such companies for any one fiscal year.

§ 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

NATIONAL GUARD—NAVAL BATTALION.

To establish a naval battalion to be attached to the National Guard of California.

(Stats. 1893, 62, ch. XLIX.)

§ 1. There shall be allowed, in addition to the companies of the organized uniformed militia, known as the National Guard of California, provided for in section nineteen hundred and twelve of an act entitled "An act to establish a Political Code," approved March twelfth, eighteen hundred and seventy-two, relating to the National Guard of California, not more than four companies of naval militia, which shall constitute a battalion, to be known as the Naval Battalion of the National Guard.

§ 2. The battalion shall be commanded by a lieutenant-commander. Each company shall be commanded by a lieutenant, and shall contain one lieutenant, junior grade, two ensigns, and eighty petty officers and men.

§ 3. The staff officers of the battalion shall consist of one adjutant, one ordnance officer, one paymaster, and one surgeon, each with the rank of lieutenant, junior grade; also, one assistant surgeon and one assistant ordnance officer, each with the rank of ensign. All such officers shall be appointed and commissioned as staff officers upon the staff of a colonel commanding a regiment in the National Guard are appointed and commissioned.

§ 4. The organization of the naval militia shall conform generally to the provisions of the laws of the United States; and the system of discipline and exercise shall conform, as nearly as may be, to that of the Navy of the United States as it now is or may hereafter be prescribed by Congress. When not otherwise provided for, the government of the naval militia shall be controlled by the provisions of the Political Code relating to the National Guard of California, and the governor shall have power to alter, divide, annex, consolidate, or disband the same, whenever, in his judgment, the efficiency of the state forces will thereby be increased, and he shall have power to make such rules and regulations as may be deemed proper for the use, government, and instruction of the naval militia; but such rules and regulations shall conform to the provisions of this act, and as nearly as practicable to those governing the United States Navy.

§ 5. When the government of the United States is ready to supply arms and equipments, as well as material and opportunities for naval instruction and drill, the governor is hereby authorized to make the necessary arrangements for carrying the provisions of this act into effect. The duty of the naval militia required by law, or any part of it, may be performed afloat in United States vessels. Officers and men of the naval militia mustered temporarily into the service of the United States for instruction and drill, and receiving compensation therefor from the United States, shall not, during the same term, be entitled to compensation from the state.

§ 6. The governor is authorized to apply to the president of the United States for the detail of commissioned and petty officers of the Navy to act as inspectors and instructors in the art of naval warfare.

§ 7. The rank of officers given in the preceding sections is naval rank, and corresponds to rank in the National Guard of the state, as follows: Lieutenant-commander with major, lieutenant with captain, lieutenant, junior grade, with lieutenant, ensign with second lieutenant.

§ 8. The naval militia shall receive the same allowance from the state as is allowed the infantry battalions and companies.

§ 9. Any and all parts of chapter one hundred and seventy-six, entitled "An act to establish a naval battalion, to be attached to the National Guard of California," that may conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

§ 10. This act shall take effect immediately.

The repealing clause in section 9 of the foregoing act is evidently intended to apply to Stats. 1891, ch. CLXXVI, upon the same subject.

To establish a branch state normal school.

(Stats. 1881, 91, ch. LXXVII.)

§ 1. There shall be established in the county of Los Angeles, a school, to be called the Branch State Normal School of California, for the training and edu-eating of teachers in the art of instructing and governing in the public schools of this state.

§ 2. The trustees of the "State Normal School" are hereby appointed and created trustees of the said branch normal school, with full power and authority to select a site for the permanent location of said branch normal school in the county of Los Angeles. Said trustees shall, within thirty days after the passage of this act, examine the different sites offered by the people of the county of Los Angeles for the location of the branch normal school buildings, and select therefrom a suitable location for said branch normal school buildings; and the site selected by them shall be and remain the permanent site for the branch state normal school; provided, that no buildings shall be erected in the county of Los Angeles until a deed in fee-simple of the land selected by the board of trustees of the state normal school shall be made to the state.

§ 3. Said branch state normal school shall be governed and regulated by the same laws now governing and regulating the state normal school.

§ 4. The sum of fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the general fund of the state, not otherwise appropriated, for the building of said branch state normal school.

§ 5. The controller of state shall draw warrants from time to time, as the work shall progress, in favor of said board of trustees of the state normal school, upon their requisition for the same; provided, that the cost to this state for the erection of said branch normal school buildings shall not exceed the amount herein appropriated.

§ 6. The said buildings shall be erected and the moneys hereby appropriated therefor expended under the direction of the board of trustees of the state normal school, and all labor performed upon said buildings shall be done by the day's work.

§ 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

NORMAL SCHOOLS—NORTHERN CALIFORNIA.

To establish a branch normal school in northern California.

(Stats. 1887, 60, ch. LIII.)

§ 1. There shall be established in the northern portion of this state a school to be called the Northern Branch State Normal School of California, for the training and educating of teachers in the art of instructing and governing the public schools of the state.

§ 2. The trustees of the state normal school are hereby appointed and created trustees of said northern branch normal school, with full power to select a site for the permanent location of said northern branch state normal school in some county north of the city of Marysville. Said trustees shall, within thirty days after the passage of this act, examine the different sites offered by the people of the northern part of this state for the location of the northern branch normal school buildings, and select therefrom a suitable location for said branch state normal school buildings, and the site selected by them shall be and remain the permanent site for the northern branch state normal school. Said trustees shall receive the same per diem and mileage as members of the legislature, while engaged in the selection of the site, payable from the appropriation hereinafter contained, to an amount not exceeding five hundred dollars; provided, that no buildings shall be erected for said school, until a deed in fee-simple of the land selected by the board of trustees of the state normal school shall be made to the state.

§ 3. The sum of fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the general fund of the state not otherwise appropriated, for the building of said northern branch state normal school, and forwarding the same.

§ 4. The controller of state shall draw warrants from time to time as the work shall progress in favor of said board of trustees of the said state normal school, upon their requisition for the same; provided, that the cost to this state for the erection of said normal school buildings shall not exceed the amount herein appropriated.

§ 5. Said northern branch state normal school shall be governed and regulated by the same laws now governing and regulating the state normal school.

§ 6. The said buildings shall be erected, and the moneys herein appropriated therefor expended, under the direction of the board of trustees of the state normal school, and all labor performed upon said buildings shall be by the day's work.

§ 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

NORMAL SCHOOLS—SAN DIEGO.

Establishing a state normal school in San Diego County, California, and making an appropriation of fifty thousand dollars therefor.

(Stats. 1897, 114, ch. CV.)

§ 1. There is hereby established in the county of San Diego, state of California, a school, to be called the State Normal School of San Diego, California, for the training and educating of teachers in the art of instructing and governing in the public schools of this state.

§ 2. The governor shall, within thirty days after the passage of this act, appoint five persons, who, with the governor and state superintendent of public instruction, shall constitute the board of trustees of said state normal school of San Diego.

§ 3. The said trustees, as provided for in section two of this act, are hereby appointed and created trustees of said state normal school, with full power and authority to select a site for the permanent location of said state normal school in the said county of San Diego. Said trustees shall, within ninety days after the passage of this act, examine the different sites offered by the people of the said county of San Diego for the location of the said state normal school buildings, and select therefrom a suitable location for said state normal school buildings; or should there be offered a proper site, with suitable buildings already constructed thereon, adapted for the use of such school, it shall be in the discretion of such trustees to accept such site; and the site selected by them shall be and remain the permanent site for the said state normal school of San Diego: provided, that no money shall be expended for said school until the site selected has been donated to this state, and a deed in fee-simple of the land selected by the said board of trustees of said normal school shall be made to this state.

§ 4. The said state normal school of San Diego shall be governed and regulated by the same laws now governing and regulating the other state normal schools of this state.

§ 5. The sum of fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys of the state not otherwise appropriated, for constructing, furnishing, and maintaining said state normal school of San Diego.

§ 6. The controller of state is hereby authorized to draw warrants from time to time, as the work shall progress, in favor of the said board of trustees of said state normal school of San Diego, upon their requisition for the same, and the state treasurer is directed to pay the same.

§ 7. The moneys hereby appropriated therefor shall be expended under the direction of the said board of trustees of the state normal school of San Diego.

§ 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

NORMAL SCHOOLS—SAN FRANCISCO.

To establish a state normal school in the city and county of San Francisco, state of California, and making an appropriation of twenty thousand dollars.

(Stats. 1899, 177, ch. CXLI.)

§ 1. There shall be a state normal school established in the city and county of San Francisco, state of California, to be called the San Francisco State Normal School, for the training and educating of teachers and others in the art of instructing and governing the public schools of this state.

§ 2. The governor shall, within thirty days after the passage of this act, appoint five persons, who, with the governor and state superintendent of public instruction, shall constitute the board of trustees of said normal school.

§ 3. The said trustees shall, within sixty days after their appointment, establish and cause to be opened and carried on in said city and county of San Francisco the said normal school, and shall provide suitable accommodations for the same, and may accept from the said city and county of San Francisco, or from the board of education thereof, a building or buildings for the use of said school.

§ 4. The said state normal school shall be governed by the laws governing the present state normal schools of this state, and the terms of office of said trustees shall be the same as the terms of trustees of the said other state normal schools.

§ 5. The sum of twenty thousand dollars, not more than one half of which shall be available in the fifty-first fiscal year, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for establishing and maintaining said state normal school of San Francisco, and providing suitable accommodations therefor.

§ 6. The controller of state shall draw his warrant or warrants for said amount as required in favor of said trustees.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately.

NORMAL SCHOOLS—SAN JOSE.

To establish a state normal school.

(Stats. 1869-70, 787, ch. DXXIX.)

§ 1. There shall be established in the city of San Jose, county of Santa Clara, a school to be called the California State Normal School; for the training and educating of teachers in the art of instructing and governing in the public schools of this state.

§ 2. The governor of the state of California, the superintendent of public instruction of the said state, and the principal of the state normal school, are hereby appointed and created trustees, with full power and authority to select a site for the permanent location of the state normal school in the city of San Jose. Said trustees shall, within thirty days after the passage of this act, examine the sites offered by the city of San Jose for the location of the state normal school buildings, and select therefrom a suitable location for said state normal school buildings, and the site selected by them shall be and remain the permanent site for the state normal school buildings.

§ 3. The mayor and common council of the city of San Jose are hereby authorized, empowered and directed, immediately after such site shall have been selected by said trustees, to convey such site, by good and sufficient conveyance, to the trustees of the state normal school, who are hereby authorized and empowered to receive and hold the same, and the title thereto, in trust and for the use of said state normal school; provided, that whenever the state normal school shall be removed from said site selected, the same, and the title thereto, shall, immediately upon such removal, revert to said city of San Jose and become the property thereof, absolutely.

§ 4. The governor, the state superintendent of public instruction, and five others to be appointed by the governor, shall constitute the board of normal school trustees. The appointed members, at the first meeting of the board of trustees, shall determine, by lot, their respective terms of office, which shall be for two, four, six, eight and ten years.

§ 5. Said board of trustees shall have power, and are hereby authorized and required, to remove to said city of San Jose, county of Santa Clara, the state normal school now located in the city of San Francisco, and to continue the same for the gratuitous instruction of such persons residing in this state as may desire to prepare themselves to teach in the public schools of this state. They shall have power to expend all moneys appropriated or donated for building school-rooms and boarding-houses, and for furnishing the same, as well as all moneys for the current expenses of the school.

§ 6. The board of trustees shall have power to elect a principal, and all other teachers that may be deemed necessary; to fix the salaries of the same, and to prescribe their duties.

§ 7. It shall be the duty of the board of trustees to prescribe the course of study, and the time and standard of graduation, and to issue such certificates and diplomas as may, from time to time, be deemed suitable. These certificates and diplomas shall entitle the holders to teach in any county in this state, for the time and in the grade specified in the certificate or diploma.

§ 8. The board of trustees shall prescribe the text-books, apparatus and furniture, and provide the same, together with all necessary stationery, for the use of the pupils.

§ 9. Said board shall, when deemed expedient, establish and maintain a training or model school, or schools, in which the pupils of the normal school shall be required to instruct classes under the supervision and direction of experienced teachers.

§ 10. Said board shall make rules for the government of the boarding house or houses; shall superintend the same, and make all necessary arrangements for conducting the same in the most economical manner that will make them self-sustaining.

§ 11. At each annual meeting the board shall determine what number of pupils may be admitted into the school; and this number shall be appointed among the counties of this state, according to the number of representatives from said counties in the legislature; provided, that teachers holding first or second grade certificates may be admitted from the state at large. The county superintendents and the county boards of examination shall hold competitive examinations before the first of May in each year, of all persons desiring to become pupils of the normal school, which examinations shall be conducted in the same manner as examinations for third-grade teachers' certificates. A list shall be made of the applicants thus examined, and they shall receive recommendation in the order of standing in the examination; provided, that superintendents may discriminate in favor of those whose age and experience specially fit them to become normal pupils. After the expiration of the year, a new list must be prepared, and those not recommended must be re-examined or forfeit their right to recommendation.

§ 12. To secure admission into the junior class of the normal school, the applicant, if a male, must be seventeen years of age, or if a female, sixteen years of age; to enter an advanced class the applicant must be proportionately older. Applicants must also present letters of recommendation from their county superintendent, certifying to their good moral character, and their fitness to enter the normal school. Before entering, all applicants must sign the following declaration: "We hereby declare that our purpose in entering the California state normal school is to fit ourselves for the profession of teaching, and that it is our intention to engage in teaching in the public schools of this state."

§ 13. Pupils from other states and territories may be admitted to all privileges of the school, on presenting letters of recommendation from the executives or state school superintendents thereof, and the payment of one hundred dollars. The money thus received shall be appropriated to the purchase of library and apparatus. Pupils from other states shall not be required to sign the declaration named in section twelve.

§ 14. The superintendent of public instruction shall be the executive agent and secretary of the board of trustees of the normal school. He shall visit the school from time to time, inquire into its condition and management, enforce the rules and regulations made by the board, require such reports as he deems proper from the teachers of the school and officers of the boarding-house, and exercise a general supervision of the same. He shall in connection with the executive committee appointed by the board, expend all moneys appropriated for salaries and incidental expenses, and shall make a semiannual statement, in writing, to the board, of all moneys received and expended.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the principal of the school to make a detailed annual report to the board of trustees, with a catalogue of the pupils, and such other particulars as the board may require or he may think useful. It shall also be his duty, authorized by the board, to attend county institutes, and lecture before them on subjects relating to public schools and the profession of teaching.

§ 16. The board of trustees shall hold two regular meetings annually, at such time and place as may be determined; but special meetings may be called by the secretary, by sending written notice to each member.

§ 17. The board shall have power to make all rules and regulations necessary for discharging the duties named above.

§ 18. An annual ad valorem tax of two cents on each one hundred dollars value of taxable property in this state is hereby levied, for the twenty-second and twenty-third fiscal years, and is directed to be collected in the same manner as other state taxes are collected; and the money raised by said tax shall be paid into the state treasury, and said money and the money by this act appropriated shall be known as the state normal school building fund.

§ 19. Said state normal school trustees shall, from time to time, as the services herein provided for, or by them ordered and performed, and labor done or materials furnished for said state normal school buildings, draw orders on the state controller, specifically describing the services rendered, labor performed or materials furnished, together with the amount, and to whom payable. Upon presentation of such orders, the state controller shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the amounts thereof, payable out of said state normal school building fund; and the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay such warrants out of said fund. Said state normal school trustees and controller each shall keep a correct register of the warrants or orders issued, the amount of each warrant, to whom ordered paid and for what services or materials given; such registers shall be kept in their respective offices for public inspection.

§ 20. The sum of twenty-four thousand dollars is hereby appropriated, biennially, out of any moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, which said appropriation shall be set apart at the commencement of each fiscal year, to support the California state normal school, and the controller is hereby directed to draw his warrants, from time to time, on the state treasurer, payable out of said appropriation; and the unexhausted remainder, if any, of any appropriation for such claims or accounts as have been audited by the board of trustees of the normal school, or the executive committee thereof, and the board of examiners; provided, that the bills for the salaries of regular teachers may be allowed by the controller without the indorsement of the board of examiners; provided, also, that the aggregate of warrants drawn shall not exceed, in any one fiscal year, one half the appropriation herein made for such years, together with the remainder of unused appropriations, if any, of any previous fiscal year or years; and whenever, at the close of any fiscal year, a balance remains to the credit of the California state normal school fund, such balance shall be carried forward and added to the appropriation for the succeeding year.

§ 21. All classes may be admitted into the normal school who are admitted, without restriction, into the public schools of this state.

§ 22. The provisions of this act shall take effect from and after its passage; provided, that the removal of the school shall be made whenever the board of trustees decide that suitable accommodations have been prepared for the same.

§ 23. All acts or parts of acts passed by the senate and assembly of the state of California, conflicting with the above, are hereby repealed.

NORMAL SCHOOLS—SAN JOSE.

Authorizing and empowering the board of school trustees of the city of San Jose, county of Santa Clara, state of California, to erect, construct, and build, and maintain, at the expense of the said city of San Jose a high school building on the north side of the state normal school grounds at San Jose between Fifth and Seventh streets in said city.

(Stats. 1897, 167, ch. CXI.)

§ 1. The state of California hereby authorizes and empowers and grants to the board of school trustees of the city of San Jose, county of Santa Clara, the right and privilege to erect, construct, build, and maintain a high school building, and conduct and carry on a high school therein at the expense of said city of San Jose, on the grounds of the state normal school at San Jose; said building to be erected on the north side of said normal school grounds, between Fifth and Seventh streets in said city at such point as may be agreed upon between the board of trustees of said state normal school and the board of school trustees of said city of San Jose. And the right and privilege is hereby granted to said city of San Jose to enter into and upon the lands and premises necessary for the said high school building, and grounds necessary to the use thereof, for the purpose of laying water and gas mains and pipes, or for the erection of electric light poles and wires, and for all other purposes necessary to the building and constructing of such high school building and the maintenance of a high school therein.

§ 2. The city of San Jose shall keep so much of the lands and premises belonging to said state normal school as may be used by said city of San Jose for the use of said high school in good condition at the expense of said city of San Jose, and shall gravel and care for the walks in and upon the lands so used for high school purposes, and maintain and care for the grass plots and ornamental trees and shrubs, and beautify and ornament so much of said lands and premises as may be agreed upon between the board of trustees of said normal school and the board of school trustees of said city.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

NORMAL SCHOOLS—SAN JOSE.

To authorize and empower the trustees of the state normal school at San Jose to reconvey to the city of San Jose a parcel of land situate in said city and belonging to the state of California, to the said city of San Jose, for the purpose of erecting and maintaining a free public library upon said parcel of land.

(Stats. 1901, 575, ch. CLXXX.)

§ 1. The board of trustees of the state normal school at San Jose are hereby authorized and empowered to reconvey to the city of San Jose, county of Santa Clara, for the purpose of erecting and maintaining thereon a free public library, a parcel of land situate, lying and being in said city of San Jose, and described as follows, to wit: Commencing at the southeasterly corner of San Fernando and Fourth streets, the same being the northwesterly corner of Washington Square, and running thence easterly along the southerly line of said Fernando Street two hundred and seventy-five feet; thence at right angles southerly two hundred and seventy-five feet; thence at right angles westerly two hundred and seventy-five feet to the easterly line of said Fourth Street, and thence northerly along said easterly line of Fourth Street to the point of beginning, the same being a portion of Washington Square.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

NORTH SAN FRANCISCO HOMESTEAD AND RAILROAD ASSOCIATION —LANDS.

To authorize the sale and conveyance to the North San Francisco Homestead and Railroad Association of certain overflowed lands in the city and county of San Francisco.

(Stats. 1863-4, 482, ch. CCCCXXXVI.)

§ 1. The commissioners of swamp and overflowed lands are authorized, whenever requested by the officers of the North San Francisco Homestead and Railroad Association, to appraise the value of the land belonging to the state in front of the lands of said association, in the northerly portion of the city and county of San Francisco, west of Buchanan Street, commencing at the northerly boundary of the lands of said association, at high-water mark, on said Buchanan Street, and extending to a distance north where the water is not exceeding six feet deep at low water along the entire front of the land of said association upon said northerly boundary thereof, and extending westerly to the government reservation; provided, that in no case shall it extend to a depth of water exceeding six feet at the lowest stage of the tide, nor interfere with the water front of the adjoining property; and, provided, further, that neither the said association, nor its employees, agents, successors, or assigns, shall have any right to levy or collect any tolls, dockage, or wharfage; but this proviso shall not apply to Fillmore Street Wharf, in case of its purchase by or transfer to said association; and said board of swamp-land commissioners shall certify the amount found to be the value of said land to the treasurer of the state, and also to the surveyor-general, and upon the approval of the survey of the county surveyor by the surveyor-general, and upon the payment to the treasurer of the state, for the benefit of the wharf and dock fund, of the amount so found to be the value of said land, the register of the state land office shall certify said approval and payment to the governor, whereupon a patent shall issue for said land to said corporation.

§ 2. Within thirty days after the appraisalment by said commissioners, the surveyor of the city and county of San Francisco shall make out a plat and field-notes of said survey. He shall, within ten days thereafter, record the same in his office, and forward duplicate certified copies of the same to the surveyor-general, and it shall be the duty of the surveyor-general, upon examination and approval of said survey, to return one of the duplicate copies, with his approval indorsed thereon, to said county surveyor, to be by him delivered to the parties desiring the survey; provided said approval and return of duplicate shall be within ten days after the receipt of said plat and field-notes.

§ 3. All expenses attending said appraisalment by the commissioners, together with all the costs incident to an accurate survey of the said lands by the surveyor of the city and county of San Francisco, shall be paid by said association.

§ 4. The said association or its assigns shall not have the power to make any use of said lands, or any part thereof, which shall interfere with the navigation of the bay of San Francisco.

§ 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

NOTARY PUBLIC—GOAT ISLAND.

Authorizing the appointment of a notary public in the city and county of San Francisco, to reside and transact notarial duties at Yerba Buena Island, or Goat Island, in the bay of San Francisco, in addition to the number of notaries now authorized by law for said city and county.

(Stats. 1903, 26, ch. XXIII.)

§ 1. The governor is hereby authorized and empowered to appoint and commission one notary public in and for the city and county of San Francisco, to reside and transact his notarial duties at Yerba Buena Island, known as Goat Island, in the Bay of San Francisco, in addition to the number of notaries now authorized by law to be appointed in said city and county. Such notary shall be subject to the general laws relating to notaries public.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

NURSES—EDUCATION—REGISTRATION.

To promote the better education of practitioners of nursing the sick in the state of California, to provide for the issuance of certificates of registration as a registered nurse to qualified applicants by the board of regents of the University of California, and to provide penalties for violation hereof.

(Stats. 1905, 533, ch. CDV.)

§ 1. Commencing in the month of July, nineteen hundred and five, and at least semiannually thereafter, the board of regents of the University of California shall hold, or cause to be held, such examination or examinations as they may deem proper to test the qualifications and fitness of applicants for certification and registration as registered nurses within the state of California. Such examinations shall be practical in character, and a reasonable notice designating the time and place thereof must be given by publication in at least two daily papers published within the state of California.

§ 2. All applicants for examination must furnish satisfactory evidence of good moral character and of having complied with the provisions of this act relative to qualifications; and any examiner may inquire of any applicant for examination concerning his or her character, qualifications or experience, and may take testimony in regard thereto, under oath, which he is hereby empowered to administer.

§ 3. All persons satisfactorily passing such examinations shall be granted by the board of regents of the University of California a certificate stating that he or she is a registered nurse within the state of California, and shall thereafter be known and styled as a registered nurse. The secretary of the said board of regents shall keep in his office a book showing the names of all persons to whom certificates as registered nurses have been granted. Graduates of all training schools for nurses which shall have been approved by the said board of regents may be certified as registered nurses, without examination, at any time within three years after the passage of this act, upon payment of the fee prescribed in section four hereof.

§ 4. Every person applying for examination, or for registration as a registered nurse, shall pay to the secretary of the said board of regents a fee of five dollars, which shall in no case be refunded. A certificate of registration shall be void three years after the date thereof, but a new certificate may be issued to the holder upon the payment of a fee of one dollar. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this act shall be paid from the fees and fines collected hereunder, and the surplus receipts, if any, shall be used to provide for education in nursing.

§ 5. (I) No person shall be eligible for examination or for registration as a registered nurse who shall not furnish satisfactory evidence of having graduated from a nurses' training school: (a) that is attached to a reputable hospital; (b) that gives a general training and a systematic, theoretical and practical course of study covering a period of at least two years; (c) and that has been approved by the board of regents of the University of California.

(II) After January first, nineteen hundred and eight, no person shall be eligible for examination or for registration as a registered nurse, unless:

(a) He or she is at least twenty-one years of age;

(b) He or she is a graduate of a training school approved by the board of regents of the University of California, and after said date no school shall be approved or remain on the list of schools approved by said board of regents, unless it is attached to a general hospital, and its course requires a three years' training in that hospital, provided that a training school approved as aforesaid may graduate students who have spent a year therein subsequent to completing a two years' course in the training school attached to a special hospital.

(III) After January first, nineteen hundred and ten, no person shall be eligible for examination or for registration unless he or she furnishes satisfactory evidence of having substantially completed the course of studies pursued in the grammar schools of the state of California, or an equivalent course.

§ 6. The board of regents of the University of California shall have power to revoke any certificate of registration for incompetency, dishonesty, intemperance, immorality or unprofessional conduct, after a full and fair investigation of the charges preferred against the accused. Prior to such hearing a written copy of such charges shall be furnished to the accused, who shall have at least twenty days' notice in writing of the time and place where such charge will be heard and determined.

§ 7. Any person procuring registration under this act, by false representation or who shall refuse to surrender a certificate of registration which has been revoked as set out in this act, or who shall use the title of "registered nurse," or append the letters "R. N." or any other words, letters or figures to indicate that the person using the same is a registered nurse, unless such person shall be lawfully entitled so to do, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days nor more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment; provided, however, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prohibit or affect the gratuitous nursing of the sick, nor to nursing the sick for hire by a person who does not in any assume to be a registered nurse.

OAKLAND—CITY.

Granting certain salt-marsh and tide lands of the state to the city of Oakland.

(Stats. 1873-4, 132, ch. CXIII.)

§ 1. The interest of the state of California in those lands situate in the city of Oakland, known and described as lots numbered one to nine, inclusive, in section thirty-six, and lots eleven to fourteen, inclusive, in section twenty-five, in township one south, range four west, Mount Diablo meridian, United States survey, as the same are laid down on the official map, entitled "Map number three of the salt-marsh and tide lands situate in the county of Alameda," prepared by order of the board of tide-land commissioners, and surveyed under the direction of G. F. Allardt, chief engineer of the tide-land survey, is hereby granted to the city of Oakland in trust, for the use of the people thereof, and of the people of the state as a water park.

§ 2. The city of Oakland shall have no power to convey, encumber, or lease any of the said lands, or grant the use of any of the same, for any purpose whatever, but shall cause the same to be kept and maintained for the purposes mentioned in the first section of this act, and for none other. In case the said city shall attempt to convey, encumber, lease, or grant any use of any of said lands, the same shall revert to the people of the state; and the attorney-general may bring an action to enforce a reconveyance of the same to the state.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

OAKLAND—HARBOR.

To facilitate the construction of a canal for the improvement of Oakland Harbor.

(Stats. 1875-6, 862, ch. DLXXXI; supplemented and amended 1877-8, 113, ch. CIII.)

§ 1. The board of supervisors of the county of Alameda is hereby authorized and directed, during the present year, to levy, and cause to be collected, in the same manner as other county taxes, a special tax upon the property of said county, sufficient to raise the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, which shall be set apart as a special fund, to be known as the "Canal Fund," and if, from any cause, the said special tax shall not yield the full sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, the treasurer of said county shall transfer from the general fund to the canal fund a sufficient sum to make up the deficiency.

§ 2. The said sum, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be applied to the payment of any damages that may be finally awarded by judicial decree to the claimants of any lands that may be condemned and taken by the United States for the purposes of a canal between the bay of San Leandro and the estuary of San Antonio, for the improvement of the Oakland Harbor.

§ 3. Upon the certificate of the United States district attorney for California, that on proceedings for condemnation damages have been awarded to the claimants of said lands, and that the decree concerning the same has become final, the supervisors of Alameda County shall direct the auditor of said county to draw his warrant upon the county general fund in such sums as shall be necessary to realize the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars in United States gold coin, in favor of the clerk of the court in which such proceedings for condemnation were had for the damages so awarded, and the treasurer of said county shall pay the warrant with legal interest, in United States gold coin; provided, that if the damages be made payable in lawful currency of the United States, said board of supervisors shall direct such warrant to be drawn, and said auditor shall draw such warrant, for such sum in United States gold coin as will purchase, at then current rates of premium or discount, the said sum of twenty-five thousand dollars in lawful currency of the United States, and the said clerk of said court shall convert the same into lawful currency and pay the same to the parties entitled under the decree of condemnation. [Amendment, Stats. 1877-8, 113.]

[Amendatory act (Stats. 1877-8, 113) also contained the following section:

"§ 3. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed."

§ 4. If, after paying the said damages, there shall remain any unexpended balance in said canal fund, the treasurer shall transfer the same to the general fund.

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

The supplementary act above referred to relates first to a transfer of certain funds in the following language:

"§ 1. The board of supervisors of the county of Alameda are hereby authorized and empowered to direct the treasurer and auditor of said county to transfer the sum of twenty-six thousand seven hundred and fifty-four dollars and twenty cents from the canal fund to the general fund of said county."

Following the above provision is the amendment of section 3 of the Act of 1877-8, as inserted in the foregoing statute.

See tit. Municipal Corporations.

OFFICE—ELIGIBILITY.

To secure to native-born and naturalized citizens of the United States the exclusive right to be employed in any department of the state, county, city and county, or incorporated city or town government in the state.

(Stats. 1901, 589, ch. CLXXXV.)

§ 1. No person, except a native-born or naturalized citizen of the United States, shall be employed in any department of the state, county, city and county, or incorporated city or town government in this state.

§ 2. It shall be unlawful for any person, whether elected, appointed or commissioned to fill any office in either the state, county, city and county, or incorporated city or town government of this state, or in any department thereof, to appoint or employ any person to perform any duties whatsoever, except such person be a native-born or naturalized citizen of the United States.

§ 3. No money shall be paid out of the state treasury, or out of the treasury of any county, or city and county, or incorporated city or town, to any person employed in any of the offices mentioned in section two of this act, except such person shall be a native-born or naturalized citizen of the United States.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

And as to eligibility, see tit. Females.

OFFICE—REMOVAL FROM.

To execute and carry into effect section three of article twenty of the constitution of the state of California.

(Stats. 1901, 552, ch. CLXVII.)

§ 1. Whenever any person within this state shall hold any office or position of public trust and shall have taken the oath of office prescribed by section three of article twenty of the state constitution upon entering upon such office, or shall, after his election or appointment, have offered to take such oath, it shall be unlawful to remove such person from such office or position of public trust because such person has not complied with some or any provision of any law, charter or regulation prescribing an additional test or qualification for such office or position of public trust, and any person who is removed or threatened with removal from any office or position of public trust under any pretense or device whatever, if the real reason be because of non-compliance with provisions requiring such additional test or qualification, shall be entitled to restrain such unlawful removal or to enforce restoration by process of injunction both prohibitory and mandatory.

§ 2. It shall be unlawful for any person having the power of removal from office of any public official, state or local, to remove or threaten to remove such official from his office because such official in the appointment of any person to a position of public trust under such last-named official, refuses to require any test or additional qualification than the oath referred to in section one of this act as a condition of permitting such appointee to enter upon or remain in such position of public trust; and such person making or threatening such unlawful removal from office may be restrained by prohibitory and mandatory injunction from effecting such removal under any pretense or device if the real reason of such removal or threatened removal be or was such as herein declared unlawful.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

A statute (1873-4, 911, ch. DCLX) provided for removal from office for violations of official duties. Under that statute, see Covarrubias vs. Supervisors, 52 Cal. 622, 623; Fraser vs. Alexander, 75 Cal. 147, 148, 16

OFFICERS—INTOXICATION.

Relating to the intoxication of officers.

(Stats. 1880, 77, ch. LXXV.)

§ 1. Any officer of a town, village, city, county or state, who shall be intoxicated while in discharge of the duties of his office, or by reason of intoxication is disqualified for the discharge of, or neglects his duties, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction of such misdemeanor shall forfeit his office; and in such case the vacancy occasioned thereby shall be filled in the same manner as if such officer had filed his resignation in the proper office, and it had been accepted by the proper authority; provided, such acceptance shall have been necessary to make the office vacant.

OFFICERS—STATE.

Forbidding the employment of the inmates of state institutions in the manufacture, or production of articles, for the use of state officers, or the officers and employees of state institutions.

(Stats. 1903, 210, ch. CXC.)

§ 1. No inmate of any state institution shall be employed in the manufacture or production, of any article, intended for the private and personal use of any state officer, or officer or employee of any state institution; provided, that this act shall not prevent repairing of any kind nor the employment of such inmates in household or domestic work connected with such institution.

§ 2. All acts or parts of acts in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

OIL LANDS—INJURY BY WATER.

To prevent injury to oil or petroleum-bearing strata or formations by the infiltration or intrusion of water therein.

(Stats. 1903, 399, ch. CCLXXV.)

§ 1. It shall be the duty of the owner of any well that may be drilled in the state of California on lands producing or containing oil or petroleum to properly case such well with metal casing, in accordance with the best approved methods, landing the casing in the clay or other water-impervious strata or formation immediately underlying the surface water-bearing sands or strata, and also to, if the well be drilled to a sufficient depth, land the casing in the clay or other water-impervious strata or formation underlying such oil or petroleum producing or bearing sands or strata, and effectually shut off all water overlying and underlying the oil or petroleum producing or bearing sands or strata, and effectually prevent any water from penetrating such oil or petroleum producing or bearing sands or strata.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of the owner of any well referred to in section one of this act, before abandoning same, to withdraw the casing therefrom and securely fill such well with clay, earth or mortar, or other good and sufficient materials, used alone or in suitable combination and thoroughly packed and tamped in the well, to a point one hundred feet above the upper oil or petroleum bearing or producing sand or strata, and while withdrawing the casing therefrom, and [to] effectually shut off and exclude all water underlying and overlying such oil or petroleum bearing or producing sand or strata from penetrating such sand or strata.

§ 3. The term "owner" as herein used shall mean and include each and every person, persons, copartnership, partnership, association or corporation owning, managing, operating, controlling or possessing any well mentioned in sections one and two of this act, either as principal or principals, lessee or lessees of such principal or principals, and their and each of their employees; the term "oil or petroleum producing or bearing sand or strata" as herein used shall mean and include any bed, seam or stratum of rock or sand or other material which contains, includes or yields earth oil, rock oil, or petroleum oil or natural gas or either of them.

§ 4. Any violation of the provisions of this act shall be deemed a misdemeanor.

OLIVE OIL—IMITATION.

To regulate the sale of imitation olive oil, and to repeal an act entitled "An act to regulate the sale of olive oil," approved March tenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-one.

(Stats. 1893, 210, ch. CLXXVII.)

§ 1. That for the purpose of this act every article, substance, or compound, or oil other than that extracted solely from the fruit of the olive tree, made in the semblance of olive oil extracted solely from the fruit of the olive tree, is hereby declared to be imitation olive oil.

§ 2. Each person who manufactures imitation olive oil shall place upon every bottle, can, or other vessel containing such imitation oil, a label, with the words

“imitation olive oil” printed thereon in capital letters, in a clear and durable manner, in the English language, in plain type, designated and known as twenty-four-point letter type (two-line pica), of a Gothic face; said label shall also state plainly the name and address of the manufacturer or compounder, the name and place where manufactured and put up, and also the names and actual percentages of the different ingredients contained in each bottle, can, or vessel.

§ 3. No person, by himself or another, shall knowingly ship, consign, or forward by any common carrier, whether public or private, any imitation olive oil, unless the same be marked as provided in section two of this act, and no carrier shall knowingly receive, for the purpose of forwarding or transporting, any imitation olive oil, unless it shall be marked as hereinbefore provided, consigned, and by the carrier receipted for, as imitation olive oil; provided, that this act shall not apply to any goods in transit between foreign countries and across the state of California.

§ 4. No person shall knowingly have in his possession or under his control any imitation olive oil, unless the bottle, can, or vessel, or other package containing the same, be clearly marked as provided in section two of this act.

§ 5. No person, by himself or another, shall knowingly sell or offer for sale imitation olive oil under the name of or under the pretense that the same is pure olive oil; and no person, by himself or another, shall knowingly sell any imitation olive oil unless he shall inform the purchaser at the time of sale that the same is imitation olive oil, and shall deliver to the purchaser at the time of sale a statement, clearly printed in the English language, which shall refer to the article sold, and which shall contain, in plain type, designated and known as twenty-four-point letter type (two-line pica), of a Gothic face, in capital letters, the words “imitation olive oil,” and shall give the name and place of business of the manufacturer or compounder.

§ 6. Every person having possession or control of any imitation olive oil, which is not marked as required by the provisions of this act, shall be presumed to have known, during the time of such possession or control, that the same was imitation olive oil.

§ 7. No person shall expose for sale any oil bearing the semblance of olive oil, manufactured out of the state, and represent that it is manufactured in this state, nor shall offer for sale any such oil upon the receptacle of which is any cut, design, or mark intended to convey the belief that such is manufactured in this state.

§ 8. Whoever shall violate any of the provisions or sections of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment, as the court may direct.

§ 9. It shall be the duty of the state board of horticulture and the state analyst to enforce the provisions of this act.

§ 10. An act entitled “An act to regulate the sale of olive oil,” approved March tenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, is hereby repealed.

It will be observed that section 1 of the foregoing act purports to “amend” section 1 of the former act, and that in section 10 of this the former act is repealed.

OPTOMETRY.

To regulate the practice of optometry and for the appointment of a board of examiners in the matter of said regulation.

(Stats. 1903, 285, ch. CCXXXIV.)

§ 1. The practice of optometry is defined as follows, namely: The employment of subjective and objective mechanical means to determine the accommodative and refractive states of the eye and the scope of its functions in general.

§ 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to practise optometry in the state of California unless he shall first have obtained a certificate of registration and filed the same, or a certified copy thereof, with the clerk of the county of his residence, all as hereinafter provided.

§ 3. There is hereby created a board, whose duty it shall be to carry out the purposes and enforce the provisions of this act, and shall be styled the California state board of examiners in optometry. Said board shall be appointed by the governor as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, and shall consist of three persons engaged in the actual practice of optometry, and residing in the state of California. Each member of said board shall hold office for a term of four years, and until his successor is appointed. Appointments to fill vacancies caused by death, resignation or removal, shall be made for the residue of such term by the governor. The members of said board, before entering upon their duties, shall respectively take and subscribe to the oath required to be taken by other officers, and filed with the clerk of the county in which said member resides, and said board shall have a common seal.

§ 4. Said board shall choose at its first regular meeting, and annually thereafter, one of its members president, and one secretary thereof, who severally shall have the power during their term of office to administer oaths and take affidavits, certifying thereto under their hand and the seal of the board. Said board shall meet at least once in each year at the state capitol, and in addition thereto, whenever and wherever the president and secretary thereof shall call a meeting; a majority of said board shall at all times constitute a quorum. The secretary of said board shall keep a full record of the proceedings of said board, which records shall at all reasonable times be open to public inspection.

§ 5. Every person before beginning to practise optometry in this state, after the passage of this act, shall pass an examination before said board of examiners. Such examination shall be confined to such knowledge as is essential to the practice of optometry. Any person having signified to said board his desire to be examined by them shall appear before them at such time and place as they may designate, and before beginning such examination shall pay to the secretary of said board, for the use of said board, the sum of ten dollars, and if he shall successfully pass such examination, shall pay to said secretary, for the use of said board, a further sum of five dollars on the issuance to him of a certificate. All persons successfully passing such examination shall be registered in the board register, which shall be kept by said secretary, as licensed to practise optometry, and shall also receive a certificate of such registration, to be signed by the president and secretary of said board, which shall be filed as hereinbefore provided.

§ 6. Every person who is actually engaged in the practice of optometry in the state of California, at the time of the passage of this act, shall, within six months thereafter, file an affidavit in proof thereof with said board, who shall make and keep record of such person, and shall, in the consideration of the sum of five dollars, issue to him a certificate of registration.

§ 7. All persons entitled to a certificate of registration under the full provisions of section six, shall be exempt from the provisions of section five of this act.

§ 8. Recipients of said certificate of registration shall present the same for record to the clerk of the county in which they reside, and shall pay a fee of fifty cents to the clerk for recording the same. Said clerk shall record said certificate in a book to be provided by him for that purpose. Any person so licensed removing his residence from one county to another in this state shall, before engaging in the practice of optometry in such other county, obtain from the clerk of the county in which said certificate of registration is recorded, a certified copy of such record, or else obtain a new certificate of registration from the board of examiners, and shall, before commencing practice in such county file the same for record with the clerk of the county to which he removes, and pay the clerk thereof for recording the same, a fee of fifty cents. Any failure, neglect or refusal on the part of the person holding such certificate or copy of record to file the same for record, as hereinbefore provided, for six months after the issuance thereof, shall forfeit the same. Such board shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for the reissue of any certificate, and the clerk of any county shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for making and certifying a copy of the record of any such certificate.

§ 9. Any person entitled to a certificate, as provided for in section six of this act, who shall not within six months after the passage thereof make written application to the board of examiners for a certificate of registration, accompanied by a written statement, signed by him, and duly verified before an officer authorized to administer oaths within this state, fully setting forth the grounds upon which he claims such certificate, shall be deemed to have waived his right to a certificate under the provisions or refusal on the part of any person holding such certificate under the provisions of such section. Any failure, neglect or refusal on the part of any person holding such certificate to file the same for record, as hereinbefore provided, for six months after the issuance thereof, shall forfeit the same.

§ 10. Every person to whom a certificate of examination or registration is granted shall display the same in a conspicuous part of his office wherein the practice of optometry is conducted.

§ 11. Out of the funds coming into the possession of said board, each member thereof may receive, as compensation, the sum of five dollars for each day actually engaged in the duties of his office, and mileage at three cents per mile for all distance necessarily traveled in going to and coming from the meetings of the board. Said expenses shall be paid from the fees and assessments received by the board under the provisions of this act, and no part of the salary or other expenses of the board shall ever be paid out of the state treasury. All moneys received in excess of said per diem allowance and mileage, as above provided for, shall be held by the secretary as a special fund for meeting expenses of said board and carrying out the provisions of this act, and he shall give such bonds as the board shall from time to time direct, and the said board shall make an annual report of its proceedings to the governor on the first Monday in January of each year, which report shall contain an account of all moneys received and disbursed by them pursuant to this act.

§ 12. Every registered optometrist who desires to continue the practice of optometry in this state shall annually on such date as the board of optometry may determine, pay to the secretary of said board a registration fee to be fixed by the board, but which shall in no case exceed the sum of two dollars per annum, for which he shall receive a renewal of said registration; and in case of default in such payment, by any person, his certificate may be revoked by the board of examiners, under twenty days' notice of the time and place of considering such revocation. But no certificate shall be revoked for such non-payment if the person so notified shall pay before or at such time of consideration his fee and such penalty as may be imposed by said board; provided, that said board may impose a penalty of five dollars and no more on any one person so notified, as a condition of allowing his certificate to stand; provided, further, that said board of examiners may collect any such fees by suit.

§ 13. Said board shall have power to revoke any certificate of registration granted by it under this act for conviction of crime, habitual drunkenness for six months immediately before a charge to be made, gross incompetency, or contagious or infectious disease; provided, that before any certificate shall be so revoked, the holder thereof shall have notice in writing of the charge or charges against him, and at a day specified in said notice, at least five days after the service thereof, be given a public hearing, and have opportunity to produce testimony in his behalf and to confront the witnesses against him. Any person whose certificate has been so revoked, may, after the expiration of ninety days, apply to have the same regranted, and the same shall be regranted him, upon a satisfactory showing that the disqualification has ceased.

§ 14. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not less than twenty dollars, nor not more than one hundred dollars, or to be confined not less than one month, nor more than three months in the county jail, and in default of payment of said fine shall be imprisoned in the county jail at the rate of one day for every two dollars of the fine so imposed. And all fines thus received shall be paid into the common school fund of the county in which such conviction takes place.

§ 15. Justices of the peace and the respective municipal courts shall have jurisdiction of violations of this act. It shall be the duty of the respective district attorneys to prosecute all violations of this act.

§ 16. Nothing in this act shall be construed to apply to physicians and surgeons authorized to practise under the laws of the state of California, nor to persons who sell spectacles or eye-glasses in the ordinary course of trade, and who do not attempt to employ subjective and objective mechanical means to determine the accommodative and refractive states of the eye.

§ 17. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

ORANGE COUNTY—ORGANIZATION.

To create the county of Orange, to define the boundaries thereof, to determine the county seat by an election, and to provide for its organization and election of officers, and to classify said county.

(Stats. 1889, 123, ch. CX.)

§ 1. Upon the assent of two thirds of the qualified electors, voting at an election to be held for that purpose as provided in sections four and five of this act, there shall be formed out of the southeast part of Los Angeles County a new county, to be known as the county of Orange, which shall rank as a county of the fifteenth class, until the census of eighteen hundred and ninety is taken and a new apportionment is had.

§ 2. The boundaries of Orange County shall be as follows: Beginning at a point in the Pacific Ocean three miles southwest of the center of the mouth of Coyote Creek, proceeding up said creek in a northeasterly direction until it intersects the township line between township three south of ranges ten and eleven west; thence north on said township line to the northwest corner of section six, township three south, range ten west; thence east on said township line until it intersects the boundary line between San Bernardino and Los Angeles counties; thence along said boundary southeasterly until it intersects the boundary line of San Diego County; thence along said line southwest until it reaches the Pacific coast; thence in the same direction to a point three miles in said Pacific Ocean; thence in northwesterly line parallel to said coast to the point of beginning.

§ 3. The county seat of the county of Orange shall be chosen as hereinafter provided.

§ 4. The governor shall, when this act takes effect, appoint five persons, residents and electors of the county of Orange, who shall be and constitute a board of commissioners, to perfect the organization of said county, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum. Said commissioners shall meet in the city of Santa Ana, within twenty days after their appointment, and after being duly sworn to faithfully discharge their duties as prescribed in this act, shall organize by electing from their number a president and secretary; upon the first Monday of the second month next succeeding the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the commissioners to order a special election to be held within the boundaries of the proposed county of Orange, on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of the month following, and they shall cause notice of the same to be printed in two newspapers of general circulation published in said proposed county of Orange. The said notice shall contain the names of the election officers, and a list of the polling-places, with the time of opening and closing the polls on election day (which day shall also be named). Such notices, if published in weekly newspapers shall appear as often as said newspapers are published between the day of meeting, as aforesaid, and the date of such election: if printed in papers issued oftener than once a week, then the same shall appear once in each week from the day of such meeting to the date of election. The precincts existing at the general election held on November sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and the fractions of such precincts then existing, as are divided by the creation of the proposed county severally, constitute the precincts for such election. The said election shall be held and conducted under the general election laws of the state, applicable to special elections. At such election all persons voting for the creation of Orange County shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "For the new County of Orange," or equivalent words; and all persons voting against the creation of the new county of Orange shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "Against the new County of Orange," or equivalent words. If, at such election, less than two thirds of the qualified electors voting for and against the creation of the proposed county vote for the creation of said county, then this act shall cease to be of any force or effect. If, at such election, two thirds of the qualified electors voting for and against the creation of the proposed county vote in favor thereof, said commissioners shall then divide the new county into a convenient number of judicial townships, road and school districts, define their boundaries, and designate the name of each. They shall also divide said county into five supervisorial districts, to contain as nearly as practicable an equal number of inhabitants, and number said districts. They shall also establish election precincts in said county. They shall give thirty days' notice, by publication in one or more newspapers published in the county, of the precincts established, and shall designate the name and boundaries of each precinct, and number and boundaries of each supervisorial district. Said commissioners, their president and secretary, are hereby authorized and required to discharge the same duties as are now required by law of boards of supervisors and county clerks in the counties of this state, so far as the same applies to holding elections, canvassing returns, and issuing certificates of election. They shall keep a full record of all their proceedings, transmitting to the secretary of state a certified copy thereof, filing the originals with the original election returns, in the county clerk's office, as soon as he shall have been qualified, and thereupon the powers and duties of said commissioners shall cease and terminate.

§ 5. Within a period not exceeding six months from the time of the first meeting of the commissioners heretofore provided for, said commissioners shall order an election to be held in said county of Orange, which shall be held in the manner, so far as practicable, as required by the Political Code, sections one thousand and forty-one to one thousand two hundred and ninety-seven, inclusive; provided, that said board of commissioners shall continue to hold their meetings in the city of Santa Ana until they have completed the canvass of the returns of the election, and issued the certificates of election required by this act. There shall be chosen at said election, by the qualified electors of said county, one judge of superior court, one district attorney, one county clerk, who shall be ex officio clerk of the superior court and clerk of the board of supervisors, one recorder, who shall be ex officio auditor, one sheriff, who shall be ex officio tax collector, one county treasurer, one county assessor, one county superintendent of public schools, one county surveyor, one county coroner, who shall be ex officio public administrator. There shall be chosen at said election one supervisor for each supervisorial district in said county; provided, that all duly elected and qualified supervisors of Los Angeles County who, at the taking effect of this act, are residents of Orange County, shall hold their offices for the term provided by law, upon having duly qualified as supervisors of Orange County for the respective districts in which they reside, as said districts are organized by the action of the board of commissioners provided for in this act. There shall be chosen at said election two justices of the peace, and two constables for each township; provided, that all justices of the peace and constables, acting as such at the time of the passage of this act, residents of Orange County, shall hold their offices for the time provided by law, upon having qualified as justices of the peace and constables of Orange County for the respective townships in which they severally reside, as said townships are organized by the action of the board of commissioners provided for in this act. There shall be chosen at said election three school trustees for each school district; provided, that all school trustees acting as such at the time of the passage of this act, residents of Orange County, shall hold their offices for the time provided by law, upon having duly qualified as school trustees of Orange County for the respective school districts in which they severally reside, as said districts are organized by the board of commissioners provided for in this act. There shall also be chosen at said election one road overseer for each road district; provided, that all road overseers acting as such at the time of the passage of this act, residents of Orange County, shall hold their offices for the time provided by law, upon having duly qualified as road overseers of Orange County for the respective road districts in which they severally reside, as said districts are organized by the action of the board of commissioners provided for in this act. All the officers elected at said election, or who qualify under the provisions of this act, shall enter, immediately after their qualification, upon the discharge of the duties of their respective offices, and shall hold such offices until the time provided by general law for the election and qualification of such officers of this state, and until their successors are elected and qualified. At said election shall also be submitted to the qualified electors the location of the county seat of said Orange County, and the place receiving the highest number of votes therefor shall be declared by the commissioners the county seat of said county.

§ 6. All qualified electors of this state, who have been residents and electors of said territory of Orange County for ninety days preceeding the election provided for in section five of this act, shall be qualified to vote at said election. The register of Los Angeles County, used at the general election held in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, in the territory of the new created county of Orange, shall be prima facie evidence for the qualification of electors. The county clerk of Los Angeles County is hereby directed to furnish the commissioners of Orange County a certificate under seal, showing the additional names of voters on the great register of Los Angeles County registered as residing in the territory forming the county of Orange since the last great register of Los Angeles County was printed, and the certificate of the county clerk of Los Angeles County, under seal, showing the registration of any qualified voter who resides in the territory forming the county of Orange, up to the date of election, shall entitle the holder thereof, if otherwise qualified by law, to vote at said election.

§ 7. It shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of Orange County, whose election is by the act provided for, to meet at the county seat on the first Monday of the month subsequent to their election and qualification, the member representing district number one being chairman. They shall then allow such remuneration to the commissioners and officers of election as they may think just and proper; and such allowance shall be paid by a warrant drawn in favor of each by the proper officers. Said board, or a majority of them, shall then appoint two freeholders, residents of Orange County, to act as a board of commissioners, whose duty it shall be to meet a like number of commissioners, appointed by the board of supervisors of Los Angeles County, at a time and place agreed on. Such joint commissioners shall then organize by appointing from their number a president and secretary, and shall immediately proceed to determine the indebtedness of said county existing at the time this act takes effect, as hereinafter provided. Said commissioners shall have power to compel the attendance of such persons and the production of such books and papers before them as they may require in performing the duties imposed by this act; and it shall be the duty of the sheriffs of Los Angeles and Orange Counties to execute all lawful orders of said commissioners in their respective counties; and for any services performed the sheriffs shall be allowed the same fees as are allowed for like services in civil cases; and all the witnesses attending before these commissioners, by their order, shall be entitled to the same compensation and mileage as is allowed to witnesses in civil cases; provided, no witness shall be excused from attendance at the time and place mentioned in said order or subpoena by reason of the failure of the officer making service thereof to tender his fees in advance. Should any vacancy occur in said commissioners, by death, resignation, or otherwise, the board of supervisors of the county in which such vacancy shall occur shall have power to fill the vacancy by appointment. Should the commissioners before designated be unable to agree in the discharge of duties imposed by the provisions of this act, they are hereby required and empowered to appoint a fifth commissioner, which commissioner so appointed shall be a member of said board of commissioners from and after his appointment. The full number of commissioners shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and if said commissioners should fail, neglect, or refuse to appoint a fifth commissioner, as provided in this section, it shall be the duty of the governor of the state of California to appoint the fifth commissioner. They shall ascertain the total amount of indebtedness of Los Angeles County existing at the time this act takes effect, and also the total value of all assets of said county, including real estate, buildings, and bridges erected, or in progress of erection, money, and solvent credits of whatever nature, and any other property belonging to the said county of Los Angeles. They shall also ascertain the assessed value of all property in Los Angeles County under the assessment made in eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and also the assessed value of the property under the same assessment assessed in the territory hereby set apart to form Orange County. They shall then find the balance of the total assets and indebtedness of Los Angeles County, and if there is a balance of indebtedness against said county, the same shall be divided between the two counties according to the following proportion: As the total assessed value of the property of Los Angeles County, at the time of the taking effect of this act, is to the total assessed value of the property in Orange County, so is the balance of said indebtedness so as aforesaid ascertained, to the amount of said indebtedness to be assumed and paid by Orange County to Los Angeles County. Said commissioners shall then certify forthwith to the respective boards of supervisors of said counties of Orange and Los Angeles such amounts of the said indebtedness due from Orange County, together with the ascertained value of all bridges and other property estimated and reckoned among the assets of Los Angeles County, as aforesaid, erected or purchased by county funds, and situated in Orange County, which property shall be charged to the new county, and the amount thereof shall be an indebtedness to Los Angeles County, and shall thereupon become the property of said Orange County. In case said commissioners shall find a balance of assets of Los Angeles County over and above its liabilities, they shall belong to Orange County by the proportion aforesaid, and shall certify the same to the said boards of supervisors, together with the value of the bridges and other property as aforesaid; and if the amount of said balance of assets belonging to Orange County is less than the value of said property, then the difference between the two amounts shall be assumed and paid by Orange County to Los Angeles County; but if said amount is greater than the value of said property, then said Los Angeles County shall pay the difference between the two amounts to said Orange County. The board shall, in accordance with the general laws, levy state and county taxes. Twenty per centum of the county tax shall be collected and set apart as a sinking fund, to liquidate the debt due from Orange County to the county of Los Angeles, being the former's portion of the original indebtedness; and when there shall be five hundred dollars, or more, placed to the credit of the sinking fund, it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of Orange County, provided no coupons of said county are past due, or in danger of being unprovided for on maturity, to draw, upon their own order, such sum as may be required to pay the principal and interest of one or more of the bonds of the county of Orange, and upon presentation to the treasurer of the county of Los Angeles, of the said sum of money, he shall surrender to the said board of supervisors such number of Orange County bonds as shall be redeemed by such payment. Said bonds shall then be canceled, and on their face countersigned by the chairman of the board of supervisors, and filed in the clerk's office. Said board of supervisors shall have and exercise such other powers and duties as are conferred by the general laws on boards of supervisors of this state. The levy of taxes and collections held for the first year shall be as effective as if levied at the time provided in the general laws.

§ 8. The board of supervisors of Orange County are hereby authorized to provide suitable books, and contract with some competent person to transcribe from the records of Los Angeles County such parts thereof as relate to property situated in Orange County, and said records, when so transcribed and certified, shall have the same force and effect as such original records. The person so employed shall have access to said records of Los Angeles County for said purpose of transcribing the same. The compensation for said services shall be fixed and allowed by the board of supervisors of Orange County, not to exceed for transcribing fifteen cents per folio. The recorder of Los Angeles County shall examine said transcript and certify to the correctness of each deed, mortgage, and other instrument, and affix his seal to the same; for which service he shall receive a sum not to exceed twenty-five cents for each instrument so examined, certified and sealed. For each instrument found to be incorrectly transcribed, he shall receive a fee of fifty cents, to be deducted from the pay of the party who transcribed the same.

§ 9. All actions or special proceedings, whether original or upon appeal, civil or criminal, which shall be pending in the superior courts in the county of Los Angeles at the time of the organization of Orange County in which the defendants are residents of Orange County, shall be removed for trial and final determination to the superior court of Orange County, on motion of any party interested; provided, that all actions commenced for collection of licenses shall not be removed from the courts of Los Angeles County; provided further, that in all criminal cases where the offense was committed within the present limits of Orange County, upon the application of the district attorney of Orange County, said cases shall be removed to Orange County.

§ 10. The county officers of Orange County shall, except as otherwise provided by this act, be elected at the same time as county officers in other counties of this state, and shall hold their offices for the time fixed by law, and perform all duties required by the general laws of this state. They shall give bonds, as required in section four thousand one hundred and twenty-two of the Political Code, for the faithful discharge of their duties, to be approved by the judge of the superior court.

§ 11. The notaries public of Los Angeles County, residents of Orange County at the date of their appointment, shall hold their offices until the expiration of their terms.

§ 12. The superintendent of public schools of the county of Los Angeles shall furnish the superintendent of public schools of Orange County with a certified copy of the last school census list of the different school districts in the territory set apart to form Orange County, and draw his warrant on the treasurer of Los Angeles County, in favor of the superintendent of schools of Orange County, for all money that is or may be due by apportionment, or otherwise, to the different school districts of Orange County; and the auditor of Los Angeles County shall, in like manner, draw his warrant in favor of the auditor of Orange County for all money that is or may be due by apportionment, or otherwise, to the different road district funds in the territory set apart to form Orange County, and be properly credited to the respective districts in said county.

§ 13. The county of Orange shall be attached to and form a part of the thirty-ninth senatorial district and of the seventy-eighth assembly district, and until a new apportionment shall join Los Angeles County in electing a senator and assemblyman from said districts.

§ 14. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of its passage and approval.

OSTEOPATHY.

To regulate the practice of osteopathy in the state of California, and to provide for a state board of osteopathic examiners, and to license osteopaths to practise in this state, and punish persons violating the provisions of this act.

(Stats. 1901, 113, ch. XCIX.)

§ 1. That any person practising osteopathy in this state shall possess the qualifications required by this act.

§ 2. The Osteopathic Association of the State of California, incorporated under the laws of the state of California, shall appoint a board of examiners as soon as possible after the passage of this act, to be known as the state board of osteopathic examiners. This board shall consist of five (5) qualified practising resident osteopaths, each of whom shall be a graduate of a legally authorized college of osteopathy. Each member of said board shall serve thereon for a term of two years, and until his successor is appointed, except in case of the first board, on which two (2) members shall serve for two (2) years, and three (3) for three years, as specified in their appointment. In case of a vacancy by death or otherwise, there shall be appointed in like manner a person to serve through such unexpired term.

§ 3. Said board of osteopathic examiners shall elect a president, secretary, and treasurer, and shall have a common seal, and its president and secretary shall have power to administer oaths. Said board shall hold meetings for examination at the state capitol, or at some regularly conducted and legally authorized college of osteopathy, within the state, on the third Tuesday of February and July of each year, and such other meetings as may be deemed necessary, each session thereof not to exceed three days and shall issue a certificate of qualification to all applicants having a diploma, or who pass the required examinations, as provided by section four (4) of this act; said certificate shall be signed by the president and secretary of said board, and attested by its seal, and shall be conclusive as to the rights of the lawful holder of the same to practise osteopathy in this state. Said board shall keep a record of all its proceedings, and also a register of all applicants for a license, together with his or her name and age and time spent in the study and practice of osteopathy, and of the name and location of the college of osteopathy from which said applicant holds a diploma, and shall keep a register which shall show the names of all applicants licensed, or that are rejected under this act.

§ 4. It shall be unlawful for any person to practise osteopathy in this state without a license from said board. All persons practising osteopathy within this state prior to the passage of this act and holding a diploma from a legally authorized college of osteopathy, of good repute, may be licensed to practise osteopathy in this state, by submitting to said board of osteopathic examiners such a diploma, and satisfying such board that they are the legal holders thereof, or by undergoing an individual examination in the following branches, to wit: Anatomy, physiology, chemistry, histology, pathology, gynecology, obstetrics, and theory and practice of osteopathy, and such other branches as the board shall deem advisable.

All persons, after August first, nineteen hundred and one, desiring to commence the practice of osteopathy in this state, shall apply to said board for a license to do so, and such applicant at the time and place designated by said board, or at a regular meeting of said board, shall submit a diploma from a legally incorporated college of osteopathy, recognized by the board of examiners. Having complied with the requirements of this act, said board shall grant a license to such applicant to practise osteopathy in the state of California, which license shall be granted by the consent of not less than three members of said board and attested by the seal thereof. For the support and maintenance of said board the fee for such examination and license shall be ten ($10) dollars, not returnable, which shall be paid in advance to the treasurer of said board, and shall be applied by said board to defray all the expenses thereof.

§ 5. The certificate provided for in section four (4) of this act shall not authorize the holder thereof to prescribe or use drugs, nor to perform major surgery.

§ 6. The person receiving said license shall have it recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which he or she intends to practise, and the record shall be indorsed thereon. In case a person so licensed shall remove to another county to practise, the holder shall record his license in like manner in the county to which he or she removes.

§ 7. Any person practising osteopathy within the state without first having obtained the license herein provided for, or contrary to the provisions of this act, or who, for the purpose of obtaining such license, shall falsely represent himself or herself to be the holder of a diploma as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty ($50) dollars, nor more than one hundred ($100) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than ninety days for each and every such offense.

§ 8. Any such certificate may be revoked by said board upon satisfactory proof of fraud or misrepresentation in procuring the same, or for any violation of the provisions of the certificate, or any gross immorality by the holder thereof.

§ 9. The system, method, and science of treating diseases of the human body, commonly known as osteopathy, is hereby declared not to be the practice of medicine or surgery, within the meaning of an act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of medicine in the state of California," approved April third, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, or any of the acts amendatory thereof.

§ 10. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

OYSTERS.

To encourage the planting and cultivation of oysters.

(Stats. 1873-4, 940, ch. DCLXXI.)

§ 1. Any citizen of the United States may lay down and plant oysters in any of the bays, rivers, or public waters of this state; and the ownership of and the exclusive right to take up and carry off the same shall be continued and remain in such person or persons who shall have laid down and planted the same.

§ 2. Any person or persons who now have or who may hereafter lay down and plant oysters, as hereinbefore provided, shall stake or fence off the land on which the same is or hereafter may be laid down or planted, and such stakes or fences shall be sufficient marks of the boundaries and limits, and entitle such person or persons to the exclusive use and occupation thereof for the purposes prescribed in this act; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize any impediments or obstructions to the navigation of any channels.

§ 3. Parties planting or laying down such oyster beds, shall record a full description of said bed or beds, in the county recorder's office in the county where the same is situated. The recorder shall record the description so furnished, in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, to be entitled a "Record of Oyster Beds."

§ 4. Any person or persons who shall enter upon any lot of land, in which there shall be oysters laid down and planted, and which at the time of such entry, shall be fenced or staked off pursuant to the provisions of this act, and who shall take up and carry off therefrom such oysters, without the consent or permission of the occupants and owners thereof, and shall wilfully destroy or remove, or cause to be removed or destroyed, any stakes, marks, or fences intended to designate the boundaries and limits of any land claimed and staked or fenced off pursuant to the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 5. The penalties of the Penal Code relative to misdemeanors are hereby made applicable to any violation of the provisions of this act.

§ 6. All fines and penalties collected for a violation of any of the provisions of this act, over and above the costs of suit, shall be paid into the common school fund of the county where the offense was committed.

§ 7. All parties availing themselves of the provisions of this act, shall erect or cause to be erected, on some conspicuous part of the grounds devoted to the planting of oysters a sign, not less than six feet in length and one foot in width, on which shall be painted in black letters upon a white ground the words: "Oyster Beds."

§ 8. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act, and especially an act entitled "An act concerning oysters," passed April twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, as also the act entitled "An act concerning oyster beds," approved April second, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, are hereby repealed.

§ 9. This act shall not apply to any tide-lands which the state may have sold to private parties; provided, further, that nothing herein shall be so construed as to interfere with the right of the state to sell and dispose of any of the tide-lands, nor to affect in any manner the rights of purchasers at any sale of tide-lands by the state.

§ 10. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

PARIS GREEN.

To prevent fraud in the sale of Paris green used as an insecticide.

(Stats. 1901, 69, ch. LIII.)

§ 1. It shall be the duty of each and every manufacturer of Paris green (commercial aceto-arsenite of copper) to be used as an insecticide within this state, and of every dealer in original packages of said Paris green manufactured outside of this state, before the said Paris green is offered or exposed for sale, or sold within this state as an insecticide, to submit to the director of the California agricultural experiment station at Berkeley, samples of said Paris green, and a written or printed statement setting forth: First, the brands of said Paris green to be sold, the number of pounds contained in each package in which it is put on the market for sale, the name or names of the manufacturers and the place of manufacturing the same; second, the statement shall set forth the amount of combined arsenic which the said Paris green contains, and the statement so furnished shall be considered as constituting a guarantee to the purchaser that every package of such Paris green contains not less than the amount of combined arsenic set forth in the statement.

§ 2. Every purchaser of said Paris green in original packages, which is manufactured outside of this state, who intends to sell or expose the same for sale, and every manufacturer of said Paris green within this state, shall, after filing the statement above provided for, with the director of the California agricultural experiment station at Berkeley, receive from the said director a certificate stating that he has complied with the foregoing statement, which certificate shall be furnished without charge therefor; said certificate when furnished shall authorize the party when receiving the same to deal in this state in the said Paris green. Any person who fails to comply with the terms of section one of this act shall not be entitled to such certificate and shall not be entitled to deal in said Paris green within this state. Nothing in this section shall be construed as applying to retail dealers selling said Paris green which has already been labeled and guaranteed.

§ 3. Paris green, when sold, offered or exposed for sale, as an insecticide, in this state, shall contain at least fifty per centum of arsenious oxide and shall not contain more than four per centum of the same in the uncombined state.

§ 4. The director of the California state agricultural station at Berkeley shall examine or cause to be examined different brands of Paris green sold, offered or exposed for sale within the state, and cause samples of the same to be analyzed, and shall report results of analyses forthwith to the secretary of the state board of horticulture and to the party or parties submitting said samples, and such report shall be final as regards its quality.

§ 5. Any person or persons, firm, association, company or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act, and any person who shall sell any package of Paris green or any part thereof which has not been labeled as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, together with the costs of the suit in an action caused to be brought by the state board of horticulture through its secretary in the name of the people of the state of California.

§ 6. The attorney-general of the state of California is charged with the prosecution of all such suits.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately.

PARKS—PUBLIC.

Giving the consent of the state of California to the reservation of certain lands by Congress.

(Stats. 1891, 107, ch. CVI.)

§ 1. The state of California hereby consents to the reservations created by the act of Congress, approved September twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled "An act to set apart a certain tract of land in the state of California as a public park," and the act of Congress, approved October first, eighteen hundred and ninety, entitled "An act to set apart certain tracts of land in the state of California as forest reservations;" and no further sales of school lands within the exterior boundaries of the tracts so reserved, as aforesaid, shall be made by the state.

§ 2. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

PARKS, PUBLIC—SACRAMENTO.

For the protection of the property at East Park, in Sacramento County.

(Stats. 1873-4, 465, ch. CCCXXI.)

§ 1. It shall be unlawful, upon the grounds known as East Park, situated in the county of Sacramento, for any person to discharge any gun or pistol or firearm of any description, or to permit any dog or dogs of any description to run at large upon said grounds, or to pluck, gather, remove, injure, mutilate, or destroy any flower, shrub, plant, ornamental or shade tree, or to kill, wound, or entrap any bird, or to destroy any bird's nest or remove any eggs or young birds therefrom, or to take, kill, or destroy any fish within the limits of said grounds, or to tease or worry the animals kept on the grounds for the entertainment of visitors, or to drive any carriage, buggy, hack, or wagon upon or through any of the walks or avenues except those laid out expressly for that purpose, or to drive at a greater rate of speed than five miles per hour upon any of the carriageways, excepting upon the outer avenues.

§ 2. Any person violating any of the provisions of section one of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

PARKS—PUBLIC.

Providing for the creation and management of the California Redwood Park, making an appropriation therefor, and creating a board of five commissioners, with power to make purchases, and to manage said California Redwood Park.

(Stats. 1901, 517, ch. CLXII.)

Whereas, The redwood forests of California are rapidly disappearing before the demands of commerce and the ravages of fire, and will shortly be extinct unless adequate means are taken for their perpetuation; and

Whereas, These trees are the oldest and largest in the world, and, being peculiar to California, contribute to her fame, and are naturally the subject of state pride and protection; therefore, it is enacted that

§ 1. The governor of the state of California and four other commissioners appointed by the governor shall constitute the California Redwood Park Commission, whose duty it shall be to select such land from that tract of land commonly known as the Big Basin, situate in Santa Cruz and San Mateo counties, in the state of California, upon which are growing trees of the species known as sequoia sempervirens, and which, in the judgment of said commission, is most suitable for a park, the purpose of which is to preserve a body of these trees from destruction, and maintain them for the honor of the state of California and for the benefit of succeeding generations. The commissioners appointed by the governor shall hold office for four years. Vacancies shall be filled by the governor.

§ 2. The sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, which shall be subject to the control of said commission, but which shall be used solely for the purchase of land suitable for the park herein provided for; provided, that the said sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be available only as follows: The sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) thereof on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and two; the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) thereof on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and three; the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) thereof on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and four; the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) thereof on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and five; and the remaining fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) thereof on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and six.

§ 3. The commission shall have the power to purchase such lands or any portion thereof, or it may proceed by action at law in the superior court to condemn the same or any portion thereof, in the name of the people of the state of California. The commission may also receive contributions from any source for the purchase of additional lands, and the care and maintenance of lands and forests under its charge.

§ 4. The said commissioners shall have no salary, but shall have full power and control over the said park, and over the funds provided for the purchase and maintenance of the same, and shall make and enforce all necessary rules and regulations for the care, maintenance and government of the same, and for carrying out the purposes of this act.

§ 5. No payment of any part of the said sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be made until an abstract or abstracts of title shall have been furnished to the attorney-general of the state of California, showing that said lands and the whole thereof are free from any valid liens or encumbrances thereon; and it is hereby made the duty of said attorney-general to examine said abstract or abstracts of title, and to render and deliver to said commission his opinion in writing, certifying that no valid liens or encumbrances exist thereon, and that the title to said lands and the whole thereof is good and valid. Said opinion of the attorney-general, together with said abstract or abstracts of title, shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

§ 6. This act shall go into effect immediately.

See next succeeding act.

PARKS—PUBLIC.

To provide for the preservation, improvement and maintenance of the "California Redwood Park" in Santa Cruz County, and making an appropriation therefor.

(Stats. 1903, 424, ch. CCC.)

§ 1. The sum of ten thousand (10,000) dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be paid to the president and secretary of the board of commissioners of the California Redwood Park, for the care, preservation, maintenance and improvement of said park.

§ 2. Said board of commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to expend any part of said sum of ten thousand (10,000) dollars in the construction of roads and bridges within the boundaries of said park to connect with any road leading up to the boundaries of said park; in the construction of suitable buildings and the installation of suitable sprinkling plants; and for the care and maintenance of ample fire trails within said park; and for the employment of a warden and necessary assistants for the preservation of said park, or for any or all of said purposes.

§ 3. Said board of commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to enter into any contracts necessary for the care, maintenance and improvement of said park or to carry out any of the provisions of this act.

§ 4. Of the sum hereby appropriated five thousand dollars shall be available on the first day of July, nineteen hundred and three, and five thousand dollars shall be available on the first day of July, nineteen hundred and four.

PAROLE COMMISSIONERS.

To establish a board of parole commissioners for the parole of and government of paroled prisoners.

(Stats. 1893, 183, ch. CLIII.)

§ 1. The state board of prison directors of this state shall have power to establish rules and regulations under which any prisoner who is now or hereafter may be imprisoned in any state prison, and who may have served one calendar year of the term for which he was convicted, and who has not previously been convicted of a felony and served a term in a penal institution, may be allowed to go upon parole outside of the buildings and inclosures, but to remain while on parole in the legal custody and under the control of the state board of prison directors, and subject at any time to be taken back within the inclosures of said prison; and full power to make and enforce such rules and regulations and retake and imprison any convict so upon parole is hereby conferred upon said board of directors, whose written order certified by the president of said board shall be a sufficient warrant for all officers named therein to authorize such officer to return to actual custody any conditionally released or paroled prisoner, and it is hereby made the duty of all chiefs of police, marshals of cities and villages, and sheriffs of counties, and all police, prison, and peace officers and constables to execute any such order in like manner as ordinary criminal process; provided, however, that no prisoner imprisoned under a sentence for life shall be paroled until he shall have served at least seven calendar years.

The governor of the state shall have like power to cancel and revoke the parole of any prisoner, and his written authority shall likewise be sufficient to authorize any of the officers named therein to retake and return said prisoner to the state prison, and his written order canceling or revoking the parole shall have the same force and effect and be executed in like manner as the order of the state board of prison directors. If any prisoner so paroled shall leave the state without permission from said board he shall be held as an escaped prisoner and arrested as such. [Amendment, Stats. 1901, 82.]

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately from and after its passage.

PETALUMA CREEK.

To authorize the erection and maintenance of a drawbridge across Petaluma Creek in the city of Petaluma.

(Stats. 1875-6, 726, ch. CCCCLXXXI.)

§ 1. The trustees of the city of Petaluma are hereby authorized to erect and maintain a drawbridge across Petaluma Creek, in the city of Petaluma, at such point above D Street, in said city, as the said board may elect. Said bridge, when erected, must contain a draw or turntable, which shall, when drawn or turned, leave a space not less than forty feet for the passage of all vessels navigating said Petaluma Creek, in the deepest part thereof; provided, that in case of damage, if any, created by the erection and maintenance of said draw or turntable bridge, by flowage or otherwise, shall be paid by said city of Petaluma; and provided further, that the entire cost and expense of erecting said bridge shall be paid by private subscription or otherwise, but no part of the cost or expense of said bridge shall be paid by or become a charge against the city of Petaluma.

§ 2. The city of Petaluma must keep the said bridge, when erected, in repair and in good working condition, and must keep a tender to open such bridge for the passage of all vessels desiring to pass the same, and to close the same when such vessels have passed. Said bridge must also contain guards to the approaches at either end, so as not to endanger the safe passage of teams and other conveyances over the same when closed, and must contain walks on either side for the free passage of persons on foot. No tolls must ever be collected of the owners of vessels passing through, or of vehicles passing over said bridge.

PHARMACY.

To regulate the practice of pharmacy and the sale of poisons in the state of California.

(Stats. 1901, 299, ch. CXLI.)

§ 1. From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, compound, sell, or dispense any drug, poison, medicine or chemical for medicinal use, or to dispense or compound any prescription of a medical practitioner, unless such person be a registered pharmacist or a registered assistant pharmacist within the meaning of this act, except as hereinafter provided. Every store, dispensary, pharmacy, laboratory or office for the sale, dispensing or compounding of drugs, medicines or chemicals for medicinal use, or for the dispensing of prescriptions of medical practitioners, shall be in charge of a registered pharmacist. A registered assistant pharmacist may be left in charge of a store, dispensary, pharmacy, laboratory or office for the sale, dispensing, or compounding of drugs, medicines or chemicals for medicinal use or for the dispensing of prescriptions of medical practitioners only during the temporary absence of the registered pharmacist. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred (100) dollars, or to an imprisonment for a term not exceeding fifty (50) days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 2. Any person in order to be a registered pharmacist must be a licentiate in pharmacy, or a practising pharmacist.

§ 3. Licentiates in pharmacy are persons who have had four years' experience in stores where the prescriptions of medical practitioners are compounded, and shall have passed an examination before the state board of pharmacy, or who shall present satisfactory credentials of their attainments to the said board. Practising pharmacists are persons who, at the passage of this act, are registered pharmacists.

§ 4. Every pharmacist claiming the right of registration under this act shall, on or before the first day of July, next after its passage, forward to the board of pharmacy satisfactory proof that he was a duly registered pharmacist under the provisions of an act to regulate the practice of pharmacy or sale of poisons in the state of California, approved March eleventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and engaged in the business of preparing and dispensing medicines and physicians' prescriptions at the time, or that he is otherwise entitled to registration under its provisions. The board of pharmacy shall then issue to said applicant, on his paying the sum of two (2.00) dollars, a certificate of registration. Any practising pharmacist failing to comply with the requirements of this section within sixty days from and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and one, shall forfeit his right to registration, and shall appear for examination as provided for in this act.

§ 5. Every assistant pharmacist claiming right of registration under this act, without passing an examination by the board of pharmacy, shall, on or before the first day of July next after the passage, forward to the board of pharmacy satisfactory proof that he has had five years' experience in drug stores where physicians' prescriptions are prepared. The board of pharmacy shall then issue to said applicant, upon his paying the sum of one (1.00) dollar, a certificate of registration as assistant pharmacist. Any assistant failing to comply with the requirements of this section within sixty (60) days from and after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and one, shall forfeit his right to registration, without passing the examination provided for in this act. No registered assistant shall conduct a pharmacy, or be granted a certificate as registered pharmacist, until he has passed the examination for licentiate in pharmacy as required by this act.

§ 6. Within thirty (30) days after the passage of this act and every fourth year thereafter, the governor shall appoint seven competent pharmacists, residing in different parts of the state, to serve as a board of pharmacy. The members of this board shall, within thirty (30) days after their appointment, individually take and subscribe before the county clerk, in the county in which they individually reside, an oath faithfully and impartially to discharge the duties prescribed by this act. They shall hold office for the term of four (4) years, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. In case of vacancy in the board of pharmacy, the governor shall fill the same by appointing a member to serve for the remainder of the term only. The office of said board shall be located in San Francisco. The board shall organize by electing a president and a secretary, the latter to be ex officio treasurer of the board. Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum. They shall meet at least quarterly, and have power to make by-laws for the proper fulfilment of their duties. The duties of the board shall be to transact all business pertaining to the legal regulations of the practice of pharmacy; to investigate all complaints respecting non-compliance with or violations of the provisions of this act, and to cause the prosecution of all persons whenever there appears to the board to be reasonable grounds for such action, and to examine and register as pharmacists or assistant pharmacists all applicants whom it shall deem qualified to be such respectively. All persons on applying for examination or registration shall pay to the secretary a fee of five (5.00) dollars for licentiate and two (2.00) dollars for assistants, and on passing the examination they shall be furnished with a certificate signed by the secretary and examiners. Every registered pharmacist who desires to continue the practice of his profession in this state shall annually, on such date as the board of pharmacy may determine, pay to the secretary of the said board a registration fee to be fixed by the board, but which shall in no case exceed the sum of two (2.00) dollars per annum, for which he shall receive a renewal of said registration. Every registered assistant pharmacist who desires to continue the practice of his profession in this state shall, annually, on such dates as the board of pharmacy may determine, pay to the secretary of said board a registration fee to be fixed by the board, but which shall in no case exceed the sum of one (1.00) dollar per annum, for which he shall receive a renewal of said registration. The board shall render an annual report of its proceedings to the governor of the state.

§ 7. It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep a book of registration open at the city of San Francisco, of which due notice shall be given through the public press, or by mail, in which book shall be entered, under the supervision of the board, the names, titles, qualifications, and places of business of all persons coming under the provisions of this act. The secretary shall give receipts for all money received by him, and disburse the same by order of the board for necessary expenses, taking proper vouchers therefor. The balance of said money, after paying the expenses of the board, he shall pay to the state treasurer, who shall keep it as a special fund to be used in carrying out the provisions of this act.

§ 8. The members of the board of pharmacy shall each be paid the sum of five (5.00) dollars per diem for every meeting of the board which they attend, and the secretary shall receive such additional compensation as the board may direct. All compensation of members, and other expenses of the board of pharmacy, shall be paid out of the examination and registration fees and fines.

§ 9. No person shall add to or remove from, or cause to be added to or removed from, any drug, chemical, or medicinal preparation any ingredient or material for the purpose of adulteration or substitution, or which shall deteriorate the quality, commercial value, or medicinal effect, or alter the nature or composition of such article, and no person shall knowingly sell, or offer for sale, any such adulterated, altered, or substituted drug, chemical, or medicinal preparation, without informing the purchaser of the adulteration or sophistication of the article sold, or offered for sale. Every registered pharmacist shall file, or cause to be filed, all physicians' prescriptions compounded or dispensed in his pharmacy or store. They shall be preserved for two years, and he shall furnish a correct copy of any prescription under the order or request of the attending physician. Any person who shall wilfully violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to all costs of the action, and for the first offense be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty (50.00) dollars, and for each subsequent offense a fine of not less than fifty (50.00) dollars, nor more than one hundred (100.00) dollars, said fines to be paid over to the board of pharmacy. On written complaint being entered against any person or persons, charging them with specific violation of any of the provisions of this act, the board of pharmacy is hereby empowered to delegate one of its members, or other suitable person, who shall have authority to inspect drugs, chemicals, or medicines, and to make a thorough investigation of the case. He shall then report the result of his investigations, and if such report justifies such action, the board shall duly cause the prosecution of the offender as provided in this act.

§ 10. It shall be unlawful for any person to retail any poisons enumerated in schedules "A" and "B," appended to this act, without labeling the box, bottle, or paper in which said poison is contained, with the name of the article, the word "Poison," and the name and place of business of the seller. Nor shall it be lawful to sell or deliver any poison named in schedules "A" and "B," unless on inquiry it is found that the person is aware of its poisonous character, and that it is to be used for a legitimate purpose. Nor shall it be lawful to sell or deliver any poison included in schedule "A" without making, or causing to be made, an entry in a book kept for that purpose only, stating the date of sale, and the name and address of purchaser, the name and quantity of the poison sold, the purpose for which it is stated by the purchaser to be required, and the name of the dispenser, said book to always be open for inspection by the proper authorities, and to be preserved for at least five years. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the dispensing of poisons when prescribed by practitioners of medicine, nor to the sale of poisons if a single bottle or package does not contain more than an ordinary dose. Dealers shall affix to every bottle, box, parcel, or other inclosure of an original package containing any of the articles named in schedules "A" and "B" of this act, a suitable label, or brand, with the word "Poison," but they are hereby exempted from the registration of the sale of such articles when sold at wholesale, or to a registered pharmacist, or physician. Any person failing to comply with the requirements of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred (100.00) dollars, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding fifty (50) days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 11. Any person who shall attempt to procure registration for himself or any other person under this act by making or causing to be made any false representations, or who shall fraudulently represent himself to be registered, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to all costs of the action and to a fine not exceeding one hundred (100.00) dollars, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding fifty (50) days, or to both such fine and imprisonment. Any person who shall permit the compounding or dispensing of prescriptions of medical practitioners in his store by persons not registered, except under the direct supervision of a registered pharmacist, or any person not registered who shall retail medicines or poisons, or chemicals for medicinal use, except in a pharmacy under the direct supervision of a registered pharmacist or a registered assistant pharmacist; and any person who shall fail to comply with the regulations of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to all costs of the action and to a fine not exceeding one hundred (100.00) dollars, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding fifty (50) days, or to both such fine and imprisonment. All fines under this act shall be paid one half to the state board of pharmacy and one half to the county in which the conviction is obtained. Any person convicted of violating this act a third time shall be liable, in addition to the penalty hereinbefore mentioned, to have his registration as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist canceled. Nothing in this act shall apply to or interfere with the business of any practitioner of medicine who does not keep a pharmacy, open shop, or drug store, advertised or otherwise, for the retailing of medicine or poisons, and wherein no other prescriptions are filled for regular practitioners, nor with the exclusive wholesale business of any dealer, except that portion of section ten which relates to marking or labeling certain poisons mentioned in this act. Nor shall general dealers come under the provisions of this act, in so far as it relates to the keeping for sale of proprietary medicines in original packages. Nor shall this act apply to registered or copyrighted proprietary medicines registered in the United States patent office, nor to the manufacture of proprietary remedies or the sale of the same in original packages by persons other than pharmacists.

§ 12. Any proprietor of a pharmacy who, not being a registered pharmacist, shall, ninety days after this act takes effect, fail or neglect to place in charge of such pharmacy a registered pharmacist; or any such proprietor who shall by himself, or any other person, permit the compounding or dispensing of prescriptions, or the vending of drugs, medicines, or poisons, in his store or place of business, except by or in the presence and under the supervision of a registered pharmacist; or any person, not being a registered pharmacist, who shall take charge of or act as manager of such pharmacy or store, or who, not being a registered pharmacist, shall retail, compound, or dispense drugs, medicines, or poisons; or any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to all costs of the action and to a fine not exceeding one hundred (100.00) dollars or imprisonment for a term not exceeding fifty (50) days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 13. All persons registered under this act shall be exempt and free from jury duty.

Schedule "A."

Arsenic, corrosive sublimate, cyanide of potassium, hydrocyanic acid, wood alcohol, strychnia, cocaine, and all other poisonous vegetable alkaloids and their salts, opium and all its preparations, except those which contain less than two grains to the ounce.

Schedule "B."

Aconite, belladonna, colchicum, conium, nux vomica, savin, cantharides, phosphorus, digitalis, and their pharmaceutical preparations, croton oil, chloral, sulphate of zinc, sugar of lead, mineral acids, carbolic acid, oxalic acid, white precipitate, red precipitate, biniodide of mercury, essential oil of almonds; and all medicines or preparations, secret or proprietary, of whatsoever kind or nature, that are intended to cause abortion or miscarriage.

§ 14. An act entitled "An act to regulate the practice of pharmacy and sale of poisons in the state of California," approved March eleventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and all parts of acts in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

§ 15. This act shall take effect immediately.

See tit. Paris Green; Poisons.

The particular legislation on this subject has been: Stats. 1880, 102, ch. XCIV, relating to sale of poisons; Stats. 1891, 86, ch. LXXXV, to regulate the practice of pharmacy and sale of poisons, amended 1893, 68, ch. LVII.

The foregoing Act of 1891 repealed all laws in conflict therewith, and the present act specifically repeals the Act of 1891. But see next following statute, which to some extent at least seems designed to supersede previous legislation.

PHARMACY—REGULATING.

To regulate the practice of pharmacy in the state of California.

(Stats. 1905, 535, ch. CDVL.)

§ 1. From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, compound, sell, or dispense any drug, poison, medicine or chemical, or to dispense or compound any prescription of a medical practitioner, unless such person be a registered pharmacist or a registered assistant pharmacist within the meaning of this act, except as hereinafter provided. Every store, dispensary, pharmacy, laboratory or office for the sale, dispensing or compounding of drugs, medicines or chemicals, or for the dispensing of prescriptions of medical practitioners, shall be in charge of a registered pharmacist. A registered assistant pharmacist may be left in charge of a store, dispensary, pharmacy, laboratory or office for the sale, dispensing, or compounding of drugs, medicines or chemicals or for the dispensing of prescriptions of medical practitioners only during the temporary absence of the registered pharmacist. Temporary absence within the meaning of this act shall be held to be only those unavoidable absences which may occur during a day's work, and when the registered pharmacist in charge shall be within immediate call, ready and able to assume the direct supervision of said pharmacy. No registered assistant shall conduct a pharmacy. Every store or shop where drugs, medicines or chemicals are dispensed or sold at retail, or displayed for sale at retail, or where prescriptions are compounded, which has upon it or in it as a sign, the words "pharmacist," "pharmaceutical chemist," "apothecary," "druggist," "pharmacy," "drug store," "drugs," or any of these words, or the characteristic show bottles or globes, either colored or filled with colored liquids, shall be deemed a "pharmacy" within the meaning of this act.

§ 2. Any person in order to be a registered pharmacist must be a licentiate in pharmacy, or a practising pharmacist.

§ 3. Licentiates in pharmacy are persons who have had five years' experience in stores where the prescriptions of medical practitioners are compounded, and shall have passed an examination before the state board of pharmacy, or who shall present satisfactory evidence to the said board that they have had twenty years' actual experience in the practice of pharmacy; provided, that graduates from a reputable college of pharmacy may be registered after eighteen years of like experience. Practising pharmacists are persons who, at the passage of this act, are registered as such, and who shall have on or before the first day of January next succeeding the passage of this act paid to the board of pharmacy of this state all moneys due for renewal of registration as required by the acts of the legislature regulating the practice of pharmacy in the state of California, approved March eleventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and March fifteenth, nineteen hundred and one.

§ 4. Registered assistant pharmacists are persons who at the time of the passage of this act are already registered as such, and who shall have on or before the first day of January next succeeding the passage of this act paid to the board of pharmacy of this state all moneys due for renewal of registration as required by the acts of the legislature regulating the practice of pharmacy in the state of California, approved March eleventh, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and March fifteenth, nineteen hundred and one; provided, that no person shall be examined or registered as a licentiate, unless such person has had five years' pharmaceutical experience in a pharmacy under the supervision of a registered pharmacist; and provided further, that no person shall be examined or registered as an assistant pharmacist from and after the passage of this act; unless such person shall be not less than eighteen years of age and has not less than three years' instruction and experience in a pharmacy, under a registered pharmacist; or has been registered as an apprentice as provided in section fifteen of this act for not less than three years; and, provided further, that an applicant for registration as an assistant pharmacist must first pass a satisfactory examination before the board of pharmacy.

§ 5. The governor shall appoint seven competent registered pharmacists, residing in different parts of the state, to serve as a board of pharmacy. The members of the board shall, within thirty (30) days after their appointment, individually take and subscribe before the county clerk, in the county in which they individually reside, an oath faithfully and impartially to discharge the duties prescribed by this act. They shall hold office for the term of four (4) years, and until their successors are appointed and have qualified. In case of vacancy in the board of pharmacy, the governor shall fill the same by appointing a member to serve for the remainder of the term only. The office of the board shall be located in San Francisco. The board shall organize by electing a president, a secretary, and a treasurer. The secretary may or may not be a member of the board as the board in its sound discretion shall determine. The secretary and treasurer shall each give a satisfactory bond running to the board of pharmacy in a sum of not less than two thousand dollars, and such greater sum as the board may from time to time require for the faithful discharge of their respective duties.

§ 6. It shall be the duty of the secretary to keep a book of registration open at the city of San Francisco, in which shall be entered under the supervision of the board, the names, titles, qualifications, and places of business of all persons coming under the provisions of this act. The secretary shall give receipts for all moneys received by him and pay the same to the treasurer of the board, taking his receipt for the same. The treasurer shall disburse the same by order of the board for necessary expenses, taking proper vouchers therefor. The balance of said money, after paying the expenses of the board, he shall pay to the state treasurer, who shall keep it in a special fund to be used in carrying out the provisions of this act. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the board to erase from the register the name of any registered pharmacist or assistant pharmacist who has died, or who in the opinion of the board has forfeited his right under the law to do business in this state. Beside the duties required by this act, it shall be the duty of the secretary to perform such other reasonable duties appertaining to his office, as may be required of him by the board of pharmacy. The secretary shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the board of pharmacy, if he be a member of the board, then such compensation shall be in addition to his per diem as a member of said board.

§ 7. Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum. They shall meet at least quarterly.

Subdivision 1. The state board of pharmacy shall have power:

(a) To make such by-laws and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of this state, as may be necessary for the protection of the public, appertaining to the practice of pharmacy and the lawful performance of its duties.

(b) To regulate the practice of pharmacy.

(c) To regulate the sale of poisons.

(d) To regulate the quality of all pharmaceutical preparations and medicines dispensed or sold in this state, using the United States Pharmacopœia as the standard.

(e) To investigate all complaints as to the quality and strength of all pharmaceutical preparations and medicines, and to take such action as may be necessary to prevent the sale of such as do not conform to the standard and tests prescribed in the latest edition of the United States Pharmacopœia.

(f) To employ inspectors of pharmacy, and to inspect during business hours all pharmacies, dispensaries, stores or places in which drugs, medicines and poisons are compounded, dispensed or retailed, and to cause the prosecution of all persons whenever there appears to the board to be reasonable grounds for such action.

(g) To examine and register as pharmacists and assistant pharmacists all applicants whom it shall deem qualified to be such. All persons applying for registration, under this act, shall pay the following fees therefor to the secretary of the board of pharmacy: Applicants for registration on experience and credentials, upon being registered as such, twenty dollars; for examination as licentiate, whether the applicant is successful or not, five dollars; for assistants applying for a licentiate's certificate under section four of this act, five dollars. If registration be granted, each of such persons shall be furnished with a certificate of registration, signed by the secretary, and the members of the board.

§ 8. No member of the board shall teach pharmacy in any of its branches, unless it be as a teacher in a public capacity and in a college of pharmacy. The members of the board of pharmacy shall each be paid the sum of eight dollars per diem for every meeting of the board which they attend, together with their necessary expenses, and mileage at the rate of five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled. All compensation of members and all other expenses of the board, shall be paid out of the examination and registration fees and fines.

§ 9. Every registered pharmacist, and every assistant pharmacist, who desires to retain his registration on the books of the board of pharmacy in this state, shall annually, after the expiration of the first year's registration and on or before the first day of July of each succeeding year, pay to the secretary of the board of pharmacy, a renewal fee, to be fixed by the board, which shall not exceed two dollars for registered pharmacists, and one dollar for assistant pharmacists, in return for which fee a renewal certificate of registration shall be issued. In case any person defaults in the payment of said fee, his registration may be revoked by the board of pharmacy on sixty days' notice, in writing from the secretary, unless within said time the fee is paid, together with such penalty not exceeding ten dollars, as the board may impose. Upon payment of said fee and penalty, the board must reinstate the delinquent's registration. No person having received, or who may hereafter receive a certificate of registration as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, shall engage in business as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, in any county of this state in which he shall locate, or into which he shall afterward remove, until he shall have had such certificate recorded in the office of the county clerk of such county, and it is hereby made the duty of the county clerk to record such certificate in a book to be provided and kept for that purpose, and the county clerk is authorized to charge a fee of fifty cents for the recording of such certificate—to be paid by the person offering such certificate for record. Every pharmacist or assistant pharmacist holding a certificate of registration as a pharmacist, or assistant pharmacist, and being engaged in business as a pharmacist, or assistant pharmacist, shall have such certificate recorded, as is in this section provided, within thirty days after the taking effect of this act. The record of the certificate required by this section, or a certified copy thereof, shall be evidence in all courts that the person holding it was registered as evidenced by said certificate on the date of the same. Any registered pharmacist or assistant pharmacist failing to comply with the foregoing provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars. Upon the certificate being recorded, as herein provided, it shall be the duty of the county clerk to notify the secretary of the board of pharmacy of the name of the party and the date of such record.

§ 10. Every person upon receiving a certificate of registration under this act, or who has heretofore received a certificate of registration in this state, shall keep his last receipt for reregistration conspicuously exposed in his place of business. Every registered pharmacist, and assistant pharmacist, shall within thirty days after the changing of his place of business as designated on the books of the board of pharmacy, notify the secretary of the board of his new place of business, and upon receipt of said notification, the secretary shall make the necessary change in his register.

§ 11. Every proprietor or manager of a pharmacy or drug store shall be held responsible for the quality of all drugs, chemicals and medicines sold or dispensed by him, except those sold in the original package of the manufacturer, and except those articles or preparations known as patent or proprietary medicines. Any person who shall knowingly, wilfully, or fraudulently, falsify, or adulterate or cause to be falsified or adulterated, any drug or medicinal substance, or any preparation authorized or recognized by the Pharmacopeia of the United States, or used, or intended to be used in medical practice, or shall mix, or cause to be mixed, with any such drug or medicinal substance, any foreign or inert substance whatever, for the purpose of destroying or weakening its medicinal power and effect, or of lessening its cost, and shall wilfully, knowingly, or fraudulently sell the same, or cause it to be sold, for medicinal purposes, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars, and not more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than fifty days and not more than two hundred days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Every registered pharmacist shall file, or cause to be filed, all physicians' prescriptions, or a copy thereof, compounded or dispensed in his pharmacy or store. They shall be preserved for at least two years, and he shall furnish a correct copy of any prescription, only under the order or request of the physician writing the same. Any person who shall wilfully violate any of these provisions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars; and for each subsequent offense shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars. The state board of pharmacy may at any time when in their judgment it appears advisable, depute one of their members, or any other competent person to investigate any suspected violation of any of the provisions of this act and if the result of such investigation seems to the board to justify such action, the board shall cause the prosecution of any person violating any of the provisions of this act.

§ 12. Any person who shall attempt to procure registration for himself or any other person under this act by making or causing to be made any false representations, or who shall fraudulently represent himself to be registered, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to punishment by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Any person who shall permit the compounding or dispensing of prescriptions of medical practitioners, or the selling of drugs and medicines, in his store or pharmacy by persons not registered, except under the direct supervision of a registered pharmacist, or any person not registered who shall retail medicines or poisons or chemicals, except in a pharmacy under the direct supervision of a registered pharmacist, or any person violating any of the provisions of this act, when no other penalty is provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to punishment by a fine not less than twenty dollars, and not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. All fines recovered under this act shall be paid by the magistrate receiving the same to the state board of pharmacy. Any person convicted of violating the provisions of this act a third time, shall in addition to the penalties hereinbefore mentioned have his registration as a pharmacist canceled. Nothing in this act shall apply to or interfere with any practitioner of medicine, who is duly registered as such by the state board of medical examiners of this state, with supplying his own patients, as their physician, and by them employed as such, with such remedies as he may desire, and who does not keep a pharmacy, open shop, or drug store, advertised or otherwise, for the retailing of medicines or poisons, nor does this act apply to the exclusively wholesale business of any dealer, nor do general dealers come under the provisions of this act, in and so far as it relates to the keeping for sale of proprietary medicines, in original packages. Nor does this act apply to registered or copyrighted proprietary medicines registered in the United States patent office, nor to the manufacture of proprietary remedies or the sale of the same in original packages, by persons other than pharmacists.

§ 13. Any proprietor of a pharmacy, who not being a registered pharmacist, shall fail or neglect to place in charge of such pharmacy a registered pharmacist, or any such proprietor who shall by himself, or any other person, permit the compounding or dispensing of prescriptions, or the vending of drugs, medicines, or poisons, in his store or place of business, except by or in the presence and under the direct supervision of a registered pharmacist, or any person, not being a registered pharmacist, who shall take charge of or act as manager of such pharmacy, or store, or who, not being a registered pharmacist, retails, compounds, or dispenses drugs, medicines, or poisons, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine of not less than twenty dollars, and not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding fifty days, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 14. Any member of the board of pharmacy may examine applicants orally or in writing, and issue a temporary certificate to practise pharmacy, which shall authorize such practice and be valid, not to exceed three months from its date. Only one temporary certificate shall ever be issued to the same applicant, and no temporary certificate shall be granted to any person whose application has been acted upon by the board. The member conducting such examination as herein set forth, shall be entitled to charge and receive the sum of three dollars for his services, said moneys to be paid to the secretary for the board of pharmacy.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of all registered pharmacists who take into their employment an apprentice, whose purpose is to become a pharmacist, to report to the board of pharmacy such facts regarding his schooling and preliminary qualifications as the board of pharmacy may require, for the purpose of registration as an apprentice. The board of pharmacy shall adopt a standard of qualifications regarding schooling and preliminary education for all persons desiring to be regarded as apprentices, as provided for in this section. The pharmaceutical experience of every apprentice shall, after the passage of this act, be deemed to begin on the date on which he began the study of pharmacy, and such date shall be inserted in the certificate of registration of said apprentice, provided the preliminary qualifications have been found satisfactory by the board. Sworn testimony shall be furnished the board upon which they shall determine the date as aforesaid. The date so determined and entered as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be the beginning of the applicant's pharmaceutical experience for the purposes of this act; provided, that students matriculated and attending any reputable college of pharmacy, shall be registered as apprentices, upon such fact being shown. The board of pharmacy shall keep a register for the registration of apprentices and furnish on application proper blanks for this purpose. No apprentice shall be permitted to sell drugs, or medicines, or compound prescriptions, except under the direct, immediate, and personal supervision of a registered pharmacist. No registered apprentice shall ever be left in charge of a pharmacy.

§ 16. The board of pharmacy may in its discretion issue a permit to general dealers in rural districts, in which the conditions, in their judgment, do not justify the employment of a registered pharmacist, and where the store of such general dealer is not less than five miles distant from the store of a registered pharmacist; which said permit shall authorize the person or firm named therein to sell such ordinary drugs and ordinary household remedies, and in such manner and form, as the board may from time to time specify, in said district but not elsewhere, under such regulations and restrictions as said board may from time to time adopt. The board shall charge an annual fee of twelve dollars, in advance, for such permit, and it shall be unlawful for any dealer to sell any drugs or ordinary household remedies, without complying with the requirements of this section. Whenever a registered pharmacist shall establish a pharmacy within five miles, by the shortest road, from the place of business of such general dealer, no further license shall be granted, and the license already issued shall become void; and the board shall refund to said general dealer the proper proportion of the unexpired license fee paid to the board of pharmacy.

§ 17. It shall be the duty of the board of pharmacy, by resolution, at least annually to request of the chief of police or marshal of every incorporated city in this state, a list of all drug stores, together with the names of the owners, managers, and all employees in said stores, and a brief statement of the capacity in which said persons are employed in said stores. Upon such request in writing, it shall be the duty of the chief of police or marshal of said city, to require the patrolmen under his command, upon their respective beats, to obtain such list as is in this section specified, and deliver the same to the board of pharmacy. It shall be the duty of the owner or manager of any drug store when called upon by an officer as above set forth, or by a member of the board of pharmacy, to furnish said officer or member of the board of pharmacy with the information required. Any person refusing to furnish information, or wilfully furnishing information that is false and untrue, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars and not more than twenty dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than ten days, and not more than twenty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§ 18. The several penalties prescribed in this act may be recovered in any court having jurisdiction, by a civil action instituted by the board of pharmacy, in the name of the state of California, or by criminal prosecution upon complaint being made; and it shall be the duty of the district attorney of the county wherein violations of the provisions of this act occur, to conduct all such actions and prosecutions at the request of the board.

§ 19. All persons registered under this act shall be exempt and free from jury duty.

§ 20. This act shall take effect July one, nineteen hundred and five, and all laws in conflict with this act (in and so far as they conflict) are hereby repealed.

The foregoing statute does not appear to repeal in some particulars the last preceding statute of 1901.

PILOTS—SAN DIEGO.

To establish pilots and pilot regulations for the port of San Diego.

(Stats. 1871-2, 650, ch. CCCXXXV.)

§ 1. It shall be the duty of the governor to appoint one citizen, resident of San Diego, as pilot commissioner. The president of the board of trustees and the president of the chamber of commerce of said city shall be ex officio pilot commissioners. The three persons named shall constitute a board of pilot commissioners, with the powers and duties as hereinafter provided.

§ 2. Each commissioner shall, before entering upon his official duties, take the following oath or affirmation, which shall be indorsed on his commission, and shall be signed by him and certified by the county judge of the county of San Diego: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of California, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of pilot commissioner, without fear, favor, or affection, according to the best of my ability.”

§ 3. The board of pilot commissioners shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the power appointing them, not exceeding four years.

§ 4. The board of pilot commissioners shall meet at least once in each month. They shall elect one of their number president, who shall be authorized to administer oaths, and under his hand and private seal to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses in all cases arising before the board under this act. A witness disobeying such subpoena shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, which may be sued for and recovered in a civil action, in the name of the president of the board. It shall make by-laws and rules for its own government of the pilots, not inconsistent with the laws of this state or of the United States. A majority of such board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and may meet and adjourn from time to time, according to adjournment or appointment.

§ 5. The commissioners may organize as a board at any time after their appointment and qualification. After their organization they shall proceed to examine and license, in the manner prescribed herein, not more than four pilots, for the port of San Diego; provided, that nothing in this section shall be so construed as to remove any pilot until his commission shall expire.

§ 6. No person shall be appointed a pilot unless he is an American citizen, over the age of twenty-one years, with a practical knowledge of the management of sailing vessels and steamboats, and of the tides, soundings, bearings, and distances of the several shoals, bars, rocks, points of land, lighthouse, and fog-signals of the port and harbor of San Diego.

§ 7. Every pilot receiving a license shall, before entering on the discharge of his duties, take the oath prescribed by the constitution of this state, which shall be indorsed upon his license, signed by him, and certified by the president of the board; and shall give a bond in the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars, with two sureties, to be approved by the board and recorded in the county recorder's office of San Diego County, made payable to the state of California, and conditioned that he will faithfully perform all the duties required of him as a pilot under this act, and will observe the rules and regulations and decisions of this board. The pilots shall renew their bonds whenever the board may deem it necessary and shall so order. In all cases where a pilot shall have been deprived of his license before the expiration thereof for any of the causes hereinafter specified, it shall be the duty of the president of the board, provided a majority of the board shall instruct, to place the bond of such pilot in the hands of the attorney-general of the state of California for collection. If any amount be collected thereon in such suit, it shall be paid to the board and shall constitute a fund out of which it shall be the duty of the board to provide rewards to encourage the relief of vessels and passengers in distress, and generally to encourage the pilots in the energetic performance of their duties.

§ 8. It shall be the duty of every pilot in charge of a vessel arriving in the harbor of San Diego to have the vessel safely moored in such a position as the master may direct.

§ 9. Every pilot carried to sea against his will, when a pilot-boat is in attendance to receive him, shall be entitled to receive the sum of eight dollars per day while absent, which sum may be recovered from the master or owner of the vessel so taking him away; provided, the amount herein allowed to be recovered shall in no case exceed one thousand dollars.

§ 10. Any pilot may be deprived of his license before the expiration thereof for the following causes:

First—For refusing to exhibit his license when requested to do so by the master of any vessel he may have boarded.

Second—For habitual or occasional intoxication, whether the same shall occur while in charge of a pilot-boat or at any other time.

Third—For negligently, ignorantly, or wilfully running any vessel on shore or otherwise rendering her liable to injury; provided, that any pilot deprived of his license under this subdivision shall thereafter be ineligible to a license as pilot under this act.

§ 11. Any person not being the master or owner, not holding a license as pilot, who shall pilot any vessel into or out of the harbor of San Diego shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding ninety days.

§ 12. All vessels, their tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the master and owners thereof, shall be jointly and severally liable for pilotage fees, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 13. When two or more pilots shall offer their services to a vessel outside of a line from Punta Lomas and the southeast end of Zuinga Shoal, the pilot first offering his services shall have the preference; and if the master of any vessel shall refuse to observe such rule of preference, and to take the pilot entitled to be preferred on board, the vessel, her appurtenances, the master and owner thereof, shall be jointly and severally liable to the pilot entitled to such preference for one half of the amount of pilotage he would have been entitled to claim had his services been accepted.

§ 14. The following shall be the rates of pilotage into or out of the harbor of San Diego: All vessels under five hundred tons, five dollars per foot draft; all vessels over five hundred tons, five dollars per foot draft and four cents per ton for each and every ton of registered measurement; all vessels engaged in the whaling or fishing trades, one dollar per foot draft. When a vessel is spoken and the services of a pilot are declined, one half of the rates shall be paid. All vessels coasting between San Diego and any port in Oregon, or in Washington and Alaska territories, and all vessels coasting between ports of this state, and all steamers from Panama connecting with the Panama Railroad, touching at said port of San Diego, bound to other coast ports, shall be exempt from all charges for pilotage unless a pilot be actually employed.

§ 15. All pilots absenting themselves from San Diego for more than thirty days shall forfeit his commission, except in case of sickness.

§ 16. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

See next succeeding act and note.

PILOTS—SAN PEDRO—WILMINGTON.

To provide for the appointment of pilots, and defining their duties and compensation at the port of Wilmington and bay of San Pedro.

(Stats. 1889, 416, ch. CCLXVII.)

§ 1. It shall be the duty of the governor to appoint not more than two persons, residents of San Pedro, as pilots for the port of Wilmington and bay of San Pedro.

§ 2. No person shall be appointed a pilot who is not a citizen of the United States, over twenty-one years of age, with a practical knowledge of the management of sailing vessels, and of the location and distances of the several shoals, bars, rocks, points of land, lighthouses, buoys, and fog-signals of the port of Wilmington and bay of San Pedro.

§ 3. It shall be the duty of every pilot of a vessel upon arriving in the bay of San Pedro to have the vessel safely moored as the master may direct.

§ 4. Every pilot carried to sea against his will, when a pilot-boat is in attendance to receive him, shall be entitled to receive the sum of eight dollars a day while absent, which sum may be recovered from the master or the owner of the vessel taking him away; provided, the amount herein allowed to be recovered shall in no case exceed one thousand dollars.

§ 5. Any pilot may be removed by the governor and deprived of his commission before its expiration for the following causes:

First—For refusing to exhibit his commission when requested to do so by the master of any vessel he may have boarded.

Second—For intoxication, either occasional or habitual, whether the same be while in charge of a pilot-boat or at any other time.

Third—For negligently, ignorantly, or wilfully running any vessel on shore, or otherwise rendering her liable to serious injury; and any pilot who shall be deprived of his commission for causes specified in this subdivision shall, in the discretion of the governor, be declared to be ineligible for future appointment under this act.

Fourth—For being absent from the port of Wilmington and bay of San Pedro for more than thirty days, except when prevented by sickness from performing his duties.

§ 6. Any person not the master or owner, and not holding a commission as pilot, who shall pilot any vessel into or out of the harbor of Wilmington, or bay of San Pedro, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding ninety days.

§ 7. All vessels, their tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the master and owner of such vessels, shall be jointly and severally liable for pilotage fees, to be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 8. When two pilots offer their services to a vessel outside of a line from Point Firmin Lighthouse and the southeast end of the twenty-six fathoms bank, the pilot first offering his services shall have the preference, and if the master of any vessel shall refuse to observe such preference, and to take the pilot first offering his services on board as pilot, the master, the vessel, her appurtenances, and furniture shall be jointly and severally liable to the pilot entitled to the preference for one half of the pilotage fees he would have been entitled to claim had his services been accepted.

§ 9. The following shall be the rates of pilotage into and out of the bay of San Pedro, at the outer anchorage: All vessels under five hundred tons, five dollars per foot draft; all vessels over five hundred tons, ten cents per ton for each and every ton gross registered tonnage. For all vessels engaged in the whaling or fishing trade the rate of pilotage shall be one dollar per foot draft. When a vessel is spoken and the services of a pilot are declined, the pilot shall be entitled to one half pilotage rates. All vessels engaged in the coasting trade between ports of the United States on the Pacific Coast shall be exempted from all charges for pilotage, unless a pilot shall actually be employed. All vessels over five hundred tons gross register shall, when piloted into or out of the harbor of San Pedro or Wilmington over the bar, adjoining Dead Man's Island, pay pilotage rates as follows: Five dollars per foot draft, and five cents per ton for each ton gross registered tonnage.

§ 10. This act shall take effect immediately.

PLACER COUNTY—RECORDS.

To legalize certain records in the office of the recorder of Placer County.

(Stats. 1863-4, 84, ch. LXXXIII.)

§ 1. Whereas, during the period of two years, commencing on the first Monday of December, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty, the certificates of filing and of record of certain instruments in writing, which by law are authorized or required to be filed for record and to be recorded, and the certificates of the filing of copies of certain notices, writs of attachment, and executions, certificates of sale, and transcripts of judgments and records, which by law are authorized or required to be filed in the recorder's office of this state, and which have been filed, or filed and recorded, in the office of the recorder of Placer County during said period, are defective by reason of the said certificates being not signed by the recorder of said county, or by his lawful deputy; therefore, all of the said certificates of said filings and of records, and of said certificates of filings only, whether the same be made of record in said office or indorsed on said instruments in writing, filed and recorded as aforesaid, or upon said other copies and transcripts filed only, are hereby legalized and made effective from and after the passage of this act, for all the legal purposes for which said filings were made, as if the said certificates had been duly signed by said recorder as required by law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

PLACERVILLE—TITLES IN.

Appointing and empowering Charles F. Irwin a trustee to execute certain trusts, directing the manner of executing the same and the use of the funds arising therefrom.

(Stats. 1875-6, 328, ch. CCLI; amended 1877-8, 252, ch. CCVIII.)

Whereas, The government of the United States has, by letters patent, dated the tenth day of September, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, granted to the corporate authorities of the city of Placerville, in trust for the several use and benefit of the occupants of said city, certain lands in said patent described; and whereas, in consequence of the death and resignation of said officers, and the expirations of the terms of office for which they were severally elected, there no longer exists in said city any corporate authorities to execute the trusts imposed by the act of Congress, under which said patent was issued, and by the act of the legislature entitled "An act to authorize and direct the municipal authorities of the several cities and incorporate towns of this state to execute certain trusts in relation to the town lands granted to the incorporated cities and towns of this state by the act of Congress entitled 'An act for the relief of the inhabitants of cities and towns upon the public lands,' approved March second, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven," approved March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

§ 1. Charles F. Irwin, of El Dorado County, in this state, is hereby appointed a trustee, and as such is authorized and empowered to execute the trusts devolved upon the corporate authorities of said city by said acts, so far as to take and accept the proofs and payments for lots and parcels of land, as is required to be made by section seven of said act of March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and to execute certificates and deeds of conveyance to the parties entitled thereto, in the manner hereinafter provided.

§ 2. Every person, company, or corporation, claimant of any lot or parcel of land within the limits of said city, who, prior to the passage of this act, shall not have complied with the provisions of the said act of March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, or with the provisions of an act of the legislature of this state entitled "An act to authorize the city clerk of the city of Placerville to execute certain trusts in relation to the lands granted to said city," approved March twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, may at any time prior to the first day of June, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, present to said trustee, Charles F. Irwin, an affidavit, verified in person, or by duly authorized agent or attorney, in which affidavit shall be concisely stated the facts constituting the possession or right of possession of the claimant, and showing to the best of affiant's knowledge and belief that said claimant is entitled to the possession of such lot or parcel of land as against all other persons or associations, to which affidavit shall be attached a copy of so much of the plat of said city as will fully exhibit the particular lot or parcel of land so claimed, with the abutments. And every such claimant, at the time of presenting such affidavit, shall pay to such trustee, for the uses hereinafter prescribed, such sum of money as shall be due thereon for assessment, as mentioned or required by section six of said act of March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, or by any other act or acts relating to the same subject, and said trustee shall thereupon give to such claimant a certificate, containing a description of the lot or parcel of land claimed, and setting forth the amount paid thereon by said claimant. [Amendment, Stats. 1877-8, 252.]

§ 3. At the expiration of thirty days from and after the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, any person, association, or claimant to whom a certificate shall have been issued, as provided in the preceding section, or who may heretofore have received a similar certificate from the corporate authorities or city clerk of said city, may present the same to said trustee, and if no adverse claim shall have been presented to said trustee, he shall execute and deliver to such claimant, or to his, her, or their heirs, administrators, assigns, or legal representatives, a deed of the premises described in such certificate, designating and describing the same by number of the lot and block, as shown upon the official plat or map of said city; and that all deeds heretofore executed and delivered by said city authorities, or by any de facto trustee of said trust, to any claimant or claimants, his, her, or their assigns and legal representatives, are hereby legalized, confirmed, and established, and shall be taken, deemed, and adjudged as good and sufficient conveyances, in fee-simple, of the lot or lots, land or lands therein described. [Amendment, Stats. 1877-8, 252.]

§ 4. In case of any adverse claim to any such lot or parcel of land, or conflict of boundary lines relating thereto, the party out of possession shall commence his action in a court of competent jurisdiction, within thirty days from and after said first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and shall, within said time, serve a notice of the pendency of such action upon said trustee; and said trustee shall execute and deliver a deed in accordance with the final judgment rendered in such action; provided, if no such action shall be commenced within thirty days from and after said first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, a deed shall be executed and delivered by said trustee to the party in possession, who shall have made the proof and payment as hereinbefore provided. [Amendment, Stats. 1877-8, 252.]

[The amendatory act (Stats. 1877-8, 252) also contained the two following sections: "§ 4. If any person, association, or corporation claimant of any of said lands, who has not already made proof and payment for the same as required by law, shall fail, neglect, or refuse to make application to said trustee, for a deed of conveyance to the lands so claimed, and to make the proofs and payment for the same as hereinbefore provided, on or before the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, the same shall be deemed delinquent for the amount of assessments due thereon, to be determined in accordance with the provisions of said act of March twenty-fourth, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight. The said trustee shall proceed to offer, at public auction, in front of the court-house in said city, to the highest bidder, for gold and silver coin, all such parcels of land so delinquent, after first giving notice of the time and place of sale, by publication in a weekly newspaper published in said city, if there be one, if not then by written or printed notices, posted in three public places in said city, for a period of not less [than] twenty days. Such notice shall state the number of the lot and block, and the amount of the assessment due upon each lot so delinquent. Said trustee shall give to the purchaser at such sale a certificate of his purchase, setting forth therein the number of the lot sold, and the number of the block in which the same is situated, the amount paid therefor, and that the same is subject to redemption as prescribed in the next section; provided, that no sale shall be made for less than the whole amount of assessments and the cost of making the sale, which costs shall be divided pro rata among the several parcels offered for sale.

“§ 5. At any time within three months after such sale, the original claimant or his successor in interest of any lot so sold, may redeem the same by paying to the purchaser, or the said trustee for the purchaser, in gold or silver coin, the amount of such purchase money, with ten per centum thereon added; but in case no redemption be made, the purchaser, his heirs, or assigns shall be entitled to demand and receive from said trustee a deed of such premises, which deed shall be absolute against the parties delinquent, and shall entitle the grantee, his heirs and assigns to a writ of assistance from the district court having jurisdiction in the premises. In case a redemption be made as herein provided, said trustee shall, from the money received of the purchaser at such sale, deduct the amount of the delinquent assessment upon any such lot, together with the cost of sale, and pay over the residue, on demand, to the redemptioner or his assigns.”]

§ 5. The deeds that may be executed under the provisions of this act shall have the same force and effect as if executed by the corporate authorities of said city, under and by virtue of the provisions of said act of March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight; and for the purpose of fully executing and administering said trust in accordance with the beneficial intent and meaning of the acts of Congress and of this state in relation thereto, and of supplying, revising, perfecting, or confirming any or all acts or omissions of the corporate authorities or city clerk of said city, or of the trustee hereby appointed, and of granting general relief in the premises, in accordance with sections two thousand two hundred and eighty-seven, two thousand two hundred and eighty-eight, and two thousand two hundred and eighty-nine of article six, title eight, volume two of the Civil Code, the district court of the eleventh judicial district, at any term of said court, in and for the county of El Dorado, upon the verified petition, duly filed therein, of one or more of the parties and claimants beneficially interested in said trust, shall be deemed and taken to have jurisdiction of the subject-matter, and of all the parties and claimants aforesaid, and the final judgment of said court in the premises shall be conclusive as to the parties and claimants interested, and as to all jurisdictional facts.

§ 6. The said trustee shall receive, in full compensation for all services performed by him under this act, from and including the execution and issuance in each case of a certificate and deed, or of a deed, where a certificate shall have been previously issued, the sum of two and one half dollars in United States gold coin, to be retained by him for lands and assessments, in accordance with section six of said act of March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and all acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto.

§ 7. The said trustee shall be entitled to the possession and custody of all the books, records, and papers having reference to said lands or claimants, had, held, or used by the late corporate authorities or city clerk of said city, and shall make entries in said books of all his transactions as such trustee, so far as practicable, in the manner required by the corporate authorities of said city by section seven of said act of March twenty-fourth, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight. And when all the business herein required of said trustee shall be completed, he shall deposit the books, records, and papers aforesaid, then in his hands, in the office of the county clerk of the county of El Dorado, where they shall remain subject to the inspection of all persons, in like manner and with the same effect as other public records in said office.

§ 8. Out of the moneys collected for assessments, as provided in section two of this act, the trustee shall pay for the stationery, printing, and other necessary expenses incident to the transaction of said business; and when said business shall be completed, if any balance shall remain in his hands unexpended, he shall advertise, by one insertion in each of the newspapers published in said city, for sealed proposals for the surrender of "fire bonds" issued by and now outstanding against said city, and shall pay the same to the holder or holders thereof who shall in such proposal agree to surrender the largest amount of such indebtedness for such money.

§ 9. The act entitled "An act to authorize the city clerk of the city of Placerville to execute certain trusts in relation to the lands granted to said city," approved March twenty-eighth, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

§ 10. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

POLICE COURTS—CERTAIN CITIES.

("Whitney Act.")

To provide for police courts in cities having thirty thousand and under one hundred thousand inhabitants, and to provide for officers thereof.

(Stats. 1885, 213, ch. CLXIV; amended 1891, 292, ch. CCXIV; 1893, 41, ch. XXIII; 1895, 113, ch. CXXII.)

§ 1. The judicial power of every city having thirty thousand and under one hundred thousand inhabitants, shall be vested in a police court, to be held therein by the city justices, or one of them, to be designated by the mayor, but either of said city justices may hold such court without such designation, and it is hereby made the duty of said city justices, in addition to the duties now required of them by law, to hold said police court. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 2. The police court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the following public offenses committed in the city:

First—Petit larceny.

Second—Assault or battery not charged to have been committed upon a public officer in the discharge of official duty, or with intent to kill.

Third—Breaches of the peace, riots, affrays, committing wilful injury to property, and all misdemeanors punishable by fine or by imprisonment, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Fourth—Of proceedings respecting vagrants, lewd, or disorderly persons. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 3. Said court shall also have exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings for violation of any ordinance of said city, both civil and criminal, and of an action for the collection of any license required by any ordinance of said city. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 4. Neither of said justices shall sit in cases in which he is a party, or in which he is interested, or where he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree; and in case of the sickness or inability of the city justices, either of them may call in a justice of the peace residing in the county to act in his place and stead. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 5. Each of the city justices, while acting as judge of said court, shall also have power to hear cases for examination, and may commit and hold the offender to bail for trial in the proper court, and may try, condemn, or acquit, and carry his judgment into execution, as the case may require, according to law, and punish persons guilty of contempt of court, and shall have power to issue warrants of arrest in case of a criminal prosecution for a violation of a city ordinance, as well as in case of a violation of the criminal law of the state; also, all subpoenas, and all other processes necessary to the full and proper exercise of his powers and jurisdiction, and in such of the cases enumerated in this section in which trial by jury is not secured by the constitution of the state, he may proceed to judgment in the first instance without a jury; but on appeal, the defendant shall be entitled to trial by jury in the superior court. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 6. The police courts in all cities having more than thirty thousand and not exceeding one hundred thousand inhabitants, shall have a clerk for each of the judges of said courts, who shall be appointed by the judge of the said court presiding in the department thereof in which the said clerk is to act, who shall hold office for the period of two years from the date of his appointment. Each of the said clerks shall receive an annual salary of one thousand five hundred dollars a year, payable monthly out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be the full compensation for all services rendered by him. Each of the said clerks shall keep a record of the proceedings of, and issue all processes ordered by, the city justices, or either of them, or by said police court, and receive and pay into the city treasury all fines imposed by said court. They shall also each month render to the city council an exact and detailed account, upon oath, of all fines imposed and collected, and of all fines imposed and uncollected, since their last reports. They shall prepare bonds, justify bail when the amount has been fixed by either of the said justices or said court, in cases not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may administer and certify oaths. The clerks shall remain at the court-rooms of the said court during the business hours, and during such reasonable time thereafter as may be necessary for discharging their duties. Before receiving their salaries each or any month, each of them shall make and file with the city auditor an affidavit that he has deposited with the city treasurer all moneys that have come into his hands belonging to the city. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor. Each of said clerks shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the mayor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. [Amendment, Stats. 1895, 113.]

§ 6½. The police court in all cities having more than thirty thousand and less than fifty thousand inhabitants shall have a prosecuting attorney, to be appointed by the district attorney of the county in which said city is situated, who shall hold office for the period of two years from the date of his appointment. He shall receive an annual salary of two thousand (2,000) dollars, payable in equal monthly instalments, out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by him. It shall be the duty of said prosecuting attorney to attend the sessions of said court, and conduct on behalf of the people all prosecutions for public offenses of which said court has jurisdiction. He shall give a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the mayor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. [New section added, Stats. 1893, 41.]

§ 7. All fines and other moneys collected on behalf of the city in the police court shall be paid into the city treasury on the first Tuesday of each month, and all bills for fees and costs due the officers of said court shall be reported to the city council each month. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 8. Rooms and Dockets—The city council shall furnish a suitable room for the holding of said court, and shall also furnish the necessary dockets and blanks. One docket shall be styled "The City Criminal Docket," in which all the criminal business shall be recorded, and each case shall be alphabetically indexed. Another docket shall be styled "The City Civil Docket," and it shall contain each and every civil case in which the city is a party, or which is prosecuted or defended for her interest, and each case shall be properly indexed. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 9. The police court shall be always open, except upon non-judicial days, and then for such purposes only as by law permitted or required of other courts of this state. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 10. Appeals may be taken from any judgment of said police court to the superior court of the county in which said city may be located, in the same manner in which appeals are taken from justices' courts in like cases. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 11. In all cases of imprisonment of persons convicted in said police court of any offense committed in the city, the persons so to be imprisoned, or by ordinance required to labor, shall be imprisoned in the city jail; or, if required to labor, shall labor in the city. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 12. Said courts shall have a seal, to be furnished by the city. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 13. City Cases—The city justices shall, on the first Tuesday of each month, make to the city council a full and complete report of all the cases, civil and criminal, in which the city has an interest, or which are required to be entered in the city civil docket or the city criminal docket; such report to be made upon blanks furnished by the city council, and in such form as they may require. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 14. Certified transcripts of the docket made by the clerk of the said court, under the seal of said court, shall be evidence in any court of this state of the contents of said docket; and all warrants and other process issued out of said court, and all acts done by said court, and certified under its seal, shall have the same force and validity in any part of this state as though issued or done by any court of record of this state. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 292.]

§ 15. This act shall be in force and effect from and after its passage.

The amendatory Act of 1891, 292, superseded Act of 1885, 213, in each and every section.—See In re Ambrosewif, 109 Cal. 264, 265, 41 Pac. POLICE COURTS—CITIES FIRST AND ONE-HALF CLASS.

To establish police courts in cities of the first and one-half class, to fix their jurisdiction and provide for officers of said courts and fix the compensation of certain officers thereof.

(Stats. 1901, 95, ch. LXXXI; amended 1903, 320, ch. CCXLII; 1903, 335, ch. CCXLVIII; 1905, 41, ch. XLVI.)

§ 1. The judicial power of every city of the first and one-half class shall be vested in a police court to be held therein by the city justices of such city, or one of them. Either one of said justices may hold such court, and there may be as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are city justices in such city, and it is hereby made the duty of said city justices, in addition to the duties now required of them by law, to hold said police court, as judges thereof.

§ 2. Said police court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all misdemeanors punishable by fine or by imprisonment, or by both such fine and imprisonment, committed in the city where such police court is held; and in all such cases to try and determine the same, convict or acquit, pass and enter judgment and carry such judgment into execution as the case may require, according to law.

§ 3. The said court shall also have exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings for violation of any ordinance of said city, both civil and criminal, and of all actions for the collection of any licenses required by the ordinances of said city.

§ 4. Neither of said justices shall sit in cases in which he is a party, or in which he is interested, or where he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree; and in case of sickness or inability of said justices, or either of them, either of said justices may call in any justice of the peace of the county to act in his place or stead.

§ 5. Each of the city justices, while acting as judge of said police court, shall have jurisdiction to issue warrants of arrest, search warrants, subpoenas, and all other processes necessary to the full and proper exercise of the powers and jurisdiction of said court; to punish persons guilty of contempt of said court; to try all charges of misdemeanor offenses committed within its jurisdiction, as well as all charges for violation of city ordinances, and render judgment therein, with full power to carry such judgment into execution.

§ 6. Said police court shall have a clerk for each of the judges of said court, who shall be appointed by the judge of the said court presiding in the department thereof in which the said clerk is to act, which said clerks shall hold office for the term of two years from the date of appointment. Each of said clerks shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the mayor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Each of said clerks shall receive an annual salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars a year, payable in equal monthly instalments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be the full compensation for all services rendered by him. Each of the said clerks shall keep a record of the proceedings of, and issue all processes ordered by, the city justices, or either of them, or by said police court, and receive and pay into the city treasury all fines imposed by said court. They shall also render each month to the city council an exact and detailed account under oath of all fines imposed and collected, and of all fines imposed and uncollected since their last reports. They shall prepare bonds, justify bail when the amount has been fixed by either of said justices or by said police court, in cases not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may administer and certify oaths. Said clerks shall remain at the court-rooms of said court during the business hours and during such reasonable times thereafter as may be necessary for a proper performance of their duties. Before receiving any monthly payment of salary each of said clerks shall make and file with the city auditor an affidavit that he has deposited with the city treasurer all moneys that have come into his hands, belonging to the city. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor. [Amendment, Stats. 1903, 335.]

§ 7. Said police court shall have a prosecuting attorney and two assistant prosecuting attorneys, all of whom shall be appointed by the city attorney of said city, and who shall hold office for the term of two years from the date of their appointment. Said prosecuting attorney shall receive an annual salary of twenty-one hundred dollars, which shall be paid in equal monthly instalments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by him. One of said assistant prosecuting attorneys shall receive an annual salary of eighteen hundred dollars and one of said assistant prosecuting attorneys shall receive an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars, which shall be paid in equal monthly instalments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by them. It shall be the duty of said prosecuting attorney and said assistant prosecuting attorneys to attend the sessions of said police court and conduct on behalf of the people all prosecutions for public offenses of which said court has jurisdiction. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 41.]

§ 8. All fines and other moneys collected on behalf of the city in the police court shall be paid into the city treasury on the first Tuesday of each month.

§ 9. The city council shall furnish suitable rooms for the holding of said police court and shall also furnish the necessary dockets, blanks, stationery, and supplies for the carrying on of the business of said courts. One docket shall be styled "The City Criminal Docket," in which all the criminal business of said court shall be recorded, and each case shall be alphabetically indexed. Another docket shall be styled "The City Civil Docket," and it shall contain each and every civil case in which the city is a party, or which is prosecuted or defended for her interest; and each case shall be properly indexed.

§ 10. The police court shall be always open, except upon non-judicial days, and then for such purposes only as by law permitted or required of other courts of this state.

§ 11. Appeals may be taken from any judgment of said police court to the superior court of the county in which such city may be located, in the same manner in which appeals are taken from the justices' courts in like cases.

§ 12. In all cases of imprisonment of persons convicted in said police court of any offense committed in the city, the person so to be imprisoned, or by ordinance required to labor, shall be imprisoned in the city jail, or, if required to labor, shall labor in the city.

§ 13. Said courts shall have a seal, to be furnished by the city.

§ 14. The city justices shall on the first Tuesday of each month make to the city council a full and complete report of all the cases, civil and criminal, in which the city has an interest, or which are required to be entered in the city civil docket, or the city criminal docket, such report to be made upon blanks furnished by the city council and in such form as they may require.

§ 15. Certified transcripts of the dockets or files of said court, certified by the clerk of said court under the seal of said court, shall be evidence in any court of this state of the contents of said docket or of said files, as the case may be; and all warrants and other process issued out of said court and all acts done by said court and certified under its seal, shall have the same force and validity in any part of this state as though issued or done by any court of record of this state.

§ 16. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

POLICE COURTS—CITIES SECOND CLASS.

To establish police courts in cities of the second class, to fix their jurisdiction, and provide for officers of said courts, and fix the compensation of certain officers thereof.

(Stats. 1901, 576, ch. CCXXVI; amendment Stats. 1905, 634, ch. CDLXXIV.)

§ 1. The judicial power of every city of the second class shall be vested in a police court to be held therein by the city justices of such city, or one of them. Either one of said justices may hold such court, and there may be as many sessions of said court at the same time as there are city justices in such city, and it is hereby made the duty of said city justices, in addition to the duties now required of them by law, to hold said police court, as judges thereof.

§ 2. Said police court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all misdemeanors punishable by fine or by imprisonment, or by both such fine and imprisonment, committed in the city where such police court is held; and in all such cases, to try and determine the same, convict or acquit, pass and enter judgment and carry such judgment into execution as the case may require, according to law.

§ 3. The said court shall also have exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings for violation of any ordinance of said city, both civil and criminal, and of all actions for the collection of any licenses required by the ordinances of said city.

§ 4. Neither of said justices shall sit in cases in which he is a party, or in which he is interested, or where he is related to either party by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree; and in case of the sickness or inability of said justices, or either of them, either of said justices may call in any justice of the peace of the county to act in his place or stead.

§ 5. Each of the city justices, while acting as judge of said police court, shall have jurisdiction to issue warrants of arrest, search warrants, subpœnas, and all other processes necessary to the full and proper exercise of the powers and jurisdiction of said court; to punish persons guilty of contempt of said court; to try all charges of misdemeanor offenses committed within its jurisdiction, as well as all charges for violation of city ordinances, and render judgment therein, with full power to carry such judgment into execution.

§ 6. Said police court shall have a clerk for each of the judges of said court, who shall be appointed by the judge of the said court presiding in the department thereof in which the said clerk is to act, which said clerks shall hold office for the term of two years from the date of appointment. Each of said clerks shall give a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the mayor of said city, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. Each of said clerks shall receive an annual salary of one thousand eight hundred dollars a year, payable in equal monthly installments out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be the full compensation for all services rendered by him. Each of the said clerks shall keep a record of the proceedings of, and issue all processes ordered by, the city justices, or either of them, or by said police court, and receive and pay into the city treasury all fines imposed by said court. They shall also render each month to the city council an exact and detailed account under oath of all fines imposed and collected and of all fines imposed and uncollected since their last reports. They shall prepare bonds, justify bail when the amount has been fixed by either of said justices or by said police court, in cases not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may administer and certify oaths. Said clerks shall remain at the court-rooms of said court during the business hours and during such reasonable times thereafter as may be necessary for a proper performance of their duties. Before receiving any monthly payment of salary each of said clerks shall make and file with the city auditor an affidavit that he has deposited with the city treasurer all moneys that have come into his hands, belonging to the city. Any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor.

§ 7. Said police courts shall have one prosecuting attorney and an assistant prosecuting attorney who shall each be appointed by the district attorney of the county in which the city is situated, and who shall hold office for the term of two years from the date of their appointment. Said prosecuting attorney shall receive an annual salary of two thousand (2,000) dollars and said assistant prosecuting attorney an annual salary of one thousand five hundred (1,500) dollars, which salaries shall be paid in equal monthly instalments, out of the treasury of said city, which salaries shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by them. It shall be the duty of said prosecuting attorney and said assistant prosecuting attorney to attend the sessions of said police court and conduct, on behalf of the people, all prosecutions for public offenses of which said court has jurisdiction. [Amendment, Stats. 1905, 634.]

§ 8. All fines and other moneys collected on behalf of the city in the police court shall be paid into the city treasury on the first Tuesday of each month.

§ 9. The city council shall furnish suitable rooms for the holding of said police court and shall also furnish the necessary dockets, blanks, stationery, and supplies for the carrying on of the business of said courts. One docket shall be styled "The City Criminal Docket," in which all the criminal business of said court shall be recorded, and each case shall be alphabetically indexed. Another docket shall be styled "The City Civil Docket," and it shall contain each and every civil case in which the city is a party, or which is prosecuted or defended for her interest, and each case shall be properly indexed.

§ 10. The police court shall be always open, except upon non-judicial days, and then for such purposes only as by law permitted or required of other courts of this state.

§ 11. Appeals may be taken from any judgment of said police court to the superior court of the county in which such city may be located, in the same manner in which appeals are taken from the justices' courts in like cases.

§ 12. In all cases of imprisonment of persons convicted in said police court of any offense committed in the city, the person so to be imprisoned, or by ordinance required to labor, shall be imprisoned in the city jail, or, if required to labor, shall labor in the city.

§ 13. Said courts shall have a seal, to be furnished by the city.

§ 14. The city justices shall on the first Tuesday of each month make to the city council a full and complete report of all the cases, civil and criminal, in which the city has an interest, or which are required to be entered in the city civil docket or the city criminal docket, such report to be made upon blanks furnished by the city council and in such form as they may require.

§ 15. Certified transcripts of the dockets or files of said court, certified by the clerk of said court under the seal of said court, shall be evidence in any court of this state of the contents of said docket or of said files, as the case may be; and all warrants and other process issued out of said court and all acts done by said court and certified under its seal, shall have the same force and validity in any part of this state as though issued or done by any court of record of this state.

§ 16. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the thirtieth day of March, A. D. nineteen hundred and one.

See next following act, relating to prosecuting attorneys for courts established by the foregoing act.

POLICE COURTS—PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS.

To provide for prosecuting attorneys of police courts in cities of the second class, and regulating the compensation of such officers.

(Stats. 1901, 664, ch. CCXXVI.)

§ 1. The police court in all cities of the second class shall have a prosecuting attorney, to be appointed by the district attorney of the county in which said city is situated, who shall hold office for the period of four years from the date of his appointment. He shall receive an annual salary of two thousand (2,000) dollars, payable in equal monthly instalments, out of the treasury of said city, which salary shall be in full compensation for all services rendered by him. It shall be the duty of said prosecuting attorney to attend the sessions of said court, and conduct on behalf of the people all prosecutions for public offenses of which said court has jurisdiction.

§ 2. All other acts or parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

§ 3. This act shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.

POLICE—HOURS OF SERVICE.

Regulating the hours of service on regular duty by members of the police department of cities of the first class, cities and counties, cities of the first and one half class, and cities of the second class.

(Stats. 1903, 51, ch. XLVI.)

§ 1. In all cities of the first class, cities and counties, cities of the first and one half class, and cities of the second class of this state where a regular police department is maintained, patrol captains, lieutenants, sergeants, and regular officers shall be required to serve on duty not longer than eight hours in every twenty-four hours; provided, that in case of riot or other emergency, every attaché of the police department shall perform such duty and for such time as the directing authority of the department shall require.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

POLICE—INCREASE OF.

To increase the police force in the various cities, and cities and counties, and towns of the state, and to provide for the appointment of such extra police officers and for the payment of their salaries.

(Stats. 1891, 10, ch. XV.)

§ 1. The board of supervisors, board of trustees, or common council of a city, or city and county, or town of this state, of the first, second or fourth classes, are hereby authorized and empowered to increase the police force of their respective cities, and cities and counties, or towns, from time to time, as may be deemed necessary by said common council, board of trustees, or board of supervisors; provided, that the police force in any city or city and county shall not exceed in the aggregate, at any time, one member for every five hundred inhabitants of such city or city and county; provided further, that in cities of the third class the police force shall not exceed in the aggregate, at any time, one member for every one thousand inhabitants of said cities, according to the latest census of the United States; said additional police force to be appointed by the board of police commissioners or other board or authority now by law empowered to appoint police officers in their respective cities or cities and counties, or towns.

§ 2. The salary of additional police officers hereby authorized shall be of the same amounts for each officer as is now paid by law to the other members of such police force in their respective cities, or cities and counties, or towns; and said additional police officers shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same fund as the other members of their respective police forces are now or shall hereafter be paid.

§ 3. The terms common council, board of trustees, and board of supervisors are hereby declared to include any body or board which, under the law, is the legislative department of the government of any city, or city and county, or town.

§ 4. This act shall be in force and effect from and after its passage.

POLICE—INSURANCE.

To create a police relief, health, and life insurance and pension fund in the several counties, cities and counties, cities, and towns of the state.

(Stats. 1889, 56, ch. LXII; amended 1891, 287, ch. CCX; 1891, 469, ch. CCXLVIII; 1897, 52, ch. LVII.)

§ 1. The chairman of the board of supervisors of the county, city and county, city, or incorporated town in which there is no board of police commissioners, the treasurer of the county, city and county, or incorporated town, and the chief of police, and their successors in office, are hereby constituted a board of trustees of the police relief or pension fund of the police department, to provide for the disbursement of the same and to designate the beneficiaries thereof as hereinafter directed, which board shall be known as the "Board of Police Pension Fund Commissioners;" provided, however, that where there is in any county, city and county, city, or town, a board of police commissioners, then such body shall constitute said board of trustees of the police relief and pension fund of the police department. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 469.]

§ 2. They shall organize as such board by choosing one of their number as chairman, and by appointing a secretary. The treasurer of the county, city and county, city, or town, shall be ex officio treasurer of said fund. Such board of trustees shall have charge of and administer said fund, and to order payments therefrom in pursuance of the provisions of this act. They shall report annually, in the month of June, to the board of supervisors, or other governing authority of the county, city and county, city, or incorporated town, the condition of the police relief and pension fund, and the receipts and disbursements on account of the same, with a full and complete list of the beneficiaries of said fund and the amounts paid them. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 469.]

§ 3. Whenever any person at the taking effect of this act, or thereafter shall have been duly appointed or selected and sworn, and have served for twenty years, or more, in the aggregate, as a member, in any capacity or any rank whatever, of the regularly constituted police department of any such county, city and county, city, or town which may hereafter be subject to the provisions of this act, said board may, if it see fit, order and direct that such person after becoming sixty years of age be retired from further service in such police department, and from the date of the making of such order the service of such person in such police department shall cease, and such person so retired shall thereafter, during his lifetime, be paid from such fund a yearly pension equal to one half of the amount of salary attached to the rank which he may have held in said police department for the period of one year next preceding the date of such retirement. [Amendment, Stats. 1897, 52.]

§ 4. Whenever any person, while serving as a policeman in any such county, city and county, city, or town, shall become physically disabled by reason of any bodily injury received in the immediate or direct performance or discharge of his duty as such policeman, said board may, upon his written request, or without such request, if it deem it to be for the good of said police force, retire such person from said department, and order and direct that he shall be paid from said fund, during his lifetime, a yearly pension equal to one half of the amount of salary attached to the rank which he may have held on such police force at the date of such retirement, but on the death of such pensioner his heirs or assigns shall have no claim against or upon such police relief or pension fund; provided, that whenever such disability shall cease such pension shall cease, and such person shall be restored to active service at the same salary he received at the time of his retirement. [Amendment, Stats. 1897, 52.]

§ 5. No person shall be retired, as provided in the next preceding section, or receive any benefit from said fund, unless there shall be filed with said board certificates of his disability, which certificates shall be subscribed and sworn to by said person, and by the county, city and county, city, or town physician (if there be one), and two regularly licensed practising physicians of such county, city and county, city, or town, and such board may require other evidence of disability before ordering such retirement and payment as aforesaid.

§ 6. Whenever any member of the police department of such county, city and county, city, or town, shall lose his life while in the performance of his duty, leaving a widow, or child or children under the age of sixteen years, then upon satisfactory proof of such facts made to it, such board shall order and direct that a yearly pension, equal to one third the amount of the salary attached to the rank which such member held in said police department at the time of his death, shall be paid to such widow during her life, or if no widow, then to the child or children, until they shall be sixteen years of age; provided, if such widow, or child or children, shall marry, then such person so marrying shall thereafter receive no further pension from such fund.

§ 7. Whenever any member of the police department of such county, city and county, city, or town shall, after ten years of service, die from natural causes, then his widow or children, or if there be no widow or children, then his mother or unmarried sisters, shall be entitled to the sum of one thousand dollars from such fund. [Amendment, Stats. 1891, 287.]

§ 8. Any person retired for disability under this act may be summoned before the board herein provided for at any time thereafter, and shall submit himself thereto for examination as to his fitness for duty, and shall abide the decision and order of such board with reference thereto; and all members of the police force who may be retired under the provisions of this act shall report to the chief of police of the county, city and county, city, or town where so retired, on the first Mondays of April, July, October, and January of each year; and in cases of great public emergency may be assigned to and shall perform such duty as said chief of police may direct; and such persons shall have no claim against the county, city and county, city, or town, for payment for such duty so performed.

§ 9. When any person who shall have received any benefit from said fund shall be convicted of any felony, or shall become an habitual drunkard, or shall become a non-resident of this state, or shall fail to report himself for examination for duty as required herein, unless excused by the board, or shall disobey the requirements of said board under this act, in respect to said examination or duty, then such board shall order that such pension allowance as may have been granted to such person shall immediately cease, and such person shall receive no further pension, allowance, or benefit under this act.

§ 10. The board herein provided for shall hold quarterly meetings on the first Mondays of April, July, October, and January of each year, and upon the call of its president; it shall biennially select from its members a president and secretary; it shall issue warrants, signed by its president and secretary, to the persons entitled thereto of the amount of money ordered paid to such persons from such fund by said board, which warrant shall state for what purpose such payment is to be made; it shall keep a record of all its proceedings, which record shall be a public record; it shall, at each quarterly meeting, send to the treasurer of the county, city and county, city, or town, and to the auditor of such county, city and county, city, or town, a written or printed list of all persons entitled to payment from the fund herein provided for, stating the amount of such payments and for what granted, which list shall be certified to and signed by the president and secretary of such board, attested under oath. The auditor shall thereupon enter a copy of said list upon a book to be kept for that purpose, and which shall be known as "The Police Relief and Pension Fund Book." When such list has been entered by the auditor, he shall transmit the same to the board of supervisors, or other governing authority of such county, city and county, city, or town, which board of authority shall order the payment of the amounts named therein out of "The Police Relief and Pension Fund." A majority of all the members of said board herein provided for shall constitute a quorum, and have power to transact business.

§ 11. The board herein provided for shall, in addition to other powers herein granted, have power,—

First—To compel witnesses to attend and testify before it, upon all matters connected with the operation of this act, in the same manner as is or may be provided by law for the taking of testimony before notaries public; and its president, or any member of said board, may administer oaths to such witnesses.

Second—To appoint a secretary, and to provide for the payment from said fund of all its necessary expenses including secretary hire and printing; provided, that no compensation or emolument shall be paid to any member of said board for any duty required or performed under this act.

Third—To make all needful rules and regulations for its guidance, in conformity with the provisions of this act.

§ 12. The board of supervisors, or other governing authority, of any county, city and county, city, or town, shall, for the purposes of said "Police Relief and Pension Fund" hereinbefore mentioned, direct the payment annually, and when the tax levy is made, into said fund, of the following moneys:—

First—Not less than five nor more than ten per centum of all moneys collected and received from licenses for the keeping of places wherein spirituous, malt, or other intoxicating liquors are sold.

Second—One half of all moneys received from taxes or from licenses upon dogs.

Third—All moneys received from fines imposed upon the members of the police force of said county, city and county, city, or town, for violation of the rules and regulations of the police department.

Fourth—All proceeds of sales of unclaimed property.

Fifth—Not less than one fourth nor more than one half of all moneys received from licenses from pawnbrokers, billiard-hall keepers, second-hand dealers, and junk stores.

Sixth—All moneys received from fines for carrying concealed weapons.

Seventh—Twenty-five per centum of all fines collected in money for violation of county, city and county, city, or town ordinances.

Eighth—All rewards given or paid to members of such police force, except such as shall be excepted by the chief of police.

Ninth—The treasurer of any county, city and county, city, or town shall retain from the pay of each member of police department the sum of two dollars per month, to be forthwith paid into said police relief and pension fund, and no other or further retention or deduction shall be made from such pay for any other fund or purpose whatever.

§ 13. Any police life and health insurance fund, or any fund provided by law, heretofore existing in any county, city and county, city, or town, for the relief or pensioning of police officers, or their life or health insurance, or for the payment of a sum of money on their death, shall be merged with, paid into, and constitute a part of the fund created under the provisions of this act; and no person who has resigned or been dismissed from said police department shall be entitled to any relief from such fund; provided, that any person, who, within one year prior to the passage of this act, has been dismissed from the police department for incompetency or inefficiency, and which incompetency or inefficiency was caused solely by sickness or disability contracted or suffered while in service as a member thereof, and who has, prior to said dismissal, served for twelve or more years as such member, shall be entitled to all the benefits of this act.

§ 14. On the last day of June of each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the auditor of such county, city and county, city, or town shall make a report to the board of supervisors, or other governing authority of such county, city and county, city, or town, of all moneys paid out on account of said fund during the previous year, and of the amount then to the credit of the "Police Relief and Pension Fund," and all surplus of said fund then remaining in said fund exceeding the average amount per year paid out on account of said fund during the three years next preceeding, shall be transferred to and become a part of the general fund of every such county, city and county, city, or town, and no longer under the control of said board, or subject to its order. Payments provided for in this act shall be made quarterly, upon proper vouchers.

§ 15. All acts or parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

§ 16. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

POLICE—ON CARS, BOATS, ETC.

To provide for the appointment of policemen, with the powers of peace officers, to serve upon the premises, cars or boats of railroad and steamship companies.

(Stats. 1901, 666, ch. CCXXVIII.)

§ 1. The governor of the state of California is hereby authorized and empowered, upon the application of any railroad or steamboat company, to appoint and commission during his pleasure one or more persons designated by such company and to serve at the expense of such company, as policeman or policemen, with the powers of peace officers, and who, after being duly sworn, may act as such policeman or policemen upon the premises, cars or boats of such company. The company designating such person or persons shall be responsible civilly for any abuse of his or their authority.

§ 2. Every such policeman shall, when on duty, wear in plain view a shield bearing the words "railroad police," or "steamboat police," as the case may be, and the name of the company for which he is commissioned.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

POLICE—VACATIONS.

Authorizing and requiring boards or commissions having the management and control of paid police force to grant the members thereof yearly vacations.

(Stats. 1891, 47, ch. XLIX.)

§ 1. In every city or city and county of this state where there is a regularly organized paid police force, the board of supervisors, common council, commissions, or other body having the management and control of the same, are authorized and required once in every year to provide for granting each member thereof a leave of absence from active duty for a period of not less than ten nor more than fifteen days. Leaves of absence so granted must be arranged by said board or commission[s] so as not to interfere with the police protection of any such city or city and county, or to impair in any way the efficiency of the department; and leaves of absence granted in case of sickness or in consequence of wounds or injuries received while in the discharge of duty shall not be construed to be or become a part of the leave of absence provided for by this act. No deduction must be made from the pay of any police officer granted a leave of absence under provisions of this act.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

POSSE COMITATUS.

To authorize boards of supervisors to pay the expenses of posse comitatus in criminal cases.

(Stats. 1880, 102, ch. XCIII.)

§ 1. The board of supervisors of any county may allow, in their discretion, such compensation as they may deem just, to defray the necessary expenses that have been incurred by a posse comitatus in criminal cases; provided, no claim shall be allowed for expenses which have not been incurred within one year before such allowance.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

POULTRY—EXPERIMENT STATION.

To establish a poultry experiment station in the county of Sonoma, and making an appropriation therefor.

(Stats. 1903, 143, ch. CXXXIII.)

§ 1. There is hereby established in the county of Sonoma, at or near the city of Petaluma, a poultry experiment station, to be known as the "California Poultry Experiment Station."

§ 2. The purposes of said station shall be the study of the diseases of poultry to ascertain the causes of such diseases, and to recommend treatment for the prevention and cure of the same; to ascertain the relative value of poultry foods for the production of flesh, fat, eggs, and feathers; to recommend methods of sanitation, and to conduct investigations for the purpose of securing results conducive to the promotion of the poultry interests of the state. This act shall be liberally construed to the end that the station hereby established may at all times contribute to the technical and general knowledge of the public upon the subject of poultry husbandry.

§ 3. The said station shall be under the supervision of the director of the agricultural experiment stations of the state of California, who shall, from time to time, cause to be issued bulletins of information regarding the care of poultry.

§ 4. Within thirty days after the passage of this act the governor shall appoint three persons, two of whom shall be from the staff of professors in the agricultural department of the University of California, and one a practical poultry raiser, which said persons shall constitute a board or commission to select and secure a site of not less than five acres for such poultry experiment station. Such board shall have full power to secure such site, by lease, purchase, or donation thereof, and shall proceed to the performance of the duties herein imposed within thirty days after receiving notice of their appointment.

§ 5. All moneys appropriated for the use of the station hereby established shall be under the control of the regents of the University of California.

§ 6. The sum of five thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for securing the necessary site, and for equipping and maintaining said California poultry experiment station as provided by this act. Of the amount herein appropriated, the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars shall be available during the fiscal year nineteen hundred three and nineteen hundred four, and two thousand five hundred dollars shall be available during the fiscal year nineteen hundred four and nineteen hundred five.

§ 7. The state controller is hereby authorized to draw his warrants for the sum herein appropriated in favor of the treasurer of the regents of the University of California, and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same.

§ 8. This act shall take effect immediately.

PRESTON SCHOOL OF INDUSTRY.

To establish a school of industry, to provide for the maintenance and management of the same, and to make an appropriation therefor.

(Stats. 1889, 100, ch. CIII; amended 1893, 39, ch. XXII.)

§ 1. There shall be established at or within a convenient distance from Ione City, in the county of Amador, in said state, an educational institution to be designated as the Preston school of industry.

§ 2. The sum of one hundred and sixty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of purchasing and preparing grounds for the erection of buildings thereon, for the purchase of the necessary furniture, machinery and supplies, and for the payment of the current expenses of said school.

§ 3. The general government and supervision of said school shall be vested in a board of trustees consisting of three citizens of the state of California, who shall be appointed by the governor. The members of said board shall hold their offices for the respective terms of two, three and four years, from the first day of July, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, and until their successors shall be appointed and qualified, said respective terms to be designated in their appointments; and thereafter, upon the expiration of such terms, there shall be one of said board appointed, whose term of office shall be continued four years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. Said trustees, before entering on the discharge of the duties of their office, shall each take an oath faithfully to discharge the same. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 39.]

§ 4. The board shall, with all convenient dispatch, select and establish a site at some suitable place in said county for said institution, and procure the right of way for suitable drainage; said site to contain not less than one hundred acres nor more than three hundred acres of land, to have water facilities sufficient for the uses of said school, and for power in operating machinery; the land to be of a quality suitable for general farming purposes, and adapted to the cultivation of vines and fruit trees. The land so set apart by said purchase shall hereafter be used exclusively for the occupancy and purposes of said school. It shall be indicated by fixed corners and definite boundaries. A description thereof, together with the deed therefor, shall be filed with the secretary of state at his office within thirty days after the purchase of the same.

§ 5. Thereafter the board shall cause to be prepared and shall adopt plans for the grounds, buildings, and fixtures necessary for such an institution, of such form, dimensions, and style as to it shall seem best adapted to the purposes thereof. In the preparation of such plans, and in the construction of the buildings, it may employ a competent architect at a reasonable compensation.

§ 6. No member of the board or employee of the institution shall be interested in any contract or enterprise in connection with said school. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 39.]

§ 7. This act shall be construed as the sole and exclusive act on the subject-matter contained herein, unless specially or otherwise herein provided; and none of the provisions of an act entitled "An act to regulate contracts on behalf of the state in relation to erections of buildings," approved March twenty-third, eighteen hundred and seventy-six, or any other act, unless herein specially referred to, shall apply to or govern or limit this act, or any of the powers or duties in this act conferred upon said board.

§ 8. Nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as to permit any convict or convicts, undergoing sentence in either of the state prisons of California, to associate with, or be so employed as to mingle with, any person or persons undergoing commitment in the said school.

§ 9. The said school shall be conducted on such plan as to the board may seem best calculated to carry out the intentions of this act, and its inmates shall be subject to military discipline, including daily drill. They shall be clothed in military uniform of such pattern and material as may be prescribed by the board, but under no circumstances shall such inmates be clothed in convict stripes while undergoing commitment in said school. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 39.]

§ 10. The members of the board shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed their reasonable expenses incurred while in the discharge of their official duties. The superintendent shall receive a salary, to be fixed by the board, not to exceed three thousand dollars per annum. The military instructor shall receive a salary, to be fixed by the board, not to exceed twelve hundred dollars per annum. The secretary and commissary shall each receive a salary, to be fixed by the board, not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars per annum. The salary of no other officer or employee of the school shall exceed twelve hundred dollars per annum. The power of the board to fix the compensation of the officers and employees, as provided in section twelve of this act, shall be subject to these limitations. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 39.]

§ 11. The board shall elect a superintendent, a military inspector, and a secretary. The superintendent and secretary shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of their duties as the board shall determine. The bond of the superintendent shall be for a sum of not less than ten thousand dollars, and that of the secretary of not less than five thousand dollars. The military instructor must be a man who is a good disciplinarian, and skilled in military tactics. He shall receive from the governor a commission, with the rank of major. He shall perform such duties and receive such salary as the board may prescribe. The board shall meet once in three months for the transaction of business. Special meetings may be called by the president when deemed necessary.

§ 12. The board shall cause to be organized and maintained a department of instruction for the inmates of said school, with a course of study corresponding, as far as practicable, with the course of study in the public schools of this state, but the course shall not be higher than the course prescribed in grammar schools. They shall adopt a system of government, embracing such laws and regulations as are necessary for the guidance of the officers and employees, for the regulation of the hours of study and labor, for the preservation of order, for the enforcement of discipline and military training, for the preservation of health, and for the industrial training of the inmates. The ultimate purpose of all such instruction, discipline, and industries shall be to qualify the inmates for honorable and profitable employment after their release from the institution, rather than to make said institution self-sustaining. The board shall also determine the number of officers and employees required, and shall prescribe their duties and fix the amount of their compensation.

§ 13. The superintendent, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, shall make and file with the board an oath that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of his office. Thereupon he shall, subject to the regulations prescribed by the board, be invested with the custody of the lands, buildings, and all other property belonging to and under the control of the said institution. He shall receive for his services a salary not exceeding the sum of three thousand dollars per annum. He shall appoint, except as hereinbefore provided, all officers and employees of said institution, who shall hold office during his pleasure. He shall provide a book in which shall be registered the name, residence, occupation, and religious creed of every boy received into the school; the date of his reception, and the date and condition of his discharge; the names, residence, and occupation of his parents; whether the boy was apprenticed or not, and if so apprenticed, the name, residence, and occupation of the person to whom he was apprenticed. He shall have charge of all persons committed to the institution by any magistrate or court, shall use his best efforts to employ, instruct, discipline, and reform all such persons under his charge, and shall discharge such other duties as the said board may direct, and shall at all times be subject to removal by the board for incapacity, immorality, negligence of duty, or cruelty to the inmates.

§ 15. When any boy under the age of eighteen years shall be found guilty, by a magistrate or court of competent jurisdiction, of any offense punishable by fine or by imprisonment, or by both, and who, in the opinion of such magistrate or court, would be a fit subject for commitment to the said school, it shall be lawful for the magistrate or court to suspend judgment or sentence (except when the penalty is life imprisonment or death), and to commit such boy to the said school for a period not exceeding the time when he shall attain his twenty-first birthday, unless sooner discharged by law, or as in this act provided; but no boy who is under the age of eight years, or who is of unsound mind, shall be committed to the said school. The board shall have authority to make rules reducing, as the reward for good conduct, the time for which such person or persons have been committed. It shall be the duty of all courts and magistrates committing any boy to such school to certify to the superintendent thereof the age of the person so committed as nearly as can be ascertained by testimony taken under oath before such court or magistrate, or in such manner as the court or magistrate may direct.

§ 16. Before any commitment, made by a police court, or by a justice of the peace, under this act, shall be executed, it shall be approved by a judge of the superior court of the county in which the police court or justice of the peace has jurisdiction, and his approval indorsed on the warrant of commitment. But if such sentence shall be disapproved, the police court or justice of the peace shall then impose the ordinary sentence prescribed by law.

§ 17. It shall be lawful for the board, whenever it may deem any inmate of said institution to have been so far reformed as to justify his discharge, to give him an honorable dismissal, and to cause an entry of the reasons for such dismissal to be made in the book of records prepared for that purpose. All persons thus honorably dismissed, and all those who shall have served the full term of their respective sentences, shall thereafter be released from all penalties and disabilities resulting from the offenses or crimes for which they were committed. Upon the final discharge of any inmate as in this section provided, the superintendent shall immediately certify such discharge in writing, and shall transmit the certificate to the magistrate or court by which such inmate or boy was committed. Said magistrate or court shall thereupon dismiss the accusation and the action pending against said person.

§ 18. The board shall have authority also to issue certificates of conditional dismissal and parole to any worthy boy confined in the institution, on the following conditions: It may bind such boy, by articles of indenture, to any suitable person, who will engage to educate him, and to instruct him in some useful art or trade, or it may return him to his parents, or it may place him under the care of any reputable person who is a citizen and a resident of this state, after such person, parent, guardian, or resident citizen shall have become bound to the said board, with good and sufficient sureties, conditioned on the proper custody, care, education, and moral and industrial training of the said paroled boy. The time of such conditional release shall be made subject to good behavior and continued reformation on the part of the person thus paroled. Any boy who violates his parole, or who becomes habitually disobedient and incorrigible, may be returned to the said school to serve the unexpired term of his sentence, on complaint of his guardian and the written requisition of the superintendent of the said school, and if received from either of the state prisons may be returned to the same. Every paroled boy who properly observes and obeys the condition of his parole until the date of the expiration of his time of commitment shall be entitled to all the benefits and immunities in this act provided.

§ 19. Any boy who shall, during the time of his commitment, be found incorrigible, or who shall be an improper subject for detention in said school, may be returned to the magistrate or court by which said boy was committed; and upon written complaint of the board, attested by the superintendent and filed with the original complaint, it shall be lawful for said court or magistrate to enter judgment and pass such sentence as would have been lawful at the time when the offender was first committed to the said school, and if committed from either of the state prisons may be returned to the prison whence received to serve out his unexpired term.

§ 20. Any boy under the age of eighteen years, who is undergoing sentence in any state prison in this state (except such as are undergoing a life sentence), and who shall be deemed a fit subject for training in the said school, may, upon recommendation of the state board of prison directors, with the approval of the governor, be transferred to said school for the unexpired period of his sentence, and when honorably discharged from said school, as hereinbefore provided, shall be entitled to such benefits and immunities as are provided for the other inmates of the institution.

§ 21. Any person who knowingly permits or who aids any boy to escape from the said school, or who knowingly promotes his departure, or conceals him with the intent of enabling such escaped boy to elude pursuit, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be punished according to law. Any fugitive from said institution, or from the parties to whom he is bound out or apprenticed, may be arrested and returned to the institution by any person upon written request or order of the superintendent directed to such person.

§ 22. The board of trustees are hereby authorized and required to contract for provisions, clothing, medicines, forage, fuel, and other staple supplies of the school for any period of time not exceeding one year, and such contracts shall be limited to bona fide dealers in the several classes of articles contracted for. Contracts for such articles as the board may desire to contract for shall be given to the lowest bidder at a public letting thereof, and if the price bid is a fair and reasonable one, and not greater than the usual market value and prices. Each bid shall be accompanied by such security as the board may require, conditioned upon the bidder entering into a contract upon the terms of his bid, on notice of the acceptance thereof, and furnishing a bond, with good and sufficient sureties, in such sum as the board may require, and to their satisfaction, that he will faithfully perform his contract. If the proper officer reject any article as not complying with the contract, or if a bidder fail to furnish the articles awarded to him when required, the proper officer of the school may buy other articles of the kind rejected or called for, in the open market, and deduct the price thereof over the contract price from the amount due to the bidder, or charge the same up against him. Notice of the time, place, and conditions of the letting of contracts shall be given for at least two consecutive weeks in one newspaper printed and published in the city and county of San Francisco, in one newspaper printed and published in the city of Sacramento, and in one newspaper printed and published in the county of Amador. If all bids made at such letting are deemed unreasonably high, the board may, in their discretion, decline to contract, and may again advertise for such time and in such papers as they see proper for proposals, and may so continue to renew the advertisement until satisfactory contracts are made; and in the meantime the board may contract with any one whose offer is regarded just and equitable, or may purchase in the open market. No bid shall be accepted, nor a contract entered into in pursuance thereof, when such bid is higher than any other bid at the same letting for the same class or schedule of articles, quality considered, and when a contract can be had at such lower bid. When two or more bids for the same article or articles are equal in amount, the board may select the one which, all things considered, may by them be thought best for the interest of the state, or they may divide the contract between the bidders, as in their judgment may seem proper and right. The board shall have power to let a contract in the aggregate, or they may segregate the items and enter into a contract with the bidder or bidders who may bid lowest on the several articles. The board shall have the power to reject the bid of any person who had a prior contract, and who had not in the option of the board faithfully complied therewith. [Amendment, Stats. 1893, 39.]

§ 23. When the premises are ready for occupancy, the board shall certify such fact to the governor, who shall make due proclamation thereof. Thereafter, it shall be lawful for any competent magistrate or court to commit juvenile offenders to the institution, as herein provided.

§ 24. The controller of state is hereby authorized and directed, on requisition of the said board, to draw his warrant on the state treasurer in favor of said board, to pay for the necessary expenditures in the establishment and maintenance of the said school, and the state treasurer is authorized to pay the same from the appropriations provided for in this act.

§ 25. For the purpose of giving practical effect to the provisions of this act, all laws or parts of laws which conflict with the provisions hereof are, for the purposes of this act only, suspended, and hereby made inapplicable to any boy committed to and in the custody of said school.

§ 26. In all proceedings relating to commitments under this act, the fees and compensation of the sheriff and other officers of the court shall be such as are allowed by law for like proceedings and services in criminal cases.
